HOME TOWN Talk

By R. C. THOMAS

If one uses a particular word in connection with certain and definite ideas or objects long enough, the word eventually becomes divorced from all other meaning and is stereotyped in the mind as meaning only one thing. Take the word "blizzard," for instance. "Blizzards" has long been the name of groups of students from Winters High School—but particularly groups who participate in competitive sports events, and even more particularly, in football. The word has been so steeped in usage to identify these teams that to many there is no other meaning. When we see, for example, headlines in the papers stating that "Blizzards Sweep Northern States," we automatically let our minds pick up the phrase and toy with it—we identify it with the football, or basketball or track teams. Try it some time, and you'll find this is more common than not.

Therefore, it was not unusual a few days ago for us to immediately get the idea that the football game this Saturday night between the Winters High School team and the Lake View team was getting an unusual amount of publicity, especially for a first-of-the-season game, and a non-conference contest to boot. The thought-director was in the form of an ad in the San Angelo Standard-Times: "A Blizzard Is Coming To San Angelo!"—Immediately and without second thought, we figured someone was ballyhooing Saturday's game... because after several years of being Blizzard-conscious, there could be nothing else which could be identified in that manner. You can imagine the momentary astonishment when the fact finally soaked in that that ad was talking about some pride and joy of the Winters football field. We'll bet the ad served an extra purpose, though; because of the circumstances of the upcoming game in San Angelo, we'll bet a number of people were reminded of the game Saturday night.

Still talking about football, fans may be interested in the information that the Baylor-Syracuse game this Saturday afternoon will be on national television, in color yet. The game will be played in Waco. Too, they may be interested in knowing that the Bears' quarterback will be Terry Southall, son of Brownwood's Coach Morris Southall, who coached some pretty good teams of Blizzards several years ago. Because of his past performance, and expectations of outstanding action on the field this season, QB Southall probably will be a front-runner in the nominations for All-American this year.

Use of the ZIP code in addressing mail may be, to many, a kind of nuisance. But in some instances, if used properly, it could get the mail to the correct address, because of the similarity of names of towns.

Texas has two towns with the same name... or at least names with the same meaning. Sundown and Sunset. Sundown is out in West Texas, in Hockley County; Sunset is in North Texas.

Webster's says that "sunset" is the "apparent descent of the sun below the horizon." Webster's also says that "sundown" is "sunset," period.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Holloway recently moved from Winters to North Texas; their address is Sunset; Mr. and Mrs. Dot White recently moved to West Texas—to Sundown.

We may all gnash our teeth over the trend which sees numbers being applied to everything and everybody; the idea takes away all individualism and separateness. But in the case of Sundown, Texas, and Sunset, Texas, it would seem that the idea of an identifying number is justified.

Speaking of the ZIP code, this would be a good time to remind everyone who subscribes to The Enterprise—outside the county—that beginning January 1, 1967, all addresses must contain the ZIP number. So it would be appreciated if subscribers would include their ZIP number when sending in renewals; you may get your paper earlier. And some cities have several ZIP's.

Industrial Clinic Slated Here September 23rd

How to help existing local industry, attract additional industry, plan for economic growth, and to recognize problems and work to overcome them, will be discussed in a special all-day program sponsored by the Winters Chamber of Commerce Friday, September 23.

Several representatives of the Texas Industrial Development Commission, and of private companies will be on hand and take part in the seminar, called an "Economic Development Clinic," which will begin with a tour of the city and possible industrial sites, and end with open discussion periods with local business leaders taking part.

Larry S. Milner, industrial development consultant with the Texas Industrial Commission, met with a group of Chamber of Commerce directors Tuesday to map plans for the clinic. He told the group several representatives of the State commission and private companies will be on hand to study the local situation and make suggestions regarding development. He said the same type of clinic in Coleman had attracted 45 interested businessmen, and a clinic in Cameron was attended by 150 interested persons.

Different phases of an economic development program for Winters will be discussed by experts in several fields. They include Harry W. Clark, executive director of the Texas Industrial Commission, James Bradley of Texas A. and M. University; Don Raburn and Larry S. Milner, industrial development consultants with the Industrial Commission, James Covell, director of Area Development of General Telephone; Bill Sayles, West Texas Utilities; James Swann, assistant director of export expansion board of the Industrial Development Commission, and others. The board of directors of the Winters Chamber of Commerce is urging all businessmen and other interested persons who are working for the economic development of the Winters community to make plans to attend the Economic Development Clinic. They have pointed out the importance of "working now to recognize some of the many problems of future development of Winters, and to insure continued healthy and prosperous growth."

The program will begin with a tour of the city beginning at 8:45 and lasting until 9:45. The tour will include present industrial complexes, and on-the-ground inspection of possible industrial sites. At 10 a. m., the formal program will begin at the City Hall. At this meeting, the visiting specialists will discuss possible answers to economic problems as seen in Winters. This part of the program will last until about 12:30, with a luncheon scheduled at Huffman Hall at 12:45. A speaker will make a presentation during the luncheon. At 2 p. m., the program will continue at the City Hall, with a question and answer and problems session to be held from 3:15 to 3:45.

The Texas Industrial Commission, the state's industrial development agency, has been working toward further economic growth in Texas since September of 1959. The Commission, with offices located in Austin, works closely with local economic development groups helping them attract new payrolls. The Commission serves as a salesman for Texas on a nationwide basis by sponsoring an advertising program designed to attract the attention of plant location decision makers. The Commission works closely with any industry seeking a location

Council Studying Plans For City Farm Re-Working

Two Soil Conservation Service engineers last week presented to the Winters City Council plans for a proposed re-working of the city farm. The Council is studying the proposal, which could be financed through an SCS grant if approved.

Woodrow Hoffman of the Ballinger office of the SCS, and Bill Evans, district engineer out of the San Angelo office, presented the plans to the council at a meeting last Thursday night.

Proposed was a large reservoir to be built at the city farm, large enough to hold three and one-half days of sewage water. From this reservoir, 15-inch pipes would circle the farm, and be used for irrigation purposes.

In addition, the proposal calls for re-building some of the lagoons, clearing brush from the farm land, leveling land, and re-running terraces.

Highway 67 Work Contract Is Let

A contract for 31,404 miles on U. S. Highway 67 in Runnels and Tom Green County has been awarded to an Arlington firm, it has been announced in Austin this week by the State Highway Commission.

Big State Construction Co. of Arlington submitted the low bid of $84,444.37 on the project. Landscape planting is expected to take 90 working days, according to J. A. Snell, District Highway Engineer at San Angelo.

J. R. Evans, resident engineer at San Angelo, will be in active charge of the project while it is under construction.

WEEK END VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Hayes Barker of Fort Worth, Mrs. M. A. (Jack) Barker and Tom of San Diego, California were weekend visitors with Mrs. Elo Michaels, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kruse Jr.

