

HOME TOWN Talk

By R. C. THOMAS

Charlie (Mrs. George) Poe has been enthusiastic in her promotion of the Winters School Homecoming celebration in years past; this year is no exception. She has gathered some interesting information regarding activities in the school down through the years.

This week we are more than happy to turn this space over to her, for her use in promotion of the annual Homecoming event: Mrs. Poe:

The 1917 annual, called the Cackle-Burr, was the first year-book ever attempted by Winters High School students. The next annual was produced in 1925.

The small paper back, well worn, booklet belonging to Ralph Lloyd is dedicated to the superintendent, C. O. Minatra, and shows the faculty to be A. W. Cherry and Miss Flossie McDowell.

Seniors have individual pictures with their positions and activities in school listed as they are today. Paul Williamson, brother of Mrs. L. F. Wilson, now deceased, was the class president. Lloyd Cooke was vice president, a member of the Declaring Club and the Glee Club. Lucile Jones, now Mrs. I. W. Rogers, was a council member, in the Glee Club and Society.

Ralph Lloyd, a member of the Glee Club and Society, says that Society meant the Literary Society and met once a month. Jarrette Pace of Austin, brother of Rankin Pace, was a member of the Society, Declaring Club and Glee Club.

All other classes as well as the annual staff, boys' basketball team, girls' basketball team, boys' track, tennis team, debating team, declaimers, glee club and council members are group pictures without the names listed. However, from the description of activities we learn that Winters has always stood high scholastically.

For the second consecutive year the WHS track team has won the county championship. Our success was due largely to the hard work of our coach, A. W. Cherry.

The declaimers and debaters won all the county honors, the debaters also defeated some of the best high schools in West Texas.

The most striking feature of WHS is the Honor System organized near the beginning of the term. It has proven to be the most elevating and strengthening asset in our school."

The Winters school, as well as any school, is strengthened by the loyalty of its students and ex-students. Show your loyalty by attending the Homecoming Night, September 29, when the Winters Blizzards play the Ballinger Bearcats at 8 p. m.

Remember the meal in the school cafeteria from 5:30 to 6:30 p. m., prepared for the convenience of you and your guests at a cost of only $1.25 and 75 cents. Homecomers will also want to attend the fellowship and business meeting in the school cafeteria following the game.

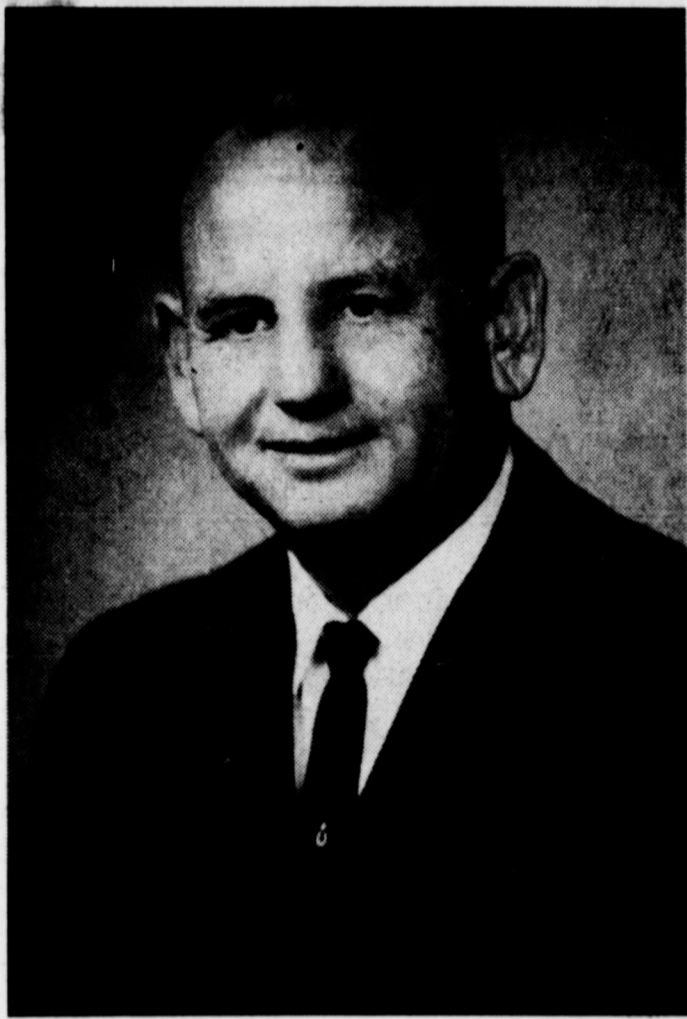

One entire family has been found that are products of the Winters schools. All members of the M. L. Dobbins family will make an effort to be at the homecoming.

Mrs. Dobbins, the former Odessa Carwile, graduated in 1933 and her husband would have except for the illness of his father which caused him to leave school.

The two sons, Jerry graduated in 1953 and Wayne in 1963. Both later graduated from McMurry and Jerry is employed with an insurance company in Dallas and Wayne is a teacher in Plains. Another son, David, graduated in 1959 and the daughter, Marthelia Sikes finished in 1957.

Presbyterian Church School Time Changed

Time for Church School at the First Presbyterian Church has been changed, the Rev. James Sinclair, pastor, has announced. Church School will begin at 9:30 a. m. each Sunday, instead of 9:45. Until January, the worship service will be held at 9:30 a. m.

