HOME TOWN Talk

By R. C. THOMAS

With Fire Prevention Week only a few days off, there are a lot of things most of us should be thinking about. Most of us keep these things in the back of our minds most of the time, but it takes a "special" week or the like to make us realize that we should take some kind of action.

Due to the uncommonly heavy rainfall we have received in this area so far this year, there is a lot of grass and a lot of weeds in places where they normally do not grow profusely. These weeds and the grass have become so thick in places about town, especially on vacant lots and in alleys, that it is almost impossible to get through them. They have harbored nesting places for mosquitoes and vermin all summer and into the fall—and now they threaten to become a menace, right on our doorstep. Once frost comes and these weeds start drying up, and the grass loses its green, the danger will mount until it will take only a little spark to ignite them.

As heavy as the grass and weed growth has become this year, once a fire starts in it, it will be difficult to contain. Given a little wind—from any direction—the danger will increase manifold. There will be a threat to property and even to life, because when a fire breaks out in such fuel it is bound to spread rapidly.

We all should be thinking about taking some action to prevent what could become a disaster. We should get out and get as much of this grass and weeds cut and hauled off before they dry up. Once they do dry up, it will be harder to get them out of the way.

It would be terrible if we continued to ignore this danger only to end up in a few weeks with a property-raising fire on our hands. It would be too late then to say we wish we had gone ahead and cleaned up our property.

Continuing in this vein of thought, we found the following bit: "Can you trust your impulses?" asks a Safety Council. "In an emergency, the experts say 'No!' For instance: A woman, awakened by the smell of smoke, flung her bedroom door open—and was literally roasted alive in the hall. (No firefighter would ever open a door without first testing it for heat. A warm knob or panel indicates flame or heated suffocating smoke on the other side.)"

A favorite gambit of those who favor virtual extinction of the right of U. S. citizens to own firearms is to quote the number of people who died in a year "by gunfire." The statistic itself is pointless, and yet one national publication uses it to argue that "... anyone who wants to buy a gun must show reasonable cause why he wants it." In other words, in the matter of guns, this publication espouses police-type surveillance of private citizens. A publication also keeps hounding that "80 percent of the people" want a gun registration and control law. A statistical statement which is doubtful, to say the least.

On the same basis, mortality statistics could be used to support the abolition of a great many things—the bathtub, for instance. This would be silly. Thousands of people are killed or injured falling in bathtubs. But then it is any less ridiculous to go to the extreme in controlling gun ownership on the theory that such action would cure the crime wave? As a matter of fact, guns and their ownership by a responsible citizenry under a moderate degree of regulation are most basic and essential—not frivolous. Time after time, in peace and in war, the legendary marksmanship of the U. S. rifleman has been a source of pride and national security.

The great body of U. S. sportsmen today are a responsible lot when it comes to guns. And, they have good reason to be. There are countless clubs and organizations, and individuals, who make it a point to promote safety and intelligent use of firearms. Continuing safety education and reestablishment of respect for the law, as well as stern enforcement of laws already on the books, are the best answers to the so-called gun problem.

Attendance Good At Chamber Lunch Last Monday Noon

Twenty-six business and professional people attended the Winters Chamber of Commerce membership luncheon at the Fireside Restaurant Monday noon. The luncheon was sponsored by the board of directors of the chamber.

A special guest of the group was Lynn Nabers, Democratic nominee for the office of State Representative. Nabers told the members present that he was impressed with the interest in chamber work as evidenced by the turnout of business people who are interested enough to give some of their time even during busy periods.

R. C. Thomas, president of the Winters Chamber of Commerce, told the group that the purpose of the informal luncheon was to give the membership as a whole a chance to "become involved" in the work of the chamber; to make everyone feel that a successful chamber is not solely the responsibility of the board of directors, but that the assistance and cooperation of the entire membership is needed to carry out the programs of the chamber.

Members were asked by the directors to give their assistance and support to the membership committee, now conducting a new membership drive. They were reminded that there is a need for a larger membership in Winters; that with a larger membership, and more people all working together toward the same goal, the task would be much easier and more could be done for the promotion of the community.

Special letters were sent out by the membership committee a few days ago to non-members, inviting them to join in the important work of promoting Winters "for the good of all." The letter pointed out that "if only a few sow, nobody reaps; if everybody sows, everybody reaps."

Members present at the luncheon also were informed that plans are in the making for the annual Christmas program, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. Ideas regarding the Christmas program are being sought from the membership; they were told, and these ideas and suggestions will be acted upon by the committee planning the program.

Several of those in attendance suggested that a luncheon meeting for the membership be planned periodically, so that every member would have an opportunity to participate in the work of the organization.

First Bale Here Said To Be Good Long Staple

The government grade card on the first bale of cotton to be brought in to the Winters Gin this year has been returned, with the report that staple length is 1 1/16 inches, from a white middling bale. The cotton was graded at the Abilene grading office.

This cotton was produced by T. W. Norman, and hand-pulled. Loan price is $24.00, according to reports.

This staple length is unusual for this area, cotton men said. Average here for cotton is about 15/16 or just a little over.

Homecoming To Be Held Oct. 25

Plans were completed at a meeting of the committee held at the Chamber of Commerce office Sunday afternoon, for the Winters High School annual Homecoming October 25.

While some 500 cards were mailed to ex-students who live out of state or at a distance this does not nearly cover the list, according to the committee. They are asking the cooperation of those still living in the county to help in contacting those whom they know.