Booster Club To See Movie Of Lake View Tilt

A film of the Winters-Lake View football game, to be played in San Angelo Saturday night, will be shown at a meeting of the Winters Booster Club at the City Hall Monday night at 8 p. m.

The Booster Club is now conducting a membership campaign, and making plans for the athletic events which will be conducted during the 1966-67 school year. Joe Baker is president of the organization, and Loyo Gilbert, secretary-treasurer.

Funds obtained through sale of memberships is used to pay half the cost of the film used to take movies of all football games by the Winters High School Blizzards. Members of the organization also operate the movie camera at all football games. The organization also finances the all-sports banquet which will be held later in the school year, and furnish miscellaneous medical supplies used by athletic teams at the school.

All members of the Booster Club, and prospective members, are urged to attend the meetings on Monday nights.

Water Clarifier Almost Completed

Winters' new water clarifier (settling basin) is almost completed, with only a few pipe fittings and special pumps yet to be installed. Mayor W. M. Hays said this week.

The mayor said it was hoped that the basin would be ready to be "put on the line" within the next couple of weeks, but completion by the contractors hinges on receipt of the special fittings and pumps. There is no way to estimate just when this equipment will be received, he said.

The giant settling basin, which was started this summer, will provide much more settling time for the city's water before it is pumped into the main lines, it was stated. During high-peak consumption during the summer months, with the present settling basin, water from the city's lake is allowed to settle only about two hours. With the new 90-foot diameter, 18-foot deep settling basin, the water will be allowed to settle for upwards of 14 hours before being pumped into the distribution system.

The City Council is planning an open house when the new basin is put into use. The date for that affair has not been set, because of the uncertainty of the date of completion.

IN SHUFFIELD HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Lois Williams of Lockney were Labor Day visitors in the George Shuffield home.

IN BOLES HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Roneal Boles and twin sons, Kevin and Keith, of San Antonio, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Boles, last week.

Blizzards Open Season With Lake View Saturday

AIDING WTRC—Rex Allen, widely known star of television, movies and western music records, who has "adopted" the West Texas Rehabilitation Center's Cattleman's Round-Up For Crippled Children as his special project, has filmed a television program telling the story of the Center, which currently is having financial difficulties. It will be shown Sunday, Sept. 11, at the Ranchers and Farmers Livestock Auction in Abilene.

Livestock Assn. Makes Plans For October Barbecue

The annual membership barbecue for the Winters Livestock & Agricultural Association will be held October 17. This announcement was made following a meeting of the Association Tuesday night of this week.

The barbecue is for members of the Association, and is included in the price of the membership tickets. A membership drive is now being conducted by the organization.

The Livestock & Agricultural Association annually sponsors the junior livestock show for members of the Future Farmers of America and area 4-H Clubs. This year's show will be held January 7.

Pat Pritchard is president of the LAA, and F. R. Anderson, secretary-treasurer.

TO OAK CREEK

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Scott Jr., Sam and Rickey, Capt. and Mrs. Winford Hogan and Boyd, Lt. and Mrs. Max Tidmore and George and Randy Scott spent the week end at Oak Creek Lake.

Martha Ann Joyce In Peace Corps, To Ethiopia

Martha Ann Joyce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Joyce of Winters, has been named a Peace Corps Volunteer after completing 12 weeks of training at Educational Services, Inc., in Watertown, Mass.

Miss Joyce is one of 72 Volunteers trained at Educational Services this summer to replace Peace Corps secondary and university teachers in Ethiopia. The group, scheduled to leave for their assignments Sept. 19, will teach in secondary schools throughout the country and at the Haile Sellassie University in Addis Ababa.

With this group's arrival there will be about 370 Volunteers in Ethiopia. Other Peace Corps projects there include public works, health, and educational programs.

Miss Joyce is an honor graduate of Coleman High School, and also graduated with honors from McMurry College, where she received her bachelor of science degree in math and chemistry.

Before leaving for her assignment in Ethiopia, Miss Joyce will visit her parents in Winters.

During their training at Educational Services, the new Volunteers studied Amharic, Ethiopian history and culture, U. S. history and world affairs. The technical studies emphasized teaching methods and skills as applied to the Ethiopian school system.

IN RICE HOME

Recent visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rice and Charles Wayne were Mrs. Clarence McLaughlin and Lenda, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Lancaster and Janie, of Ada, Okla.; Mrs. Lizzie Puffer of Caddo, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Miles Caudle, Jimmy, Joe David and Jana Kay, of Muleshoe; Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Shores, Dexton and Delford of Brownwood; and Mrs. E. J. Reid of Moro.

ATTENDED FUNERAL

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hodges attended the funeral of her brother-in-law, E. A. Knight, 65, who died of a heart attack Friday. Burial was at Necessity, Texas.

IN CENTRAL TEXAS

Mrs. Agnes Lawrence and daughter, Myrna, spent last weekend visiting in Johnson City, Austin, New Braunfels, San Antonio, Fredericksburg, San Marcus, and Buchanan Dam.

The Winters High School Blizzards pry the lid off the 1966 football season Saturday night, with a pre-conference bout with the Lake View Chiefs. The game will be played in Lake View Stadium in San Angelo, with kickoff at 8 p. m.

After three weeks of pre-season training, the Blizzards will begin their first football game somewhat hampered by absence of several players because of illness or light injuries. Coach L. G. Wilson said, Alvin Dunn, returning letterman who was scheduled to pilot the squad from the quarterback position, will be out of the first game because of a twisted ankle. He may be returned to the starting lineup for the Coleman game on the following Friday night, however.

Donald Wade, linebacker, also will be out of the opener because of a slight knee injury, it was said. Also, Jerry Awalt, fullback, will be out of the lineup this week because of tonsillitis. Walter Morrow, expected to be seen a lot on the football field this season, also is a doubtful for this Saturday because of an eye injury, the coach said.

These vacancies in the Blizzards lineup will force a somewhat green team into play for its first game, but the coach explained this situation has been faced before, and the evidence of desire and "scrap" will probably make up for the inexperience.

In the past two years, wins have been divided between the two teams. In 1964, the Blizzards dropped their opener to Lake View 6-7; but then they came back to freeze the San Angelo team 36-0 on Blizzards in 1965.

Lake View, described this year as a tough Class AAA team, will field a squad of veterans, with eight offensive starting returnees, and seven returning starters on defense. Their regular quarterback last year, Larry George, will be facing the Blizzards this first game. And a fast fullback, Robert Morse, all 200 pounds, will be an opponent for the Big Blue to whittle on.

A lineman, new to the game but with a string of track records behind him, will pose a nassing attack threat. Rocky Woods won some high spots in State high jump, high and low hurdles, competition last spring, setting some new State records on the track. This 180-pounder will probably be in the wingback spot for Lake View.

