SHERIFF INJURED IN CAR WRECK

Sheriff R. E. McWilliams is at his home in the county jail recovering from severe bruises, several bad cuts and shock received between midnight and 1:00 o'clock Thursday morning when the Ford touring car he was driving struck a culvert about six miles west of Coleman.

Sheriff McWilliams received a bad cut on his right arm and several minor cuts about his throat when the windshield was broken as the car hit the culvert.

The sheriff was returning from Coleman alone when the accident occurred. A car meeting Mr. McWilliams had unusually bright lights, causing the officer to become blinded and not see the edge of the culvert.

The right front wheel of the Ford struck the edge of the culvert and was smashed, the windshield was broken, and the car otherwise damaged. The car did not turn over, however.

Play Near War Graves

VERDUN CHILDREN PLAYING IN THE SHADOW OF A FRENCH MILITARY CEMETERY.

(Associated Press Legion Series)
VERDUN, France, July 7.—So thick are cemeteries in Verdun, greatest burial field of the World War, that playgrounds for children are difficult to find.
The Verdun children play like those the world over, but their games often are within sight of the wooden crosses marking the graves of soldiers, Allied or Germans, 400,000 of whom were killed in the long and intense fighting of 1916.

Seven of the city's younger generation were in a courtyard, with a French military cemetery, where 2,000 soldiers are buried, in the background.
"What is this game you are playing at?" they were asked.
"War," replied the leader promptly and proudly. In their hands the children carried stones.
No baseball or football for them. "These are hand grenades," the youthful general volunteered.

GARNER MAY GET POST IN HOUSE

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 7.—Retirement from the House by Finis Garrett, who has announced that he will run for the Senate, may bring to the post of Democratic leader during the next congress, one of the most picturesque characters in the lower house.

He is John Garner, fiery Texan, and ranking minority leader of the powerful ways and means committee, who is regarded generally as one of the best rough and tumble debaters on either side of the political dividing line. Garner has been in congress for 24 years, representing the 15th district of Texas.

Before coming to Washington, Congressman Garner served in the Texas House of Representatives and also as county judge.

H. H. Carsey has gone to Voss, where he will visit relatives for several days. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Carsey accompanied him and returned Thursday morning after spending the night.

Bill Henderson, coach of the Temple high school, left Thursday for Brownwood, where he will spend a short time before going on to Austin, where he will enter the second term of the University of Texas summer session. He had been here visiting his mother, Mrs. C. W. Johnson.

TO TEST 25,000 MORE ACRES OF COTTON SEED IN STATE
(By Associated Press)

AUSTIN, July 7.—Tests for state certification of cotton seed will be made on about 25,000 more acres this year than was involved in inspection last year, E. V. Miller, of the Texas Department of Agriculture, said today. State inspection season will start around July 10, he said, growers representing more than 100,000 acres of land have applied for inspection; seed from about 75,000 acres was submitted to examination in 1926. The department, if it finds seed to standard, awards certificates which result in a higher price to breeders.

FOR TEACHER OLIVER HEADS
HERE IS BURNED

Mrs. J. H. Baugh, of Austin, wife of Judge J. H. Baugh, both former residents of this city, received severe burns at her home on July 4th, when little Miss Betty Claire Green, 8, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. J. P. Green, of Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, lost her life.

It was an Independence Day tea party that the little girl and two other Green children were enjoying when a candle used in the party ignited her clothing. Two men, passers-by, saved the little girl from instant death, but she succumbed to the burns Tuesday.

Mrs. Baugh rushed to the little girl when her clothing caught fire and tried in vain to extinguish the flames. She received painful and serious burns in an effort to save the child's life.

The Greens were en route to their home at San Antonio from Fort Benning, Ga., and were visiting in the Baugh home.

Mrs. Baugh was formerly English instructor in the Ballinger high school, while Judge Baugh was a practicing attorney here. The family moved to Austin when Judge Baugh was made a member of a state court there.

SAYS NEW MOON HAS VERY PECULIAR FORM

L. K. Parr, residing west of the city on the river road, telephoned The Ledger Thursday morning and informed a reporter that the moon had a very peculiar form and that he had been watching it for several days.

"It is very peculiar," Mr. Parr said, "I have seen nothing like it before. It appears to have four points and looks like a large bowl sitting in a larger bowl."

Mr. Parr said the moon showed up this way better early after dark and that it had been in this condition since it became the new moon for this month. Soon after dark the moon will be in the middle of the sky tonight, Mr. Parr declared, and it will then be the best view to be had.

BIBB GRAVES

(By Associated Press)

MONTGOMERY, Ala., July 5.—As a lad, Bibb Graves played around the state capitol grounds, and many are the times he envisioned himself seated in the governor's office.

Four months ago his boyhood dreams were realized.

Governor Graves was graduated from the University of Alabama as a civil engineer in 1893. He attended the University of Texas and in 1896 received an L. L. B. degree at Yale. Football was his favorite sport.

He returned to Montgomery and opened a law office. In 1917 he organized the First Cavalary, Alabama National Guard, which was mustered into the regular army for overseas service. Gov. Graves saw service in France as major in the Thirty-First Division.

Increasing crowds nightly are reported from the revival of the Ninth Street Church of Christ, which is being conducted by Rev. Sidney Smith. Smith announces he will give a creed that provides for a church federation, one that will give the people a chance to work and worship together. The services start at 8:30 o'clock each night.
