WILL RETURN TO BALLINGER

C. C. Gilliam, who has been away from Ballinger for several months, holding a position at Llano, and who was called here last week on account of the death of his wife's mother, Mrs. T. T. Crosson, has decided to remain in Ballinger and will engage in the tailoring business here.

Mr. Gilliam was formerly in the tailoring business here, and has many friends here who will be glad to learn that he will again make this his home.

Mrs. M. C. Jackson was here from Miles Wednesday trading.

Miss Lidia Zeschang returned from a visit to Temple this week.

ARM DISLOCATED WHILE PLAYING

While playing with a crowd of boys on the Central school grounds Wednesday afternoon at the recess period, Ford Hunt, a nephew of Miss Mary Phillips, district clerk, was painfully injured when he fell and dislocated an arm. His injuries were administered to immediately after the accident occurred by physicians who were called by the teachers. He was carried to the local sanitarium where he is resting easily at a late hour this afternoon.

Young Ford was romping and playing with several other boys on the school grounds, when in some manner he stubbed his toe and fell to the ground with one of his arms under the weight of his body. The accident was reported to Superintendent Fleming's office and the physicians were immediately called upon for relief to be given.

Weather Forecast.

Tonight and Thursday generally fair.

BIG PRICE FOR RABBITS AND DOGS

A long time ago people thought the rabbit and the prairie dog had no commercial value or any other value, as far as that is concerned but it is different in this good day and time. There are markets everywhere for the scalps of these animals and good prices are being offered, too. At the bounty which has been offered and at which many are taking advantage of by catching and selling the four-legged "critters," there should be more persons in the field after the scalps and the money than there are.

A zoology in Austin is offering as much as fifty cents per head for female prairie dogs, and a man in Ballinger is offering ten cents per head for rabbits dressed.

Many twisters of this section of the state, particularly those who live in Coke County, are contemplating going into the rabbit and prairie dog business and doing nothing else but catch and sell the pests. If the prices hold up at the rate they have been for the past week or two, the field will be loaded with town citizens who are never satisfied with what they have after the first of the year.

BUSINESS MEN TO OBSERVE TURKEY DAY

The 1913 Thanksgiving promises to be more generally observed in Ballinger than any Thanksgiving day in many years past. The business houses are unanimous in an agreement to keep their places of business closed throughout the day, and the entire day will be given over to celebrating one of the most popular of holidays on the calendar.

Of course the day will be observed in various ways—just as the individual chooses. Arrangements have been perfected for a union Thanksgiving service, which will be held at the Methodist church at ten o'clock Thursday morning. Here appropriate services will be held, and many will assemble to give thanks for the bountiful blessings this entire country has reaped during the last year. Others will take advantage of the opportunity for a days outing, and will be gone with early morn to spend the day away from the hum-drum and whirl of commercialism. It is the day when Uncle Sam's favorite bird will occupy a prominent place on millions of dining tables throughout the nation.

Ballinger will turn a deaf ear to business, and the people throughout the trade territory will please take notice and if they have business to attend to, please come before Thanksgiving or wait until after this day set apart for expressing gratitude to the giver of all good gifts.

We, the undersigned business men and merchants, agree to observe Thanksgiving Day by keeping our places of business closed throughout the day:

HEAVY TANK FALLS BREAKING MAN'S LEG

An accident occurred on the river above town Wednesday that will make Clabe Armstrong a cripple for some time. It all happened when a zinc tank was being moved from over a pile of cement, and Mr. Armstrong fell the tank falling on his leg breaking it just above the instep. He was helping to install the irrigation plant on the Chas. S. Miller farm, and when the hands quit work Tuesday night they placed the tank over a pile of cement to keep it from getting wet in case it rained, and when they started to work Wednesday morning they were in the act of moving the tank when the accident occurred. Mr. Armstrong was holding one side of the tank, and was stepping backward when he stepped on some pipe, falling backward and the tank falling on him.

A message came to town for a physician and Dr. Love went out in his auto and brought Mr. Armstrong to the sanitarium, and he is getting along as well as could be expected.

THANKSGIVING CHOIR PRACTICE

The music committee met at the Methodist Church Tuesday night and selected songs to be used for the Thanksgiving services. Those who help in the choir of the various churches of the town are requested to be on hand promptly at 7:30 at the Methodist church Friday night.

Mrs. Sam Baker returned Tuesday from a visit to her sister, Mrs. J. A. Guy, at Talpa.

ANOTHER IRRIGATION MEETING FOR MILES

Another irrigation meeting for the purpose of reviewing Chas. M. Stanley's plans for irrigation 100,000 acres along the Colorado River north of Ballinger, will be held at Miles Saturday, Nov. 22. This makes the second meeting of this kind to be held in Miles since Col. Stanley's project was broached a few weeks ago.

