

HOME TOWN Talk

By R. C. THOMAS

Some suffered summer sunburns Sunday, but were greeted by early fall coolness Monday morning. Even though the temperature didn't dip into coldness, the change was enough to be quite noticeable—and welcome. Thus came the annual "big surprise"—when summer begins preparations to vacate the premises to make room for fall.

There are other signs that the autumn season is upon us. For example, the longer intervals between lawn mowings; pecans (those left after hailstorms, high winds, etc.) are getting bigger and fuller; mice are seen more often as they scurry from out-of-doors toward bad weather shelter; weeds and wild grass are beginning to seed; and the cotton is opening rapidly.

We're bound to have a lot of hot weather yet, but this would be a good time to remember that as the grass and weeds grow browner, the chances for wild fires increase. There are many unkempt patches of weeds and tall grass in town, which become breeding places for mosquitoes in spring and summer, and then become tinderboxes in the fall. A fire started in such patches of dryness and fanned by high fall winds could cause untold damage. The best prevention would be elimination of the dry grass and weeds.

Further summaries of the nine Constitutional Amendments to be voted on in the general election, November 6:

Amendment 2 would permit single adults, who otherwise qualify, to claim homestead protection of their property. (Continued.)

—Argument for: The proposed amendment would give single adults with real property the same protection and security from forced sale of their homes as is now given to families and would reduce the chances that single adults could lose all their property and become public charges. There are an increasing number and proportion of responsible single adults in our society and they need and deserve the same basic protection from creditors that families need and deserve. The proposed amendment would require the consent of both spouses before any major decision concerning an existing family homestead is acted on. This would insure that maximum consideration be given and family harmony be obtained before arriving at a major decision.

—Argument against: The homestead exemption was designed primarily to protect the innocent family members of the debtor, not the debtor himself, and therefore does not need to be extended to single adults. The homestead exemption was created when Texas was an agricultural state and Texans needed to be secure in their land so they could work, not just so that the family residence could be protected. The need for the protection has been decreased by increasing urbanization, so that now most persons would not be deprived of their source of livelihood if their real property were sold. Since the need is reduced, there is little reason to extend the protection even further.

Amendment 3 would extend the $3,000 ad valorem tax exemption to the homesteads of unmarried adults.

—Argument for: The present law discriminates against single persons who do not have the necessary family relationship to qualify for the tax exemption which married persons have received. Tax assessors and collectors frequently are in a quandary to know if the facts of individual cases qualify a person for the tax exemptions.

Amendment 4 would extend the $3,000 ad valorem tax exemption to the homesteads of unmarried adults.

Mrs. O'Connor To Get High Award

Local agent, Mrs. Juanita B. O'Connor of Ballinger, Runnels County Extension agent, will receive the Distinguished Service Award for 1973—the highest honor given by the National Association of Extension Home Economists.

One of six Texans chosen for the award, Mrs. O'Connor will be honored during the national association's annual meet Oct. 14-19 at Grossinger's in New York State.

According to Mrs. Beatrice Rubenstein of Bellville, Texas, awards committee chairman for the Texas Association of Extension Home Economists, the award recognizes the agent's "proven ability as a leader, organizer and educator in 4-H as well as adult Extension work."

"Mrs. O'Connor has the ability to recruit, train and maintain a large group of leaders to assist with both the youth and the adult phase of the Extension home economics program," she added, referring to the agent's development of an in-depth clothing program in Runnels County.

For 4-H Club members, Home Demonstration Club members, young homemakers, senior citizens and limited-income groups, the program was conducted by the agent with the assistance of 20 Home Demonstration Club leaders and 30 clothing leaders.

It reached an estimated total of 1,000 Runnels County residents.

A 13-year veteran in Extension work, Mrs. O'Connor served as Kerr County Extension agent before coming to Runnels county. She also taught home economics in Texas public schools for 12 years.

She holds a B.S. from North Texas State University and a master of education degree from Howard Payne College. She has earned graduate credit from Texas A&M University.

Mrs. O'Connor is a longtime member of the National Association of Extension Home Economists and the state association, having served the latter as District director for two years in addition to several other committee assignments including chairman of the idea exchange programs.

Equipment Needed For New Hospital Listed For Contributors' Convenience

Because many people who make contributions or pledges to the special fund being raised to purchase equipment for the new North Runnels Hospital would like to designate certain equipment to be purchased with their contributions, the fund committee has completed a partial list of those things which will be needed to fully equip the hospital when it is opened.

Ted Meyer, chairman of the committee, said any individual, organization or firm may designate their contributions or pledges toward the purchase of any separate piece of equipment, or may underwrite the total purchase price of any piece. They may make one contribution, or payment plans may be made on any of the items. All such contributors will be given credit for their help in purchase of separate units, Meyer said.

MRS. JUANITA O'CONNOR
... Demonstration Agent

She is a member of the Texas and American Home Economics Associations.

She is a lifetime member of the Texas State Teachers Association and is a member of Delta Kappa Gamma.

The agent serves as chairman for the consumer education program of the Business and Professional Womens Club and as chairman for the education committee of the Ballinger Women's Club.

Mrs. O'Connor is also a member of the First Baptist Church in Ballinger and a member of the Order of Eastern Star.

She has one daughter, Ruth Elizabeth, a Texas Tech University junior.

Mrs. O'Connor's mother is Mrs. Adah Browder of Bangs, Texas.

Other award winners are Mrs. Elnora R. Bryant of Ballinger, Mrs. Helton B. Catlett of Greenville, Mrs. Arveta F. Mosley of Livingston, Mrs. Cula R. Nowlin of Perryton, and Mrs. Dorothy J. Rambo of Rusk.

TO IDAHO

Master Sergeant and Mrs. Billy Hall and family have moved to Mountain Home AFB, Idaho, where he is stationed with the U. S. Air Force after several months duty in Southeast Asia.

Air Port To Be Paved This Fall

The new runway, taxi strips and parking aprons at the Winters Municipal Airport should be completely paved by January 1, it was announced following the Tuesday night meeting of the Winters City Council.

