BUSINESS LEAGUE WILL GET BUSY

H. Giesecke, president of the Business League, has called a meeting of that body for Thursday morning at ten o'clock. It is desired that every director of the League be present and any other who is interested in the welfare of Ballinger. It was decided at a meeting some time ago to observe the 27th anniversary of Ballinger, and as that date is near at hand the committee must get busy and plan for a successful occasion. There are other matters that are demanding the attention of the League, but those will probably be taken up later.

A SURE SIGN OF PROSPERITY

D. R. Smith, who is agent for Saginaw Silo is finding plenty of business now-a-days, as the progressive farmer has long since learned that the silo is a money maker.

This week Mr. Smith has sold silos as follows: Owen Parish, two; L. J. Brian, two; and Mrs. Smith takes two; he now has only two large ones on the place.

The Enterprise is glad to see more of our people taking to the silo. As a feed saver and money maker on the farm they are what we need most right now and we hope to see others fall in with the idea.

W. M. Smiley agent for the Western Silo Company has also been active in educating the people on the use of the silo and he has sold to W. D. Meadows a 200-ton silo. He has some others who will likely buy within a few weeks.

A significant fact is that Messrs Smiley and Smith have used silos the past season, hence are in a position to talk convincingly to anyone who is interested.—Win- ters Enterprise.

SON DOING WELL.

Frank Schoeder, of the Rowena country, was among the visitors in Ballinger Monday and reports his little son able to be out and knocking about over the farm for the first time in many months.

The little boy was placed in the Halley and Love sanitarium last winter with a severe case of pneumonia and suffered from an abscess also and had one of his ribs taken out to relieve the puss, and was in a critical condition for several months.

Mr. Schoeder says the doctors at the sanitarium are the best in the state and his wife will never get done thanking them for saving the life of their little son, and for the many kindnesses shown them while at the sanitarium.

A PITIFUL CASE.

One of the most pitiful cases known in Brady was that of an aged Mexican who was reported to City Marshal J. M. Anderson and Deputy Sheriff John Martin as on the verge of starvation. The Mexican, who is about 75 or 80 years old, was known to have been in almost helpless condition for some time, and yesterday citizens reported to the officers that he had been seen at the dump grounds endeavoring to find food to keep body and soul together. The officers had him brought to town and placed in charge of Pedro Estrada, who will look after his wants and the county paying the expenses.—Brady Standard.

FIRST CAR OATS REACHES FORT WORTH

Fort Worth, Texas, June 3.—The first car load of 1913 oats to be received on the Fort Worth market arrived Monday morning from near Temple. The grade of the grain is pronounced excellent by dealers.

STANDARD SIZE FOR COTTON BALES

Maritime Committee Fixes Size for Cotton Bales. Large Bales Will Be Taxed $1.00.

To the Farmers, Ginners, Oil Mills and Cotton Exporters:

Please take notice, effective on and after July 1st, 1913, that the standard size of the gin box is to be 27x54 inches and that an extra charge of $1.00 per bale on cotton and cotton linters will be made for ocean freight on all bales from boxes of greater length or width than the above size.

That each and every bale of compressed cotton and cotton linters must be perfectly tied with eight steel ties or bands.

That each and every bale of cotton linters must be completely covered with bagging to protect the cotton from damage.

That on and after July 1st, 1913 no dock receipts, mate's receipts, master's receipts, agent's receipts or bills of lading will be issued without describing actual condition of the bales of cotton when received by the ocean carrier. Any bales delivered in other than apparent good order and condition will be signed for accordingly.

The following clauses descriptive of bales of cotton will be used in Bills of lading:

1. Not thoroughly covered.
2. Covering insufficient to retain marks.
3. More or less wet.
4. More or less stained.
5. More or less soiled.

The standard size bale of 27x54 inches is the basis of the freight engagement with ocean carriers, and each and every bale of cotton and cotton linters from gin boxes of 27x54 inches must, on delivery to the steamer at the port, contain a minimum density of 22 1-2 lbs. to the cubic foot. Any bale of these dimensions that does not show this density, if not re-pressed to the required density, at the port shall pay extra freight to the steamer of 50c per bale.

Each and every bale of cotton and cotton linters must be well marked and branded so that the marks can be read without any question of a doubt.

