HOME TOWN Talk

By R. C. THOMAS

Our hat's off to the students of Winters High School for their public acknowledgment of their patriotism, such as the pregame program presented on the night of the Winters-Stamford football game, and the pregame program planned for this Friday night.

Too many people for too long have considered childish or even embarrassing a public display of patriotism. These young people are on the right track, and should receive the support of all of us. They're not all delinquent, you know.

Many of the State's politicians are expressing puzzlement over the rejection by the voters of so many of the constitutional amendment propositions at the General Election, and are more puzzled that the total number of votes on these questions was lower than the total for political candidates. Our Bluff Creek friend says there is nothing puzzling about it—the people were not sufficiently informed to really make an intelligent decision, so they either voted against most of the propositions or did not vote on them at all. This will continue, he says, until the politicians come up with a system of more fully informing the voters, instead of a system of spot education which leaves most everyone in the dark.

Strange as it may seem, there are those who believe there is too much competition in the marketplace. They believe there is too much choice on the store counters. They believe that all of our abundance merely confuses consumers, and steps should be taken to relieve this confusion by limiting the choice, regulating competition and decreasing the display of fewer products. This dissatisfaction with abundance is truly amazing.

The exponents of economic regression may want to go back to the good old days, but they will have a hard time talking the rest of the country into following them. As one source has pointed out, "In the 'good old days' grandpa worked twelve hours for the price of an 18-pound turkey. Today, he only works 3.2 hours. He worked forty minutes for a loaf of bread. Now it takes only five minutes."

Who is to say that 8,000 or more items on the shelves of a supermarket are too many, or too few—or that the price is too high or too low? No one can answer these questions better than the consumer exercising the unrestricted right of free choice in the marketplace.

One Presidential candidate in the recent campaigns said he wanted to take away all the briefcases from all the bureaucrats and throw them into the Potomac River. To which one protester replied, "Aren't our streams already polluted enough?"

Not for Junior's eyes: The first bathtub in America brought objections from doctors and politicians. It was installed by Adam Thompson of Cincinnati in 1842. Encased in mahogany and lined with sheet metal, seven feet wide, it weighed 1750 pounds. The water was pumped into it. Many doctors in that day considered bathing dangerous to health, so the politicians took up the fight, and one state even levied a $30-a-year tax on bathtubs. Several cities increased water rates for such use.

When told that we were working on something for next week, one relative remarked that we were not true to the clan, whose traditions say that we should still have been in the middle of last week's work.

There's not much danger of developing eye strain from looking on the bright side of things. Our old friend out on Bluff Creek says that after listening to the Presidential campaign oratory, when promises were made to increase Social Security benefits, that he figures it's going to come to the point where the government is going to tell every couple that they must have five youngsters so there will be enough people to support the program.

HUNTER'S REWARD—Tooter Downing of Winters shot this buck during a recent hunt near Norwood, Colo. The rack, an eight-pointer by Texas standards, measured 31 and one-half inches at the widest point. The deer weighed 220 pounds field dressed. Accompanying Downing on the hunt were his father, Travis Downing, and Elvis Kirby.

This deer was brought to Jay's Locker for processing. Jay Dunnam, operator of the plant, said he had received the deer by Tuesday noon, and expected more to come in as the season progresses. Most of the deer being brought to the Winters locker plant for processing have been Texas deer, with only a few from out of state. (Staff photo)

Blizzards Play Coleman Friday

The Winters High School Blizzards will play their last football game of the 1968 season Friday night at home, meeting the Coleman Bluecats.

This will be the first time Winters and Coleman have met as common district opponents in several years, since Coleman advanced to 3-A, then returned to 2-A in another district before being assigned to District 7-AA this year.

The Blizzards will go into this game with a lower win record for the season, and also the conference, than the Bluecats have marked up. Winters has 6 losses and 3 wins for the season, with only 2 wins in conference play and 4 losses. Coleman has a 4-4 record for the season, with 3 wins in conference competition.

In league play, the Blizzards have run up 80 points to opponents' 99, while Coleman has made 64 points and allowed opponents 84.

