ONE DEAD IN GAS WELL BLAST

(By Associated Press)
BORGER, May 30.—Lee Taylor, burned at the Cochrill-McElroy well fire near here Saturday, died in a local hospital during the night.
 Gas from the well is still blazing. Company officials declared they would attempt to smoke it out with steam.

WATERS RUSH TOWARD GULF

(By Associated Press)
NEW ORLEANS, May 30.—Slowly spreading over the inundated area on the eastern side of the Atchafalaya River, water from the McCrea crevasse on that stream, threatened three more towns today as it rolled on toward the Gulf of Mexico.

Crossett, Rosedale and Maringouin may be submerged by the swelling of the bayou at Crossett. Meanwhile, the flood on the western side of the river is reported to be falling at all points below New Iberia.

M. C. Atkins was among those who attended the 16th district American Legion convention at San Angelo Sunday. He reported a large number of delegates present and a fine program.

Miss Mary Faun Coulter has returned from Trinity University at Waxahatchie, where she had been visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Bailey Mack, of Frederick, Okla., who had been here visiting Mr. Mack's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Scott H. Mack, have gone to Edinburg where they will make their home.

Louis DeMoye has returned to San Angelo after spending several days with Ballinger relatives and friends.

Burton Reese, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Reese, has returned from Texas A. & M. College, where he had been attending school. He will go to Santa Anna on June 1st, to work for the West Texas Utilities Co.

SPECIAL MEET NEARING END

(By Associated Press)
AUSTIN, May 30.—Strategic maneuvers to get action on various of the 100-odd bills remaining on the special session calendar, are expected to engage the legislature this week because the limited time is certain to be death for many of them.

Beginning today, only eight working days were left for the legislature to act on a number of important administration bills.

Only unusual speed, such as the House unexpectedly developed last week in passing the educational appropriation bill, will complete the program.

AUSTIN, May 30.—The Senate today passed the bill appropriating only $1,000,000 for the biennium to supplement the available school funds. This is $3,500,000 less than the bill passed by the House.

AUSTIN, May 30.—Practically all state departments closed today in conjunction with the general observation of Memorial Day.

There was some doubt as to whether a quorum of the legislature could be maintained throughout the day.

Obstacles to Titanic Memorial Clearing

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 30.—Obstacles which for 15 years have blocked the erection in Washington of a statue commemorating the 1,500 victims of the Titanic disaster are slowly being cleared away. Members of the Women's Titanic Memorial Association feel that they have ground to hope that their long objective will be reached in another two years.

Organized shortly after the disaster in 1912, the association promptly raised more than $40,000 for the memorial, but it was not until 1917 that a bill authorizing use of public grounds for the purpose got through the legislative jam in Congress, and even then the site which had been selected was denied.

A new site was chosen, on the Potomac near the ground dedicated to the Lincoln Memorial, and Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney went ahead with completion of the statue from a design approved by the Fine Arts Commission several years ago.

The new site was under water, but plans had been made for construction of a sea-wall as part of the program for linking Potomac and Rock Creek parks.

Appropriations for the wall were hard to get, however, and work on it had to be suspended in 1922, after only part of the riprap foundation had been put in. The last congress granted $25,000 for resumption of the work, but that was enough to provide for little more than repairs on the old foundation, engineers estimating that another $175,000 would be needed.

Meanwhile the memorial association leaders have the same spirit which animated them 15 years ago, when the late Mrs. John Hay was their chairman, and they had the active support of Mrs. William Howard Taft, then mistress of the White House.

Mrs. Taft still is interested in the plan, which is under the guidance of Mrs. John Hays Hammond, who was the first secretary of the association, and Mrs. Robert S. Chew, her successor in that office when she became chairman. They are confident that the necessary appropriation will be granted by the next congress and that soon afterwards they will be able to complete their task.

"SLIM" GETS HOME SICK IN ENGLAND

COOLIDGE TO SPEAK TODAY

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, May 30.—President Coolidge journeys to Arlington today to speak for the nation in memory of its exalted dead.