LIGHT PLANT SUPT.—C. C. (Cody) Paske, who has been an employe of the Winters Light Plant for almost 18 years, recently was named superintendent of the department. He succeeds N. D. Waggoner who resigned to accept a similar position at Tulia.

Paske was assistant superintendent. He has been replaced by Johnny Weems, who will be head operator at the plant.

Jerry B. Whitlow had been named head lineman for the municipal electric department. Paske is a native of Runnels County.

George Garrett Appointed To Defense Reserve, Dept. of Transportation

In the event of an all-out war and probable attack by an enemy upon the United States, a group of engineers already organized under the U. S. Department of Transportation would step in to fill any casualty-caused vacancies and iron out problems in transportation of emergency supplies and routing traffic.

George Garrett of Winters is one of the engineers on the list of the Bureau of Public Roads of the National Defense Executive Reserve.

Garrett was notified recently of his reappointment to the reserve agency, by the Secretary of Transportation, Alan S. Boyd. The appointment is for a period of three years. He has served on the Bureau for about 12 years.

In a letter to Garrett, Secretary Boyd said, "The capability of the Department of Transportation to initiate and maintain those essential services which it will be expected to provide the nation in the event of emergency mobilization of our resources may well be dependent upon the members of our National Defense Executive Reserve. Your participation in the activities of the Reserve helps us ensure the maintenance of that capability."

Garrett said the Bureau of Public Roads unit will meet sometime in October to go over plans already made, and to revise and formulate additional plans for transportation maintenance in case of all-out attack. He said that estimates already have been made of the number of casualties which could be expected, and that some present directors and engineers probably would be among those casualties. The reserve engineers are organized to take over these duties, he said. They meet once a year. In case of emergency, Garrett's rendezvous point is at Brownwood.

Garrett was an engineer with the Texas Highway Department for 31 years. Following his retirement, he was employed as a statewide paving engineer by the Portland Cement Co., for 12 years. He has been living in Winters for several years, since his retirement.

Larry T. Rozmen Completes Marine Recruit Training

Marine Private Larry T. Rozmen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clem J. Rozmen of Winters, was graduated from eight weeks of recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot in San Diego recently.

He will now undergo about three weeks of individual combat training and then, after leave at home, will report to his first Marine Corps assignment.

The intensified Marine recruit training emphasizes rigid physical conditioning and survival techniques, both at sea and ashore, to develop self-confidence and endurance. Marksmanship with the M-14 rifle and 45-caliber pistol are equally stressed, and close order drill instills the traditions of Marine Corps teamwork.

A thorough study of basic military subjects; hygiene; first aid and sanitation; and the customs, courtesies, history and mission of the Marine Corps serve to polish the new Marine's recruit education and prepare him to join Marine combat forces.

PP&K Contests Scheduled For Saturday, Oct. 7

Boys 8 through 13 in the Winters area have been registering for the seventh annual Punt, Pass & Kick Competition, with trophies and trips to be awarded football-minded youths for skills in punting, passing and place-kicking.

The contest will be held Saturday, Oct. 7, with registration continuing through Oct. 6.

The PP&K competition is sponsored nationally by Ford dealers and the National Football League. Co-sponsor in Winters is Dale's Ford Sales.

Headquarters for registration in Winters is Dale's Ford Sales. Entrants must be accompanied by a parent or guardian. There is no charge as the entire competition is absolutely free to all entrants and all equipment such as footballs and kicking tees are provided. No body contact is involved in PP&K contests.

Eighteen handsome trophies will be awarded locally by Dale's Ford Sales to the top competitors. Gold trophies go to first place finishers, silver to second and bronze to third, with first place winners going on for further competition in one contests.

When they register, boys receive a free booklet of competition tips written by Green Bay's star passes, Bart Starr, the Baltimore Colts' punting specialist, Dave Lee, and Los Angeles Rams' place-kicking leader for 1966, Bruce Gossett. The booklet includes exercises for better physical fitness oriented to boys of PP&K's competition age.

In addition to the booklet each registrant receives an attractive PP&K lapel pin. The basic principle of PP&K underlines fairness in competition to give every boy an equal chance to win, pitting contestants only against those their own age. Points are awarded for each foot of the ball travels on the fly, with points subtracted for each foot the ball lands to right or left of a center line.

Winners of one competition will receive trophies and runners-up are awarded certificates, one winners move to District competitions where 228 District champions will be awarded trophies and go on to compete for Area championships. Area champs travel to division events in NFL stadiums in San Francisco or Philadelphia where twelve finalists are chosen—six from the NFL Eastern division and six from the NFL Western division.

The twelve division winners go, with both parents, on a "Tour of Champions," to Washington, D. C., and then to the Orange Bowl in Miami, Fla., for the National Finals during the annual NFL play-off game.

Garrett was an engineer with the Texas Highway Department for 31 years. Following his retirement, he was employed as a statewide paving engineer by the Portland Cement Co., for 12 years. He has been living in Winters for several years, since his retirement.

Cub Scouts To Register At Hut Sept. 26

Registration for Cub Scouts will be held at the Scout Hut Tuesday night, Sept. 26, at 8.

Boys from 8 to 11 years of age may pick up registration slips at school, in the office of George Beard, the elementary principal, or Robert Simpson, the primary principal.

Parents are urged to attend the registration meeting with their sons.

