HOME TOWN Talk

By R. C. THOMAS

Beginning with last Sunday, we are now back on what the fellow down the street calls "the Lord's time," after six months of daylight saving time. Permits everyone to get an extra hour's sleep in the morning, too, when the sleeping seems to be best. Daylight saving time is okay during the summer months when we have sunlight at both ends of the normal working day anyway, but along toward the end of the season, it's pretty annoying to have to get up and be on your way a before it gets good daylight.

Reminds us of another "move up" of events, which happened a few years ago—the changing of the date for the first primaries in the spring, which automatically moved up the filing deadline date for candidates for various offices, and which in turn automatically set the political pot to boiling at an earlier date. (Used to be said that the "political pot is beginning to simmer" —but that no longer can be said. It's always "simmering" these days, and comes to full boil at certain seasons.) Used to be that politics didn't really get interesting until the Dogwood was in bloom. . . now political maneuvering is competing with Christmas planning, and even Thanksgiving, and even Halloween, and even Labor Day!

Our old mildewed friend out on Bluff Creek figures that 1970 would be a good year for him to return to the political wars, seeing as how he's been semi-retired for some time. He's already done some maneuvering and planning to get his Bull Moose party re-organized, and he'll be looking for some candidates to carry his party's banner. Figures first, though, he'll have to get some extraordinary publicity so he's going to declare a day of "moratorium" — against anything or something else, like paying taxes, going to church, obeying the traffic laws, or even chopping wood. Says if he sets up a clamor, even if it is stupid or against the mores of society he's bound to get a lot of TV coverage to gain him some following. If he can get the backing of the irresponsible, he figures those who should be responsible will keep sleeping and his party will get a chance to slip in unnoticed.

Someone once said the art of taxation is "plucking the most feathers from a goose with the least amount of quacking." It has been a long time since taxation was considered an art, however.

It is now a contest to see who grabs the goose first, and who can pluck out the most feathers; never mind the quacking. Taxing authorities are not only plucking the poor goose, they are tearing it wing from wing, leg from pulleybone. Soon, if it keeps up, the head will be gone. There then will be no more quacking to annoy public officials; there will be no more goose.

There's the story going around about the illiterate salesman who wrote to the home office:

"Dere Bos,

I seen this outfit which ain't never bot a dimes worth of nothing from us and I sole them a couple hunder thousand dollars of guds. I am now going to Chicawgo."

Before the illiterate could be given the heave-ho by the sales manager, another letter came from Chicago:

"I cum hear and sole them a haff a million."

Fearful if he did, and fearful if he didn't fire the illiterate salesman, the sales manager dumped the problem in the lap of the president. The following morning personnel of the office saw the two letters posted on the bulletin board, along with this memo from the president:

"We be spending two much time trying to spel insted of trying to sel. Let's watch thoes sails. I want everybody shud read these letters from Gooch, who is on the rode doing a grate job for us, and you shud go out and do like he done."

Rev. Grantz To India Nov. 3 In New Life Crusade

The Rev. Harry Grantz, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Winters, will leave Dallas by jet Monday, November 3, for India, where he will take part in the "All-India New Life Crusade." He expects to return to Winters November 29.

The All-India New Life Crusade is under the joint sponsorship of the New Life Foundation and All-India Prayer Fellowship, and was started in August, and will run through November, and will cover all India.

The Rev. Grantz will accompany other preachers taking part in the Crusade. They probably will have a chance to visit some other countries, including the Holy Land, before they return, but no definite plans have been received as yet.

The Rev. Grantz will preach in various cities in India, holding services at least twice daily while he is in India. He is due to arrive in Delhi November 8, and will go to Meerut, which is 35 miles north of Delhi, and then on to Saharanpur, 85 miles north of Meerut.

The trip is being financed by members of the First Baptist Church of Winters and other interested friends.

Bank Deposits At All-Time High

Deposits in The Winters State Bank reached an all-time high as of the close of business Oct. 21, 1968, according to Woodrow Watts, president of the bank.

The figures were released following a regular call for a statement of condition issued by the State Banking Commission. At the close of business Oct. 21, there was on deposit in The Winters State Bank a total of $6,667,556.03, according to the statement of condition. This was $713,044.78 more than was on deposit Oct. 30, 1968, and $1,563,821.17 more than deposited Oct. 4, 1967. A call statement Oct. 30, 1968, showed $5,954,501.28 on deposit at that time, and on Oct. 4, 1967, $5,103,734.86 was on deposit. Amounts on loan also were up considerable compared with the same periods in the previous two years, according to the statement of condition. As of Oct. 21, 1968, The Winters State Bank had $2,773,118.57 out on loan. The Oct. 30, 1968 loan total was $2,542,093.19, and on Oct. 4, 1967, $1,936,566.36.

