Lubbock Field Day Postponed

Due to the postponement of the 72nd annual field day of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station (TAES) in Lubbock. Planned for Tuesday, Sept. 8, the tours and presentations at the Texas A&M University Research and Extension Center north of Lubbock International Airport have been rescheduled for Wednesday, Sept. 16.

However, the High Plains Research Foundation will meet as scheduled at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday (Sept. 8) at the TAMU Research and Extension Center.

"We regret that weather and field conditions necessitate this change to Sept. 16," said Dr. Bill Ott, TAES resident director of research at the center. He said the program will remain the same at the rescheduled event. Tours will be conducted from 1 to 5 p.m. Stops will feature research on grapes, bollworm control, the cotton development program, weed control and drought tolerance.

Computer Cattle Auction Completes First Year

CATTLEX, a computerized auction and contract market for feeder-stocker cattle in Texas, is completing its first year of operation.

The operation was launched as a demonstration by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station in cooperation with the Texas and U.S. Departments of Agriculture to allow cattlemen the opportunity to try a new marketing system.

CATTLEX began initially with 18 market locations over the state and now boasts 29 in its network.

"Although the system offers a new look, mainly computer terminals, participants have not changed," emphasizes Dr. Ernie Davis, Extension livestock marketing specialist. "CATTLEX is operated by auction markets, order buyers, feedlots and producer marketing organizations. The system provides these marketing participants a fast, efficient method of pricing, locating and obtaining cattle."

In addition, the system allows cattlemen another pricing means. For example, an auction market could offer a rancher's cattle over the 11 a.m. daily CATTLEX auction. If the rancher is not satisfied

FmHA Administrator Is Keynote Speaker

Mr. Charles Schuman, Jr., Administrator of Farmers Home Administration (FmHA), Washington, D.C., will be one of several keynote speakers at the West Texas Business Exposition to be held in Lubbock Memorial Civic Center September 25 and 26. Schuman will discuss the new lending policy of the Farmers Home Administration.

Other outstanding speakers appearing at the annual Exposition include:

with the price he received over CATTLEX, he can refuse sale and sell through his local livestock auction that afternoon.

"Although computer marketing of cattle is relatively new, those providing the eyes, ears, arms and legs of the system—the graders—are certainly not newcomers to buying and selling cattle," notes Davis.

Graders physically view and describe all cattle listed on CATTLEX. These individuals have many years of livestock marketing experience and are associated with an auction market or an order buying

Eagles Shut-Out Grady 42-0

Three Way Eagles romped on Grady for a 42-0 win Friday night. The game was called at the end of play in the first half due to inclement weather.

The Fighting Eagles Louis Peacock rushed for 160 yards while Tommy Brown rushed for 140 yards.

Peacock threw a pass to Kevin Reeves for a 35 yard gain resulting in a TD for the Eagles. Peacock scored three times and Tommy Brown scored twice. Brown also kicked for two extra points and ran over once for 2.

Mr. Robert Boykin, President of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas; and Mr. Robert Sakowitz, Chairman of the Board, President, and Chief Executive Officer of Sakowitz, Inc., Houston, Texas.

Also featured will be a number of free seminars lead by knowledgeable speakers in a variety of fields. As an added attraction, numerous business, industry, university and Government exhibitors will display their goods and/or firm. They know cattle. In fact, the 55 graders that have been trained and certified by Texas A&M University represent a total of 825 years of livestock marketing experience or an average of 15 years per grader, points out the specialist.

"At the beginning of the CATTLEX project, selling cattle sight unseen to the buyer was expected to be the biggest problem," relates Davis. "After a year's operation, the description of cattle by graders has been one of the most successful aspects of the project. Buyers receiving cattle purchases over CATTLEX have been satisfied with the way cattle were represented. In fact, some buyers claim they get more information about

Triangle CBers Net $2146 For MD Drive

Last weekend the Triangle CB Club sponsored Muleshoe's local Muscular Dystrophy drive, Headquarters in the Bailey County Civic Center, many citizens of the CB club and the Llano Estacado Civic Club, manned the phones from early till late in an effort to raise funds for this worthy cause.