The Council Tuesday night accepted a bid by Reese-Albert Co. of San Angelo to do the paving work at the airport, with the requirement that the work be completed by January 1, 1974, it was stated. The accepted bid was for $22,729, and work is expected to begin within the next two weeks, according to Buford Baldwin, City Secretary.

George Garrett has served as advisory engineer on the project to re-locate the main runway and service facilities at the airport. The new runway is located slightly west of the old landing strip, and service facilities will be moved from the northwest corner to a location on the east side of the field.

Funds to be used for the airport paving project are from a grant from the Texas Aeronautics Commission. The City of Winters was responsible for "in kind" matching funds—land, primary excavation and engineering.

New Hot Check Laws Explained By County Judge

Runnels County Judge Elliott Kemp gave a brief explanation of the new hot check laws which were passed at the last session of the legislature, during the noon luncheon meeting of the Winters Lions Club Tuesday.

There have been many changes over the old statutes, Judge Kemp said, and businessmen and individuals were advised to obtain information on the new law before filing on hot check passers.

Judge Kemp also mentioned the proposals before the State Constitutional Revision Committee which would abolish the County Court system as it now is operating, and make the county judge merely an administrative officer, while adding an additional "circuit" court or some other type of court system. He pointed out that it would mean extra expenses for counties, especially small counties such as Runnels.

The County Judge also presented a brief background on the recently-reported shortage of funds in the office of the County Tax Assessor-Collector, and the action which had been taken by the Commissioners Court.

City Accepts Bid For Water Tower

Winters City Council Tuesday night accepted a bid by Pittsburg-DeMoines Co. of Houston for construction of a 200,000-gallon water tower.

Completion of contract is subject to acceptance and approval of specifications by an engineering firm employed by the City.

The new water tower will replace the old tower which was removed during the highway widening project several months ago.

Pittsburg-DeMoines' bid was for $106,900. Other bids received were: Universal Tank & Iron Works, $126,880; Chicago Bridge & Iron Works, $111,860.

Final contract will call for completion of the new tower within 360 days, City Hall sources said.

TIME TO PLAN FALL

Fall gardens can produce as many delicious vegetables as spring gardens, says County Extension Agent Parker. In fact, cucumbers, squash, tomatoes, cabbage, broccoli, carrots, cauliflower, turnips, mustard and spinach, all relish the cooler fall temperatures. The time to start a fall garden is mid-summer. Vegetables such as tomatoes and peppers should be started from transplants then since they must mature before frost.

Broccoli, cauliflower and cabbage should be started from transplants in late summer so that they will mature during cool weather in late fall and winter. Frosts and light freezes generally do little damage to these crops, so in southern counties, they can be started later.

Onions may be seeded from early September to late October and thinned for use in the green stage. Plants left over through the winter for production of mature bulbs.

However, if onion plants grow more than one-fourth inch in size before freezing weather, many will develop stems in the spring. Some gardeners may prefer to buy southern-grown transplants and set them out from late December to February for bulbs.

To avoid disease, nematode and weed problems in fall gardens, consider soil fumigation, suggests Parker. Be sure to follow manufacturer's recommendations, especially those on the time interval between application and planting.

Water is critical for fall vegetables, especially in the early stages when temperatures are still high. A good soaking at planting should be followed by lighter waterings until seedlings emerge, then regular waterings are needed to keep soil moist.

Brother Of Local Resident Died In Angelo Thursday

John W. Moore, 78, of San Angelo, brother of Mrs. Earl Roach of Winters, died at 11:08 p. m. last Thursday at St. John's hospital in San Angelo.

Services were held at 3 p. m. Saturday in Johnson's Funeral Home chapel with the Rev. J. Earl Dunn, pastor of Harris Avenue Church in San Angelo, officiating.

Burial was in Miles Cemetery. He was born March 4, 1895 in Florence and had lived in San Angelo for 23 years. He was married to Ruth Wills in San Angelo in 1960.

Mr. Moore was a member of the Harris Avenue Baptist Church for 40 years. He was a delivery man for Hudman Drug Store and was a retired farmer.

Survivors include his wife; two daughters, Mrs. Richard E. (Billie) Coleman of Miles, Mrs. Cayce (Imogene) Bagby of Eden; a brother, Howard Moore of San Angelo; two sisters, Mrs. Curtis Bryan of San Angelo and Mrs. Earl Roach of Winters; four step-sons, Durwood Wills of San Angelo, Wendell Wills of Corona, N. M., Dr. Paul Wills of El Paso and Robert Wills of Bangkok, Thailand; a stepdaughter, Mrs. Clifford Wright of Waco; four grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren and 15 stepgrandchildren.

Postage Stamps May Be Bought Through the Mail

Winters Postmaster H. M. Nichols has announced that a new "Stamps by Mail" service will be offered in the Winters area, beginning later this month.

According to Nichols, this new service will permit customers to purchase stamps and stamped envelopes through the mail using a personal check or money order.

The Postmaster noted that "This service will be of great benefit to all our customers and especially shut-ins, the elderly, and working wives. It will enable them to satisfy their postal needs simply, rapidly and inexpensively from their own homes." Leaflets spelling out the details of the service will be distributed to area households and small businesses during the next two weeks.

"This new service has been tested in selected cities nationwide with very positive results," said Postmaster Nichols. "One of our customers in a test city wrote 'I am very happy about this new service, as many of us older people can't get around the way we would like. We real-

Repair of Walks And Curbing In Business Area Is Co-Op Project

Repair and rebuilding of curbs and sidewalks in Winters' downtown business area is a cooperative project between the City and the individual property owners. Mayor Homer Hodge said this week.

Most of the curbing which was in rundown and breaking-up condition has been either repaired or rebuilt, and several sections of sidewalk have been completely rebuilt. Unsightly and dangerous cracks in curbing have been filled in.