Winters In Path of Low Level Training Flights By Airlift Wing of Dyess AFB

The world wide commitments of the 516th Tactical Airlift Wing (TAW), Dyess AFB, require continuous low level flying training. The highest possible degree of proficiency must be maintained and the 516th TAW aircrews must be current in all modes of aerial delivery. As a result, C-130 and C-7A aircraft are flown at low level altitudes over the "Big Country" on a daily basis.

These low level flights may be scheduled between 8 a. m. and midnight, Monday thru Friday, and less frequently on weekends. Daylight missions are flown at an altitude of 500 feet above the terrain while night low level activities are conducted at least 1,000 feet above any obstacle, man made or geographic, within three miles of the prescribed track of the aircraft. Airspeeds will vary from 115 to 290 miles per hour.

All flights are made along specific routes which are approved by the Tactical Air Command, only after coordinating with the Federal Aviation Administration and local airport managers. Minimum disturbance of farms, ranches and communities is the primary consideration in selecting low level routes. Towns, local airports, resorts, hatcheries and stock pens are avoided when planning the routes and will not be overflown by C-130 or C-7A aircraft under normal circumstances. 516th TAW officials are quick to emphasize that, even though training must be conducted at low levels and high airspeeds in order to be realistic, all possible precautions are taken to prevent disruption of local agriculture and community activities.

The areas affected by these training flights are: Abilene, Merkel, Rotan, Aspermont, Hamlin, Stamford Throckmorton, Haskell, Rule, Winters, Balinger, Coleman, Talpa, Cisco, Eastland, Comanche, Carbon, Abilene, Anson, Nolan, Christoval, Paint Rock, Tuscola, Tye, Sylvester, Roby, Girard, Clyde, Buffalo Gap, Baird, Leuders, Seymour, Benjamin, Knox City and Old Glory.

Bruce Smith Is Prexy-Elect of District XV, TFTA

Bruce Smith, sophomore student at Winters High School, was elected president of District XV, Texas Future Teachers Association, at the sixteenth annual convention of the district in Brady Saturday.

Also, Denise Williams, sophomore student of Winters, was elected corresponding secretary of the district.

The officers will assume duties June 1, 1970. Twelve members and the two sponsors of WHS Alpha Chi chapter, Future Teachers of America, attended the convention. Tommy Chapman and Candy Allen of the Winters chapter were in charge of one of four workshops held during the convention. They held a workshop on "Ideas on Projects for State Competition."

Randy Stevens and Donna Hope of the Winters chapter were candidates in the "Mr. and Miss FTA" contests.

Members of Alpha Chi chapter had planned to run Bruce Smith as a candidate for district vice president, but shortly after arrival at Brady they were asked to run him for president. Shortly after noon, in a meeting of the House of Delegates, the Brady chapter nominated Smith for president, and following speeches for both candidates, he was elected president of the district.

Other officers of the district are Terry Penn of Brady, vice president; Debbie Hicks of Comanche, recording secretary; Burlene Capell of Dublin, financial secretary; Connie Griffiths of Coleman, parliamentarian; and Sarah Sarrells of Mason, historian.

Bruce Smith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Bob Smith. He is a member of the Blizzards Band, and is on the Gale staff. Miss Williams is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Williams, is a twirler in the Blizzards Band, and on the Glacier staff.

First United Methodist Church To Build New Sanctuary In 1970

Members of the First Methodist Church of Winters voted Sunday to authorize the trustees and building committee of the church to contract for construction of a new sanctuary.

It is hoped that construction can begin early in 1970, with completion early in 1971.

According to the plans, which were prepared by Joe V. Line, consulting architect of Cleburne, the new building would be constructed on the lot of the present church building, utilizing a part of the old building in the construction. Contractor probably will be signed within the next few days by Bentley-Ray Associates, Inc., of Cleburne, according to the Rev. Glenn Bowman, pastor of the church.

The new sanctuary, containing 4426 square feet, will be constructed on a ground level with entrance on the Church Street side, on the southwest corner. The sanctuary will be north and south, with the pulpit, choir loft and organ loft to be on the north end. The church building proper will be of Gothic style, with exposed laminated beams, and high pitch roof. Organ pipes would be exposed. Pews will be of bonded cushion seats.

Part of the present church building will be utilized, ac-

Billy Graham Movie Re-Set At Baptist Church

Showing of the Billy Graham movie, "The Restless Ones," has been rescheduled for Wednesday, November 5, at the First Baptist Church, the pastor, Harry Grantz, announced this week.

The movie had originally been scheduled for October 27, but was cancelled because of conflict with other community activities.

The movie will begin at 7:30 at the First Baptist Church, and everyone in the community is invited and urged to see this feature-length film, with its accent on youth, dealing imaginatively and dramatically with the teenage crisis.

