Baker Gang are Free on Bond After Indictment

(By Associated Press)
HOUSTON, Feb. 28.—A. Y. Baker, wealthy Hidalgo county sheriff and seven others, some county officials, who were indicted by a federal grand jury here last night for conspiracy in connection with the 1928 general election, made bonds of $1,000 each today. The defendants are charged with "conspiracy to injure persons in the exercise of their civil rights."
The government investigation started after Independent Republicans alleged the Weslaco box in Hidalgo county was thrown out to assure continuation of the Baker Democratic administration.
County Judge A. W. Cameron, County Clerk Cam Hill, County Commissioner William Chadwick, Sam Hargrove, Marvin Evans, Tom Buckow, and Edmund Williams were the others indicted.
The Weslaco precinct was said to be the center of the opposition to the Baker "ring" during the election.

EDINBURG, Feb. 28.—Political tension in Hidalgo county apparently has been lessened somewhat by recent announcement of two candidates for sheriff on the Democratic ticket. They were R. T. Daniel of Mission, a ranchman, and John R. Bales of McAllen, deputy sheriff.

The Good Government Party, recently formed at McAllen, has not announced candidates for any county office and opponents of that party seemingly are unwilling to plan a campaign until the opposition intentions have been declared.

A. Y. Baker, sheriff, has withdrawn from the race for reelection. He held the office ten years. Cam E. Hill, county clerk, also has announced that he would no longer be a candidate for that office which he has held for four terms. Hill also announced he would not run for sheriff.

The Good Government League and the Citizens-Republican Party have been absorbed by the newly formed Good Government Party whose activities will be directed from McAllen. The new party will be confined to Hidalgo county and will be independent of both Democrats and regular Republicans, leaders declare, notwithstanding that many of its members come from the old Citizens-Independent Republican Party. The Good Government executive committee is composed of B. D. Gimbrough of McAllen, chairman; Willard Ferguson of Mission, F. H. Barfield of Edinburg, L. C. Lemen of San Juan and Y. P. Yarbrough of Weslaco.
It is believed in some quarters that none of the Democratic incumbents will enter the July primaries.

Sheriff Baker, apparently out of the county political turmoil for good, is reported to have his eyes on the governor's chair. He consistently has declined, however, to make a direct statement concerning his intentions.

WORLD POULTRY EXHIBITS SLATED FOR LONDON SHOW

LONDON, Feb. 28.—Eggs of all nations will be laid in London in July, when the world poultry congress opens with breeders from 30 countries in attendance.

Demands for exhibition space have been unusually heavy, indicating a record attendance of poultry as well as farmers and theorists.

After the congress closes July 30, delegates will spend a fortnight touring Great Britain, northern Ireland and the Irish Free State.

FARMS IN ALL SEASONS

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 28.—(AP)—G. Salvano of Cicero, Ill., makes money while the sun shines, winter or summer. He operates a truck farm near Cicero in the summer and comes to Florida every winter to till 50 acres of muck land. He grows about $7,000 worth of vegetables each year on each farm, specializing on green onions.

Dallas Man Shot Ten Times in Back

(By Associated Press)
DALLAS, Feb. 28.—Shot ten times in the back, Jack Everett Daugherty, 28, an automobile salesman, was found dead at midnight in a downtown room here.
Soon after the body was found Sam Correnti, proprietor of a bowling club, surrendered to the night jailer, saying, "I killed Jack Daugherty. I shot him ten times."
Correnti is charged with the murder.

Ballinger Players Given Releases

All players belonging to the Ballinger baseball club were given their unconditional releases Friday morning and will be free agents to locate where they can find jobs. This decision was reached by the board of directors of the local club when no hope was seen for outside aid to operate a team during the 1930 season.

The directors feel that it is out of the question to try to remain in the West Texas League and operate independently this season. They feel that it would cost the town at least $8,500 above the gate receipts to do so, that baseball would not be worth that much to the town, and that it would be impossible to raise this sum by donations.

If outside help is received later it will be an easy matter to form a club, especially since nine men will have to be rookies with no previous professional experience. It is also felt that it would not be fair to the five players up on contract, hold them until May and then possibly release them to hunt jobs at that late date after most clubs had employed their men for the season.