Fagen Mullins, who was at Anson for several years, is mentor for the Chiefs, working his second year.

Blizzard co-captains for the Lake View contest will be Skippy Sheppard and Terry Rives.

For this season opener, Coach Wilson probably will make the following starting assignments:

OFFENSE
End—Johnny Powers, Terry Rives
Tackle — Danny Killough, Lanny Bahlman
Guard—Skippy Sheppard and Larry Donica or Allen Andrea.
Center—Sam Scott.
QB—Fred Wilder.
FB—Alfonso Esquivel.
HB—Randy Boles, Ronny Gray.

DEFENSE
Ends—Sam Scott or John Sims and Danny Killough.
Tackles — Skippy Sheppard, Jimmy Vaughan.
Linebackers— Steve Smith, Larry Pritchard.
Corner LB—Terry Rives and Walter Morrow or George Mostad.
HB— Fred Wilder, Randy Boles.
Safety—Ronny Gray.

IN KRUSE HOME
Week end visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Kruse were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Secest and children and Stanley Cromer of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Joyce Lucas and children of Midland, Mrs. Francis Schippich and Ingrid of McGregor, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Kruse and children.

IN SANDERS HOME
Labor Day visitors in the home of Mrs. J. S. Sanders were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gideon of El Paso, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Anthony of Garland, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Gene Gresham, Jim and Richard of Edmondson, Mrs. Bruce Pearce and Mae Sanders of San Angelo.

History of the Wingate Methodist Church

(The Wingate Methodist Church will be dedicated during special services Sunday evening Sept. 18, with Bishop W. Kenneth Pope of the Dallas-Ft. Worth area as principal speaker. A history of the church has been prepared by the Rev. Roy Crawford, retired Methodist minister. The history follows:)

By Roy L. Crawford

The exact date of the official organization of the Methodist congregation at Wingate cannot be determined from the records available today. Some time between 1891 and 1898 would be a fairly accurate guess. There is a revised roll which shows that Mrs. Matilda Cathey united in 1893.

The first time the Wingate church appears on any records at hand now is the appointment of Rev. J. W. Bowden to the Winters Circuit in November, 1898.

Rev. Mr. Bowden, who served as a supply pastor for over 50 years published an autobiography in his later years. In this he wrote: "I was appointed to Winters to serve all the territory north of Ballinger in Runnels County to the Taylor County line." He lists the Wingate church as one of his preaching places.

minutes of January 21, 1899, records that a resolution was passed to build a house of worship at Wingate. Deeds recorded in the county records at Ballinger were executed and signed on October 11, 1899, transferring a plot from G. G. Odom to G. W. Cathey, J. E. Roter and J. E. Hendry, trustees, for building a house of worship for the Methodist Church.

At the quarterly conference on November 8, 1899, the trustees of the Wingate church reported a church building nearing completion, valued at $800.00 and "an organ subscribed to be put in the house as soon as ready for use."

The building was formally dedicated on September 29, 1901. Rev. W. H. Matthews, presiding elder of the Brownwood district, preached the dedicatory sermon from the text in Psalm 37. "And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgment as the noonday. Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for him: fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass." Rev. C. H. Smith was pastor and there were 59 members.

The quarterly conference in November, 1901, Wingate was taken off the Winters Circuit and became the head of the Wingate Circuit. Rev. Eugene T. Bates was appointed pastor and served two years. His other preaching places were Springcreek, New Hope (Pumphrey), Decker, Dora and Hylton.

At the quarterly conference on December 17, 1901, the trustees were authorized to sell the parsonage at Hylton "and invest the money from the sale in building a parsonage at Wingate." On September 20, 1902, the trustees reported that the Hylton parsonage had been sold for $100.00.

During the years the Wingate Methodist Church has had four church buildings and several parsonages. The new building to be dedicated by Bishop Kenneth Pope on September 18 was purchased from the Wingate school in October, 1965, and paid out free of indebtedness in May, 1966. Rev. Robert W. Walker was pastor of Winters and Wingate when the purchase was made.

The building was originally a homemaking cottage of the Wingate Public School and has been remodeled for church purposes. It has a sanctuary, fellowship hall, kitchen, rest rooms, and educational space. It has a campanile 25 feet in height and topped with a cross. It is located on the corner of a large lot with trees and a lawn.

The membership today is 48. The trustees who consummated the purchase and remodeling were Jack Patton, Mrs. J. W. Dunn and W. L. Burns, since deceased. Other members of the official board are: Jim King, Neill Bagwell, L. R. Hancock, Mrs. Jim King, Mrs. Ike Phillips, Mrs. E. M. Pritchard, and Claude Oden.

Wingate Methodist Church serves the Methodists of the small town of Wingate and a wide ranch area. There are a bank, school, several business houses in this small progressive community.

Since 1963 the Wingate church has been a part of the greater parish and under the care of the pastor at Winters.

The pastors who served Wingate before 1898 cannot be determined for sure, but there is sufficient evidence to indicate that it was on the Ballinger Mission and later the Winters Circuit. It could well have had the pastors of those appointments, as follows:

1890—George D. Wilson
1891—W. S. P. McCullough
1892—R. B. Bonner
1893—M. D. Price
1894—W. Lee Airhart
1895—G. E. Sandel
1896—Marion Mills
Pastors known to have served the church and date of appointment are as follows:
1898—J. W. Bowden

Roger Babson Says—

Americans Riding Crest Of World's Biggest Wave of Prosperity

Babson Park, Mass. Although there are some clouds on the horizon, right now we Americans are riding the crest of the biggest wave of prosperity ever enjoyed by any people in the history of the world. Today more Americans are better fed, better dressed, better educated, and more financially independent than ever before.

Consumer Balance Sheet

At recent date the total assets of Americans were estimated at a whopping $2,245 billion. Roughly two-thirds of this amount consisted of current assets, including $651 billion in corporate stocks and bonds. Fixed assets comprised the remaining one-third, and of these more than $500 billion represented investments in home ownership.

On the debit side, the total liabilities of Americans were estimated to be $280 billion. These included current liabilities of $82 billion and mortgage debt of $198 billion. Subtracting these total liabilities from total assets leaves us with $1,965 billion. This is the net worth of American consumers.

Climbing Personal Income

Of course, such a favorable consumer balance sheet could not be drawn up if it were not for the fact that we have been able to achieve such a rapid rise in personal income over the past several years. Personal income just recently was at an annual rate of $579.7 billion. Ten years ago, it was at an annual rate of $332.2 billion, giving us an increase for the decade of an astounding 74.5 percent.

The rise in income reflects the growth which has taken place in the economy. There has been a tremendous advance in number of people employed and in total of salaries and wages. But there has also been a sizable increase in interest and dividend payments because of the larger sums invested and the generally higher rates of return now prevailing. In addition, there has been a big boost in government payments for veterans' aid, pensions, social security, and medicare.

