CHAS. BROOME FOUND BY SEARCHING PARTY

Chas. Broome, a prominent and wealthy stockman of the San Angelo country and well known in this county, was knocked from his horse while driving a bunch of horses on his ranch last week, and when found by a searching party was unconscious as a result of injuries received in the fall. His shoulder blade was dislocated and a great gash had been cut in his skull. He was taken to San Angelo and given medical attention and it is thought his injuries will not be serious.

NO BUSINESS THANKS. GIVING; STORES TO CLOSE

It is generally understood that Thursday, Nov. 27th will be a holiday in Ballinger. The business houses will remain closed for the day and the day observed in the usual way. It will be Thanksgiving, and over one hundred million people of this Nation will be called upon to return thanks for the blessings they enjoy.

WINTERS COUNTRY PROSPEROUS FIELD

The writer spent last Saturday in Winters. There are more people to the square acre in the Winters country than in any other section of Runnels county, and the majority of them are in better shape financially than they were a year ago, and are very cheerful over outlook for another year. Thousands of acres have been planted in oats and the crop was never better. There are some who are having trouble getting stock to graze their oats down, and say they will be compelled to use the mower on them. Most of the farmers are through picking cotton, and are getting ready to break their land. The merchants at Winters report a very satisfactory business, and taking everything into consideration say they are well pleased with collections.

Of course Winters, like all the towns in this section, has felt the effect of the short crops during the last two or three years, but there is signs of progress and enterprise among her citizens. They are all boosters for good roads, and are adding to the town by building cement side walks. On account of the large acreage in cultivation in the Winters country Winters is made a splendid business point, and especially is this true where there is a good crop in that section.

The poultry growers of Winters and the surrounding country are planning for their annual poultry exhibit which will be held on Dec. 4-5. Poultry growing plays no little part in the make up of the volume of business at Winters. Thousands of dollars worth of poultry is shipped from that point each year, and we are told, that the business is rapidly increasing.

Silos can be seen sticking up around Winters. This is a sure sign of prosperity, and the silo method is new in this country, and will rapidly increase as the farmers are made to realize their value.

COLQUITT WILL PROTECT TEXANS

Austin, Nov. 17.—"In the event Mexicans start any thing in Texas, we will protect our citizens," said Governor Colquitt tonight in speaking of the telegrams received today advising him of the steps the Mexicans would take unless their countrymen were released from prosecutions for the trouble some time ago in Dimmitt county.

"We will take the matter up our selves and not wait for Washington to act," said the governor. He has not apprised the Washington officials of the telegrams received today. He says that during a recent outbreak little heed was taken by the federal officials to quell trouble that had started along the Mexican border and it was only after the Texas rangers had been ordered out that the federal troops acted.

Although not believing that any concerted action will be taken by the Mexicans, the governor had a conference with Adjutant Hutchings this afternoon. Nothing was given out at the close of the conference but it is known that the Texas National Guard is in readiness on short notice to answer to any call that might be made.

The governor's declaration was provoked by the following telegram relating to the trial of Mexican gun-runners at Carrazo Springs for the murder of a Texas deputy sheriff. It was dated at San Marcos and signed by 127 Mexicans of that section:

"We will not stand by such barbarous state of things and will appeal to the whole Mexican nation if your state wants to murder men loyal to the human race and the liberty of oppressed people. We have noticed that the other men are going to be convicted and sentenced to be hanged and we will tell you, Mr. Colquitt, if such a thing happens Texas will answer before the whole Mexican community of crimes without precedent in legal history."

RUNNELS HOGS AT FAT STOCK SHOW

Lawrence Wardlow, son of N. J. Wardlow, is the champion hog grower of this section of Texas, and what he has done others can do.

Lawrence will deliver eight hogs to Price Maddox Thursday, and Mr. Maddox will load the hogs on a car and ship them to Fort Worth, where they will go to make up the Fat Stock Show. After exhibiting the hogs, Mr. Maddox will sell them on the Fort Worth market.

Mr. Maddox paid 9 cents per pound for the hogs.

It is not known what the price will total as the hogs will not be weighed until they are brought in Thursday, but those who have seen them estimate they will weigh from 400 to 500 pounds. Mr. Wardlow estimates they will average 450 pounds, and if they weigh out according to his estimate they will bring him $324.