Releases were mailed to A. M. Dockery, "Red" Hill, Harold Brent, Troy Kittress, S. C. Fant, Bill Bean, Danny Lynch, Jimmy Lane, Al Mueller, and G. P. Jackson, who is at present on the retired list. Jackson will remain the property of the Ballinger club until such time as he desires to be reinstated and then he will have to come through the local management. The only players on whom Ballinger retains an interest are E. Mueller and Sam Scalings, who have been sold to Shreveport, and on whom only one-third of the purchase price has been paid. The remainder is due on May 1st or the players must be returned.

This leaves the baseball situation in Ballinger for 1930 very doubtful. For several months it was hoped that a "farm" could be arranged here for some Texas League club. The Texas League today has placed no "farms," however, and indications are that the Class A clubs will not be interested in such arrangements, especially in West Texas, and unless some such provision is secured it is safe to say there will be no professional baseball here. San Angelo and Midland representatives still declare that they are ready, but a two-team circuit will never be a paying proposition and with all other franchises extremely doubtful the West Texas League will probably pass into history.

MEXICO IMPORTING QUAIL TO THE UNITED STATES

(By Associated Press)
LAREDO, Feb. 28.—Approximately 100,000 Bob White and other native quail of Mexico are expected to be imported through Laredo within the next few weeks. Two recent importations totaled 7,000 quail. They were sent to North Carolina, Florida and other states, to restock depleted game preserves.

Local Men Close Real Estate Deal

(By Associated Press)
A deal has been closed between Chas. Ferguson and E. D. Walker in which Mr. Walker buys a 320-acre farm from Mr. Ferguson, a few miles north of Rowena in the Lone Star school community.
The price per acre for the sale of the farm was not made public but in the deal Mr. Ferguson takes in the Walker home on Thirteenth Street as a part of the consideration.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker are today moving to an apartment in the DeMerville residence on Broadway and as soon as they have moved Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson will occupy the Walker home.

The Ferguson farm is one of the best in the county. Mr. Ferguson has operated it for a number of years and it is well improved, and all tillable soil. Mr. Walker will assume active management of the tract at once and continue to look after it personally.

Plane Travel in Texas Gaining

(By Associated Press)
DALLAS, Feb. 28.—Proof that airplane travel is about to become as common as transportation in the "horseless carriage"—once thought of as extremely dangerous—is found in the network of airlines over Texas and constant improvement of service and equipment.

Only recently New York was brought to within 24 hours of north Texas by air and rail travel. A business man may leave Dallas at 7:40 a. m. and, after a day in the air, board a fast train at Cleveland which will place him in New York the next morning in ample time for the business day.

Reduction of fares on practically all lines has brought air travel within the reach of the pocketbook of any one who has the coat of a railroad ticket. Instead of the flat ten-cent a mile rate charged when interstate lines were first established, most airlines have reduced their fares to a par with railroads, plus Pullman charges. Whether this move was made to find out if persons will take to the air if the cost is not prohibitive or whether the economic principle of "lower prices—more business" was involved, is a moot question.

Cabin monoplanes, single motored and tri-motored, are used by the six companies with line from Dallas. Most routes are to the north, including stops at Fort Worth, Wichita Falls, Tulsa, Oklahoma City, Kansas City and St. Louis. Another line carries passengers to New Orleans and Alabama points. Daily air service to San Angelo and West Texas was started in the fall. The southern route to the gulf has been well patronized. At San Antonio recently, 37 persons were unable to leave the ground because of lack of transport ships.

A new route, from Sweetwater to Los Angeles is being considered and, if established, will give Texas air service in all directions.

Mexicans to Issue Tourist Permits

(By Associated Press)
LAREDO, Feb. 28.—Permits heretofore issued by the Laredo Chamber of Commerce tourist bureau to American tourists entering Mexico at this port will hereafter be issued by the Mexican customs department at Nuevo Laredo. The following official announcement to that effect toms Francisco Gonzales of Nuevo Laredo, Mexico:
"Tourists visiting Mexico, outside of Nuevo Laredo, may obtain a four-day permit for their automobiles, free of charge by presenting to the Mexican customhouse at any time during the day, including Saturday and Sunday, a letter of reference from any merchant, industrialist or banker of Laredo or Nuevo Laredo. Permits for longer periods may be obtained by the customhouse only during office hours by filing the respective bond."

Hoover Democrats Meet in Ft. Worth

(By Associated Press)
FT. WORTH, Feb. 28.—Leaders of the anti-Tammany branch of the Democratic party of Texas, headed by Alvin Moody, of Houston, went into executive session today, declining to comment on matters before the body.
A score of party members who supported Herbert Hoover in the last general election attended but refused to comment on their possible action regarding the recent decision of the state Democratic executive committee in barring bolters as candidates.