The background setting was provided by the 1963 Billy Graham Los Angeles Crusade, and artfully woven into the story pattern is a hard-hitting, bold approach to the social problems which beset the nation.

Here is a film which dares to be different, the Rev. Grantz said. It is a story which will stir the heart and mind.

As one reviewer said, "Here is a picture that tells the world the truth and comes up with an answer, not an easy answer, but an answer from beyond us." This answer will satisfy, challenge and inspire young and old alike and will appeal to churchgoers and non-churchgoers.

Blizzard Band To Take Part In ASC Homecoming

The band winning the top award this year will receive a trophy, $100 in cash for the band, and another $100 to be presented as a scholarship to the person of the winning band's choice.

Bands taking part will include Angelo State College, Goodfellow AFB, Bronte, Eden, Winters, Santa Anna, Eldorado, Sonora, Iraan, Coleman, Ballinger, Reagan County and Comanche.

Halloween Carnival At Civic Center Saturday

Only 253 Bales To Warehouse

Wet weather has again put a brake on harvest of the 1969 cotton crop in North Runnels County.

Ras Gideon, manager of the Winters Warehouse Co., said Tuesday morning only 253 bales of cotton have been brought to the warehouse from the Winters and Wingate gins.

It is estimated that even if the weather had cleared during the first part of this week, it would be another week before farmers could get into the fields to get the cotton out. Given a few days of good weather, and perhaps a frost within a short time, cotton gathering should gather momentum and would be expected to swamp the gins of the area.

Blanks Available For Voter Reg. Certificates

Application blanks for Voter Registration Certificates have been left at several business places in Winters and Wingate, for the convenience of residents who wish to apply for the certificates.

A spokesman for the Winters sub-office of the Runnels County Tax Collector said application blanks may be filled out, and either mailed or brought in person to the sub-office or to the county office, and the Voter Registration Certificate will be mailed to the voter. Or, it was explained, voters may fill out the application blanks at the office and certificates will be completed immediately.

No Voter Registration Certificates will be issued without the proper application, it was stated, and voters must have the certificates to vote in any election during the 1970 voting year.

It was stressed that particular care should be taken when filling out the application so that all information is correct. Otherwise, valuable time will be lost in re-applying for the certificates.

First Aid Course To Begin Nov. 3 At C of C Office

The first class of the American Red Cross Standard First Aid Course will be held at 7 p.m. Monday, November 3, at the office of the Winters Chamber of Commerce.

Classes will be held each Monday through the first Monday of December. Ted Meyer will be the instructor.

Those interested in taking the course are asked to call Mrs. Emma Marks, secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce, or contact Ted Meyer at Spill Bros. Co.

F.H.A. OFFICERS — Officers for Winters Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America were elected recently for the 1969-70 school year. They are, seated, left to right, Debbie Lloyd, reporter; Rhonda Sneed, treasurer; Betty Knight, first vice president; Rhanea Hoppe, president; Zola Crowley, second vice president; Brenda King, third vice president.

At least 18 booths will be operated by various clubs and organizations at the Halloween Carnival scheduled for Saturday night at the Winters Community Center. The Carnival is being sponsored by the Junior Class of Winters High School, and will be the first such event to be held here in several years. Activities begin at 7 p. m. and will continue until 11.

There will be booths of all types, for young and old, according to Jerry Neely, sponsor of the Junior Class. Some of the booths will feature games of skill, such as ping pong pitching, spinning wheels, balloon bursts.

For the golfers, a putting game will test the skill of local golfers and duffers, and a cake walk will be in operation throughout the night. Side shows also will be featured, such as a marriage booth, a fortune teller and a spook house.

Merchants have donated items to be offered as prizes in some of the games.

Class Sponsor Neely said there would be something for all ages, and the class has gone all out to provide wholesome entertainment for everyone.

The Carnival is being staged on Saturday, November 1, because of the conflict with the Winters-Stamford football game on Friday night, October 31.

Blizzards Go To Stamford Friday

The Winters Blizzards, after climbing out of the loss column with their 14-7 defeat of the Merkel Badgers last week, will meet the Stamford Bulldogs at Stamford Friday night. Kickoff at 8 p.m.

This will be each team's fifth conference test in the seven-game series.

Coach Jerry Gibson said this week his Blizzards will back to full strength, with no injuries to plague them when they go against Stamford. Wet weather has, to a big extent, hampered workouts this week, but both teams have faced the same problem. The Blizzards used the gym Monday for indoor workouts, but expected to be out on the turf for most of the rest of the week, barring extended wet and cold weather.

Winters has a 1-6 record for the season record, and a 1-3 district record. Stamford has a 5-2 season and 3-1 district record. The two teams have played three mutual opponents, all of them in district competition: Haskell, Merkel and Anson. Winters was loser in their three pre-conference games, while Stamford lost one of three.

