OFFER BONDS FOR COTTON PAYMENT

Fred Kiechle, cashier of the First State Bank of Rowena, was a business visitor to Ballinger Tuesday. Mr. Kiechle reported conditions fairly good in the Rowena section, crops coming along nicely, and the farmers very optimistic over the outlook.

We learned from Mr. Kiechle that German bonds are being used in the purchase of cotton, or at least parties are offering to trade German government bonds for cotton. The proposition is being handled thru a New York concern who has a representative in this country negotiating with the farmers.

The bondholders propose to trade a German bond of 100 mark value for one bale of low grade old cotton. The 100 mark bond is worth about $13.50 in good old United States money. It is not known whether German interests are back of the proposition and whether the cotton will be shipped direct to Germany, or not.

America "Says It With Flour" for the Near East

An impressive ceremony at pier 2, army base New York, attended the loading of the Mopang with 10,000 bags of flour and 2,000 tons of general foodstuffs for the starving of the Near East. Dr. Herbert Shipman, Suffragan bishop of New York, at the special request of Bishop Manning, blessed the ship and its cargo. The flour supplies were purchased with the funds raised by the Near East relief through their novel posters, "Say it with flour."

NO IMPROVEMENT ON A. & S. ROAD

"We cannot afford it," said Col. Morgan Jones, when interviewed by a Ledger reporter concerning making passenger improvements on the A. & S. railroad.

Col. Jones was here Wednesday, spending an hour and a half in the city. He was looking over the road and inspecting the property. He stated that he found crop conditions along the Abilene & Southern from Abilene to Ballinger much better than on the T. & P. East of Abilene.

Col. Jones was informed that a petition was being circulated along the A. & S. between Abilene and Ballinger, and was being signed by many people asking him to either place in operation a motor car on his line between the two cities, or restore the passenger train which was taken off during the war. "We can't afford it," he said, "and we are having a hard time to make ends meet now. There are too many motor cars on the road between Abilene and Ballinger. That good road—just as level as your street, between here and Abilene is taking the travel in cars, and the trucks are getting the freight."

Col. Jones stated that the motor cars had been tried out on a number of railroads and had proven unsuccessful, and that it was out of the question to think about restoring the passenger train. He stated that wages on his road were cut on April first, in an agreement having been made with all employees to accept a slight reduction. He forecasted that other expenses would have to be cut, or the railroads would continue to suffer on account of the light business, which is being made lighter by the operating of trucks and autos.

REDUCING NUMBER JUAREZ PASSPORTS

EL PASO, June 1.—After visiting 23,000 passports and tourist permits to visit Juarez, Mexico, in the past three months, the Mexican consulate has called a halt. The consulate has declared that hereafter it will not issue more than 50 passports or permits a day for residents of El Paso. Tourists will be accommodated, however, in any number.

The city issues the resident or tourist a card and the consulate issues it. The resident is charged 25 cents for a stamp. The tourist is charged 25 cents for a stamp and $2 for a visa.

OIL STOVE FIRE NO DAMAGE DONE

The fire company made a run to the home D. Reeder on Eighth Street about two-thirty Wednesday afternoon, when an alarm was turned in from that home. It was an unruly oil stove which caused the alarm, and everything had been adjusted before the fire fighters reached the scene, and no damage was done.

MANY APPLY FOR "DRY" ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS

EL PASO, June 1.—Although five prohibition men have been killed and three have been wounded since January 1, within the El Paso, or border, district, in the performance of their duty, there is no shortage of applicants for jobs as prohibition enforcement officers, according to John A. Toomey, acting director of prohibition enforcement for this district. He has more than 300 applicants for jobs and most of them have applied since the first of the year.

As soon as a man is killed by smugglers a score or more of applications are received at prohibition enforcement headquarters, Mr. Toomey said. Many applications are from former service men, he said.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—President Harding today discussed with the Interstate Commerce Commission, a downward revision of the railroad rates. The rates on the necessities of life were particularly discussed by the president, and it is believed that the president favors a reduction in rates. The whole subject of rate reduction is understood to be under review by the commission.

