Large Local Delegation Will Attend Convention

May 15 Final Date To Sign Contracts; Meetings Scheduled

Runnels county farmers have until May 15 to sign contracts for participation in the 1937 compliance program. This date has been set as the deadline and employees of the county agent's office will do everything possible to secure the papers of all farmers who desire to cooperate in the program by that time. To date 855 contracts have been signed by farmers and 110 ranchmen have signed on the range program.

No definite plan for community meetings has been decided and County Agent John A. Barton said today that details were not perfected for the final 15-day drive for signers. Some community meetings to be held will be attended by employees of the county agent's office, giving farmers an opportunity to sign then, and others may visit the office on the third floor of the court house, where assistance will be given in the preparation of papers.

The final date for the range program is May 1, but most of the ranchmen of this county have signed and many have begun clearing their grazing land of brush and prickly pears. This work will continue until later in the summer when a great deal of pasture terracing will be done.

BROWNWOOD MEN VISIT BALLINGER TO BOOST W. T. C. CONVENTION

Lyman E. Shaw, A. P. Rowland and Carl Biasig were in Ballinger Wednesday afternoon working in the interest of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention which will be held at Brownwood on May 10, 11 and 12.

While here the Brownwood men were assured that Ballinger would be well represented on May 11; would bring a band, enter a delegation in the parade, provide a sponsor and have a "home town" speaker in the contest of that title. The boosters were delighted with the cooperation planned here and stated that indications were that many West Texas towns would have large delegations at the convention.

NAZARENE CHORUS SERENADES

A chorus composed of young women of the Nazarene choir serenaded Ballinger citizens Wednesday night, singing the old familiar hymns. Visits were made to the county jail as well as to the residential sections of the city. The chorus was under the direction of Mrs. James McGraw.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Agnew left Wednesday for Mineral Wells where Mr. Agnew will play golf in an invitation tournament this week-end.

E. J. Burson, of Content, transacted business in Ballinger today.

Local leaders will make an effort to send a large delegation to Brownwood on the second day of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention. The public relations committee of the Ballinger Chamber of Commerce has started plans for the visit and plan to take the Ballinger Band, have a young lady representative from this city to take part in the "Follies of 1937," and a home town speaker to be named by the local schools.

Tuesday, May 11, will be known as "Ballinger Day" at the big convention and every business house in Ballinger will be asked to send an automobile and a representative to Brownwood to spend the day.

J. D. Motley, secretary, stated that a sponsor would be chosen by the local chamber of commerce about May 1. This young woman will take part in the big revue and her stage experience will be considered in making the selection.

An elimination contest is being held among high school boys and one will be selected from the large group entered to represent Ballinger in the "My Home Town" contest.

W. O. Wallace is director in the regional organization for Ballinger and probably will be nominated for reelection at the business session the last day of the convention.

Brownwood citizens anticipate the largest attendance at the convention in many years and are planning to entertain all who come in a fitting manner. The municipal auditorium provides a place for the large programs and bands from all sections of the state will furnish plenty of street entertainment.

A canvass for cars will be made in the business district here but any person not contacted by the solicitors is invited to join the caravan and attend the convention. Pavement all the way to Brownwood will make the trip very pleasant and the motorists can stay close to each other and parade when they arrive in the convention city.

CONTENT PRIMARY PUPILS GIVEN OUTING AT ABILENE

Mrs. Lum Gray, teacher in the primary department of the Content school, took all pupils of her room on an outing to Abilene the past week-end. She was assisted by Mrs. R. B. Smith, Mrs. C. E. Coats, Mrs. Walter Lafoon, Mrs. R. E. Lafoon, and Mrs. Edwards. In the morning the visited an Abilene park and inspected animals in the zoo. At noon a picnic lunch was served and in the afternoon the students were taken to the landing field to watch army planes alight.

LETTER FROM CONGRESSMAN DISCLOSES PLANS FOR NEW POSTOFFICE BUILDING HERE

According to a letter from the procurement division of the U. S. treasury department to Congressman Charles L. South and forwarded to Postmaster Tom Caudle, drawings revised to meet the approval of the postoffice department are nearing completion and it is expected that advertisements for bids for construction of the new postoffice building in Ballinger will be released for publication by the last of May.

The site of the new building, next door to the present structure, has been cleared and is ready for the construction. The Greenwood filling station, which formerly occupied that location, has been moved diagonally across the street.

Three New Cases Filed This Week In Local Courts

A charge of driving while drunk resulted from an automobile collision Sunday evening at the end of Broadway where the Abilene and Bronte highways intersect. The charge was filed against Metro Martinez after an investigation of the crash by local officers. The car driven by Martinez crashed into a Plymouth sedan driven by Miss Virginia Blair, of San Angelo. With Miss Blair were Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Murphy and Comer Burton, also of San Angelo. The case is now before the grand jury in 119th district court here.

V. O. Graves was also charged with driving while intoxicated this week after being arrested Monday by local officers.

A charge of swindling by bogus check was filed against L. T. Hensley and officers will go to Corpus Christi to return him to Ballinger if an indictment is returned by the grand jury. Hensley is alleged to have given a Winters merchant a check for $233 in payment for 190 sacks of threshed maize.

In county court Monday, T. E. Vaughn was fined $25 and costs on a charge of possession of beer for sale.

Judge O. L. Parish has heard a number of divorce suits and non-jury cases in 119th district court this week. Evidence was heard Tuesday in a case appealed from justice court at Winters in which Leola Holmes was seeking to have $1,000 peace bond set aside. After hearing witnesses the bond was reduced to $500. This was made and Mrs. Holmes released Tuesday evening.

Criminal cases will be heard beginning May 10, with a number of new cases to be called at that time. The grand jury was still busy today and will require most of the week to finish the investigations.

Judge O. L. Parish opened the spring term of 119th district court here Monday morning when a grand jury was selected from the venire of sixteen men and began investigating 43 cases submitted by the county attorney.

Practically all the week and perhaps more will be required to probe these charges and others that may develop in the meantime.

Next Monday a venire of 36 men will report for petit jury duty and the court will begin hearing evidence in cases ready for trial.

Judge Parish called attention to the numerous wrecks on highways in this vicinity caused by drunken drivers and asked the grand jury to look into these cases carefully.

Edgar Jayroe was made foreman of the grand jury to serve with: Bert Fletcher, William King, R. K. Russell, Gattis Neely, J. W. Stehle, J. R. Mackey, Fred Stallings, H. W. Lynn, D. A. Dobbins, James Glenn and A. W. Roach. Bailiffs appointed by the court were J. L. Aiy, P. I. Wood and Key Williams.

The petit jury venire to report next Monday morning at 10 o'clock is composed of the following:

- S. A. Hemmeline, Wingate
- I. G. Hensley, Wingate
- A. J. Glass, Miles
- Thomas Turner, Norton
- W. B. Curry, Miles
- C. Liddell, Winters route 1
- R. M. Lowry, Ballinger
- E. E. Adams, Miles
- Fred Machotka, Rowena
- O. G. Loudamy, Miles
- Willie Stephens, Ballinger
- Earl Schuhmann, Ballinger
- Alex McGregor, Ballinger
- Anton Pustka, Rowena
- R. J. Schovjisa, Miles
- J. D. Crockett, Winters route 1
- Louis Martin, Talpa
- T. J. Hull, Miles
- James Mitchell, Winters
- Dave Hinds, Winters
- A. L. Bueck, Rowena
- O. K. Jacob, Ballinger

Quaker Oats Will Launch Campaign Here This Week

In a new campaign the Quaker Oats Company is coming back to the small newspapers to advertise their products. To insure success of the initial effort, dealers and newspapers are joining in special cooperative plans.

Grocers appreciating the value of an established brand name knowing that customers like the privilege of calling for a national advertised product and knowing that it means they will receive the quality they expect, anticipate sales when local newspapers are used for advertising purposes.

When the Quaker Oats advertisement appears in The Ledger of this week it will contain the names of all the Quaker Oats dealers in this trade territory.

In addition to this display, The Ledger will distribute the Trick Book to each person who brings one Quaker Man from the large package of Quaker Oats or two small Quaker Men from two small packages of Quaker Oats. The Trick Book contains simple tricks that any boy or girl can perform for their own entertainment or others.

Dealers will cooperate in the campaign by using special displays in their stores and special Quaker Oats promotion in their advertising. The special campaign is being mapped here by representatives J. D. Brown and P. W. Lewis.

Ballinger Firemen Name Delegates For State Meeting

At the regular meeting of the Ballinger fire department last Thursday night plans were made for the state convention which will be held at Port Arthur on June 8, 9 and 10.

Malcolm Morgan and Woodrow Cox were elected official delegates of the Ballinger department with E. J. Carroll and C. G. Cape as alternates. In addition to the official representatives a number of others including Chief Chester Cherry intend to attend the 1937 convention.

A portion of the time Thursday evening was spent in discussing means of raising finances to take care of the trip and to handle other obligations of the department. No plan was announced, but a committee is considering several ways of raising the money. Chief Cherry will attend several important committee meetings at the state convention dealing with safety and with the firemen's school at College Station. He is head of the safety department of the state committee and is a director in the state fire school. The firemen expressed themselves as pleased with the results of Clean-Up Week and the efforts being made this week in the Mexican district of the city.

LOCAL GIRL SCOUTS WILL SPONSOR TEA TOMORROW

Ballinger Girl Scouts and their sponsors will hold a silver tea at the girls' lodge in city park tomorrow (Friday) afternoon and evening from 3 to 10. Music will be provided for entertaining, the lassies will be in costume to greet the visitors, and tea, coffee and cake will be served.

Adults in charge of Girl Scouting in Ballinger hope local citizens will cooperate with them in this effort to raise funds for the activities of the local unit. There is no annual drive made for subscriptions and in order to carry on a general program some expense is necessary. The girls and their leaders are willing to work for the needed finances and believe those who attend the tea will receive full value for the donation which is expected of those who are served.

The park is very beautiful at this time and the girls lodge is very attractive. A ride through the park and refreshments with the girls will not only provide entertainment but will help a worthy cause say council members in charge of the event.