District comparisons are: Winters 12, Anson 25. Stamford 21, Anson 8. Winters 0, Haskell 48. Stamford 16, Haskell 35. Winters 14, Merkel 7. Stamford 27, Merkel 13.

Stamford defeated Coleman 44-7. Winters has yet to meet Coleman. Winters lost to Ham-

Blizzards Defeat Merkel 14-7 For First 7-AA Victory

The Winters Blizzards rang their victory bell loud and clear Friday night as they defeated the Merkel Badgers 14-7 for their first district victory.

The Blizzards' first drive started on their own 35-yard line with Mike Mathis and Arlon Barnes giving fine offensive performances. Alton Pierce scored the first touchdown as quarterback Ronnie Wilson hit his target. The try for an extra point failed.

In the same quarter the Badgers made their only successful offensive effort. Fullback Tommy Anderson scored by going over the last three yards. By adding an extra point Don Pruser put the Badgers ahead.

But the Blizzards came right back in the second quarter for a hard driving 58 yards and scored again as Wilson sneaked in from three yards out. Bill

THE CPI AND INFLATION

Wellesley Hills, Mass.—"Index of change in prices of goods and services purchased by city wage earner and clerical worker families to maintain their standard of living." This is the definition of the Consumer Price Index—the economic indicator that best displays how the inflationary trend directly affects the consumer. We all know that it costs more to live today than it did ten years ago or even one year ago, but do we know what segments of our spending dollar are increasing the fastest and why?

Sharp Increases in Past Year

From August 1968 through August 1969 the Consumer Price Index rose by 5.6 percent. Cost of meats, poultry, fish, home ownership, and insurance and financial service—all of which rose by more than 9.5 percent—showed the fastest advance during this period. There are some areas that have not increased as fast as the index itself, but none has shown a decline during this time frame. The slowest gains were in fruits and vegetables, fuels, utilities, and new cars.

Food Prices Increase the Most

The inflationary trend, as reflected by the Consumer Price Index, increased at a faster rate during the first eight months of 1969 than it did during the same period last year. The figures are 4 percent for that span of this year, as opposed to 3.1 percent for the same part of 1968. The area of the sharpest rise during this period was food. As a matter of fact, if it were not for the unadjusted 12 percent climb in food prices since May of this year, the Consumer Price Index for this period would have increased at a slower rate than during the same period last year. During this time beef prices slackened somewhat, but the increase in other meats resulted in overall higher prices. Areas of increased prices during the most recent month of record were charges for consumer services, property taxes, mortgage rates, residential gas, and electricity. Women's apparel declined somewhat during this period, but increased occurred in men's and boys' clothing, and footwear. Some other commodity prices, including alcoholic beverages, gasoline, and housekeeping supplies, also moved substantially higher.

CREWS

My, winter has come, and we are getting a nice rain. Farmers who got any grain sowed are proud to see it.

We regret to lose Mrs. O. L. Deprang of Novice. She passed away Friday night in Hendricks Hospital in Abilene. Several from our community attended the funeral in Novice Sunday afternoon.

Prospects Dim for Early Downturn

Recent price increases in autos, tires, major appliances, wholesale ground coffee, heating and air conditioning units, and health insurance would indicate a continuation of the rise in the Consumer Price Index over the near term. However, the index tends to be a lagging indicator, and for the longer pull it would appear a slower growth rate is likely. The industrial raw materials price index, which is usually a leading indicator of the inflation cycle, has shown some signs—although slight—that the inflation syndrome is slowing down. The rate of advance for this index has decreased from 25.6 percent between December and April to 8.6 percent between June and July. Any further loss of momentum would be a significant symptom of the success of the Administration's efforts to curb inflation. Another signal of a potential slowdown in the Consumer Price Index is the decline in farm products prices that began early this summer.

Business Slowdown To Help

Other factors to be considered include a general business softening, with more evidences of slackening in consumer demand. During this sharp climb in the index, the wage earner has experienced a rise in income. Workers as a whole have seen their incomes rise faster than has the CPI. However, those who can least afford it have been hurt most seriously. This is particularly true of the elderly who are on fixed incomes and the poor.

The wage demands made by the service sector of the economy, which has traditionally been underpaid, and the continued lively consumer market for goods and services will result in further increases in the Consumer Price Index. Until inflation itself has slowed to acceptable levels, meaning a slowdown in wage increases as well as prices, the CPI will continue to rise at, or close to, current rates.

"THE UNDEFEATED"

Two of Hollywood's most popular stars—John Wayne and Rock Hudson—are teamed for the first time in a motion picture. They head the cast of "The Undeclared," 20th Century-Fox's action packed Western which shows Fri., Sat., Sun. at the State Theatre.