Prior to the Winters-Merkel game October 25, ex-students and visitors have been invited to eat supper at the school cafeteria. The meal will be served from 5 to 7 p. m. and will be $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for children under 12. There will be a registration fee of 25 cents for ex-students.

The Homecoming Queen will be crowned during halftime activities with escorts from the Golden Anniversary class. James Gehrels will be the announcer.

Denny Aldridge Of Longhorn Squad "Real Steady and Full of Effort"

By BILL LITTLE
Austin, Sept. 24. — (Sp1)—What do you feel when you know you're the last man between a lightning fast split end and a touchdown?

"You're scared, that's what," said Texas defensive halfback Denny Aldridge as he recalled his touchdown-saving tackle of Houston's Elmo Wright after Wright had gained 19 yards on an end-around play in the Longhorn-Cougar 20-20 tie Saturday night.

"It's like Coach (Mike) Campbell says," Aldridge reflected. "When you have to think on the football field, you're in trouble... you just have to react. Yet you can't help but realize when you think you're the last man, I knew, or at least I thought, I was the last man on Wright and I was scared. I didn't know whether I could get there or not."

But Aldridge did stab Wright as he fled toward the goal, and dropped him at Texas' 29. Three plays later, Aldridge leaped high into the air to steal a Ken Bailey pass to stop the Houston drive, and set in motion the kicking thrust that put the Longhorns in front, 14-7.

"Denny has always been real steady," said defensive backfield coach Fred Akers. "He hasn't made many mistakes and this game he made the big plays. He made some good tackles on the goal line."

Aldridge was in on the big Longhorn goal line stand, where Paul Gipson was denied a first down at the Texas 1 yard line late in the game.

"I think his main thrust had been stopped," Aldridge said. "I might have kept him from spinning away, but that's about all."

The 180-pound Aldridge has self-described "average" speed but makes up for it in effort. The senior from Winters, Texas is a two-year starter for the Longhorns.

"His biggest assets are experience and effort," Akers said.

City Will Hire Engineer For Airport Work

The Winters City Council Monday night approved employment of an engineer to work up plans for further improvement of the Winters Airport southwest of town.

Although the landing strip at the airport has been graded and leveled, and taxi strips and parking area have been cleared and leveled, there is much work to be done to get the strip in first class condition. Aircraft have been using the strip with more and more frequency the past several weeks since the strip became available.

Added improvements also are needed to meet qualifications for the cash grant from the Texas Aeronautics Commission, it was pointed out. TAC announced earlier this month that Winters would receive a grant of $24,000 to airport improvement, but the City of Winters must provide a like amount for improvements. This requirement can be met by providing city-financed "in kind" work or improvements, it was said.

Work already accomplished at the air strip would account for a big part of the "in kind" amount, City sources said.

Employment of an engineer, or engineering firm, would be for the purpose of drawing up plans for immediate improvements, it was stated, and a full-time or resident engineer would not be required.

Hand-Pickers May Be Needed For '68 Cotton

The method of gathering cotton may come full circle in parts of North Runnels County this year, to some extent. Cotton men said this week that much of the 1968 cotton crop in this area may have to be hand-pulled "in order to save it, and have clean cotton."

Good cotton-growing conditions this year have resulted in a very good crop, it was said, and much of the cotton is so heavy with bolls that stalks are bearing to the ground. This condition makes it difficult for many mechanical pickers to readily gather it, it was stated. So many farmers may resort to the old hand-gathering method—if workers can be found.

One source said that there is a shortage of field laborers in this area, and that it may be difficult to find enough hands to hand-pull the cotton, if it turns out that this method will have to be used to any extent. It was understood that several farmers already are looking for hands, and that if they can be found, gathering will begin without waiting for defoliating spraying to be done and for the subsequent heading of the cotton.

Defoliating began within the last few days, but showers in several parts of the North Runnels Section the first of this week delayed that operation a little, it was understood.

There already is a lot of dead cotton, caused by "root rot" or "something," according to sources, and if this condition had not developed this year's crop would have been a bumper one.

Winters Warehouse reported five bales—all hand-pulled—ginned and brought in to Winters from the bins of North Runnels County.

Blizzards Travel To Clyde Friday

"We'll have a better Blizzard football team on the field this week—not in two weeks—than we've had before," said Coach Jerry Gibson midway of this week.

"Attack! Attack! Attack!" has been the work-word during leather-popping, scrimmage practice this week, in preparation for the third game of the 1968 season, against Clyde at Clyde Friday night.

Explaining the "better" team description, Coach Gibson said minor changes are being made in the strategy of offensive football, "to take advantage of the capabilities of some people on the team," and to eliminate the possibility that some people may be expected to play "over their heads."

The form of attack will not be changed, the coach said, but "we're simply expanding our system to meet capabilities." The Blizzards work from a basic tight T formation, and wide-split line.

Much has been learned from the two previous games—both losses for the Blizzards—and the Blizzards are doing a lot of homework on past mistakes, it was indicated.

The Blizzards have this one more non-conference game before opening league play against Anson at Anson October 4. Their first two pre-league games were against Class A teams, Sonora and Goddham, teams which are standing out strong in their respective district and classification.

Clyde, this week's opponent, has been a hard-luck squad on the past 12 comeouts. They ended last year's season with an 0-10 record, and have dropped their two first games this year.

Runnels FB Asks Special Heed To Fire Prevention

Hugo Vogelsang, president of the Runnels County Farm Bureau, urges Runnels County Citizens to pay special heed to the observance of National Fire Prevention Week, October 6-12.

