Benefits In SS Due Disabled Before The Age of 31

One of the recent changes in the social security law will benefit many young families, according to Ted F. Moellering, of the San Angelo social security office. Benefits are now available to some workers, disabled before they reach age 31, who could not have been eligible under the old law.

"Under the old law," Mr. Moellering said, "a worker needed social security credits for at least 5 out of the 10 years before he became disabled unless he became disabled before 31 because of blindness. But a young worker might not have had a chance to work long enough to meet this requirement."

"Now, if he becomes disabled between 24 and 31, he needs to have worked under social security for only half the time between age 21 and the time he became disabled. Also, if he is disabled before he is 24, he will need only 1 1/2 years of work in the 3-year period ending when disability begins."

Mr. Moellering urges all workers who became disabled before 31, regardless of their age now, to get in touch with the local social security office soon, even if they have had a previous claim turned down because they had not worked enough. The new law may help them and their families. If they have young children, monthly benefits may be available to the wife and youngsters as well as to the disabled worker.

For further information and assistance in filing applications contact the social security office at 3000 West Harris Avenue in San Angelo, Texas. The telephone number is 949-4608. Or, if you prefer, contact our representative when he is in your area.

Fire Auxiliary Has Demonstration On Bread Making

Miss Jimmie Templeton of San Angelo, home economist for Lone Star Gas Co., presented a demonstration on bread making to members of the Winters Fireman's Auxiliary Thursday evening in the Winters school Home-making Cottage.

Miss Templeton explained how to take advantage of canned biscuits and rolls. The breads she prepared were served along with ice tea and coffee to members and their guests.

Present were Mrs. Edward Otwell, D. W. Williams, Carson Easterly, Frank Carter, A. B. Prince, Don Emmert, Leon Hilliard, Robert Carey, Marvin Bedford and Billy Buchanan.

PAMPA GRADUATE

Nell Duncan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Duncan of Pampa, former residents of Winters, has graduated as valedictorian of her Pampa high school class of 300, maintaining an average of 96.73. Miss Duncan is the granddaughter of Mrs. Era Duncan of Winters.

MRS. KENNETH EARL TISCHLER

Kathy May Weeks and Kenneth Earl Tischler Recite Marriage Vows

Marriage vows were recited Friday May 24, at 7:00 o'clock in the evening, uniting Kathy May Weeks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ihlenfeldt, and Kenneth Earl Tischler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Tischler. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, 707 East Truett.

The Rev. Walter C. Probst Sr., pastor of the St. John's Lutheran Church, officiated for the double ring ceremony before an arch entwined with greenery and red roses. Dexter and Delford Shores sang "I Love You Truly."

Ring bearers were Ricky Weeks of Coleman and Diana Weeks of Evant.

Harvey Tischler of Winters was best man and the bride's attendant was Serena Tischler, maid of honor. She wore a pink peau de soie, floor-length empire dress with bell skirt and elbow length bell shape sleeves.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal heirloom wedding gown of candlelight white satin. The fitted bodice was enhanced by inserts of Alcon lace and the bouffant skirt swept to carpet length. Her shoulder length veil of illusion edged in lace fell from a bridal crown of seed pearls. She carried a Colonial bouquet of feathered carnations with long satin streamers.

Miss Talbert Was Honored At Gift Tea Here Recently

Miss La Verne Talbert, bride-elect of Rickey Boles, was honored with a gift tea in the home of Mrs. Ray Laughon recently.

Mrs. Laughon greeted guests and presented the honoree, her mother, Mrs. B. N. Talbert of Mountain Home, and the mother of the bridegroom-to-be, Mrs. M. W. Boles.

The serving table was covered with white linen cloth, and floral arrangements of yellow and white roses with yellow streamers carried out the bride's chosen colors. Mrs. Kenneth Sneed served punch and Mrs. O. H. Green served cake.