WEST TEXAS FIND POULTRY RAISING BRINGS IN PROFIT

COLLEGE STATION, April 28.—Poultry is providing a profitable side line, and in some cases the main income for many West Texans, reports from county agricultural agents in that section indicate.

During the month of March, the county agricultural agent of Kendall county culled 13 farm poultry flocks. From a total of 1,596 hens, 402 were discarded for low production. In most cases, the culled were sold, and the money used to purchase baby chicks or young pullets. "I'll never put any more high priced feed in a non-producing hen, now that I know how to distinguish the good from the poor layers," said A. C. Dowdy, of Comfort.

In Coleman county, 69 turkey producers are participating in a cooperative poultry association in the marketing of their turkeys. The price has averaged 15 cents per egg and the weekly production brings an average of $1,100 to the growers. Eggs are taken up once a week.

The past six years have been discouraging one to many commercial poultry producers, but Willard Z. Lyons, El Paso county, has found that recommended poultry practices pay dividends even in poor years. He uses electric lights, straw litter and a wet mash to keep up production. For six years, Lyons has kept production and sale records on his poultry flock, and he has received an average return feed cost of $1.50 per hen over this period.

EMPLOYMENT IN TEXAS SHOWS GOOD INCREASE

AUSTIN, April 28.—Reports to the University of Texas bureau of business research from 1,753 Texas establishments show a total of 89,906 workers during March, an increase of 1.7 per cent of the preceding month and 10 per cent over March, 1936. Weekly pay rolls of these establishments totaled $2,173,072, an increase of 4.8 per cent over the preceding month and a gain of 16.7 per cent over the like month last year.

Industrial groups in which there was an increase greater than the average increase for all industries combined were: Cement, foundries-machine shops, millwork cotton textile mills, clothing manufacturing, bakeries, confectioneries, meat packing, furniture manufacturing, commercial printing, power and light, and business and personal service.

Since January 1, 1937, a total of 66 establishments employing 13,219 workers have reported wage-rate increases averaging 6.6 per cent and affecting 12,682 employees. Most of the increase in rates of pay occurred in petroleum, meat packing, and sulphur industries.

Only one wage-rate decrease was reported and that affected only six employees.

MANY TEXAS ESTABLISHMENTS REPORT INCREASED BUSINESS

AUSTIN, April 28.—Business of Texas department and specialty stores during March increased sharply over both the preceding month and the corresponding month last year, according to the University of Texas bureau of business research.

Reports from 99 establishments show total sales 27.9 per cent over the preceding month and 20.4 per cent over the like month last year. Aggregate sales during the first three months were 14.8 per cent above that of the corresponding period last year.

The increase in sales over last year exceeded that of the state during the two comparable months as well as the year to date in El Paso, Houston, Lubbock, and Port Arthur.

Scholastic Census Reported by Three Districts in County

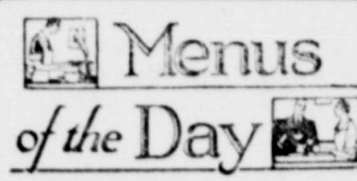

The 1937 census reports for three independent school districts not already reported have been filed, revealing a gain for two of them. Winters had the largest gain of any district in the county, 66 more than the enumeration taken a year ago. Rowena picked up 2 in the count, while Wingate lost 4. Miles and Norton have not yet been reported.

The enumerators' reports for the three districts completed this week are as follows:

	1937	1936
Winters	812	746
Rowena	184	182
Wingate	169	173
Previously reported were:
Ballinger	1,298	1,312
Rural	2,663	2,738
Total	5,126	5,151

To date, with two independent districts unreported, there are only 25 scholastics less in the county than one year ago. The two districts yet to be reported will likely have more than 500 and their reports will be about equal to that for 1936.

These reports will be checked in the office of County Superintendent E. C. Grindstaff for duplications and then sent to Austin for final inspection by the state department of education. The approved count there will be the number on which school aid will be paid.

Pie is generally a favorite. Here are some recipes that will enable you to serve a favorite sweet and still be in the mood of springtime.

Pineapple Meringue Pie

- 2 cups unsweetened pineapple juice
- 2 cups SWEET
- 1/4 cup lemon juice
- Grated rind of 2 lemons
- 1 tablespoon melted butter
- 4 tablespoons cornstarch
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 4 egg yolks
- 4 egg whites for meringue
- Bake 10-inch pie shell

Mix together the sugar, cornstarch, pineapple juice, lemon juice and salt in the top of a double boiler. Place over boiling water and cook until thick and clear—about 20 minutes. Stir frequently. Add the mixture slowly to the well beaten egg yolks. Stir until well blended and return to the double boiler. Cook until mixture thickens and pour into the baked pie shell. Allow to cook slightly.

To make meringue: beat the egg whites and when almost stiff add 4 tablespoons powdered sugar. Whip until very stiff. Pile the meringue lightly on the filling and spread over the top with a spoon. Bake in a moderate oven until the meringue is set and brown.

Creamy Custard Pie

Roll 12 graham crackers fine, add 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 teaspoon flour, 1/4 cup melted shortening and 2 tablespoons sugar. Mix well and use to line pie plate. Pour into it the following filling:

- Cook in a double boiler, stirring constantly until thick: 3 egg yolks, 1 cup evaporated milk diluted with 1 cup water, 1/4 cup sugar and 2 tablespoons cornstarch. Add 1/2 teaspoon vanilla. Bake the pie in a very moderate oven for half hour, top with meringue made with egg whites and 2 tablespoons sugar, sprinkle with graham cracker crumbs and brown lightly. Serve the pie cold.

STEEL SHORTAGE FACES NEW BRITISH LINER

LONDON, April 28.—Lack of steel may cause delay in launching the Queen Mary, sister ship of the Queen Mary. It is under construction at John Brown's Shipyard at Clydebank, Scotland. No. 552 is scheduled for launching in the fall of 1938, but this may not be accomplished until the spring of 1939.

The launch can take place only when tides are high in spring or fall. The shortage of steel is expected to be intensified when work begins on the new $35,000,000 battleship which Brown's will build for the British admiralty. The order for the battleship has not been given officially, but steel has been ordered for it and some already has reached the Clydebank yards.

MAN, 124, LIKES CHOPS

MANCHESTER, Eng., April 28.—Michael Moore, of Manchester, has been declared Britain's oldest man. He is 124, and apparently good for many more years. "Stomach never troubles me, less its empty," he says. "I like my food, and plenty of it."

Williamson Gives Dates for the 1937 Farm Short Course

Music Club to Meet

The Ballinger Music Club will hold its last meeting of the club year in the home of Miss Eugenia Baskin, 804 Sixth Street, Tuesday evening, May 4, at 7:30 o'clock.

Shakespeare Club Has Musical Program

Mrs. C. P. Shepherd was director for the annual musical program given by the Shakespeare Club when it met in the home of Mrs. E. C. Baskin on Sixth Street last Thursday afternoon.

Spring blooms decorated the living rooms where members and a few guests were received by Mrs. Baskin.

Mrs. H. C. Lyon was in the chair for the business session, with the roll call being answered by verses from "Genesis."

Mrs. Shepherd introduced the program by reading the poem, "I Am Music." The following musical numbers were given:

Hebrew melody, "Kol Nidre," by Bruch, and "Aria" by Te-gnalia, violin solos, Miss Carmen Demmer, Mrs. Alex McGregor accompanist; "Nobody Knows de Trouble I've Seen," negro spiritual, vocal trio, Mrs. Jack Nixon, Jr., Mrs. McGregor and Mrs. Troy Simpson, Mrs. Marcus Fury, accompanist; "Butterfly," by Lavalley, and "Rush Hour in Hong Kong" by Clarius, piano solos, Mrs. Fury; "By the Waters of Minnetonka" by Lieurance, and "Sorta Miss You" by Clay Smith, vocal solos, Mrs. Violet McKnight; "Fantasie Impromptu" by Chopin, and "Passee Pied" by Bach, piano solos, Mrs. Orland Sims of Paint Rock.

The next meeting will be the last of the club year and will be held in the home of Mrs. Lyon, the retiring president, on Eighth Street. Officers for 1937-38 will be formally installed.

Present were: Mmes. E. D. Walker, A. B. Stobaugh, Dwight Sharpe, R. T. Williams, J. A. Williams, E. H. Forgy, B. C. Kirk, Lyon, Nixon, Sims, Leonard Stallings, Shepherd, Fury, Edgar Boelsche, Kenneth Anderson of Palestine, Lela McAdams, G. M. Vaughn, C. R. Stephens, McGregor, J. A. Waide of Paint Rock, J. A. Paul Gibbs, Roy Worley, Jack McKay, Jack Sublett and Oscar Cardenas.

Mrs. Stasney Hostess

Mrs. E. W. Stasney was hostess in her home on Eighth Street on last Friday and Saturday afternoons, including Triple-Four Contract Club members and added friends.

Varied blooms were used to give floral decoration to rooms and a large low crystal bowl filled with bluebonnets centered the dining room table laid in lace. Delft blue tapers in crystal candelabra completed the table adornment. Pink rosebuds in tall vases centered the madeira laid tables at the tea hour when a salad course with iced tea was served by Mrs. Stasney assisted by her sister, Mrs. Tommie Hall.

On Friday Mrs. Bailey Mack received a traveling award and guest prizes went to Mrs. L. LaRoe of Whitewright, and Mrs. Kenneth Anderson of Palestine. On Saturday the traveling trophy was won by Mrs. Ralph Payette and high score by Mrs. Oren Chandler.

Included were: Mmes. Tom Agnew, R. W. Earnshaw, J. B. Striplin, L. R. Tigner, Harry Lynn, K. V. Northington, Ross Murchison, Claude Stone, Alex McGregor, J. A. Schnable, Troy Simpson, O. T. Methodist Circles Have Social Meeting

Mrs. Cal Adair and Mrs. J. E. Smith were joint hostesses to the Ettie Gressett circle of the Methodist Missionary Society Monday afternoon in the Adair home on Eighth Street. Mrs. John Weeks, Mrs. R. W. Earnshaw and Miss Alice Morgan entertained the Etta Burroughs circle in the Weeks home on Eighth Street.