"We ask that everyone develop good fire safety habits including care with matches and smoking, good housekeeping to rid the home of rubbish and proper use of electrical fuses, electric appliances and extension cords," Vogelsang said. He added, "Fires killed more than 112,000 persons and cost more than $1.7 billion in the U. S. last year."

Fire Bureau has two programs designed to help contain fire losses, said Vogelsang. The county FB, in cooperation with the Texas FB, sponsors the attendance of local volunteer firemen to the annual Firemen's Training School each summer at College Station. More than 600 firemen have attended under FB sponsorship during the past six years, he said.

Too, the state and local FB also pay $75 to fire departments for fighting rural fires on FB insured property, the county FB president said.

Vogelsang said the fall and winter months are the most vulnerable times of the year for rural fires. "When fire occurs on farm or rural property, damage is three to six times greater than in the average city fire," the FB president said.

In addition to these programs, county FB sponsors a graphic 45-minute fire prevention demonstration. More than 100 were given before schools, civic clubs and other groups by the Texas FB safety department during the past school year.

Baptist Youth Choir Will Present "Good News" At Fort Worth Church

The Youth Choir of the First Baptist Church, Winters, has accepted an invitation to present the Christian Folk Musical "Good News," at the West Highland Hills Baptist Church in Fort Worth, Tommy Seymour, the church Minister of Youth and Music, has announced.

The choir will go to Fort Worth Saturday, September 28, for a 6 p. m. presentation of the musical.

There are 25 singers, with several soloists and ensembles, in the choir. Principle soloist

The Merkel Badgers swept them September 13, 39-0, and then the Hamlin Pied Pipers clobbered them 56-0 last week.

Clyde probably has 7 offensive and 7 defensive returnees back from last year, and reportedly lack speed and size. But they could be approaching the end of their loss skein, and could become weary of so many losses and develop into a threat on any given Friday night. This possibility the Blizzards will be watching for this Friday night as they take to the field.

Injuries have been few and not enough to plague the Blizzards as yet this season. One injury, a slight one, received in play against Coahoma last Friday night, may prevent one Wintersman from starting this week. Donald Wade received a slight injury to a shin last week, and will be a doubtful starter this week.

There may be some other slight changes in the starting lineups, Coach Gibson said, but basically it will be the same Blizzard team—only a "better" one—starting this week against Clyde.

Chevrolet Offers Wide Choice In Engines and Transmissions for 1969

The widest choice of engines and transmissions in automotive history head a parade of exclusive Chevrolet features for 1969, E. M. Estes, general manager, said this week.

"This unparalleled opportunity for the 1969 buyer to custom tailor his car's performance and economy typifies the variety and value with which Chevrolet expects to increase its industry leadership," Estes said.

"Other exclusive Chevrolet features are computer-selected springs for improved ride, jet stream headlight washers for better illumination in bad weather, wider wheels to improve vehicle handling and a liquid tire chain system to increase rear tire traction on icy streets."

Estes said 35 new Chevrolet models in seven distinctive car lines for 1969 go on sale nationally on Thursday, September 26th.

"The industry's top seller—the big Chevrolet—is all new in 1969 and has the largest base V-8 engine in its class," Estes said. "It is a 327 cubic inch V-8, increased from a base 307 engine in 1968."

"The new 350 cubic inch V-8's are also introduced, one using regular fuel as does the base V-8. The big Chevrolet also offers a high torque, regular fuel 396 cubic inch engine, largest regular fuel engine in its field."

Other exclusive features listed for the new big Chevrolet are full door glass styling with improved Astro Ventilation on all models, variable-ratio power steering for more responsive maneuverability, an electrically-heated rear window defroster and a one-of-a-kind roofline for the Caprice Coupe and Impala Custom Coupe.

Chevrolet introduces in 1969 a new Turbo Hydra-Matic three-speed automatic transmission specially designed for six cylinder engines and V-8 engines up through 350 cubic inches. Teamed with the regular Turbo Hydra-Matic offered on larger displacement V-8's, this gives virtual across-the-board availability of this highly advanced transmission, Estes said.

Chevrolet also introduces a new heavy duty, three-speed fully synchronized manual transmission. Others in the wide transmission selection are the standard three-speed, optional four-speed, Powerglide two-speed automatic and Chevrolet's pace setting Torque Drive "clutchless" transmission for four and six cylinder equipped Chevy Novas and the six cylinder Camaro.

Safety and security advances on the 1969 Chevrolets range from an improved energy-absorbing steering column, contoured windshield headers and front seat head restraints to an anti-theft ignition, steering and transmission lock mounted on the steering column. (See full list.)

Estes said there is also an all-new outside and inside look for Chevrolet's sporty Camaro in 1969, plus exterior and interior styling improvements in Chevelle, Nova and Corvette and continued Corvair individuality.

Use of computer selection to get the best spring combination for each individual car increases Chevrolet vehicle quality in 1969. Each customer order is analyzed with high speed data processing equipment to determine the front and rear weight of all equipment and the proper springs to carry it. The result is carefully tailored, more consistent trim heights which insure a good ride as well as correct appearance.

Other quality improvements include stronger V-8 engine construction for greater durability, smoother, quieter engine drive-lines to help reduce noise and vibration, a new air cleaner snorkel design that makes six cylinder engines quieter and new accessory drive systems of V-8 engines which give improved durability and quieter operation. Frame and sound insulation improvements give better ride.

The advanced, power-assisted front wheel disc brakes are available for any Chevrolet, Chevelle, Nova or Camaro and are standard on SS-equipped models. Finned front wheel drum brakes and heavier duty linings at all four wheels are standard on all regular models in Chevelle, Nova and Camaro lines.