Residents Asked Not To Burn Dry Leaves In Gutters

City officials are asking Winters residents to refrain from burning dry leaves in gutters of paved streets. The excessive heat of trash and leaf burning ruins the asphalt paving, it has been pointed out, and causes more rapid deterioration of the streets. If residents will put leaves and dead grass in boxes or bags and leave them in the regular trash pickup locations, they will be hauled away and disposed of, the City said.

Blizzards Lost 30-8 To Bearcats On Field Wet From Snow and Rain

Playing on a field made sodden by snow and rain which had fallen earlier in the day, the Winters Blizzards dropped their annual football contest to the Ballinger Bearcats, 8-30, Friday night in Ballinger.

Recently plowed and ditched ground around the stands was slick and muddy, making footing for spectators a bit on the touchy side, but footing on the playing field was something else again. After a few running plays, the field became fairly chopped up, offering treacherous footing for ball carriers and tackles alike.

Although this was a game which traditionally draws capacity or over crowds, effects of the cold weather on attendance was evidenced by a hundred or two empty seats. Ballinger scored during every Shoppers in this area again will be offered many money-saving bargains Friday, November 15, as Winters merchants hold this year's second Sidewalk Sale.

Most Winters merchants are participating in this event, and will be displaying their merchandise in special stalls up and down the street. Local merchants will follow their tradition of offering only first-line merchandise in this sale, too; they do not use these special sale occasions to move "dogs" and "white elephant" items.

Most local merchants also will be holding special drawings for valuable merchandise during this Sidewalk Sale. The drawings are on an individual-merchant basis, and every shopper will have an opportunity to win gifts from every store he visits during the sale. Times of drawings will be determined by the merchant holding the drawings. There will be no central, combined drawing.

In case of inclement weather, the Sidewalk Sale will be moved inside, but the same offerings will be made.

The Sidewalk Sale is being sponsored by the Winters Chamber of Commerce and promoted by the Retail Sales Committee of the chamber.

The sale will begin at 9 a. m. Friday, and will be over in time for shoppers to attend the Winters-Coleman football game Friday night in Winters.

Steel Received For Com. Center

Steel to be used in construction of Winters' Community Center has been received and stored on the building location.

City sources said actual erection of the building would not begin before the first of next week. Weather conditions have delayed contractors in starting construction of the building. Concrete floor and foundations, along with plumbing connections, were installed several days ago. It is hoped that the building will be completed within the next few weeks.

quarter of play, taking time out at the half with a 13-0 lead. The Blizzards' lone tally came in the third quarter, as Reese McCouston hit for three straight passes, one for 24 yards, to march the Big Blue 76 yards around right end for the counter, and duplicated for the two point conversion.

The Blizzard defense was worked hard all night, as the Bearcat team, determined to go to the wire for a chance at the district crown, hit again and again. Winters tallied 11 first downs, while Ballinger made 15. Rushing yardage was the hurter, however, as the Bearcats chalked up 200 to Winters' 31. Airway yardage was almost level, though, with the Blizzards hitting 13 of 38 for 154, and the Bearcats completed 7 of 16 for 151.

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS

BY VERN SANFORD

Black bass fishing is not expensive.

Sure you can make any participating sport costly. A golfer with the most expensive clubs, a velvety leather golf bag, a golf cart and pockets full of super-duper golf balls can run up a big bill at the sporting goods store. And an even bigger bill on the links if he's inclined to wager.

Likewise with the angler who has to have diamond-studded reels and rods with golden guides and all the fancy-pants gadgets that the fisherman can buy.

But, listen while I tell you of the least expensive sport you can imagine. It's black-bass fishing with artificial worms.

Not live worms—they're a buck a can. Just plain ole plastic worms like Nick Creme makes over at Tyler. You can buy 'em for a dime apiece at most bargain counters and sometimes "two-fer." But even at 10-times the price they are still the most economical baits you can use.

And look what little you need to go with them! One weedless hook will last a long, long time. Cost for hooks... about a dime apiece. Then you'll need a sliding sinker (another dime), or you can use the clamp-ons that run a third as much.