Bible lessons from the "Parables of Jesus," using the parables, "The Importunate Widow" and "The Friend at Midnight" on the "God Who Answers Prayer," were given by Mrs. A. B. Legate and Mrs. Troy Simpson.

Refreshments were served to forty.

Ballinger Teachers to Luncheon in San Angelo

Misses Marryatt Smith, Faye Clark, Lucile Williamson, Wynis Greer, and Mrs. Levy Lee attended the Founder's Day luncheon of the Delta Kappa Gamma held in the Indian room at the Hotel Caetus at San Angelo last Saturday.

Pink roses and larkspur were used in decorating and small baskets of wild flowers were plate favors. The table centerpiece, planned by Miss Smith and made by the Ballinger teachers, was a log cabin made of handkerchiefs wrapped in brown paper rolls to simulate logs. This will be presented to the state president at the San Antonio convention with the handkerchiefs being gifts from the various Texas chapters.

The organization in Texas is eight years old and on the program Saturday Miss Smith paid a tribute to the founders of the national Delta Kappa Gamma. She was also elected first vice-president of the Alpha Beta chapter.

Club Entertained by Mrs. Payette

Red verbenas were used exclusively by Mrs. Ralph Payette to give added charm to her home on Tenth Street on Thursday afternoon of last week when she entertained Contract Club members.

A salad course was served with iced tea. Mrs. Lawrence Grier received high score prize in games with: Mmes. Doe Huddleston, W. B. May, G. A. Swann, Henry Doss, V. L. Reed of Andrews, Clinton Glover, R. J. Hawk and D. W. Hooper.

Presbyterian Young People Attend Conclave

The Rev. Dwight A. Sharpe, Ralph James Erwin, Jack Bandy McGregor, Joe Simmons, Jr., Walter Trimmer, Alexander McGregor, Jean Helwig, Juliette Simmons and Armour Lynn McGregor attended the spring rally of Presbyterian young people held on Jim Ned Creek near Coleman on last Friday and Saturday.

Miss Bitsie Lynn was elected secretary of the organization.

Five Are Hostesses to Philathea Class

Mrs. O. R. Lasater, Mrs. A. B. Legate, Mrs. Homer Vanderpool, Mrs. J. W. Moore and Miss Cora Hays were hostesses to the Methodist Philathea Class Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Lasater on Sixth Street.

A profusion of blossoms decked rooms and a birthday cake iced in pink and green centered the dining room table. Pink primrose blooms and fern were placed around its base. Mrs. Ralph Payette, Mrs. Cecil Jones and Mrs. Clyde Harville were birthday honorees.

During the business session, with Mrs. Tom Agnew presiding, it was voted to pay $30 on the church note and a surprise gift of $50 from Mr. Tom Agnew made it possible to pay $100.

Mrs. Tom Caudle led the devotional and during the social hour little Gwen Morgan gave a group of readings and Mrs. Wilbur Redwine played piano selections.

Ice cream and angel cake was served by the hostesses to: Mmes. Ed Donaldson of Marshall, B. H. McLean, J. E. Smith, George Killiam, Sam Behringer, Cal Adair, Hatton Laxson, Gertrude Woods, J. L. Davis, Ralph Vanell, John Barton, Layne Moreland, Rothal O'Kelly, Sanford Roe, Redwine, E. S. Cox, Caudle, Ford Taylor, M. S. Patrick, Payette, J. B. Striplin, Joe Morrison, E. E. Avey, O. R. O'Neill, Agnew, Glenn Morrison, Gerald Black, Jones, Ona Penn, L. M. Lovelace, Jack Nixon, Sr., Fred Parker, Troy Simpson; Misses Thelma Midgley and Zadie Royalty.

Birthday Party Held in Park

A party in city park last Friday afternoon was given for Frances Hammon by her mother. The occasion was the twelfth birthday anniversary of the honoree.

Games were played and refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to: Marjorie McGregor, Betty Jean Harper, Claudia Cunningham, Bernice Smith, Mary Lou Gurley, Mary Elizabeth Tyson, Eula Mae Payne, Wanda Jack Thomas, Mary Lou Routh, Edna Mae Jones, Mildred Hash, Yvonne Waldrop and Willa Mae Rudder.

Mrs. Swann Hostess to Club

It was closed club on Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. G. A. Swann was hostess in her Wilke Terrace home. Roses combined with honeysuckle gave beauty and fragrance to rooms and rose tallees were used for recording scores with Mrs. Joe Beck, Jr. winning the reward for high score.

A delectable refreshment plate with rosebud plate favors was served.

Included were: Mmes. W. B. May, Joe Beck, Jr., James Parrish, Doe Huddleston, Lawrence Grier, Raleigh Reese, J. R. Hawk, and Miss Louise Batts.

Barbecue in Paint Rock

Misses Imogene Waide and Pearl Currie included a group of Ballinger friends at a barbecue supper given on the Currie ranch near Paint Rock Wednesday evening.

Included from here were: Misses Griffie Atkins, Faye Clark, Lucile Williamson, Evelyn Crowell, Bernice Simmons, Beulah White and Vernie Downing.

Benefit Forty-Two Party Given by Class

A benefit forty-two party was given last Friday evening in the assembly room at the city hall by the Methodist Fellowship Class, of which Mrs. J. G. Douglass is teacher.

Beautiful spring flowers were used in profusion to decorate the large room where seventeen tables of players enjoyed games.

During the refreshment hour tap routine numbers were given by Winnie Merle Adair and Mary Simpson and Mrs. Wilbur Redwine played a group of popular piano selections.

Girl Scouts to Sponsor Tea

A come-and-go silver jubilee anniversary benefit tea will be given by the Girl Scouts of Ballinger in their attractive lodge in city park on Friday, from 3 until 10 p. m.

Mrs. Stasney is Program Leader

Mrs. E. W. Stasney, cause secretary of Christian education of the Woman's Auxiliary of the First Presbyterian Church, was leader for the regular monthly inspirational program given in the church basement on Broadway Monday afternoon. Purple irises and pink roses were used for decoration.

The phase of Christian education stressed in talks made by Mrs. Stasney, Mrs. Estes Lynn and Mrs. L. J. Campbell, was the usefulness of college students in their own churches during vacation periods. Mrs. Leonard Stallings gave the devotional.

Mrs. Frank Pearce and Mrs. George Holman were hostesses during the social hour and served a plate of ice cream and angel cake with pink rosebuds as plate favors.

Methodist High School Seniors Guests of Honor

Misses Camille Behringer, Kathryn Scales, Jennie V. Tunnell, Louis Ruhmann, Robert Clark and J. C. Chapman were named guests of honor by the Methodist young people's department Tuesday evening with a picnic supper in city park.

Mrs. Ray Tisdale, Mrs. B. H. McLean and Wilbur Redwine sponsored the affair attended by the following besides the honor guests: Willie Mae McMillan, Marie Roe, Imogene McKown, Zelma Lee Evans, Edith Jones, Cyrene Andrews, Margaret Jones, Betty Lawrence, Cordelia Lynn, Wagner Byler, Gordon Powers, Cecil Roe, Billie Jack Connelly, Harris Lovelace, Corbett Davis, Johnny Barnett and Dillard Adair.

Mrs. Creasy Entertains Club

Mrs. Bruce Creasy entertained the members of her bridge club Tuesday with a dessert luncheon in her home on Fourth Street.

Snap dragons and corn flowers graced rooms where the usual contract games followed the dessert course of fresh strawberry cream and angel cake.

Included were: Mmes. George Holman, Estes Lynn, Harry Lynn, Victor Miller, L. R. Turner, Robert Lowry, E. C. Baskin, Paul Trimmer, R. G. Erwin, Malcolm McGregor, Frank Pearce, Misses Florence Westbrook and Winnie Trail.

Delphians Have Last Program Meeting of Year

The Alpha Mu Delphian chapter met in the home of Miss Cathleen Connelly on Eighth Street Tuesday afternoon for the last program of the club year.

Miss Louise Batts, director, was assisted by Mrs. Oren Chandler, Miss Connelly, Mrs. Edgar Boelsche, Mrs. F. C. Miller, Miss Florence Westbrook, Mrs. Charles Bailey, Mrs. W. B. Halley and Mrs. Ford Taylor in presenting an interesting program on the topic, "Eternal Rome."

Others present were: Mmes. Wallace Jones, Chester Cherry, O. R. Laasater and Walter Allison.

Supper for Methodist Men's Classes

The Bruce Bible Class members of the Methodist Church school were invited guests at a barbecue supper given in city park Tuesday evening by the Deas Bible Class.

The general committee was composed of Troy Simpson, R. W. Earnshaw, D. G. Posey, Jim Dankworth, Rothal O'Kelly and C. G. Jennings. Others assisting in serving were Hugh Robinson, Joe Forman and Oscar Cardenas.

Tom Agnew, class president, was in charge of the informal program and talks were made by the Rev. Homer Vanderpool, D. R. Hall and H. W. Lynn.

One hundred and twenty men were present.

OLDFEN 4-H BOYS' CLUB

The 4-H boys' club of Oldfen met with County Agent John A. Barton on April 22 for the purpose of arranging the different projects. All members were present. Nine boys signed up for cotton, nine for pigs, one for corn, and two for poultry.

Mr. Barton demonstrated how to go about the different projects and showed pictures of different kinds of hogs. He stressed especially the care of hogs; how to make cool pens, slop and water troughs and self-feeders. He also told us how much tankage, cottonseed meal and threshed maize should be fed to hogs each day.

At the close of the meeting he invited the members to attend a club meeting at the Ballinger court house on Friday, April 23. The meeting then adjourned.

Cotton and Pig Projects Started by 4-H Clubbers

Important meetings for 4-H club boys were held in Ballinger Friday and Saturday of last week, members having pigs as a project meeting Friday and cotton project boys meeting Saturday.

other business was attended to that will provide programs for the summer and fall.

Those present voted to hold a two-day summer camp the latter part of July. Adult leaders will meet soon to make the arrangements, set dates, and attend to other details of the gathering.

Each of the 65 boys will do all the work included in the cotton project this year. H. W. Lynn, manager of the West Texas Cotton Oil Company mill in Ballinger, furnished 48 boys with Acala cottonseed for planting, and 17 will plant another variety.