CHICAGO, June 1.—Approximately two-thirds of the wage increase granted the railroad employees last July, was ordered reduced beginning July 1st, the Railroad Labor Board announced today.

The reduction ordered made today resulted from a combined hearing involving railroads which filed petitions to cut wages of one or more classes of employees. Reduction in the wages of laborers in other lines of industry and the declining cost of living were set forth by the railroads as the basis of their plea for a lower wage scale.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Young were here from the Crews country Wednesday.

Officers Spirit Negro Away After Assaulting White Girl

TULSA, Okla., June 1.—Martial law was declared in effect in this city and in Tulsa county at noon today by Adjutant General Barrett, following the receipt of orders from Governor Robertson, directing the military forces to take over the situation arising from the race clashes.

TULSA, Okla., June 1.—Nearly ten blocks of the South side, a negro section of this city, where an armed conflict has been in progress between white men and negroes since early this morning, is in flames.

The casualty list up to noon today included at least six white men and fifty negroes, and the list of wounded is rapidly increasing, and it is probable that the death list will reach seventy-five.

State troops, commanded by Adjutant General Barrett, began arriving at nine o'clock this morning, and these augmented the local units of National Guardsmen which were called out last night. Detachments of guardsmen are scattered throughout the city and are prepared to meet all emergencies with machine guns which are ready for action.

Many guards were placed on duty around the armory while others assisted in rounding up negroes and segregating them in jail, convention halls, baseball park, and other places which have been converted into prison camps.

The trouble began last night following the arrest yesterday of Dick Rowland, a negro for alleged assault upon an orphan girl in an elevator. The negro was spirited away from the county jail soon after two o'clock this morning by deputies from the office of Sheriff McCulloch. The officer refused to divulge the whereabouts of the negro, declaring that he would be given a speedy trial as soon as the situation quieted down and a change of venue sought if necessary.

The trouble started when first attempts were made to set fire to the negro section of the city about one-thirty this morning, and after white men openly threatened to destroy the negro quarters. The trouble was temporarily checked, but attempts to burn the negro section of the city was resumed at six o'clock this morning.

As fire enveloped the houses of the negroes they were seen to rush out shouting "don't shoot me." As they rushed through the smoke screen they were ordered to surrender and were removed by the mob to prison camp. An armed force of about 200 negroes gathered in the vicinity of the court house shortly after the arrest of the negro, and a clash followed in which the whites killed one negro and wounded several.

Civic organizations are caring for the wounded and refugees. Ice water and sandwiches are being served to the sick and wounded. Many citizens have volunteered for work in restoring order and caring for those who have lost homes and been wounded.

TULSA, Okla., June 1.—A continuous gun fire broke out shortly after daylight near the negro quarters of Tulsa, following an all-night race disturbance resulting in the death and injury of a number of unknown persons, and the calling out of the Oklahoma National Guard units to quell the disorder.

The firing came from a locality where throughout the early morning hours five hundred white men and a thousand negroes faced each other across railroad tracks. First reports coming from the scene of the trouble to police headquarters said that the bodies of six to ten negroes could be seen lying in the space described as "no man's land."

At dawn sixty or seventy motor cars filled with white men formed a circle around the negro section, and a half dozen airplanes circled overhead.

The trouble is said to have been the result of the arrest late yesterday of a negro alleged to have made an attack on a white girl.

SICK FOLKS MAY LOSE THEIR BEER

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The House judiciary committee today agreed to report out the Volstead bill which would prohibit the sale of beer upon a physician's prescription for the use of the sick.

JAPANESE ALLIANCE MAY CONTINUE

TOKIO, June 1.—Great Britain has suggested that Japan permit the Anglo-Japanese alliance to continue another year, the Nihon Nichi declares today. The two nations are definitely negotiating for a revision of the alliance, the newspaper says.

