NATIONAL CANNERS INVESTIGATE REPORT

Report That Ptomaine Poison Caused From Eating Canned Goods Cause Canners Association to Send Man.

The National Canners Association, with headquarters at Washington, went to considerable expense and trouble to run down a report that people had been poisoned near Ballinger by eating canned goods, and to bring to time the canners who put out the goods.

About the middle of July a family was poisoned near Ballinger, and it was reported that they had been poisoned by eating canned goods, and the Ledger so stated. It seems that in some way a copy of the paper giving an account of the poisoning reached the headquarters of the Canners Association, and they very promptly took the matter up and made a thorough investigation. They sent a man here and the man secured a statement from Dr. W. B. Halley, who attended the patient, and also secured a statement from Mr. Faulk, who with his family were poisoned.

It developed that the family was poisoned by eating barbecue instead of canned meats, and while they were suffering with ptomaine poison, it was not canned goods in this instance that contained the putrefaction.

We are in receipt of a letter from the National Canners Association in which they send us the statement made by Mr. Faulk and request that we publish same. The statement follows:

Ballinger, Texas, Aug. 10, 1913.

*** * * * * We were about six miles from Ballinger, driving in a hack when we became sick. I phoned for Dr. Halley and on his arrival he pronounced same as ptomaine poison. My wife and self were not affected much, but our four children were. The doctor worked on the children about two hours when they began to rally. My wife's name is Mattie Moore Faulk and my children names are as follows: Archie, 9 years old, Vista 7 years old, Ara 5 years old and Johnnie 17 months old.

The oldest boy, Archie, and the youngest boy, Johnnie, were more affected than any of us. The piece in the Ballinger Ledger was all a mistake as to us getting ptomaine poison from eating canned goods. As stated before, we did not eat any canned goods, but ate the eatables as stated above.

J. W. FAULK.

C. W. Conklin, of Bangs, who represents a machinery company, was here before the commissioners court this week and left for his home Friday afternoon.

Miss Donnie Glazier, of San Angelo, who had been the guest of R. W. Gilliam and family the past week or so, returned home Saturday at noon.

Mrs. Clara Bell Cline, who had been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Harmon of Brownwood, returned home Saturday at noon.

Lee Evans, of Route two, up the river was among the business visitors in Ballinger Saturday and says its hard to keep house with out your county paper and handed us a dollar for the Banner-Ledger for a year.

John Knor left Saturday afternoon for Seymour, Texas, where he has accepted a position.

BROWNWOOD HAS COTTON EXCHANGE.

Brownwood, Aug. 29. - The Brownwood Cotton Exchange was organized here today and the following officers elected: C. R. Willis, president; A. H. Richardson, vice president; E. Y. Laughlin, secretary-treasurer. Directors C. R. Willis, John Yantis, Brooke Smith, Earl Looney, E. Y. Laughlin.

The Brownwood Exchange will operate a direct leased wire during the cotton season and will have their offices where the farmers and the public can have access to the market quotations.

POST OFFICE INSPECTORS HERE.

L. H. Humbert, of El Paso and Thos. D. Dawkins, of Austin, post office inspectors, were here Friday and Saturday inspecting the Ballinger office. They made a thorough inspection and report everything in splendid shape. They were very complimentary in their remarks about the sanitary condition and the general appearance of the Ballinger office.

FUNERAL SATURDAY MORN.

The remains of Yates McKinney were interred in the Ballinger cemetery Saturday morning at nine-thirty o'clock. The funeral was postponed from Friday afternoon on account of the rain.

Mrs. J. S. Stubbs returned home Saturday at noon from Comanche where she had been visiting for several weeks past.

Misses Nell and Connie Rutherford left Saturday morning for Brownwood where they will visit their cousin Mrs. Silvey and family a few days.

