WINTERS: A West Texas City "Growing" Places!

VOLUME NO. SIXTY-FIVE

Too many of us take our public schools for granted. Too much of the time we consider our schools only as caverns of brick and concrete into which our kids disappear about 8 a. m. each day, to emerge about 4 p. m. Too many times we fail to interest ourselves in what goes on during those hours.

As long as someone doesn't make waves, we roll along on our merry way, giving very little thought to what goes on in our schools. We thrust the kids into the door of the cavern when they are six years old, then when they are about 18, we strut like peacocks as they march down the aisle to receive their diplomas. In between, we give our support-hot and coldto their extra curricular activities, and take for granted they are getting an education during the times they are not on pub-lic display. We're "proud" of our schools—(what little we Three Candidates know of them). But we forget.

Then someone stands up in the boat! Our boat of complacency is submerged, and we thrash around trying to keep our head up and grasp for any stick of support. We have forgotten, along the way, to prepare ouraround trying to keep our head selves for the bad weather. Then it takes much more effort to keep afloat.

Our old friend Herb Love, of the Lincoln County Journay at Shoshone, Idaho, says he has read that in 1968 there were 2.99 persons killed for each 100 million vehicle miles. And he's figured out how not to get killed. When his speedometer gets up to a bit over 33 million miles in any one year, he's going to leave his car in the garage. Even if some chap demands that he go that extra mile with him, like the Bible says we should, he's going to refuse.

A strange, haunting story of a young girl and her self-established relationship with a n aging prostitute is the daring dramatic basis for the John Heyman production, Joseph "Secret Ceremony," showing Sunday and Monday to the State Theatre. The Universal release, photographed in Technicolor, stars Elizabeth Taylor Mia Farrow and Robert Mitchum and co-stars Peggy Ash croft and Pamela Brown. Miss Farrow, in the role of a slightly mentally-retarded sin gle girl of 22, living in the elegant home and on the wealth she inherited from her mother, picks up Miss Taylor, an aging prostitute, from an accidental meeting on the street. Because of the strong resemblance to her dead parent, she installs the prostitute in the mansion and insists she is "Mummy." Miss

Super Hugger

GM

If it were an ordinary sportster, we'd have introduced it at the ordinary time.

Instead, we took the time to build a whole new Camaro.

We started with a sleek new shape and a low roadhugging stance.

And added more hood. A faster fastback. Wider doors. And new deeply contoured bucket seats.

The instrument panel wraps around you. With enough dials to make you think you're piloting a 747.

There are four transmissions. And six power plants up to the Turbo-Jet 396 V8 that you can order.

Pick the one that best suits your driving. Then go pick on an open road.

And make it one with plenty of twisting turns. Because Camaro has a remarkable new suspension. And standard front disc brakes for a leech-like grip on the road.

New Camaro. The Super Hugger. Other sportsters always feared it might come to this.

And they were right. Only their tim-