NEW GERMAN FLOUR RAY IS CLAIMED DISEASE CURE

(By Associated Press)
HAMBURG, Feb. 28.—A new procedure for vitaminizing food is claimed by a grain company here.
Dr. von Hahn, director of the biological-cold station of the Epidemiological hospital, says the process uses radiation to produce vitamins for specific use in disease. He says flour so treated can be baked directly into bread which is good for rickets, utilize the process on fruit as an antidote for the dreaded sailor's disease, scurbutus.

BRADY OWNED PLANT PAYS OFF CITY DEBT

(By Associated Press)
BRADY, Feb. 28.—Brady's municipal water and light plant is not only self sustaining but produces sufficient revenue to finance a number of the city's important projects.
Records show that within ten years the "home-owned" plant has shaken off $100,000 indebtedness and has become a revenue producer for the city. The actual present value of the plant and equipment is $441,671.39, according to a recent inventory by manager Edward Geadin.

Brady's new white way in the business and residential section, with the exception of a few standards in the business blocks, was installed and financed by water light revenue.

(By Associated Press)
BROWNSVILLE, Feb. 28.—The Ladybirds may hop here.
Brownsville is being proposed as the 1930 starting point for the National Women's Air Derby and has been favorably commented on by Frank Copeland, director of the first annual derby for women.
The flight would be from here to Chicago at the time the National Air Races are being held there.
The derby last year was from Santa Monica, Cal., to Cleveland, Ohio.

Legislature Takes Week-End Recess

AUSTIN, Feb. 28.—With both branches of the legislature recessed over the week-end, penitentiary centralization and reformation legislation is hanging in midair. As in the fourth called session the House went on record for improving the existing properties in East Texas, while the Senate voted for the plan to centralize the industrial plant near Austin.
Speculation is rife in Austin as to whether either branch will be able to maintain a quorum regularly hereafter.

Tomorrow will be the first day of a new month. March means the beginning of spring and the first should remind us of several other things. One thing it should recall is that it is a fine time to pay that old bill and establish better credit with the Retail Merchants Association and local merchants. Credit is a fine thing if properly used, but in some instances it makes for dishonesty. Start the spring right by paying your bills.

Automobile drivers who are accustomed to making more "knots" than are allowed under the state laws, had better apply the brakes when they go out of town now. Fifty state motor cops were sent into West Texas to begin work on March 1st along state highways. A large number of these men were sent to Abilene and San Angelo and will patrol highways leading from those towns. They may work as far as Ballinger from these two cities and parties running at a high rate of speed along the cement will get the pleasure of paying off, if caught exceeding the limit. Boastful drivers who make it from here to Abilene in one hour and less will either have to take a little more time or else pay for the privilege of driving fast. It is impossible to stay within the speed limit and make 34 miles in one hour.

Ballinger will entertain an important meeting in March when the district convention of the P-T-A meets here for three days. When the sessions open there will be a welcome address by someone and oratory will flow in telling the delegates how glad we are to have them with us. After the address the delegates will remain here for three days and during that time more welcome and real western hospitality can be shown than could be expressed in a dozen welcome addresses. The duty of welcoming a big gathering like this falls on the shoulders of every man, woman and child in the city. Begin planning now how your firm or how you as an individual can show the visitors that you are glad they selected Ballinger as a meeting place. Proclaim your welcome from your show windows and if opportunity presents itself go out of your way to be of service to the guests. It is a fine advertisement for any town when, after attending a convention, delegates say nice things about that town.

Angelo Baker Glad It Came His Way

Orgatone Beats Any Medicine He Ever Saw for Troubles Like His, He Says.

"I am certainly glad Orgatone came my way," says Ed L. Cole, a well known baker employed at Jerring Brothers Bakery and Grocery, residing at 117 N. Main Street, San Angelo, Texas, in an interview recently.

"My health had been broken down and bad for two years," continued Mr. Cole, "my stomach was all up-set, my food would sour and about two months ago I got poisoned from some food or other and I was in what I might call an awful fix. I had sharp shooting pains through my left and right side, especially at night, and I want to tell you I suffered intense agony. I was constipated and at times would nearly die with headaches. I was in a miserable shape and got to where I almost had to quit work. I began to pick up in just a day or so after I began taking Orgatone and have been gradually improving ever since. My stomach feels stronger and I can eat and digest many things now that I couldn't eat before without suffering afterwards. I'm not constipated like I was, my headaches are broken up and my appetite is enormous. My side is feeling all right now, my general health has greatly improved and I'm getting better right along. I have suffered a long time and have tried many different kinds of medicines but Orgatone beats them all. I could never get the right relief until I began taking it, therefore I have the best there is."

