NEGRO WOMAN ARRESTED FOR BOOTLEGGING.

Abilene, Sept. 16.—Deputy Sheriff W. F. Whaley has just returned from San Angelo where he effected the arrest of Stella Bailey, a negress, indicted by the recent grand jury on a charge of under the new statutes of procuring intoxicating liquors, being one, if not the first, of the first offenses recorded under the new law relating to sale of intoxicating liquors in the state.

It is alleged that she was given money and soon after its payment returned with intoxicating liquors which she gave in exchange for the money. She was brought to Abilene and is in the custody of the sheriff of the county to answer to the charge.

G. W. Johnson of Baird, passed through the city this morning for Winters in response to a message informing him of the serious illness of his wife, stricken with appendicitis. He will likely accompany his wife to Temple, where an operation will be performed.—Abilene Reporter.

LARGE STOCK DEAL AT WEATHERFORD

Weatherford, Tex., Sept. 16.—Charles McFarland of this place bought 5,000 head of 3 and 4 year old steers Saturday from W. T. Waggoner, paying little more than $3000,000 for the stock. This is considered one of the largest cattle deals ever consumed in Texas. The steers will be fed through the winter preparatory to marketing next spring.

N. J. Wardlaw, the South Ballinger watermelon man, shipped out Monday two carloads of fine melons to point in the East. He says his melons are getting scarce and not many more to be had this season.

ADVERTISING ROWENA FAIR

A. C. Homann, cashier of the Rowena State Bank, was in Ballinger Tuesday and while here left the copy for the premium list for the Second Agricultural and Live Stock Exhibit, which will be held in Rowena, on Sept. 29th. Our readers will find this exhibit list in this week's issue of the Banner-Ledger, and it speaks for itself. It is a credit to the business men and citizens of Rowena and we predict that they will give the people something worth going a good long ways to see, and the Rowena boosters will be amply rewarded for their efforts.

The committee has spent considerable money in advertising and arranging for the coming event. Attractive buttons have been secured, and Rowena citizens are wearing these on the lapel of their coats. They are letting the outside world know that Rowena is on the map, and if you visit the exhibit on Spt. 29th you will be surprised to see what can be produced in this country. Make your arrangements to be there.

C. A. Doose made a trip in his auto Monday up on the line of Coke and Runnels and says the rains were very heavy in places and some places light. Some of the sandy land on the Houghton & Robinson ranch will make as much as a fourth of a bale of cotton to the acre, while on the stiff land it is not so good. He says the farmers are all in fine spirits since the recent splendid rains.

Ed Schawe, the grocery man, visited the J. M. Schneider irrigated farm down the river Sunday and says it is a beautiful sight to see and a person can't realize what irrigation will do in this county until he sees for himself. The crops of all kinds are just as fine as they can be.

FIRE DESTROYS SOUTH BALLINGER HOME.

Fire destroyed the home of Tom Knight in South Ballinger Tuesday about noon. It is supposed that the fire originated from an oil stove, as Mrs. Knight had just started fire, lighting one of the burners and stepped out to the smoke house. When she returned the room was full of flames. A few pieces of bedding some chairs and the piano was about all that was saved from the house as the flames spread very rapidly and the house was soon a pile of smoldering ruins. It was a complete loss as Mr. Knight carried no insurance.

MAN MURDERS

WHOLE FAMILY

Tennessee Home Scene of Horrible Tragedy. Mother, Father and Brother Victims.

Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 15.—After killing the father, mother and brother of his wife at the former's home, when they declined to permit him to see her, D. E. Baxter, aged 36, calmly reloaded his shotgun and walked from the scene this morning.

Poses of police engaged in searching the city failed to find any clue to Baxter's whereabouts.

The dead:
Henry Smith, aged 62.
Mrs. Henry Smith, aged 43.
Oscar Smith, aged 17.

Baxter had been separated from his wife for several months and shortly after 5 o'clock went to the Smith's home in the northern part of Memphis and demanded entrance. Smith answered the knocking and after ordering Baxter away started to open the door when he received a charge of heavy shot in the face, tearing away part of the head.