Mrs. Harry Grantz Employed Primary Music Teacher Here

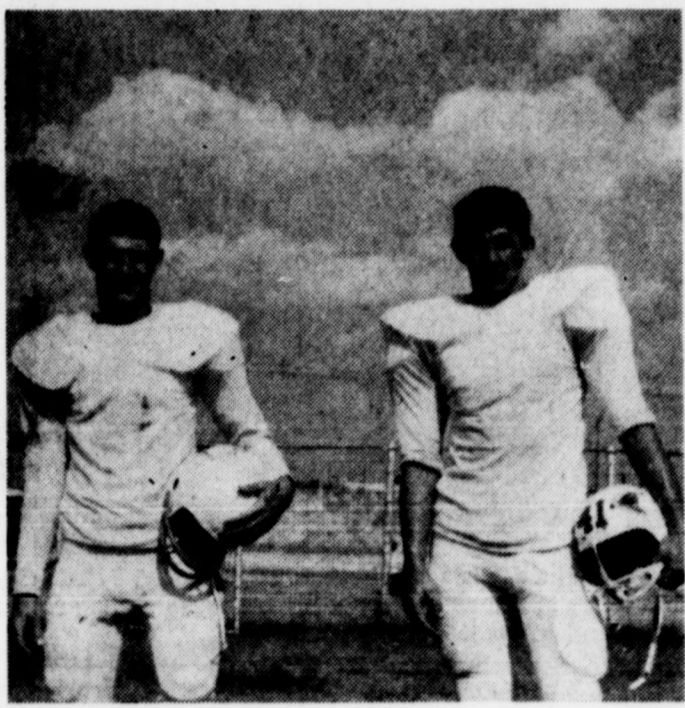

Mrs. Harry Grantz, wife of the pastor of the First Baptist Church, has been employed as a teacher aid to teach music in the Winters Primary School.

Mrs. Grantz succeeds Mrs. T. L. Russell, who resigned recently.

Tickets for the Winters-Ballinger football game, Friday, Sept. 29, will go on sale in the Winters School business office Wednesday, Sept. 29, at 8.

Blizzards Play In Brady Friday Nite

In their third outing of the season, and with a win and a loss on their record book, the Winters High School Blizzards go out of town again this week, to meet the Brady Bulldogs at Brady Friday night.

The Blizzards, a young and fast-improving team, go against a much more experienced team at Brady—a team which has been ranked as No. 4 in AA in the state. But past experience in this season has shown that a team heavily-packed with returning lettermen and adept seniors carries no fear-weight for the Winters Blue team—witness their first performance of the season against a big Lakeview squad.

Brady has 18 seniors among the 21 lettermen returning this year. They won their opener 41-7 against Lamesa, and then returned to go past Lakeview 26-20. (Lakeview edged Winters 7-6 in the opening game two weeks ago.)

Gracing the Bulldog lineup will be Puddin' Jones, 195, and Ronnie Neves, 210, both outstanding backfielders. Royce Lewis, 207 pounds, is an end, and Mike Pellizzari outstands in the line.

Following the Brady game, the Blizzards will have two

Red Cross Seeks Funds For Storm Victims In South

The Runnels County Red Cross unit is broadcasting an appeal for funds to be used to help victims of Hurricane Beulah, which hit South Texas this week.

Persons in North Runnels County who wish to help in this cause may leave their contributions at the Winters State Bank, or with Mrs. Emma Marks, local representative of the Red Cross in Winters, at the Chamber of Commerce.

Contributions should be made payable to "Red Cross Disaster Funds, Runnels County Red Cross." E. E. King of Ballinger is chapter chairman and in charge of this drive.

Funds received in this special drive will be used only to help victims of the hurricane.

Elm Creek Water Board Organized

Elm Creek Water Control District, created by an act of the Texas Legislature during the last session, is now in operation as an official political subdivision.

The District encompasses the watershed of Elm Creek and its tributaries in East Runnels County and South Taylor County.

The first board of directors which will direct activities of the district was appointed by the Governor following passage of the bill, four to serve one-year terms and four to serve two-year terms.

The board was organized officially at a meeting in the Winters City Hall Tuesday night, and elected a chairman, vice chairman and secretary-treasurer. Richard C. Thomas of Winters was elected chairman; Clarence Ledbetter of the Bradshaw community, vice chairman; and John W. Purifoy of Ballinger, secretary-treasurer. These officers will serve probably until January or February next year.

Other members of the board are Virgil James of the Moro community in South Taylor County; Walter Spill of Winters; Noble Faubion of Crews; Charles Hambrick of Ballinger; and J. E. (Buck) Smith of Winters. The board will hold its next meeting in Ballinger Tuesday, Oct. 3, at which time a constitution and by-laws to govern the district according to State statute, will be adopted and other plans made to initiate application of water and soil conservation practices on Elm Creek and its tributaries.

The Runnels County Water Authority was the parent sponsor of the new water control district. In a meeting in Ballinger last January, the Authority appointed a steering committee to study feasibility of such a district and to present application for special legislation, and do other preliminary work necessary to organize the district.

In the meeting Tuesday night, W. M. Hays, chairman of the steering committee, made the official announcement of creation of the district, and formally set the new board of directors to work. Price Middleton of Ballinger, who has been secretary of the steering committee, explained some of the methods and work of the district, and Woodrow Hoffman, Soil Conservationist for Runnels County, detailed some of the purposes of the district and duties of the board of directors. Arneal Scott of the Taylor County Soil Conservation office also spoke to the group, including members of the new board and the steering committee.

It was revealed at the Tuesday night meeting that a field examination of the district has been scheduled for January by the State Soil and Water Conservation Board, and that public hearings will be held after that to determine desires of the landowners in the district.

