ACQUITTAL OF SCRAFFORD. The end anticipated by many has at last been reached, and in face of proofs of guilt admitted by the defense, Chas. G. Scrafford is acquitted by the jury and goes free. If Chas. G. Scrafford is innocent, C so is Sam. Lappin. Let him be sent for and returned to his family, and let it be proclaimed that there is no law in Kansas under which officers who betray their trust and rob the State can be punished. If Sam. Lappin deserves the penitentiary, then does his partner and associate, who assisted him in his deliberately planned and skillfully executed attempts to rob the school fund of Kansas. Any paper that says the public sentiment at To-peks, or of the State of Kansas, peks, and the low price of 10 cents sustains this acquittal of Chas. G. THIS standard article is compounded with the greatest care. Its effects are as wonderful and as satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color.

It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff. It gives the head a cooling, soothing sensation of great comfort, and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean.

By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong. As a dressing, nothing has been found so effectual or desirable.