Bales must be marked with the best quality of ink, that will not fade, wash or rub away. Marks to be placed between bands so no part of the mark will be covered by the band. No other mark allowed upon the bale except head brand (if any) and the mark under which the bale is moving for export. All other marks to be thoroughly obliterated so no part of any old mark will appear. Upon round bales the gin mark will be allowed to remain.

When the quality of the bagging is insufficient to carry the marks to destination a patch of good bagging or cloth should be put on the bale under the bands to bear the mark.

These rules will be strictly enforced, and the object of this circular is to give the general trade due notice so that they may comply with the Maritime requirements.

Yours truly,
S. J. JACKSON.

Chairman Maritime Committee.

SNAKES IN WINTERS.

Mr. and Mrs. Dowell can truthfully say that they had a caller Thursday evening of this week, who was not at all welcome. While Mr. and Mrs. Gambill were calling at the Dowell home, and Bob and Martin were hehearsing some blood curdling yarns, their attention was attracted to the screen door, and they were amazed to see a large rattle snake rared up on screen door in an attempt to enter the room. It was an exciting moment for all concerned, but Martin rustled the garden hoe and quickly dispatched his snakeship but Bob declared down town this morning that his slumbers for the night were disturbed by visions of Snakes.—Enterprise.

MCDONALD AND CURTIS.

The above characters held the boards at the White City Monday night and they certainly made good in every detail, and surely deserve the title of proprietors of the fun factor and manager Wilke made the greatest hit of the season in having them this week at his popular place of amusement. There was not a dull moment during the entire performance, and the large audience enjoyed to the fullest extent every word, song and dance on this occasion. Their performance on all known and unknown instruments was well worth ten times the admission price. Every person who attended last night is loud in praise of the performance and all are walking advertisements today for this clever couple.

They will be at the White City each night this week and it is safe to predict that the large audience will be crowded each night, as such talent seldom every visits any but the largest cities. The show is clean, moral and new in songs, dance and words spoken. An entire change of program each night and the pictures this week are unusually splendid.

OBSERVING JEFFERSON DAVIS BIRTH DAY.

The banks are closed today in observance of the birth day of Jefferson Davis, and the employees are enjoying a day's outing. Quite a number are also out of town, fishing and picnicing. The First Baptist Sunday school is holding a picnic in the City Park and the Christian Sunday school is on the Colorado river in the Routh pasture South of town, where they are making merry and enjoying a picnic. The farmers are busy, and the merchants are enjoying a rest from the business rush that has been on in Ballinger for the past few days.

MUCH RAIN PREDICT. ED FOR JUNE.

The weather forecaster cannot hit it every time, but we like rain the weather reports and it is encouraging to read that June is to be a month of much rain. Devoe, one of the weather prophets who has quite a reputation says:

This will be an extremely wet month in the central part of the United States. It will enter with a wave over the Western States. 1st to 2nd hot and sultry. 3rd and 4th, sultry and cloudy, 5th and 6th, heavy rains, 7th and 8th, cooler, 6th to 10th, cloudy. On the 11th a storm will form over the Missouri Valley. 12th and 13th heavy rains. 14th to 15 cooler.

16 to 17th, cloudy and sultry. On the 18th a great storm will move northeastward over Texas. 19th and 20th, heavy rains. 21st to 22nd, cloudy and muggy. 23rd to 24th, pleasant. On the 25th a storm will form over the lower Mississippi Valley and move north eastward. 26th to 27th, very heavy rains, with danger of floods. 28th to 29th cooler. 30th, cloudy.

SOME SOW, THIS.

Manor, Texas, June 3.—Whatever else may be said of this sow she can never be accused of race suicide. The candidate for Rooseveltian honors referred to is owned by a farmer near this town, and she has been raising two litters of pigs per year for the past two years. Her last litter is only a few days old, and consisted of nineteen healthy piggies. Her proud owner declares that she has never eaten a bite of stockfood, and thrives on kitchen slop and sour milk.

WARNING! WEARY WILLIES.

Roanoke, Texas, June 3.—There is quite a scarcity of harvest hands in this section since the opening of the harvest season here. Every farmer is busy trying to save his grain, and has been confronted with the problem of securing wheat shockers. In some instances as high as $3.00 per day is being offered for laborers. Wheat and oats are better than for many years.