The shooting attracted Mrs. Smith and her son, both of whom were shot in the face in the same manner. Mrs. Baxter also rushed into the room, but when her husband grabbed her, she slipped from his grasp and made her escape.

AGENT FOR U. S. DEPARTMENT MAKES STATEMENT

Speaking of the Farmers' Co-operative Demonstration work in this county, Geo. P. McLelland, agent for the United States Department of Agriculture, who will have charge of the work in this county for the coming year, says he feels that this county will take a place right at the top of the list of Texas counties for successful work. Advantages here are all the farmer could wish for in making experiments that will prove profitable in many ways.

In speaking of his work last year in Uvalde county Mr. McLelland gives some of the results attained in that county, which show beyond a doubt that it pays to follow the more scientific methods in farming, and that many farmers can make money where they are now making failures. On 306 acres of corn cultivated under demonstration methods in Uvalde county there was a total yield of 11,599 bushels. On the same number of acres nearby cultivated under ordinary methods there was a total yield of 9,181 bushels. A difference of 2419 bushels in favor of the demonstration methods. At 60 cents per bushel this amounted to $1451 in favor of the government, a demonstration method, or $4.74 per acre gain over the ordinary method of farming.

In Uvalde county Mr. McLelland had 1944 acres of cotton under his methods of cultivation and the net cash gain on this over the same number acres cultivated in the old way was $9538.72. Eight of the men who farmed under the demonstration plan made an average of 42 per cent lint, while the average for that county was 38 per cent.

Mr. McLelland is busy getting farmers to agree to try out a few acres under the government's demonstrative plans next year, and if you are interested in making more money on your farm, you should get in touch with them at once. His services do not cost you one cent. Address him at Ballinger.

PRETTY WOMEN

LOVELY HATS

Splendid Display of Fine Millinery Inspected by Hundreds of Pretty Women.

It has often been said that there are more pretty women than in any other town in Texas, or anywhere else for that matter. This statement was verified Tuesday afternoon when it seems that all the ladies in Ballinger and quite a number from the surrounding country, came to town to attend the millinery openings. They were here early and they were here late. They thronged the millinery parlors and almost wore out the big mirrors, and it was a busy day for those in charge of the big had emporiums. The style critics were busy, the sales ladies were busy, the cashier and bundle boys were busy. In fact there is always something doing when the ladies come to try on the hats.

This year's styles are pretty. We know they are because we heard a regular chorus of voices saying: "Oh, ar'n't they beautiful," and oh, how cheap," etc. Of course they are all new, because you know the style only last six months, and the only reason it last that long is because we only have two seasons each year—winter and summer. The tango and the turkey trot seemed to be favorites, and while no one in Ballinger has dared do the turkey trot or put on the tango "stunts" wearing the turkey trot will be common for the coming winter.

AN OPPORTUNITY TO GET ROAD HANDS.

The Galveston Chamber of Commerce has started a move that promises to meet with popular approval and will go a long way towards solving the good roads problem in Texas. That body believes that the best use to be made of convicts is to use them in building roads. A letter has been addressed to the various Business and Agricultural organizations of the state for the purpose of ascertaining general sentiment as to the plan and soliciting the various organizations to co-operate in bringing about the desired results. It is probable that a meeting will be called at an early date, at which time the advocates of this plan will meet and formulate some plans to be presented to the legislature, and make an effort to get a law passed that that will meet the demands of what is believed to be the desire of the great majority of the people of Texas, and one that will bring about a great improvement in our penitentiary system.