Winters Merchants Plan "Biggest" Christmas Program, Kickoff Nov. 17

Winters merchants, working through their Chamber of Commerce, are planning what they believe will be the "biggest" Christmas season program in a long time.

The Christmas season will be opened November 17 (or perhaps Nov. 16) with a giant, all-merchants-participating "Sidewalk Sale." Then will come the Christmas Parade—a gift to the kids!—scheduled for Saturday, Dec. 2. A "Moonlight Sale" on Monday, Dec. 18, will open the final week before Christmas.

Added to this will be home decoration contests, projects to beautify and decorate vacant buildings in a Christmas motif, and group caroling during the highlight days of the before-Christmas season.

These plans—or suggestions—were handed to members of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, and other merchants and chamber members by the Retail Trade Committee of the chamber at a special meeting Tuesday afternoon. The committee had been asked by the board of directors to formulate plans and make suggestions for this year's Christmas program, and merchant-members were invited to attend to express their desires concerning a program.

The first item on this year's Christmas season program will be the Sidewalk Sale. This to be participated in by any and all merchants, and to begin at 5:30 Friday, Nov. 17. For this event, merchants will move goods and merchandise to the sidewalks.

Date for the first part of the Christmas season program, the Sidewalk Sale, has tentatively been set for Friday, Nov. 17. In the event the Winters High School football goes into extra-season playoffs, the Sidewalk Sale will be moved back to Thursday, Nov. 16.

Also, each merchant will be asked to participate in drawings for merchandise. These drawings will be conducted by each individual merchant, who may give away any item or amount he pleases, and at a time he chooses during the evening of the Sidewalk Sale. No central drawing is being planned. Another drawing of this type will be held on the night of the Moonlight Sale Dec. 18. During similar drawings last year, several thousands of dollars in merchandise was given away.

For the Christmas Parade, the Chamber of Commerce again will ask groups to build and exhibit floats. The chamber probably will provide a certain amount of money with which the groups can build floats, and then offer cash prizes for exhibition.

Cash prizes also will be offered in the "Best Decorated Home" contest.

Plans also are being completed to ask church and civic groups to organize Christmas choral groups to sing during the highlight days of the Christmas program season.

Church and civic groups will be asked to help decorate windows in vacant buildings in downtown Winters for the Christmas season. Several such projects were undertaken last year, and received much comment and many compliments.

Dr. and Mrs. Z. I. Hale went to Austin the past week end to enter Martha as a student in University of Texas this fall. They visited relatives at Luling before returning home.

Phone Center Construction Is On Schedule; Change Due February 4

Installation of central office equipment is progressing according to schedule at the recently expanded Southwestern States Telephone Company Winters central office building, according to A. M. Chappell, division manager.

New dial central office equipment is being installed to replace the entire local exchange equipment that has been serving Winters customers since June 1956. The central office prefix will remain the same, but the last four digits of all Winters telephone numbers will be changed.

The new exchange and Expanded Direct Distance Dialing (EDDD) will be placed into operation Feb. 4, 1968. Long distance circuits will be re-centered and San Angelo will become the toll center.

Expanded Direct Distance

Dialing will make it possible for Winters telephone users to dial all their long distance calls throughout the United States and most of Canada. To call from Winters station-to-station the customer will first dial 112 (the station-to-station access code), the area code of the distant exchange, and the complete telephone number of the desired party.

To complete a person-to-person credit card or collect call, you will follow this same procedure except, instead of dialing 112, you will dial 110 (access code). Both type calls will require only minimum assistance from the long distance operator.

"A new Winters EDDD telephone directory containing complete long distance dialing instructions will be published to coincide with the EDDD conversion," Chappell said.

MOVIES

"A Countess From Hong Kong"
Charles Chaplin returns to motion pictures after an absence of 12 years to direct a romantic comedy starring Marlon Brando and Sophia Loren. "A Countess From Hong Kong," a Universal release showing Friday and Saturday at the Fiesta Drive-In Theatre. It is the veteran movie-maker's first film photographed in Technicolor, and in addition to directing, Chaplin wrote the original screenplay and composed and scored the music.

The story deals with Miss Loren as a Russian Emigre countess who, after a night on the town in Hong Kong with Brando, a wealthy American Ambassador, stows away in his cabin on board ship with the intention of getting to New York. When she is discovered, the complications set in and the fun intensifies.

"Kiss the Girls and Make Them Die"

"Kiss the Girls and Make Them Die," a comedy thriller at the Fiesta Drive-In Theatre in Technicolor showing Friday and Saturday, reportedly is replete with girls and gadgets, spies and counter-spies, international villainy and jet-set excitement. There also is a romantic entente between an American secret agent and a British society girl, a considerable amount of comedy and a plot to dominate the world.

The new film, a Dino de Laurentiis production for Columbia Pictures release, stars Michael Connors, Dorothy Provine, Raf Vallone, Margaret Lee, Nicoletta Machiavelli, Beverly Adams and Terry-Thomas and it was filmed in Rio de Janeiro and the Brazilian jungles by Henry Levin.

"The Way West"
Rugged Kirk Douglas has played some pretty big roles in the type of American epics which are called "empire builders" because of the magnitude of their sweep.

Among these were "Indian Fighter" and "The Big Sky" to name only two in his four dozen starring roles. But he believes his latest characterization, that of the prophetic Senator Tadlock who grasps the true significance of the great mid-19th Century westward movement, is the biggest of them all.

