There is evidence of mourning at the villa, as servants, clad in black, are receiving visitors.

(By Associated Press)
BROWNSVILLE, Tex., July 19.—Louis Dendon, secretary of the Matamoros, Mexico, Chamber of Commerce, announces that a general convention of border chambers along the entire frontier will be called soon to plan elimination of what is described as "a great deal of unnecessary red tape," in connection with tourist crossing the border to Mexico for short visits. Proposals to appeal to both the Mexican and American governments will be laid before the meeting, Dendon said, in a communication to the chamber of commerce here.

Does Dempsey Pack the Wallop to Break Sharkey's Defense?

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, July 21.—Clear weather was in vogue here this afternoon giving indications that Jack Dempsey and Jack Sharkey will battle tonight under a clear sky for the chance to meet Gene Tunney for the world's heavyweight championship boxing title.

NEW YORK, July 21.—Jack Dempsey scaled 194 1/2 pounds at the official weighing before the New York State Athletic Commission today, and Jack Sharkey, his opponent, scaled 196 pounds.

By Alan J. Gould
(Associated Press Editor)

NEW YORK, July 21.—It will be a battle between a 32-year-old ex-champion, survivor of the slugging school of pugilism, and a youth of 25, fast, crafty and hard-hitting, when Jack Dempsey starts his come-back against Jack Sharkey this evening.

Dempsey is one of the last of the old "rock 'em and sock 'em" type of heavyweights, a two-fisted hitter whose attack has nearly always been his best defense. Sharkey is a product of the more modern school, a shifty, defensive boxer of the type best exemplified by the present wearer of the heavyweight crown, Gene Tunney.

Dempsey, the "Manassa mauler," has scored his biggest victories, such as those over Willard, Carpentier and Firpo, with a crushing, whirlwind attack that beat down his opponents before they had a chance to get their bearings. He carried the so-called "killer" instinct into the ring. Sharkey, on the other hand, started climbing the heavyweight scale chiefly because of his ruggedness and ability to thrive on punishment and to wear his opponents down with a persistent battering. Not until he applied the "crusher" to Jimmy Maloney in his last fight did the Boston Lithuanian display a convincing knock-out punch.

Any analysis of the Dempsey-Sharkey bout amounts chiefly to this: Can Dempsey, granting he still packs the wallop, break through Sharkey's defense early and often enough to apply the finishing coup?

If not, the odds would appear nearly all in favor of Sharkey, whose youth and stamina, superior boxing ability, speed and craftier defense all figure to aid him in a long-drawn-out battle. And Sharkey has demonstrated, at least against Maloney, that he carries some dynamite in his right hand.

DORIS STEVENS SEEKS DIVORCE

(By Associated Press)
PARIS, July 21.—The first hearing of the suit for divorce sought by Doris Stevens, woman suffrage leader, against Dudley Field Malone, international attorney, was held today before the court tribune of the Seine department.

The hearing came as a surprise because a week ago Miss Stevens flatly denied she had filed a suit for divorce.

CHICAGO, July 21.—The disappearance of Prof. R. N. Wilson, 55, a Texas school teacher, from a lake steamer, somewhere between Holland, Michigan and Chicago, still baffled the police today.

The situation was given an added touch of mystery when it was learned that Wilson's wife did not even know he was in this part of the country.

Wilson's disappearance became known yesterday when the boat docked here without the professor claiming valuables he had left with the ship's purser.

Mrs. Wilson, who is visiting in Amarillo, said she had received a letter from her husband three days ago, mailed from Waco, and had no intimation that he was away from that city.

JUNEAU, Alaska, July 20.—A

Parks was born in Denver. By the time he had been graduated from the Colorado School of Mines, however, civilization was beginning to make inroads on the picturesque old West he had

He decided to push on to Alaska. The government offered him $1,320 a year as a "practical miner." He took it and "batched" in a log cabin. That was 21 years ago. In 1925 he went to Washington on an official quiet sincerity of the man who wore it. He liked both and sent

I'm living
"from hand to these days

SINCE I discovered what a marvelous cigarette I can make with Prince Albert, I'm rolling 'em and smoking 'em all day long. A hand-to-mouth existence that is all pleasure. I've made cigarettes before, but never any that tasted like these. Let me tell you about them.

First you get some Prince Albert and the makin's papers. You put a pinch in a paper and roll. The fragrance of the tobacco speeds-up the rolling process.
You can hardly wait to taste such tobacco. Then you light up and pull that cool P.A. smoke into your system!

Mild and mellow as morning in the tropics. Sweet as maple sugar, with a sweetness that never cloy. P.A. is easier to roll, too. It's crimp-cut and stays put in the paper. If you've never made them with P.A., it's high time you got started.
Try this better tobacco.

Prince Albert makes a wonderful cigarette, no doubt about that. And it is equally enjoyable in a pipe. No bite.
No parch. Nothing but pipe-joy in every load. If you've always wanted to enjoy a pipe, but never found the right combination, try P.A. on my say-so.

PRINCE ALBERT
—no other tobacco is like it!

with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.*

Boys and Girls Club Meetings During July

Hatchel Club

The members of the Boys and Girls Agricultural Club of Hatchel held two club demonstrations this month.

At the first meeting on July 1st County Agent C. W. Lehmborg gave a grain judging demonstration. Practically all the members of this club were present and took an active part in the judging. Mr. Lehmborg fully explained the main points in judging grain. He stressed especially type, uniformity, shelling per cent, market condition. He also stressed the importance of selecting seed for next year's planting in the field where you can observe the character of the stalk, the environment of the stalk and the productive ability of each hill.