The Dallas News in commenting on the question says:

"There can be very little doubt that most of the responses will be favorable at least with respect to the question of the advisability of making this use of convicts. So many people favor this method of using the convicts that it would hardly exaggerate to call it a popular idea. But despite its popularity, the idea has made no headway. Doubtless there are many reasons to explain this. One is that those who favor this use of the convicts have never put themselves to the trouble of giving to their opinion such an expression as would enlighten the legislature either as to the volume or intensity of this opinion. Furthermore, most of those who have expressed themselves as favorable to this use of convicts do not seem to have based their belief on more than superficial consideration of the problem. Superficially, it is an attractive idea. This is not meant to imply that its apparent merits vanish under a more searching consideration. The only implication intended is that there are some difficulties and objections which the proponents of this plan do not seem to have taken adequately into account. The State needs good roads, and the State's convicts need facts which would seem to give an imperative mandate for this use of convicts. The argument is not a kind of employment that attracts free labor. It engages in it only when no other employment is to be got, and then but sparingly. The wages paid to such labor are roadmaking is higher than the State would have to exact for the use of its convicts. The State would demand only enough to defray the cost of their support and safekeeping and at a price sufficient for those purposes roads could be built more cheaply than they can be with free labor. The State would derive a profit in the possession of good roads, but a profit so direct as not to offend the sentiment that objects to the State's profiting from the use of its convicts. All these, to say nothing of other considerations that could be urged, make a persuasive argument in favor of this policy, and one who concerns himself only with this argument must wonder that a policy which seems so obvious wise from every standpoint has not long been practiced.

THE WORLD WILL NEVER STARVE.

At no time since Adam and Eve were driven from the Garden of Eden have the inhabitants of this world suffered from lack of production, but some people have gone hungry from the day of creation to this good hour for the lack of proper distribution. Slight variations in production have forced a change in diet, and one locality has felt the pinch of want, while another surfeited, but the world, as a whole, has ever been a land of plenty.

We now have less than one-tenth of the tillable land of the earth's surface under cultivation and we not only have this surplus area to draw on but it is safe to estimate that in case of dire necessity one-half the earth's population could, at the present time, knock their living out of the trees of the forests, gather it from wild vines and draw it from streams. No one should become alarmed; the world will never starve.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE TO IMPROVE THE SERVICE FOR WOMAN

Secretary Asks Suggestions from the Wives and Daughters of 50,000 Farmers.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 15.—David F. Houston, Secretary of Agriculture, within the next few days will address a letter to the women members of 50,000 farm households throughout the United States, requesting them to give him information as to how the Department of Agriculture can best serve the needs of the farm women.

These letters will be addressed "To Housewives in the Homes of the Official Crop Correspondents" and will be sent to the full list of Crop Correspondents for transmission to the women members of their households. With each letter will be supplied a return envelope in which the women can forward their suggestions.

This inquiry results from the receipt of a letter addressed to the secretary in which the writer said:

"The farm woman has been the most neglected factor in the rural problem and she has been especially neglected by the national Department of Agriculture."

This letter was written not by a woman but by a broad-minded man so thoroughly in touch with the agricultural and domestic needs of the country that his opinions have great weight. Following the receipt of this letter, the Secretary determined that the best way for the Department to learn how to give these women the fullest possible aid and service which their important place in agricultural production warrants, was to write to the women themselves and ask them to make their own suggestions.

In the letter these women are invited to give individual answers to the letter or to discuss the matter in their church societies or woman's organizations and submit answers representing the combined opinion of the woman of their entire communities. The answers are requested not later than November 15th and this date is set because it will give the woman time after harvest to consider the matter and discuss it with their women neighbors.

This letter will go to about twenty leading farms in each of the twenty-eight hundred counties of the United States. Their answers, it is expected, will represent the view and opinions of upward of 50,000 farm women. These answers will be carefully considered by the specialists of the department having to do with that branch of agricultural activity.

Where Selections are Better and Prices Lower.

A NEW FALL STOCK, that for magnitude, quality and style, eclipses all records in West Texas, and with prices that again tell the story of our underselling power. We are prepared this season as never before to offer the people of this section of the state an economical place to trade.