It was also voted that each club in the county would hold one social meeting during the summer. Plans were made and accepted to provide one or more demonstration teams for the summer camp. These teams will be divided into two classes, one group 15 years of age and older, and the other composed of boys under 15 years old.

Teams will do work in the making, fly control, culling poultry, rodent control, treatment of oats for smut, cauponizing, grading and stapling cotton, setting up and adjusting farm levels, making jointed tile for sub-irrigation.

It was decided to send seven boys to the short course at College Station this year. Three cotton project boys and four livestock project boys will make up the delegation.

There are a number of county, state and national contests to be held this year in which Rannels and in addition to making plans in county boys will participate. These include the Santa Fe trip, rural electrification, state gold star award, the Armour Co. contest on meat animals, 4-H social contest, and farm record keeping. An Achievement Day will be held in December for all members who complete their scheduled work.

There were 31 boys and 7 adults present for the meeting of the boy pig raisers Friday afternoon. An effort will be made to obtain a number of pure bred pigs for the boys and most of these present decided upon the Poland China variety.

Certain requirements for full participation in the pig club were adopted at this meeting. They include:

1. Securing high quality animals
2. Providing sudan pasture
3. Separate feeding and drinking places
4. Self feeder and balanced rations. The rations approved are equal parts of cottonseed meal and tankage with half a pound a day besides all the grain the hogs will eat, except in cases where plenty of milk is fed and then half a pound.
5. Building of an A-shaped house for the pigs.

The members favored a pig show in the early fall, breeding of the animals about November 11, and a sow and litter show in the spring.

BALLINGER SCHOOL NEWS
By Elsie Lynn

Mr. Lyon Speaks in Chapel
Mr. H. C. Lyon spoke to the student body in chapel Friday morning, April 23. Mr. Lyon spoke on "Responsibilities of Youth." He urged the students to work at worthwhile tasks in their homes and in school. "All play and no work makes Jack a dull boy," he said. Mr. Lyon urged boys to work to a goal of physical and moral efficiency. He commented on their participation in football. In general he urged all students to take more interest in participation in interscholastic league events. At the conclusion of his talk, Mr. Lyon led the assembly in a number of songs.

Miss Elizabeth Parker and Mr. Felton Wright arranged the program.

Kathryn Bell Wins in Regional Ready Writing, Class A

Kathryn Bell was awarded first prize in the ready writing contest for class A high schools at regional meet, held at Abilene last Saturday, April 24. Kathryn's subject was, "How It Feels to be a Winner." She will now go to Austin to compete in the state contest.

Places Won in Art Contests

Mary Lou Creasy won second place in water color at the Abilene regional meet; G. B. McBride won second place in clay modeling; and Elsie Lynn won second place in charcoal drawing.

Eighth Period Spanish Club Meets

The eighth period Spanish Club, "El Circulo Adelante," met Friday afternoon, April 23. Waldine Schlake had charge of the following program that was presented: a song, "Pajarillo Barranquero," by the class; a debate, by Melvin McMillan, Lorene Norman, Thelma Compton, and Mary Edith Welhausen; a song, "Despertad," by the class; and Spanish riddles, by Geraleen Hennig. The remainder of the period was spent in singing Spanish canciones.

Seniors Have "Hick" Party

New type of mine laying submarine, the H. M. S. Grampus, recently built at Chatham dockyard, as it appeared in the harbor of Kent, England. Undersea craft such as this are part of Britain's rearmament program.

April 23. Each senior came dressed as the member of his family he represented.

Various games and contests were staged between the two families, after which ice cream and cake was served.

Chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Behringer, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Tunnell, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lynn, Mrs. R. M. McMillan, and the class sponsor, Miss Elizabeth Parker.

Junior-Senior Banquet to be Held Friday Evening

The junior class will honor the senior class with a banquet on Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock in the Methodist church. Elaborate plans are being made for the affair. All members of both classes are looking forward to a very enjoyable time.

These 1936-37 Seniors

CLAUDINE MALISH
Claudine lives in Rowena. She has gone to school in Ballinger two years. Before coming here, she attended the Rowena public school.

When she was in the fifth grade, she entered picture memory in county meet and won second place. She entered spelling three years, winning second place twice and first place once. She played volleyball in county meet for Rowena four years.

Claudine's favorite sports are dancing, skating, and volleyball; her favorite subject is Spanish; and her favorite pastime is reading.

She says, "I have enjoyed going to the Ballinger senior high school and I think the teachers and pupils are just grand."

Claudine is a popular student. She smiles and the world smiles with her. Her ready wit makes her a good companion in any crowd.

VICTOR MILLER
Victor lives at 701 Sixth Street. He has gone to school here eleven years. In county meet he played baseball at third base in his freshman and sophomore years. The first year the team won second place and the second year they won third place. He has been a member of the debate club and dramatic club. His ambition in life is to become foreman for a group of "drug store cowboys."

His most enjoyable pastime is swimming, his favorite subject is physics, and his favorite sport is tennis.

Victor is a good natured member of the senior class. He is always a willing worker and has a good class spirit.

He's getting that "San Antonio spirit" with the rest of us!

Where's That Birdie?

Park, have you really been looking at those "barn plans" for an English project?

Flash!! Louis, Clacy, and Bobby have some new girl friends! Louis, how do you like to drive gray Oldsmobiles?

Frank's happy appearance has changed to one of gloom! Junior, could there be trouble in the air?

Roy Gressett, what's this we hear about your thinking of matrimony?

Sis, you must learn to control your "laughter."

Jack May and Betty are beginning to think "three's a crowd!"

Louis doesn't seem to cater to fingers dipped in castor oil!

"We hear that Virginia Anderson believes in "corresponding briefly!"

Marjorie Mitchell has the whole school worried about some rumors that are travelling around! Are they true, Marjorie?

Does Alva know his grammar or his apples? He read a very peculiar sentence in English class recently.

It seems the seniors are to have many good surprises in store for them Friday evening at the junior-senior banquet. Don't forget the date! April 30!

Miss Meyer is seen constantly arranging her curls these days with her left hand!

Isn't it just too romantic for words that two of our ex-teachers have "new heirs"? Mrs. Harry Sykes (nee Miss Elkins) has a baby boy, Mrs. Howard Parker (nee Miss Shepherd) has a baby daughter. We are wondering if these two children can already use their commas and periods in the correct places? Congratulations to both happy families.

RETURN OF HERRING PUZZLES SCOT SCIENTISTS

EDINBURGH, Scotland, April 28.—Scientists are studying the strange return of herring to the mouth of the River Tay after twenty-five years' absence. Some change in the North Sea drove them away, and not until this winter have conditions made a return practicable, but there they are again, their eggs teems as of old.

Obviously these are not the same fish that used to go there. Many generations of herring have come and gone since the Tay ceased to be a spawning area. Science is asking what kind of a memory is this. Do fish inherit remembrance of places? Can the recollection of a spawning site be transmitted? The question has not been answered.

Helen Stephens, 20, Fulton, Mo., was selected the outstanding feminine athlete of 1936 for her track and field achievements, including a national championship and her Olympic conquests.

35 MILLION POUNDS TEXAS FARM SURPLUSES REMOVED

COLLEGE STATION, April 28.—Nearly 35 million pounds of farm products were purchased in Texas in 1936 through a national program for the removal of price-depressing surpluses, according to Jack Shelton, vice-director and state agent of the extension service.

The products purchased were turned over to the federal surplus commodities corporation for distribution, in cooperation with state relief agencies, to persons on relief rolls who could not buy them in the regular channels of trade, Shelton said.

Surpluses removed in Texas last year included 13,236,329 pounds of grapefruit, 21,682,400 pounds of onions, and 120,000 dozen eggs. The grapefruit was distributed in Arkansas, Colorado, Iowa, Illinois, Kansas, Louisiana, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Texas, and Wisconsin; the onions in Alabama, Arkansas, Connecticut, Delaware, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Massachusetts, Missouri, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, and Wisconsin; the eggs in Texas, Columbia; and the eggs in Texas.

Removal of these surpluses resulted in no increase in prices to consumers of the products involved in commercial markets, Shelton pointed out. On the contrary, he said that in many cases the program actually operated in the interest of consumer by encouraging continued production and maintenance of the producing capacity.

Many Hear Speakers Explain Tuberculin Tests for Children

A large audience was present at the meeting of the Ballinger Lions Club last Friday to hear Mrs. Florence Breed, of the national tuberculosis association, and Miss Helen LeLacheur, of the state association. Besides the Lions, a number of Rotarians and workers in the public health program of the county attended.

Mrs. Breed spoke on the work being done in the nation to combat the disease and the excellent effects being obtained. She dwelt at considerable length on tuberculin tests being given school children and the importance of checking students of high school age where about 10 per cent show positive reactions. The tests, she declared, are painless and leave no bad effects. Where positive reactions result from the tuberculin tests, a follow-up procedure is initiated which includes X-ray of the lungs of the patient to see how far advanced the disease has become.

Miss LeLacheur told of cases in this section which have been corrected and some of the many that are now in need of attention. She said there were nine deaths in Rannels county resulting from tuberculosis in the past few months. These nine persons, she pointed out, had constantly exposed 81 others and these should receive tests at once and those showing reactions have treatment.

Mrs. Breed devoted part of her talk to the sale of tuberculosis Christmas seals and urged that a county-wide educational campaign be conducted next fall to remind citizens of the need of buying these stamps. Receipts from the sale of seals have promoted the national and state associations and more money is always needed to carry on an effective program, she asserted. She stated that about four cents per capita was con-

Program at Nurses' Meeting on Public Health Open to All

Miss Beulah White, county health nurse, will make a special effort to get a large number of Rannels county people to attend the state nurses' association at San Angelo Saturday. The convention opened Wednesday of this week, but Saturday will be public health day and the meetings will be open to all those interested in the health programs being conducted in the counties by the county health nurses and local organizations.

A number of letters have been mailed to leaders in the various communities and schools of the county, urging that delegations be arranged to attend the Saturday sessions at San Angelo.

