Jno. Q. McAdams cashier of the Winters State Bank is very optimistic as to the outcome of this seasons business and here is about the way he sums it up His estimate as to the cotton to be in Winters is 4000 bales and that estimate is less than that made by others who are in close touch with the situation. Then McAdams figures that this 4000 day. bales will leave us more money than the 10000 bales of last sea son. He gives as reasons for this that last year we paid for build ings $120,000 and for railroad bonus $35,000 a total of $155,000. We have nothing like this to meet this year and when the season's business is done Winters and the Winters country will have a balance to their credit in the banks. -Winters Enterprise.

This Bank and Your Business

There are many banks in the State larger than The Winters State Bank. They may have more capital and perhaps do a greater volume of business.

But for the smaller business man, and farmer has it occurred to you that the small bank is the best place for the beginner to go?

The big bank is often cold blooded and independent, Your business in the big bank is but an incidental detail, and your interests are scarcely noticed.

The small bank, however, can give your business more time and attention, for it is interested in your success.

This bank while small in comparsion with some of the large city banks, has ample means and facilities to properly care for your business. Its officers have time to consider your interests and welfare. Your businesss will be welcomed and receive their best attention.

You Can't Afford to Feed Cotton Seed

We will exchange 3500 lbs of Hulls and 7 sacks of Meal for one ton of Cotton Seed. This makes 4200 lbs. of better feed, pound for pound, than Cotton Seed, and you get 2200 lbs. more feed, on the basis of this exchange. You lose $9.00 to $10.00 when you feed a ton of Seed. Look into this proposition.