WEATHER REPORT AND RAIN FALL

As reported in Friday's Ledger the rain of Friday afternoon was scattering and only in a few places did the fall amount to anything. The West Texas Telephone Co., reports the following for this section:

Brownwood, Bradshaw, Eden, Hatchel, Fort Chadbourne, Benoit, Hylton, Stacy, San Angelo, Truitt, Valera, all report a sprinkle. Showers at Blackwell, Bronte, Millersview, Maverick, Menard, Paint Rock and Wilmeth. At Abilene, Miles, Pumphrey, Talpa, Mason and Winters the rain is reported as being good. One and half inches fell at Crews, three inches at Eldorado and three fourth at Ballinger.

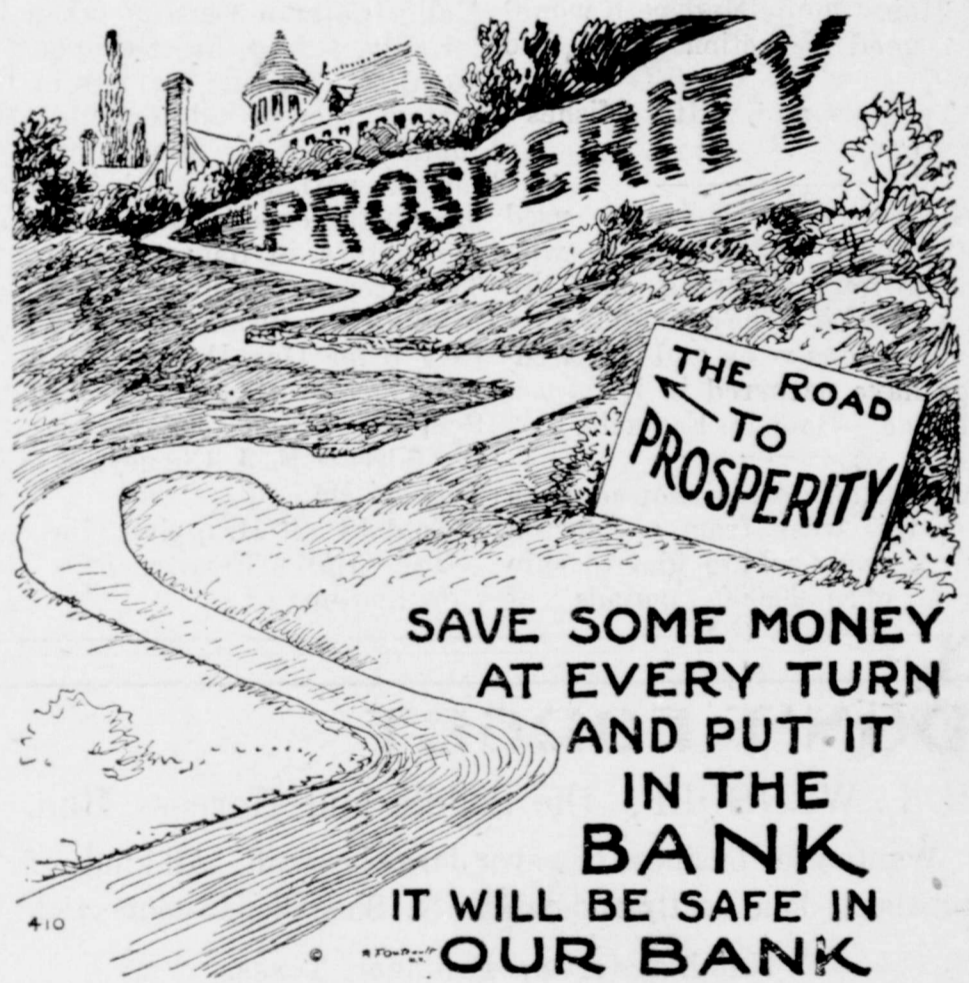

The forecast for tonight and tomorrow says moderately cloudy.

Lost Money

By reason of the short crops and a commendable desire to promptly meet his obligations, a good farmer sold one of his work mules, receiving a check or which he took the cash, but before he had time to apply any of the funds, lost the entire amount. Had he deposited it and used a check-book he would have enjoyed the benefits of ready cash and removed every possibility of loss.

