New York, Polo Grounds, Oct. 8.—The Philadelphia Athletics defeated the New York Giants in the third game of the series of the world this afternoon, the score being 8 to 2.

Bush, one of Connie Mack's youngest pitchers heaved for the Athletics, and brought his club to victory. Throughout the game the young pitcher had the game in his hands and not once was he in a tight place. He was given excellent support and allowed the New York club to hit only when hits were not dangerous. He won volleys of applause from the audience of 20,000 people.

Tesreau started the game for the National contenders, but did not hang throughout the game. Doc Crandall, who pitched three innings in the first game of the present world's series, relieved him.

Although the game was a one-sided affair, regardless of the disappointment over the outcome of the game from the New York standpoint, the thousands who thronged the Polo Grounds were fairly well pleased with the procedure.

Shang did the Home Run Baker stunt in this afternoon's game and counted four bags. The Quaker catcher was given a hearty ovation when he sailed his ball against the cement of the Polo Grounds.

Several double-plays figured in this afternoon's game, the work

Local Fandom Is Agog Over Games.

That Ballinger fandom's sentiment is a shade for the Athletics for all the equal division between the two teams, was apparent in The Daily Ledger each day. The large number of fans are anxious to get the paper each afternoon and read the accounts of the game. But they are particularly desirous of getting the paper and reading of the achievements and victories of Connie Mack's team in the present world series.

There is still a great contingent however, yelling for the McGrawites and these make things miserable, as far as things go, for the Athletic men. Wednesday evening the Giants admirers made their appearance on the streets, after a twenty-four hours hibernation. Athletic men then took up the role this afternoon, when they took the stand they held during the first hours after the first game.

Matty caught the popular fancy among the Giant men yesterday, while Baker held the boards the preceding day. The sympathy is not all one way anyway.

being done principally by the visiting club. Several times when the Giants had chances of scoring, the batters knocked into double plays that ruined all prospects of scoring. In short, Connie Mack duplicated his stunt of the first day—namely, that of out generalizing the New York manager.

Merkel returned to the game today and held down first station in a very satisfactory manner. Although slightly limping from the effects of his sprain in the first day's game, he handled himself well enough considering everything.

Tesreau was ineffective today. He lasted for seven innings and at the end of that time he was relieved by Doc Crandall who finished the game for the big fellow.

The umpires announced that Tesreau and McLean would be the battery for New York, while Bush and Schank would work for Philadelphia. Tesreau had a bad inning at the very start of the game, when the Athletics bunched hits off the big fellow and three runs had been garnered in short time Oldring, Collins, and Baker each counted in the pioneer frame.

In the third two other scores were made by the Athletics, making the total five.

In the fifth, New York scored her first run.

In the sixth, Wilson replaced McLean behind the bat. Myers who sustained injuries about the wrist and had a finger nail torn off, was suffering today and was unfit to play in this afternoon's contest. It is believed that he will be out of the running for the rest of the series, although there is a possibility of his getting in the game near the close of the contests.

New York seemed to play doggedly behind Tesreau today. The big pitcher, got a very bad start, and this seemed to discourage the entire club as well as the spitball artist himself.

McGraw stated last night upon arrival in this city, when asked who would pitch this afternoon for him, that any of his men would do against what the Athletics had left. New York fans, when Bush's name was announced as the pitcher for the American contenders, went wild with delight. Tesreau was given a warm reception when he walked upon the diamond.

Two Teams Ready.

New York, Oct. 9.—The New York Giants, headed by John McGraw, manager, arrived in the city last night and immediately after arrival went to their homes. The Philadelphia Athletics, with Manager Connie Mack, arrived on the same train with the local delegation. The visiting team went to their hotel.

The Giants were given a great ovation by the many fans who remained up to greet the victors of Wednesday afternoon at Philadelphia. Many fans cheered loudly and long when the Giants stepped from the train which brought them from the Quaker City.

Manager McGraw was reluctant to express an opinion as to the outcome of the series, but indicated in his behavior that he was confident that the Giants would win out in the end. Manager Mack venture no opinion, but seemed to take Wednesday's defeat as one of hard luck and one which could not be avoided. Neither leaders gave out a statement as to the pitchers for today's contests, but it is believed by fans who appear to have the dope that either Schawke or Brown would pitch for Mack's crowd this afternoon. Demaree has been chosen by the crowd to pitch today. Whether McGraw and Mack will look at the matter in the same light as do the fans, remains to be seen.

McLean was greeted on all sides today by his friends in the big city. Lengthy "Larry" McLean was chosen by McGraw yesterday to catch Mathewson and the manner in which he received the Old Master's balls, was particularly pleasing to his many friends in Gotham. There had been in circulation a rumor that McLean would not participate in the world's series because McGraw could not trust him.

Mathewson was greeted by friends on all sides. It seemed as if everybody wanted to shake hands with McGraw's veteran.

Dan Murphy, captain of the Athletic, paid tribute to the Giants in yesterday's game, but said it was a hard game to lose. "McLean" said the captain, "was the man who started things in tenth that worked our down fall in the second game of the series. Then McGraw sent in a fast man to run for McLean. That must be figured, also. Then followed Christy's and Herzog's hits, coupled with Collins' error. We had a chance to score in the ninth but luck was against us."