Besides your rod and reel, that's all you need—to have at it. Then if you lose a lure it's not a $1.50 popping plug but a ten cent plastic worm. And just think how many fish you caught on that artificial worm before you lost it in the brush or a lunker gobbled it and ran.

Doggone, man, there's just nothin' that will beat plastic worm fishing! Besides, it's the most productive way.

Takes a little patience, but not much. Shucks, you came out to relax, didn't ya? Then take it easy. That's the way to latch onto bass when you're fishing with the artificial worm.

BENEATH the sheltering palms in Vietnam, troopers of the First Cavalry Division take cover and return fire while on patrol.

Another thing, man, you can cast right into the middle of a lily pond, at the base of a weeping-willow tree, or into the darndest mess of weeds you've ever seen—and that ole worm-and-weedless-hook comes slithering back, scratchin' bottom all the way, bumping logs and bouncing off rocks just like it was made to last forever.

Fact of the matter is—you sometimes get tired of looking at the ole gnawed-on worm and slap on a new one just for beauty's sake.

They're easy to put on—just like a live worm only they're not slimy. And if you're careful you can use the old wiggler again and again by cutting it shorter and shorter.

Now, how can you beat that? It's the best type of black bass fishing, and as the ole peddler always says—"The best for less." To which we might add—the most productive, too.

If you haven't tried plastic worm fishing—call the ace angler in your town (the guy who brings in the biggest bass)—and ask him how to rig up your gear. You can bet your bottom

'Planet Of The Apes'

'Planet of the Apes,' 20th Century-Fox's stunning futuristic motion picture starring Charlton Heston, has been set to show on Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the State Theatre. An Arthur Jacobs production in Panavision and Color by De Luxe the film is based on a novel by Pierre Boulle, author of 'The Bridge over the River Kwai,' which was adapted for the screen by Michael Wilson and Rod Serling.

'Planet of the Apes' hurls the viewer into a strange simian civilization where man is regarded as a brute to be controlled and contained lest he grow in numbers and strength and ultimately destroy the ape culture and society. It also stars Roddy McDowall, Kim Hunter and Maurice Evans, who appear throughout the film in simian make-up.

"Fish Farming" Valuable Assist To Land Owners

Harvey Kahlden, Soil Conservationist with the local Soil Conservation Service, assisting the Runnels Soil and Water Conservation District, said the primary purpose of a farm pond is to supply water for livestock; however, fish production should not be overlooked. A good fish pond can help the farm economy as well as furnish many hours of family pleasure. Kahlden went on to say that commercial catfish farming is becoming a big business and many ponds are constructed primarily for the purpose of fish production.

Kahlden said it doesn't matter if you plan to raise fish for family fishing or for commercial fish production, pond management is very important if the desired results are to be obtained. A fish pond should be managed one of three ways: by feeding, by fertilization, or by a combination of the two. Some ponds may have a weed problem—if so, the application of fertilizer will cause the water to become cloudy; therefore cutting out the sunlight and without sunlight, water weeds will not grow. At the same time the fertilizer will promote the growth of a vast number of desirable small plants. Fish do not eat the insects and other small animal life that feed on the tiny plants. A satisfactory fertilizer is one that contains about eight pounds of nitrogen, 8 pounds of phosphorus, and two pounds of potash per hundred pounds. He went on to say that if you plan to feed, only a very small amount, if any, should be fed during the cold winter months. When the water temperature reaches 55 degrees F., food should be increased.

A good catfish food should contain approximately 30 to 45 percent protein, not less than 5 percent crude fat and 10-15 percent fiber. Feed should be made into pellets that will remain together for at least 10 minutes after being put into the water. Feed only the amount the fish will eat at one time. Decaying food in the water may cause bacterial diseases or oxygen depletion, and result in a fish kill. Experience will show the correct amount to feed at one time; however, approximately 3 percent of the body weight per day, 6 or 7 days a week is a good rule of thumb. All food should be consumed within one hour. Never feed more than 30 pounds per acre per day. Catfish grow rapidly during the first few months. Under optimal conditions, channel catfish generally double their weight each month until hot weather in July and August, when growth slows.