It occurs in the Harold Hecht spectacle "The Way West," based on the A. B. Guthrie, Jr., Pulitzer Prize-winning novel by the same name, which shows Sunday and Monday at the Fiesta Drive-In Theatre in Panavision and Color by DeLuxe and under United Artists release.

Taking top billing with him in the epic are Robert Mitchum and Richard Widmark, with Lola Albright, Michael Witney and Stubby Kaye co-starring. The film was directed by Andrew V. McLaglen from a Ben Maddow and Mitch Lindemann script. The music is by Bronislaw Kaper.

Check Gas Tank Often—Outboard fuel tanks should run until dry, from time to time, and the bottom checked for dirt, rust and water. If any is found, flush the tank clean with a bit of kerosene or commercial alcohol to remove the water and sediment.

Keep Line Clean—If a floating fishing line sinks below the surface of the water, it may just be dirty. Wipe it off with a soft cloth and then applying a light coating of commercial line dressing.

BUILT-IN SHOWER on a scorcher of a day is a cool idea, as demonstrated by this elephant at the Washington, D.C. Zoo. Water in the moat in his pen is down around his ankles, so the big tusker plugs up the inlet pipe with his trunk, gets a snootful, and sprays it on his back.

CUDDLY, CHUBBY, PINCHABLE, are the qualifications that won this beauty a contest title and cash award. Debra Ashworth, six months old, was named "Bonniest Baby" of the year at Bromley, England.

HUNTING WITH BIRDS of prey is not yet a lost art. Golden eagles are still used to hunt foxes and young wolves in the region of Kirghez in Russia.

State Capital Highlights— Connally's Decision About Fourth Term Due to Be Announced Soon

By—Vern Sanford Texas Press Association

Indecision still prevails. Nobody knows for sure whether Gov. John Connally plans to run for an unprecedented fourth term. But Capitol corridors echo with the sound of guesses and counter-guesses, predictions, arguments and wagers about it.

In any event, the decision may come earlier than the Governor indicated. Close advisers say a decision may be announced soon.

Some observers think an early decision would be a decision to step down. Announcement would be made early so that potential candidates waiting in the wings would know which way to jump. For instance, Speaker Ben Barnes, a Connally protegee, is expected to run for governor if Connally retires. Otherwise, Barnes would run for lieutenant governor.

So far, Lt. Gov. Preston Smith is the only announced candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor.

A race between Smith, 55, and Barnes, 30, would pit the younger generation against the older. Both are conservatives.

SPILL BROS. CO. Winters, Texas

Republicans appear to be grooming former Atty. Gen. Will Wilson for the race for governor.

There is some talk, too, that either Sen. Ralph Yarborough or Don Yarborough of Houston may get in the race. And there are those who think it possible that former Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr may run.

Also mentioned as contenders for the office of lieutenant governor on the Democratic ticket, in addition to Barnes, are former Sen. Franklin Spears of San Antonio, Sen. Murrary Watson of Waco and Sen. Ralph Hall of Rockwall.

Liberal Democratic coalition groups in Texas have launched a campaign headed by former Sen. Franklin Spears of San Antonio to register 5,000,000 state residents to vote in 1968.

Representatives of the AFL-CIO, Political Association of Spanish Speaking Organizations (PASO), Texas Liberal Democrats and Negro communities met here to kick off the drive. Spears' group will be known as the "Committee for Better Voter Participation."

DISTRICTS WARNED The State Board of Education warned 32 school districts for violations of accreditation standards.

STATE DEPOSITS EARN INTEREST State deposits earned $10,000,000 in interest the past fiscal year. This is up 20 per cent over the previous year.

Treasurer Jesse James estimates that the current year's earning will total $11,600,000. He said an increase in interest rates and swelling balances in state funds brought the record yield.

About $252,000,000 in state funds is placed on interest in some 1,000 banks over the state.

COURTS SPEAK Court of Criminal Appeals held that convicts seeking freedom under recent federal court decisions must file their petitions with district courts.

Habeas corpus petitions have been received from some 35 prisoners a month, claiming violations of their constitutional rights. Most of them are handwritten and claim improper sentencing, illegal confinement or conviction because they did not have proper legal aid.

An amendment to the Code of Criminal Procedure this year permits district courts to consider such pleas.

GENTRY HONORED Texas Highway Department will dedicate a new roadside park in Van Zandt County on September 24. It will honor the late Grady Gentry, former congressman. He was chairman of the Texas Highway Commission for the six years in the early 1940's.

"Neither Rain, Nor Mud, Nor ..." As Winters Blizzards Nip Coleman "11"

In spite of rain and a muddy field, the Winters Blizzards evened their season record at one and one by beating the Coleman Bluecats 21-13 in Coleman Friday night.

Showing an improved ground attack, the Blizzards drove for a touchdown in the first quarter after receiving the opening kickoff. The 60-yard drive was climaxed when Fred Wilder went over left tackle for the TD. Bob Colburn kicked the extra point for a 7-0 lead.

Coleman then returned the compliment by taking the kickoff and proceeding downfield. Quarterback Howard sneaked over from the one but failed on the extra point try. The kick was blocked by Donald Wade and left the Blizzards ahead by the narrow margin of 7-6.

The Winters team once again began to move the ball with Fred Wilder, John Sims and Mike Kozelsky carrying the running load. A 10-yard pass to Randy Boles was the only aerial as the Blue drove 55 yards for their next six points. Wilder carried in from the four and the lead was 13-6 at halftime.