Chevrolet station wagons in 1969 are regrouped into a single line on two wheelbases for easier customer choice. A new rear design makes them "walk-in wagons." Using Chevrolet's new dual-action tailgate with a step built into the bumper, a passenger car step easily in an upright position into the passenger compartment, turn and sit in Chevrolet's rear-facing third seat. The dual-action gate is offered on all wagons.

Quiet luxury found in '69 Chevrolet Impala Custom Coupe

Sparkling with new styling refinements are the 1969 Chevrolets. New grille design, new placement of front lights and rectangular rear taillights are a few of the many changes to be found in the Impala Custom Coupe as shown above. Again Chevrolet offers an array of comfort and convenience options that personalize a car to the individual taste. The new Chevrolet line of passenger cars will be on display September 26.

There is sporty SS equipment for every coupe and convertible model of the big Chevrolet, Chevelle, Nova and Camaro. Besides a big V-8 engine and power disc brakes, special identification and suspension are included.

SS cars in Chevelle, Nova and Camaro lines also have a special hood and wide oval tires on seven-inch wide wheels—one inch wider than in 1968. White lettered tires are included on Chevelle and Camaro SS cars.

An exclusive headlight washing system is among the newest of Chevrolet's more than 400 options and accessories for 1969. It is standard on Corvettes, included on Caprice and Camaro models with concealed headlights, and optional on nearly all other models.

When the wiper-washer control is held depressed by the driver, the headlights outer lights (only on four headlight systems) are washed by jets of windshield washer fluid. This removes accumulations of road dirt, giving improved illumination.

Chevrolet's exclusive "liquid tire chain" dispensing system gives increased rear traction on ice-surfaced roads. Activated by a button on the instrument panel, dispensers mounted at the top of rear wheel housings spray the chemical against tires. The four-ounce dispenser cans are replaced when empty through the trunk compartment.

SECRET MEETING
Closer cooperation between state government and the state's leading university was the topic of an intense, high-level, secret meeting in Kerrville called by Governor Connally.

BEDFORD INSURANCE AGENCY

Chevrolet introduces 1969.

Caprice. Match this, you other 69's!

There is no joy in the land of our competitors today. But let us ask you this. Should we have made Caprice shorter instead of the longest Chevrolet ever built? Or adorned it with flashy nicknacks to make it look less expensive? Just because competition doesn't, should we not have offered you washers to clean your headlights, new variable-ratio power steering, liquid tire chain you can apply to your rear wheels at the touch of a button?

Should we have given you less power, instead of the largest standard V8 in its field? Some people think so. Our competitors.

Camaro. Who needs to say "announcing" or "new". The Hugger. And just look how it all hangs together. No gingerbread anywhere. We've improved the interior, too. Quieted the ride. Made the Astro Ventilation ventilate better. The power range is very impressive.

'69 Camaro SS Sport Coupe, plus RS equipment Standard V8 is 210 hp. SS engines available up to 325 hp. For added SS appeal: sport striping; power disc brakes; wide oval, road-hugging tires. "Unity" was the unofficial theme of both Democratic and Republican state conventions, and each party expects to carry that concept on to a victory on election day, November 5.

Democrats at Austin passed the torch to Lt. Gov. Preston Smith, their nominee for governor, and heard ringing cries to support the party's ticket from courthouses to White House. Ben Barnes, the youthful lieutenant governor nominee, and Smith literally joined hands to dispel all rumors that they would not work together.

State Democrats also adopted a 16-point platform, emphasizing need for law and order and improvements to education at all levels. They elected both liberals and conservatives to the new State Democratic Executive Committee (with only 13 holdover members) headed by Dr. Elmer C. Baum of Austin as chairman. Mrs. Ralph O'Connor of Houston as vice-chairman and H. H. Coffield of Rockdale as secretary.

Gov. John Connally broke the ice on the national ticket front by endorsing Hubert H. Humphrey and urging Democrats to hand together in his behalf. And the convention was read a telegram from Pres. Lyndon B. Johnson saying Humphrey is his man.

In Fort Worth, Republicans, full of optimism over Richard Nixon's chances to sweep the state and nation and hopeful of statehouse gains as well, heard go-go speeches.

GOP leader Jack Cox of Austin told fellow Republicans, "If you are more liberal than I am, or if one of us is more conservative than the other, it does not mean one of us should be read out of the Republican Party." Shouts of affirmation went up through the hall, and every shade of Republicanism—ultra-conservative through progressive—decided to devote every effort to a Nixon-Agnew campaign.

Gov. Spiro Agnew was the hit of the convention, there, telling the 2,500 what they wanted to hear, and telling it well. It was a warm first meeting between the vice-presidential nominee and his fellow party members of this state.

Republicans adopted a platform of their own and Peter O'Donnell Jr. of Dallas remains at the helm of the GOP executive committee. George Wallace supporters turned out for the Dallas convention of the American Party, and in short order endorsed Wallace and former Georgia Gov. Marvin Griffin for places on the November 5 general election ballot as candidates for president and vice-president. No motions were accepted to nominate new state party officers, although there is some discontent in the ranks.

A relative handful of delegates walked out in protest to what they termed John Birch Society control of the party's state committee. But they were solid in their backing of George Wallace for President. Wallace himself was at the convention, exhorting his followers to work hard on his behalf.

NEW COLLEGE APPROVED

Creation of new state senior colleges in San Antonio, Corpus Christi, Houston (two) and the Midland-Odessa area has approval of the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System. Board also recommended an "upper division"—junior and senior years—higher education center at Laredo.