Mayor Hodge said the City is using revenue-sharing money to pay for the repair of curbing, and to pay a portion of the cost of replacing sidewalks in front of business buildings. For the new sidewalk work, the City is financing about one-third of the cost, with individual property owners paying the rest. In

AROUND THE 6-AA FOOTBALL LOOP

Three of 6 AA's teams won and three lost to outsiders Friday night, with Hamlin and Haskell remaining the only teams in the circuit without defeats in the two-weeks-deep season. Two teams in the district have played common opponents thus far—Clyde defeated Winters and lost to Hamlin, and Rotan beat Anson and lost to Hamlin. As the first six weeks of the season progresses, and district teams play comparison some measure of comparison may be seen.

The Winters Blizzards came back from their opening loss to Clyde the previous week, spotted Merkel 12 points, and then came out on the winning end of a 14-12 exciter at Winters Friday night. Merkel got their two TDs in the first and second, but failed to convert on either. The Blizzards ran for the extra two after going over for their first in the second quarter, and then went over following a fumble recovery in the third period to gain their 14-12 lead and hold it for the rest of the game.

Hamlin, pre-season picked for the top spot in 6-AA, scored in every quarter against Clyde on Pied Piper ground Friday night, marking up a 41-6 victory in their second game of the season. The Pipers scored on the first offensive play of the game, and went on from there, with Johnny Jones and David Willis went over for five touchdowns between them. Each team has been touted as favorites in their respective districts for top honors this year.

Stamford, coming out for their first encounter this season after an open date the previous week, let the Breckenridge Buckaroos squeeze out a 14-13 close one at Breckenridge Friday night. Stats show that the Bulldogs were slightly ahead of Breck, but three fumbles and three interceptions meant trouble and loss for Stamford. The Anson Tigers, strong contenders in past years, took their second defeat of the season Friday night, as they were blasted 26-12 by the Rotan Yellowhammers. The Tigers took first honors in the first, but failed to do anything again until the fourth, as Rotan took the lead and built it up throughout the game.

The Ballinger Bearcats, after whipping age-old rival Brady the previous week, went to Reagan County Friday night, and came home with a 34-8 loss. Ballinger's only score came in the second quarter, as halfback Tommy Parris went over from six yards and ran the two-point conversion.

Haskell outdistanced Seymour 32-20 Friday night, for the Indians' second win of the year. 6-AA now has six wins and five losses against non-conference teams for the season.

WINGATE

Mr. Carlton Robinson was 80 years old Sunday and he had several relatives visit him Saturday. His son, Roy and wife Rachel, and daughter, Cynthia, of Bronte, mother-in-law Mrs. Helm, his daughter, Grace Childers and husband Irvin, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Martindale, a granddaughter.

Lucian Jackson of Abilene visited his niece, Mrs. Kathleen Shedd Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Vick are moving back to Wingate from Winters. They have rented a lot from Mrs. B. H. Denson to put their mobile home on.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Rogers were over night guests in the home of her aunt, Leila Harter, and were enroute to Abilene to make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Voss were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Talley Friday.

The Ray Duns were guests of Mr. Heathcott Saturday night.

Mrs. Wheat is visiting in Garden City.

CARD OF THANKS

My friends and I would like to thank everyone for their visits, phone calls and prayers while I was recovering from surgery in Hendrick Hospital. Thanks for the food and visits since I have been home. You have helped each day seem shorter. God bless each one.—Mrs. Hollis Dean and Family.

By Congressman O. C. Fisher
21st District

The Senate Watergate hearing is to be resumed soon, and is expected to conclude about six weeks later. Considerable rumbling has developed about continued TV coverage, and a good many are saying the "show" should be shut down, that it has served its purpose, and it's time to let the courts proceed.

While exposure of any form of skulduggery may be useful, there is a serious danger that excessive publicity may jeopardize the ability of the Department of Justice to successfully prosecute any Watergate culprits who may be indicted. Many prospective jurors become opinionated and courts have reversed convictions where excessive publicity made fair trials improbable.

Repatriation of U. S. blacks to Africa? A New York Times reporter recently wrote a feature story entitled "U. S. blacks build new life in Africa," in which he told how pleased "a few thousand Americans living permanently in Africa" are with what one immigrant described as the "ageless, rhythmic vibrations" of the dark continent.

How extensive this repatriation move may be remains to be seen. Not long ago Rep. Robert Nix, a black congressman from Philadelphia, introduced a bill to authorize our government to negotiate with African states for undeveloped land where U. S. repatriates would be settled. The African nations would be well compensated. Free transportation would be offered along with other benefits—a sort of foreign aid for the countries involved.

This plan is really nothing new. The idea was advanced by Thomas Jefferson, later by Abraham Lincoln, and some Negro leaders have proposed in the past that repatriation to the fatherland be sponsored by our government. But unless more interest is manifested it is not likely that anything will be done to promote repatriation, other than voluntary moves such as was described in the New York Times article.

SHORT SNORTS

Agriculture Commissioner J. C. White estimated major crop losses from tropical storm Della at about $100 million.

Texas Water Quality Board approved pollution control and quality maintenance plans for San Antonio, Colorado, Guadalupe, and Sabine River basins. Governor Briscoe declined to comment on speculation he has considered a possible successor to State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert should the 81-year-old official retire before 1974 elections.

Doves More Like Homing Pigeons

AUSTIN—With a few exceptions, mourning doves are pretty much home bodies, according to results of a Texas Parks and Wildlife Department banding study.

The department and private individuals banded 51,095 doves between 1925 and 1965 and have recovered 1,734 bands from birds marked in Texas, according to a recent article in Texas Parks & Wildlife magazine.

Department biologists say that 85 percent of the birds were recovered in Texas, and the majority of these recoveries were made in the same ecological region where the birds were banded.

Because 63 percent of the recoveries from winter-banded adults were made during the following hunting season in the same region of the banding, biologists believe that adult doves return to the same wintering area year after year. A portion of the population could be there year-round.