Midway through the third quarter, Coleman's Howard chased down a Blizzard punt at the 17 and as his blocking wall formed, raced down the side line and into the end zone. The extra point try was good and the game was tied at 13-13.

The Winters team, determined to win, came back strong. They brought the kickoff back to the 40-yard line and began a 60-yard march. The Blizzards controlled the ball and came up with big fourth down plays to get the needed yardage. John Sims carried over from the two yard line and Mike Kozelsky added two points on a run. Winters held on to a 21-13 lead until the end of the game by tough defense. Randy Boles' pass interception with seconds on the clock iced down the game.

Winters made 18 first down to 8 for Coleman and gained 220 yards to 99 for Coleman. Donald Wade led the defenders with 7 tackles. In spite of a wet field, there were no fumbles lost by either team.

Brush and Weeds Require Nearly As Much Water As All Other Purposes

"Worthless brush and weeds waste nearly as much water as is used for all other purposes in Texas," according to H. N. Smith, State Conservationist of the Soil Conservation Service, Temple. "One of our greatest potentials for saving water is reducing this waste by non-economic plants."

Smith said at least 10 million acre-feet of water could be saved annually by a complete grassland restoration program in Texas. This is about three-fourths the amount now used by all consumers. This saving would go a long way to assist in easing future water shortages, he said.

This is part of the information in a new publication just released by the SCS, "Grassland Restoration, Part V, Effect Of Water Yield And Supply," by C. A. Rechenhuth and H. N. Smith. The booklet is the fifth in a series dealing with Texas rangelands. It documents huge water losses that occur each year from brush and weed infestation. It shows how municipal, industrial, and agricultural water supplies are reduced on watersheds infested with brush and weeds.

In a 1964 survey, SCS found that 88 million acres, or 82 percent of Texas' 107 million acres of grassland, are infested with brush. Range conservationists say that four out of every five acres are producing less than half their potential.

More than one-third of the rain that falls in the State each year is being used up by non-economic plants, according to the estimates made by Dr. J. R. Johnson of the Agricultural Research Service. He says that 138 million acre-feet are being wasted by weeds and brush each year.

Since grass uses less water than most other plants, there are vast opportunities for cutting water losses by improving infested grasslands.

Using the limited research available, Rechenhuth and Smith give a detailed study in the new booklet of the effects of grassland improvement on water supplies. For example, treating salt-cedar infested areas could save as much as three feet of water per year for each acre treated. Savings on upland would vary from more than 6 inches in the eastern part of the State to smaller amounts in the drier sections.

Annual water savings could total 2 million acre-feet each in the Brazos and Colorado River watersheds; one million each in the Nueces and Red River watersheds (Texas portion); three-quarter million each in the Rio Grande-Pecos and Trinity watersheds; and more than one-half million acre-feet in the Guadalupe-San Antonio watersheds.

Smith said that water has always been one of Texas' most valuable but least abundant resources. He said saving water by improving grasslands will benefit all Texans.

The booklets are available at SCS offices.

The Things We Say

By RUBY SHANNON

The little state of Delaware was the first to ratify the Constitution of the United States, and for this reason it is called "the first state." Delaware is also called "the diamond state" for despite its small size, it has many riches. Few people know, however, why it is also called "the Blue Hen state."

During the Revolutionary War, soldiers from Delaware fought exceptionally well—so well in fact that the people compared them to a brood of fighting cocks. A Captain Caldwell of Delaware who was an officer in the Revolutionary War said no cock could be truly game unless he had a blue hen for his mother; and thus arose the rebuke to one who boasted of his descent. "Your mother was a blue hen, no doubt!"

The people from Delaware are sometimes called "the blue hen's chickens" because of their ancestors' record in the great war.

When Delaware adopted its state bird, the domesticated game cock became the natural choice. This fowl is called the "Blue Hen Chicken."

Delaware is unique in other ways. The Swedish and Finnish settlers in the Delaware region in 1638 built the first log cabins in America, and the Delaware constitution, unlike those of other states, can be amended by the legislature without the consent of the voters. Part of Delaware's boundary is a semi-circle, and units of local government are called "hundreds."

The delightful, mellow, golden-tasting peanut butter with the virtually irresistible qualities of fresh peanuts is considered a top favorite with the junior group. Of course, the adult members of the family are also sufficiently young in heart to share their enthusiasm. In this, though, one might add that peanut butter is plentiful. The good—it's good in food value. Important for B vitamins and exceptionally high in niacin, peanuts rate high among the vegetable foods in the quantity and quality of proteins they furnish. Supply of peanuts and peanut butter are plentiful. The 1966 peanut crop total over 1.2 million tons. This is one percent above the record 1965 crop and about 32 percent over the 1960-64 average.

Peanut butter is available in several grinds to meet your needs or preferences—chunk, medium and fine. For a smooth texture in your food preparation, use a fine grind; for an interesting "broken nut" effect, use a coarse grind.