High-Cost Economy

The asset-to-debt position of consumers as a whole looks so encouraging on paper it tends to make us overlook the fact that installment credit outstanding is also at record dollar levels. The income picture, too, looks fine, — but it tends to

DRESSED IN TATTERS, a South Vietnamese boy takes time for a cigarette. The sight is evidence that war makes growing up a rapid process.

Annual Drasco Homecoming At Abilene Park

The eighth annual Drasco Homecoming was held Labor Day at Abilene State Park with 68 signing the register.

The morning was spent visiting and greeting old friends and with games of dominoes and 42. Soft drinks were served throughout the day. At noon the invocation was given by the Rev. Roy Crawford, retired Methodist minister of Winters.

The afternoon session was called to order by the president, J. C. Massengale of Lubbock, and Elmo Mayhew led the group in singing "This is My Father's World," followed with prayer by Lonnie Collingsworth of Lubbock.

Mrs. P. F. Lail of Abilene read letters from Mrs. Maurice Johnson and Miss Sue Mann, former school teachers of Drasco.

Mrs. Roy Crawford of Winters sang a solo, "How Great Thou Art." Jerry Lee Dobbins of Irving, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Dobbins, was recognized as celebrating his birthday.

Speakers for the afternoon were the Rev. W. I. Taylor, Drasco Baptist minister, the Rev. Roy Crawford, Winters, and the Rev. Albert Baker, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Gorman.

Gifts were presented to the eldest person, Mrs. Beulah Partlow, who was 88; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Dobbins, a gift for traveling the farthest; Mrs. P. C. Davis, Winters, for the largest family present; Mrs. M. L. Dobbins, the youngest grandmother; Brit Boyd of Kermit, grandson of Dick Partlow, as the youngest present. Elmo Mayhew of Winters received a gift for residing in Drasco the longest; Lonnie Collingsworth received a painting from Mrs. Lail for guessing the correct number.

The chairman of the committee on nominations, Joe Baker of Winters, presented the names of officers for 1967. They include M. L. Dobbins, president; J. C. Belew, Wingate, vice president; and Mrs. M. L. Dobbins, secretary-treasurer.

The secretary read the names of those who had died during the past year, and there was a moment of silence in their honor. They included Travis Wood, E. W. Patterson, Albert Sykes, Cal Mostad, Mrs. John Latham, formerly Maggie Kelley, Mrs. Walter Neely, Andrew Hardy, Vestus Pruitt, Frank Simpson, Mrs. A. B. Foster, Mrs. Stella Duke and Mrs. Barnev Green.

The meeting was dismissed with prayer by the Rev. Albert Baker of Gorman.

Those registering were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hudgens, Adairville; Mrs. Herman Vinson, Mrs. Mary Lewis, Boyd Carter, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Peterson of Tuscola; Mrs. Ida Stafford, Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Lail, Mrs. Myrtle Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. John King, Mrs. Beulah Partlow, Dick Partlow, Shelby Horn, Martin Cooke, all of Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Massengale, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Collingsworth of Lubbock.

Also, Mr. and Mrs. Tom L. Massengale, Killeen, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hurt, Plainview; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Mills, Sweetwater; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Witt, Ballinger; Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Scott, Craig and Melinda of Midland; Mrs. Ernest Scott of Big Spring; Brit Boyd of Kermit; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Dobbins and Bruce, Irving; Clay Melver, Jesse Davis, Ovalo; Rev. W. I. Taylor, Tudor Varnidor, Buffalo Gap; Rev. S. A. Baker of Gorman.

Those attending from Winters were W. G. Daniels, Mike Lee, Carrie Lee, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Abbott Sr., John Hardy, Mrs. P. C. Davis, Mrs. E. H. Baker, C. C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo

The Things We Say

By RUBY SHANNON

One often hears of a strong young man being called a "young buck."

In reading the history of Oklahoma, I find that a strong, active Indian boy was also described as a "young buck."

Young boys have long been called "young bucks" by de-spiring mothers when they acted like young colts in a pasture.

The expression stems from the time when deer were plentiful and could be seen frequently tossing their antlers and showing their strength to attract the does. A young buck then was any young male showing off for the approval of the opposite sex.

INSURANCE AGENCY

Don't be too eager to make a fast buck, — in or out of the stock market. Most people simply do not possess sufficient training, experience, time, and — or patience to make a success of trading in the stock market. When you decide to invest your hard-earned cash in securities, make sure you buy into sound, growing industries and companies. If you do this, time and the expansion of the economy over the years will work in your favor. And don't forget that our net worth as individuals is not measured in value of tangible assets alone. It is measured also in terms of the value of our intangible assets, — such as integrity, prudence, intelligence, imagination, . . . and perseverance once we have chosen our goals.

MRS. JAMES C. GIBSON

Ruby Joann Turk and James C. Gibson Repeat Vows At Lutheran Church

Marriage vows were repeated Saturday at St. John's Lutheran Church at 6:30 o'clock in the evening when Miss Ruby Joann Turk became the bride of James C. Gibson of Lubbock. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Turk of Winters and Mrs. J. T. Gibson of Lubbock.

The Rev. Walter C. Probst, pastor of the church, officiated for the double ring ceremony, before the altar decorated with white mums in brass containers. Forming the background were candelabras holding white tapers and baskets of white gladiolas on either side. An arrangement of white mums was on the organ and pews were marked with white satin bows.

Traditional wedding music was played by Miss Emma Heninger who also accompanied Mrs. W. F. Minzenmayer to sing "Whither Thou Goest," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Candlelighters were Ricky Minzenmayer of Winters, cousin of the bride, and Johnny Alexander, of Lubbock, nephew of the groom. Flower girl was Ann Minzenmayer, of Winters, cousin of the bride and Tommy Alexander, of Lubbock, cousin of the groom, was ring bearer. Don Gibson of Lubbock served his brother as best man.

Groomsman was Norman Beauchamp of Morton and ushers were Charles Gates of Winters, and Roy Strube, of Lubbock.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Roy Strube of Lubbock, sister of the bride and bridesmaid was Mrs. Charles Gates of Winters, sister of the bride.

Attendants wore sleeveless, street-length dresses of orchid dacron with white chantilly lace jacket, pill box hats of orchid and short veils. Each carried a single long stem gladiola.

The bride, presented in marriage by her father, wore a white bridal gown of chantilly lace and delustered satin, fashioned with fitted bodice of lace, sabrina neckline accented by seed pearls and sequins, long sleeves and skirt of delustered satin, with peek-a-boo petticoat of matching chantilly lace. The teardrop chapel train was attached at the shoulders and her veil of imported silk illusion fell from a tiara of seed pearls and crystals. She carried a crescent shaped bouquet of feathered white carnations, centered with white orchid, net and satin streamers atop a white Bible.