According to Kahlden, a channel catfish can take 1 1/2 pounds of commercial feed and produce one pound of meat, or one ton of feed, costing less than $100.00 will produce 1,333 pounds of meat worth $400.00 to $800.00. No other farm animal is this profitable.

Good is better than evil because it is nicer.

General election day was a rosy one for statewide Democratic contenders.

Not only did Texas endorse liberal presidential candidate Hubert Humphrey, but also all statewide Democratic standard bearers. No incumbent remained just the way it is.

Preston Smith of Lubbock won the gubernatorial race with about 17 per cent of the votes over his opponent and first-time candidate GOP'er Paul Eggers of Wichita Falls.

Ben Barnes, 30, of DeLeon will become the youngest lieutenant governor in history by virtue of his overwhelming triumph over Republican Doug McCluitt of Waco. Barnes was the top statewide vote-getter on the ballot.

All incumbent statewide officials seeking re-election won handily.

In congressional races, three Republicans seeking new terms had no great trouble, but none of their colleagues seeking to unseat incumbent Democrats was successful. Congressional lineup remains 20 Democrats to three Republicans.

Eight Republican state House members were elected — four incumbents, four newcomers. Three incumbent GOP'ers were defeated. Two GOP state senators were reelected. Lineup remains 142 Democrats to eight Republicans in the House, 29 Democrats to two GOP's in the Senate.

Boasting that no other state can compare with Texas "regarding its support of, loyalty to or victory for the Democratic party," former State Democratic Committee Chairman Will D. Davis observed:

Texas is the most populous state to have a Democratic governor and only one of 10 largest to have solid statewide Democratic administration.

Texas was the only one in the southern and southwestern regions to give Humphrey plurality; and only Texas, Washington and Hawaii west of the Mississippi voted for the Democratic presidential nominee.

MOST AMENDMENTS DEFEATED

Voters showed they are in an economy frame of mind in their decisions on 14 proposed state constitutional amendments.

They voted November 5 to cut out the state property tax, but they refused to go along with raising the state's public welfare ceiling from $60 million to $75 million a year or to increase legislators salaries from $4,800 to $8,400 annually.

Approved were changes in state employees' pension system, university fund investment liberalization, removal of the $504 a year ceiling on contributions to teacher pensions, wiping out the property tax and clarification of a legislator's eligibility to run for other office by virtue of the termination date of his elective term.

Texas turned thumbs down on tax exemptions for warehouse-stored property, El Paso local governmental consolidations, Dallas road bonds, tax aid for Texarkana tobacco merchants, state contract changes, tax benefits for anti-pollution equipment purchasers and industrial bond issues.

NEW JOBS ANNOUNCED

Gov. -elect Preston Smith announced as his first staff selection James P. Oliver, formerly of Caldwell, to serve as executive budget director after the new administration takes over in January. Oliver currently serves as assistant director of the Legislative Budget Board.

Walter N. Corrigan of San Antonio is new chairman of Texas Research League. C. I. Wall of Amarillo is vice-chairman, and Grogan Lord of Georgetown was named secretary-treasurer.

C. C. Miller of Dallas is chairman of University Interscholastic League Legislative Council and B. E. McCollum of Port Neches is vice-chairman.

Glenn Biggs, formerly of Abilene and one-time executive assistant to House Speaker Barnes, has been appointed president of National Western Life Insurance Company.

HILL-BURTON FUND APPROVED

Forty-two applicants received allocations of $15,198,504 in federal Hill-Burton hospital construction - modernization funds through State Board of Health.

