That The Daily Ledger is one of the best papers he has ever seen published in a town of Ballinger's population, is the statement made by C. A. McConnel of Kansas City, editor of the Holiness Herald. Mr. McConnell is attending the sessions of the Nazarene Assembly, meeting at Methodist church today.

Last night at the services, the editor declared that The Daily Ledger has gained a warm reception from the hands of those attending the assembly, because of its detailed accounts of the meetings. Never before in the smaller towns over the country, and seldom in the larger cities, has it been his experience to read detailed and interesting accounts of the proceedings of the assemblies. Mr. McConnell was well pleased with not only the news concerning the meeting of the delegates, but also of The Led ger's general news from all over the world.

PARTY MAKES THREE

Visiting three places in the county today in the interest of curtailing the cotton production next year. Joseph Tweedy of San Angelo, George, P. McLelland and Ed Boler of the Young Men's Business League left early today to make speeches at Norton, Wingate and Winters.

The first stop was made at Norton at 10 o'clock this morning, where they were given a reception by the farmers of that community in the school house. From Norton the trio went to Wingate where at 2 this afternoon speeches were made in the interest of a short cotton crop next year, diversification and the benefits of the cotton warehouse system. The last stop will be made at Winters at 4:30 this afternoon. From that place they will return to Ballin-

Mr. Tweedy addressed the audiences at the three places on the necessity of curtailing the 1915 cotton crop in order that the prices for the raw staple might be raised. Mr. McLelland, county farm demonstrator for Runnels, explained the value of diversification of crops. Secretary Boler of the Young Men's Business League emphasized the importance ble Compound. and benefits of the cotton warehouse system and the co-operation of the farmers and merchants. Mr Tweedy is organizer for the South ern Cotton Association.

Lasi Honor to England's Hero of War

LONDON, Nov. 19.—England paid her last tribute to "Fighting Bobs' today. In a cold, drizzling rain a vast crowd, rivaling the coronation throng when King George V was made king of Great Britain, stood with uncovered heads as the funeral cortege of Lord Roberts moved to Saint Paul's.

The pall bearers were six generals, two admirals and six field marshalls, who knew "Bobs" dur ing his great career.

King George, the cabinet officials and representatives of the allied powers attended the funeral, paying the highest possible honors to Great Britain's hero.

No woman suffering from any form of remale troubles should lose hope until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial. This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from native roots and herbs, has for forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism. Women everywhere bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.