To many of our readers the streets of Coleman are almost as familiar as those of our own town and we are naturally interested to read of happenings there. The following report from a well-known and respected resident will be helpful to numbers of men and women here in Ballinger.

George Onslow, Coleman, Texas, says: "A member of my family was troubled by kidney complaint for several years, although never so bad as to be laid up. When Doan's Kidney Pills were advertised, I took home a box and they were used. A second box was used, and there is no doubt that they did a world of good. Auction Bridge Club

Mrs. H. H. Thomson entertained the Auction Bridge Club Wednesday afternoon. All the members were present and a most enjoyable meeting was recorded. Mrs. D. Reeder and Mrs. George Pearce made high score.

Beaunots With Miss Crews.

Miss Lois Crews was hostess to the Beau Not Club Tuesday. The guests spent the afternoon on this occasion playing high five and forty-two. One table was devoted to 42 and two tables to high five. After a series of interesting games, the hostess served a delicious salad course. Those answering to roll call were Misses Bertha Rasbury, Lena Bell Doss, Winnie Trail, Katie Lee Mathews, of Gatesville; Florence Westbrook, Armur McGregor, Hattie and Etta Hutton, Mamie Gregory and the hostess.

Bunco Party Tuesday.

One of the most successful social functions for the week was that of the Bunco party when Miss Hattie Miller was hostess to quite a number of her friends, at her home on Seventh street Tuesday morning. Bunco held the attention of the guests during the time allotted for the amusement, and the hostess proved herself a charming entertainer. Just before the hour arrived for the guests to depart for their respective homes, ice cream and cake was served, and the morning will long be remembered among the young ladies as one of the most pleasant of the season. Those who were present were Misses Euphia Ward, Willie Hutton, Willie and Myrtle Whitaker, Thelma Hall, of Quanah, Ruth Chambers, Jessie Routh Nash, Irene Scott, of Lansacter; Cordia Guion, Kathlene Jones, Edith Miller, Marguerite Gregory, Maurie Moore.

Announcement Party.

On Tuesday, August the twenty-sixth, at the home of Mrs. J. I. Guion the engagement of Miss Armour McGregor to Mr. Estes McCain Lynn was announced at a luncheon given by Mrs. Guion. The luncheon was a Japanese affair and the decorations were all in the pinks and purple of old Japan.

The dining room looked like a portion of a Japanese garden transplanted from Tokio. Suspended from the chandelier and directly over the wide spread table, was a Japanese parasol, filled with wisteria, which hung from the sides and trailed over the table. Directly underneath the parasol was a large mirror with an aquarium of gold fish. Japanese napkins, dishes and sandwich baskets were used on the table.

The place cards, with the announcement written on the backs of them, were hand-painted. They representing Japanese women and bore the message that on the ninth of September Miss Armour McGregor would become the bride of Mr. Estes McCain Lynn.

The dining room mantel was banked with wisteria and Oriental curtains draped the windows and door-way.

The living room was decorated in pink queens wreath, crepe myrtle and cherry blossoms with ferns in every available place.

There were no chairs to be seen but cushions every where, and if one had glanced in about twelve-thirty o'clock, a typical Japanese scene would have greeted them, for every guest was in gay Japanese attire and seated on the floor, making a very beautiful picture in their bright hued kimonos, the center of the group of course being the bride-elect, who made a charming little Jap in her Oriental blue kimona with red roses in her hair and cheeks.

Just at the hour of one, the guests entered the dining room to the strains of mendelssohn wedding march, the luncheon was served in courses and carried out the color scheme of purple and pink.

Directly after luncheon Miss Louise Doss sang a beautiful little Japanese tea song, which pleased every one, after which Miss Cordie Guion sang "The Geisha Girl."

The games for the afternoon's entertainment were, jack straws, fiddle-de-winks and perches, but the most entertaining thing was a Onije board which told so many tales, both good and bad that it filled the afternoon with fun. Of course kodak pictures were taken and if ever a prettier bunch of Japs were gathered together Ballinger has never seen them.