In July we also had a dairy cow judging demonstration on Mr. Lankford's farm. Three cows were used in this class and every member was required to place the cows and give reasons for their placings. We thoroughly enjoyed both demonstrations and feel that we have gained valuable knowledge that will be of help to us in years to come.

Club Reporter.

Hagan Club

On July 6th the members of the Hagan Boys' and Girls' Agricultural Club had a called meeting at Valley View Baptist Church for the purpose of getting assistance in keeping our record books correctly, making proper entries and figuring the proper values of our projects. The trip to the farmers short course was also discussed and the members were urged to send their record books to the county agent, Mr. Lehmborg, so that he could grade them and select those who made the highest grades, entitling them to a trip to A. & M. College.

On July 12th we had a special meeting at the Hagan school. At this time Mr. Lehmborg gave the members of the club and their parents an illustrated lecture—a picture show—showing slides on the fundamental principles of poultry raising. This picture was greatly enjoyed by all of us and has left a lesson with us that will be of great value to us in carrying on projects in the poultry industry.

Club Reporter.

Wingate Boys' Agricultural Club

On July 7th we had two club demonstrations at Wingate, the first in judging hogs. In this work a class of three brood sows, belonging to Mr. Dunn were used. Mr. Lehmborg explained the fundamental points that enter into the making of a good brood sow, such as size for age, form, quality, condition and breed characteristics. After these points were thoroughly explained the entire club was required to study the three sows for about 20 minutes, then to place them and give their reasons for their placings. Mr. Lehmborg then placed the sows and gave a correct set of reasons for his placings.

The other demonstration consisted of judging grain sorghums. The four varieties of grain sorghums used in this demonstration were milo, kaffir, Spur fetterita, and standard fetterita. Mr. Lehmborg explained the distinguishing points in these four varieties, calling special attention to the fact that whenever varieties in any of the respective classes are mixed that that disqualified the class.

We are very thankful to Mr. Lehmborg for his persistence and his patience in trying to teach us the underlying fundamentals of practical farming that will mean so much to us in becoming successful farmers in the future.

Club Reporter.

Dale Boys' and Girls' Club

On July 15th we had one of the best club meetings we have ever had. The occasion was a dairy cow and poultry culling demonstration on Mr. C. C. Gilla's farm. At this demonstration there were 14 men, our fathers, 18 boys, and 6 women, our mothers, and 8 girls present. Allow me to say right here that we certainly appreciate the interest our parents are taking in our club work—it is a wonderful encouragement to us.

In the dairy cow judging demonstration Mr. Lehmborg took one cow for a model, explaining all the important points in detail. Then he compared the cow to a factory and said that the cow must have a large chest that held a big heart and a large pair of lungs for that was the power plant, that she must have a big barrel or middle, for that was the storage room for the raw material out of which she makes the finished product, milk; that she must have a well developed mammary system so that she can produce large amounts of milk and be able to make a profit for her owner. In this demonstration a class of four cows were used and each member was required to place the cows according to his best judgment, and give reasons for his placings. This was very interesting and we feel that we learned a good deal about a good dairy cow that we did not know before.

The poultry culling demonstration was also very interesting, a number of birds were handled in order to bring out the essential points of a good producer and a poor producer.

Club Reporter.

Bethel Club

We had two demonstrations this month, one on judging dairy cows and the other on judging poultry. On account of the farm work being so heavy at this time not all the members could be present. However, we had very interesting discussions in both demonstrations and feel that the time was well spent. These two demonstrations were held on Mr. John Greenhill's farm. Refreshments were served after the demonstrations.

Club Reporter.

Herring Boys Club

The Herring Boys Agricultural Club met at Mr. Alleen's farm. Because of sickness and the rush of farm work several of the members were absent. We had a very interesting demonstration in judging dairy cows.

Our next meeting will be on the second Friday in August. We want every member present.

Last Time Tonight for Corinne Griffith in "Syncopating Sue"

Corinne Griffith is annexing a lot of titles these days. "Liberty" recently acclaimed her the most beautiful woman in the world. Broadway critics have long classed her as one of the screen's best actresses and last night the audience at the Palace Theatre who saw "Syncopating Sue" voted her one of the daintiest comedienne on the silver sheet.

This light comedy, released by First National, features, in addition to Miss Griffith, Tom Moore, Marjorie Rambeau, Rockcliffe Fellowes, Lee Moran, Joyce Compton and other funsters.

"Syncopating Sue" has a probable, pleasant plot, a well mixed combination of good drama and good comedy and an excellent cast.

REFUSES GAS CO. A FRANCHISE

Special to The Ledger: SAN ANGELO, July 21.—A natural gas franchise for San Angelo to the Lone Star Gas Company has been refused by the San Angelo city commission. The Lone Star concern was asking for a franchise, despite the fact that San Angelo has given a similar franchise to Barney Carter and associates of Ranger. Mr. Carter this week organized the Western Gas Supply Company, was given a charter, and has transferred his franchise to this concern.

In not saying when the gas could be brought into San Angelo, the city commission did not believe it would justify to give the franchise to the Lone Star concern. The Carter interests have promised natural gas by October 12th. The city commission also said it did not believe there was sufficient business in San Angelo to warrant the operation of two gas plants.

San Angelo will be headquarters of the newly organized Western Gas Supply Company. The company has organized its construction contracts and three crews will start work Tuesday, beginning work on a 45-day contract. The gas is to be piped from the Coleman county gas fields. One large ditch digging machine arrived in San Angelo this week and work is expected to begin within the next few days from this end of the line.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Miles, of Tulsa, Oklahoma, are here visiting D. R. Smith and family. Mrs. Miles is a sister of Mr. Smith. After a visit here they will go to Belton for a family reunion.