Why We Are Strong for Willard

We've seen a lot of batteries, but never another like the Willard Threaded Rubber Battery.

Church trading in Ballinger during the last month or two indicates that the religious people of the city have a desire to do right, and get more for their money, whether they get anywhere or not. A concentration of effort and better equipment should place the city on a higher religious plane.

Up in Arkansas the courts have been called on to settle a little love affair in which a man forty years old was shot by a man eighty-one because the younger man was paying too much attention to the old man's wife, age seventy-five. Is it possible that Arkansas is short on good looking women?

The regular mid-week prayer meetings for the various churches of the city have been called in for tonight in order that their congregations can attend the revival at the Christian church, and co-operate in the revival service.

The revival is in the middle of the second week, and it is expected that a good attendance will be recorded tonight. Evangelist Phares will probably return at the close of this week, and those who have not been attending the revival are missing some splendid messages.

The day service this week is being held at the Maeroy Theatre at ten o'clock each morning. The attendance at the day service is better than last week, and the religious people are manifesting a greater interest in the meeting.

A teaspoonful of Herbine will produce a copious and purifying bowel movement, improve appetite, restore mental activity and a fine feeling of vigor and cheerfulness. Price 60c. Sold by all druggists.

Something to Think About By F. A. WALKER

BLONDES AND BRAINS

A LEARNED judge was recently quoted as announcing from his bench that he would not approve of blonde ladies as members of a jury which was about to hear a case under his jurisdiction.

"Blondes are fickle," were the words attributed to the justice, intimating that fickleness is a bar to what the law is supposed to assure the person on trial.

A year or so ago a big Western employer in advertising for office help announced that he would not receive the applications of blondes, giving as a reason that he had found them inattentive to work and temperamental in disposition.

There has always been a good deal of discussion regarding the relative attractiveness of blondes and brunettes despite the fact that in the long ago when the caveman was the highest type of civilization, we were all blonde, or at least red hair was the darkest tint.

The reason why nature covered primeval men and women with blonde or red hair was twofold; that it served the same purposes of low visibility which is gained by the animals whose fur coats blend with the surroundings in which they live and the fact that those colors better protected the skin from the effects of direct sunlight.

We know that these colors of hair prevailed because in the discovery of almost every rural place of people of that time light or reddish tinted hair has been found.

It is interesting to note that the three parts of the body which longest resist the disintegration which follows death are the teeth, the finger nails and the hair, and of these the last two are very nearly of the same character.

Which is getting some little way distant from the contention that blondes are not fit for jury duty because they are fickle.

Dido, queen of Carthage, of whom Virgil writes in the Aeneid, was not fickle, although she was a blonde. She stuck to her hero through thick and thin and killed herself with a sword that he furnished.

Cleopatra, who had red hair, a shade darker than the real blonde, was not what one might call absolutely constant in her devotion, but in modern society she might not be listed as extremely fickle.

But the analyzing of society, ancient or modern, according to the color of the hair, would not furnish very substantial basis for judging either women or men blondes or brunettes.

HOT LINERS

Oh! Bo. Aint it a Grand and Glorious Feelin'?

Four hits in a row in the first, and five in a row in the sixth told the tale.

Liles hit the third ball pitched for a homer, and jogged out a lonesome trip around the bags.

Cantrell featured at the bat, getting three singles in four trips to the plate.

Briseoe and Burch were close behind Cantrell with their .500 averages.

Fuller's one handed stab of Clopp's drive was the fielding feature of the game.

White and Langford both delivered blows in pinches.

Team hitting was 50-50 yesterday, each side batting .333.

Ranger turned in two nice double plays.

Allen pulled a good one when he scored two on a sacrifice.

The team was working together better yesterday than they have in two weeks.

RALLY IN SIXTH BEATS NITROS

The Ballinger Bearcats staged a sixth inning rally in Tuesday's game, the second played here of the series with Ranger, and reversed the score from the former day's game, taking the Nitros for a good clawing with a final count of 9 to 7.