More than two-thirds of the recoveries from nesting and juvenile mourning doves banded in summer were taken the following fall within the same ecological region where they were banded, indicating that a substantial proportion of immature doves remain in the area where banded until hunting season begins.

Louisiana accounted for 24 percent of Texas-banded birds recovered in the United States. Hunters in 18 other states, including California, Minnesota, North Dakota and Florida at the extremes, have recovered bands from Texas birds.

Biologists do not know the speed of dove migrations, but they have a couple of indications that doves can travel great distances in a short time. One dove banded in Manitoba was killed in Travis County 37 days later after a journey of 1,600 miles.

Another dove banded in Brooks County in Texas was killed 66 days later in North Dakota after a 1,500 mile trip. Biologists point out that there is no way to determine how long the doves had been in the area before they were shot.

Mexico accounted for 54 percent of the bands recovered from doves killed outside of Texas. Bands were also received from Guatemala, Honduras, El Salvador and Nicaragua.

Beauty is truth, truth beauty.

AUSTIN—New legislative subcommittee investigations of the amusement and vending machine industry have been ordered amid sensational (and disputed) allegations resulting from a 1968 probe.

Speaker Price Daniel Jr. named Rep. Arthur (Buddy) Temple of Diboll to head a House Consumer Affairs sub-panel inquiry into juke box operations and needed legislation in the field.

The sub-committee was instructed to work jointly with a Senate group headed by Sen. Ron Clower of Garland. Clower said his sub-committee will look into allegations the industry is linked to organized crime and that the regulatory state Amusement Machine Commission is dominated by big operators who do not protect customers.

Daniel said the air should be cleared of speculation, controversy and innuendo which have surrounded operation of the industry for years.

Meanwhile, Daniel unveiled some of the previously-secret records of a 1968 House investigation. Most controversial was a tape recording of testimony by Pete Martinez of Austin that he gave money to a state representative, a state senator (who is now dead) and a judge, on behalf of Raymond B. Williams of Dallas, a major amusement machine owner who previously served on the regulatory commission.

Williams has denied Martinez's testimony. Department of Public Safety Director Wilson E. Speir said Martinez, now serving a probation sentence for burglary, failed to satisfy a lie detector test that he was telling the truth and that he refused to repeat his charges to a district attorney or grand jury.

BRISCOE LIKES IT HERE
Governor Briscoe says he likes his job and has given no thought to quitting after a single term.

While he said he is not ready to make a formal announcement, the Governor didn't leave much room for doubt that he will seek a second term in 1974. "I have enjoyed this job," said Briscoe. "I haven't thought about leaving."

While he was at it, Briscoe said he sees no reason to change his mind about not calling a special legislative session. He stated flatly he does not see one as need for any purpose.

Action is expected to be taken on the rules and on tuition equalization grant procedures at a September 28 meeting in Dallas.

The 63rd Legislature authorized the University of Houston to issue up to $40 million in tuition bonds for its Clear Lake Campus, Texas A&M University a maximum of $7.5 million for Texas Maritime Academy and Moody College of Marine Sciences and Maritime Resources and Pan American University, Edinburg, a maximum of $10 million.

Schools must provide estimates of enrollment, estimated gross tuition revenues and total cost of proposed construction projects.

AG OPINIONS
Atty. Gen. John Hill ruled state game and fish funds may be used to erect artificial reefs on submerged lands of the continental shelf seaward of three marine league limits.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:
Proposed plans for a Rapid Transit Authority must be furnished to the Governor's Interagency Transportation Council by the governing body of the principal city rather than by the authority governing body.

1974 Chevrolet

A better-than-ever way.

When the wheel belongs to you, the road goes anywhere you say. And it's so much better with a '74 Chevrolet.

Caprice Classic. Introducing an elegant motor car, just asking to be enjoyed. Outside: an imposing new grille, and on the Coupe, a distinctive new roof line. Inside: peace, quiet and convenience. With standard power steering to do most of the turning, standard power front disc brakes to do most of the stopping, and a standard Turbo Hydra-matic transmission to do the shifting. If you want the luxury and comfort of a car that leaves little else for you to do but enjoy the ride, you don't have to look beyond the '74 Caprice Classic. However, the freedom of the open road begins with the freedom of choice:

Vega GT. This year's version of last year's Motor Trend Economy Car of the Year. (And Car and Driver Readers' Choice as Best Economy Sedan for the last three years.) With a reshaped nose, bigger bumpers, nicer carpeting, new stripes and new colors. Plus more good things to make it better. See what it's like to drive a winner.

Malibu Classic. A luxury Chevelle, new this year. With full foam seats. A fold-down front armrest. Wood-grained vinyl accents. Elegant inner door panels. Extremely tasteful upholstery and cut-pile nylon carpeting. That's just inside. The exterior is just as classic, in character and in detail, as the interior. Yet, it remains mid-size. And, it remains all Chevelle. With Chevelle handling and at a Chevelle price. Now that you've looked, come and see the new Malibu Classic—and all the 1974 Chevrolets. The ones shown here, plus Impala, Monte Carlo, Nova, Corvette, pickups, vans and all our new cars and trucks.

Camaro. The way it looks is the way it goes. Quick, sleek and nimble. With a low, wide stance, responsive steering. And comfort that's rare in a car that handles so well. Plus classic new styling, and plushness from the cut-pile carpeting up.

Blizzards Come From Behind To Win Over Merkel 14-12 in Friday's Game

The Winters Blizzards spotted the Merkel Badgers a 12-point lead, then swept from behind to claim a 14-12 victory here Friday night in their second non-conference game, Winters' record is now 1-1 for the season.

The Merkel Badgers jumped off to a 12-point lead before the Blizzards managed to get on the scoreboard. With 11:20 left in the first quarter, Merkel's Jeff Cox fired a 19-yard touchdown pass to Doug Hutchings. The extra point try was missed and the Badgers led 6-0. Midway in the second quarter, Jeff Cox rambled 20 yards with the benefit of some fine blocking to score the second Badger touchdown. This time Merkel went for the 2-point conversion, but failed. The score stood 12-0.