Miss Dorothy Deming, of New York, general director of national public health nursing, will speak at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, and at 11 o'clock Miss Olga Brehm will be the speaker on "Mental Hygiene."

All the program Saturday will be of interest to members of county health units and assisting in the program of the schools.

Miss White will conduct her regular program in the county this week-end and next, being away only Saturday. Summer round-ups will demand most of her time until the end of the school term.

HATCHEL GIRLS' 4-H CLUB

The girls' 4-H club of Hatchel met April 22. Miss Tankersley was present and talked on furniture repairing. Some of the girls have started their towels. The club met with their sponsor, Mrs. A. M. — considered good but that Rannels countians had bought less than one cent per capita so far. Last year an increase in revenue was derived from the seal sale in this county, however.

Jackson. There was no club meeting held on April 8, because the sponsor had to be away on business. At the last meeting there were sixteen present and one new member was received.

PERFECTION OIL RANGE
does away with stooping!

● If you have ever bent your back to tend a low oven or knelt down on the floor to light it, you will appreciate the PERFECTION Oil Range oven—built above table height to save stooping, reaching and lifting. You will like the way it bakes, too, for it is built on the famous PERFECTION "live-heat" principle with "air seal" insulation. The burners are easily lighted from the front. They are High-Power burners, quick to respond with speed that compares with gas. Easy to regulate for any type of cooking—and always clean burning. The concealed, removable fuel reservoir holds TWO gallons. It is located beside the cooking top, easily accessible from the front of the range. Isn't it time you had a convenient stove? Your dealer will gladly show this beautiful range, also other modern PERFECTIONS.

OLDFEN SCHOOL 4-H CLUB
 The Oldfen school 4-H club had a very interesting meeting March 23, in which the officers had a great surprise for the members. They demonstrated the fixing of a very tasty school lunch, using some of their garden produce in the demonstration.

It was so much enjoyed and appreciated that they decided to have the demonstration in all the classrooms.
 The results have been very satisfactory, as many children try to have their lunch as neat and tasty as possible, and more are enjoying a hot dish for their lunch.
 The 4-H club enjoyed the fine school lunch after the meeting as a reward for their efforts in preparing it.
 The dresser which was being repainted is ready for inspection and is just like a new piece of furniture.

NEON SIGN INSTALLED
 BY PEARCE DRUG CO.
 Adding much to the night appearance of Hutchings Avenue, the J. Y. Pearce Drug Co. installed a neon sign Monday. The sign, 16 by 4 feet, is dark blue with light blue neon tubing and trimmed with red tubing. The old electric sign over the front of the store has been placed at the rear entrance of the building.

The farmers are very busy these days planting cotton.

SPRING HILL SKYLINE

The ice cream supper given for the benefit of the Spring Hill school was not as well attended as was expected on account of a sandstorm that lasted on into the night. However, we were very glad to have all who came and the returns were much more than we expected under such trying conditions.

Mrs. Paul Richardson has returned to Paint Rock, where she teaches, after spending the week-end at her home in this community.

Mrs. Wylie and daughter, Miss Opal Wylie, of Ballinger, visited Mrs. Wylie's married daughter, Mrs. Harry Paschal, Friday of the past week.

The Spring Hill Parent-Teacher Association will meet Friday, May 7, at the school house. All members are urged to be present as there is some business we must attend to and we also intend to have a program in keeping with Mother's Day.

The fifth grade children held a class meeting in which an organization was formed. The following officers were elected: president, Clyde Allison, Jr.; vice-president,

Bradley Hale; secretary, Mary Nell Baker; reporter, Billy Bob Paschal; sponsor, Miss Kathryn Atwell. The class flower is the rose; the colors, red and white; and the class motto, "Strive to do Right."

Students of the seventh grade met at the noon hour Friday to organize a club. Jack Wheelis was elected president; Alexa Piel, vice-president; Cora Ellen Allison, secretary and treasurer; Ruth Couvisier, reporter; Miss Southern, sponsor. Appointed to the social committee are Elexa Piel, Cora Ellen Allison. The class colors are pink and blue; the class flower, the pink carnation; and the class motto is "Fight for the Best."

The club is planning a wiener roast for Friday night.

'Miss Ballinger' Will be Chosen in Contest May 7

A contest will be held Friday, May 7, at the Texas Theatre for the purpose of selecting a local young woman to represent Ballinger at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention in Brownwood on May 10, 11 and 12. The girl chosen as "Miss Ballinger" will have all expenses paid by the local chamber of commerce and will participate in the contest there at which a "queen" will be selected to rule over the "court." The princesses will also be entertained while at Brownwood with special teas, etc.

The same young woman will be sent to Fort Worth May 22 to participate in the statewide contest for the title of "Texas Sweetheart No. 1" for the Fort Worth Frontier Fiesta. Even though she is not designated as winner she will be given an opportunity to be cast in the Casa Manana revue to be presented at Fort Worth this summer

Four Churches to Hold Union Summer Services

Pastors and laymen representing four Ballinger churches met Monday evening at the First Presbyterian Church to perfect plans for holding union Sunday evening services this summer. It was decided to start the second Sunday in July and continue for four weeks, and if the services are proving popular to continue four more weeks, concluding the last Sunday in August.

Those attending the meeting were Rev. Wallace Jones and W. O. Wallace, First Christian Church; Rev. Dwight A. Sharpe and A. McGregor, First Presbyterian Church; Rev. C. H. Ward and Roy Hill, Eighth Street Presbyterian Church; and Rev. Homer Vanderpool and Troy Simpson, First Methodist Church.

The committee decided on the Ballinger football field for the place, will have a speakers stand erected on the north side of the field, and provide whatever lights were necessary for the services. Pastors of the four churches will do the preaching, taking their time in order, a union choir will be organized to feature the singing of old time gospel songs with the congregation taking part.

A. McGregor was appointed in charge of arrangements for the athletic field, W. O. Wallace in charge of providing lights, Wilbur Redwine to provide a public address system, O. R. O'Neil to look after construction of the speaker's stand, Roy Hill to be responsible for ushers, Troy Simpson in charge of the music.

In addition to providing services for the members of the four churches and others in Ballinger who will want to attend the plan will feature community nights for various sections of Runnels county. These communities will be assigned a special night, the date to suit their convenience, and quartets and other special groups from the community will be presented as a part of the program for that night.

Little Snow in London

Snowfall in London, England, is exceedingly small, many winters being without even a trace of snow.

WEDDINGS

Boyd-Wetzel

Mike C. Boyd, of Ballinger, and Mrs. Susie Wetzel, of Brownwood, were married Monday evening at 5 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Pilcher, Mr. Pilcher performing the ceremony. The couple are residing at the Boyd home on Broadway.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd have known each other for many years, she living most of the past 20 years in Brownwood. For a few years she was a nurse at San Angelo and on Wednesday evening a large group of San Angelo friends came over and surprised her with a shower.

Mr. Boyd is a pioneer of Runnels county and for 21 years was a member of the county's official family. He served 10 elective terms as tax assessor and one year by appointment. Since retiring from office he has operated a nursery and fruit farm in South Ballinger. Mr. Boyd is a tireless worker for yard and park beautification and has given much assistance in improving several parks in the county.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Ely, of Sweetwater, spent the week-end here with relatives.

Hugo Schuchard, of Fort Worth, visited his brother, Ed Schuchard, here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Reese returned Sunday from Houston and Galveston, where they visited their son, Frank Reese, and family. They were accompanied by Mrs. Burton Reese and little daughter, Carolyn, of Stephenville.

French Town Boasts of a "Monument" to Gossip

Mulhouse, France.—At Mulhouse is a "monument" which, instead of glorifying the virtues of some historic character or event, symbolizes an ancient and modern vice, scandal-mongering.

It is known as the anti-gossip stone, and hangs outside the city hall, which is a magnificent example of sixteenth century art. In days gone by this stone was placed about the necks of tattletales as a punishment for gossip and a warning. Carved in the stone is a woman sticking out her tongue, and an old ditty which, roughly translated, says:

I am the tattletale stone,
To each poisoned tongue well known,
Those who are chatty,
Quarrelsome, catty,
Must carry me all day long.

Doubtless the stone served its purpose, for Mulhouse has developed a race of intelligent, industrious artisans.

She Was Taxpayer
—Beyond a Doubt

Madison, Wis.—A woman marched into the governor's ornate reception chamber and dropped sighing into a huge leather cushioned chair. She took off her shoes, put her feet on the massive carved table, smiled a minute and stepped back into her shoes.

Then before shocked employes could even ask her name, she left, remarking: "There, I guess I've got something for my money now."

It was believed she was a taxpayer.

Words Have Opposite Meaning

Thousands of the words we use have an entirely opposite meaning to that of the words from which they sprang. Pretty, quite complimentary, comes from the Anglo-Saxon praetig, which meant tricky or sly. The adjective nice has a pleasant meaning but it comes from the French, nice, meaning foolish or simple, and its real origin is the Latin, nescius—ignorant, says Pearson's London Weekly.

Eat Meat that is Produced -Fattened and Butchered in Runnels County-- (Your Home)

We are proud that all fresh meats that are sold over our counters are of the very choicest home raised, home fattened and home killed. Runnels county produced beef, pork and lamb of the very highest variety and we are striving to make it a better place in which to live, therefore we believe and practice, patronizing home industry first, last and always.

If every citizen of Runnels county would adopt the idea of patronizing home industry first, then there would be no doubt of our home enterprises expanding. Every cent you spend for meat that is shipped in is largely returned to other points for their prosperity, and Runnels county people do not realize a thing from this arrangement. Know that the meat you eat is produced at home by asking for it.

Friday and Saturday Specials

For the current week-end we offer some very special prices on Runnels county meats. Produced, fattened and butchered at home.

Many Cotton Farmers Hear Day in Mass Meeting Here

Cliff H. Day, vice-president of the Texas Agricultural Association, met farmers from 16 communities in Runnels county at the Ballinger city hall Tuesday afternoon. The meeting was well attended and much interest was shown in the organization by the farmers. N. S. Wright, of Miles, was named temporary chairman, and Frank Kemp, of Ballinger, secretary.