Biggest allocations of $1 million each went to hospitals in Houston, San Antonio, Dallas, Bonham, Irving and Fort Worth. Memorial Hospital of Uvalde received two grants totaling $865,000. Atlanta City Hospital received $900,000; Brownfield's Terry Hospital District $650,000; Hotel Dieu at El Paso $885,500; Johnson City Hospital $390,000; Community Hospital of Brazosport in Freeport $242,090; Ballinger Memorial Hospital $300,000; Highland General of Pampa $321,119; St. Joseph's of El Paso $594,313; Seton of Austin $375,000; Denison Memorial $210,000; Newton County Memorial $320,350; and Mornside Manor (home for aged), San Antonio $700,000.

Smaller amounts went to facilities in Waco, Lone Star, Jacksonville, Floresville, El Paso, Hempstead, Robert Lee, Coleman, Sterling City, Midland, Greenville, Corpus Christi, Wichita Falls, Dallas, Houston and Fort Worth.

Hill-Burton funds pay up to half of the cost of construction-modernization work.

ATTACK REDIRECTED

Texas Animal Health Commission has changed its attack on hog cholera in Texas by deemphasizing the cure which has turned out to be a cause of the disease.

Commission has been depending on the modified live-virus vaccine to combat the disease. But statistics show that, in 1967, 31 per cent of the hog cholera cases were traced back to the use of the MLV.

In 60 per cent of those cases, the vaccine was improperly used. But in the other 40 per cent, it was not. Texas statistics showed that 33 per cent of the cases were caused by use of the MLV.

TEXAS GETS RECREATION FUNDS

Texas is due to get $1.7 million of $45.7 million in funds for acquisition and development of outdoor recreation facilities approved by Bureau of Outdoor Recreation, U. S. Department of Interior.

Allocations are made largely on basis of population, federal resources and programs and out-of-state visitor use. States must match the grants 50-50.

BLUE LAW SUIT

Texas Supreme Court has heard the first arguments for and against Penal Code Article 286a, which prohibits the sale of certain listed items—covering just about everything—on consecutive Saturdays and Sundays.

Suit is the State vs. Gibson's Discount Center of Midland, which — the State contends—tried to get around the law by staying open the legal six days then "leasing" its facilities and stocks to another company—created and owned by Gibson's—for the seventh day.

At the local level, a district court judge upheld Gibson's move by saying that the "Blue Law" is unconstitutional, because the items listed in the statute are vague and indefinite.

In its arguments before the court, Gibson's concentrated on allegations that the state's appeal—directly to the Supreme Court from the district court—was improper and should be refused.

High Court will rule on the jurisdictional question before it gets into the substance of the case.

LOAN BONDS SOLD

Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System sold $12 million in student loan bonds to Harris Trust and Savings Bank of Chicago at 3.8673 interest.

Money provides assistance to needy students. So far, 29,480 have benefited from it.

Board also approved fine arts programs at nine schools and administrative reorganization of arts programs at the University of Texas at Arlington and West Texas State. Construction of a $1.5 million physical education complex at San Angelo State College got authorization, as did the plan for participation in federal aid to campus building.

On December 3, Board will make key decisions on dental education, medical education and North Texas higher education needs.

COTTON GIN RIDER DUMPED

A controversial appropriations bill rider twice vetoed by Gov. John Connally was stricken from a budget draft on motion of Lt. Gov. -elect Ben Barnes.

Barnes got some opposition from House Speaker-designate Rep. Gus Mutscher of Brenham and Rep. W. S. Heatly of Paducah, but Gov. -elect Preston Smith held his motion carried on voice vote.

Rider sought to keep funds from being spent to police air pollution by cotton gins. Mutscher said the problem is insignificant and is used by politicians to "demagogue." Connally has maintained that the problem caused by gins is major. Barnes argued that the rider is unneeded and is simply a "political factor."

SHORT SNORTS

Presiding judge in each precinct has responsibility of determining validity of irregular ballots. Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin has held.

Conditions are right for record quail harvest this year, according to Parks and Wildlife Dept.

AROUND THE 7-AA FOOTBALL LOOP

It's all over but the last game. And that last game will be the Stamford-Ballinger tilt Friday night. The other teams in District 7-AA will be playing that night, but this game in Ballinger will determine the absolute winner of the league.