A CLEAN BREAK WITH THE PAST

"Sold on the cleanliness!" says Mrs. John Barrows of San Angelo, Texas. The Barrows have lived in total-electric comfort for almost three years, and are pleased with the living! Pleased that it is so clean...less dust. Pleased with the electric cooling and heating because it does such an "excellent job." Pleased that they can set the temperature controls one time in the summer, and one time in the winter and a constant temperature is maintained. The Barrows are pleased that there have been no service problems with the heating or cooling units, no cold spots in winter or hot corners in the summer. Both are especially pleased that the electric bill is so reasonable. Only $42.31 per month average. That is the total operating cost for cooling, heating, lighting, laundry, water heating, cooking, cleaning and running all of the work-saving electrical appliances for a family of 5—and Robert, age 15; Ken, age 11; and Bryan, age 10; are active youngsters who open and close the refrigerator a lot...need lots of clean clothes and open and close doors frequently. Seven room, 2300 square feet—just $42.31 per month average.

'68s Top Secrets are here 1968 Chevrolets

The 1968 Chevrolets are the very essence of modern design. Every line, every curve is in close harmony. It's a smooth, uncluttered look with roof lines compatible with body lines, grilles and bumpers that blend gracefully into long, rounded fenders. Clean, flowing, beautiful in their simplicity, these '68 Chevrolets are rich and advanced in styling beyond any you've ever seen.

A MORE SILENT RIDE
And for 1968, we've gone to every length to give you more peace and quiet inside. The most sophisticated computers have been used to strategically place body mounts and successfully isolate noise and vibration. Shock absorbers have been improved. The wheel stance on many models is wider for greater smoothness. Exhaust systems have been redesigned to make them whisper-quiet. Even the clocks tick more softly. A sound car is a silent car. The '68 Chevrolets are the most silent, highest quality cars we've ever built.

BETTER PERFORMANCE
There are new engines, a bigger standard Six and V8. There's a new 250-hp V8 you can order that runs on regular fuel. Many new engine components increase dependability and keep your new Chevrolet running stronger. There's a new rear axle ratio you can add for greater economy. On most engines equipped with automatic transmissions, there's a special heater for the carburetor which gives you more efficient performance in cold weather. And with every engine, you get the new GM exhaust emission control.

UNIQUE ASTRO VENTILATION
There's a whole new idea in ventilation, called Astro Ventilation, for Camaro, Corvette and the elegant Caprice Coupe. It's also available on many other models. By opening two new vent-ports on the instrument panel, you bring in outside air that can be directed where you want it. This way, you can leave your windows rolled up and add still more to your peace and quiet.

PROVED SAFETY FEATURES
You get the proved GM-developed energy absorbing steering column, folding front seat back latches, dual master cylinder brake system with warning light, plus many more new features. Among them: energy absorbing front seat backs, and safety armrests that shield the door handles.

MUCH MORE THAT'S NEW
There are new roof lines, some formal and graceful, others sporty and quick. There are new instrument panels, richly designed and all controls within easy reach. There are new interiors, new vinyls, new fabrics, new colors. There are models with Hide-A-Way windshield wipers and headlights that disappear behind grilles. There are new side marker lamps, new recessed taillights. There's even a new ignition alarm buzzer that reminds you not to walk away and leave your keys in the car.

These are the newest, the most different, the most dramatically changed Chevrolets ever. And they're at your Chevrolet dealer's now. You'll thoroughly enjoy slipping behind the wheel, experiencing the smooth new handling and library-quiet ride and, more than anything, seeing and feeling the even greater quality built into every new Chevrolet for 1968.

Roger Babson Report—
Prices Of Land and Building of Homes Not Expected To Decline

When To Buy A Home
Babson Park, Mass. Right now, people in practically every community in the United States are trying to decide when is the best time to buy a home. A good many of them are shying away because of high costs. . . not realizing that postponement will gain them little or nothing.

Prices For Land
Parcels of land in some sections may be slow to appreciate, but prices for most large tracts in the United States are firmly locked in a long-term uptrend. Advancing population and industrial expansion, as well as the encroachment of superhighways and sprawling airports, are causing higher land tags generally — almost from month to month.

Building Costs
And unless you should eventually happen upon a lucky deal, there's not too much chance of course these values could dip in time of widespread economic recession. Also, parcels in certain localities could weaken because of a deteriorating neighborhood or business district. So, if you have been holding up on plans to build or buy a home because you expect a worthwhile slide-off in land prices, forget it!

Mortgage Money
The pressures of the Vietnam war and of the government's ambitious Great Society programs, plus record expansion in expenditures for new and updated plant and equipment, have created an excessive demand for capital. This has raised mortgage rates to the highest levels in many a decade. There is only scant hope that they will decline more than fractionally any time soon.

'FLYING CRANE' saves thousands of man-hours in valuable construction time in Vietnam. Here the CH-54 places an 18,000-pound bridge span on pillars for a structure across a South Vietnamese river.

CUTTING THROUGH the ripples of a quiet lake, man in his boat interrupts a visual pattern. The unusual effect was obtained because of lighting from behind the subject, producing not only the silhouette effect but darkening the ripple lines. Gloria Hope Is Honored With
Bridal Shower

Gloria Hope, bride-elect of Ronnie Poehls, was honored Tuesday, September 12, with a bridal shower in the home of Mrs. Glen Bryan of Norton.

Guests were registered by Sallye Harris. The serving table was laid with white lace cloth over blue, and was decorated with a centerpiece featuring a miniature bride and groom surrounded by blue flowers. Mrs. Clifton Bryan and Shara Bryan served refreshments to approximately 63 guests.

Special guests included the honoree's mother, Mrs. Eugene B. Hope, her grandmother, Mrs. Joe Crockett, and Mrs. Ed Poehls, mother of the prospective bridegroom.