Others in the house party were Mrs. G. W. Sneed, Mrs. J. C. Hodnett, Mrs. Wayne Seals, Mrs. Jack Pierce, Mrs. Charles Wearden, Mrs. J. T. Parker, Mrs. C. L. Mostad, Mrs. Earnest Haupt and Mrs. Jim Prine.

The couple will be married Saturday, June 1, in Sunset Baptist Church, Mountain Home.

Mary Martha Circle Met In Church Parlor

Members of the Mary Martha Circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church, met in the church parlor with Mrs. Shook as hostess.

Mrs. J. D. Vinson presided, and Miss Frances Stricklin led the opening prayer. A short business meeting was held.

Mrs. George Garrett read two poems and Mrs. Shaffrina presented the program from "The World Outlook."

Cookies, coffee and fruit juice was served to Mesdames Nichols, Daniels, Denton, Stanley, those previously mentioned, and two visitors, Mesdames Neely and Mitchell.

Mrs. Carl Green left Tuesday for Oklahoma City to undergo eye treatment.

Mrs. Duncan Hensley is a surgical patient in St. John Hospital, San Angelo. Duncan is a patient there also and is slightly improved.

Several from here attended the singing at Shep Community Center Monday night.

Visitors in the Edwin Voss home were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vogler, Mrs. Ralph Watson and Mrs. Lindsey.

Mrs. Charlie Polk of Stanton has been visiting in the home of the Enoch Doggetts, Emma Doggett, Mrs. Annie Phillips and with Granny Sliger.

Mrs. Holder isn't doing as well lately.

Don't forget homecoming at Wingate school Sunday, June 2. Mrs. Wheat received word that Mr. A. Dooley's mother passed away. Burial was in Hamilton Tuesday. Mr. Dooley was superintendent of Wingate school a number of years and is now in Christoval.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt Bryan and children made a business trip to San Angelo Monday and later were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bryan.

Larry Hensley is here at the bedside of his mother and father in St. John Hospital.

Flags were placed on Veterans' graves at Wingate Thursday.

We are proud of the way our cemetery is being kept. Mr. L. S. Morris is our caretaker.

Changes In Patterns

Beginning in November 1967, major pattern companies revised their sizing. Although the companies follow a standard set of measurements, their patterns differ in fit. Juanita O'Connor, Extension Home Demonstration agent, says shoulder width and slant, shape of armholes and necklines may vary, along with ease allowed for body movement and comfort. Because of these variations, some brands will fit you better than others. While bust, waist length measurements are a guide, you may need to try different brands of patterns to find the best possible fit, she explains.

When selecting the size, compare your measurements with the chart and select the size which most closely corresponds to them. When you select the correct figure type and pattern size, alteration and fitting problems are kept to a minimum, says the agent.

Take snug, but not tight measurements. Use a tape measure that is in good condition.

Take bust measurements around the figure over the fullest part. The waist should be taken at the natural waistline.

Measure from the bone at the base of the neck to the waistline for the back waist length. For the hip inches, measure around seven inches below the waistline for misses, women and junior sizes.

Service Tuesday In Temple For Miss Rosa Polk

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 10:30 a. m. from Harper-Talasek Funeral Chapel in Temple for Miss Rosa Polk, 86. Burial was in Pleasant Hill Cemetery at Nolanville.

Miss Polk died at 9:20 a. m. Sunday, May 26, at Overall Memorial Hospital in Coleman, following an illness of four years. She had been hospitalized for eight days. The body was in state at Spill Funeral Home in Winters until noon Monday and then taken to Temple for burial.

She was born March 22, 1882, in Bell County near Nolanville, and had lived in Bell County most of her life, and in Temple for many years. The past 18 months she had lived in the Rolling Hill Nursing Home at Coleman.

Miss Polk was a graduate nurse, having graduated from Scott and White Hospital in Temple in 1908. During World War I she was on active duty with the U. S. Army as a nurse. Following her discharge from the Army she served as a special and regular nurse in Temple for more than 40 years.