The annual pilgrimage to the national cemetery, where row upon row of small white crosses mutely testify to the price of freedom, is the keynote for exercises throughout the country on which each Memorial Day cherishes its tribute to those who have died in its wars.

President Coolidge speaks in the amphitheatre and a radio hook-up will carry his voice throughout the nation.

The program starts at 1:00 o'clock.

2 FASCISTS ARE KILLED IN N. Y.

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, May 30.—Two black-shirted followers of the Fascisti on their way to march in a Memorial Day parade, were killed today by unknown assailants.

The victims were: Joseph Carise, a tailor; and Nicholas Amoroso, a printer.

Their attackers, witnesses told the police, wore red ties, signifying allegiance to the Italian Nationalist party.

LONDON, May 30.—Captain Charles A. Lindbergh is home-sick. He said so this morning.

The knight of the air appreciates to the fullest extent the honors bestowed upon him here, at Brussels, and at Paris, but he is eager to return home at the earliest possible moment.

Lindbergh made all this clear this morning while speaking to reporters upon his return to the American embassy after a trip to the air field to make sure that his monoplane had weathered the storm of the rough and tumble welcome given it upon his arrival from Brussels yesterday.

According to present plans he will fly to Paris probably Thursday but his program after that date is still unsettled.

HOT SATURDAY? WE'LL SAY IT WAS! SUNDAY TOO

Hot Saturday? You bet, 107 degrees was registered here as the highest mark.

And Sunday was pretty hot, too, 106 being the maximum. Monday was a little cooler but not much. A wind helped to keep things from getting quite so hot, but it was plenty warm.

The Saturday and Sunday registrations are believed to have set records for May in Ballinger, and during the past few years the thermometer has not gone that high during the hottest of summer months.

Lura McAlister has returned from Dallas, where he had been attending a business college.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Holliday and Miss Ruth Holliday, of Abilene, were in Ballinger Sunday to attend the funeral of their aunt, Miss May Miles.

DE PINEDO AND SEAPLANE SAFE

(By Associated Press)
HORTA, Island of Fayal, May 30.—Commander Francesco De Pinedo, Italian aviator, arrived here today on the Italian steamer, Supergea, which had his seaplane in tow.

J. B. Pace Jr., has gone to Cleburne to visit for several days. He will return to Ballinger this week and then go to Austin, where he will attend the University of Texas summer school.

W. A. Forgey and family spent Sunday in Winters with relatives and friends.

HISTORIC PRISON AT EL PASO RAZED

(By Associated Press)
EL PASO, May 30.—Once the scene of history making and tragedy, and for the past ten years occupied by a garage, the old city jail of El Paso now is being demolished to make room for a more modern structure.

For many years the old red brick building was the home of the El Paso city police and fire departments, the city jail and recorder's office.

During the Mexican revolution of 1916, the carelessness of one of its prisoners brought death to 35 of his companions and himself.

During a threatened epidemic of typhus fever prison officials were conducting a general fumigation. The entire building was being fumigated and prisoners bathed with alcohol. A thoughtless prisoner struck a match and in addition to the 36 fatalities, more than a score more were seared or maimed for life in the fire which followed.

The exact date of the erection of the old building is not known.

Rev. Leslie G. Smyth was in Coleman Sunday night to deliver an address in the interest of the Texas State Missions.

WILLARD, THE WIZARD
HERE LAST OF WEEK

Willard, the Wizard, master magician and illusionist, starts a performance of three days beginning Thursday night, at the corner of Sixth Street and Hutchings Avenue in a big tent theatre. This show was given at the Baylor University campus under the auspices of the Baylor University Chamber of Commerce. Following is a letter signed by the chairman of the committee in charge, and the secretary of the chamber:

"To Whom It May Concern
Willard, the Wizard show played three nights, March 17, 18 and 19, on the Baylor University campus, under the auspices of the Baylor Chamber of Commerce.

"The show was one of the cleanest, cleverest performances ever witnessed by members of this organization and the audience. Not one customer was dissatisfied and the faculty highly endorses the performance."