Stamford has come through the conference season unscathed, with 6 wins and no losses. Ballinger's record has only a slight blemish—their 6-6 tie with Anson October 11.

Seasonwise, Ballinger has lost one game—to Brady 7-8 in their opening game, a non-conference affair. Stamford has dropped two contests this season, both non-conference—0-20 to Quanah, and 12-21 to Jacksboro.

The Stamford Bulldogs kept a firm hold on the district reins Friday night, nailing Hamlin 28-7. The Pied Pipers drew first honors Friday night, returning a punt 60 yards for a TD in the opening quarter. They were unable to connect from then on, however, and Stamford scored in every quarter to walk away with the game.

While Stamford comes to Runnels County again this week, to meet the Bearcats in the clincher, Hamlin goes to Haskell. Ballinger had to have a win last Friday night to make it possible for them to compete with Stamford for the crown. They did just that, in the annual Blizzard-Bearcat contest which took 30-8. When toss-time came, it appeared that half the Ballinger team walked out on the field to flip with two Blizzard captains for kickoff honors, as the graduating Bearcats were being honored.

The Ballinger field was muddy and wet Friday night, after the rain and light snow which fell earlier in the day, and both sides found footing treacherous. Substantial crowds braved the miserable cold and muddy, mowed-up grounds around the stands; however, there were probably several hundred empty seats visible during this annual contest which usually draws over-capacity audiences.

Winters, now with a 2-4 conference record, hosts the Coleman Bluecats this week in the final game of the season.

They said four inches of snow covered the Coleman football field Friday night. The Coleman Bluecats didn't seem to mind, however, as they mushed past Merkel 13-6 to bring their league record to 3-2-1. The Bluecats scored in the first and last quarters, PATing only after the first TD. Merkel now is 1-5 in conference play.

Coleman visits Winters for their last play of the year, while Merkel hosts Anson.

Anson, with only a 6-6 tie with Ballinger to lend any amount of brightness to a conference season, for a brief time Friday night stood 7-0 ahead of the Haskell Indians. With only 35 seconds left in a scoreless first half, the Tigers jumped out ahead for a 15-7 win.

Haskell ends the season this Friday night, hosting the Hamlin Pied Pipers.

This football year has been rather anti-climatic in the district, so far as high excitement is concerned. There are some good football teams in the district—and the team which will finally represent the district in extra-conference play may go all the way to the top; we hope so. But as a whole, the district seemed to be a bit down from some previous years. There has been no team which has caught the eye of statewide observers this year, although there are players on all teams who will be sought after by colleges next year. The make-up of the district has been such that probably any team in the league, on a given night, could defeat any other team in the district, and if there was a second go-round fans might see some different outcomes. It's been that kind of year.

But the thing which we fans should remember is this, those boys who get out there under the lights every Friday night in the fall are doing it for the sheer love of the sport; they wouldn't be doing it otherwise. And they deserve the support of all of us, whether they come out on the winning side or not, comments of grandstand quarterbacks notwithstanding. The only fan who has a right to criticize any action on the part of anyone on the field is that fan, who by his own right, has always been a winner and never a loser, in anything he has ever attempted.

When the district championship is decided this Friday night, the real football fan will be out there boosting the district's representative on to win in the higher bracket.

B Team Overcomes Chiefs In Fourth Quarter, Defeat Lakeview 14-6

The Winters B Team continued on its way to one of its best seasons in several years by beating the Lakeview Chiefs 14-6. The young, but mighty, Blizzards came from behind in the final period to beat the stubborn Angolites.

The game was broken wide open in the first quarter when the Chiefs quarterback hit the split end on a look-in pattern—the play ended seventy yards down field when the official raised both arms signaling a touchdown for the hometown Chiefs. The fake kick by the Lakeview boys was foiled by the alert defense of the Blizzards.