DULL FIRST MONDAY.

Monday was the dulllest first Monday held in Ballinger since its inauguration. There was not a single trade or sale made during the day, and auctioneer B. W. Pileher did not get upon his stand at all during the day. This is a busy time with the farmers and they are "making hay while the sun shines," and are not loafing around much these days.

A stock company with a million dollar capital is being organized in Texas for the purpose of publishing a prohibition daily paper. It will be known as the "Southerner." The new company has not selected a place to locate the new plant.

The sultry summer season is a period in which we should guard our premises with the utmost care and enforce the sanitary rules and do everything possible to keep down the germ breeding places, and make for our community the healthiest in the land.

The government report on Texas cotton acreage shows a considerable increase and it is now up to the bears to get busy and show up the great over supply. If the farmers will fall in line and adopt a sane marketing system they will receive a fair price for their work.

Many a young wife is turned in the wrong direction by not receiving the proper encouragement at the proper time. It is easy to become discouraged and especially is this true with the young mind that is inexperienced in overcoming the obstacles that confront every one. A kind word or a little word spoken at the right time may help to make a man out of the discouraged boy.

It is mightily good time to enforce the vagrant law. There is a great demand for help on the farms if this country, and if there is an idle loafer around town, who is living without any visible means of support the officers should take a hand in his affairs and direct him to a place where work will be real past time for him.

GIVE US OUR BOUQUETS NOW.
Bonham Favorite: Landscape Gardner Haden met Percy English, city editor of the Favorite, on the street Saturday afternoon and presented him with the first bouquet in the flower garden on the court house plaza. It was a bunch of beautiful pansies. As Mr. Haden has been so nice to remember us with a bouquet, we will try to throw one back at him, for along with many others we believe these bouquets make a fellow feel better while he's still breathing than they do after he's gone to that country "from whose bourne no traveler ever returns"—"Shuffled off this mortal coil" or "cash

And so they are now growing flowers in the court house square at Bonham—they have parked the commons and framed the temple of justice in a border of beauty. Also they have paved the square and ruled against teams standing there, having first provided a market place elsewhere for the use of the public in need of such a utility. If that isn't real progress, then there ain't no such animal. Bonham has fixed up to live to get the best out of life by living in the best environment. The enterprise of the municipal and county authorities has been reflected in the enterprise of Bonham citizens. Homes have been beautified sidewalks laid, shabby outhouses demolished, sanitary reforms instituted and pride enthroned. These improvements may not make any money for the improvers—they may not return dividends, in the way of actual dollars and cents; but dollars and cents, after all the fuss and worry over them, are really but small incidents in the course of a life. And by building and maintaining a precious little city of their own in which to live, the well-to-do citizens of Bonham do not find it desirable to move in their mature years to a larger one in order to get advantages which all people naturally crave.—State Press, Dallas News.

That fellow Haden is the man that rubbed one of the ugly spots off the Ballinger map and transformed it into a beautiful park. He left Ballinger because Bonham offered him a little more money than he was receiving here. But that is not what we wanted to say. It is this: State Press is invited to come to Ballinger if he wants to see a little city built on civic pride. We not only have the prettiest court house park of any town of similar size in Texas, but one block from this park the Santa Fe is maintaining a beauty spot, and the home loving people of Ballinger are trying themselves on pretty yards. Clean, modern, progressive is the Ballinger way. Yes, it is money well spent in handing out bouquets while we are here to enjoy them.

...OUR HAPPY HOMES....

We have so many things to depress us and then life is foun'ain head of our happiness and prosperity where we can sit quietly and watch the waters of life bubble and flow, is refreshing, instructive and encouraging.

The last Federal Census report shows that we now have 779,177 homes with an average of a little more than four persons each. We gained in the past ten years 203,443 homes. We build an average of seven homes every working hour in the day. Cupid and the stork are master builders and neither of them belong to the union. Cupid performs 140 marriage ceremonies in Texas per day and the stork bring 335 children to our homes. Then the goddess of opportunity beats them all bringing population and wealth to the state. So long as we can build 20,000 homes per annum, Texas is safe and so long as the prosperity triplets—Cupid, the Stork and Opportunity—smile upon us, we will be happy.