Master plan being compiled by the Board apparently will contain a proposal to limit enrollments at state institutions beginning in 1972. Board recommended creation of a new dental school although it declined to make recommendation as to site.

OIL ALLOWABLE HELD FIRM

Railroad Commission fixed statewide oil allowable at 41.3 per cent of production potential. Figure is unchanged from September. Percentage factor permits maximum production of 3,246,026 barrels a day. Nine of 14 major crude oil buyers sought to keep the allowable intact. Four wanted a decrease and only one sought an increase.

TAVERN VENDING MACHINE PROBE OPENS

First witnesses before a House committee's probe of connections between vending machine operators and taverns said their testimony endangers their safety.

Rep. James Clark Jr. of Dallas offered evidence of alleged financial control of taverns by vending machine firms. Committee Chairman R. H. Cory of Victoria said information has been gathered on the subject in Dallas, Fort Worth, Austin, San Antonio, Houston, Midland-Odessa and Amarillo. He emphasized there is as yet no evidence of unlawful activities by the merchandise vendors. Hearings apparently will continue through most of the year.

APPOINTMENTS

Wilson E. (Pat) Speir now is full-fledged director of the Texas Department of Public Safety. Colonel Speir has been acting director since May 14 following the death of Col. Homer Garrison Jr. whom he had served as assistant director for six years. Lt. Col. Leo E. Gossett was designated DPS assistant director and Joseph E. Milner, chief of traffic law enforcement, Texas Ranger Sergeant James M. Ray of Midland was promoted to captain and stationed at Lubbock. Ranger Edwin G. Albers Jr. of Canyon was promoted to sergeant and transferred to Midland. Governor Connally named Joe Benjamin Roberts chairman of the Texas Industrial Accident Board.

Frank J. Womack is new assistant director of regional programs for the Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation. Connally re-appointed State Sen. William T. Moore of Bryan as legislative member of the board of control for Southern Regional Education.

WATER RIGHTS ADJUDICATION

Texas' first administrative adjudication of water rights was begun by the Texas Water Rights Commission under the 1967 law giving that body the job of straightening out tangled water rights in the state.

First action was on the middle section of the Rio Grande, from Falcon Dam to Amistad Dam. The Commission's staff already has completed an investigation of that area. Next step will be the filing of a list of water users.

Then a public hearing will be held in each of the counties involved: Zapata, Jim Hogg, Webb, Maverick, Dimmit, Kinney, Edwards and Val Verde. All claimants to water in the area will have a chance to press their claims if they feel they should be listed in the Commission's list of water users.

Water authorities said this procedure will save millions of dollars and years of time over the ponderous court process followed in the 12-year-old lower Rio Grande rights case.

HIGHWAY CUTBACK

Congress' spending reductions have resulted in a sharp cutback in highway building in Texas for the rest of 1968. October contract lettings, as a result, will be cut from the planned $32,210,000 to $19,500,000.

State Highway Engineer J. C. Dingwall said, however, that construction will proceed as planned on farm-to-market roads and other work which does not involve federal aid. A special bid-opening has been set for December 31, after the trimming has been done.

WATER MEETING

House Interim Water Committee, chaired by Rep. Bill Clayton of Springlake, will hold a hearing on October 5 in Hereford.

Among the topics discussed will be (1) whether the economic benefits of the water to be imported into West Texas from East Texas and the Mississippi River will be worth the cost to West Texans; (2) whether they will be willing to pay the cost of the water; and (3) whether the present law giving private ownership to the state's groundwater resources should be changed to establish state control of ground water.

Drasco WMU Had Special Meeting Tuesday Morning

Q. Sneed, assistant; Mrs. Robert Statham is Sunbeam leader with Mrs. R. Q. West assistant. The youth organizations meet at the church each second and fourth Wednesday afternoons of each month at 4:20 p. m. The first meeting will be Oct. 8.

AROUND THE 7-AA FOOTBALL LOOP

It has been said that in Class AA districts, 7-AA "is the most unpredictable of the lot." Nothing could be more true. And then it has been said that the action of some of 7-AA's teams, by their action over the last weekend, indicated they'll be in the runnings with their showings last week. That would seem to be a double whatchecallit!

It ain't necessarily so that last week's action around the loop indicates what's to come. The list of teams predicted or expected to be the winners and walking off the field losers would stretch from here to yonder. That's the aim of the game. In this district or in any other. So it's really too early in the season for any team to be picked as the head-runner when they hit the go-for-broke sessions one week from this Friday night.

In last week's outings, the eight 7-AA teams won more than half the games they played against outsiders—winning five and dropping three. Two of the losers, Winters and Anson, lost their second game of the season, with Merkel, Hamlin and Haskell keeping a perfect record so far. Some of the teams had fairly easy sailing, as scores indicate, while others had rougher going. It'll be the same story this week . . . with a shifting around over the area. The Winters Blizzards took another drubbing last Friday night, at the hands of Coahoma. This was their second outing, and their second defeat. Everyone knew that Sonora, their first opponents of the season, were rough and tough . . . But there were many who saw both games who said Coahoma was a match or better than Sonora. The Bulldogs were up and coming Friday night, and would have given most anyone a bad time. The Blizzards were down for the weekend, no doubt about it, but they did make a pretty good showing according to statistics. They out-drooped the Bulldogs, and came pretty close to gains on the ground and in the air combined.

