Rev. J. W. Bost of the Nazarene church, moved into the new parsonage near the church east of the court house Monday. The Nazarene church has owned a small parsonage near the church for some time, but it was too small to take care of the pastor and his family and Rev. Bost has been living just north of the Sanitarium on the north side of the railroad His congregation recently got busy and enlarged their parsonage, and now their pastor is living at home, and is convenient to his work.

HERE'S WHERE TOWN WOMAN COULD MEN HELP FARMERS

The business men of this city will be made to feel good by reading the following letter. The letter was received by A. C. Homann, Girst of the week, and came from a farmer living about twenty miles from Ballinger. The letter was not written for publication, and Mr. Homann would only consent that we use the letter without publishing the writer's name.

The business men of Ballinger have long felt that it was a mistake to let the demonstration work in this county cease, and have therefore made a special effort to again inaugurate the work here. This effort, we are glad to announce, will soon be realized and the work of the demonstration agent will cover the entire coun- were useless and only an operation ty, wherever the farmer wants him, just as the work was carried on before. HOTPOINT ELECTRIC IRON.

Those hot summer days will soon be here when ironing is irksome unless you have the right kind of iron. If you have a HOTPOINT ironing will be a pleasure.

During the past eleven months we have sold in Ballinger slightly over one hundred HOTPOINT IRONS and, as we have had no complaints, we are justified in recommending this iron unqualifiedly. PHONE US.

This is a good time, too, to have your house wired if you do not have electric service. A 'phone call will bring an estimate of the cost.

The New Things are Here in Silks. A Wonderful Sale Begins Thursday, March 1st Lasts Through Monday

Unexpected Sale of Spring

SILKS

Crepe-de-Chine

40 inch silk crepe-de-chine, in pink, light blue, Copenhagen, black, white, yel-low, values $1.75, special sale, yard, $1.39

Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Monday, March 1st., 2nd., 3rd., 5th

A large under-priced offering of highly desirable silks is scarcely to be expected at this store, for two reasons.

FIRST-Because buying time is here with silks in greater favor than ever.

SECOND-Because all novelties and plain colorings are very high and scarce, and in great demand.