Genuline Orgatone may be bought in Ballinger at the Weeks Drug Store.

SUNDOWN STORIES

THE LAMB

By Mary Graham Bonner

The Little Black Clock had turned the time ahead only a few hours and had taken John and Peggy to see the Months and the Days and the Years in the place, back of the world, where they lived when they were not on duty.

One of the Months was all dressed up in the funniest looking costume. And he was packing a suitcase with another funny costume in it, too.

"That's March," said the Little Black Clock. "He's getting ready. He'll be on duty in no time at all."

Now he was packing some other things in his suitcase, and some suits that really looked too shabby and worn to be used.

He also had some suits that were very rough at the edges and almost in tatters.

"Why is he dressed so queerly?" Peggy asked.

"Haven't you ever heard the saying?" asked the Little Black Clock. "He is living up to it."

And then they understood, for they had heard the saying that March often came in as a lamb and went out as a lion.

Here was March, wearing a suit that made him look as though he were dressing up and pretending he was a lamb, and he had packed in his suitcase another suit which he evidently planned to wear on his way home which looked like a make-believe lion's suit.

"When he puts on his lamb suit he feels so gentle in it that he is very quiet and gentle. But when he puts on his lion suit he feels very much like roaring and acting the part," the Little Black explained.

The children thought it was very amusing to see the way the month of March was preparing himself.

After they were home and were asleep, and later when morning came, it really was a day that was just as quiet and gentle and soft and pleasant as a real spring day! John and Peggy knew why!

HOW'S your HEALTH

HEART TROUBLES

Heart disease is the leading cause of death in the United States. And yet this is not a single disease. In this grouping are included several disease-producing agents affecting the single organ.

This is not mere academic distinction. It is essential to the understanding of the heart disease problem, and to its successful solution and saving of lives.

The principal causes of diseases of the heart are rheumatic fever, syphilis and degeneration of the heart musculature and of the blood vessels.

These three groups of disease causation predominate respectively in three different age groups.

Rheumatic disease is responsible for most of the heart damage in young people.

Syphilis takes its toll from those of more mature years, while arteriosclerosis (hardening of the arteries) and the degenerative processes of the heart affect mainly those in the oldest age group. Importance of the heart disease problem, however, cannot be completely measured in terms of deaths. Disability from an impaired heart, that is, the amount of sickness and invalidism which foreruns death, is of great personal and social importance. And diseases of the heart usually tend to cripple the sufferer for a long period, often reducing his productivity and placing upon him, his family, or the state, the heavy economic burdens of medical, nursing and hospital care.

In the United States it is estimated that two out of every hundren persons have heart disease. Three out of every hundred men drafted during the World War were rejected on account of heart disease.

More than 200,000 children of school age are victims of heart disease.

Many cases of heart disease can be prevented. Most cases of heart disease can be so managed that the handicapped will have a prolonged life and usefulness, and be relieved from suffering.

"Health Again, All Thanks to Famed Konjola"

Stomach Ailment of Seven Years Standing Quickly Yields to Power of New Medicine.

MRS. MARY BRANDON

"For seven years I was the helpless victim of stomach trouble of the worst sort," said Mrs. Mary Brandon, 5889 Maffitt Street, St. Louis.

"It did not matter what I ate, belching and vomiting spells followed the simplest meal. The gas so pressed against my heart that I became short of breath and faint. Sour hot liquids seared my throat until the heartburn was often frightful. I grew weak and lost weight and strength. No medicine I tried helped me.

"Day by day and week by week after I began with Konjola, my system improved. The gas no longer forms in my stomach and now and the bloated sensation has passed. I have an excellent appetite and can eat a hearty meal without the least discomfort. The pains of heartburn are a thing of the past. I have gained weight and energy and my friends remark upon the change in my appearance. I can never express my gratitude for the relief which this great medicine brought me."

"Sleepy Head Town" Is Big Hit Here Thursday

A fair sized crowd witnessed the first presentation of "Sleepy Head Town" and "Varieties" offered under the auspices of the Camp Fire Girls at American Legion Hall Thursday night. The audience was large enough to be of great advertising value to the attraction and tonight's crowd should pack the auditorium if merits of the entertainment are considered.