This bunch of pigs is from one litter and Mr. Wardlow states that they will not be one year old until the 23rd of this month. $324 worth of pigs from one sow in one year is not a bad crop, and we predict what young Wardlow has done others can do.

The hogs are of the Duroc-Jersey stock.

FARMER DRAGGED TO DEATH BY MULE.

D. L. Horton met death on his farm near Wichita Falls when he became entangled in the harness of a mule which he was trying to catch. His neck was broken. The mule wandered about the field for three hours after Horton is supposed to have met his death, dragging the lifeless body behind it.

Late in the evening the animal returned to the stable, where Mrs. Horton found her husband's body.

$72,000 PRICE PAID FOR 180 ACRE FARM

W. F. Gorman, one of the most successful farmers in Runnels County, who owns a fine farm in what is known as the "Dry Ridge" country, was in town Monday putting the finishing touches to a land deal which he recently made.

Mr. Gorman recently bought the Curfman land which joined his. There are 180 acres in the Curfman farm, and every acre is good land. This gives Mr. Gorman 400 acres of good land. He paid $40 per acre for the Curfman land, or a total of $7200 for the tract.

He was here Monday having the titles passed on, and when asked for some news stated that he had been too busy plowing to read and didn't know much. Mr. Gorman came to Runnels County a few years ago practically a poor man. He is now among the most independent farmers in this county, and he made it from Runnels County soil.

Weather Forecast.
Tonight and Wednesday unsettled.

GRAND MA DEAN DIED AT LUBBOCK

On Nov. 7th Grandma Dean died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. N. Copeland at Lubbock, Texas. She was born in Mississippi on Jan. 12, 1823, and came to Texas in 1870, and was among the pioneers who settled in Runnels county. For many years she made her home in Ballinger, living here with her daughters, Mrs. Joe Copeland and with her son N. W. Dean, who for many years lived in the Walthall country, south of Ballinger, and later moved to the Wingate country. Deceased was an aunt of Nat Guest, who now lives in Ballinger, and she has other relatives in this county.

Grandma Dean left Ballinger when her daughter, Mrs. Copeland moved away from here several years ago. She has many friends among the pioneers of this county, who will remember her most kindly, and who speak for her that noble hospitable character that ruled in this country in the pioneer days. Living to the ripe old age of 90, the report states that Grandma Dean was ready to pass through the valley of death to that world where age does not wear away the life.

Deceased was buried in the cemetery at Lubbock.

J. H. Doggett, who had been in the Norton county visiting his mother and the family of A. W. Hardin, returned to his home at Goldthwaite Monday afternoon. Mr. Doggett's father and mother live in the Norton country and are 82 and 83 years old.

Mrs. Jack Hill left Monday afternoon for Dallas to attend the Baptist Convention.

You never heard of the voice of conscience talking anyone to death.

Irrigation, silos, poultry, good roads and prosperity are a few of the things slated for Runnels County.

Remember the date and the hour, Nov. 26, 8:30 to 10:45 a. m. the Santa Fe's demonstration train will be in Ballinger.

Eleven candidates have announced for governor up to date. It will soon be time for some of them to withdraw.

The vacant rent houses in Ballinger are gradually disappearing or at least the vacancy in the houses are disappearing.

It will be all right for Mrs. Pankhurst to stay in this country as long as she doesn't practice what she preaches or preach what she practices.

When you go to that Union Thanksgiving service Thursday of next week, leave all your nickles at home and take something that will jingle when you drop it in the basket. Remember an offering for charity will be a part of the service.

The grand jury of Comanche County remained in session two weeks and in making its report stated that crime of all kinds is on the decrease in Comanche county. They returned fifty-one indictments. Some room for more decrease.

About the only thing anybody could cuss the city council for is for not putting a scavenger to work in our city limits, and The Messenger makes the motion that if they do not get a man in thirty days they be made to do the work themselves.—Menard Messenger.

"If I had a business that was not worth advertising I would sell out and quit." This is what one of the live hustling Farmersville merchants has to say in this paper over his own name. One of the greatest retail merchants of the world once said that if he had a business that wasn't worth advertising he would advertise it for sale.—Farmersville Times.