In Friday's encounter with Coahoma, Arlon Barnes was a standout for the Big Blue, trying 26 times for 110 yards, one important run for the two extra points after the solitary TD. The touchdown for the home team was a result of a 29-yard pass—Reece McCuiston to Alton Pierce. The Blizzards failed to click against Coahoma, but have been spending a lot of time this week getting their clickers fixed—to go against Clyde there Friday night. Clyde has lost 12 of the last 12 played, so the Blizzards have a chance to make it a real baker's dozen for them. Merkel beat Clyde 39-0, then Hamlin beat them 56-0.

Pontiac Reveals 1969 Firebird, LeMans

Both the 1969 Pontiac Firebird and the LeMans models combine sports car design and big car luxury. The Firebird, represented above by the hardtop coupe, is also available in a convertible model. A choice of five engines and now a three-speed Turbo Hydra-matic transmission option make the Firebird one of America's most popular sports cars. The LeMans convertible, along with the two-door sports coupe, two-door hardtop coupe, four-door hardtop and station wagon feature new interior fabrics and colors, draft free ventilation and additional padding for safety and comfort.

We're having a Warm-Up Sale! That means now and through October 31st many gas heating dealers and Lone Star Gas are offering installation discounts. Move up to gas central heating, and enjoy fresh, warm circulating air in your home this winter. Call your nearest gas heating dealer.

Merkel's Badgers are one of the three teams with two wins for two outings this season. They went to Baird last week and swept that game under the rug 47-8. They go against Aspermont Friday night, at Merkel. Aspermont doubled Anson last week, 28-14.

The Stamford Bulldogs like to play "king of the hill." They've not had such good luck this season, dropping a 20-0 to Quannah, and edging Olney 7-6 last week. But they really played wild on the field, as the stats show—13 first downs to Olney's 5, and 173 on the ground to Olney's 80. That was just another instance of winning on the stat board by a large margin and barely skimming by on the score board.

Stamford takes on Jacksboro this week. Jacksboro was the bunch which finally stopped the Blizzards in the semi's a few years ago.

Hamlin's Pied Pipers have been piping loudly this season—against Rotan 31-7, and last week erasing Clyde 56-0. From the looks of the stats, Clyde did not have a chance once the opening whistle sounded. Hamlin scored in every quarter—20-8-20-8 . . . and a drubbing like that might make just anybody mad and hard to handle next time out.

Hamlin goes against Cisco this week, at Cisco. Cisco lost to Albany 21-12 last week, and to Ranger 26-0 the week before.

Haskell also has a good start down the road this season, 2-0 so far. They didn't venture out of the district for the first game, licking Anson 27-19, and blanking Seymour 33-0 last week. They stormed up 416 yards on the ground to Seymour's 88, and took 20 firsts to Seymour's 4.

Haskell goes to Munday this week. Munday beat Throckmorton 3-0 last week, and lost to Seymour 20-12 the week before.

The Ballinger Bearcats have a 1-1 score for the year, letting Brady slip an 8-7 over on them on the first outing, and then taking San Angelo Junior Varsity 28-7 last Saturday night. QB Jim Yarnell took credit for two of the Bearcats' crossings Saturday night, and also was responsible for a run-over for extra. Yarnell led the pack with 78 yards gain for the night.

Ballinger goes against Sonora this week, with the Broncos playing host again to a 7-AA visitor.

Anson has an 0-2 record for their two tries this season. They stayed in the district against Haskell for the first, and then last week let Aspermont 28-14 them. They go against Albany this week, before inviting Winters the next weekend for the conference opener. Albany took Cisco, as has been stated, and lost to Olney 27-22 the week before.

Only two of 7-AA's teams have played Brady this year—and lost to them—and Coleman was one of them. Last week the Bluecats held their own on the stat board against Brady, but couldn't get a light on the scoreboard. The Brady Bulldogs have been ranked 10th in the State—and if anything can "point" or "indicate" anything, Friday's tooth-jarring Bluecat-Bulldog game should be it. A defensive battle all the way, according to those who saw it. Coleman has a 1-1, and will go against Comanche this week. Comanche lost to DeLeon last week, 25-0, and edged Dublin 7-6 the week before.

Just this week for looking over the field, making changes in lineups, and then . . . next week it'll be cotton-picking time, with all sacks weighed. Then's when the results go up on the boards they'll really mean something . . . maybe.

Sense shines with a double luster when it is set in humility. An able and yet humble man is a jewel worth a kingdom.

FFAers Getting Ready For State Fair In October

The State Fair of Texas, in Dallas October 5 to 20, draws livestock exhibits from a wide area of the nation, and members of the Winters High School chapter of the Future Farmers of America are busy getting ready for this event, an important one in their show schedule.

Ricky Marks, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Q. Marks, a Hampshire lamb.

Hudon White, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Hudon White, Sr., one finewool and Southdown cross lamb.

Michael O'Dell, son of Mr.

and Mrs. R. T. O'Dell, a Suffolk cross lamb.

David Carroll, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Carroll, Sr., will show a Berkshire barrow.

Randy Sneed will show two Suffolk lambs. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Q. Sneed.

Dennis McBeth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester McBeth, will show two Corriedale lambs.

MOOSE ARE BIG EATERS
That old expression of eating like a hog could be changed to eating like a moose. A bull moose will eat from 40 to 60 pounds of food a day.

SOME FISH GROW OLD
How old does a fish get? Average life span is four or five years. Striped bass, however, may reach 30 years—surgeon 100 years.