She was a member of the Methodist Church.

Miss Polk was an aunt of Miss Eunice Polk, Mrs. Clarence Hambricht and Mrs. Pearl Summers, all of Winters.

Other survivors include a brother, Albert Polk of Andrews; a niece, Mrs. May Tate of Talpa; a niece, Mrs. C. O. Bollman of Dallas, and a nephew, Joe Spencer of Hewitt.

Nephews were pallbearers.

Junior Culture Club Installed Officers Saturday

Installation of officers for 1968-69 for the Junior Culture Club was held at 9:20 a. m. Saturday, May 25, in the home of Mrs. Bobby Blackwood, at a breakfast meeting.

Officers installed for the new year were Mrs. Wayne Solomon, president; Miss Nancy Grundy, vice president; Mrs. Paul Michaelis, secretary; Mrs. Bobby Blackwood, treasurer; Mrs. Dennis Rodgers, communications secretary; Mrs. O. O. Funderburg Jr., parliamentarian; Mrs. Billy Joe Colburn, historian; and Mrs. Douglas Cole, federation counselor.

Mrs. Billy Joe Colburn, vice president, presided for the meeting. Mrs. Colburn introduced Mrs. Bobby Rogers, who installed the officers. She used the theme, "Diamond Opportunities," in installation ceremonies.

Walleye Stocked In North Concho Lake

A lone white pelican made a rare visit inland recently when it stopped off at Meridian State Park, four miles southeast of Meridian.

Park Attendant L. C. Cole said the bird spent the night on the 90-acre lake there and flew north about 9 o'clock the next morning.

Birdwatchers who observed the pelican theorized that the bird was an old bachelor who had been left behind or forgotten when other members of its families started moving north to their summer home.

You don't lose your shirt by rolling up your sleeves.