It was something different, there is no question. The little ladies taking part in the show were perfect in their roles and practically every number was a surprise to the audience. The costumes are the most glittering and colorful ever seen on a local stage. They were worth the admission charged along and should be the cause of many people witnessing the show tonight.

Settings were beautiful and unique and never before seen in Ballinger. Dances were well rehearsed until a degree of perfection had been reached by each individual and group taking part. Musical numbers were new and well rendered and each brought applause from the hearers. Several singers were forced to make a second appearance.

Miss Katherine Payne, director of the entertainment, deserves much praise for her work with the children. That she is a competent instructor was demonstrated by the way the kiddies performed and the perfect order in which she handled large groups behind the screens.

The story opened in the town of "Sleepy Head." Two travelers arrived, Eleanor Williams and Teddy Wardlaw, to arouse the mayor, Louise Williams; the mother, Nell Shepperd; and the keeper of "Dream Hotel," Eveyin Teague. When the guests were made comfortable and realized they had come to the land of dreams they expressed wishes for the things they wanted in everyday life. The first wish was for their mother's powder puff, and no sooner had the wish been expressed than little Jean Bozells came through the tiny doors of the hotel, dressed like a big fluffy puff and went through a dance in perfect time with the music. The next desire was for a lip-stick, and Louise Hardin brought forth hearty applause from the crowd as she glided into the hotel in an abbreviated red suit. Her dance was one of high spots of the show. Louise is acrobatic and very supple. Little Jane Cheatham answered a wish for the sister's bonnet, and dressed in Colonial costume with ruffles to her feet, little pantalettes showing and bearing a beautiful yellow picture hat filled with rose petals she danced her way into the hearts of the audience as she scattered the blossoms over the stage. Patsy Doss was a peek-a-boo doll and her costume further emphasized the illusion. One traveler, becoming lonesome, wished for her jumping-jack, and Katherine Scales did cart-wheels on and off the stage. And next for the tourists' pleasure, a series of international dolls came tripping on stage in costumes of their countries to do characteristic dances. The first were the Chinese dolls, Doris and Wanda Lane, and Mary Simpson. Dressed in red pajamas with flowered coats they stepped through a dainty dance, bowing heads to the floor in Oriental fashion. As they departed Cordelia Giesecke and Lurene Strain, as Mexican dolls, did a Spanish jota. Master K. V. Northington, dressed in the feathers of a "big chief," with war paint and bow and arrow, presented a fine imitation of the native Indian. Being the first boy performer and maintaining strict tempo with the music in his steps he brought big applause. The "Sleepy Head" fireman, portrayed by Betty Ogbourne, furnished one of the most perfect dances of the entire show. The little lady worked like a professional and at no time was ever affected by the crowd before her or was lost from the music. Her regalia of red oil-cloth, fireman's hat and gauntlets was typical, and her excellent work was accorded a storm of applause. Next came the "Sleepy Head" soldiers, bringing their ladies to town. The soldier were Emma Jean Jones, Helen Thomson and Mary Parks; and the ladies, Dorothy Lynn, Elizabeth Motley and Frances Gustavus. The soldiers were in full uniform and leaving their escorts to one side of the stage went into a difficult dance rendition. These three young ladies, students of Miss Payne, have already become favorites in Ballinger as entertainers and in their numbers Thursday night did team dancing superbly. At the conclusion of this dance the troopers joined their ladies and the sextette danced its way from view. The ladies were beautifully attired in long Colonial dresses. This act closed "Sleepy Head Town."

Probably the best dancing team of the evening and one that would grace a professional performance came on in a waltz-clog, break-away. Virginia Holman and Margaret Rieves Sturges, dressed in white silk blouses and black satin overalls, simply captivated the crowd and were recalled for encores until they were exhausted.

As the Camp Fire Girls drill commenced the applause was the heaviest of the evening and a thrill stirred the hearts of everyone as the girls belonging to recently organized local units did a beautiful and intricate march. Dressed in their uniforms of white middies and black skirts, they appeared proud of the right to wear them.

To "Point-Up" Appetite Just Stimulate Bowels

Whenever the end of the day finds you out of sorts, food doesn't tempt you and won't digest; breath is bad; tongue coated, just chew a candy tablet before bedtime. Tomorrow you'll be a new person!

A candy Cascalet clears up a bilious, gassy, headachy condition every time. Peps appetite on edge. Helps digestion. Activates bowels.

