HOME TOWN Talk

By R. C. THOMAS

For several weeks now the front porch quarterbacks of 5-AA have been poised in their rocking chairs, ready for action. The blast off came last Friday night, and they began to rock—slowly. Given about another three or four weeks, and the rockers will begin to gain speed on the porch floor, and the noise they make will be drowned out by the squeals of delight or derision from the experts, as they praise or verbally demolish the coaches and teams; they'll have built up a head of steam which will last until the middle of November, or perhaps a little longer. The flow of extra adrenalin caused by the excitement during a few autumn weeks will be enough to keep the experts from popping their corks until the next season rolls around, when maybe the coaches and teams will finally break down and do what they should have done all the time, take the advice of the porch-rockers. This is an annual occurrence, and the action provides a stimulant to bolster us all during what could otherwise be a somber fall season.

Games played by member teams of Circuit 5 over this past weekend really didn't answer many questions. But they gave coaches a chance to look over their charges and, in some instances, to venture to make a few changes before the next battles are joined this Friday night. They were more or less practice sessions, and it will be two-three-four weeks before the go-for-broke efforts are really unloosed. Then, there may be some surprises in store for the porch-sitters.

There's been many a football game won by only three points—a kicker putting the ball through the uprights for a field goal.

Winters fans may get a chance to see some of that type of kicking this season—off the toe of Fred Gray, a junior in Winters High School who, until this fall, had never seen a game of football.

Fred is from South Africa, where he has lived for about 15 years. His father is a missionary there. He is living in Winters with his uncle, Glenn Gray, minister of Winters Church of Christ. In South Africa, he played soccer and rugby, where he learned to use his foot on the ball.

When he started working out on the Winters practice field, he started kicking the football in the conventional way. But then he reverted to the soccer-style and began putting the ball through the uprights. Coach L. G. Wilson told him to use his own method in kicking. In practice, the coach said, Fred has been kicking 40-yard field goals, and has been putting his kick-offs all the way to the goal line.

He didn't get a chance to try kicking an extra point in last week's game against Lake View—his first football game—because the Blizzards failed to score. But... Coach Wilson seems to be anxious to see him try field goals, if the situation called for it. The coach said "If I had to do it to win a game or if it was worth the gamble, I'd let him try for it. I think he could do it."

Fred is 6-3, and weighs 175, and runs the quarter right around 50 flat, the coach said. And he will be kicking off for the Blizzards, and for all extra points—and for any field goals the coach may want to try. His kickoff is good and high, giving linemen a chance to get down under. The coach figures Fred will "do a good job for us at split end before the year is over, too. He's enthusiastic, enjoys the game, has lots of pep."

Winters Blizzards Fall To Lake View In First Game of Season, 30 to 0

The Winters Blizzards fell to a faster and more experienced crew of footballers from Lake View, 30-0, Saturday night.

The Blizzards held the Chiefs to a two-touchdown margin through three quarters only to weaken and allow two fast fourth-quarter scores.

Minus Jerry Awalt and Randy Boles, the Winters team could generate very little offense except for a spasmodic passing attack. They ended up with a total of 145 yards passing but this was offset by the 77 yards lost attempting to pass.

Winters kicked off to Lake View, who drove 75 yards in 10 plays to score and kick the extra point. A fumble deep in Blizzards territory next gave the ball to the Chiefs, who took only three plays to make the score 14-0.

Only seconds before halftime, Lake View intercepted a pass and with time running out, kicked a field goal to lead 17-0.

The third quarter was give and take, with no scoring from either team. But the fourth quarter was a different story, with Lake View going 80 yards on one play and getting loose for a 49-yard run on another. This made the final score 30-0 for the Chiefs.

In the line, Skippy Sheppard did an outstanding job and Alvin Dunn's passing was good in the backfield. George Mostad punted 8 times for a better than 30-yard average.

No new injuries occurred, and with the exception of Awalt, all players should be at full strength for the Coleman Bluecats Friday night.

Booster Club To Meet Monday at 8

Winters Booster Club will meet in the City Hall at 8 p. m. Monday.

Films of the Winters-Coleman football game, to be played Friday night of this week, will be shown.

All members and fans are urged to attend this meeting.

First Bale '66 Cotton Brought In

The first bale of the 1966 cotton crop was brought in to a Winters gin at 10 a. m. Wednesday of last week by John Hord who farms West of Winters.

Davidson Gin, who received the first bale of cotton, ginned the bale at no charge, and the gin and F. A. Grant, cotton buyer, paid a premium of $50 for the cotton.

