Management Tips For Livestock

It has been brought to the attention of Spencer Tanksley Bailey County Extension Agent, by local veterinarians this week that livestock producers in Bailey County area should pay close attention to the availability of tail water pits for livestock drinking water.

Due to very dry conditions that have existed, in the northern area of the high plains, livestock have been forced to drink from many different sources.

Most are of good quality water, however, livestock should not be allowed to drink from water from fields of wheat or other crops sprayed with insecticide. This is a very good source of poisoning livestock. Small play lakes that lie on a high plain are also a source of disease for livestock.

Livestock can pick up a number of types of diseases around tailwater pits and lakes.

Livestock producers should fence cattle away from areas and not allow them to come in contact with water and prevent diseases from spreading.

Another management tip stressed this year designated as a year in which larger numbers of screechworm cases could be found.

Producers should check newborn calves daily and routinely for screechworms. If sample bottles or cartons are needed, they are available at the County Agent's Office.

Mrs. Smith has been teaching at Muleshoe for nine years. She was at Gainesville, Georgia High School for one year and a part time instructor at Eastern New Mexico University for two years before coming to Muleshoe.

Her husband, Eric J. Smith, is also a teacher in the Muleshoe ISD. A native of Portales, New Mexico, she attended high school there and received her B.A. and M.A. from Eastern New Mexico University in Port-

Corn, Some Cotton Planted At Present

With the first of May here at hand, it is a good time to evaluate the 1974 crop picture for Bailey County.

"At this time it is very complex because of many decisions that the farmer is faced with," stated Bailey County Agent Spencer Tanksley.

The 1974 crop year may be one that is remembered with high farming prices, dry conditions and uncertain markets at the present time.

This past week, clouds roamed over Bailey County for four days.

Rainfall amounts varied from practically none to over four inches in some areas.

Most of the high amounts of rainfall were received in the West Camp to Oklahoma Lane and into the YL and Earth Communities.

Rainfall amounts varied from one to over four inches in these areas.

Most of the land in this area is irrigated and although rainfall will definitely benefit the land, it has created problems for framers who received larger amounts of rain.

Bailey County is basically what we consider 1/3 irrigated and 2/3 dryland. Most of the areas receiving rainfall was in the 1/3 irrigated land.

Vice-versa, when a line is drawn about eight miles south of Muleshoe across Bailey County, you will find a very small amount of rain received, especially through Baileyboro, Needmore, Stagall, Maple, Enochs and Bula. About .2 to .6 inches was received in most of these areas and less than that in some areas.

These farmers are still faced with drought conditions especially if the wind continues to blow.

These farmers in the dryland areas are in need of a good slow, soaking two-inch rain to be able to plant.

The need is also there for additional moisture to produce a crop for the 1974 year.

Tanksley said that at the present time, crops have been planted and are in the process of being planted.

Corn is probably 100 percent planted and 80-90 percent emerged and stands look better than average in the irrigated sections.

Cotton is in the process of being planted in the irrigated section and grain sorghum and other crops will be planted in the next two to three weeks.

Vegetables are mostly planted and show good growth at this time.

One area of the county agriculture picture that is in very bad need of moisture and that is the rangeland.

He also announced that there will be a door to door fund raising drive over this area to collect contributions for building a new hospital. Ivan Woodard is general chairman of the campaign.

Total contributions to date is approximately $360,000 and donations are still coming in.

Doctor's Assistant Is Seiber's Job

When you go to your doctor in the future, you may be examined by a man or a woman you have never seen before, a physician's assistant (PA), a new job in medicine.

Dean Seiber, a 1967 graduate of Muleshoe High School, is a Physician's Assistant for Dr. Charles Pummil at West Plains Memorial Hospital in Muleshoe.

A PA is neither a doctor or a nurse. Seiber attended West Texas State University for three and one half years and Northwest Texas Hospital School of Nursing in Amarillo for one year. He has also recently taken an emergency medical course in Lubbock.