A great big "thank you" goes out to all the merchants and individuals who helped to make the drive a success again this year. A total of $2,146 was collected locally with other amounts that will be added to Bailey County's total when all is said and done.

The Triangle CB Club would like to thank everyone for their help but in particular, they thank General Telephone for the phone hook-ups, Gordon Wilson for the TV again this year, Muleshoe Antenna Company for the cable and the Bailey County Commissioners for use of the building at no

Despite a quick-firing Morton quarterback, the Muleshoe Mules edged out the Indians with a 15-8 win over the ever vengeful Morton squad at Benny Douglas stadium Friday night.

Coach Windy Williams had reason to be proud of his "Angry Black" Mules as they presented him with his first home game win as head coach at Muleshoe High. The "Black Dot" unity paid off and seemed to work well for the Mules, as they really began to meet in the first seconds of the second quarter.

The Mules received the ball on their 21 yard line with the open kickoff by Morton's Robert Johnson. A 30 yard punt by Angely gave Morton possession of the ball on their own 40 yard line. The Indians started a long drive on a 3rd down 13 yard pass by Cadenhead to draw first blood with a touchdown about 7 minutes into the first quarter. PAT was no good.

Early in the second quarter Mules quarterback Sam Gonzales pitched out a pass to Chris Kirvin who slipped by Morton defense for 36 yards and the Mules first touchdown. On the conversion, Mules Ronnie Angely carried the ball and cucumbers; Max Bush for the watermelons and tomatoes. Also a thanks to the anonymous donor who left 13 watermelons in front of the Civic Center. R.L. Scott also provided watermelons for the telethon.

Migrant Council Distributes Books

T.J. Powers contributed onions, Fry and Cox, Inc. contributed wheelbarrows, a socket set and booster cables.

Local grocers Pay and Save, White's Cashway and Shop Rite provided many supplies for the concession stand.

Margie Hawkins at the Dairy Queen provided lunch for MD workers, while the Corral Restaurant provided breakfast for them on Monday morning.

Sherry's Art Shack donated two picture frames and a paint set for auction. Janie Moraw made some of her famous chili for the concession stand. As usual Janie is always in the middle of helping her felover the goal line for a two point lead over the Indians.

While the Indians seemed to dominate the first quarter, the fighting Mules fired-up and monopolized the second.

Cadenhead managed to fire off several passes in the first half for a total of 49 yards, but, the Indians caught several penalties along the way.

At the end of play in the first half Muleshoe led the Indians with 8-6, with the Mules gaining 51 yards rushing and 19 passing in the first half to Morton's 5 rushing and 49 passing. Both teams lost several chances to score and they seemed unable to put it together.

Early in the 2nd half the Indians pushed the Mules back into their end zone for a safety, tying the game 8-8.

The next several plays were riddled with errors and penalties up into the third quarter of play. Cadenhead again managed to go over the Mules heads in the fourth quarter, but was unable to pull out a receiver for his passes. The talented Morton quarterback treated fans to a display of his aerial ability and the Mules saw more passes than they would

Remember the plateaus wheat yields were supposed to reach? The lead wheat researcher for the U.S.D.A. says that plateau may well turn into a mountain, with its peak somewhere in the clouds. Dr. Virgil Johnson of the University of Nebraska says plant scientists had feared a wheat yield leveling in the near future. However, this may not come to pass. This good news is partly due to new varieties, particularly newly developed semi-dwarf varieties which, he believes, will cause yield figures to continue to rise. Johnson maintains that even in the face of severe restraints in the Great Plains area, such as drought, severe winter weather and disease attack, present varieties have the genetic potential to achieve yields up to 100 bushels per acre under the right environmental conditions. Breeding in better resistance, according to Johnson, will certainly make a mountain out of that wheat yield plateau.

Miss Ott, Prather Exchange Doublering Vows

Miss Pamela Kay Ott of Earth became the bride of Joe Dan Prather of Muleshoe at 4 p.m. Saturday, August 15 in the United Methodist Church. Rev. Johnny Williams of Lubbock read the double ring vows.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Raybern Ott of Earth and Mr. and Mrs.

