Texas Couple On Honeymoon Die in Accident

(By Associated Press) FT. WORTH, March 25 .- Funeral arrangements were being made here today for Guy T. Waggoner Jr., and his bride of six days, who were killed yesterday near Douglas, Arizona, when their automobile skidded and turned over while they were returning from a honeymoon in Waggoner is the scion of one of Texas' greatest cattle barons.

He and his bride were married in Hollywood, Calif., less than a week ago.

Others in the party were: Guthrie Garrison, Dallas; Miss Katherine O'Hern, and Vale Henry, of Fort Worth. The two boys suffered slight injuries and cuts about the body while Miss O'Hern was not injured save for several small bruises and cuts.

The ear overturned when a tire blew out. Mr. Waggoner was killed almost instantly while his young wife died a few hours later in a Douglas hospital. She suffered internal injuries.