A reception was held in St. John's Lutheran Church parlors.

Mrs. Norman Beauchamp registered the guests, Mrs. Erwin Ueckert served the cake and Mrs. Luther Minzenmayer laded punch. Others in the house party were Mesdames Jerry Holle, Jess Watkins, Randall Watson, L. W. Kettler and Willis Whittenberg.

For traveling the bride changed to a street length two piece blue knit suit with white and beige accessories. She wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Winters High School and was formerly employed by Texas Employers Insurance in Lubbock. The bridegroom attended Lubbock High School and is presently stationed at Carswell AFB.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibson, after a few days vacation, will be at their new home in Fort Worth.

Ford Extends Warranty Period On 1967 Models

Dale Whitecotton, owner of Dale's Ford Sales, Winters, today announced that all purchasers of 1967 model Ford cars and light trucks will receive a 24-month or 24,000-mile basic vehicle warranty along with a 5-year or 50,000-mile warranty on the power train components, which include the engine, transmission, drive line and rear axle.

The new warranty, Mr. Whitecotton said, is the best the industry has to offer and will be an important factor in backing up the superior performance which customers have come to expect from Ford cars and trucks.

The 24,000-mile warranty was pioneered by Ford Motor Company on the Lincoln Continental and was later extended to the entire vehicle line.

"Extension of this warranty on the power train components for the 1967," Mr. Whitecotton said, "is possible because of continued progress toward quality and reliability goals that year after year have enabled Ford dealers to be the leader in providing products requiring less and less maintenance."

Terms of the new warranty provide that for 24 months or for 24,000 miles on the entire vehicle, whichever comes first, and for 5 years or 50,000 miles on the power train, whichever comes first, free replacement, including related labor, will be made by authorized dealers of any part with a defect in workmanship or materials.

Tires and tubes are not covered by the warranty; appropriate adjustments will continue to be made by the tire people. Owners will remain responsible for normal power train and other maintenance operations, such as wheel, brake and clutch adjustments and engine tune-ups, and for routine replacement of such items as filters, spark plugs, ignition points, wiper blades, and brake and clutch linings. To maintain the power train warranty protection the owner need only present evidence to a Ford Dealer and obtain his certification, once every twelve months, that the minimum services required every six months or 6,000 miles have been performed. This means that the engine oil and oil filter have been replaced and the carburetor air cleaner and filter, crankcase oil filter breather and engine coolant have been serviced according to the recommended maintenance schedule of the vehicle in question.

The new warranty covers both the original owner and subsequent owners during the specified mileage and time period.

Mr. Whitecotton said that his dealership would introduce their new 1967 models to the public on Friday, September 30.

State Capital Highlights—

Power Struggle in Texas House And Senate Cost McGee Job

By—Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association

It seems that a power struggle between House and Senate leaders on the Legislative Budget Board cost Director Vernon McGee his $20,000 a year job.

Board is made up of five state senators and five house members. In the past they have fashioned the State budget, mainly behind closed doors.

House Speaker Ben Barnes maintains that the budget should be written "on the floor" by the lawmakers and that all committee hearings on it should be open to legislators and the public.

Barnes wants the House to have a larger role in writing the multi-billion-dollar state general appropriations bill. He also wants to put a brake on conference committee powers.

He feels that a new budget chief, without close ties in the senate, will aid his drive for a joint legislative rules amendment to restrict conference committees to adjusting differences between bills, rather than writing new legislation in secret session.

McGee has helped process the State's $3,600,000,000 biennial budget during the past 17 years. Speaker Barnes, while praising McGee's ability, said the budget director had become too powerful and was too close to veteran state senators who have long dominated budget writing.

Lt. Gov. Preston Smith favored re-employing McGee. But the board voted 6-3 against rehiring. One senator joined representatives in the vote for discharge and another voted "present."

PATROL GETS SHORT WEEK

Uniformed Texas highway patrolmen are going on a five-day week as the Department of Public Safety moves to recruit and keep qualified officers and provide better law enforcement.

Col. Homer Garrison Jr., director of the DPS says there are 125 vacancies in the patrol services. Next deadline for applications is October 17.

TREASURY SURPLUS CLIMBS

Biggest fiscal year-end surplus in the general fund in Texas' history was recorded August 31 by State Treasurer Jesse James. Total ran $138,000,000.

James reported the surplus as $1,600,000 higher than the previous year. Current biennium ends August 31, 1967.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES

A road district can be formed which encompasses territory lying in more than one county. So held Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr in an official opinion. However, the entire area of each county making up such districts must be included and counties involved must be contiguous to each other. "Road districts," says Carr, "may acquire right of way for use by the State Highway Department to improve and extend the state Highway System." In other opinions, Carr held that:

Texas Parks and Wildlife Department may buy Calhoun County land under a law authorizing purchase of property "near Rockport" for a salt water experiment pond.

"Self-insuring" counties that are carrying their own liability risks rather than purchasing workmen's compensation insurance are not deprived of common law defenses. Also, liability is not affected.

Service citation fees to sheriffs or constables in small claims court cases ($2) still are in effect.

APPOINTMENTS ANNOUNCED

James Berger of Austin now is acting director of parole supervision. He succeeds Ray Williams who resigned to do graduate studies at the University of Texas.

Joe Entzinger of Bay City, Tom Gordon of Abilene, Mrs. Howard Hurd of Brownfield, Tom McCrumen Jr. of Austin and Garrett Morris of Fort Worth were named as credentials sub-committee for the State Democratic convention. They will hear delegation disputes from Angelina, Denton and Midland counties and protests concerning the Harris and Armstrong County conventions.

MILLIONS ASKED FOR BUILDINGS

State Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation is seeking $53,600,000 for new buildings and for expansion of existing facilities during the next biennium.

Money would go to facilities at Abilene, Austin, Denton, Corpus Christi, El Paso, Lubbock, Lufkin, Mexia, Richmond, Big Spring, Kerrville, Rusk, San Antonio, Terrell, Wichita Falls and in the Rio Grande Valley (site to be selected).

Board for MH-MR was informed that mental hospitals at Rusk, San Antonio and Wichita Falls fell below standards of the Joint Commission on Accreditation and cannot participate in Medicare benefits until they correct shortcomings.

REVENUE SPLIT "BARRED"

Staff attorneys for the Texas Legislative Council say a proposal by big-city mayors that municipalities get a share of state tax revenue is unconstitutional.

Man In Court

Not the scientist, not the sociologist, not the philosopher is the most-cited-expert in today's courtroom. Far more influential is a fictitious fellow known as the Reasonable Man.