During the last week or two the Ballinger market has been well supplied with sweet potatoes but some of them could not compete with potatoes shipped in from other points, and all because the grower failed to select the pun yam in planting. There is no reason why just as fine potatoes could not be raised here as any where. It is just another lesson in seed selection.

If the hens don't take to laying right off eggnog will have to be omitted from the item-list of early Christmas shoppers.—Brady Standard.

Eggs or no eggs, where is the eggnog market. We've got the eggs, but we are in a drouth stricken country, and if our hens put in full time and worked overtime, it would not relieve the situation.

Tennessee now has a law which "prevents the owners of live stock from running at large." The law ment to prohibit "live stock from running at large," but they failed to so write the law, and the governor failed to catch the error. Of course many people will say the Tennessee solons were drunk, but we happen to know better. They had just passed a law closing all the saloons, and were in a hurry to step out—to see if the saloons had closed.—Honey Grove Signal.

McCulloch county and the town of Brady have jointly purchased a rock crusher and have under consideration the purchase of a road roller to be used in road grading in the county. McCulloch county is setting an example that other ambitious counties might well take notice of.—Brady Standard.

Ballinger has the crusher and the roller, and every day it stands idle is just that much time lost. With the unlimited supply of road building material roads in this county could be built at a cost so low that it is folly to delay.

A GOOD WIFE.

"She was a good wife to me. A good wife, God bless her." These words were spoken in trembling accents over a coffin lid. The woman asleep there had borne the heat and burden of life's long day, and no one had ever heard her murmur, her hand was quick to reach out in a helping grasp to those who fell by the wayside; and her feet were swift on errands of mercy; the heart of the husband had trusted her; he had left her to long hours of solitude, while he amused himself in scenes in which she had no pleasure nor part. Children had been born to them. She had reared them almost alone—they were gone! Her hand had ministered to their wants. Then she had comforted him and sent him out strong and whole—heartful while she staid at home and—cried. What can a woman do but cry—and trust? Well, she is at rest now. But she could not die until she had promised to "bear up" and not to fret, but to remember how happy they had been. They? Yes, it is even so. For she was blest in giving, and he in receiving. It was an equal partnership after all. "She was a good wife to me." Oh man! man! why not have told her so, when her ears were not dulled by death?

TEN GOOD COMMANDMENTS.

1. Thou shalt have no other food than at meal time.
2. Thou shalt not make unto thee any pies or put into pastry the likeness of anything that is in the heavens above or in the waters under the earth. Thou shalt not fall to eating it or trying to digest it. For the dyspepsia will be visited upon the children to the third and fourth generation of them that eat pie, and long life and vigor upon those that live prudently and keep the laws of health.
3. Remember thy bread to bake it well, for he will not be kept well that eateth his bread as dough.
4. Thou shalt not indulge sorrow or borrow anxiety in vain.
5. Six days thou shalt wash and keep thyself clean, and the seventh day thou shalt take a great bath thou, and thy son and thy maid servant and the stranger that is within thy gates. For in six days man sweats and gathers filth and bacteria enough for disease; wherefore the Lord has bless ed the bath tub and hallowed it.

6. Remember thy sitting room and bed chamber to keep them ventilated, that thy days may be long in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

7. Thou shalt not eat hot biscuits.

8. Thou shalt not eat thy meat fried.

9. Thou shalt not swallow thy food unchewed or highly speeded or just before hard work or just after it.

10. Thou shalt not keep late hours in thy neighbor's house, nor with thy neighbor's wife, nor his man servant, nor his maid servant, nor his cards.

GEO. KEARNEY IN HOSPITAL.

Geo. Kearney, of the Pearce Drug Store, under went a successful operation Monday afternoon or appendicitis. The latest report from the sanitarium states that he is getting along nicely. Roy Martin of Fort Worth is filling Mr. Kearney's place in the drug store, and will remain with the drug store until after the holidays.

A. Rosenauer, of DeWitt County, is here looking after his interests in this county and is having some improvements made on his farm south of Ballinger. Mr. Rosenauer was at one time a citizen of this county, and talks like he will become a citizen of the county again some time.