Before coming to West Plains Memorial Hospital, Seiber worked at Northwest Texas Hospital for three years and also worked in St. Paul Hospital in Dallas.

Seiber stated that he has many duties in his job. He now does all physicals (insurance, athletics); he does some preliminary examinations of patients, primarily in the emergency room after hours; he does all of Dr. Pummil's paper work; and puts on casts.

His primary job is to take some of the load off Dr. Pummil.

Anything a PA does must be approved by and with the knowledge of a physician. He is an extension of a physician and never acts independently.

A PA's chief task will be to examine and interview patients, presenting the results to doctors. This will be a time saving help to the doctor.

The supervising MD can be freed for more demanding complicated medical procedures, see more patients and spend more time with seriously ill patients.

PA's know enough about health and disease to ask patients sophisticated questions.

He can measure blood pressure and draw blood samples, take temperatures and pulse readings, and fully examine the patient's body. He can also administer drugs as prescribed by an MD.

West Texas Irrigation Wells Face Shutdown

Irrigation wells and pumps in drought stricken West Texas may soon be forced to close down because of a shortage of lubricating oil, State Representative Bill Clayton, (D-Springlake) warned today.

Clayton, who recently led a large number of his colleagues in the Texas Legislature to petition the Federal Energy Office for a reassessment of the F.E.O. lube oil priority, stated that while he has been assured that a new priority is being written for agricultural use of Lube oil products, the priority change probably will not go into effect until June 1. Clayton cautioned that many areas of the state will be completely out of lubricating oil before the new priority gives them any relief.

To help avoid the possible shutdown of these essential irrigation wells, Representative Clayton reported that he is en-

Consumer Price Index

Washington -- The Consumer Price Index rose 1.1 percent in March to 143.1 (1967-100), the U.S. Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics reported. Higher prices for gasoline and food each accounted for about one-fourth of the rise in the index.

The remainder of the increase was due to higher prices for many other consumer goods and services, notable apparel, gas, electricity, postal charges, and physicians' fees. The March CPI was 10.2 percent higher than a year ago.

On a seasonally-adjusted basis, the CPI rose 1.1 percent in March, following increases of 1.0 percent in January and 1.3 percent in February.

The increase in the food index of 0.8 percent in March was considerably less than in the preceding two months. The increase in the index for nonfood commodities was unusually large for the third consecutive month. The services index rose 0.8 percent, following increases of 0.7 percent in the preceding two months.

In the calendar quarter ended in March, the CPI rose at a seasonally-adjusted annual rate of 14.5 percent. This compares with a rate of 9.0 percent in the last quarter of 1973.

The acceleration in the first quarter was due to large increases for a variety of consumer goods, including gasoline, food, apparel, and household durables. Price of consumer services rose at about the same rate as in the fourth quarter.

The index for food purchased in grocery stores increased 1.0 percent, substantially more than is usual for March, but less than the increases in February and in January. Fresh vegetable prices rose. Prices of processed fruits and vegetables, cereal and bakery products, and dairy products continued to rise although not so fast as in late 1973. Increases in prices of sugar and sugar-based items were larger than in recent months.

Beef prices, on the other hand, declined in March following a sharp rise in February. Prices also declined in pork, poultry, eggs, and fresh fruits; prices of most of these items usually rise in March.

The index for food away from home - restaurant meals and snacks - rose 0.7 percent, about the same as in recent months.

The index for nonfood commodities, usually unchanged in March, rose 1.5 percent. The gasoline and motor oil index rose 7.0 percent to a level 39.3 percent above March of last year. The index for fuel oil and coal declined slightly in March, but it was still 57.7 percent above March 1973.

Price increases for apparel commodities were larger than usual for March. Prices continued to increase for other nonfood commodities such as textile furnishings, housekeeping supplies, toilet goods, newspapers, houses, household durables, and auto parts. New car prices increased instead of declining as they usually do in March. Used car prices continued to decline.