On the following kickoff with the benefit of a 15-yard penalty, the Blizzards marched the ball deep into Badger territory. From the Badger 26 yard line, Quarterback Stan Tatam pitched to Mitch Davis on the triple option. Davis scampered and plowed over seven would-be tacklers before plunging into the end zone for the first Blizzards touchdown. Seven different Badger tacklers had opportunities to bring the determined junior running-back down, but Davis won the battle and the Blizzards had cut the Badger lead in half. The try for conversion was good as again Mitch Davis plunged into the end zone. This 2-point conversion turned out to be the deciding factor for the Blizzards' first victory. The score now stood 12-8, which it remained as the first half ended.

For most of the third quarter, the game was played without any further scoring. With 2:32 remaining in the third period, Johnny Ray Liggins streaked into the end zone on a fullback keep to provide what would become the winning margin.

Fumbles by both teams in the last quarter kept the game in suspense till the last moment but the Winters defense refused the team from Merkel the rest of the game and made the two-point advantage stand up.

Outstanding play was exhibited by split end Bobby Poindexter, who made a fine leaping catch for a 26-yard gain; Kyle Tatam who intercepted a Badger pass with 30 seconds left in the game; halfback Ricky DeLaCruz; halfback Mitch Davis; guard Glen Colburn; fullback Luther Smith; and line backer David McAadoo.

Who Caught What For Fish Record?

AUSTIN — Who caught the fish? Was it the person whose hook, line and tackle were attached to the fish, or the one who landed the fish—hook, line, tackle and all?

Ordinarily, it wouldn't make that much difference. As King Solomon suggested to the two women who claimed the same baby, simply cut it in two and give half to each.

But, just as the rightful mother spoke up to save the life of the child, this may not be the solution when it comes to a new Texas state fish record, either.

Here's the situation: Mr. C. had set down his pole after casting into Greenbelt Reservoir in the Texas Panhandle when a big fish grabbed the bait and took his entire rig into the lake.

He dashed down the shoreline to Mrs. P. and asked her to reel in her line and hopefully snag his line in the process. She did and out came the tackle along with a 15-pound Northern pike, which Mr. C. promptly weighed and submitted as a new state record.

When Mrs. P. read about it in the local papers, she protested that it was her catch and sent a notarized statement to the Texas State Fish Records committee to claim the title for herself.

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department's record committee, ordinarily up to every other fish record proposal on a biologically sound basis, is temporarily stumped.

Readers who have opinions on the matter are invited to send solomonic suggestions to the committee at the John H. Reagan Bldg., Austin, Texas 78701. In the meantime, fish records chairman Richard McCune was heard to suggest, "What we need now is a 16-pound pike."

Deer Meat Value Set At $12 Million

AUSTIN—Texas deer hunters took home almost $12 million worth of venison during the past season, according to Texas Parks and Wildlife Department officials.

The figure is based on the amount of boneless meat from 14,400 mule deer and 362,000 white-tailed deer killed during the 1972-73 season and the November, 1972, price of ground beef chuck which averaged $85 per pound statewide.

The average field-dressed mule deer weighed 106 pounds and yielded an estimated 53 pounds of boneless meat, while whitetails field dressed at approximately 73 pounds and yielded slightly more than 36 pounds of boneless meat.

The total amount of boneless mule deer meat harvested in Texas was approximately 762,000 pounds and valued at more than $647,000.

Whitetails yielded approximately 13,174,000 pounds of boneless meat valued at more than $11,198,000.

Department officials say that rising beef prices should raise the value of venison considerably during the coming season.

There is in true beauty, as in courage, somewhat which narrow souls cannot dare to admire.

Ford introduces the 74's.
The news is big, medium and small. At your Ford Dealer's.

Ford Mustang II. A new class of small car: First Class.

Mustang II is 19 inches shorter than last year's Mustang . . . even a bit shorter than the original one. It's more than a new Mustang. It's a whole new class of small car: First Class. In every way. From its jewel-like exterior to its handsomely appointed interior, the new Mustang II gives you a luxurious level of standard equipment you probably never expected to find in a small car. Yet Mustang II still carries an economical small-car price. Mustang II comes in two different body styles, four different models. See them soon.

1974 Ford Torino. The solid mid-size.

Torino's got a new young look this year. Excitingly restyled outside . . . exciting new features inside. And lots of solid car to go with them. A new young look, a smooth and steady ride. That's Torino '74.

1974 Ford LTD. The quiet full-size.

Quiet, luxurious, beautifully built, that's LTD for '74. A high level of craftsmanship wherever you look, from the fit of the doors, hood and trunk to the impressive list of LTD features. Steel belted radial tires. Automatic transmission. Power steering. Power brakes, and more. All standard on LTD for '74.

PUBLIC NOTICE

SUMMARY OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS
SPECIAL ELECTION NOVEMBER 6, 1973

NUMBER ONE ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 8)

Article III, Sections 5, 24 and 49a and Article VIII, Section 6 of the Texas Constitution are amended to:

Provide for regular annual sessions of the Legislature. The regular session in each odd-numbered year would be for a period not to exceed 180 days. The regular session in each even numbered year would be for a period not to exceed 60 days and would be limited to consideration of fiscal matters and any emergency matters submitted by the Governor. The 60 day session could be extended by the Governor for a period not to exceed 30 days.

Provide an annual salary for members of the Legislature not exceeding $15,000 per year and a per diem not exceeding $15 per day for each day of each regular session or special session.

Provide that no appropriation of money shall be made for a longer term than one year and direct the Comptroller to make annual estimates of anticipated revenue rather than biennial estimates.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to provide for annual regular sessions of the legislature; and to provide an annual salary of $15,000 and per diem for the members of the legislature, effective in January, 1975."

NUMBER TWO ON THE BALLOT (H.J.R. 7)

Article XVI, Sections 50 and 51 of the Texas Constitution are amended to:

Include within the scope of homestead protection the real property of a single adult person which meets the other requirements of homestead property, and to provide that a family homestead may not be abandoned except with the consent of both spouses.