While many merchants have not bought as heavily for fall as usual, our rapidly growing business demands increased buying, hence our fall stock is even more complete than ever before. So, the advantages offered here are exceptional. Large buying in the best markets on a spot cash basis enables us to offer you goods at lower prices. That we do undersell competition is evidenced by the ever increasing number of customers who make this store their shopping place.

Among the many popular departments, we call special attention to our ladies' Ready-to-wear department and Millinery parlors, which have no superior in all the Southwest. All the new Autumn styles and exclusive designs of the north and east are here and on display. And because our styles are exclusive and superior, yet our prices are not higher; in fact they are lower than such styles can be bought for in the fashion centers the country over. We earnestly solicit a visit to the store, where you will see a selection of styles that speak for themselves and at prices that will please you with their smallness.

LIQUOR LAW CUTS INTO EARNINGS OF CARRIERS

That the State liquor law, which went into effect July 1, prohibiting shipments to dry territory, has materially reduced the receipts of the express companies is shown by both the Wells-Fargo and American express companies located in Temple.

Receipts show that the offices have lost about $525 since the regulation became a law. The two companies tabulate their losses as follows: Wells Fargo, $500; American $25. However, increased business along other lines has practically made up the difference, it is claimed.

Compared to other towns in the state, the losses sustained by the local offices are small. Others have reported a slump in business amounting to some times as high as $1,000 monthly.

It is explained that for a town of its size Temple handles comparative little liquor business, and that this has kept the loss at a low figure.

Just what the combined losses of the express companies in the state will total is yet problematical. Little attempt has been made to estimate it. Officials, however, state that it will run into many thousands of dollars.

effective shortly, will have no effect upon the local companies. Offices in prohibition towns, though, will show a considerable slump in receipts, the express people say.

Taken as a whole, the business done by the common carriers of this kind in the state has shown a remarkable increase. Many managers declare that new business has almost wiped out losses sustained through the effects of the non-shipment bill. — Temple Mirror.

FOREST NOTES.

Two million trees will be planted on the national forests in Utah, Nevada, and southern Idaho during 1914.

Makers of small hickory handles for hammers, chisels, and the like, are now trying to use the waste from mills which make hickory spokes and pick and ax handles.

There is much waste in getting out the flawless white oak necessary for tight barrel staves. The forest service is trying to get manufacturers of parquetry flooring to use some of this waste.

The U. S. Consul at Aberdeen, Scotland, thinks that American manufacturers may have a chance to compete in furnishing staves for fish barrels. There has been a recent rise in the price of spruce and fir staves from Sweden and Scotland.

Four new state forests have been added to those in Hawaii, making 27 in all with aggregate of 683,101 acres. Of this amount 67 per cent belongs to the territory, the rest being private land administered by the territorial forest officers.

exaggerated in the least about the big showing they would make. Their millinery department presented a picture garden scene. Style was in evidence on ever hand, in every nook and corner, and those who were in charge knew just how to make every garment hang and every hat tilt to attract the eye of the customer, and in that courteous way they made buying a real pleasure for the many shoppers that visited this popular place. Miss Greer, Miss Kevill and Mrs. Harris were in charge of the opening at this store and they deserve much credit for making many hearts happy.

At The Big Store.

At the Higginbotham, Currie, Williams Co., store a large space is devoted to the showing of fall millinery and ladies ready-to-wear goods. As the hundreds of ladies entered this store they were ushered to the department where they wished to go, and of course on this occasion they all wanted to visit the millinery department, and many came to shop in other departments of this big store. Here every shape hat imaginable in keeping with the style could be found and at prices to suit all size pocket books. Also the ladies ready-to-wear dresses and suits were shown in profusion, and the display was sufficient evidence to our mind that it was not necessary for any lady to leave Ballinger to dress up like a queen.

Miss Pearl Camp is in charge of the millinery department of this store, and she was assisted on opening day by Miss Alma Snell, Mrs. Jno. F. Currie, Mrs. R. T. Williams, and Mrs. J. D. Robinson.

STATE FAIR DAIRY FARM.