The Blizzards wasted no time in marching right back down field at the Chiefs, Mike Mathis and Von Byrd led the charge with their hard running through the massive Chief defensive line which made the mighty Warriors appear as Squaws. The longest gainer came on a twelve yard jaunt by Mathis. The Chief defense became tougher as the Blizzards neared the goal line. The Blizzards B team dug deep into their bag of tricks and came up with a dilly. Hudon White pitched to Mickey Smith who appeared to be sweeping right end. With the entire Chief defense about to engulf the Blizzards halfback, Smith stopped and through a backward pass to White who had slyly slipped across to the other side of the field after his pitch. White then passed down field to Terry Awalt who was wide open in the end zone. The extra point kick was low leaving the score 6-6.

The third quarter was scoreless with Lakeview having several chances to get into the Blizzards end of the field, but the calm Blizzards defense never let the thought enter their mind.

The Blizzards entered the fourth quarter with the wind to their backs. On their second possession in the quarter the young B teamers drove the ball into, around, and over the stout Chief defense. The touchdown came when Von Byrd followed the blocks of Mike Mathis and Joe Pritchard off right tackle. Hudon White sprinted around right end for the extra point giving the Blizzards a 14-6 advantage.

Remainder of the game saw the Blizzards defense completely shut out the Chief's offensive effort.

The Blizzards defense which has been outstanding the entire year, held the San Angelo club to only five first downs for the evening with only 25 yards gained on the ground. In comparison the Blizzards racked up 12 first downs and 152 yards on the ground. Hudon White rushed for 53 yards of it, but completed an amazing 7 of 15 passes for 114 yards. White was converted from an end to a quarterback at mid-season and has been leading the Blizzards since. Mike Mathis added 51 yards with Von Byrd accounting for 37. Joe Pritchard averaged 3.5 yards per carry. The B teams total offense was 266 yards with Lakeview having less than a hundred.

The defense turned in another excellent game with Joe Ivey, Tommy Jones, Joe Lujano, Bill Baldwin, Mike Emmert, and Mike Wagner turning in superb jobs.

Blizzards B team closes out the season with a trip to Coleman where they encounter the Blue Cats.

Flavorful Potatoes:

"To peel or not to peel—that is the question."

Paraphrasing this familiar phrase, the quotation applies quite nicely to potatoes. Peeling, or not peeling, is largely up to you when it comes to this vegetable. For the peel can be eaten right along with the rest of the potato. In fact, potatoes retain most of their vitamin and mineral content when cooked in the skin.

Verstale spuds are mighty good eating just about any time of the day—breakfast, brunch, lunch or dinner. They come in handy for late-night snacks, too.

If you pare the potato before cooking, keep the peeling thin. Cook in as little water as possible and the vitamin and mineral loss will be kept to a minimum. Use the potato water in soups and gravies. It's flavorful and contains many of the minerals.

Remember that the smaller the pieces of potato, the quicker they cook. So when you're in a hurry, cut the potato into halves or perhaps quarters or cubes rather than increasing the cooking temperature.

You'll find that potatoes keep best when stored in a cool, but not cold, place. Potatoes stored at warm temperatures sprout quickly. If stored at below 40 degrees F., they undergo a flavor change and turn a dark-brown color when fried.

If you like baked potatoes that wear tender jackets to the dinner table, first scrub the potatoes, then dry them well before brushing generously with melted butter or salad oil.

When boiling, it's best to start the potatoes in boiling water. To do this, bring to boiling point, then reduce heat to lowest point required to keep it bubbling. Never violently boil a potato—it cooks the outside before the inside.

Fresh Winter Pears

Pears are a lasting fashion: Food fashions, like clothing, change rapidly from year to year. But one style that is always in "vogue" is fresh Western pears. From October through May, fresh winter pears are at the top of the fresh fruit market, bringing good eating to the diets of young and old. Fresh pears always have that right-from-the-tree good quality throughout the entire season. Grown in the sunny orchards of the Pacific coast states, the pears are harvested in late summer and early fall at an immature stage and stored in controlled conditions until marketed. Thus the pears are brought to the markets throughout the fall, winter and spring months, where they are ripened and sold. If the pears have not been fully ripened at this point, they can be ripened at home by keeping at room temperature until their flesh yields to soft pressure. Then, they should be refrigerated to retain their freshness.