Winters Chamber of Commerce will present Hord with a cash award of $50 for bringing in the first bale, which has been the custom for many years.

Gathering of the 1966 cotton crop has not started to any extent, with the Winters Warehouse Co. reporting no cotton received by them up to Wednesday of this week. There have been few cotton picking hands in the area, and most sources expect this year's crop to be mostly mechanically stripped. Most expect that upwards of 90 percent of the cotton in this area will be defoliated and stripped.

First Home Grid Game Friday Nite

It will seem like old times at Blizzard Stadium Friday night. The Blue Cats of Coleman will come visiting—for the first time since they came over on October 4, 1963.

Friday night's game will be a non-conference contest, and the second of the season for the Blizzards, still reeling from the 30-0 defeat at the hands of Lake View last Saturday night. But from all indications, the WHS squad possibly will be better prepared to change the flow of events this week, when they meet Coleman on home grounds.

Opening the season sans experience, and crippled to some extent by illness and injuries, the Blizzards faced a bleak future; but the picture stands a chance of quite a bit of change. Intensive training has been the idea this week, and only one regular stringer is expected to be out of the lineup for the Coleman game—Jerry Awalt, who fills either the halfback or fullback spots, still is out because of illness, and will be for another week or two. But other holes have been patched up. A green team to start, the Big Blue lineup, with one game's experience under their belts, is beginning to ripen.

Coleman, who spent four years in 3-A, has now come back to 2-A, and is one of the tri-favorites—along with Brady and Ballinger—in their district this year. The Blue Cats battled 5-AA 1966 favorites, Anson, to a scoreless tie last week. A quick club and aggressive on defense, the Coleman boys are primarily a running team, working from the "I" formation. As yet, no outstanding linemen have emerged on the Blue Cat squad, but there is experience and determination in the backfield, with Quarterback Bobby Howard, Halfback

Mrs. Johnny Pierce Hired By Hospital Business Office

The Winters City Council Monday night approved the hiring of Mrs. Johnny (Loretta) Pierce to fill a vacancy in the business office of the Winters Municipal Hospital.

Mrs. Pierce will assume her new duties Oct. 1, succeeding Mrs. Sot White, who recently resigned and moved from the city.

During the regular meeting of the City Council Monday night, Mayor W. M. Hays read a letter from the Texas Highway Department which stated that the department had completed the aerial mapping and photographing of U. S. Highway 83 which bisects Winters, in preparation for widening of the route. It was stated that appraisal of property for additional right-of-way, if necessary, would begin in the near future. The Highway Department will make all the appraisals, Mayor Hays said.

Council also discussed the spraying which has been done in the city in an effort to kill mosquitoes. City employees have been spraying about every night for the last two weeks or more, and will continue for several days, it was said.

Buford Baldwin, city secretary, said his office will mail tax notices beginning Oct. 1.

"Lt. Robin Crusoe, U.S.N."

Dick Van Dyke, Mary Poppins' favorite fella and one of Hollywood's most brilliant young talents, is back on the big theatre screens in Walt Disney's new laugh-loaded, adventure-packed comedy, "Lt. Robin Crusoe, U.S.N.," with Nancy Kwan and Akim Tamiroff sharing the stellar spotlight.

"Run, Appaloosa, Run"

The film story of a horse can be just as interesting and eventful as that of a human being. Proof of the equine pudding is offered in Walt Disney's newest Technicolor featurette, "Run, Appaloosa, Run."

"Smoky"

Fess Parker, who has shared star billing with many beautiful ladies in many movies, now has a new and different co-star, but just the same a beauty. This time it's with a spirited stallion in "Smoky," the 20th Century-Fox presentation of Aaron Rosenberg's production of Will James' classic western novel which shows Sunday and Monday at the State Theatre in widescreen and De Luxe Color. It's the first motion picture Fess has wanted to make in the past four years, because he has been so busy and satisfied with his successful TV series in which he appears as "Daniel Boone." Previously he was

"Davy Crockett"

"Smoky," also stars Diana Hyland, Katy Jurado and Robert Wilke and introduces Hoyt Axton, international recording star of folk songs, in his first motion picture. It is a story of the West today told in the spirit of the West of old. The entire production was filmed in the breath-taking hills and forests of central Mexico.

AROUND THE 5-AA LOOP

Not much was proved in games over the past weekend—except that the 1966 football season is underway! Teams of the circuit won three, lost two, and tied one—all squads playing outsiders in this pre-conference blast-off.