A considerable number signed for membership in the organization at the close of the meeting and other farmers joined in a meeting held at Winters Wednesday. Community gatherings will be held Tuesday night at Rowena, Miles, Maverick, Hatchel, Dale, Wilmet, Content, Crews, Wingate, Ballinger, Bethel, Norton, Pumphrey, Harmony, and probably other places.

The plan of organization is first to form community associations and then meet at Ballinger to form a county unit which will be affiliated with the state organization.

Mr. Day explained that the association was primarily for the cotton farmers of the state and was strictly educational and legislative. It is quite different from other farm organizations formed in recent years in that it has nothing to sell and is working only for the benefit of the cotton producer.

H. G. Lucas, of Brownwood, president of the state organization, and other officials of the association spent considerable time in Washington recently studying the needs of the cotton farmer in a legislative way. Mr. Day stated Tuesday that they found practically every other class of producer well represented in legislative matters and cotton producers, one of the largest groups in the nation, practically without representation.

Club Sponsors, Reporters Will Hold Meetings Here

Club reporters and sponsors will hold their monthly meeting at the city hall in Ballinger Saturday. A demonstration on scoring canned vegetables will be given by Miss Myra Tankersley, county home demonstration agent, and each sponsor is expected to take the information received back to her club. Each reporter has been asked to bring in a story she has written and these will be studied and graded by those in charge of the program.

Bedroom improvement is underway in this county and some good reports have been received from demonstrators who are striving to win in both the girls' and women's contests. Yard improvement is also receiving much attention from home demonstration club members and the following reports tell something of the work already done:

In order to complete the goals set for yard work this year, Mrs. Bob Lloyd, cooperator in the Wingate home demonstration club, has had her yard leveled and grass planted. A flagstone walk has been built to the curb at the front and a rose garden started in the side front yard. Two Arizona cypresses have been put out to screen off a windcharger in the side back yard.

Removing the kalsomine from her walls and ceiling in preparation for the papering of her room is part of the work Mrs. Claude Simmons, bedroom demonstration of the Bethel home demonstration club is doing. She said, "I think I will get a better job on my papering if I clean my walls first." She has selected a light yellow paper with a small figure for her room. She has also removed the finish from a dresser and refinished it and is now painting her woodwork ivory. She said, "I have my work all planned and have everything I need to finish the work."

Sunday, May 9, is Mother's Day. Churches will pay special tribute to mothers in special services on that date and much publicity will be given the event that honors mothers of all nations.

The people expressed themselves by their votes Saturday as wanting Runnels county to remain "dry." There was little campaign made by either side and voters were allowed to go to the polls and cast their ballots as they wished or remain at home as many chose to do.

The vacation period is fast approaching and within a few more weeks Runnels county children will be out of the classroom and many people will be departing on summer trips.

TEACH THEM HOW The most dangerous group of drivers, according to statistics, is the group which ought to be the safest: The so-called "teen-age" class.

In the opinion of authorities, the chief difficulty is that young people who drive cars lack both training and judgment. They have had no formal instruction behind the wheel.

Fortunately, the high schools of the nation are recognizing a responsibility for these facts. According to the safety education division of the national bureau of casualty and surety underwriters, some 5,000 high schools in more than half the states are now giving instruction in the principles of traffic safety.

Dr. E. B. Surface, pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church in Abilene, will be the commencement address to thirty-four graduating seniors of Winters high school the evening of May 20.

In competition against 4,000 F.F.A. boys at College Station last week, the Paint Rock club won first prize in sheep judging and fifth place in livestock judging.

The annual festival of the Miles school will be held Thursday, April 29. The program for the day includes contests for room honors, a military drill and other features.

Coke county farmers are launching a drive to enroll members in the Texas agricultural association. The quota for the county is 180.

Coleman is to have a WPA nursery school according to the supervisor of the Brownwood district. The project will open Monday, April 26 in the old Christian church parsonage.

A prohibition election has been set for Saturday, May 1, in Eastland county. The petition requesting the election was circulated by the united dry forces of Eastland county.

With Douglas Malloch, of Chicago, as the principal speaker, the Brady Chamber of Commerce held its annual banquet Tuesday, April 27. The affair was held in the fellowship hall of the First Christian Church.

Officials of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Mason will observe cornerstone laying ceremonies next Sunday afternoon. Work on the $9,000 Sunday school building has been in progress since the first of February.

Equipment costing approximately $35,000 will be added to the cottonseed mill in Stephenville, enabling the mill to shell peanuts. Work is scheduled to start June 1 and all machinery is to be installed and in operation by next fall.

According to J. B. Earle, principal of the Menard grammar school, plans are almost perfected for an educational tour of New Mexico and Arizona by Menard students. The trip will begin May 26 and last nine days.

Departments of education in 28 states have issued model courses of study in traffic safety. The subject of good driving has become the fastest growing movement in the history of American education.

Already there are significant results. In Rhode Island, more than 1,000 high school boys and girls were taught to drive in a course sponsored by the motor vehicle department of that state. Their driving records were kept in a special file for a period of three years.

meals and fees will be only $16 for each student. The Carlsbad Caverns, the Painted Desert, the Grand Canyon and Juarez are some of the interesting places to be visited.

Approximately $4,000 has been authorized by the members of St. John's Episcopal Church in Sonora for additional construction on the church building.

General offices of the Texas-New Mexico Pipe Line Co. have been opened in the Junction National Bank building. An operating personnel of 10 or 11 will be maintained in the office at Junction.

Saturday, May 1 is the date set for the dedication ceremonies marking the completion of the Big Bend Historical Museum at Alpine. The museum is located on the campus of Sul Ross State Teachers' College and was built at a cost of $75,000.

Notice of Voluntary Liquidation to Creditors Notice is hereby given that on March 26, 1937, at a stockholders' meeting of the Security State Bank, located at Ballinger, Texas, the proposition was duly submitted to the stockholders to close the business of the corporation and that at said meeting the following resolution was adopted, to-wit:

"WHEREAS, the stockholders of the Security State Bank, of Ballinger, Texas, have been called and are now in meeting assembled to consider the liquidation of this bank; now, therefore, be it

"RESOLVED, that the business of this bank be closed; that all depositors, and all creditors of every nature, be paid in full; that after paying all depositors and creditors, and discharging all remaining liabilities, the remaining assets of said bank be distributed proportionately among the stockholders; and that this bank surrender and have cancelled its corporate franchise. Be it further

"RESOLVED, that the officers and directors of this bank be hereby authorized and directed to take all necessary steps, and execute all necessary papers, to carry into effect this resolution."

NOW, THEREFORE, we, the undersigned directors, certify that the foregoing proceedings were had at such meeting and that the resolution hereinabove quoted was duly adopted.

"Stable farm production makes for fair prices. Lean and fat years help neither farmer nor consumer in the long run."

Despite the increase of farm purchasing power, S. A. McMillian, economist in farm management of the Extension Service, believes more than half of the 500,000 farm families of Texas fail to earn average farm incomes sufficient to permit them to live at a minimum comfort level.

Since the dawn of civilization, history has recorded lean and fat years; lean years when farmers made poor crops and the consumers either went on short rations or paid high prices for food, and fat years when farmers made bumper crops and consumers bought food at rock bottom prices.

McMillian states that one county agricultural agent in a county where cotton constitutes the main source of income notes that the return from sales of cotton in 1936 amounted to an average of $20 for each man, woman and child on farms in the county. Since even this pittance was not evenly distributed, it is apparent that some families received less than the average cotton income.

The agricultural conservation program is doing much to remedy the situation. Through increasing fertility on the farm, it tends to increase and maintain future farm income. Through stabilizing production, it aims at eliminating the lean and fat years that help neither the farmer nor the consumer. Through providing benefit payments for planting soil conserving crops and for observing soil conserving practices, it provides a measure of insurance against crop failures.

PEASANTS' DEBT HEAVY CALCUTTA, April 28.—Peasants of India owe approximately $6,665,000, according to a report just issued by the reserve bank of India. M. Darling, of the Indian civil service, an expert on agriculture and agricultural credit, said: "The Indian peasant is born in debt, lives in debt, and dies in debt."

"I have been getting spinach, onions, radishes, and turnip greens out of my garden for a month," Mrs. John Turmes, food supply demonstrator of the Grandfall home demonstration club in Ward county, said at a recent meeting.

A group of Mexican girls in Presidio county, who have never had a garden, have planted one garden for the entire club and will all take part in planting and caring for the vegetables.

A new home demonstration club in El Paso county, composed of 10 Mexican women, has planned gardens to fit the size and needs of the members of the families and will can some of the vegetables produced.

"I have my 4-H club garden well under way," Lucille Eckert, garden demonstrator for the Peters Prairie 4-H club in Mason county, reported at a recent meeting of the club. Lucille's garden was fertilized, plowed deep, and well pulverized before planting was done.

reporting that they now have their work tables built into the wall. Mrs. George Munsell, of Live Oak, had surplus lumber on hand, so she and two other club women have built her a movable kitchen work space and cabinets. A wood box that is filled from the outside to prevent rubbish from getting on the floor is found in the wall of the model kitchen of Mrs. B. Hubberts at Colony.

As interior home improvement demonstrator for the Bakersfield home demonstration club in Pecos county, Mrs. Kate Padgett has varnished her breakfast room chairs, made attractive covers for them, made curtains for the windows, and varnished the linoleum. The floor has been stained with a stain made at home according to the directions given by the county home demonstration agent.

In order that home demonstration club women of Brown county might reach the goal of adding a magazine rack or book shelf, during 1937, a demonstration has recently been given in each club on making these articles from fruit boxes. Two were shown as examples, one having been made from shot gun shell boxes at a cost of 60 cents and the other from orange crates at a cost of 70 cents for paint, molding and rollers.

3,000 ATTEND COUNTY SINGING AT MILES

A crowd estimated at 3,000 attended the Runnels county singing association convention at Miles Sunday. It was one of the most successful meetings ever held by the association from the standpoint of attendance, because of the number of vocalists present, and because of special quartets and other entertainment groups.

The Miles Methodist church was more than filled for the program Sunday morning and seating space was at a premium all day. The next meeting of the association will be in the Winters Baptist church on October 24, 1937. Officers are determined to again book many outside groups and try to excel the meeting at Miles last Sunday.