Donald Prather of Muleshoe.

Two candelabras, featuring 40 blue candles, were entwined with greenery decorated the altar. The unity candle was accented with greenery on each side. Greenery, silk and fresh flowers marked the pews.

Mrs. Bob Belew organist accompanied Bene Belew, soloist, as she sang "Precious Few" and "Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a formal floor length wedding gown of sheer organza and re-embroidered Chantilly lace over bridal taffeta designed with a Queen Anne neckline, empire waist, long bishop sleeves and bouffant skirt.

Inserts of lace, enhanced with tiny seed pearls, complimented the neckline, bodice, sleeves and skirt. Rows of ruffles on the skirt fell in waterfall fashion and the full back of the gown ended in a sweeping chapel length train. Her veil of imported illusion fell from a coil.

She carried a cascade bouquet of blue silk and fresh flowers accented with baby's breath.

In keeping with tradition she wore a hat pin belonging to her great grandmother for something old. Something new was her dress, something borrowed was her sister's Bible, something blue was the blue garter worn by her mother in law at her wedding and pennies with their birthdates in her shoe.

Mrs. Scotty Farley of Muleshoe, served her sister as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Kay Lynn Prather, sister of the groom, of Muleshoe, Brene Belew of Earth and Tammy Simpson of Springlake. The attendants wore identical blue formal floor length off the shoulder dresses, caught at the waist with the blue ribbon. They wore flower hair pieces and carried nose gays of silk and fresh blue flowers.

Flower girl was Kelly Edgar of Amarillo. Her dress was identical to that of the other attendants. She carried a white lace basket filled with white and blue love knots.

Candlelighters were Benetta Roming of Muleshoe and Debbie Pittman of Earth. Misti Ott of Muleshoe and Laurie Embry of Earth passed out scroll gifts.

Jim Overman of Muleshoe served as best man. Groomsmen were Robby Young and Albert Rand of Muleshoe and Bill Hodnett of Three Way. Ring bearer was Jason Edgar of Amarillo.

The groom wore a white tuxedo trimmed in satin and a ruffled shirt. His attendants wore pale blue tuxedos trimmed in medium blue with matching shirts.

Ushers were Sammy Ott of Earth, brother of the bride; Scotty Farley, brother in law of the bride of Muleshoe and Sonny Arndt of Pagosa Springs, Colo.

For her daughters wedding Mrs. Ott wore a floor length lilac dress with a corsage of fresh flowers.

Mrs. Prather, mother of the groom, chose a floor length pink lace dress with a white fresh flower corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church. Kelly Overman registered the guests. Beth Harmon and Carol Rand were the servers. The bride's grandmother Mrs. Irvin Ott of Earth, baked and decorated the wedding cake. Charla and Christi passed out rice bags.

Testing For Makeup Color

Choosing a color for makeup foundation? Always do the testing in natural light, advises Nancy Brown, a clothing specialist. Many stores do not have adequate lighting, she adds.

Also, use the jawline to test the shade of makeup. Color should blend in perfectly when thinly applied, she says.

"I HAVEN'T GIVEN UP ANYTHING TO GET MY NEW FIGURE!"

Minus 60 1/4 pounds and 59 1/2 inches she's wearing size 8 jeans and still losing.

UNDERSTANDABLY PROUD, DONNA HOLMES SHARES HER ENTHUSIASM:

All my friends say I'm a clothes horse. Maybe I am, but for the first time in my life I can walk into a store and pick anything off the rack and be able to wear it and know it looks good. I can even shop in exclusive small size shops.

One thing that I think is so good about the program is that I haven't given up anything to get my new figure. Pat Walker's has helped me get to where I am now in my new life. I know they will be there to assist me while I am completing my program. The treatments are relaxing and the food combinations are really simple to follow. There isn't even a hassle when you go out to eat.

