CALL ISSUED FOR INSURANCE MEETING

J. W. Powell issues a call for Friends in Need No. 1 and Runnels County Benevolent Association to meet at his offices in Ballinger, Nov. 22rd at 2:00 p. m. The officers in these charity and insurance orders have authorized this call for all members to attend and aid in building it up to 1,000 members. Some 20 years ago Friend in Need No. 1 was organized, authorizing 500 members, white, residing in Runnels county, Texas, ages from 18 to 55, joining fee $3.00; man and wife $5.00. That paid 1st death call. $1.00 paid in at each death stayed in the treasury awaiting next call. No delay, Secretary issued check the day he got notfilled up and No. 2 and No. 3 were organized. No new officers were appointed. The Secretary still issues checks upon each death reducing membership and no effort to recruit. We are now down to less than 200 members in each order. We decided it is this sad hour. Every member it is still playing in England as should urge his neighbor to send "The Man from Toronto." in his name to the Secretary Grant Carpenter adapted it for the big metropolis which were that this order be filled to the the screen, and Chet Withey dir-photographed by the star's Eng- limit and bless our community ected Miss Talmadge in "Lessons with this act of love.
