Search for Mythical Gold Mine Cost $2,000,000

In 1931 in Sydney, Australia, an eccentric named Harry Lasseter told several promoters how he had discovered a chain of rocks in the barren back country that contained some $5,000,000,000 worth of gold says Collier's. Believing the fantastic tale, they organized an expedition and, led by Lasseter, set out to claim the fabulous reef. After a search of many months, the leaders realized it existed only in the man's imagination and returned home. But Lasseter went on—and died of thirst.

Despite the publicity given the hoax, attempts to locate the reef were made later by at least ten other expeditions; and their rescues cost something like $2,000,000.

Gems of Thought

FRIENDSHIP is a word, the very sight of which in print makes the heart warm.—Augustine Birrell.

Many men have been capable of doing a wise thing, more a cunning thing, but very few a generous thing.—Pope.

Happiness is just one form of courage. . . .

A force as of madness in the hands of reason has done all that has ever been done in the world.—Caryle.

Gratitude is the memory of the heart.

Milk Products Help In Conserving Grain

Better Rations Result When Proteins Are Used

With a world grain emergency and a national drive to conserve grain used in feeding, and with grain prices high, milk by-products are more important than ever in poultry feeding.

Balanced rations probably can do more to conserve grain used in feeding than any other single measure. Milk nutrients found in skim milk, buttermilk and dried cheese they have been found highly effective in building balanced poultry rations.

These milk by-products provide animal proteins of unusual quality. The milk proteins, lactalbumen and casein, have a high growth promoting value and contain all the essential amino acids. These proteins give balance to the lower quality vegetable protein in grains normally fed poultry.

Milk by-products are rich in lactose, or milk sugar, a natural laxative which helps poultry maintain good intestinal health and minimizes the hazards of intestinal parasites. These milk by-products also provide minerals, particularly calcium and phosphorus and contain the water soluble vitamins of whole milk.

In preparing a balanced ration the object is to feed the correct proportion of the various nutrients that poultry require. In every case there is a point beyond which it is wasteful to include additional grain without providing other nutrients because the fowl cannot make complete economical use of all nourishment in additional grain.

lars some 25 years ago, is still active, and doubt that it will spread over and let this luscious crop come back usually is accepted by well-informed agriculturists.

Poultry Relish Grit; Aids Grinding Process

Grit is a material of value to poultry but full details are not yet definitely known, according to University of Delaware. It is certain that birds like it and, when grit is fed freely, they consume more than is actually needed. Grit containing a large amount of soluble calcium has been widely recommended but appears to have no advantage where other forms of calcium are included in the ration. Actually it might be detrimental, say Delaware specialists. Helping the gizzard in the grinding process is the only known function of grit. A hard mica grit of suitable size doubtless should be available to all chickens.

Smile Awhile

Youthful Philosopher

Son—Why the old one, Dad?
Dad—My motto is: Wear out the old first.

Son—Then you fetch the horse, Pop.

Any woman shows her age long before it appears on her birthday cake.

He Would!
"What are you waiting for?" whispered the wedding guest.
"Bride's father a plumber," replied the verger. "He forgot to bring her."

Retiring
When Gen. Breton Somersell, chief of the Army Service Forces, retired after his grueling job of supply, he was a weary figure. Another general inquired of his plans.

"I'm going to take it easy," replied Somersell. "For six weeks I'm just going to sit on the porch. After that I'm going to start rocking—slowly!"

8 Million Heard Lecture; Paid Some $5,000,000

The most widely heard speech of all time was "Acres of Diamonds," a version of the idea that there are riches in your own back yard, written by the American educator and clergyman, Dr. Russell H. Conwell (1843-1925) says Collier's.

During the last fifty years of his life, Dr. Conwell gave this inspirational lecture in person 6,000 times before 8,000,000 people who paid some $5,000,000 to hear it.

That murky appearance that comes overnight on mirrors during warm weather can be wiped off with a cloth dampened with ammonia. Then rub dry with a clean cloth.

Use unbleached muslin of heavy quality for pressing cloths. Edges may be left unfinished if desired. To be sure the cloth is lint free, boil the muslin cloth and rinse thoroughly.

If there's no room in the hem of your skirt for lengthening, try adding a width of ribbon around the waistline. Use a contrasting ribbon. Some of the newer dresses have contrasting waist interest, so you'll be right in style.

Buy your clothes to fit the largest part of your figure. It is much easier to take in a dress than it is to let out the seams.

To sew a smooth bias seam, baste a piece of paper between the two edges.

When wash clothes become old and faded, fold them over and cover with a casing of crotone. Now you have a serviceable polisher.

IN AIDING OTHERS HE AIDS HIMSELF

To big Ed Landwehr the job of making aids for the hard of hearing is about like a chef tasting his own broth. Ed has known the confusion of partial deafness since early childhood and now, as electrical test engineer at Western Electric Company's Clifton, N. J. Plant, he helps to manufacture the very type of hearing aid that came to his own assistance.