Haskell led the parade to the limelight, as the Indians knocked off Childress 27-0. Thornton Gilmore and Tim Everett, each with two teedees to his credit in the opener, showed quite a bit of spirit Friday night at Childress—and they may cause some second looks to be taken at the pre-season forecasts.

Clyde visits Haskell this week. Stamford's Bulldogs waited until the third quarter against Quanaah to boot a field goal, to edge that Quanaah tribe of Indians 3-0. Joe Lawson, 205-pound regular tackle, toed that marker. Stamford goes to Snyder Friday.

Anson went to Coleman, back in AA ranks after a brief journey into AAA, and came away with a scoreless draw. The Tigers, pre-season picked to lead the pack in 5-AA this year, trailed Coleman in statistics, with 6 firsts to the Blue Cats' 8, 78 yards rushing to Coleman's 88, but led a few yards in the air, 38 to 29. Both teams had opportunities to reach a payoff, but on a rain-soaked field failed to get on board. Anson goes to Ballinger this week.

Colorado City went to Coahoma Saturday night, and completely blanked the Bulldogs 13-0 scorewise, and also on the statistics board. Coahoma, the team which was mentioned to some extent in last week's SatEvePost, along with Coach Spike Dykes, formerly of Ballinger, failed to make any kind of showing against the Wolves, with only 6 first downs to 15 for the visitors, and 118 yards on the ground to 299 for C-City. Halfback Don Steakley scored the second on a 5-yard run. The Wolves go to Roscoe for their second game.

Hamlin, the only 5-AA squad to host this past weekend, fell before the determined Rotan Yellowhammers, 8-0. The Pipers trailed Rotan in every department except passing, on a field left muddy by Friday rains. Hamlin goes to Ft. Worth Nolan this week.

The Winters Blizzards, the only team in 5-AA left south of Abilene, went over to Lake View Saturday night, and saw an almost-repeat of last year's Blizzards-Chief contest, except that this year, the figures were on the other side of the board. When the Chiefs came over here in '65, they were scrounged 36-0; but with their superior strength and experience, they turned it around this year, 30-0 in their favor. Coach Wilson's Big Blue team, troubled by a thin returnee line and injuries, just didn't have the wherewithal to withstand the kind of attack Lake View presented. Many teams experience a slow start, however, and then gain experience as the weeks roll by.

These first games are feelers, anyway. The trick is to always keep the next opponent guessing. The Blizzards meet Coleman this week—for the first time since 1963. Now that Anson already has played Coleman, there may be some indication as to which way the wind may blow.

This is just the beginning, and anything can happen. You can't hang your hat on any one team, yet. Anson has been picked to lead the league, because of their experience, etc., etc. There may be some changes in the forecasts soon.

Anyway, when the clock hits 8 Friday night, fans around this neck of the woods will settle down to see a brand of high school football they like. The favorites may not win, but you can bet your reserved seat stub you'll get your money's worth of football.

Life is made up of many little things. There are big things, too, but it is details of daily existence which individually may not be of major consequence but, in the aggregate, they are very important.

At this bank it has been our practice to give first attention to important things but details which make this a more pleasant and more satisfactory place to bank have not been neglected. Equipment is modern. Service is friendly, prompt and personal. Every account is valued regardless of its size or to whom it belongs.

New accounts are invited. Here all depositors find that attention is given to the little things which often mean so much.

Finally, Perfected Color Television

It's as easy to tune as black and white.

Up to now, there were two problems with color televisions. One was hard to tune.

Two, once they were tuned almost any outside interference (airplanes, cars, electric shavers, even aluminum siding) threw the picture out of whack.

General Electric has taken care of both.

NEW MAGIC-MEMORY TUNING.

G-E developed a new kind of tuning system called Magic-Memory tuning. What's magic about it is that it's ridiculously easy to tune. All you do is turn all the dials until their pointers point straight up.

That's it.

Some people say they can get a perfect color picture in less than 10 seconds.

NEW COLOR COAXIAL CABLE.

Then G-E tracked down what was picking up all the outside interference.

It was the old flat lead-in wire that connected the set to the antenna.

So they redesigned the sets and added a coaxial cable lead-in. (Coaxial cable is what TV studios use because it has two layers of plastic and one layer of woven metal to shield against outside interference.)

What they had when they finished was the first really Perfected Color Television set. Bright, clear, natural color with no more fuss than black and white.

And that's what a lot of people tell us they've been waiting for.

If you're one of them, see us today!

President — Randy Sneed; vice-president — Gary Antilley; secretary — Johnny Pritchard; reporter — Wesley Crouch; and sentinel — Rex Harrison.

Dues and projects for the year were discussed.