This was one of the many letters the wizard has received from those who have sponsored such performances. They plan a first class show with a novel program for each night's play in Ballinger.

POULTRY PLAY SCORES BIG HIT

C. of C., County Agent and Purina Dealer are Sponsors

"Keep only pure-bred birds. Weed out the slacker. Give your birds a comfortable house. Feed a perfectly balanced ration. Keep records of the feed used and results produced and figure your profit."

This was the theme of the intensely interesting lecture on "More Profitable Poultry Raising" as presented by Wm. O. Wood, Poultry Field Man of the Purina Mills Poultry Educational Department at Ballinger, Texas, May 29, 1927.

The meeting was called to order by County Agent Lehmborg, who explained the purpose of the meeting. After this Mr. Lehmborg introduced Mr. Wood, who took charge of the meeting.

Instead of the usual dull lecture the points were brought out very forcibly in the form of an interesting play in four acts, entitled "The Lay of a Hen."

The hero of the play was M. C. Liebhart, Field Service Man for the Purina Mills, as "Mr. Lett M. Russell."

The Poultry Field Man took the part of "Phil R. Baskett." W. B. Currie was "Red E. Serviss," the feed dealer and poultry service man.

The play itself was educational, the plot being worked out to show how the average poultry raiser loses money every year by haphazard methods in feeding and caring for his flock.

"Lett M. Russell" brought many good laughs from the audience by his characterization of the fellow who is utterly disgusted with his luck raising chickens.

His wife, however, realizes that one can make a comfortable income with their poultry and persuades him to call on a neighbor, Phil R. Baskett, who is a successful poultryman and who gladly offers Russell advice and assistance toward making his flock more profitable.

Phil R. Baskett's plan for success with poultry raising as presented to Lett M. Russell, was as follows:

First: Keep only pure-bred birds. A pure-bred layer backed by years of successful breeding is far superior to a scrub-hen, the result of haphazard crossing all varieties.

Second: Weed out the slacker. Keep only the producers. Approximately $230,000,000.00 are thrown away by the farmers of the United States every year in feeding culls.

Third: Give the birds a comfortable house. The following factors are essential to a comfortable house:

- 1—Good Location
- 2—Plenty of room
- 3—Well ventilated
- 4—Dry and Sanitary
- 5—Properly equipped with mash hoppers, water fountains and nests.

Fourth: Feeding a perfectly balanced ration, one that supplies an equal number of yolks and whites above bodily maintenance.

Fifth: Keep records and feed your flock the way that your records prove makes you the most net profit.

The play was original and unique in every way and was greatly appreciated by an enthusiastic audience.

Music was furnished by the Ballinger Booster Band, which was highly appreciated by the entire audience.

Greta Nissen Back on Screen in "The Popular Sin," Starring Florence Vidor

Greta Nissen is back on the screen. The exotic, blonde girl who recently left motion pictures for ballet dancing because she thought it gave her more opportunity to express herself, has discovered and admitted the error of her ways.

As La Belle Toulaise, temperamental and vampy Parisian actress, she will be seen in Florence Vidor's current Paramount starring vehicle, "The Popular Sin," which is showing at the Palace Theatre today and Tuesday.

To play this role, Miss Nissen had to leave the cast of Ziegfeld's Revue. Back under the Klieg lights at Paramount's Long Island studio, working with Miss Vidor, Clive Brook and Philip Strange, she expressed herself as genuinely happy.

Born in Norway, Miss Nissen joined the ballet of the Copenhagen, Denmark, Royal Opera Company at the age of six but her European successes were as nothing when compared to the furor she created in "A Beggar on Horseback." A contract with Paramount followed and Greta was featured in "Lost—a Wife," "In the Name of Love," "The King on Main Street," "The Wanderer," and "The Lady of the Harem."

Director Malcolm St. Clair is responsible for her second abandonment of dancing. While preparing to direct "The Popular Sin" he found that Author Monta Bell had created a character in La Belle that Miss Nissen could play to perfection.