The services index increased 0.8 percent. In the household services category, postal charges rose almost 20 percent, and charges for gas, electricity, home maintenance and repair services, laundry work, and washing machine repairs increased.

The rise in charges for medical care services was led by a 1.7 percent advance in physicians' fees. Among transportation services, there was a large increase in intercity bus fares. Charges for personal care services and apparel services continued to increase.

After conferring with several energy officials and lube oil distributors last week, Rep. Clayton pushed for solutions which would bring quicker responses to the problems of energy crisis. One solution which is in poor condition as to the amount of moisture needed to support cattle on the land.

If moisture is not received in May, ranchers will be faced with having to market cattle due to lack of forage available.

Alfalfa hay in Bailey County has developed very fast in early spring, but late freezes caused some damage as did the alfalfa weevil.

The first cutting of hay should begin next week, but a lower yield than normal on first cuttings is expected, stated Tankless.

Even though yields or quantity is down, quality should be high.

Local citizens in the Muleshoe area are still faced with having to water and continue to water small ornamental plants, flowers, shrubs, trees and lawns, due to the only 1/2 inch of moisture received here in Muleshoe.

This is not enough moisture to carry the yard, plants and trees for long periods of time. Also people need to be aware of some insect damage to ornamental plants.

Rep. Clayton suggested that met with a good response was a proposal that the states push for authority to be allowed to handle their own fuel allocation programs. Many of those in attendance agreed with Rep. Clayton that such a program would work better than the federal allocation program because of the fact that the states will have a better knowledge of their own energy problems and needs.

Agriculture-Civic Center Committee met with the Court also. Meeting with the court were Dr. Jerry Gleason, Bennie Clauch, Ernest Ramn and Lloyd Throckmorton. They discussed the present situation of the committee.

They were also interested in requesting some of the Revenue Funds which the county will receive. There will be no money available from Revenue Funds until July 1. Beginning July 1, 1974, the County will be receiving $73,486 in Revenue Sharing Funds. None of this has been programmed for the coming year and it must be programmed by June 22.

The Court has invited both the Agriculture-Civic Center Committee and the Hospital Committee to meet with the court and make a formal request for Revenue Sharing money.

Judge Williams reported that he received a proposal in the mail Thursday from Southwestern Appraisal Company. The court has not had time to discuss this with the city and the school so it will be discussed at the May 13 meeting or at a later date. Other routine bills were paid and the court was adjourned.

Miss Fred Becomes Bride Of Fletche

Miss Marilyn Yvonne Fred of Lazbuddie became the bride of Stephen Lee Fletcher, Saturday, April 13, at 3:00 p.m. in the First Baptist Church of Lazbuddie, Rev. Jim Sanderson officiated in the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Alton Morris and Mr. and Mrs. Lois Fletcher of Walter, Oklahoma.

An archway of pink candles accented with candlelight calla, Easter lillies, killion daisies, and cushion pom pom mums was flanked by candelabra trees using pink candles and the same flowers accents. The pew markers were hurricane lamps accented with baby's breath and the bride's chosen flowers of pink. Hurricane lamps and green palms were used in the cathedral shaped windows. The memory candle was the center of attraction to finalize the church decor. Sister of the groom, Miss Karen Fletcher, accompanied by Miss Marcella Jennings on the organ, presented "More", with "Twelfth of Never" and "Our Wedding Prayer".

The bride given in marriage by her mother and escorted to the altar by Alton Morris wore a formal length gown of ivory silk organza over taffeta fashioned with a high Victorian neckline of pleated organza, long lantern type sleeves with the cap of tucked organza and cuff featuring tiny covered buttons and a ruffle, at the wrist, of organza. The empire bodice was fashioned with rows of heavily pearl beaded alencon lace, the softly gathered A line skirt extended to a chapel length train. A deep self ruffle formed the hemline of the skirt and train. A wide band of scalloped lace encircled the top of the ruffles and the waist line. Cool on the outside... that's an electric water heater! And what that means to you is more storage space. There's no flue or vent to keep you from storing things on top of an electric water heater and since it's cool on the outside, you can store things all around one, too. And, should service ever be needed, we have over 100 people trained for just that purpose.