Wayne, of course, is in familiar territory of outdoor adventures, but Hudson is breaking from the bedroom comedies with which he has been so long associated. Wayne plays a colonel, leader of a Union cavalry unit that attacks a Confederate position under the command of Hudson, also a colonel.

With the war over, Wayne heads west with a group of his men to round up wild horses and sell them to the Federal forces. Hudson, unwilling to accept life in a conquered land burns his plantation and departs for Mexico with his family and about a hundred men, women and children. There the Confederate and Union groups meet again and become involved in the struggle between Benito Juarez, leader of the Mexicans, and Emperor Maximilian whom the Mexicans seek to depose.

Local Students Attend College Night Activities

About 35 Winters High School Juniors and Seniors, who are planning to attend college, attended a College Night program at Abilene High School Tuesday night.

Students and accompanying parents had an opportunity to attend three different discussion groups to obtain information about three different colleges in which they were interested. The college representatives discussed such matters as entrance requirements, application procedure, estimated yearly cost, courses of study or fields of specialization offered, type of housing available, financial aid, and opportunities for social development.

This was the fifth consecutive year that College Night has been co-sponsored by the Parents Clubs of Abilene High School and Cooper High School. Each year hundreds of students

Tax Man Sam Sez:

An important but often overlooked tax requirement is the one requiring you to change your dependency exemption claim with your employer when you lose a dependent.

Most taxpayers are very diligent about claiming the new baby as a dependent. But when the daughter gets married, Dad often forgets to follow the law and drop her from his W-4 exemptions (provided, of course, she is no longer a dependent, or that he doesn't get an extra dependent). If a member of your family dies or leaves your household, the law requires you to promptly change your W-4.

There is an option for you to drop exemptions in order to get your withholding tax to balance out and pay all of your tax bill in lieu of filing an estimated tax return. But this option only works one way. You can't claim all of your withholding back by adding on exemptions and then balance the account at the end of the year. The law requires you to pay all you owe as you go. If you pay more, as most people do, you'll get a refund.

So, Dad, if you didn't gain a son, go see Personnel and drop the daughter.

Good will is the mightiest practical force in the universe.

THE SWEDISH government may help the United States obtain the names of American prisoners of war being held in North Vietnam. Olof Palme, prime minister of Sweden, said in a recent American television interview. Palme reported that his country had "a channel" into Hanoi because Stockholm recognizes the North Vietnamese government.

AUSTIN—A new 50-member governor's committee has launched an historic effort to improve relations among Texas ethnic and racial groups.

Gov. Preston Smith called on Governor's Committee on Human Relations at its initial meeting last week to document the problem of discrimination "warts and all" and recommend a solution.

Secretary of State Martin Dies Jr. of Lufkin is chairman of the widely - representative panel, which includes whites, blacks and Mexican-Americans and a diverse economic cross-section. Former Secretary of State Roy Barrera of San Antonio was named vice chairman and Mrs. M. J. Anderson of Austin, secretary.

"Racial blindness and intolerance in state government, local government, private industry and business and in every other place in which people come in contact with people must be overcome," Smith told the committee. "Human relations problems do exist in Texas. That is why this committee is necessary."

Smith pledged "any reasonable step" to help bring about "real and measurable improvements," and he called on all state agencies to "re-examine their employment practices, with a view to this worthy end."

Governor identified as obvious problem areas education, housing, employment, administration of justice, public facilities and services and consumer protection. Special sub-committees will be set up in most of these categories to begin studies and investigation soon.

NEW STATE PARK AUTHORIZED A sales contract was signed last week for a scenic new 4,775-acre state park in Blanco County.

Parks and Wildlife Commission agreed to pay $200 an acre—$995,000—for land it once was offered free by Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wheatley of San Antonio. Legislature in 1963 did not provide $250,000, which the Wheatleys specified should be spent for development of the beautiful area, and state lost title to land.

Money for development now will come from the $75 million parks bond issue and federal aid. Park is the second financed under the bond program. First was Dinosaur Valley in Somervell County. New area probably won't be open for a year, PWC indicated.

APPOINTMENTS

James W. Griffith of San Marcos took over October 20 as Southwest regional Director of Office of Economic Opportunity, succeeding Walter Richter, formerly of Gonzales.

Governor Smith elevated Judge Otha F. Dent, formerly of Littlefield, to chairman of Texas Water Rights Commission. To new 149th district judge-ship, Smith named Paul Franklin Ferguson of Alvin.

Governor announced these appointments to State agencies: Board of Trustees of the Teacher Retirement System: William B. Black Jr., of Houston.

Air Control Board: William P. Hobby Jr. of Houston and Fred Hartman of Baytown; Herbert Wood Whitney of Corpus Christi was reappointed.

State Depository Board: Wallace H. Scott Jr. of Austin. Good Neighbor Commission: Dorrance Herbert Guy of El Paso.

Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System: Sam D. Young Jr. of El Paso and Wayne E. Thomas of Hereford.

University of Houston Board of Regents: Travis Camp Johnson.

School Land Board: Roman J. Bartosh of Taylor.

AG OPINIONS

In giving notice of meetings of school boards and all other public agencies as required under the open sessions law passed by the 61st Legislature, commissioners courts should itemize agenda topics, Atty. Gen Crawford Martin has held.

In related opinion, Martin said county clerks may charge "a reasonable fee" to school districts for posting the required notices of their meetings.

In other recent opinions Martin held that: School districts cannot legally pay more to a teacher who is head of a household than to an identically-qualified teacher who is not.

State's basic law against speeding is constitutional.

District Attorney Hollis Garmon of Greenville is out of a job as d. a. because his home county (Hunt) was removed by the Legislature from the Eighth Judicial District and placed in the 196th.

A judge lacks the power to probate or suspend the automatic suspension of a driver's license following a conviction for driving-while-intoxicated unless the entire judgment of conviction and sentence are probated.

Resolutions of a junior college district board of trustees must be adopted by affirmative vote of a majority of all members.

State may pay premiums for property damage insurance coverage for Texas Highway Department employees within the limits of the new tort claims act.

A county-wide day school program cannot be paid for by the state during fiscal 1969-70.

Tax collectors and deputies are liable on bonds for loss thru fraudulent or negligent issuance of a tax certificate.

EDUCATION

Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System postponed action on a controversial staff recommendation to require needy students applying for Texas Opportunity Program loans to produce co-signers of notes.

Proposal followed a report that some 40 per cent of students who have borrowed from the state bond fund since 1966 have skipped at least one payment. In all $2.6 million is delinquent of the $6.5 million allocated since the loan program began. Opponents charged that requiring co-signers would cut very needy students off from aid.

In other action, Board gave go-ahead to Scurry County for election on creation of a junior college district and a $3.2 million bond issue in late November.

Invention of the row-crop tractor in 1925 opened the way to new efficiency in cotton production.

'70 Upland Cotton Quota Increased Almost Million

The U. S. Department of Agriculture announced on October 15, 1969, a revised national marketing quota of 16,008,333 bales (standard bales of 500 pounds, gross weight) and a revised national acreage allotment of 17 million acres for the 1970 crop of upland cotton. This represents an increase of 941,666 bales in the quota and an increase of one million acres in the allotment from that announced on October 1, 1969.

The increase is brought about by the declining 1969 crop prospects caused primarily by abnormal weather conditions throughout much of the Cotton Belt. The September 8 Crop Report, on which the original determinations were made, indicated a 1969 crop of 10,984,000 bales. The current report indicates production of 10,428,000 bales. The increase in the quota and allotment is necessary in order to assure the maintenance of adequate stocks in the United States to provide a continuous and stable supply of the different qualities of cotton needed in the U. S. and in foreign cotton-consuming countries.

Revised State allotments for the 1970 crop will be announced within a few days.

Also announced on October 15, were the following additional provisions of the 1970-crop program for upland cotton.

Domestic Acreage Allotment
For the 1970 crop, the farm domestic acreage allotment has been set at 65 percent of the farm acreage allotment, the minimum authorized by law. Farmers who sign up to participate in the program and who plant at least 90 percent of their farm's domestic acreage allotment, but not in excess of the permitted acreage for the farm, will be eligible for price-support loans and, for price-support payments on the farm domestic allotment.

Skip-Row Rules
Skip-row rules which were in effect for the 1969 crop will be applicable to the 1970 crop. In general, under these rules, only the land actually planted to cotton is counted as cotton land in determining compliance with program provisions.

Lease and Sale of Allotments
The final date for filing applications for the transfer of UNIQUE HOUSEBOAT is one of the many on San Francisco Bay. The boats—estimated at 250—are moored or grounded on tidelands extending along the waterfront north of the Sausalito city limits. Authorities in the area have termed the owners "troublemakers" and are involved in legal action to evict the houseboaters.

cotton allotments is December 31, 1969. Producers in 381 cotton-producing counties in the U. S. have approved for 1970 the transfer of allotments to farms outside the county. Allotments, however, cannot be transferred from one State to another.

Projected Yields
A projected national yield of 500 pounds per acre has been established for the 1970 crop, a reduction of 45 pounds per acre from that set for the last three crop years.

The reduction announced on October 15 reflects the failure of cotton yields to realize the trends expected on the basis of trends a few years ago. The projected yield for 1967-68-69 crops was established at 545 pounds because of previous upward trend. During the past four years, yields have been leveling off and have trended down since 1965. The 1970 national projected yield is based on 1964-68 harvested yields (497 pounds average.)