Presently a single adult person is not entitled to claim a homestead exemption and a married man can abandon a family homestead without the consent of his wife.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to include within the scope of homestead protection the real property of a single adult person which meets the other requirements of homestead property, and to provide that a family homestead may not be abandoned except with the consent of both spouses."

NUMBER THREE ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 13)

Article VIII, Sections 1-a and 1-b of the Texas Constitution are amended to:

Extend the $3,000 ad valorem tax exemption to the residential homesteads of unmarried adults.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to extend the $3,000 ad valorem tax exemption to the homesteads of unmarried adults."

NUMBER FOUR ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 1)

Article XVI, Section 59, of the Texas Constitution is amended by adding a new Subsection (e) which:

Provides that no law creating a conservation and reclamation district shall be passed unless a copy of the proposed law is delivered to the commissioners court of each county and to the governing body of each incorporated city or town in whose jurisdiction said district or any part thereof is or will be located. Each such commissioners court and governing body may file its written consent or opposition to the proposed law with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives. Each special law creating such a district must comply with general laws then in effect relating to consent by political subdivisions to the creation of such districts.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment establishing certain requirements relative to the enactment of laws creating certain conservation and reclamation districts."

NUMBER FIVE ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 12)

Article XI, Section 7 of the Texas Constitution is amended to:

Provide that all counties and cities bordering on the coast of the Gulf of Mexico are authorized to levy a tax to pay for bonds issued for the construction of sea walls and breakwaters upon a majority vote of the resident property tax-payers. Counties and cities are presently authorized to levy such taxes and this amendment only changes the required vote from a two-thirds majority to a simple majority.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing counties and cities bordering on the Gulf of Mexico to issue bonds

NUMBER SIX ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 26)

Article V, Section 8 of the Texas Constitution is amended by adding a new paragraph which:

Provides that the district court, concurrently with the general jurisdiction of a probate court and in a probate proceeding shall also have the jurisdiction otherwise conferred on it by law. It also provides that the legislature may increase, diminish, or eliminate the jurisdiction of the district court or county court in probate matters, may adopt rules governing the filing, distribution, or transfer of cases and proceedings as between the courts having jurisdiction of probate matters, and may provide that all appeals in probate matters shall be to the courts of civil appeals.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment stating that the district court concurrently with the county court shall have the general jurisdiction of a probate court, and further providing that the legislature may increase, diminish or eliminate the jurisdiction of the district court or county court in probate matters, and further providing that the legislature shall have power to adopt rules governing the filing, distribution and transfer of all such cases and proceedings as between district courts, county courts, and other courts having jurisdiction thereof, and further providing that the legislature may provide that all appeals in such matters shall be to the courts of (civil) appeals."

NUMBER SEVEN ON THE BALLOT (H.J.R. 6)

Article III, Section 49-b of the Texas Constitution is amended to:

Provide for an additional $100 million in bonds or obligations of the State of Texas for the Veterans' Land Fund. This amendment increases the present $400 million authorization to $500 million;

Remove the present provision which permits buying of land only by those veterans who served between September 16, 1940 and the date of formal withdrawal of United States troops from the armed conflict in Viet Nam. This amendment would allow all veterans who served after September 16, 1940 to buy land from the Veterans' Land Fund, provided they are otherwise qualified;

Provide that, in the event of the death of an eligible

Texas veteran after the veteran has filed with the Board an application and contract of sale to purchase through the Board the tract selected by him or her and before the purchase has been completed, then the surviving spouse may complete the transaction.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to provide for an additional $100 million in bonds or obligations of the State of Texas for the Veterans' Land Fund."

NUMBER EIGHT ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 29)

Article XI, of the Texas Constitution is amended by adding a new Section 5(a) which:

Authorizes and requires incorporated cities, towns, and villages, regardless of population and notwithstanding the constitutional limitations on total tax rates, to levy such annual ad valorem taxes on the taxable property in the city, town or village as are necessary to pay the principal of general obligations which may be issued by independent school districts, shall apply as the rate limitation on cities, towns, and villages.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to authorize cities, towns, and villages to levy such ad valorem taxes as are sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on their general obligations hereafter issued subject to the restrictions provided by law."

NUMBER NINE ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 25)

Article VIII of the Texas Constitution is amended by adding a new Section 2C which:

Allows the Legislature, by general law, to exempt all real and personal property used by non-profit water supply corporations or cooperatives from all property taxes. The exemption would apply only to such property as is reasonably necessary to conduct the business of a non-profit water supply corporation or cooperative.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to exempt from property taxes certain property used by a non-profit water supply corporation or a non-profit water supply cooperative."

TAKING THE MYSTERY OUT OF MELON BUYING

If you are intimidated by the prospects of picking out a good melon, cheer up, you are not alone. Selecting cantaloupe, Persian, casaba honey dew or honey ball melons for quality and flavor is difficult for even the most experienced buyer. Now's the time to get some experience, since this is the major marketing season for most of these melons.

Short of cutting the melon, there is no real formula for checking a melon for quality, but there are some signs that will increase the likelihood of choosing a good one.

First of all, it is necessary to understand maturity and ripeness. The fruit is mature when it is ready to be picked, but it may not be fully ripe. Ripe means that the fruit is ready to be eaten.

Both mature and immature melons will be hard when picked and will eventually soften to a desirable eating condition. The differences for the consumer will be in taste. The immature melon, after softening, will not have the sweetness and flavor of a melon picked at maturity and ripened to the read-to-eat stage.

When buying cantaloupes, check the stem end. The stem should be missing, leaving a symmetrical, shallow basin. This indicates that the fruit was mature enough at picking to separate easily from the stem. Other signs of maturity are in the netting and skin color (ground color). Cantaloupes should have a thick coarse and corky netting standing out in bold relief over some part of the surface.