Col. Chas. M. Stanley returned from San Angelo Tuesday morning and will remain in Ballinger for a few days in the interest of the irrigation work.

GOOD BREEDING IMPORTANT

Live Stock Industry of Texas Built Up by Improved Blood.

The Fat Stock Show at Fort Worth, November 22-28, is one of the most potential agencies that is working for the upbuilding of the Texas livestock industry. It points out the pathway of progress to feeders and breeders and presents living lessons of profits and actual demonstrations of the advantages of higher types in classes and breeds. The scarcity of the world's meat supply has brought the livestock industry into the limelight and the necessity for increasing the herds and improving the grades is one of the most important economic problems of the day.

The Texas steer of a quarter of a century ago, compared with the present thoroughbreds, presents the most convincing argument in favor of good breeding the world possesses. From wild, dangerous and worthless beasts of the plains, they have become cultured, docile and profitable. These dumb brutes have so completely mastered the science of breeding that they have remodeled their shape, reformed their habits and rebuilt their character. Each generation has contributed toward the uplift of the breed, until today the cattle have more purple blood in their veins than any other family of the animal kingdom.

They can teach the human race many lessons in the science of improved lineage. By carefully conforming to the laws of nature, they have bred out deformities of flesh and blood. Their blood, which once made weak and scrubby stock, now produces rich and powerful thoroughbreds. Each breed is known by the color it keeps, by its distinct type and purpose in life.

This work has been accomplished largely through the instrumentality of the National Feeders' and Breeders' Show, which holds its Eighteenth annual meeting at Fort Worth on November 22-28, and new models and higher standards will be taught at the coming convention. During this time each annual meeting has gauged and registered the advancement of the livestock industry of Texas and it is here the leaders of all classes and breeds assemble to report progress to the management. Each year has been one of glorious triumph but, none will eclipse the present aggregation of thoroughbreds.

DON'T COUGH YOURSELF INTO A Serious Condition.

To neglect a cough or cold is always a hazardous act. A cold so often goes down on the lungs, and the cough that follows may easily be a symptom of bronchitis, pleurisy, or even pneumonia. Coughing frequently follows attacks of la grippe, and if severe and persistent, is a tax on the system that weakens the vital resistance. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is an effective medicine for coughs and colds, is a perfect demulcent that may be relied upon for quick relief. A man named, A. R. Ellison, Taylor, Wis. writes:—"I make a point of recommending Foley's Honey and Tar Compound to all those needing a certain and safe cure from coughs and colds."

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION IN 1914.

Seven college presidents and a number of college instructors, including ex-President Taft, will contribute to The Youth's Companion during 1914.

Then there is Gene Stratton Porter, whose stories of Indiana woods and swamps have made him famous, and Kate Douglas Wiggin, who never wrote a dull line in her life, and Mrs. Burton Harrison, who remembers when conversation was really an art as practised in Washington and in the manor houses of Virginia. And this is just a beginning of the list.

If you know The Companion, you have a pretty clear idea of what is in store for next year's readers. If you do not know, ask us to send you sample copies—for instance, those containing the opening chapters of Arthur Stanwood Pier's fine serial—"His Father's Son." Full Announcement for 1914 will be sent with the sample copies.

For the year's subscription $2.00 there is included The Companion Practical Home Calendar for 1914, and all the issues of the paper for the remaining weeks of 1913, dating from the time the subscription is received.

NINE CARS MAKE-UP DEMONSTRATION TRAIN

A letter from R. J. Kennedy, colonization agent for the Santa Fe, to the editor of The Ledger, request us to call attention to the special train that will be here on Nov. 26th. Mr. Kennedy says the train is the best ever operated over the Santa Fe lines. In order that our readers may appreciate more fully just what the coming of this train means to the people of this section of the country, we publish the following excerpt from Mr. Kennedy's letter: "The train will contain about eight or nine cars, six of which will be used for exhibit purposes. There will be two cars of model silos and silo equipment such as feed cutters, silo fillers, etc. One car will contain dairy cows and dairy equipment such as separator, milk tester, churns, milk coolers, cans, pails, milk record sheets. The cows will be led out on a flat car for demonstration purposes. A large baggage car will contain a great many different varieties of chickens, ducks, turkeys and geese, and also a display of poultry equipment, incubator, brooder, drinking fountains, feed choppers, egg testers, egg cartons and girls about home canning and also be a Domestic Science Car with lecturers to tell the ladies and girls about home canning and preserving and home management.