Fresh winter pears are available in three varieties to meet the tastes and needs of everyone. Appearing in late Sept. and lasting until early May, the greenish-yellow D'Anjou is a favorite for fresh eating and cooking. The russet-colored Bosc, on the market from October to February, has a spicy sweetness that is perfect for baking. The gourmet pear, the Comice, is available from Oct. to Feb., and is used mainly for fresh eating and gift packs.

Fresh pears are delicious as well as nutritious. Their natural sweetness and juicy texture makes them a delight to eat. Besides providing the diet with minerals and vitamins, they contain a levulose sugar that provides quick energy, making them a perfect between meal pick-up. And for the weight-conscious, one large pear adds only about 100 calories to the diet.

Jerri Graves Named Career Girl Of 1968 In California

Jerri Graves, daughter of Jerry Ritch of California and a niece of Mrs. Lora Coupland of Winters, has been named "Career Girl of 1968" by Northeast Newspapers of Los Angeles, California. Her father is the youngest son of the late Mrs. Ella Ritch, who was a pioneer settler of Winters.

Jerri, a pretty blonde mother of two, who at 29 years old is the only woman in the country entitled to enter men's penal institutions and to serve as a parole officer for many who are considered the most dangerous of felons.

Jerri, who makes her home in West Pasadena and is studying for a master's degree in psychology at nights, is vocational rehabilitation counselor for the state of California, a public defender specialist.

Through her methods of rehabilitation she has helped to route more than 100 men and women back to the main stream of society and takes great pride in what she has been able to do.

"It is through rehabilitating a parolee that he and the community both receive the biggest dividend. If the parolee is helped to become self-sufficient and better adjusted, he has self respect and the community is safer. I receive what I consider to be the most important compensation in my profession—a feeling of accomplishment for having done something worthwhile."

Mrs. Graves was selected to represent the state of California in the National Rehabilitation Association's conference held in Nevada last May. She is a gifted public speaker, constantly called upon to speak about her dramatic work in rehabilitation. Still very much the feminine homemaker too, she loves to sew and paint (both oils . . . and houses).

Cotton Stripping Slowed By Snow

Last Friday's rain and snow brought the feverish harvest of this year's cotton crop to a temporary halt, but strippers were ready Wednesday to start back into the fields.

Area gins "almost caught up" with the harvest during the wet weather, and have been going around the clock.

Winters Warehouse reported Wednesday morning a total of 7321 bales have been brought in from gins at Wingate and Winters.

Fall and Winter Suggestions For Home Gardeners

The fall and winter season is the time to check and decide whether replacement plants are needed in the home landscape.

May be a rose bush has died or failed to live up to expectations or there is a gap in the shrub border where a new plant is needed and was shade adequate in the outdoor living area, asks Everett Janne, Extension landscape horticulturist.

Make a list, suggests the Texas A&M University specialist, of your landscape needs and be ready to take advantage of the selections offered early buyers by garden and nursery centers.

F.F.A. NEWS

By Michael O'Dell Reporter

There are a few people throughout the county who would like to know how many head of show stock there will be this year.

Approximately 40 head of calves are on feed at this time. These calves are progressing well and will prove to be stiff competition to other feeders in counties throughout this area, as well as the feeders in this county.

There are close to 60 head of barrows, all of which are doing well and progressing rapidly. Seventy-five head of lambs are on feed and most of them are nearly ready for showing. The lambs are progressing very well and will prove to be a great threat to lamb feeders.

This year Runnels County will give stiff competition to feeders in many other counties in the area. The boys and girls who feed this stock are hurrying to be able to have their animals ready by January.

Sheep Shearing Without Clippers

A young man with just a few minutes' instruction, quickly took fleece from a sheep in a recent demonstration at USDA's Beltsville, Maryland, research center. He duplicated a job performed by highly skilled sheep shearers but without clippers. The sheep had been dosed with an experimental chemical previously used mainly in cancer therapy. This innovation was made possible by biologist Dr. Ethel H. Dolnick and colleagues in USDA's Agricultural Research Service.