Ballinger was well represented at the convention, many spending the entire day at Miles. A few left the church in the afternoon to attend the baseball game between Ballinger and Miles.

Movie Topics

This week we will deal principally with facts about the stars themselves. Below you will find short paragraphs on Fernand Gravet, Bette Davis, Eduardo Clannell, Humphrey Bogart and

Leo Carrillo. Some of these things you probably know about these stars, but most of the facts will possibly be of interest to you:

Fernand Gravet (Grav-vay, with last syllable stressed) was born in Brussels, 1905—educated at St. Paul's School, Hammersmith, England—became British marine cadet—then aided father as manager of Galleries Saint Hubert in Brussels, where mother was distinguished actress—made theatrical debut in "Romance" with Mile. Soria at Athene Theatre, Paris, in 1922—in 1924 returned to Belgium to serve two years in army—entered films at UFA studio in Berlin, playing in both English and French versions—then did several pictures for French-Paramount, Paris—met Director Mervyn LeRoy in Paris last year and signed personal contract—first American picture, "The King and the Chorus Girl."

Noted Writer Author Of Ritz Feature Show

with Joan Blondell, at the Texas Theatre Saturday midnight and Sunday.

The three stars of "Marked Woman" which will play Monday and Tuesday at the Texas for adults only are all outstanding in their profession:

Bette Davis—slender, blonde, wide-eyed, New England born. Was officially awarded title and gold statuette by Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences last year for "best performance of the year by an actress." Got her stage training in stock, then graduated to Broadway. Noted for her grand sense of humor.

Humphrey Bogart—tall, dark, menacing-eyed—a native New Yorker—was educated in Trinity School there—in navy during World War; back home turned to acting. Role in "The Petrified Forest" brought him to Hollywood.

Eduardo Clannell—This sensational new character actor was born in Naples—after acquiring medical degree turned to singing; appeared in grand opera in Italy, France, Russia—after War visited New York, was engaged by Henry W. Savage for acting-singing parts called to Hollywood, decided to stay.

The most ruthless racket ever conceived by criminal minds... the vicious loan shark racket... which squeezes millions from the pockets of the innocent public every year... is exposed to the American people for the first time in Columbia's "I Promise to Pay" which starts next Wednesday, May 5. Starred in this picture as the racketeer behind the mobsters is Leo Carrillo.

Racket Story Makes Action-Filled Drama

A thrilling story of the billion-dollar slot machine racket in a big city brings Claire Trevor, Akim Tamiroff and Lloyd Nolan to the Palace Theatre Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday in "King of Gamblers," a Tiffany Thayer original.

With Tamiroff in the title role, the story daringly shows the link between the racket and officials in high places who receive a "cut" in the steady stream of profits from the "one armed bandits," as the slot machines are known to the underworld, and the connection between this racket with other gangland activities.

The cast also includes Porter Hall, Helen Burgess, Purnell Pratt, Harvey Stephens, and other supporting players.

BENEFIT SHOW AT RITZ FOR BALLINGER FIREMEN

A benefit show for the Ballinger volunteer fire department will be given at the Ritz Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, May 9, 10, and 11.

"A Man of the People" is the picture booked for the three days. It is the story of an assistant district attorney battling a gang-ridden city. Such favorites as Joseph Calleia, Florence Rice and Ted Healy are featured in the production.

Tickets will be sold by firemen and their wives. The tickets are good for both afternoon and night performances.

"In His Steps," which will be shown next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Ritz Theatre, was written by the Dr. Charles M. Sheldon, noted writer on religious subjects with a modern attitude. An article appearing in the current issue of Liberty magazine is by Dr. Sheldon. The title of the article is "What Would Jesus Teach About Social Hygiene," and is on pages 8 and 9 of Liberty.

The picture to be shown in the Ballinger theatre is highly recommended by critics.

"Conflict," from Jack London's "The Abysmal Brute," to be shown at the Ritz

Starring brawny, handsome John Wayne, "Conflict," Universal's drama of the bitter feud between two iron-fisted giants, opens a two-day run at the Ritz Wednesday of next week, May 5.

Lovely Jean Rogers appears opposite Wayne in "Conflict," which is based on Jack London's famed story, "The Abysmal Brute," recognized as one of the finest action stories written by the late author.

Photographed entirely in the rugged grandeur of the Sierra Nevada Mountains of California, 900 miles from Hollywood, "Conflict" tells its virile, fast moving story against a background of nature's own magnificent beauty. The picture combines drama, suspense, high excitement and romance into a spirited action story.

Wayne scored a hit in his first Universal picture, "The Sea Spiders" and in "Conflict" he carries on the good work.

In addition to Wayne and Jean Rogers, the cast of "Conflict" includes such fine performers as Tommy Bupp, Ward Bond, Margaret Mann and Bryant Washburn.

Ballinger Team Takes 2 Games From Miles Nine

The Ballinger Bearcats made it four in a row last Sunday when they defeated the Miles team in a double-header, 2-0 and 16-4. The previous Sunday the locals beat the Rowena team in two straight games. The games Sunday were played at Miles.

Because of dissension in the Concho Basin League, no information could be secured about next Sunday's game. However, Frank Cameron assures local fans that a game will be played here. "Blondy" Cross, San Angelo sports writer, recently resigned as president of the league and until a new president is elected, and perhaps a new league formed, a definite schedule for the local team is not available.

At the organization meeting club managers voted for a six-town loop. In preparing the schedule Cross included seven clubs, giving Veribest a place in the league after it had been voted out by at least four club managers. This forced one team to be idle each week-end, and when a protest was filed Cross resigned as president, leaving the circuit without a head, schedule or starting date.

A statement by the former president this week indicated that a new schedule might be drafted for the Concho Basin League with Ballinger, Miles, Bronte and Rowena left out. If this occurs local baseball officials expect to form a four-club league and continue playing.

BAGGETT TAKES OVER CITY TAILOR SHOP

Nelson Baggett announced last week that he had taken over the City Tailors shop and that the equipment of that shop and of the DeLuxe Tailors would be combined into one establishment, in the building formerly occupied by the City Tailors, next door to the Texas Theatre.

This consolidation will make the DeLuxe shop one of the largest cleaning and pressing plants in this section.

Tory Island Off Coast Ireland is World Apart

DUBLIN, April 28.—Strange islands line the Irish coast, varied birds skim the sea or float on high and countless swarms are darting through the deep—and here is the home of fearless men and noble women, of men and women whose spirits are as buoyant as the wave on which they ride.

Such is Tory Island—the ancient stronghold of the Formorians—a legendary race of gigantic pirates whose chieftain (1200 B. C.) was the one-eyed Balor of the Mighty Blows. This tiny island of 300 souls came into the public eye recently with the death of Mary O'Heraghty, "Queen." She was the first lady of the land for thirty-odd years, having succeeded her father, Patrick O'Heraghty, who, unlike the other islanders, was a mere dwarf in stature. However, his fourfoot-odd of kingship did not in the least detract from the respect of his "subjects" on their implicit obedience to his commands.

The island governed by the O'Heraghtys lies over nine miles from the mainland and is only three miles long and one mile wide. It is almost completely isolated from civilization, as it is well-nigh impossible to land there in a rough sea and having once landed, it is still more difficult to return.

The island contains 1,200 acres of which roughly one-sixth is capable of cultivation. The inhabitants, therefore, look to the mighty Atlantic for a living and the Tory Island fisherman has no equal in any part of the world. They are six feet tall, have handsome and intelligent features, with dark complexions of a Spanish cast.

The women are also tall, dark-featured, well-formed and for size and mould they might have been the mothers of Titans. There is an air of dignity and solemn majesty in all their movements as if the voice of the sea that is ever singing about them had become a part of their very being.

They are a highly civilized people, speaking the Irish language and their laws interpreted by the late "Queen" may have been part of the famous Breton Code, or a code particularly drawn up for their isolated sojourn on this desolate stronghold in the ever restless waves of the Great Atlantic.

In the days of the Great St. Columbbille, Tory Island was selected as a site for churches, and tradition tells us that Allidug, son of Baldon, set a ferocious dog at the Saint and the latter having overcome the beast commanded that no dog should ever again be introduced to the island.

To this day there are no dogs, rats or even frogs in the tiny kingdom and a "magic" clay that is taken from a well near the side of a grave at Murrisher, "on the Church of the Seven," is reputed to possess the power of keeping away rats, is a preventative of fever and seasickness and an assurance to users against loss of any kind.

About sixty years ago there was neither magistrate nor clergyman, doctor nor lawyer on the island, but that is now changed as the island boasts a modern church, has a postoffice, an up-to-date lighthouse and a school where all instruction is imparted through the medium of the Irish language.

The antiquities of Tory Island consist of a Round Tower, the ruins of a monastery and the "Seven Churches," and a peculiar custom prevailed there in the olden days of having a millstone or "Queen" in the foundation of every house or building. The latter custom has been verified by excavations recently made by archaeologists.

The "Queen" of the island, Mary O'Heraghty, was no easily distinguished from any of the other women—she lived her normal life and tended her spinning wheel and took on all the domestic duties of a good housewife. However, in legal matters on petty disputes of any kind, she was virtual dictator and so just were her decisions that seldom, if ever, was there any grumbling or a desire to question the wisdom of her findings.

The nearest relative of Mary O'Heraghty in the male or female line succeeds to the kingdom, and so the Solomon-like decisions of ages will be rendered by a member of a tribe that has ruled the islanders for centuries. The late Queen objected strenuously to being photographed and consented only on condition that she be shown at work at her spinning wheel.

The island now boasts of twenty-one species of birds, eleven kinds of fish and forty-one types of plants, and never a reptile of any kind.

While dealing with Kings and Queens on the Isles of the West, no story would be complete without a short reference to Grace O'Malley, "Grainne of the Heroes," daughter of Owen O'Malley, chief of the Western Islands in the sixteenth century.