Hostesses for the shower were Mmes. C. D. Tekell, Jack Pritchard, and L. B. Watkins, all of Wilmett; Mmes. Bill Mayo, Raymond Lloyd, Crockett Hodges, Wilburn Phelps, and Dwan Vogler, all of Winters; Mmes. Kirby Robinson, Sealy Bryan, Clifton Bryan, Alfons Jansa, Glen Bryan, Marlin Davis, H. A. Bryan, Frank Greger, and Miss Shara Bryan, all of Norton; and Sallye Harris of Maverick.

the average interest rate on new mortgages was 6.29 percent, — up from 6.28 percent in May; and in many parts of the country mortgages can be negotiated at rates closer to, or even below, 6 percent. Of course, as a general rule you will pay a good deal more in the West, where rates have ruled much higher for many years. The important point is: If you shop carefully, you can probably get a better mortgage deal than you expect — even in these days of high interest rates and tighter availability.

Personal Considerations
With the exception of the very newly married, whose resources may be too slender to warrant building or buying a home at this time, conditions probably are not such as to warrant your postponing the building or purchase of a home which you need or could use to good advantage right now. In the matter of a home, personal considerations should rule. Any time is the right time to build or buy if the investment will result in healthier, happier living for family members.

But whether you build or buy, investigate carefully, plan wisely, "cutting your cloth" — and the size and over-all cost of the house — to what you need for gracious (not extravagant) living and what you can afford without going too deeply into debt.

As It Looks From Here

Omar Bureson, M. C.
17th District, Texas

A decision by our Government, of tremendous importance and far-reaching consequences, appears to be rather imminent.

Shortly, our top policy makes are to decide whether we build an anti-missile defense system or depend, as Secretary of Defense McNamara has argued, on a nuclear offensive system as a deterrent against attack.

Top negotiators have been talking to Soviet representatives, trying to effect an agreement that neither will build a defensive system. The Russians have not given a flat no, but according to certain intelligence reports, are building parts of such a system at the present time.

If the United States is to build an ABM system, its extensiveness has not been decided. As a beginning, the figure of $10 billion is mentioned as the pricetag. This however, is intended to be a "thin line" barrier against possible Chinese nuclear warheads after 1970. An all-out system, built against nuclear attack from the Soviet Union, is estimated to cost $30 billion and, like most Governmental estimates, is probably on the low side.

For many months a controversy has existed within the Defense Department as to the advisability of building a defensive barrier. Secretary McNamara has contended that America's nuclear capability is so great that it can never be crippled by a Soviet Union first attack. He argues that our capabilities are four to five times greater than the Russians and that our ability to retaliate could destroy them. The Secretary has felt that the billions for an anti-ballistic system would be money down the drain.

The Joint Chiefs of Staff and other military men have contended that a defensive system is vital to our survival in the event of an attack.

It was surprising to the world that the Chinese Communists were able to explode an advanced nuclear device as early as they did. What remains for Red China to become a real threat, instead of only potentially dangerous, is their ability to develop a delivery vehicle. Before their split with Russia, Soviet technicians had worked on the development of a booster rocket, which, it is assumed, is carried on by Red China, although in a handicapped way. It must be assumed, however, that a delivery capability will eventually be developed. With Red China outside of any international agreement, and showing no concern for responsibility, the possibility of a threat from that direction can not be safely ignored.

There is evidence that the Soviets may be developing a multi-headed missile. It is described as being capable of separating warheads at a given point to strike at five or six targets simultaneously. Thus far, we have no defense against such an attack, but only a warning system which, in theory, gives time to unleash our own weapons in retaliation.

For months, both publicly and privately, Moscow has been prodded to talk about an agreement not to construct an anti-ballistic missile system. To complicate the matter further, aside from a provision for inspection by one side or the other, is the thought that the Russians are not interested in such an agreement as long as we continue the pressure on North Viet Nam. In talks with Russian officials, likely a part of the private conversations at Glassboro, the Soviets indicate that if the war in Viet Nam is de-escalated, they may be willing to hold talks leading to agreements. From certain testimony before Committees of the Congress, it is indicated that this is a factor as to whether or not the Port of Haiphong should be destroyed.

Martha SS Class
Elected Officers

Martha Sunday School Class of the Southside Baptist Church elected officers in a special meeting Sunday morning.

Mrs. Ellis Chapman was named president of the class, and Mrs. Mittie Rice, vice president. Mrs. Fred Young was named teacher for the class, and Mrs. R. D. Pounders to head the card committee.

The class will have a social Oct. 10 at the home of Mrs. R. D. Pounders.

There were 12 members present at this meeting.

Club Has Started
Christmas Box

Members of the Winters Women's Industrial Club have started gathering items to be included in a Christmas box to be presented to the children in the State Hospital at Abilene. Hand-made toys, dolls, animals, and doll clothing are made at meetings.

The club met for an all-day session at the club house Wednesday, Sept. 13. A pot luck luncheon was served, with each member bringing a covered dish. Mrs. Agnes Lawrence presided.

Mrs. Lawrence read an article written by a club member, "Everybody Waits for Somebody Else, and Nobody Does Anything." A new member, Mrs. Grace Waggoner, joined the club.

Several articles were brought in for the Christmas box, including candy, school tablets, pencils, etc. Other contributions will be made at the next meeting.

Members present were Mesdames Lawrence, W. H. Proctor, John Shipman, R. B. Osborne, Walter Daniel, Earl Chammond, E. D. Voelker, Lora Coupland, and Miss Emma Heninger, and the new member, Mrs. Waggoner.