Coahoma Meets, Beats Blizzards For Winters' Second Season Loss

A hard-hitting, hard-running team of Bulldogs from Coahoma handed the Winters Blizzards their second defeat of the season Friday night on Blizzard Field, painting up a 36-8 on the scoreboard.

It wasn't a certain shellacking, even if the score indicates otherwise, however, Coahoma only outdistanced the Big Blue team by five yards in total offense, and the Blizzards had two first downs more than the Bulldogs. Too, Coahoma left a bare 12-8 at the half.

It just wasn't the Blizzards' night, again, as they failed to click when the chips were down. On the occasions they had a chance to go on toward a better position or a cross-over, all manner of things went awry, with the Bulldogs chewing big holes in the Blizzard line.

On a blocked punt early in the contest, Coahoma took over at the Winters 45 and in eight rushing plays sacked up the first counter, with Ricky Evans a 155-pounder scampering 27 yards for the goal line. The Blizzards held against Coahoma's try for 2.

After taking the following kickoff, the Winters Blue Bunch moved right down into Bulldog territory, but QB Mike Kozelsky butter-fingered as he tried a pitch out on option. Coahoma grabbed the ball on their own 14.

The last play of the first quarter put Coahoma into the two figure score column, and their halfback Dean Richters ambled 66 yards to the Blizzard 13, and then at the start of the second, two plays later, Evans again took an option at the five and ran into the end zone at the corner. The Blizzards held for the extra try for 2.

Not too long before intermission, the Blizzards took possession on the Coahoma 36, and in five plays scored on a 29-yard pass from Reece McCuiston to Alton Pierce.

Arlon Barnes, who was lead rusher for the game with 110 yards on 26 tries, carried for the two and the Blizzards were in good shape at the half.

Things came unglued for the Blizzards following halftime activities. They were stopped on the Bulldog 11, after recovering a Coahoma fumble, and had to punt out from the five. The kick was a good one—46 yards—but Bulldog Kenny Clanton raced it 51 yards for the third touchdown for Coahoma.

As time began to run out on fourth and 10, late in the fourth period, the Blizzards started gambling on their own 13-yard stripe. McCuiston's pass fell incomplete, and the Bulldogs took over with 5:10 remaining in the game. An eight-yard run moved the ball to the five, and Coahoma made their only pass try of the game a success, hitting a Bulldog end for a touchdown. Conversion was okay, and Coahoma 28-8.

The Blizzards were swamped, and the Coahoma Bulldogs padded their score after a McCuiston pass was intercepted in the Winters 30. Coahoma was penalized five, then turned loose Johnny Ted Fowler for a 35-yard scamper for the touchdown. The try for extra was good, and the scoreboard, with 3:42 left to play, told the final 36-8 story.

Marvel Henslee Attended WTU Conference 22nd

Marvel Henslee of the Winters office of West Texas Utilities Company, was among approximately 200 "Ruffles and Ready" ladies of WTU from 50 counties served by the company, who attended an annual conference in San Angelo beginning September 22. The conference, conceived 14 years ago, is designed to develop leadership qualities in the women office workers and help them serve the public better.

The San Angelo District Office of WTU was the host for this year's conference, which got underway with a pre-conference dinner Sunday evening.

There was a workshop Monday morning at the River Club, with Sizzann Swanson of San Angelo, presiding. A memorial service was held for Mrs. Waldene Lewis of Rising Star who was killed in an automobile accident.

Other highlights of the conference were talks by Durwood Chalter, WTU vice president, workshops, luncheons, and an evening session with musical entertainment.

"My boy," a father advised his son, "treat everybody with politeness, even those who are rude to you. For remember that you show courtesy to others not because they are gentlemen, but because you are one."

"The Thomas Crown Affair"
"The Thomas Crown Affair" is about a big Boston bank heist, the millionaire who masterminded it, and the girl who tracks him down. It also is a deft jab at the American Establishment and society as a whole.

Appearances are deceiving in the Mirisch Corporation presentation, a Norman Jewison Production starring Steve McQueen, Faye Dunaway, Paul Burke and Jack Weston. McQueen plays Thomas Crown: rich, super-cool, and a secret rebel who robs banks for kicks. Miss Dunaway is a sexy insurance investigator named Vicky Anderson, who acts like a swinger but is strictly a Dudley D-Right at heart. Paul Burke plays Eddy Malone, a baffled detective, and Jack Weston is seen as Erwin Weaver, a cosmetics salesman leading a double life.

Ford for 1969 Newly Designed From Bumper to Bumper; Improvements

Ford for 1969 is "The Going Thing" — newly designed from bumper to bumper with longer, lower lines outside and improved comfort and convenience inside.

"Ford's new look is 'in', and this year we expect more Americans, old and young, to be going with Ford than ever before," said John Naughton, Ford Motor Company vice president and Ford Division general manager.

"The variety and the values of the 21-model 1969 Ford line, from the economical Custom to the luxurious top-of-the-line LTD, are the greatest in history," he said.

Highlights of the all-new models include the longer, lower exterior design, a wider stance for better handling, a roomier interior with new Flight-Cockpit instrument panel, an energy-absorbing frame and new engine options offering economy and top performance.

XL and LTD models feature a unique front end design. There are new SportsRoof models with choice of options make it possible for buyers to personalize their cars more than ever.

FORD DESIGN

Ford's 1969 model lineup is a wide array of cars—six sedans, two two-door formal hardtops, two two-door Sports Roof hardtops, two four-door hardtops, two convertibles and seven station wagons. The 21 models are offered in Custom, Custom 500, Galaxie 500, XL and LTD series.