Annual Founders Day Banquet

The Beta Sigma Phi Chapters of Muleshoe held their annual Founders Day Banquet Saturday night, April 27, at the LaVilla Steak House in Clovis. The annual event is to celebrate the anniversary of the founding of Beta Sigma Phi. April 30, marks the 43rd anniversary of the sorority's founding.

Mrs. Joe King and Mrs. Reagan Cox served as Mistresses of Ceremony for the evening.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Mrs. Don Cihak; the opening Ritual was led by Mrs. Joe King; and the Grace was given by Mrs. Marcia Henry. Then dinner of steak, baked potato and salad was served. Mrs. Reagan Cox welcomed the guests, the husbands of the members, and Mrs. Curtis Walker welcomed the pledges and transferees who came into the chapters this year. The highlights of the year for Alpha Zeta Pi were given by Mrs. Glen Watkins. She told of the successful rushing season last fall for seven new members were added to the chapter as pledges. The Bingo Carnival was a big success as was the Beta Sigma Christmas Float, which won first prize in the Christmas Parade, also she told of the good time had by all at the Valentine Ball and the crowning of the Queens, Mrs. Travis Bessire and Mrs. David Hamblen. Mrs. Max Kine gave the highlights of Xi Omicron Xi's year stressing the chapter's organization and how it received its charter. The highlight of both chapters' year was the visit of the Beta Sigma Phi International President and son of the sorority's founder Mr. Bill Ross, in January.

The Founders Day Pledge was led by Mrs. Kearney Scoggin and repeated by the Beta Sigma Phi members. Bill Ross, international President of Beta Sigma Phi sends a message each year to every Beta Sigma Phi Chapter throughout the world to be read at Founders Day. Mrs. Max King read this message. Then the awards were given. Alpha Zeta Pi's last year's pledge of the Year, Mrs. Ken Box presented the award to this year's winner, Mrs. Monty Dollar. Mrs. Dollar was elected by secret ballot by the members of Alpha Zeta Pi. Pi, Mrs. Doyce Turner, presented the award to Mrs. Reagan Cox this year. Since Xi Omicron Xi did not have a Girl of the Year last year, Mrs. Reagan Cox, president of Alpha Zeta Pi presented the award to Mrs. Marcia Henry, Xi Omicron Xi's first Girl of the Year.

Market Report

College Station-- Vegetables are earning consumer attention this week, with abundant supplies of carrots arriving from the Rio Grande Valley, according to Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt.

"They're at attractive retail price levels," the consumer marketing information specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, reported. "Asparagus supplies are a little heavier and slightly lower in price, though this vegetable rarely ever gets to the 'bargain' level.

New crop cabbage, along with that in storage, means good supplies and prices, while celery, mustard greens, collards, dry yellow onions, radishes and green onions are other good choices.

Supplies of cantaloupe and watermelon are on the rise, but prices remain at "luxury" levels, the specialist said.

Fruits worth considering are oranges, grapefruit, apples, bananas, strawberries and pineapples, she added.

Turning to eggs, Mrs. Clyatt termed the market "unsettled," with all but small-sized eggs in good supply. Even at $1 per dozen, large eggs are only 67 cents a pound, she noted, explaining that translates into economical nutrition.

"Beef values include ground beef, round steaks and roasts, chuck roasts and steaks, and beef liver.

PAINTINGS DONATED...Two paintings were donated to Muleshoe Art Association by Rheata White and Arline Phelps. There will be a drawing over KMUL May 22 to give the paintings away. Tickets are $1.00 each and may be purchased from any Art Association member, at Cobb's or call Mildred Williams at 946-2510 or Beth Watson 946-2646. You do not have to be present to win.