"Larry" Doyle, captain of the Giants, said his team took advantage of Plank's weakening in the tenth inning and scored the winning runs.

GOOD RESULTS HIGHWAY MEET

Permanent Organization Will Work for Good Public Roads.

The committee composed of Jo Wilmeth, J. W. Powell and W. A. Nance, appointed to attend the highway meeting at Stamford, returned home Wednesday night.

The meeting was one of the most enthusiastic good roads conventions ever held in Texas, and was made up of delegates from the following counties:

Wichita, Baylor, Knox, Haskell, Jones, Taylor, Runnels and Concho.

The result of the meeting was an organization, which will be known as the Air Line Highway Association that will accommodate the return travel of the tourist trade from the Colorado to the Gulf Highway.

The president of the Stamford Commercial Club, James A. White, called the meeting to order and after a few enthusiastic talks the following officers were elected:

President—Judge H. G. McConnell, Haskell.

Vice President—Joe Wilmeth, Ballinger.

Secretary—Fred T. Woods, Abilene.

Treasurer—J. S. Schultz, Seymour.

Field Secretary—Homer D. Wade.

The following were elected on the board of directors: O. L. Sims, Concho; W. J. Fulwiler, Taylor; D. P. Talley, Wichita; E. F. Edwards, Runnels; J. D. Robertson, Haskell; W. R. Chapman, Jones; W. H. Francis, Baylor.

Each county was assessed $50 for installation of signs along the highway and other preliminary expenses.

The announcement was made that Martin Dodd, the official logger of the American Automobile Association, would arrive in Texas October 10 and will be prepared to log the proposed highway beginning at Wichita Falls, October 13. Arrangements were made to pilot him the entire distance.

Following the meeting the ladies of Stamford tendered the visitors a reception and luncheon at the Stamford Commercial Club.

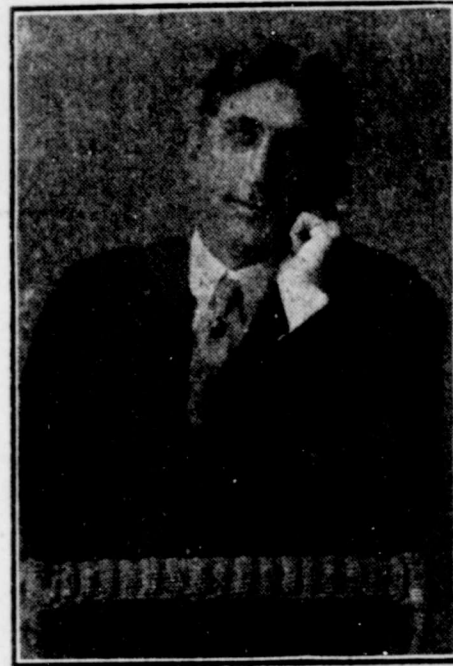

A SUGGESTION FOR THE CITY COUNCIL

To pass the following ordinance and see that it is enforced:

"It shall be unlawful for anyone to cruelly beat or otherwise maltreat or injure any dumb animal in the city, or to wilfully and wantonly kill, maim, wound or poison or disfigure any domesticated animal or bird of any kind, or to mutilate or cruelly kill or over-drive or over-load, or unnecessarily confine, or in any manner oppress the same, or to unnecessarily fail to provide the same with proper food, drink or shelter; or to drive or work or use the same when such animal is maimed, wounded, sick, lame or otherwise unfit for labor; or to wilfully abandon the same to die, or to carry or cause the same to be carried, hauled or forced along in a cruel manner; or to leave any animal tied up or confined anywhere, day or night, for more than twelve hours at a time without proper feeding and caring for the same. This section is not to be construed to prevent the Marshal or other persons from killing dogs when they are lawfully entitled to do so. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be fined not less than one nor more than one hundred dollars."

Weather Report.
Tonight and Friday unsettled warmer tonight.

OPENING PLAY TONIGHT.

Tonight in the big tent theatre near the depot, will be the opening of the Hayes Theatre Co. A company of fourteen acting people.

Manager Fred Hayes has selected for his opening play "Amy of the Circus," on the order of "Polly, of the Circus," but pronounced by many who have seen both plays to be a much better play.

In as much as "Polly, of the Circus" charges an admission price of a dollar to a dollar and a half, it will be a treat to see the same kind of good play for 10c.

The big pavilion opera house seats a thousand people, there being 600 ten cent seats and 400 at 25c and 35c.

The Hayes company will be here three nights only, changing play each night. As the big tent will undoubtedly be crowded, at these prices, it is advisable to come early to get choice seats.

WILL HOLD BAZAAR.

The ladies of the First Baptist church will hold their annual entertainment in the nature of a bazaar during the first week of December. This announcement was made this afternoon by the ladies who have the work in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brooks, of Fulton, Ky., came in Thursday at noon to spend some time in our section on a visit and to look after property interests.

By reason of the short crops and a commendable desire to promptly meet his obligations, a good farmer sold one of his work mules, receiving a check or which he took the cash, but before he had time to apply any of the funds, lost the entire amount. Had he deposited it and used a check-book he would have enjoyed the benefits of ready cash and removed every possibility of loss.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

by local application, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY, & CO., Toledo, Ohio.