During the next 50 years, if adequate water is available, the population of Texas will triple to more than 30 million people.

If you want to get to the poorhouse, keep right down Easy Street.

Real problems can be overcome; it is only the imaginary ones that are unconquerable.

If there is one thing more than any other that characterizes the average American, it is his eagerness to learn almost anything at almost any age.

Farm Workers Are Covered By SS, Records Necessary

Most farm workers are now covered by social security, according to Ted F. Moellering, social security district manager. "And, they probably need the protection as much as any other group in the economy," Moellering added.

With present wages, it is likely that a farm laborer will earn the $150 in a year from one employer to qualify for coverage. Even if he does not earn $150 in a year, his wages are subject to social security if he works for the same employer for at least 20 days in a calendar year and works on a time basis.

Withholding from wages or salaries of farm employees is similar to that for employees in other businesses. The tax rate is currently 4.8 percent for the employee. The employer is responsible for withholding the tax from the employee's wages. He then matches the amount withheld and reports the wages to Internal Revenue Service.

Unlike the industrial employer, who is required to report each quarter, the agricultural employer reports only once per year. The report is due by January 31 of the year following the year of earnings.

The same cotton cloth can be finished to appear as chintz, gingham, moire, denim, matelasses, or pique.

More than half of the present $2.5 billion income from Texas farm marketings come from irrigated farmlands.

In the next 50 years, the state water demands will more than double. At the same time, the ground water supply will be less than half of today's actual production.

Mrs. W. F. Minzenmayer, Mrs. R. T. O'Dell, Mrs. H. A. Minzenmayer, Mrs. Fritz Delke, Mrs. Ellis Ueckert, and Mrs. Jerry Holle plan to attend a workshop clinic at Risen Christ Lutheran Church at Odessa.

WASHINGTON "As it looks from here" OMAR BURLESON Congressman 17th District

Washington, D. C. — Glamour is at its height when the great chandeliers in the White House are ablaze and men and women in evening clothes dine with the President and the First Lady from plates etched in gold. The talk is usually light and everyone smiles at everyone else. Foreign guests bow and kiss the ladies' hands.

It is all really contrary to the loneliness of the job of being President of the United States. At the pinnacle of our Government, the President must finally stand alone in his decisions. Whoever he may be is to carry an awesome responsibility. One is reminded of the famed quotations of former President Harry Truman—"The buck stops here," and "If you can't stand the heat, stay out of the kitchen."

This coming Monday, November 3, President Nixon is to address the Nation on the war in Vietnam. He could make some significant policy statements of a dramatic nature. Evidently the Administration is coming to the conclusion that soon there must be some changes in direction and the President's address may indicate a course of action soon to be taken.

Whatever is done about Vietnam will not please everyone but it is a fair assumption that the President feels like most people—that we can not forever remain bogged down in this far away and unfortunate situation without some reasonable solution in sight.

Perhaps Mr. Nixon hears his own words of about a year ago when he said "A President had to hear not only the clamorous voices of the organized, but also the quiet voices . . . the voices that speak through the silences, and speak from the heart and conscience."

It is plain now that the bloom of office is fading under the pressures and the demands that clearer answers be forthcoming on our position in Vietnam.

The Presidency has never been easy or simple. Even in less complicated times and, in fact from the very beginning, our Chief Executives have had to face great decisions. George Washington came to office determined to rule over a united nation. Within four months the Senate rejected his proposed treaty with Southern Indians. Division became so severe that a second Party was formed before he left office.

Shortly before Abraham Lincoln was inaugurated in 1861, seven States had seceded from the Union. The Northerners thought they could defeat the South in a matter of days until their forces were shattered at Bull Run.

Before 1863 Lincoln was ordering the arrest of anti-draft agitators.

In 1917, Woodrow Wilson, opposed by strong congressional influence to arming American ships, denounced certain Senators as "a group of willful men." After the war, the United States Senate rejected Wilson's plea for U. S. membership in the League of Nations.

In 1936, President Franklin Roosevelt rode into office carrying all the States except two. Before he had served two years, opposition was so great that he personally campaigned for the defeat of Senators who did not go along with his programs.

History does repeat itself. Although there may be little solace for a contemporary President in recalling the tribulations of his predecessors the fact remains that the man in that office must stand alone. In trying times he finds himself pulled and pushed from every quarter, even the leaders in his own Party.

Politics being what it is makes understanding of an Administration's position on domestic issues easier but it should have no place in war and the well-being of our Nation.

Although the President makes that final decision, whether we agree or not, he deserves as much support as we can reasonably give him. There are enough issues left over to quarrel about.

CONTRASTING with the modern U.N. building in background is this member of the Swaziland delegation in native garb. He was waiting for a taxi after a General Assembly session.