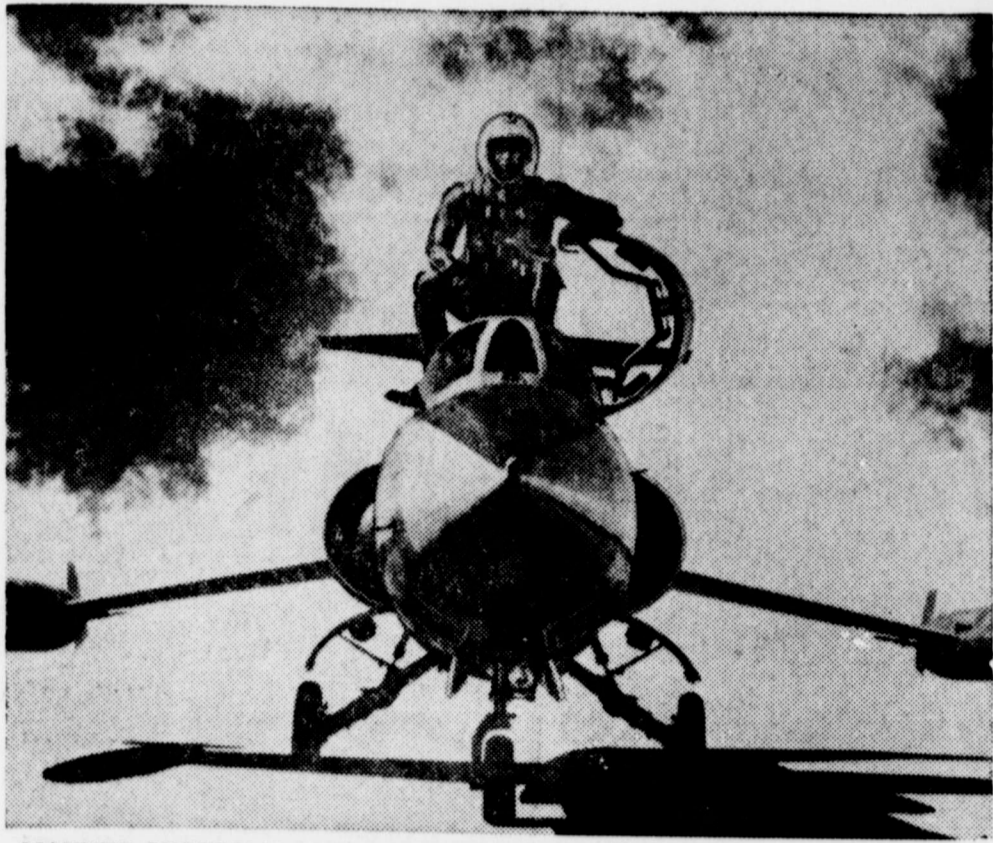

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Lynn Billups, Mrs. Dennis Rodgers, Mrs. Johnny Weems, and Mrs. Wayne Solomon.

Others present were Mmes. O. J. Murray, Cecil Hambricht, Gayland Robinson, and Tommy Russell.

GRANTS APPROVED
Planning grants for two more State Regional Sewage Treatment Facilities were made by the Texas Water Quality Board. Approved was a $300,000 grant for the Alamo Area Council of Governments (San Antonio River Basin), and one for $95,650 to the Coastal Bend Regional Planning Commission (Corpus Christi region).

Another $1,061,850 remains in the Board's plans pending applications for grants by the Houston-Galveston Area Council, Brazos River Authority, Rio Grande Valley Pollution Control Authority, Northeast Texas Municipal Water District, and Guadalupe-Blanco River Authority and the Upper Guadalupe River Authority.

SHORT SNORTS
A total of 18 candidates have filed for the House of Representatives, District 33, Place 5, in the June 18 special election at Dallas to pick a successor to the late Rep. Joseph Lockridge. Governor Connally expects to attend the first part of the Southern Governor's Conference because of the special session.

State Building Commission has set June 11 for bid opening on construction of the first new building at the Lyndon B. Johnson State Park across Ranch Road 1 from the LBJ Ranch in Gillespie County.

On June 19th, State Supreme Court will hear the South Plains Underground Water Conservation District's appeal of a District Four election contest.

Noting that a four-day weekend holiday starts Friday (May 30) for many Texans, the Texas Highway Department issued safe-driving warnings and bulletins pinpointing current construction projects.

BABSON'S POINT OF VIEW

Reuther Planning Own Mini-Federation

Babson Park, Mass. Walter Reuther, dynamic leader of the United Auto Workers, has long been planning to withdraw from the AFL-CIO and take his membership with him. Now he has done it, by the simple strategy of refusing to pay the UAW monthly dues into the Federation's coffers. The AFL-CIO's constitution provides for suspension of any affiliate falling more than three months behind—and the UAW stopped payment early this year.

Long Feud Brought Schism

The feud has been in the cards for a long while. Thirteen years ago Reuther aided Meany in bringing together the long-separated Federation and the CIO to formulate the AFL-CIO. Reuther hoped that his powerful position as President of the UAW would eventually lead him into the line of succession for leader of the union movement when Meany stepped down. But this never came about. Nor did Meany ever encourage his ambitious lieutenant at all in this direction.

Trouble For Some Employers

If fate should smile on Reuther and most of these prospective groups actually join up with him, it could have a smashing impact on labor relations. For one thing, there would be enough money from dues to implement Reuther's plans to rev up organizing and bargaining tactics. Should he be successful with a smoothly streamlined approach, some of the younger leaders of AFL-CIO segments might decide later to throw in their lots with the new mini-federation.

Rivalry between the AFL-CIO and its pugnacious offshoot could bring serious woes to employers in the affected fields.