The Miles Irrigation Club, headed by Geo. S. Graves as chairman, and J. S. Mills as secretary, in a circular letter to many farmers of the Miles section, urge every farmer interested in irrigation to attend the big meet which promises to be the largest so far held in this county. At the first meeting held several days ago many farmers and business men missed the opportunity to attend, and it is believed that the attendance Saturday will far surpass any of the former meets.

The Miles people have taken Col. Stanley's proposition up in earnest and everything points there towards the acceptance of the plans of the promotor for irrigating 100,000 acres between Bronte and Ballinger.

Many Ballinger business men interested indirectly in Col. Stanley's proposition and many farmers interested directly announced this morning their intentions to go to Miles Saturday.

Col. Stanley is in Ballinger now reviewing his proposition with several farmers who own land that will be benefited by the irrigation project materializing, and is meeting with considerable encouragement. He stated Wednesday morning to a Ledger reporter that there

CITY BUILDING NOTES By L. M. Ward.

Did you ever try falling in love with your town?

Intelligent activity always accomplishes results.

The perpetual dreamer is usually tardy in reaching the goal.

Progress waits upon the heels of education and constructive development upon both.

Blessed are the peace makers, for they shall lead the forces of successful accomplishment.

Stagnation is a most dangerous disease and one that has caused the death of many communities.

Some communities have had tombstones erected over them when they were simply indulging in care-free repose. The line of demarcation between death and inactivity is but faintly defined.

FARM FACTS.

By Peter Radford. There is not enough of the community spirit among our rural districts.

A first class man cannot be raised on a farm where there are scrub stock.

When we have industrialized farming then we have done something for our country.

A farm cannot be properly conducted without livestock production and soil fertilization.

It is not gross income but judicious investing of the margin of profit that provides against the rainy day.

Co-operation between practical farmers and proficient business men will eliminate ignorance and prejudice.

Toilers of the land have been accused of being selfish without ambition, yet many people envy them of the content their satisfaction brings.

What is good for Headache

One lady says after suffering dreadfully for about seven years, she tried Hunt's Lightning Oil, which almost instantly relieved her, and has been entirely free from those dreadful headaches since. Ask your druggist.

PROGRESS PARAGRAPHS.

Taylor is to have a new daily paper. A company capitalized at $10,000 has been chartered and the initial issue will appear in a few days.

San Angelo nut growers are holding their nuts for higher prices. The market is glatted at this time and as a result there has been a heavy decrease in price.

Houston entertained the National Nut Growers' Association last week and delegates representing nearly every state in the Union were present. The association went on record as favoring the establishment of a National Nut Growers Exchange and asked the Federal Government to aid in the nut growing industry of America.

Corpus Christi is preparing for a big celebration to be held on Christmas day in honor of the completion of the San Antonio, Uvalde and Gulf Railway into that city. The line will connect San Antonio with the Gulf of Mexico.

Palestine is witnessing an era of building. Contract has just been awarded for a $90,000 hotel and work has started on a new courthouse, theatre and public library.

Fort Stockton voters have petitioned the city council to call an election to determine the issuance of bonds to the amount of $50,000 for a waterworks and sewer system.

Calvert Precinct of Robertson county has awarded contract for 50 miles of graveled roads and work will begin at once. A San Antonio firm secured the contract.

Brownwood is to have a new and modern opera house. A stock company has been organized with sound financial backing. The structure will cost $30,000 completed.

San Angelo citizens have grown enthusiastic over the success of their fair and it is planned to expend $10,000 in improving the fair grounds at that place during the next twelve months.

Galveston recently received the first cargo of free corn admitted into the United States under the provisions of the Simmons-Underwood Tariff Law. The shipment consisted of 48 tons of South American cereal and was billed to a Wichita Falls milling concern.

Fort Stockton parties are negotiating with a Boston firm which contemplates irrigating 42,000 acres near that city. The tract will be cut up into small farms and colonized.

SOME CRIPPLES.

Dan Moser is going on three legs as the result of a friendly scuffle, in which he sustained a sprained ankle.

C. J. Lynn is nursing a pet in the form of a boil on his hand. The trouble is giving him no little pain and causes him to carry the cripple hand in a sling.

In damp, chilly weather there is always a large demand for Ballard's Snow Liniment because many people who know by experience its great relieving power in rheumatic aches, and pains prepare to apply it at the first twinge. Price, 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by The Walker Drug Co.

MANY COUNTY VOTE GOOD ROADS BONDS.

Bareketville, Tex., Nov. 19.—The good roads bond election held in this county recently carried by a good majority, although a light vote was polled. The amount of the issue is $80,000 and will be used to construct a system of high ways throughout Kinney County. The bonds will be disposed of at an early date and actual work will start immediately.