Persian melons have finer netting, and like honey dew melons, are harvested with the stems attached. Rind color for both cantaloupes and Persian melons should be at least yellowish-buff, yellowish gray or pale yellow.

Also, look for signs of ripeness, since cantaloupes or Persian melons could be mature, but not ripe. Ripeness is indicated by a yellowish cast to the rind, and a pleasant odor. Also check the blossom end. If the blossom end yields to a light thumb pressure, the fruit should be ripe.

Other members of the melon family such as casaba, honey dew and honey ball melons may be found with the stem attached. Since these melons are harvested by cutting from the vine, the condition of the stem end is not an indicator of maturity.

When buying casaba melons look for gold yellow rind and a slight softening at the blossom end. Casabas have no odor or aroma.

Honey dew and honey ball melons will have a faint pleasant fruit aroma and should have a soft, velvety feel. They should have a yellowish white to cream rind color and a slight softening at the blossom end.

The Crenshaw melon should have a deep golden yellow rind. Sometime small areas of the rind are a lighter shade of yellow. The surface and particularly the blossom end should yield slightly to moderate pressure of the thumb. Crenshaws should have a pleasant aroma.

BRANDIED FRUIT
Dissolve 1 yeast cake in 1/4 cup warm water; add 1 c. pineapple chunks or tidbits, drained, 1 c. sliced peaches, 1 c. red marachino cherries and 3 cups sugar. (You may add 1/2 c. brandy at this point if desired). Mix and stir often. Keep this mixture in a jar—at least 1/2 gallon—but do not seal completely. A pretty one as this sets on the cabinet and is a "conversation piece."

Harrisons Return From Canada Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Harrison returned home recently after a five-week tour of the Western States, and British Columbia, Canada. They drove about 7,000 miles.

Places of interest were Temple Square at Salt Lake City, Utah, the Mormon Tabernacle, Jackson Hole, Wyo., Yellowstone Park, Virginia City, Mont., Nevada City, Mont.

They also visited Quake Lake, near Gallitan, Mont., where the Madison River was divided by earthquake-caused avalanches August 17, 1959, forming the lake and burying an untold number of people.

From Canada, they returned to the U. S. to Pittsburg, Pa., where they visited the Arlie Sneed family. Mr. Sneed is a brother of Mrs. Harrison. On the return trip they visited Mrs. Kathryn Anderson, at Hugo, Okla.

Two weeks later, add: 1 cup peaches, drained, 1 c. sugar.

Two weeks later, add: 1 cup pineapple chunks or tidbits, drained, 1 c. sugar.

Two weeks later, add: 1 cup cherries, drained, and 1 c. sugar.

Do not let the mixture go below the original 3 cups or it will lose its fermenting power. It will be divided after the last addition listed. Do not refrigerate.

Apricot halves, pear halves and Mandarin orange sections may be used in place of the peaches, etc. Once the starter is made and divided you should add a cup of fruit and a cup of sugar about every ten days to two weeks.

The juice serves well when giving a starter to a friend—use one cup juice and 2 cups fruit. At this time, add fruits as in step two in recipe, let set one day, then stir every day until all sugar is dissolved. Continue to stir most every day and add new fruit and sugar each two weeks.

Serve over ice cream, cottage cheese and make lots of brandied fruit cakes.

Merrill Nursing Home News

The monthly staff meeting was conducted Friday afternoon, and in-service training was planned.

Sunday afternoon, the Church of Christ had charge of services, and Homer Hodge led the singing. Many who are confined to their rooms commented on the sound of the singing.

A bingo club has been organized, and first place winner was Ada Bledsoe. Second place honors went to Elma Cunningham and Pop Daniels, who tied; third place to Ara Busher, and fourth place to Amanda Waldrop and Beth Pumphrey.

The Rev. Harry Grant, pastor of the First Baptist Church, conducted the Wednesday morning Bible Class.

Josie Overman spent the weekend with her son in Tulsa. She also attended her sister's 50th anniversary in Anson.

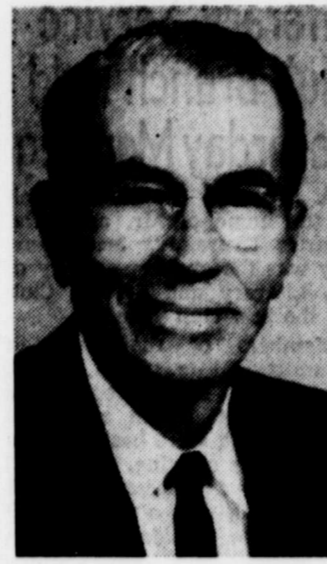

Hopewell, Drasco Ladies Present Mission Program

"Missions Next Door" was the theme of the program for the week of prayer for state missions when women of the Hopewell Baptist Church and the Drasco Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. A. L. Williams last week.

Following the invocation by Mrs. Williams, names of missionaries having birthdays recently were read, and a candle was lighted for each and placed on a birthday cake.

Mrs. Rodney Faubion was narrator, and Mrs. Pat Bishop, Mrs. Sam Faubion, Mrs. Arthur Kirby and Mrs. Marvin Gerhart acted as puppets behind a screen, traveling from missions next door through Texas to missions on the Mexican border. The scenery was rolled by Mrs. Therin Osborn and Mrs. Wilmer Gerhart.

Others present were Mesdames Travis Downing, Dick Bishop, Robert Conner, Omer Hill, and Miss Carrie Lee.

REV. ROY CRAWFORD
... Funeral Wednesday

Roy L. Crawford, Retired Minister, Died Here Tuesday

The Rev. Roy Lesley Crawford, 79, retired Methodist minister of Winters, died at 11:30 a. m. Tuesday in North Rannels Hospital, after a short illness. He had been admitted to the hospital Monday.

Funeral services were held at 4 p. m. Wednesday at the First United Methodist Church.

The Rev. Bob Sanders, pastor of the church, officiated, assisted by ministers of the Brownwood District.

Burial was in the Lakeview Cemetery under the direction of Spill Funeral Home.