When anyone asks me if it has been worth it, all I can say is YES! Some people don't even recognize me, I have changed so much. I thought I was almost to the point of no return. But remember! If I can do it, so can you . . . with the Pat Walker plan!

More Americans Putting Off Retirement

More Americans are putting off retirement than ever before, Bonnie Piernot, a family resource management specialist, reports.

While inflation and the persistent climate of economic uncertainty are two key reasons for this trend, there are two contributing factors, also, she explains.

They are increased longevity and the ability to work later in life due to improved medical care and the psychological rewards of work.

"Add to this any additional comments the grader may have about the cattle plus merchandizing information supplied by the owner and the buyer should have complete information on the lot of cattle," says Davis.

All this descriptive information comes through the eyes of highly skilled, experienced cattlemen in whom CATTLEX buyers have gained trust and confidence, he adds.

Hands On Ranching Experience Offered At Tech

Ranching is a lot more than strumming a guitar on the front porch, as four Texas Tech University students found out this summer.

Mending fences, greasing windmills, branding and dehorning cattle were all part of their unromantic tasks.

That's the type of hands-on experience, an agricultural sciences professor, Dr. Fred C. Bryant, was aiming at when he established the first working ranch internship program available in the western states.

"Most of the students when they graduate are hired by state and federal agencies to work with ranchers on a daily basis," Bryant explained. "More and more, students are coming from urban area and don't understand ranchers, but have to give them management advice."

The program, which has been in organizational stages for two years, solicits students who want to learn the ins and outs of ranch life and teams them up with interested ranchers.

The International Society for Range Management, to which Bryant belongs, has been promoting the institution of such a program, with Texas Tech being the first to put the plan into practice. Because of its success this first year, Bryant said, the local program will serve as a model to other universities interested in its establishment.

Bryant admitted ranchers were reluctant to accept students, but all four sponsoring ranchers have requested another intern next summer.

"So far, the positive response has been phenomenal," Bryant said.

John Lovell, a Clarendon rancher who worked with Texas Tech intern Richard Smith this summer, supported Bryant's enthusiasm for the program.

"It allowed me to have an extra hand in the summer when people are hard to find," Lovell said.

The 60-hour work week, driving tractors and mending fences at the Lovell ranch, taught Smith "the important things people without rural backgrounds don't usually know," Lovell noted.

Texas Tech range and wildlife students participating in the program included Richard Smith of Sweetwater, Steve Wesley of Tullia, Gary Hamby of Lubbock and John Fanta of Iowa City, Iowa.

"This will be a real plus for their resumes," Bryant said of students' chances with prospective employers who look favorably on experience in the field.

Ranchers participating in the program will be honored at the annual Agriculture Council Pig Roast Nov. 19 at Texas Tech. The ranchers include Lovell and Jim Robinson, both of Clarendon, James Hefly of McLean and Dr. Henry Martinez of Amarillo, owner of a McLean ranch managed by Tim Fitch.

"We wanted to make students aware of the day-to-day operations of a ranch as well as improve relations with the ranching industry," Bryant said.

Students in the program were given room and wages. In return they were expected to work six days a week from sunrise until after sunset. The hard work, Bryant added, gave the students a working knowledge of ranching not available in textbooks.

A screening committee made up of Bryant and two additional faculty members will select 1982 ranch interns in January. Student and rancher pairings will be announced by March 15, 1982.

"We'd like to place 10 to 15 students next summer," Bryant said. "We'd also like to get ranchers from New Mexico involved."

History, in general, only informs us what bad government is.

Senior Citizens Discount Hearing Aids Available

The publication of a new Senior Citizen Discount Hearing Aid catalog has been announced by American Health Service, Inc. American Health Service, Inc. is an organization serving the hearing needs of the American public through the sale of brand name hearing aids at substantial savings direct by mail. They specialize in the sale of replacement hearing aids to existing hearing aid users and focus their attention to senior citizen groups, clubs, organizations, associations, and individuals according to Mrs. Julie A. Stastny, Supervisor of Customer Service for American Health Service, Inc.