Cascalets are made from casca, which authorities say actually strengthens bowel muscles. So, take these delightful tablets as often as you please; or give them freely to children. All drug stores sell Cascalets for a dime, and no dollar preparation could do better work.

sented Misses Claudia Smith, Ruth Forgy, Evelyn Brewer and Opal McWilliams in a dance number that was very well executed. These four young ladies were dressed as Pierrots, with one half white and one half black. As they danced their way from the stage Messrs. Wallace Chastain, Robert Lusk, Wm. Dickson and Davis Sims entered, singing "Sweeter Than Sweet," and as they finished they joined the four young ladies in a maze of dance steps for a finale to the act.

Little Betty Lou Ogbourne and Louise Williams were decided favorites in "Miss Simplicity," and again danced a difficult number without a slight bobble.

Virginia Holman and Margaret Rieves Sturges, who already had scored the biggest hit of the show, gave another dance equally as good as the first. They were compelled by the audience to repeat the number.

Clara Mae Forgy was the soloist in "Masquerade," and was joined by a chorus composed of Gladys Fulcher, Kathryn Barnett, Eloise Smith, Mildred Fulcher, Jimmy Taylor and Jean Gressett in song and dance. Evening dresses in pastel shades and electrical effects made this a stunning act.

Mary Parks, Emma Jean Jones and Helen Thomson, dressed as Russianians again displayed their ability in team dancing.

The show closed with Ruth Forgy singing "Blue Moon," colored electrical effects were used in this number and a train from the soloist's gown, formed the entire back setting for the stage. It was a fine climax to one of the best entertainments ever staged in the city.

The rising curtain on the final performance will be at 8:00 o'clock tonight and the Camp Fire Girls will appreciate a full house.

NOTICE W. M. A.

Ballinger Camp No. 12290 will meet in regular session Monday night, March 3rd, at 8:00 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

"Whole System In Good Order"

Sargon took right hold of my troubles, made me feel 100% better, put my whole system in good order and gave me a gain of seven pounds in weight.

A. J. BUTLER

"I was rundown and nervous and my whole system was 'out of gear.' My appetite was poor, my nerves were so upset I couldn't sleep good, and I'd get tired out before the day was half over. Cold weather seemed to go right through me and I took colds easily. Sargon brought back my appetite and this nourished and strengthened me. I sleep good, go through the day without tiring in the least and I haven't had a cold since I started the medicine. Sargon Pills completely ended my constipation and put my liver in fine condition."—A. J. Butler, 1121 E. Jefferson St., Fort Worth. J. Y. Pearce Drug Co., Agents.

Entertainment features to be furnished by the local organization are numerous and will fill all time not taken in business sessions. The first banquet for the delegates will be given at the Methodist Church Thursday evening at 6:30. Amusements

"Thirteenth Chair," Fine Talking Thriller, at the Palace

Strange mysteries in a ghostly room; voices from the great beyond, the exposing of mediumistic tricks and the dramatic solution of a baffling murder mystery are the elements in "The Thirteenth Chair." Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's all talking filmization of the stage play, being shown today and Saturday at the Palace Theatre.

Margaret Wycherly, who created the role of Rosalie La Grange, the medium, in the original stage offering, plays the role which she had in the stage play and has a battle of wits with the police for the life of her daughter. Tod Browning, purveyor of film mysteries, directed the new play, and equals his former achievements in the uncanny.

Conrad Nagel and Leila Hyams play the romantic leads in the new play, working out a romance amid the mystery, and Bela Lugosi, who played "Dracula" on the stage, plays the uncanny inspector, Delzante, who solves the queer mystery with the aid of the spirit medium. Interesting roles in the seance scene are filled by Helene Millard, Holmes Herbert, Moon Carroll, Mary Forbes, Charles Quartermaine, Gretchen Holland, Clarence Geldert, Frank Leigh, John Davidson and Bertram Johns, the latter playing the principal comedy relief.

The action of the play is laid in the British governor's home in Calcutta, and the weird mystery of India, together with strange lighting effects such as the moon-beam shining on the murderer's knife thrown into the ceiling, are among interesting technical details in the story.

The original play, a famous Broadway hit, was written by Bayard Veiller, author of "The Trial of Mary Dugan." The screen adaptation was the work of Tod Browning and Elliott Clawson, the latter noted for many of Browning's silent scripts, such as "The Road to Mandalay," "Where East is East," and others.