Butter Making and Judging and Mechanical Milking a Feature.

Dallas, Texas: Butter making and butter judging, mechanical milking and a model dairy farm will feature the dairy division of the 1913 State Fair of Texas at Dallas, which begins Saturday, October 18 and closes Sunday, November 2. The division will be of interest to every man, woman and child that visits the fair, declares President J. J. Eckford. He said:

"The model dairy farm will consist of twenty cows which will be mechanically milked twice each day. Silage along with other feeds will be used in milk production the model farm to be connected with a silage by automatic feed carriers. Automatic litter carriers will deliver the bedding, etc., from the barns directly into manure spreaders. The product of these cows will be separated, the cream will be ripened and churned according to the latest scientific methods, all of which will be instructive and interesting.

"We have made a change in the classifications this year in which only one entry of butter will be permitted from each herd. All other butter made from the same farm by different butter makers will be entered in another class that will not be subject to competition for the Holland trophy cup. Premiums have been increased in every class. The butter on exhibit will be judged by an expert from the United States agricultural department."

STATE FAIR REST COTTAGES.

Splendid Conveniences For Women and Children at Coming Exposition

Dallas, Texas: When the twenty-eighth annual meeting of the State Fair of Texas begins at Dallas Saturday, October 18, the grounds will be equipped with seven rest rooms and cottages for the accommodation of women visitors and children. These cottages are conveniently located. The seventh structure of this kind is now being erected in the livestock department. Built of concrete and cement stone it is 25x42 feet in dimension. It is equipped with seven stationary washstands and seven lavatories and other conveniences. In each building there are spacious rooms and numerous accessories. A nursery for the visiting babies is provided. Attendants in charge at all times will be located near the main entrance. In this respect the management declares the State Fair of Texas is better equipped than any other fair in the United States.

Additional benches and drinking fountains are also being provided this year. Whoever becomes tired at the 1913 State Fair will find a bench at hand to rest upon. A score of new ones have been ordered this year and are now being placed on the main plaza in the center of Fair Park. Additional flower beds and shade trees will add to the attractiveness.

COTTON WILL BE KING.

Dallas, Texas: Cotton will again be king in the agricultural department of the State Fair of Texas at Dallas this fall. The twenty-eighth annual meeting will be held Saturday, October 18, to Sunday, November 2. Competition for the premiums offered by the management will be exceedingly keen as good crops this year assure a much larger number of individual exhibitors. Premiums offered this year by the management total $250. Awards will be made for the best samples of seed cotton, best fifty bolls, best three stalks grown in 1913, best two pounds of lint cotton direct from gin, best bale of short staple, best bale of long staple. There will be a large display of cottonseed products, including cake, meal, oil, hulls and bread and cakes made from cotton seed meal.

Don't forget that Light Crust flour is the best and only $1.44 a sack. The Globe.

Mrs. J. A. Ward and daughter, Miss Blanche, of Sonora, came in Monday and will be the guests of Mrs. Ward's brother-in-law, W. T. Ward and family. Miss Blanche will go on to Waco to attend Baylor College the ensuing school year.

A CONFESSION

Hopes Her Statement, Made Public, will Help Other Women.

Hines, Ala.—"I must confess," says Mrs. Eula Mae Reid, of this place, "that Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done me a great deal of good."

Before I commenced using Cardui, I would spit up everything I ate. I had a tired, sleepy feeling all the time, and was irregular. I could hardly drag around, and would have severe headaches continuously.

Since taking Cardui, I have entirely quit spitting up what I eat. Everything seems to digest all right, and I have gained 10 pounds in weight."

If you are a victim of any of the numerous ills so common to your sex, it is wrong to suffer.

For half a century, Cardui has been relieving just such ills, as is proven by the thousands of letters, similar to the above, which pour into our office, year by year.

Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients which act specifically on the womanly constitution, and helps build the weakened organs back to health and strength.

Cardui has helped others, and will help you, too. Get a bottle today. You won't regret it. Your druggist sells it.