Competition for the unorganized might easily become as rambunctious as it was in the old days when the CIO and the AFL were separate and hostile. There would inevitably develop the old system of pirating members from established locals. Once such rough and tumble moves begin, the bitterness would increase and invite more out of the Meany fold more than a million and a half members and better than $1 million annually in dues. According to insiders, however, this is only Step One for the aspiring "renegade." His aim is said to be the construction of a federation of his own, and a number of union officials within the AFL-CIO may well be interested in seeing whether he has more to offer than they might attain by staying with Meany.

Mentioned among those at least interested in Reuther's siren call are the Rubber Workers, American Federation of Government Workers, and the Teachers Union. If all of these groups should pull out, it would add close to 600,000 more members to the emerging separate house of labor. And, of course, it would mean a substantial addition to the income from dues. Brought about, also, have been reports that Reuther would welcome the enormous and wealthy Teamsters Union into his organization. This division of unionism has been independent since it was cast out of the Federation some years ago for corrupt practices and Red infiltration.

What Reuther's Move Means

The intentions of the UAW chieftain are undoubtedly more impressive than may be immediately apparent. By leaving the Federation he has brought

AUDREY HEPBURN and EFREM ZIMBALIST, JR., are husband and wife in the suspense-thriller from Warner Bros.-Seven Arts, "Wait Until Dark."

There are just too many youngsters for the number of job openings. That is why special co-operation is essential among all concerned during the critical time of transition from spring into summer. Companies anxious to help by providing all possible full-time employment for the vacation period can find many sources of encouragement.

Importance Of Summer Placement For Teenagers

Babson Park, Mass. Finding jobs for vacationing students will be a more significant problem than ever during the forthcoming summer season. Many youngsters will need money to meet the ever-mounting costs of education, especially those from large families and—or with limited means. Then, too, it is vitally important to keep teenage idleness at a minimum during the hot summer months when urban violence is so easily sparked.

Youthful Labor Force On The Increase

The sudden and dynamic expansion of the labor force when schools and colleges close down for the summer is nothing new. It has always presented difficulties. But the summer of 1968 promises perplexities well beyond the usual. In the first place, Labor Department statistics for the twenty largest metropolitan areas of the nation indicate that some 2,555,000 mostly full-time positions must be found if work opportunities are to be made available for all the teenagers expected to be seeking jobs.

Total teenage employment during the summer of 1967 amounted to only 2,125,000. While the increase of 430,000 anticipated for this year's vacation season may not at first glance appear excessive, it will still take effort of private industry and of government agencies to absorb this additional labor reservoir. During recent years, both private and public employers have put on impressive campaigns to place young people in summer jobs with the smallest amount of delay and confusion. Vice President Humphrey has spearheaded these campaigns, and he will strive for even greater success this year.

Focus Of Trouble In The Cities While the question of finding summer employment is general throughout the country, the problem in urban centers is always particularly difficult. Cotton is tops in comfort.

"Wait Until Dark"

Audrey Hepburn is regarded as one of the international screen's most special talents. She is one of the world's best dressed women, she has a genuine warmth and a gracious personality. She has managed to portray, in most of her screen characters, women of spectacular elegance and deep substance.

Through some 16 films, audiences have succumbed to her felicitous personality. Now, Miss Hepburn brings her priceless look, inimitable glow and formidable dramatic capabilities to the exacting role of a blind girl in "Wait Until Dark." The Warner Bros.-Seven Arts suspense-thriller marks her return to the Warner lot since her triumph as Eliza Doolittle in the modern screen classic, "My Fair Lady."

Significantly, her portrayal of a newly-blind girl, just learning to navigate in the world of darkness, is an abrupt departure from the accepted Hepburn image. While the ultrachic look remains, gone is the Givenchy wardrobe. Also gone are the multiple costume changes and the splashy international settings. The action of "Wait Until Dark" is situated in and around a Greenwich Village apartment within the space of three days. Based on Frederick Knott's Broadway stage hit, "Wait Until Dark" was adapted for the screen by Robert and Jane-Howard Carrington. The Technicolor film, with plot twists rarely found in suspense-thrillers, shows Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the State Theater.
