Men Will Have To Remove Wheel And Inspection

In an effort to prevent accidents which might occur due to brake failures, the Department's earlier regulation had required that the wheel be removed for the principal purpose of determining the percentage of thickness of the remaining brake lining. Inspection stations found difficulty in making these inspections due to the fact that there was no accurate way of determining the original thickness and the decision in each case was left to the inspecting mechanic who had no satisfactory guide to follow.

The change in regulations, which resulted from action of the Public Safety Commission, does not affect the remainder of the inspection of brakes, which will still be required to have the performance ability required by statute.

Col. Garrison announced that this change in the regulations was made in the interest of fairness to the inspection stations and to the motoring public.

County Asked For Funds To Repair Ranger Hospital

A request for some $50,000 to be spent on repairs for the city-county hospital at Ranger was made by a committee of members of the Ranger General Hospital board of directors when they appeared before the Eastland County Commissioners Court last Monday.

The city of Ranger and Eastland County jointly own Ranger General Hospital. Ranger city commissioners name three members of the board of directors and the county names three.

Those appearing before the Commissioners Court were: Morris Newnam and Bill Herrington of Ranger and Don Parker and Bernard Hanna of Eastland. The four men asked that the county take money from its permanent improvement fund to re-

Area Receives Beneficial Rains

The Carbon community, along with the rest of the county, has received beneficial rains as to getting a lasting underground season. Unlike the heavy rains of last spring, the rain has fallen slowly and much of the time has been reduced to a misty drizzle, therefore there has been little or no run off with all the moisture soaking into the ground which is of great value to the grazing and ranch land.

However the peanut farmer has been casting an anxious eye toward the moisture laden clouds. With practically all the peanuts still in the ground, the farmers would be glad to see a few weeks fair weather for harvesting the crop. It is the general opinion of the farmers that the peanuts have not suffered great damage from the moisture if they are able to harvest within the next few weeks. The hay was blackened by recent heavy frosts.

The weather forecasters predict the skies will probably be clearing tonight and tomorrow which would be a welcome event to all at this time.

The Carbon school has been closed since Tuesday due to the impossibility of the buses getting over the muddy roads. The school will remain closed until Monday, Supt. R. P. Browder said.

They reported on the bad condition of the kitchen and that cracks were in most of the walls.

County Attorney Joe Nussald was requested to seek an opinion from the attorney-general as to whether county money could be spent on the hospital. At present the county gives $150 a month to Ranger General Hospital. The hospital cares for all county patients.

4-H Club News

Arrangements have been completed for the club boys who plan to secure lambs to feed out to get them on next Saturday morning, Nov. 2, according to word at the county agent's office. Lambs are scarce and higher in price than last fall, it was said. Lambs are very popular as projects for boys.

Jimmy Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Wright, Eastland, already has his two lambs on feed for the show. He secured the lambs from Walter Kurklin prominent sheep raiser at Cisco.

Jack Callaway, Rising Star, is doing a very good job of feeding and training the Hereford steer that he won at the Houston Beef Calf Scramble last March. His calf weighs about 565 pounds now and is gaining over three pounds per day. He plans to show it at Abilene in February and then take it on to Houston to compete with the other scramble calves.

Jack is feeding out another calf for the county show next spring. Jack has been a 4-H Club member for nine years and has fed calves for shows all that time.

The Electric Team Demonstration contest has attracted the interest of over sixty 4-H Club boys and girls of Eastland County. In the contest there will be two members per team, consisting of two boys, a boy and a girl or two girls. The teams can put on demonstrations on a general subject such as "The Many uses of Electricity on our Farm and in our Home," or a specific subject such as "Repairing Extension Cords."

The teams will compete against each other in the county elimination contest held in the early spring and the winning team will compete in the District contest at Tarleton College next April. To go to Tarleton College to compete there the team members must be thirteen years old by January 1st.

4-H Club News

Mike Thornell, who did such a good job as master of ceremonies at the 4-H Rally Day at the City Park in Eastland one evening last spring, made the Dallas Fair trip on October 5 and reports a good time. Mike is an Eastland boy and was president of the club there last year.

A total of 22 boys from the Gorman, Cisco, Rising Star, Scranton, Ranger and Eastland Clubs are planning on pigs for projects. Pigs of the Duroc Jersey (red) breed are the most popular among the boys. A decade ago pigs of the O.I.C. or Chester White breed were common but one rarely sees them in the county today.

King was named to two different offices. He was named as the vice-president and also the 4-H county council delegate. Other officers included Don Hooper, reporter, and Roney Tye, secretary-treasurer. Hooper was formerly a member of the Junior High Club in Eastland.

There is also a 4-H Club in both Hodges Oak Park and Young Schools in Ranger.

On the list of food plentiful now, sweet potatoes offer food value and fuel for energy. Extension foods and nutrition specialists remind us that the Texas Food Standard calls for a serving of potatoes — sweet or Irish — every day. Baking sweet potatoes retains much of the flavor and food value, and saves time for the cook. All you do is to wash and dry the potato; greasing before baking serves no real purpose. Bake one hour in a moderate oven (350° F.) for medium-sized potatoes.

Potatoes may "leak" if baked too long or with too high heat. Test for doneness by pressing rather than puncturing with a fork. Left-over sweet potatoes will keep for several days in the refrigerator. Serve them mashed, fried or candied. Citrus juices, tart apples, and nuts combine well with the flavor of sweet potatoes.

Dwight Squires was named president of the Ranger Junior High 4-H Club at their initial meeting recently. Johnny Bob

Make better sandwiches in less time. Set up an assembly-line sandwich center in your kitchen. Locate the center at a kitchen table, a breakfast counter or a portion of the cabinet where you'll have room to work. A cupboard that pulls out of the counter works fine, too. Keep supplies on a shelf or in a drawer near by. If space is a problem, store your equipment in a large bread box. Some cheese spreads, canned tuna fish, meats, dried fruits, pickles, olives, etc., can be stored on shelves above the center. Keep some good "munchers," such as cheese crackers, canned potato sticks, and canned nuts on hand, too. If you have a freezer, keep a wide variety of breads on hand — hamburger buns and frankfurter rolls, pumpernickel, rye or nut bread. Some types of sandwiches can be made ahead of time and frozen. To check on sandwich fillings and other prepared foods that will freeze well, get a copy of the extension bulletin on "Frozen Foods" from your home demonstration agent.