"My mind's made up for good," says Miss Nissen. "I'm convinced that I belong in pictures."

KING KOMO HYPNOTIZES PIANO PLAYER

At noon Monday King Komo hypnotized a young man in the lobby of the Palace Theatre and suggested to him that he was a wonderful musician and it was with seeming ease that the subject succumbed to the doctor's suggestion.

When commanded he began playing the piano and will play there all afternoon. At 7:30 o'clock he will be taken inside the theatre when he will continue to play until 9:00 o'clock, when he will be awakened.

King Komo begins a three-night engagement tonight, presenting hypnotism and crystal gazing. This popular entertainer's performance lasts one hour and is in conjunction with the usual run of high class moving pictures. The first part of the vaudeville consists of crystal gazing, wherein King Komo answers any question that any member of the audience may wish to ask. The concluding act will be hypnotism in which Komo will extend an invitation to any member of the audience to come up on the stage and experiment, and this undoubtedly makes the funniest kind of a show imaginable. From the letters and flattering press notices King Komo must certainly be a past master in the art of conducting this kind of an exhibition.

(By Associated Press) SCUTARI, Albania, May 30.—Pantaloons of Malisore tribesmen are as distinctive in their way as tribal Indian blankets are in North America.

M'CLAIN SPEAKS TO LARGE CROWD

Rev. J. H. McClain, Baptist pastor, who is conducting revival services at the Baptist church of this city, spoke to an unusually large crowd at both the morning and night services Sunday, and the crowd at the evening services is believed to have surpassed the morning crowd in number.

A. G. Nelson, gospel singer of Fort Worth, sang a special solo Sunday night, "The Ninety and Nine." He led the singing for other services of the day.

Sunday night Rev. McClain used as his subject, "What Is Man?"

"God's interest in man," he said, "has never waned. He worked the Eternal before man was ever created."

In the course of his sermon, Rev. McClain outlined four phases of man's life. They were: man's dignity, man's duty, man's death and man's destiny.

"Man's dignity was put above all other creation in that he was given a living soul. All creation was put on earth for man's benefit, who is God's steward on earth. The whole duty of man is to fear God and to keep his commandments. Our first duty is to God, then to our family. The better service given God makes us better to serve others in our lifetime."

"Seek ye first the Kingdom of God," he quoted. "Men today are too busy to give God a chance in their lives. It is appointed unto man once to die. Death is as certain as life. There is no chance after death, it is either heaven or hell."

The services will continue throughout the week and will come to a close next Sunday.

J. P. Flynt, game warden, had business in San Angelo Monday.

Morris Nicholson has returned to Fort Worth after a short visit here to his mother, Mrs. R. A. Nicholson.

SIX PRISONERS IN COUNTY JAIL

It was too hot for anyone to violate any of the laws of the state here over the week-end, Sheriff R. E. McWilliams said Monday morning, and as a result no one was placed in the county bastille during the past 48 hours. If there were any drunks, they all kept out of sight of the sheriff's force.

The six prisoners in the jail have been there for some time and with little or no work to do as they have kangaroo court only when a new prisoner is added and it has been so long since one was placed in jail that they have not held a session in some time.

Griggs Holland, negro, is the only inmate who has a prison term to serve if his three-year sentence is not reversed by the Court of Criminal Appeals. Holland was given three years at the last term of court for bootlegging.

Oscar Nalde, a negro, is being held for burglary.

Paul Williams, white, is being held for forgery.

Chas. Nelson, white, is charged with horse theft and burglary. He was shot in the arm at Sherwood some time ago when he endeavored to make his escape from officers there, but his arm has healed and he is now safely in jail here.

Bill Ellison, white, is being held for manufacture and possession of intoxicating liquor. The sheriff and his deputies raided Ellison's home some time ago, confiscated a still and eighteen gallons of corn whiskey. He has been unable to make bond.

Lonnie Mulligan is the newest boarder. He was arrested in Hillsboro some time ago for Sheriff McWilliams. He is charged with burglary.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" you will get a large bottle of the old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, for only 75 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

Well-known druggists say everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.