Created by an English court more than a century ago, the Reasonable Man has become a basic yardstick for measuring right and wrong. To avoid being held negligent, you are expected to drive like the Reasonable Man, golf like the Reasonable Man, and drink like the Reasonable Man.

Then what sort of person is he?

In the purely physical sense, he looks very much like you. If you have only one leg, so does he. The law would expect you to cross the street only as fast as a Reasonable One-Legged Man. In this way, when judging your conduct, the law makes fair allowance for personal handicaps which you simply cannot help.

But in the mental sense, the Reasonable Man generally resembles not you but the average man—which is quite a different matter. Thus:

Suppose you are a person who is forever overlooking traffic signals or dropping lighted cigarette butts. You cannot expect other people to suffer, without complaint, the consequences of your absentmindedness. For this is a handicap which, presumably, you can overcome if you really try.

So the Reasonable Man has the average degree of alertness to danger, the average degree of consideration for the safety of others. He also has, broadly

REVENUE SPLIT "BARRED"

But municipal officials still are convinced that where there's a will, there's a way to obtain a partial refund of broad-based taxes collected by the state in their boundaries.

Texas Municipal League Director Steve Mathews says he feels "things can be worked out" if the Legislature wants to provide a source of supplemental aid to hardpressed cities.

CONNALLY SAYS NO

Gov. John Connally told Rio Grande Valley farm workers he will not call a special legislative session to consider a $1.25 an hour minimum wage act. Connally went to New Braunfels to meet the marchers who were on a 400-mile trek to the Capital for a Labor Day rally.

SHORT SNORTS

Texas business activity dropped four per cent in July—sharpest break since last fall and second sharpest since 1963.

State Health Department urges Texans to destroy all possible mosquito breeding places (water traps) to combat disease.

An Employ-the-Handicapped Conference will be held here September 23 by the governor's committee.

Another $1,500,000 in Neighborhood Youth Corps projects for 27 counties has received the governor's approval.

Texas Department of Public Safety is seeking authentic objects, used by Texas Rangers during any period, to be permanently placed in a public museum being organized at the department headquarters in Austin.

Big-Game-Rifle Caliber

That caliber of rifle slug to be used on big game largely is determined by experience. However, the 270, 243 are hard to beat when used for most big game.

When hand-loaded with 43 grains of No. 4350 powder, using No. 120 primers, and 100-grain partition soft pointed bullets, the 243 is ideal for such big game as polar bears, grizzlies, etc.

The first barbed wire known to have been brought to Texas was sold in Gainsville in 1875, by H. B. Sanborn.

Thus the Reasonable Man knows (even if you, personally, do not) that hay will burn, that a wet floor is slippery, that worn tires may blow out, and that a loaded gun is dangerous.

In other words, the Reasonable Man is a composite—partly like you, partly like the average person. He has your built-in defects, but not your defects that could and should be corrected.

But isn't that a pretty loose standard for deciding legal issues in the courtroom? True enough. Yet, experience has shown it to be a wise and workable compromise between the rights of the individual and the rights of society.

By using this compromise, the law itself has acted like the Reasonable Man.

AS IT LOOKS FROM HERE

Omar Burleson, M. C.
17th District, Texas

With his consent to pass it on to you, the following was written by Congressman Bob Poage to his constituents:

"Washington is full of financial doctors with all kinds of tonics, herbs, and even dried bats and shrunken heads, all guaranteed to cure our problems of high interest rates and declining buying power of our money (inflation). All of these 'doctors' can tell us what is the matter, but I am afraid that many of the suggested cures will but make matters worse.

"I don't have any patent medicine to sell, but I think that I do realize that we have to produce more than we spend. To do this at least most of us have to work. A man who is not working is not producing whether he is on strike or whether he is in the hospital. A man who is living on government help is not adding to our national income whether he is a retired Congressman or a Youth Corps trainee. We can do a great deal to help individuals, and I am glad that we have been able to do as much as we have, but I wonder if we should not give consideration to getting more people to work in constructive jobs. That is the way both Germany and Japan came back after the war. They have both greatly increased their living standards (actually faster than we have) but they have worked to do it.

"I sometimes feel that we are making a great mistake to deny our young people the simple opportunity to hold a job. In our proper desire to eliminate the old sweat shop—the long hours of child labor and the like we may have gone so far that too many of our boys and girls are denied any opportunity to work until they have grown up. It is then too late for most of us to acquire work habits.

"I rather like the old doggerel which was going the rounds when I was a boy—

"I ain't no teamster
I ain't no teamster's son,
But I can skin those mules till
The teamster comes."

and the more dignified song, "Work for the night is coming, when man works no more."

"While I am philosophizing (which I shouldn't do), it seems to me to be very clear that a whole lot of our recent demonstrations and riots have been supported by a group of people who 'toil not, neither do they spin.' It was always disturbing to me that the very people who are most likely to be found out in front of these mobs seeking to tear down our own government and trying to encourage the communists anywhere in the world are so often the very people who have received the most at the hands of Uncle Sam. I know of no obligation we have to support these people who would destroy our government.

"I recall a little verse I used thirty years ago as still expressing my views of the obligation of the government to help. It went like this:

"Jobs for those who want work
Help for those who can't work
Hell for those who won't work."

Approximately 185 million tons of inbound and outbound cargo move through Texas seaports each year.

ONE MAN, INVISIBLE—This sign in San Francisco is enough to spook you. It appears to show an invisible man being greeted by an invisible stewardess but it's just a case of a photographer being on the scene before the sign painters completed their work.

SEX PROBLEM—Actor Ronald Reagan, right, who would like to be governor of California, is having some trouble telling the "hes" from the "shes" these days. Following a recent speech in Claremont, Reagan invited a question from "that young lady," only to find out that the lady in question was 19-year-old Jim Miller, a male with a Beatle haircut.

There's nothing like a good picture to rekindle the excitement of a trophy hunt or record fish haul.

And with film as cheap as it is today, there's no reason why the average outdoorsman can't record every trip afield or afloat.

Handiest for recording these outdoor highlights is of course the movie camera. But it has serious limitations. Especially so for the man who wants to have a batch of still photos printed up to send out to his friends.

So in this column we'll discuss the still camera.

A good twin-lens reflex or a 35mm, with adjustable focus and aperture settings, can be purchased for less than $70. Although these cameras won't satisfy a professional photographer, they are adequate to give you a lifetime of enjoyment.

Such cameras as these, properly used, will reward you with clear, sharp pictures. And with proper composition the photos can be made suitable for publication in newspapers.

Contrary to popular opinion you don't need a flash gun for good hunting and fishing photos. That is unless the picture taking is done at night.

Even then, by using high speed film such as Tri-X, which is obtainable at most drug stores, you can take good natural-light photos from a little after sunrise until just before dusk.