While still attending Northeastern University, from which he graduated with a degree in electrical engineering, Ed spent his summer vacations working as a waiter and bartender in his father's restaurant in New Britain, Conn. Because of his impaired hearing, particularly in the noisy hubbub of a busy restaurant, he found he was garbling orders. As Ed says, with a smile, "If a man asked for tomato soup and got potato salad, and later expected spaghetti and found spinach on his plate, his language grow somewhat abusive. I could hear the abuse, and so did too many others in the room." Several such experiences convinced him he needed a hearing aid, which he promptly procured.

Not long out of college, Ed applied for an engineering position

"OK! That's got it." Ed Landwehr, Electrical Test Engineer at the Western Electric Plant in Clifton, New Jersey, himself a wearer of a Hearing Aid, tests a Hearing Aid on a Receiver Efficiency Test Set operated by Dorothy Vanderwall.

at Western Electric and eventually was placed in the Clifton plant. Although much of his effort was spent on engineering certain testing equipment for electronic war weapons, part of his job is the design of equipment to test hearing aids during manufacture and before they are shipped. Knowing the handicap of impaired hearing, Ed gets a lot of pleasure out of his work, which brings better hearing to thousands like himself.

Ain't It So?

Women never refer to their age until it would be wise to ignore it.

A bore is one who opens his mouth and puts his feasts in it. Two great talkers will not travel far together.

Hereditly is what we believe in until our children start proving it.

In great actions men show themselves as they ought to be, in small actions as they are.

In the old days "pay dirt" referred to gold-bearing soil, not to questionable novels.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS International Union Sunday School Lessons By LOUIE E. NEWTON, D. D. SCRIPTURE: John 14:25, 26; Acts 2:14-31; 1 to 4:31; Galatians 3:23-26. DEVOTIONAL READING: Ephesians 6:10-20.

Power of Holy Spirit Lesson for February 15, 1948

TWO decades ago, the famous preacher, Rev. Reginald J. Campbell, declared, "The 18th Century may be characterized as the Century of God the Father; the 19th Century as the Centuries of God the Son; and we are praying that the 20th Century may be characterized as the Century of the Holy Spirit." That was a brave and hopeful prayer.

Dr. Newton have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you, but the Comforter, which is the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you." John 14:25 and 26.

PETER ACTS BRAVELY IN the picture of Peter and John about to enter the temple on the Sabbath, when suddenly they find themselves confronted by a sick beggar. What would they do with him and for him? He was asking for mercy.

Peter said, "Silver and gold have I none, but such as I have give I thee, in the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk!" The lame man stood up, leaping and walking and rejoicing, and went into the temple with Peter and John. Only the power of God can do such mighty works.

WHY PETER WAS BRAVE PETER is often pictured as a very quick-tempered person. He was usually the first to speak in every situation. He was the leader of the group—a natural leader of men. But Peter did not assume to meet the poor man's need in his strength. Only "in the Name of Jesus."

When we forget to rely upon the Holy Spirit for direction, we are enabled to meet and master any situation. Juniors will do well to remember the words, "Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of hosts," Zechariah 4:6.

SECRET OF CHRISTIAN POWER "YOU shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you." Acts 1:8. That is the secret of the Christian's power. It does not originate elsewhere. It is God's gift to those who implicitly trust in him.

This great truth is particularly appealing to intermediates and seniors. Young people are keenly sensitive to the times in which they live. We live today in an hour of unprecedented power—atomic energy! But all of the marvels of modern science have not been able to give young people the sense of mastery. Rather, we are afraid. The scientists themselves tell us that this is history's most precarious age.

Only when the Holy Spirit is regnant in our hearts can we possess the power of which Paul is writing in Galatians, when he says, "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance."

WHEN WE HAVE THAT POWER WHY, then, should we ever be weak when we may always possess that power? This is the most searching question for any Christian. The answer will lead us to conviction, inevitable admissions. We become weak spiritually when we forget to pray, when we forget to read God's word, when we allow the interests of this world to blind our eyes and deafen our ears to the reality of God's presence.

The Holy Spirit will dwell within us if only we will welcome him. He will not come unbidden; he will not remain unwanted. He cannot be made to share. Either he guides or surrenders the reins to us.

Our lives are spiritually strong and healthy when the Holy Spirit governs. Our work is effective, our words are compelling. We speak not our wisdom, but the wisdom of God. We go not in our strength, but in his strength. We credit by the International Council of Religious Education on behalf of 10 Protestant denominations. Release by W. W. Taylor.

The 1859 horse car at Baltimore's sesquicentennial exposition is back in business. Hearing the bell clanging and children clamoring aboard, officials investigated. Disease has been blamed on nearly every natural and imaginary cause. At one time demons and evil spirits got the blame, so there was an age of witch hunting and so on down until the present date until death and disease has been attributed to nearly every gland and organ of the body. As a remedy all these glands and organs have been treated in various ways medically and surgically.

Today the doctor says it is the nerves and sets about giving some pain killing drug.

The CAUSE is within the body and the CURE must come from within rather than being bought over some drug counter. That which cannot PRODUCE life cannot SUSTAIN life.