WISHED SHE COULD DIE

And Be Free From Her Troubles, but Finds Better Way.

Columbia, Tenn.—"Many a time," says Mrs. Jessie Sharp, of this place, "I wished I would die and be relieved of my suffering, from womanly troubles. I could not get up, without pulling at something to help me, and stayed in bed most of the time. I could not do my housework.

The least amount of work tired me out. My head would swim, and I would tremble for an hour or more. Finally, I took Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I am not bothered with pains any more, and I don't have to go to bed. In fact, I am sound and well of all my troubles."

Cardui goes to all the weak spots and helps to make them strong. It acts with nature—not against her. It is for the tired, nervous, irritable women, who feel as if everything were wrong, and need something to quiet their nerves and strengthen the worn-out system.

If you are a woman, suffering from any of the numerous symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. It will help you. At all druggists.

POSTAL PATRONS URGED TO AID.

J. J. Erwin, postmaster urges all residents of Ballinger to respond promptly to the postman's call when he's delivering mail to their homes, as conditions occasioned by delays at many homes in receiving parcel post packages are becoming serious and the service materially interfered with.

"The carriers work upon a carefully figured schedule, and every minute counts," Mr. Erwin said today. "In the delivery of parcel post packages many are insured or registered and must be signed for. The carriers are being delayed at many residences, a prompt response to their call is not made, and in a day's run many delays of this kind get the schedule disarranged seriously.

"I trust that people throughout the city will co-operate with the Postoffice Department by answering the postman's whistle just as quickly as possible. The best service to all the people depends upon this co-operation upon the part of every individual."

NEW LIQUOR LAW NOW IN EFFECT

Following are the provisions of the new Texas liquor law, which will go into effect Wednesday, November 19th.

It is unlawful for any person firm or corporation to deliver intoxicating liquor for transportation to any point in dry territory in the State of Texas.

It is unlawful for any person firm or corporation to receive intoxicating liquor for shipment to any point in dry territory in the state.

It is unlawful for any person firm or corporation to transport or deliver to any person firm or corporation liquor in dry territory in the state.

It is unlawful for any person firm or corporation in dry territory to receive intoxicating liquor, regardless of whether such liquor be shipped from a point within the state or without.

Nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent drug stores, doctors, hospitals and manufacturing plants from securing alcohol for use in their business.

This act shall be construed to prohibit carriage and delivery of liquor within the state of shipments originating in another state.

This act does not prohibit any person from carrying for his own use or for members of his family liquor to any point in another state.

This law does not apply to wine shipped to ministers and priests for sacramental purposes.

The violations of any of the provisions of this act by the liquor dealers and transportation companies constitutes a felony and is punishable by penitentiary sentence of not less than one nor more than three years.

Any person living in dry territory who shall receive liquor shipment in violation of this act shall be fined not less than $25 nor more than $250, with a jail term of from 20 to 60 days.

It is unlawful to receive a shipment of liquor when you live in dry territory, no matter where it is shipped from. It is unlawful to handle it.

It is provided that should any section of this law be declared unconstitutional, it will not affect the rest of the act.

A conviction for violation of any part of this act may be had on the unsupported evidence of an accomplice or participants, who shall be exempt from prosecution.

NEGRO GREEN CAUGHT WITH UGLY GUN

Richard Green, negro porter for the First National Bank, was placed in jail Monday night charged with carrying a concealed weapon. In some way the report had reached the officers that Green was carrying a gun, and the officers made an effort to locate the witnesses in the case—those who had seen him with the gun, but they failed to find any one among Green's race who would give him away.

Monday night Deputy Sheriff Perkins and Marshall McKay kept an eye on Green and stopped him for an interview as he was on his way to that part of town inhabited by negroes. A search by the officers brought forth an automatic six-shooter from Green's pocket. The only explanation offered by the pistol toter was that he was carrying it for protection as his life has been threatened.

Green was placed in jail and Tuesday morning he was allowed bond in the sum of $250, which he made, and the case will be called in county court Friday.