Unfortunately hearing aids do not last forever. In fact, according to "Facts About Hearing Aids" published by the Council of Better Business Bureaus, Washington, D.C. 20036, "it is estimated that the average life of a hearing aid in daily use is about three years." Mrs. Stastny noted that the catalog contains over 400 models of hearing aids made by more than twenty of the leading manufacturers and that when buying a replacement aid direct through American Health Services, Inc., savings can amount to as much as 60% compared to retail prices.

With the limited income of most senior citizens, and the spiraling inflation in today's economy, this catalog can bring welcome relief to senior citizens on a limited budget and in need of a new hearing aid. If you wear a hearing aid, or know someone who does, you can send for a free copy of the catalog by writing to American Health Catalog, 1206 Golf Road, Waukegan, IL 60085.

Despite flooding, Texas still faces water shortages

COLLEGE STATION — Recent heavy rains covering most of the state may alleviate some surface water shortages, says the director of the Texas Water Resources Institute, but Texas still faces a water crisis that could be more severe than the present energy crisis.

"The lack of rain last year has reduced the amount of surface water available and ground water supplies are being used up faster than they are being replenished," said Dr. Jack Runkles. "This presents problems to cities and municipalities, the energy industry and particularly in agriculture."

While the developing water crisis will affect the entire nation, it will be most severe in Texas and the Southwest as the population continues to grow, said Runkles, who predicts by the year 2000 Texans will be consuming 24 billion gallons of water a day, up from an estimated 15 billion gallons a day currently. Part of the Texas A&M University System, the water resources institute conducts long-range studies on water use and technology to improve the efficiency of use.

ACT Tests Scheduled

Juniors and seniors who are thinking of going on to school after graduation will want to take note of a recent announcement by Mr. Gramling, H.S. Counselor about the national test date schedule for the ACT Assessment Program.

Students who want to take the test portion of the ACT Assessment on the first 1981-82 national test date, October 17, must have their registration materials completed and mailed before the September 18 deadline. The full 1981-82 schedule of test dates and deadlines is as follows:

TEST REGISTRATION DATE	DEADLINE
October 17, 1981	Sept. 18
Dec. 12, 1981	Nov. 13
Feb. 20, 1981	Jan. 27
April 3, 1981	March 5
June 12, 1982	May 14

The basic student fee for using the ACT Assessment is $8.50. Students can obtain ACT Assessment registration packets, as well as other college and career planning materials, from the counseling office.

At area test centers on national test dates it will take students about three hours to complete the four exams (English, Math, Social Studies, and Natural Sciences) that make up the ACT Assessment's test section. The program's other section is a two-part questionnaire, which is completed at home by students as part of the registration process. In order that students may be familiar with the character and format of test items and responses, a copy of a full-length test booklet is available in the guidance office.

Students who wish copies of additional tests may obtain them upon request from ACT at cost.

Information reports resulting from the tests and the questionnaire are sent to the students and their high school counselors, as well as to those colleges and other institutions specifically designated by the students.

It is recommended that students use the ACT Assessment during their junior year or early in the senior year so that resulting information will be available in time to be of maximum assistance to students and their counselors in education and career planning. Muleshoe High School students who are uncertain if they need to use the ACT Assessment, or are concerned about location of the nearest test center, are urged to contact Mr. Gramling.

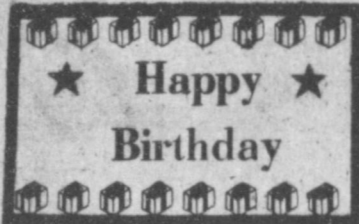

Recommended or required for use by applicants at nearly 2,700 colleges, other postsecondary education schools, and scholarship programs, the ACT Assessment is used each year by nearly one million students.

MHS Cheerleaders Hard At Work

In May of every school year a new group of cheerleaders are elected. Within the next week these girls are already working to make money to attend summer cheerleading camp.

Last May, Jill Turner, Robin Burgess, Susie Pierce, Berna Lopez, Kelly Bayless, and Rhonda Dunham were chosen to be the 1981-82 Muleshoe Varsity Cheerleaders and Laura Leal was chosen Mascot. They worked hard all summer getting ready for camp and making money to get shoes, megaphones, new suits for camp and supplies needed for spirit raising activities.