New grille designs are a prominent feature on each 1969 Ford. The XL, LTD and LTD Country Squire models have a full-width recessed grille with headlights hidden behind retractable doors. The hood, bumper and center portion of the grille protrude in a V-shape, adding distinctive luxury to the XL and LTD front end. Custom, Custom 500 and Galaxie 500 models have a full-width extruded aluminum grille.

The luxurious design and tasteful ornamentation stress the Ford's long hood and short desk. The 1969 wheelbase is 121 inches, two inches longer than 1968 models. Tread width is increased from 62 inches in 1968 models to 63 inches at the front and 64 inches at the rear, giving the car a wide stance and excellent handling characteristics. Hardtops are nearly an inch lower than previous models (53.7 inches) and convertibles (at 54 inches) are more than an inch lower.

A five-degree increase in the rearward slant of the windshield adds to the Ford's new swept-back appearance. Hardtop and convertible models feature ventless side glass for improved appearance and increased driver-passenger visibility.

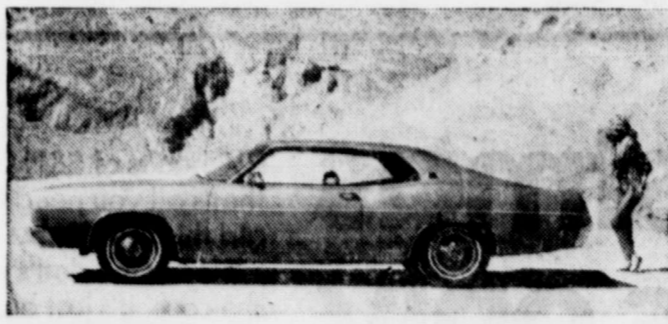

The profile of the 1969 Ford, with its long hood and short deck, is smoothly sculptured. The rocker panels curve inward, enhancing the clean design. XL and LTD models are marked by dual pin stripes extending the length of the car to accentuate the longer lines. A crisp, full-length side molding emphasizes the swift appearance of the Custom 500.

The new rear end design adds to the youthful look of the 1969 Fords. On Galaxie 500, XL, and LTD models, a rear grille-like applique extends the width of the car above the bumper. Large rectangular taillamps with back-up lights in the center are set above the outboard ends of the applique. The Galaxie 500 rear applique features a unique horizontal bar theme.

A new roof design on the XL Sports Roof model includes fin-like rear pillars sweeping beyond the back window. This provides a sleek recessed or tunneled effect and improves visibility.

Ford station wagons in 1969 have five additional cubic feet of cargo space—now 96.2-cubic-feet.

Among the seven station wa-

Ford's 1969 XL two-door SportsRoof model displays all-new design including ventless side glass for cleaner lines and better visibility. An increase in the windshield's rearward slant adds to XL's new swept back appearance. A grille-like applique over the rear bumper as well as a tunneled backlight (below) are two new features for 1969.

gon models offered, four are six-passenger models and three include dual-facing rear seats for added capacity. The 1969 wagons feature thinner roof lines and new, slender rear pillars that blend with the low, sleek appearance.

A business session was held and refreshments were served to five visitors and twelve members.

Present were Mesdames Duncan Henslee, Jack Patton, Nellie Adecock, Irvin Talley, Cord Alexander, O. D. Bradford, L. R. Hancock, Flossie Kirkland, Ed Kinard, George Lloyd, John Gannaway, John Byrd, Marvin Smith, Elmer Pritchard, J. W. Lindsey, Elmer King, and Mildred Patton.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Elmer King on October 1.

BRADSHAW

Life is real! Life is earnest! And the grave is not its goal; Dust thou art, to dust returnest, Was not spoken of the soul.—Henry W. Longfellow.

She loved poetry and A Psalm of Life was among her favorites.

You cannot live "just over the fence" from a person for 52 years without becoming a part of that person. That was just the way it was from "her house to mine." And who is—for part of her still remains—this lovely person? Lovey Bailey. And who is speaking Opal Hunt. Not only was she a gracious and a charming personality to me but to a host of others, with her family, of course coming first. How true it is as someone has said, "to live in the hearts we leave behind is not to die."

It has been said that one of the most beautifully written biographies of our times is Catherine Marshall's loving tribute to her husband, the Rev. Peter Marshall, who at the time of his death was pastor of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church in Washington, D. C., and chaplain of the United States Senate. When Peter had suffered his second heart attack late one night, the doctor was summoned and an ambulance called. As Catherine stood beside the stretcher on which he was being carried to the waiting car, he smiled his reassuring smile as he said, "Darling, I'll see you in the morning!" By morning he was gone.

In retelling the story Dr. R. E. Luccock has this to say: "What he said, and especially as Catherine remembered it, rings in our hearts as one of the most radiant expressions of the Christ faith ever spoken. Because of Christ, who Himself said the same words in the Upper Room, 'I'll see you again,' because of His Easter victory, you and I can say to those we love who pass on into the Valley, "Darling, I'll see you in the morning."

We cannot bring Lovey back to us—or would we if we could—take her from Heaven?—but we can go to her.

Railroad Spikes For Tent Stakes Driving wooden tent stakes into hard ground is tough. Rustle up a set of old railroad spikes. The lip won't let the tent ropes slip off and you'll never bend them driving 'em in hard dirt.

Cowbells For Kids
If you're taking your kids to camp or on a bankside fishing trip, try this trick used by hunting-dog owners. Attach a small, sturdy bell on the back of the child's jacket. Then as he moves about you can hear him heading for trouble and forestall.