The guests departed at four o'clock taking with them as souvenirs of the occasion gold China wedding rings with the white bird of hope perched upon them, thus pleasing the bride-to-be the engaged ones and the futurists. The guests were: Misses Armour McGregor, Mary Wood, of Coleman, Lois Crews, Alva Van Pelt, Florence Westbrook, Mamie Gregory, Kathlene Francis, Louise and Lena Bell Doss, Etta Hutton, Mrs. Harold Tucker.

The Wednesday Afternoon 42 Club was most charmingly entertained by Mrs. Scott Mack on Wednesday afternoon of this week. The usual time was devoted to the ever popular game of 42 and the afternoon spent most pleasantly. After a series of games the hostess served refreshments to the club members and a number of visitors who were present on this occasion. Following are the members who were present: Madams F. C. Miller, R. W. Bruce, M. Kleberg, Jno. Lovelace, E. V. Bateman, J. K. Hutton, Scott Mack, Townsend, and the following visitors: Madams B. C. Kirt, Robt. Lusk, J. W. Francis, H. W. Lynn, Jo Hardin, J. "We Buy For Less and Sell For Less"

ITEMS OF INTEREST TO MOME MISSION WORKERS

Some things done 1912, by the Home Department of The Woman's Missionary Council of The M. E. Church, South:

We maintain 13 schools, employing 88 teachers, and enroll 2,028 students. The cost to the council for the current expenses of these schools amounted to $66,622.52. From this deduct the fees $11,034.96, paid for tuition and forwarded to the treasury and included in its remittances, and we find the council paid last year $27.45 for each student, in our schools. The purchase of new property and furnishing of buildings began two years ago netted $11,344.34. Contributions by friends directly to the schools aggregated $3,236.45.

Thirty-seven city mission boards now are leading in organized work for the betterment of society.

Last year they employed 73 deaconesses, 20 missionaries, 10 nurses, 12 kindergartners, 2 day nursery mothers, 6 house mothers and 13 teachers in the mission schools. They carry on work at 14 different centers for foreign people and employ 37 workers at a cost of $21,195. At 12 cotton mill centers they employ 18 deaconesses and 7 missionaries, where the work is housed in 11 Wesley houses.

In the slums of our cities, where the work falls among a mixed class of people, neither immigrant nor industrial, 8 centers were established, which employed 14 deaconesses and 4 missionaries.

The work in these cities cluster about 21 Wesley houses. In St. Louis the Kingdom house, in Kansas City the Institutional Church, and in New Orleans St. Mark's Hall are the centers of operation.

Five co-operative homes are maintained and three deaconesses and one missionary are employed as traveler's aids in four different cities.

A small hospital and one Door of Hope, also are among our activities. All of this work is carried forward by 83 trained workers, 113 salaried workers, and 637 City boards have been organized at Lexington, Ky., Atlanta, Ala., Norfolk, Va., San Francisco, Cal., while Birmingham, Ala., has extended its work by opening a second Wesley House at Ensley, among the Italians, who work in the large steel plants, belonging to the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company.

At the recent session of the council the name selected for our centers of work among the negroes was "Bethlehem House."

The "Westley Houses" and the "Bethlehem Houses" stand for the same character of work, but are different in order to prevent confusion when there are two in the same city.

At our council meeting in Birmingham, there were 112 deaconesses and missionaries appointed to work in our cities.

The conference secretaries report the membership of the Home Department as follows:

- Adult members . . . 80,32
- Young People . . . 11,631
- Junior . . . . . 19,634

Total . . . . . 11,609
This means an actual increase of 12,672 members.

A summary of the treasurer's report shows a total collection for connectional work 1912 was $241,138.87.

The collection for the week of Prayer amounted to $11,683.25. Fourteen hundred and forty-three auxiliaries absorbed the se-son.

According to the Station Plan, South Georgia assumed the entire support of Mexico City Mission work, for which over eight thousand dollars was appropriated.

South Georgia asked the privilege of furnishing the money necessary for the salaries of Misses Rata Parks and Nettie Lambuth, two of our workers in China.
