Farmers Invited To Demonstration Of Fertilizing

Eastland County farmers are being invited to attend a demonstration of applying Anhydrous Ammonia fertilizer to peanuts on the W. B. Starr farm July 3, beginning at 1:30, according to an announcement at the County Agent's office in Eastland.

Although it has been tried under small grains, the new material has not been applied under peanuts, one of the major crops of the county.

An Eastland implement dealer is cooperating in putting on the demonstration, it was said. A dealer from Abilene will bring the equipment to apply the material.

The new material is about 82 percent nitrogen. A ton of it has 1,640 pounds of available material compared to 660 pounds of nitrogen in a ton of 33 percent Ammonium Nitrate. It combines with the soil particles when applied from 5 to 7 inches deep, where properly sealed in and is readily available for plants to use.

Starr is one of the veteran peanut growers in the county and was one of the original organizers of the Southwestern Peanut Growers Association and was its manager for a time. He is well known in farm and ranch circles and organizations in central west Texas.

Letters have been sent from the County Agent's office in Eastland inviting farmers to the demonstration.

The OASIS
on your route

The traveler of ancient times sought rest and refreshment at an oasis on his route.

So does the traveler of modern times... he stops at an oasis that prepares his automobile for another hundred miles or more of driving... at an oasis that provides ice water and a chance to stretch... at an oasis that offers clean and sanitary rest rooms... at an oasis where our traveler can give and get a friendly greeting.

Today's oasis is the service station on the American highway.

It makes your trip. It provides your contact with the country through which you're driving. On its driveway you feel at home; you get the impression whenever you stop, that this is your America.

Not one service station, but thousands of them. All along the highway you'll find them staffed and equipped to give your car the expert care it requires, to make your brief visits on their driveways comfortable and pleasant.

The service station where you buy gasoline and motor oil is your chief contact with the American oil industry. It is probably an individual enterprise; and it competes to give you better service and better products than another station down the street or on the other side of town. No small part of the oil industry's progress in the service of the motorist finds final expression on service station driveways.