RAs of Southside Baptist To Observe Special Service

Royal Ambassadors of the Southside Baptist Church will join thousands of other Baptist Churches throughout the Southern Baptist Convention, November 2-8, in observance of Royal Ambassador Week.

This special week will spotlight boys 9 through 17 years of age who participate in the Royal Ambassador missionary education program.

Sunday morning, November 2, the RA's of the Southside Baptist Church will be taking part in the special service at 10:50 a.m. Alfred "Scooter" McCurdy, student at Howard Payne College, Brownwood, will be the morning speaker. Music will be under the direction of Randy Wakefield, student at Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, and the director of music at the Southside Baptist Church.

McCurdy has been a summer missionary for the last three years. He traveled all over the state of Texas working on the River Ministry. He has been with the R. A. state staff for two years traveling all over the United States, Canada, and Mexico working in the R. A. program. McCurdy and his wife will be summer missionaries in Minnesota this summer and plan to attend a counseling school.

Also a special program and service will begin at 7 p.m. with recognition and special presentation of Royal Ambassador work. Roy Rice, Steve Sample, and Edwin Hart are workers with the R. A.'s. Virgil James is pastor of the church.

Years and years of happiness only makes you realize how lucky we are to have friends who have shared and made that happiness a reality.

They who are content to remain in the valley will not get the grander view from the mountain top.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends for the flowers and cards and for the other acts of thoughtfulness shown our father, Martin Gerhart, while he was in the North Runnels Hospital, and since his release from the hospital. We especially wish to thank Dr. Rives and the nurses at the hospital for their kindness. —The Family of Martin Gerhart.

AROUND THE 7-AA FOOTBALL LOOP

With four games gone and three to go, the two district leaders—Haskell and Hamlin—still are running neck and neck, with 4-0 records in conference play. Stamford-3-1— is close, and stumbling on the part of either of the leaders, and continued success by Stamford could spell trouble. Hamlin has yet to meet Stamford, too.

The Haskell Indians maintained their winning way Friday night, as they knocked off an always tough, always unpredictable Ballinger 35-21. It was said Haskell ran into their toughest obstacle of the season as they took the Bearcats. Haskell goes to Coleman and Ballinger hosts Merkel this week.

Hamlin, the other 7-AA leader, hit Coleman 28-20 in a close one Friday night to keep their record intact. Hamlin scored one time each in the first and second, and chalked up 14 points in the last; Coleman scored twice in the second, to tie up the count at halftime, and for the last time in the fourth, with no conversion. Hamlin goes to Anson this week, while Coleman hosts Haskell.

Stamford upset Anson's homecoming apple cart Friday night, 21-8, putting all their counters on the scoreboard in the second quarter. Anson failed to do anything until the middle of the last quarter, when following a 99 yard drive they went over from a yard out, and then went over for the two. Passing was Anson's big deal Friday night as the Tigers counted for 173 in the air to only 40 rushing.

Stamford hosts Winters this week, and Anson hosts Hamlin.

Except for the possibilities of a tie, one of the two 0-3 teams in 7-AA had to get on the board Friday night, and the Winters Blizzards wrapped it up, downing Merkel 14-7. The Blizzards got a counter without conversion in the first quarter, then came back in the second to count and convert for the two extra points. The Badgers made their lone score in the first and were shut out for the remainder of the game. Winters goes to Stamford, and Merkel goes to Ballinger this week.

Ex-Winters Girl Receives Highest 4-H Honor At Crane

Charlotte Morrison, a Junior in Crane High School, recently was chosen for the 4-H Gold Star Award. The award is given to one boy and one girl each year, and is the highest honor a 4-H Club member can receive.

Miss Morrison is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Morrison of Crane, and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Knight of Winters. She began school in Winters where she attended for six years before her family moved to Crane.

She has been very active in 4-H work. She has received many honors during her four years of 4-H work, and has trophies and ribbons for much of her first place work. The past year she received the Best Cake award, and her cake sold for $70. She attended the State Round-Up at A&M last summer, and placed first in district on demonstration. Her Record Book has just been returned to her, after being entered in state contests.

Miss Morrison also is active in school. She was a member of the volleyball A team, and is also an honor student in school.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express heartfelt thanks to all our friends and neighbors for the many acts of kindness shown upon the death of our loved one, for the food, flowers and cards which were sent. Especially do we appreciate the kindness and help from Ted Meyer.

Blizzards Defeat

The Blizzards held this lead the rest of the game and were not threatened again until the Badgers moved down to the Blizzards' 8-yard line with seconds left in the game. But the Blizzards truly held their own as they contained the Badgers in fine form.

The game ended with the Blizzards in possession of the ball and the victory.

Fine efforts were given by all the Blizzards. Mike Mathis was the leading rusher with 115 yards rushing.

The Blizzards look hopefully to Stamford this Friday as they meet them on the Bulldogs' field.