The Greenhand Chapter Conducting Team is now preparing for the district leadership contest to be held later in the year.

WHS Student Takes Trip

Tuesday, September 6, was the first day of school this year for WHS sophomore Linda Maas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Maas. Her reason for the delay was a two-month visit with relatives in Germany. Accompanying her were her grandfather and a cousin.

When asked what she thought about Germany, Linda said that she liked it and that there was a great difference, comparing Germany with the United States and Texas in particular.

Linda said, "There were a lot of old castles," and the land was densely covered with forests. It rained most of the time she was there.

"The people were real friendly," said Linda, and, like the Dutch, are very conscientious about cleanliness.

Linda traveled all the way from the Belgium border to the communist front while she was in Germany. She visited the famous zoo at Frankfurt and visited Giessen and Wiesbaden, Germany.

Summarizing her trip, Linda says, "Germany is a beautiful and exciting country."

Guidance Program

There have been some additions to the guidance program this year. Guidance periods will be every Monday for one class period. Each student will attend one period per month. Test interpretations, vocational, social, and educational information will be given, films will be shown, and there will be group discussions during this time.

The first guidance period was September 6 for the freshman class. There was a discussion by the counselor Mrs. Lee Harrison. She explained to the freshmen about the different types of information that can be found in the counselor's office.

The film "Your First Year in High School" was shown.

The next guidance period will be with the seniors on September 12 during the third period. The program will consist of information concerning colleges, how to make a job application, career planning, and other related subjects. The sophomore guidance period is scheduled for September 19 during the fourth period. September 26 is the junior guidance period.

Pep Rally

Winters High School students were given an opportunity to preview the Blizzard football team with an all-school pep rally at 3:35, September 9. All students and teachers were present to show their backing. The pep rally ended with the singing of the school song.

Cheerleaders Maria Shaw, Jan Merck, Linda Smith, Cheryl Beard, and Jody Hall showed much spirit and enthusiasm making it a fine pep rally. Coach Wilson made a short speech.

Stay in School

I. The Problem
In 1965, there were more than 10 million 16-24 year olds out of school and in the labor force.

Three million — almost a third — hadn't completed high school.

In the 1966-67 school year, unless something is done about it, another 900,000 youngsters will walk away from their education too soon.

If this rate continues, 1975's labor force will contain 32 million adults with less than a high school education — at a time when the nation's economy and the nation's business can't afford them.

These youngsters are tomorrow's skilled workers. In the next four years, the number of 16-24 year old workers will increase by 3.3 million — 43 percent of the total increase in the labor force for that period. Unless we convince them now of the need for educating and preparing themselves, they won't be ready when they're needed. II. What Does It Mean to Be a Dropout?

Statistics prove again and again that young people who drop out of school place themselves at a disadvantage.

The dropout is more likely than the graduate to be unemployed or to hold a poor paying and undesirable job.

The dropout has less chance to advance, and his job is more likely to be taken over by a machine.

Over a lifetime, the high school graduate earns 16 percent more than the person who completes only 1 to 3 years of high school and 80 percent more than one who does not finish eight years of school.

The college graduate can expect to earn two-thirds more than the high school graduate.

The unemployment rate for school dropouts, 16-21, is 15 percent, as compared with 8.4 percent for graduates.

The jobless rate for everyone in the labor force over 18 who did not finish school is 7.4, as compared with 4 percent for the graduates.

Twice as many 1965 male graduates are white-collar workers or craftsmen, while greater proportions of dropouts are laborers.

Among women, more graduates have clerical jobs, and the dropouts are employed on assembly lines or as household workers.

III. Why Do They Drop Out? Many reasons may motivate a teenager to leave school without getting his diploma. A survey of dropouts themselves reveals the major ones:

—School-connected problems — lack of interest; poor grades; difficulties with school authorities.

—Economic reasons such as unemployment in the family; personal or family financial need.

—Marriage or pregnancy.

Most of these young people could use a willing listener — someone who might point out the reasons — the practical reasons — why they should stay in school — why it will mean more to them in the long run to wait a while for marriage or for that job that looks so promising now; to help them find the part-time jobs that will allow them to make the money they need while remaining in school.

IV. Who Are the Dropouts? Studies made around the Nation show:

—More than half of them are boys.

—Most leave school in the 10th grade and soon after their 16th birthday.

—Most of them have IQ's indicating that they could finish school if they wanted to.

—Many are lacking in basic academic foundations and are probably failing in one or more scholastic subjects.

—The majority come from families where school attendance and achievement are not considered as having much value.

—Many have parents who are unemployed or underemployed.