The cheerleaders attended Universal Cheerleaders Association Summer Camp, the biggest in Texas. The camp which was held at Southwest Texas State University in San Marcos had over one hundred cheerleading squads and almost 700 cheerleaders participating. The Muleshoe squad was one of the smallest squads at the camp, but this didn't keep them from being recognized. The girls were one of the eleven squads asked to perform their cheer for the entire camp on the first night of evaluation. The Muleshoe squad received six blue superior ribbons and one red excellent ribbon on the evaluation of their performance in game situation chants and crowd appealing cheers during other nights at camp. They also won the spirit stick award three of the five days. This entitled them to bring the spirit stick home with them. It will be on display in the trophy case at the high school along with the ribbons.

The cheerleaders led the first pep rally before the Portales game on September 4. The spent many afternoons and nights at the gym that week preparing for the rally. At the pep rally, posters, black and white streamers, and black dots covered the gym walls. The cheerleaders led the students, faculty, and townspeople in chants and cheers.

Pep rallies are held every Friday at 2:50 p.m. The cheerleaders have planned many new spirit raising activities to get the Angry Black fired up.

In addition to cheering at the Friday night games other cheerleader activities included serving the football team refreshments during summer workouts, painting the varsity dressing room door, hosting a slumber party for the Junior Varsity and Junior High cheerleaders, decorating players lockers and making game favors for them.

These girls work extremely hard not only during football season, but throughout the year.

AUSTIN—One of the most frequent complaints expressed by homeowners is that they need more space. The usual practice in the past was to trade-up to sell the present home and use the profit to make a down payment on a bigger house. However, with house prices and mortgage rates making "trading-up" almost a thing of the past, homeowners are now deciding to add to their present homes.

The homeowners, if they should decide to keep their present homes and make them larger, should think about where to spend their money so that their present homes will better meet their needs and be a good investment as well. Adding another bedroom to the present home would, in most occasions, turn out to be the best expenditure that the homeowner could make. If the present home contains two bedrooms, adding a third bedroom will reap the highest return for the homeowner when and if the home is sold at a later date. A three bedroom house sells faster than a two bedroom house.

If the present home has three bedrooms, return on investment in upgrading the home by adding a fourth bedroom is still positive but not as attractive as in the conversion of the two bedroom home to a three bedroom home. Adding a fifth bedroom to a four bedroom home does not give a good rate of return on the investment because a five bedroom home is slow to sell. The higher price of a five bedroom home and the lack of sufficient demand by large families with sufficient incomes to buy such five bedroom homes make such homes harder to sell.

Where can an additional bedroom be added? What area of the house would best benefit from the additional bedroom? Should a present den be made into the bedroom and the additional room be made into the den? Where can the additional bedroom be added so a minimum of the "useful" yard won't be lost? Should the additional bedroom be stacked on top of an existing room or on top of the garage? How do you decide?

The first thing to do is to measure all the rooms of the house including the thickness of the walls and draw them out on graph paper. Then scale cutouts of major pieces of furniture should be made so that they can be arranged on the graph paper to get an idea of how the traffic flow can be controlled so there is a minimum of walking around furniture. Perhaps a new doorway should be added. Such decisions can be determined by studying the layout of the home on graph paper.

Once the decision is made as to where the additional bedroom will be, you should decide whether to tackle the job or contract with a builder to build it for you.

Ask several builders and home improvement contractors to submit bids and give references from other jobs done. Also, be sure to contact the Better Business Bureau and other reporting agencies to find out if the contractor is reputable.

Once you decide on a contractor (assuming you decide not to tackle the job yourself), be sure all terms of the contract are understandable and agreed to in writing. It is best not to leave anything to memory or to an oral agreement. Be sure all possibilities are covered in the contract to include, but not limited to, delays, date of beginning, date of termination, and amount of dollars to be forwarded at what stages of the building.