Bond Bonds Carry in Walker Co. Huntsville, Tex., Nov. 19.—The taxpayers of this county voted the issuance of good roads bonds to the amount of $150,000 a few days ago by a vote of 3 to 1. The proceeds of this election will be used in building a portion of the Dallas to the Gulf air line.

Bell County Will Hold Third Bond Election.

Belton, Tex., Nov. 19.—December 20th is the date set aside by the commissioners of Bell county to vote on a good roads bond election in the sum of $30,000. The election will be held in Justice Precinct No. 3 and the proceeds will be used to construct several miles of graveled and other kinds of highways.

CLASH OF FEEDS.

Fort Worth Show, November 22 to 29, Will Be Virtual Education to Producers.

A significant clash of "feeds as well as breeds" will be witnessed in the magnificent hog exhibits that will be made in the National Feeders and Breeders' Show, which will be held at Fort Worth November 22 to 29.

Hog producers throughout Texas and Oklahoma have been forwarding entries in great numbers and it is learned that the hogs that will be on display have been fattened on a variety of feeds—principally kaffir corn, milo maize, Indian corn and peanuts. The supremacy of corn as a feed for hogs will be questioned and feeders and breeders are awaiting with interest the decisions of the judges. From the Panhandle is coming the hog that has never eaten a grain of corn in its life, but is sleek and well-finished on kaffir corn and milo maize. From other sections of the State will come hogs that roamed at will through acres of peanuts and have attained the "battleship" state. And the corn-fed variety, pampered with the "golden" grains, will be on hand to defend the title he has held so long. It is expected that the latter will not have altogether easy going.

The awards in the hog department will be more liberal than ever before and a number of new classes have been added. Entries have already been received in great number. Producer, big and little, will meet in competition.

The grass-fatted sheep of South west Texas, that section which has been in such a flourishing condition this year, will compete with its more pampered relatives that have been nurtured and carefully fed on the stock farms of North Texas. This will be the first time that Southwest Texas sheep have been entered in the show, but the producers, who have raised the standards of their breeds greatly within the past few years, anticipate carrying off many prizes. Additional classes and more prizes have been added in the sheep division. For the first time, Oxford Downs and Rambouillets will be given recognition. All of the standard breeds will be represented in the magnificent exhibit. The foremost breeders in the State have already entered and the small farmer is showing greater interest than ever before.

was little doubt of the project going through, that farmers along the route were taking up the question in earnest and with favor.

The circular letter addressed to every farmer and land owner of the Miles and Rowena country, interested in the irrigation project is as follows:

Knowing that a great many of you were not present at last Friday's meeting we have decided to call this a second meeting which will be held at the Opera House in Miles on next Saturday afternoon at 1:30 for the purpose of reviewing Mr. Chas. M. Stanley's irrigation plans, believing that you have not yet fully understood its purpose and the lasting and great benefits that you will derive therefrom. Come out and bring your family with you that they too may hear the matter discussed and get from Mr. Stanley a thorough and fuller understanding of his plans, etc.

We have taken the pains to investigate Mr. Stanley and find him to be a man of his word and able to back it up in every respect. His stupendous project we believe is going to be realized and the farmer who gets in on the ground floor is the one who will reap the benefits.

Farmers of other nearby communities are accepting the proposition and appropriating the waters and we feel that we would be derelict in our duty if we fail to avail ourselves of the same advantages. Come and let us investigate the whole plan so that we will be in a position to accept or reject same.

RESOLUTIONS.

The solemn truth, "Ye know the hour when the Son of Man cometh," was never more strikingly brought home to us than when in sad and hushed tones it was voiced from one to another that the wife of Sovereign T. T. Crosson had crossed "the bourne that country undiscovered save as revealed by faith."

The sudden taking of our Sovereign's life companion calls to memory the poet's words:

"Life is a sheet of paper while, Upon which each one of us may write, His little word—and then 'tis night."

What have we written? Some of us, as it were, have just begun, others of us nearing the end. Our sister has finished and we feel could have said "I have written no word, that dying, I wish to erase."

The going of this good woman is a loss to humanity and we all, who have suffered, can say:

"We share our mutual woes; Our mutual burdens bear, And often for each other flows The sympathizing tear."

We bow our heads in sorrow at the great loss but the words of commendation we speak of the dead are empty forms, except as they bring to the living something of hope, cheer or encouragement. We offer to our beloved Sovereign in this, his greatest of sorrows, our heartfelt sympathy and commend him to the source of all abiding comfort, our only sure refuge in time of trouble, and in this dark hour may we humbly pray:

"Lead kindly light, amid the encircling gloom,

Lead thou me on;

The night is dark and I am far from home,

Lead thou me on.

Keep thou my feet, I do not ask to see.

The distant scene; one step enough for me."

