Zane Grey Western Has Holt and Schulberg, associate producer in High Romance

A fascinating love story spun against the background of the films will be made. Far West, with some of the most corded by a camera. That's "Man of the Forest," a Paramount picture from Zane Grey's roles, which closes a two-day run at the Palace Theatre tonight.

This western narrative of adventurous romance has been treated by the director, John Waters, who also made "Born to the West'' and "Forlorn River,' in refreshing fashion. Of absorbing interest, the production is not dependent on freak horsemanship or marksmanship or an exaggerated theme of conflict, but instead, presents a plausible romance in which the wilderness background is only incidental.

Holt offers another splendid characterization in the title role. Georgia Hale, making her first appearance in an outdoor picwith deft directorial touch.