It's amazing how we rediscover our natural resources when the cost of energy reaches new peaks and the supply of natural fuels seems to be exhausted. Lignite is a low-grade coal found in large deposits concentrated in the tri-state area of Montana, North Dakota and a small portion of South Dakota. The location is ideal because the lignite deposits are in seams usually running 30 to 40 feet below the surface and the terrain is gently rolling, which makes strip mining easy and the restoration of the mined land simple to accomplish. Lignite comprises 25% of all U.S. coal reserves but it accounts for only 1% of the total U.S. coal production. There are almost 450 billion tons of lignite in North Dakota alone and 18 billion tons are estimated to be recoverable at today's prices. A ton of lignite has only half the energy of a ton of bituminous coal. It also has a high moisture content and a woody texture which does not pulverize well, but it is cheap. For instance, one million BTU of Lignite energy costs 14¢ at the mine, one million BTU of bituminous coal energy costs 40¢, and natural gas sold interstate costs 30¢ while natural gas sold intrastate (no government price controls) sells for over $1.00. So you can see the price advantage of lignite. It is also very low in sulphur content. Two power plants are now burning lignite to generate electricity and four more power plants are being constructed. The area is being considered for a plant to enrich uranium, a process which has a huge appetite for electricity. The next step is gasification of lignite through a simple process which will produce an even greater demand for the ore. The state of North Dakota has approved the construction of four gasification plants by Michigan-Wisconsin Pipeline Co.

which will produce 250 million cubic feet of gas daily for the hungry Milwaukee and Chicago metropolitan areas. A major objection to the gasification plants is the large amounts of water which they consume. Average rainfall in that area is only 6 inches per year and this is needed for irrigated farming.

ATTEND CHURCH

"For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also"

The Lord is my shepherd

PSALMS

THE LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou art my Father, my God, and my King. Thou art my King, O God.

The 23rd Psalm is one of the most familiar chapters in the Bible. Early in life, most of us have committed it to memory. Every once in a while we should go back to these verses and think of the wonderful message of faith and trust in God that they reveal to us. They show us that we have a loving Father; one who will show us the right paths; one who will protect and provide for us. These scriptures end with a note of thanksgiving and a promise.

"Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever."

Plan to start a regular worship in the Lord's house.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Library News

by Anne Camp

I would like to express my appreciation to all who helped make Library week a success. The Study Club who sponsored the Big Book Sale, and the Library Family of the Year; the Art Association and all who brought pictures; Errol Gross and the China painting class for the lovely exhibit; The Muleshoe Journal and Radio KMUL for the good publicity; my staff, Holly and Kim, and Edna Pearson who helped out and Penny Malone for bringing Senior Citizens; and to all who came and visited the library during the week. A special thanks to Hobby club members for the display and demonstrations for Senior Citizens; The Study Club made over $100 on the book sale Wednesday, and we are still selling books from the basement. Kids day storyhour was well attended with 29 children present. Senior Citizens day was very successful with 32 gathered together to visit, have cake and hot spiced tea, and see hobby demonstrations given by Mabel Caldwell who gave a most interesting and informative demonstration on Bread dough artistry. She showed some lovely things she had made from bread dough too. Allie Barber had an unusual display of articles she had antiqued with foil, and explained how this was done. The oldest person present was Mrs. Anna Nicholson, who gave her age as 93! She was presented a book of poems by Helen Steiner Rice. We hope to make this Library day for Senior Citizens an annual affair.

The Llano Estacado Civic Club has notified the library of the gift of 24 new childrens folding chairs. These are a much needed item for the childrens Storyhours held in the basement at the library. Appreciation goes to the Llano Estacado Civic Club and the Muleshoe Young Homemakers for their help with the storyhours all thru this school year.
