TWO OPINIONS ON THE NEGRO QUESTION.

"There will be a race war, representing the most terrible conflict this world has ever seen," said Rev. Thomas Dixon, the lecturer and author of "Leopard Spots," in an interview.

"Nothing that can be done by humanity can prevent this. It will come just as certain as the sun continues to rise and set. On one side will be the Anglo-Saxon race and on the other side the negro people. With 3000 years of civilization in their favor there can be but one result. The Anglo-Saxon people will sweep the negro people off the face of the continent.

"There are 50,000 negroes in Chicago and a proportionately large number in Philadelphia. Sooner or later there are bound to be local disturbances in these cities between the two races. It is North here where the trouble will start."

Continuing his talk on conditions in the South Dr. Dixon said:

"President Roosevelt has made himself impossible as a candidate for re-election. South of the Mason and Dixon line he will have solid opposition of democrats and republicans alike.

"Senator Hanna is considered by the people of the South as the rightful successor to McKinley and would receive their support."

Booker T. Washington addressed a large and appreciative audience at the Academy of music, Brooklyn. The audience was composed principally of whites, though there were a good many of his own race present.

"The negro problem which is now agitating a great many people in the United States can only be solved if it is approached coolly and deliberately, as are all other great questions of the day. All anger must be put aside, prejudices must be forgotten, and after calm deliberation, what will result in the greatest good to both whites and blacks will be agreed upon."

He warned his race that they should not feel discouraged because their cause had not advanced as rapidly during the last twenty-five years as they had hoped it would, but that they must wait patiently and justice would be done to all concerned. Continuing he said:

"If any of the leading thinkers had been told when the negro was first brought to this country that he would ever be granted the franchise he would have laughed. And if it had been suggested that a negro would ever be class speaker at Yale and Harvard, they would have thought it the vagary of a disordered mind, yet such things have come to pass."

In closing he urged that a convention be called to meet at any early date, which should be composed of the leading men of both races, North and South, and decide what was best to be done in the premises.

GEO. ALLEN,
 San Angelo, : : : : Texas.

R. G. Erwin & Co. are sole agents for the Oliver visible type-writer.

Ballinger, the recognized Social Queen of the west, added another triumph to her list on last Tuesday evening, when Dr. Halley and Geo Holman chartered the celebrated "Elite Restaurant" and gave that prince of caterers, Louis Delmonico Afflerbach carte blanche to prepare a banquet for the members of the High Five Club of Ballinger, of which "Mine Hosts" are appreciated members.

That the supper was a success in every sense of the word goes without saying. Every delicacy of the season was represented on the beautifully arranged tables with covers laid for about twenty couples. When the goodly company had gathered in there was indeed an assemblage of the beauty and chivalry of the city and "Lights shone o'er fair women and brave men, and all went merry as a marriage bell."

After full justice had been done to the viands a short while was spent in toasts and conversation, which sparkled with wit and epigram. Dr. Halley as Host and Master of ceremonies easily earned the title of the "Ward McAllister" of Ballinger. While Mr. Holman ably gave every assistance in seeing that each and every one enjoyed the occasion to the limit.

When the joys of the table had passed into a pleasant memory, the spacious parlors of Mr. J. J. Erwin's hospitable mansion (where the latch string is always on the outside) were placed at the disposal of so many of the party as wished to enjoy a "spiel" at their favorite game. Several took advantage of the kind offer, and some four or five tables were soon deep in the pleasure of a well-fought tournament.

As our society reporter is out of the city it will be impossible for us this week to give a detailed description of the elegant toilettes of the ladies who graced with their presence this happy event. It is sufficient to say that they were "Ballinger's Belles" and they were looking their very best, so further description would be superfluous.

As for the men they were only there to "fill-up" and as usual they acted well their part.

The party was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Pearson, and the fortunate participants were as follows:

R. G. Casey and Miss Maude Erwin, W. C. Penn and Miss Kate Thomson, Robt. McGregor and Miss Daisy Pittman, Portus Gay and Miss Clara Guion, Eugene Baker and Miss Neil Guion, F. R. Allison and Miss Minnie Guion Francis, W. A. Gustavus and Miss Franc Baker, R. S. Garnett and Miss Francis Cady, Guion Gregg and Miss Edna Myers, Sam Parks and Miss Hermia Smith, H. H. Halley and Miss Edna Odom, Harry Thomson and Miss Della Younger, Foster Ryan and Miss Aaele Underwood.

Mr. W. W. Prickett, Smithfield, Ill. writes, Sept. 10th, 1901: I had been suffering several years with a cancer on my face which gave me great annoyance and unbearable itching. I was using Ballard's Snow Liment for a sore leg and by accident I rubbed some of the liment on the cancer, and as it gave me almost instant relief, I decided to continue to use it on the cancer. I have implicit faith in the merits of this preparation and it cannot be too highly recommended. 25c, 50c and $1.00 For sale by E. D. Walker.