Best of all, contact an attorney to draw up the contract for you and advise you of your rights and obligations to the suppliers of the builder with whom you contract.

STEEL BELTED RADIAL
Polyester/Steel Whitewall

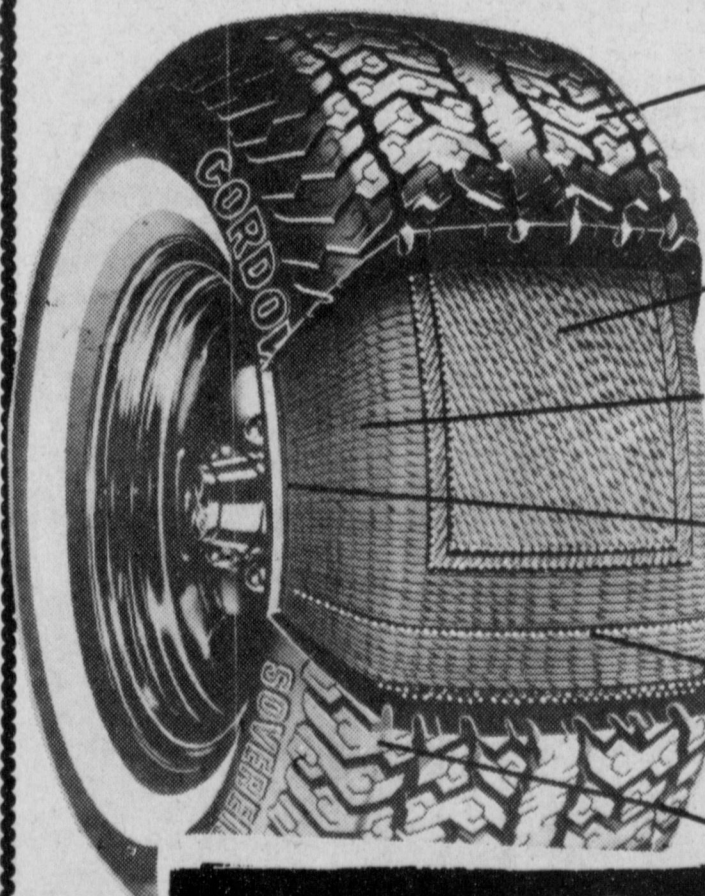

A new kind of tire for year round driving

Wherever you drive, whatever the season — no matter what the conditions — the new Cordovan Premier IV ALL SEASONS radial is the perfect answer to your driving needs.

No matter where you live, weather can surprise you — slippery downpours of rain or muddy areas can suddenly turn dry roads into very dangerous driving conditions.

The Cordovan Premier IV ALL SEASONS Radial gives you freedom! No need to worry about unexpected weather changes or road conditions. Go where you want to go — at any time with complete confidence in tire performance.

If you live where it's sunny and drive to the snowy mountains, or live where one type of tire is needed for winter driving and decide to vacation in the sunny south you'll have the right tires on your car.

ALL WEATHER COMPUTER DESIGNED TREAD

A quiet running, computer-designed tread channels water away to provide excellent gripping action for any type of road condition — wet or dry. New tread compounding remains flexible in cold weather for extra traction on ice or snow.

ARAMID BELTS

Provides a more comfortable ride than steel. Aramid belts increase your protection from cuts, punctures and other road hazards.

POLYESTER RADIAL PLYS

Polyester cord radial plies run from bead to bead. These strong body plies absorb bumps and road shock. Radial construction keeps the tread flat on the road for great control, even on curves.

SPECIAL SIDEWALL REINFORCEMENTS

A special high modulus apex strip is positioned above the tire bead. This stabilizes the sidewall for more positive steering action and recovery on sharp turns.

RADIAL CONSTRUCTION

Radial construction minimizes flexion and tread distortion for long tread life. You benefit with better gas economy, improved traction and handling and superior control on curves.

NEUTRAL CONTOUR TIRE SHAPE

New stress-free neutral contour has been designed to relieve internal stress points at belt edges. Engineered for uniform strength and performance.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