The Rev. Crawford was born March 3, 1894, at Itasca, the son of the late Henry Scott and Mary Lou Abernathy Crawford. He came to Rannels County with his parents in 1905.

He was a member of the first graduating class of Winters High School in 1911. After graduation he became a rural mail carrier, making the route on horseback, motorcycle, two wheel cart, buggy and automobile.

He married Ava Pace, Jan. 14, 1917, at Pumphrey.

In November, 1924, he joined the Central Texas Methodist Conference, and was appointed junior preacher at the First Methodist Church in Brownwood. He later served churches at Robert Lee, Joshua, Palmer, West, Moody, Crawford, May, Winchell, Graford, and finally at Saginaw where he built a new church.

In 1964, he retired and he and his wife moved back to Winters. While living in Winters, he was active in the First United Methodist Church, singing in the church choir and preaching occasionally. He conducted church services once a month at the Merrill Nursing Home in Winters.

He was a member of the Winters Masonic Lodge, serving as Chaplain; the Winters chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star, of which he was a past worthy patron; and the Winters Lions Club. He was also on the board of directors of the Central Texas Museum at Salado, and at the time of his death was in charge of the Texas Crawford Club at Salado.

Survivors are his wife; two sisters, Mrs. Myra Webster and Miss Mammie Joe Crawford, both of California; two brothers, Dr. C. C. Crawford and Dr. Fred Crawford, both of California.

Pallbearers were Al Henley, John J. Swatschue, J. N. Clark, T. A. Smith, Ralph Lloyd, J. D. Vinson, J. S. Adams and George Garrett.

Honorary pallbearers were ministers of the Brownwood Methodist District, all ministers of the Winters churches, and members of the Winters Masonic Lodge.

Range Field Day At Vernon Set For October 4

Soil Conservation cooperators with the Runnels Soil and Water Conservation District are being urged to attend an annual brush control and range improvement field day, to be held at Vernon October 4. Harvey Kahlden, district conservatist for the SCS, said this week.

Kahlden said air conditioned buses will be used to tour the Waggoner Ranch during the morning of October 4. After a catered lunch, an afternoon program will be held in the Wilberger Memorial Auditorium at Vernon. Speakers from SCS, A&M University, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, Agricultural Extension Service, and the Brush Control and Range Improvement Association, will discuss new developments and problems in management of brush.

"With increasing demands for meat, we simply must find ways to increase livestock production from our native grasslands," Kahlden said. "A well-rounded grassland improvement program applied to all the land in Runnels County could increase beef production by as much as 50 percent. Similar increases could be obtained over wide sections of the state. To get this improvement, a combination of brush management, range re-seeding, periodic rests, and other modern range improvement methods are needed."

Stock producers and others who would like to attend the field day activities are asked to contact Kahlden at the SCS office.

MRS. THOMAS L. JONES

Becky Louise Simpson, Thomas L. Jones Married Here Saturday Night

In a double-ring ceremony in the Main Street Church of Christ at 7:30 o'clock Saturday evening, Sept. 15, Becky Louise Simpson became the bride of Thomas Laster Jones.

Paul Jones, brother of the bridegroom, performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Emmett Simpson, of Winters, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Jones, also of Winters.

Candlelighters were Sherri Roberts of Fort Worth, niece of the bride, and Leroy Jones, of Winters, brother of the bridegroom. Gail Wood of Fort Worth, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl, and Todd Roberts of Fort Worth, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

James J. Jones, father of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Jeff Lawrence of Port Lavaca, and Jack Kleinecke of Cuero.

Groomsmen were Jimmy Benson of Winters, Bob Hutchings of Portland, Jacob Jansson of Marble Falls, and Danny Isble of Abilene.

Miss Debbie Lloyd of Winters was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Denise Williams of Winters, Miss Terri McWhirter of Big Spring, niece of the bride, Miss Ginger Fairey of Winters, and Tammy Roberts of Fort Worth, niece of the bride.

The bride's attendants wore floor length empire style gowns in pastel colors of checked gingham with lace overlay on bodice. Attendants carried nosegays composed of flowers made of checked gingham.

Given in marriage by her brothers, Andes Emmett Simpson and Richard Simpson, the bride wore an empire style gown made of miramist over bridal satin with lace panel down the front, and full sleeves. The full skirt fell to a chapel train, and her elbow length veil was of sequins and pearls.

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception was held in the church fellowship building. Sisters of the bride and bridegroom served the wedding cake and punch. Mrs. Andes Emmett Simpson attended the register table, and Kellie Roberts, niece of the bride, distributed rice bags.

The bride is a 1972 graduate of Winters High School, and al-but merely shift the tax burdens to other taxpayers or other sources. The adoption of this amendment may result in greatly reduced tax revenues at a time when the elimination of a tax source is unwise. Modern social security, retirement systems, and welfare programs have lessened the need for protection of a residence homestead, and the exemption is not based on need or a person's ability to pay.

Amendment 4 provides that cities and counties be given notice of and approval or disapproval of the creation of conservation and reclamation districts within or partially within their boundaries.

Argument for: Such districts, with their almost unlimited authority to incur debt, in most cases issue bonds in the amount of millions of dollars. Later, when a city annexes these districts, it must assume the responsibility for paying these bonds. Under these circumstances, the cities and their citizens should have notice of and a voice in the authorization of these districts which may later place such a financial burden on them.

Argument against: Cities and counties already have adequate control over districts located or to be located within their jurisdictions through approval of plans, participation in state agency proceedings, and the authority not to annex districts. The cities and counties already have an adequate channel through the elected representatives and senators from their area for their comments and objections relating to legislation for creation of such districts, and this amendment would not substantially increase their opportunity to be heard.

Summaries of other proposed amendments will follow in subsequent issues.

Youth Council Plans Party

A coke party September 24 was planned by members of the Winters Youth Council at a meeting Saturday in the Hunt Building. All youth of North Runnels County between the ages of 14 and 24 are invited to attend. Music and refreshments will be provided.