Liles was first up for the locals and took the third ball pitched to him for a home run, sending the apple over the right field ditch. Briseoe, Brown and Langford came up in succession following Liles for hits while the next man, Burch, walked, and the total for Ballinger's half of the first session was three runs.

Clopp started the game for the visitors, hitting safe, and scored on a two bagger by Hamilton. The Nitros scored again in the third, and tied the score in the fourth, and took one run lead. The Cats played with the ball in the sixth and punished Keek with four hits, three of which were for the second station, and the slugging netted the home boys four runs, and with two times around the diamond in the seventh made the game easy for the locals, altho the visitors came up with two runs in the seventh and one in the ninth.

The grand stand was packed to overflow and the bleachers were crowded for the second game of the continued story. When the Bearcats cinched the game they were given an at home welcome which lifted the roof.

Reading the advertisements should be just as much a part of your day as reading the news columns.

The advertisements in your favorite newspaper are a daily record of what your local merchants have laid in store to meet your needs and add to your comfort.

They tell you what the manufacturers of these goods, who are constantly striving to please the great American public, have done to add to your advantages and comforts. The news, while always interesting, may often concern you only in a general way.

The advertisements are almost certain to tell something that may mean a great deal to your home life or your business and social welfare.

"AMERICAN BEAUTY" AT MAEROY THEATRE

Mrs. Baillie Reynold's widely read novel, "The Notorious Miss Lisle," has been dramatized into a gripping photoplay, with Katherine Macdonald, "the American Beauty," in the leading role.

This picture which may be seen at the Maeroy Theatre Friday is the story of Gaenor Lisle, prominent in English society, and more prominent in the light of a certain divorce scandal. Her father, a British army officer, takes Gaenor to quaint Brittany to avoid the notoriety that his daughter has stirred. In Brittany Gaenor meets Peter Garsten, a tourist.

Garsten knows nothing of Gaenor's newspaper popularity, and falls in love with her. Gaenor's parents are only too happy to find the opportunity for their daughter to cloak the family name under the cover of matrimony, and urge Gaenor to marry him. On a trip to the site of some ancient island ruins, Gaenor and Garsten are marooned on the island, cut off from the main shore by a sudden rising of the tide. Her romance is just budding *****

BASEBALL NEWS IS SLIGHTLY DELAYED

Local fans who are complaining about the Ballinger games not being reported to the state papers have no kick coming. The Dallas News, Star-Telegram and Ft. Worth Record are all carrying the Ballinger games in their late editions. The mail editions of these papers received at Ballinger come off the press before they receive the reports of the Ballinger games.

Local reporters for these papers have received instructions to furnish a story of the games together with the box score, and this is being done. Western Union Manager Pittman is kept busy until nine o'clock every night handling the reports of the Ballinger games for the state papers, and receiving the results of games played at other places. Ballinger is getting full benefit of publicity which the West Texas League entitles her to.

ANNABERG, Silesia, June 1.—The Polish insurgents who attacked the German defense organizations here for a distance of seventeen miles, were defeated, and are retreating Southeast of Oppeln and East of the Oder river Northwest, according to dispatches received here during the night. Just say for the benefit of the citizens who are complaining about the city water," said Mayor Guin Wednesday morning, "that we are preparing to install a plant for purifying the water and for removing that odor which is causing the complaint."

Mr. Guin stated that it had been determined that the odor coming from the water was due to decaying vegetation. There has been considerable complaint during the last few days on account of the bad water, and the city commission has been working on the problem.

A thorough analysis of the water is being made, and it is not believed that there is any danger in drinking the water. The city authorities had the mains flushed a few days ago, and will do everything possible to remove the odor.

The Home of the Soul

In olden times, it was believed that the seat of the soul was the stomach, most likely for the reason that a man is never so completely used up as when his stomach is out of order. For the cure of ordinary stomach troubles, there is nothing quite so prompt and satisfactory as Chamberlain's Tablets. They strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Give them a trial. They cost only a quarter.