A small inexpensive gadget called the light meter is the secret to success for natural or available light photography. It's quite simple to use and it's inexpensive. An adequate one can be purchased for less than $10.

Just what are some of the advantages of natural or available light photography?

Most obvious advantage is that the resulting photos come out exactly as seen with your eyes. Shadows fall naturally in the photos and quite frequently the results are beautiful pix with an artistic quality. These are photos that folks will look at again and again because they are so pleasing to the eye.

Consider briefly a picture of your gang frying those big black bass over a campfire. If you happen to use a flash, chances are the faces of the folks close to the camera will have a "washed-out" or chalky appearance. Those in the background will appear dull and dark. The flash might even cause the heads of folks in the foreground to cast crazy shadows over the people in the background.

Suppose you're in a deer blind and you want a few pictures of that big buck before shooting him. Available light photography is the answer. If you tried this with a flash, the buck would bolt when the bulb goes off and you would never get a shot with your rifle.

Another big advantage of taking available light photos in the outdoors is that you can get completely away from those pictures that have the "posed" look.

Your AL photos take on new depth in reality because they can be snapped when your subjects are acting naturally. You get pictures without "ham" in them.

You can get candid shots using a flash if you're able to pop them when no one is expecting to be photographed. But once that first flash beams forth, folks become camera conscious and you end up with pix of people looking posed and stilted.

Such pictures must be avoided if you want to obtain natural looking hunting and fishing photos.

Good photos are treasures that will allow you to re-live many times those exciting moments afield or afloat.

Nothing short of a 30-pound test, fluorescent monofilament line is recommended for marlin fishing, especially if you want to take home a 150-pound fish.

Increase the test weight according to your optimism.

Cleaning Surfaces—Sometimes flat surfaces on which to clean fish are hard to come by. Cutting boards do fine, but in lieu of such a convenience, go out and find a downed log, or stump.

Then a little work with a hand axe will prepare an excellent fish cleaning surface.

Just cut two notches about two inches deep and 18 inches apart, in the side of the log, or the top of the stump. Chop out the wood between the notches, the same depth, then level off, and you have a table that's renewable.

Then when the day's job is done, whittle away the stained, bloody surface, and you'll have a new surface for next day's cleaning.

Cleaning Your Boat—Your boat's exterior, the bottom in particular, can be cleaned quicker and easier if you'll do a bathing suit and do the cleaning job while you and the boat both are in shallow water.

This mainly because clean water is handy all around you—and the underwater parts of the craft are kept soft.

Marcos for LaRoss Sheppard who will be home for a few days before returning back to college. LaRoss is a senior. On the way back home the group visited with Mr. and Mrs. Mike Scott at Austin. Wednesday afternoon of last week Mrs. Saunders visited at Tuscola with Mrs. Annie Herrington.

Making the Start Is Important

Little streams unite in making a larger stream; in time there is a river which grows even larger as other rivers are absorbed as it makes its way to the sea.

Do not neglect your banking relationship even though your initial contact may be small. It is not the amount but the fact that we are traveling in the right direction which is important. If the account is one of deposits and checks, the reserve will grow even larger through future months and years if additions are made in excess of withdrawals. Most of the large estates grew from small beginnings. Our bank has provided a suitable place for small beginnings and we take pride in seeing our customers succeed and always we want to be helpful.

MRS. MICHAEL WAYNE BEDFORD (Little Photo)

First Baptist Church Is Setting For Daniel-Bedford Wedding Friday

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Wayne Bedford are making their home at the Edinburgh Apartments in Dallas, following their marriage at Winters First Baptist Church Friday evening September 2.

Page 7
Friday, September 9, 1966

The bride is the former Barbara Ann Daniel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Daniel and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Bedford all of Winters.

The Rev. B. T. Shoemaker, pastor of the church, officiated for the double ring ceremony before the arch entwined with greenery interspersed with white gladiolus and satin bows.

Tall floor candelabra with lighted tapers and baskets of white gladiola were at either side of the arch.

Organist was Mrs. Kenneth Simpson, who accompanied the soloist, Benny Brink.

Candlelighters were also the ushers, Mack McCaughan, Tommy Young and Ricki Cummings, an honorary usher.

Best man was Hank McCreight and groomsmen were Alvis Jackson and George Mostad.

Maid of honor was Maria Shaw and bridesmaids were Leonia Jackson of Abilene and Patsy Biddle of Center, Texas. They wore yellow linen dresses designed with A-line floor length skirts and tops of white venise lace lined with yellow taffeta and scalloped at the hip line. Their headdresses were white lace centered with yellow ribbon bows. Accessories were white shoes and gloves and each carried white and yellow nosegays of roses.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a princess gown of white silk face peau de soie with detachable mantel cape train, both bordered with jeweled venise lace. Her shoulder-length veil of silk illusion fell from a bow of matching peau de soie. She carried a bouquet of white roses atop a white Bible.

Parents of the couple, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Daniel, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Bedford hosted a reception in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

Mrs. Pam Briley registered the guests, Kathy Shaw served the cake and Mrs. Pam Hogan ladeled punch.

For traveling the bride changed to a brown and white 3-piece suit with brown shoes and bag.

A graduate of Winters High School with the class of 1966 the bride is presently employed at Mercantile National Bank in Dallas. She was head cheer leader, Blizzard Football queen, Glacier queen, Winters Lions Club queen and senior class favorite.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Winters High School with the class of 1963, is a senior student at North Texas State University, majoring in accounting. He is a member of the accounting club and Phi Kappa Sigma.

MOVIES

"Laurel and Hardy's Laughing 20's." Never was the world more in need of laughs than today when ominous headlines crowd each other out on the newspaper pages. And never has a motion picture provided more hilarious escape entertainment than Robert Youngson's "Laurel and Hardy's Laughing 20's."

This MGM release is the first full-length, fun-filled festival of the best work of the immortal team of Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy, made during comedy's golden age, when the timid, querulous-voiced head-scratching Laurel vis-a-vis the 250-pound aggressive Hardy had movie audiences roaring all around the world.

"Zebra in the Kitchen" How would you react if you were taking a bath and an elephant's trunk suddenly plunged into the tub to lap up all the water? Or if you and your wife were having a quiet patio lunch and a mountain lion became an unexpected guest at the table? Or if you were running a soda fountain and found yourself serving an ice-cream loving bear? Or if you passed a toy shop and found a bevy of monkeys having the time of their lives on slides and swings?

These are only a few of the surprising things that happen in Ivan Tors' wonderful new family picture, "Zebra in the Kitchen," which has a cast of dozens of animal stars plus such human players as Jay North, better known as "Dennis the Menace," Martin Milner, Andy Devine, Jim Davis and Joyce Meadows.

"Blindfold" A happy teaming of the world's most popular male star, Rock Hudson, with Italy's combustible sexpot, Claudia Cardinale, tops Universal's modern-day romantic suspense-farce, "Blindfold," shows Saturday night, Sunday and Monday at the State Theatre.