Resolved that this, our expression of sympathy, be placed on the minutes of Ballinger Camp and a copy be presented to our Sovereign.

J. R. LUSK,
J. WILMETT.

SAYS RUNNELS COUNTY BEATS THEM ALL

J. J. Nowell, of the New Home community, is among those who became a little discouraged and pulled up and left to find the place we have all heard so much about. Mr. Nowell went off several months ago, and while we have not been able to get a report direct from him, we understand that he traveled over South and Southwest Texas, and made a thorough inspection of the country, where it has been reported that money grows on trees, and all that you have to do is to walk under the tree and hold your pockets open. Whether Mr. Nowell found that place or not, we have not been able to learn, but we have it on good authority, that he is back in Runnels County for keeps and is hustling around now, getting located for another year. They will come back.

A tight feeling in the chest accompanied by a short dry cough, indicates an inflamed condition of the lungs. To relieve it buy the dollar size Ballard's Horehound Syrup; you get with each bottle a free Herrick's Red Pepper Porous Plaster for the chest. The syrup relaxes the tightness and the plaster draws out the inflammation. It is an ideal combination for curing colds settled in the lungs. Sold by The Walker Drug Co.

MORGAN JONES INSPECTING ORIENT ROAD

San Angelo, Nov. 19.—A report is current here that Morgan Jones, a railroad builder of the days gone by, has been inspecting the Orient system in Texas, for a coterie of eastern capitalists. The report has it that Mr. Jones will report as to the physical condition of the road and also as to whether or not it would be desirable property for these eastern men to put their money in. Mr. Jones was in San Angelo for a few hours Tuesday. From here he started to Alpine. He refused to tell why he was a visitor here or where he was going or what he was going to do, all of which he had a perfect right to do.

COMES FIFTY MILES TO MARKET.

J. R. Kimbell, of Ruth, Concho County, was here this week marketing cotton and attending to business. Notwithstanding that Mr. Kimbell lives about fifty miles from Ballinger, he does most of his trading and has been making Ballinger his market for many years. He got in the habit of coming here when Ballinger was the marketing place for a territory that covered a radius of sixty miles or more, and he has always found that it pays him. He makes three or four trips a year, and does most of his buying and selling here.

Mr. Kimbell gives a good report of the south end of Concho county. He said the farmers made more cotton than they have made for several years, and that most of them have feed enough to run them another year, and that the good price for cotton has put things in pretty good shape.

FEW PEOPLE GOING HUNTING.

According to the records in the county clerk's office, very few people in this county are hunting game in other counties this season. The game law requires that parties hunting in counties other than that in which they reside, must pay a license of $1.75, which is known as non-resident county hunting license. Up to noon Wednesday of this week there had only been fifteen licenses issued as follows: T. W. Vandevanter, Henry Vandevanter, R. G. Erwin, H. W. Lynn, J. G. Douglass, C. R. Stephens, J. O. Roots, Guy Adkins, R. P. Conn, Fayette Woods, J. A. Toliver, Curt Young, A. L. Garron, M. P. Curbo, E. L. Turner.

WHY DRUGGIST RECOMMEND

Vinol for Run-Down People.

If any one person should know the value of medicines it is the druggist who dispenses them and from our experience we want to say if people in this vicinity only knew the value of Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, (without oil) at this seasons of the year, we would not be able to supply the demand.

This is because Vinol is a combination of the two most world famed tonics, namely, the medicinal curative elements of cod livers without the oil, and iron for the blood.

Vinol tones up the digestive organs, purifies and enriches the blood, promotes healthful sleep and a normal appetite.

Old people, delicate children, run-down, overworked and tired women, should try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. The Walker Drug Co., Ballinger, Texas.

P. S. For pimples and blotches try our Saxo Salve. We guarantee it.

TEXAS NEGRO INVOKES THE UNWRITTEN LAW

Washington, Nov. 18.—On the ground that the "unwritten law" should apply to the negro as well as to the white man, Carl Oliver, a negro of Franklin County, Texas, today appealed to the supreme court to get set aside the death sentence imposed on him for the murder of Franklin D. Stanley, a white man. Oliver claimed he shot in self defense when he found Stanley with his wife.

Oliver's attorneys contend that the trial court erred in refusing to charge the jury that under the laws of Texas and the United States, a negro is entitled to the same rights in defending the honor of his house as a white man would be under the same circumstances.

YOUNG MAN ADJUDGED INSANE.

The county court officers and a committee of local physicians visited the home of the young man Wednesday afternoon, when they made the examination required by law, and adjudged Hardy Maxwell insane.

The new law requires that at least three physicians serve on the jury that passes on insanity cases, and this is the second case tried under the new law in this county.

The young man was in such condition he could not be brought to the court house, and the committee went to his home. He will be placed in the asylum as soon as a place for him can be secured.