Hudson, in his most impressive role of recent vintage, portrays a Gotham psychologist whose services are enlisted in treatment of an emotionally disturbed scientist who is also the object of a planned kidnapping by an international espionage ring. He makes the most of it—as who wouldn't with Miss Cardinale eye-arrestingly around through all the excitement.

TO DALLAS Mr. and Mrs. Jake Presley accompanied their daughter Brenda to Dallas last week where she has entered Methodist School of Nursing.

New Faculty Members

Formerly a student of Winters High School, our new coach Mr. William Grissom, is an August graduate of McMurry College. Before returning to Winters this year, Coach Grissom taught social studies (which he is currently teaching) for a term in Breckenridge.

Mr. Grissom takes pleasure in sports and coaches the backfield for the varsity and, in addition, the freshmen team. Although he thinks the school has changed some, he says he enjoys teaching here and is looking forward to a good school year.

Our new Vocational Agriculture teacher Mr. Jimmy Smith is also a graduate of Winters High School. He has attended San Angelo College and Texas Technological College where he graduated in August of 1964. Before coming to Winters, Mr. Smith taught in Anson for two years. He says of our school, "It has a good reputation and a lot of tradition."

Our new Spanish and world history teacher, Mrs. Treva Holmes, is a graduate of Shallowater High School and a May graduate of McMurry College. Before coming to Winters High School, Mrs. Holmes was a substitute teacher in the Abilene school system.

Mrs. Holmes enjoys reading and sewing. Commenting on our school, she says, "I'm real happy here."

Opening Day Assembly

School was begun with an assembly at 8:30 a. m. on August 31. The assembly was called to order by Danny Killough, Student Council president. Elaine Campbell led the Pledge of Allegiance and John Patterson gave the prayer. One verse of America was sung.

Randall Boles, vice president then introduced the members of the student council and the class representatives. Mr. Christian introduced the new faculty members. Mr. Joyce remarked about student conduct and care of the school building. New students were introduced by Randall Boles.

The student handbooks were passed out and new additions to it were explained. The assembly was dismissed and students reported to class.

New Students In WHS

Members of the student body in Winters High were introduced to new students in their school last Wednesday, the opening day of classes.

Fred Gray is a junior, moving here from East London, South Africa, where his father is a missionary.

Janice Gray, also a junior, is a former Athens, Texas resident. Her father, incidentally Fred's uncle, is a Church of Christ minister.

Coming to Winters from Sacramento, California, is Doug McLemore, another junior and a great drummer.

The senior class has gained Davy Brock, while the freshmen have his younger brother Bill. Bill and Davy moved here from Gainsville.

Meg Leathers is a sophomore who has joined us from Novice.

Kathy Towery is from Ballinger and a new addition to the freshman class.

As one can see Winters High School has not only a large group of new students to welcome; but as one must agree a most interesting group as well.

Student Council Coke Party

The Blizzard football field was the scene of the annual Student Council coke party, Tuesday, Aug. 30, at 7:30 p. m. Members of the Student Council served cookies and cold drinks to the student body and faculty.

Danny Killough, president of the Student Council, then introduced Mr. Joyce, the principal, who welcomed the students and faculty to a new school term.

Immediately following, cheerleaders for the 1966-'67 school year led the group in some new songs they had learned in summer camp. The cheerleaders for the coming football season are Maria Shaw, head cheerleader; Jan Merck, assistant head cheerleader; Linda Smith junior; Cheryl Beard, sophomore; and Jody Hall, freshman cheerleader.

After the final cheers, the Student Council president thanked the student body and faculty for attending. The Student Council termed the coke party a success.

Carol Ann Monroe and A. L. Mitchell Wed At Baptist Church In Dallas

Carol Ann Monroe of Dallas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard N. Monroe, became the bride of Mr. A. L. Mitchell of Winters when they pledged marriage vows Saturday September 3, at 8 o'clock in the evening at the Town North Baptist Church in Dallas.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Audra L. Mitchell of Winters. The Rev. Jack B. Rittmeyer, minister of the church, officiated for the double ring ceremony before the altar decorated in greenery and lighted tapers.

Mrs. Bruce M. Dougherty was organist and accompanied Mrs. Barney E. Brooks who sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Whither Thou Goest, I Will Go."

Candies were lighted by James H. Murrell of Waco. Mike Mitchell of Winters served his brother as best man and ushers were Garner Young and Larry Anthony of Lubbock. Groomsmen were Larry Anthony and Jan Beer of Lubbock.

Matron of honor was Mrs. James Murrell of Waco and bridesmaids were Mrs. Barney E. Brooks of Dallas and Mrs. Michael M. Shannon of Houston. They wore blue silk organza floor-length gowns fashioned with fitted bodice and carried cascade bouquets of white gladioli.

The bride, presented in marriage by her father wore a sheath gown of silk faille with tiers of Alencon lace complementing the slim skirt. The detachable square cut train was edged with lace and a coronet of jeweled lace held her veil. Her bouquet was an arrangement of orchids and stephanotis.

A reception was held in the church fellowship hall. Members of the house party were Mrs. Garner Young who sat at the guest book, Miss Jayne Edmiston who ladeled punch and Miss Sheila Carr who served the cake.

For her wedding trip to South Texas, the bride wore an aqua

Hord Family Held Reunion At Park In Ballinger Monday

Members of the Hord family met at the Ballinger City Park Monday for a Labor Day reunion.

Those attending were Mrs. Joe Nitsch, Nancy, Larry and Kenny, Mrs. T. O. Williams, Lee Maas, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hord, Mr. and Mrs. James Brown, Cynthia, Charles, Carla and Lissie Brown, Mrs. W. M. Hord, Mrs. Alma Hughes and R. H. Hord all of Winters.

Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. John Hord of Brady, Mrs. Jimmy Sumner and son, William of Channelview.

Home Town Talk--

The new "Welcome To Winters" sign in front of the City Hall is being put to use. The City Hall squad takes care of putting up the messages, and making all changes. Over the past Labor Day weekend, they contributed to the many reminders that highway safety pays, by spelling out on the sign the notice that "People still die with their boots on—the gas pedal." The Chamber of Commerce-sponsored sign is an eye-appealing addition.

Mrs. Paul Hinyard, Former Teacher In Winters, Died

Mrs. Paul Hinyard of Tyler, a former teacher in the Winters School system and niece of Mrs. C. S. Jackson, died Monday in Tyler Hospital. She will be remembered here as Vera Bell Wilson.

Mrs. Hinyard had been in ill health for sometime.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Bill Wilson of Kilgore, 4 grandchildren; her mother, Mrs. Walter Wilson of Temple; one sister and one brother.