On the death of her father, "Grainne," ignoring the rule of Toristry by which her younger brother would become chief, delegated herself ruler of the district which surrounds Clew Bay and comprises all its islands. Her determined character and her daring exploits, especially on sea, won her the title of "Queen of Men." Her first husband was O'Flaherty, ruler of Connemara, who died shortly after the marriage. She then married Sir Richard Bourke, and tradition says the marriage contract contained a singular clause whereby it was to last a year and at the termination on the stipulated period either of the contracting parties could dissolve the union by saying "I dismiss you."

The Fiscal Year
The fiscal year is the year between one annual time of settling accounts and another. Our government fiscal year begins July 1 and ends June 30. The fiscal year is always spoken of as being in the calendar year in which it ends. Originally our fiscal year ended September 30, but in 1843 it was changed to June 30 in order to give department heads more time to prepare their reports for the opening of congress in December.

Old Stamps a Curiosity
Old stamps used by Federal departments before the days of franking, free postage, are framed in a room of the interior building at Washington. Private firms printed them.

George Washington, in declaring that the public felicity and prosperity of America depend upon the firm union and the unobscured cooperation of the sovereign American States, divined the future. The prosperity and the greatness of these United States have arisen from the free and unimpeded circulation of ideas and products in the world's greatest consumer market.

The Fair gives to each State the appropriate setting and opportunity to announce to the world its unique and indispensable contribution to America's rich and colorful civilization. The Fair contemplates a Hall of States, in the imposing Government group and banking the structure which the Fair looks to the United States to build, to house the exhibits of the forty-eight States, and the Territories. Those wishing to participate more extensively will, in addition to their exhibits in the Hall of States, either erect their own buildings or obtain space to display their products and attractions in one or more of the exhibit zones.

Primary Schools Will Entertain Visitors Friday

Patrons are invited to visit the two primary school buildings here tomorrow (Friday). This annual program has become very popular and every year many parents of the primary pupils spend the morning observing regular class work and the afternoon on the playgrounds seeing part of the physical education program.

Mrs. W. A. Bridwell, principal of primary school No. 1, and Miss Faye Clark, principal of primary school No. 2, extend an invitation to local citizens to visit their schools tomorrow.

Play programs on the campuses will start with the children of primary school No. 1 beginning their games at 1 p. m., and the following schedule has been arranged:

First grade, Mrs. W. A. Bridwell—folk game, "I See You"; pantomimes, "London Bridge," "Mulberry Bush," "Soldier Boy"; Miss Maurine Tipton—rhythm, "Rosa"; pantomime, "Oh! Where, Oh! Where?"

Second grade, Mrs. H. C. Lyon—stunts, flopper, twister, human bridge, hand balance, shoulder walk

Miss Pauline Morley—game, "Jump Jim Crow"; pantomime, "Twas a Kitty"

Miss Zemma Street—singing games, "Elephants," "Old Rogues," "Oats, Peas, Beans," "Did You Ever See a Lassie?" "Round and Round the Village"

Third grade, Miss Eugenia Baskin—singing games, "Sandal Peika"; stunts, straddle jump, the windmill, twister, the tops

Miss Carmen Demmer—wheelbarrow relay, rope jumping

Presentation of five-point health certificates by Miss Beulah White, county health nurse

Primary School No. 2

Names of Things We Eat

The names of the things we eat have curious derivations. The humble vegetable, parsley, for instance, traveled from Greek to Latin, from Latin to Saxon, and from thence to its present form. It actually has the same origin as the name Peter (a rock), for it grew among the rocks of ancient Rome. Potato is from the Spanish patata, which, in turn, says Pearson's London Weekly Magazine, came from the Haytian batata, a sweet-tasting type of yam. The word sweet grew back to the Sanskrit svad—to taste; and sugar has also come to us from the same ancient language, via Persian, Arabic, Spanish and French. The Sanskrit for sugar was caraka, which first meant "grains of sand."

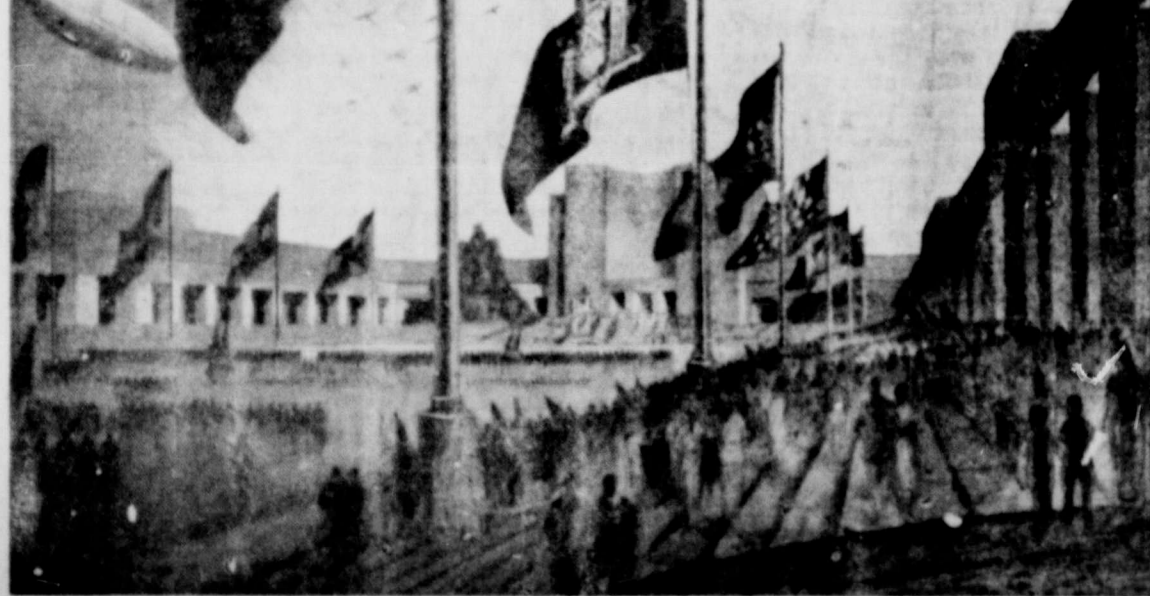

STATES HAVE OPPORTUNITY TO SHOW WARES IN HUGE BUILDING AT NEW YORK FAIR

NEW YORK, (Special)—Included in the limited edition book of unusual size and beauty which the New York World's Fair 1939 Incorporated has sent to state governors and, through diplomatic channels, to foreign governments, is the following text: "The State of New York has naturally taken the leadership in the participation of the sovereign States of the Federal Union. Its total appropriations for Fair purposes, $25,000,000, and the New York State World's Fair Commission, appointed by the Governor, has been active for some time. Other States already are beginning to express enthusiastic interest in participating more extensively than at previous world's fairs.

The many visitors will find a fresh cause for pride and enthusiasm in the revealing exhibits of their respective States. But beyond this, the exhibits will enable the States to make a persuasive presentation to all visitors of what they have to offer to the consumer and the tourist.

The Sovereign States of the Federal Union
George Washington, in declaring that the public felicity and prosperity of America depend upon the firm union and the unobscured cooperation of the sovereign American States, divined the future. The prosperity and the greatness of these United States have arisen from the free and unimpeded circulation of ideas and products in the world's greatest consumer market.

The Fair gives to each State the appropriate setting and opportunity to announce to the world its unique and indispensable contribution to America's rich and colorful civilization. The Fair contemplates a Hall of States, in the imposing Government group and banking the structure which the Fair looks to the United States to build, to house the exhibits of the forty-eight States, and the Territories. Those wishing to participate more extensively will, in addition to their exhibits in the Hall of States, either erect their own buildings or obtain space to display their products and attractions in one or more of the exhibit zones.

Evangelists Arrive To Conduct Revival At Baptist Church

The revival which started at the Ballinger Baptist Church Sunday will continue through this week and next. Rev. J. H. McClain, pastor, spoke to two large congregations in the opening services Sunday and much interest was evinced from the beginning. At the morning services Sunday four additions were made to the church. Sunday evening the Methodists were dismissed and added considerably to the attendance.

Dr. Wallace Bossett, of Dallas, and Earl W. Rogers, of Fort Worth, arrived Monday to conduct the meeting the remainder of the allotted time. Dr. Bossett has been speaking to greater audiences at each service this week and his gospel messages are causing much evangelistic work to be done. Mr. Rogers is directing the music and in addition to being a pleasing soloist is making the congregational singing outstanding at each evening service. Mrs. J. H. McClain is at the organ console to play accompaniments.

In his sermons Sunday Rev. McClain invited all Christian people of Ballinger to join the Baptists in the special effort during this week and next. He urged attendance and cooperation from everyone and also expressed appreciation to the Methodists for attending the first night service.

Special prayer services are being held daily, the women meeting in groups in the afternoon and the men meeting just before the evening service.

Mr. Rogers invites all singers of the city to help fill the choir space every evening for the musical program preceding the sermon. About 50 can be accommodated in the choir and regardless of religious affiliation all singers who will be invited to join the chorus.

MOTLEY AND SYKES ATTEND C. OF C. BANQUET AT BRADY

J. D. Motley and O. C. Sykes went to Brady Tuesday evening to attend the annual banquet of the Brady Chamber of Commerce. Robert Lee Bobbitt was toastmaster for the occasion which was attended by about 300.

Collection of Delinquent City Taxes Proceeds Apace

During the past several weeks the city has collected $1,500 in delinquent taxes and other collections are being made daily. The above amount has been received without a suit being filed.

City Attorney Paul Petty is working on these collections for the city and an effort will be made to clean up all past due accounts as fast as possible. The city secretary's office is preparing about thirty delinquent statements a week, passing these to the attorney. This will continue until all these accounts have been put in his hands.

The rolls show that approximately $26,000 is due the city in delinquent accounts dating back to 1918. A short time ago the city commission voted to make an effort to collect all back taxes and to give the city attorney permission to file suits unless other settlement could be made. The success of the campaign so far has been very gratifying and collections of the small number of accounts which have been prepared, has been good.

Any person owing city taxes is asked to call at the city hall or see Mr. Petty about arranging a satisfactory settlement.

Sterilization by Silver
Successful commercial advantage has been taken of the discovery made more than 40 years ago that water in contact with clean copper or silver becomes sterilized without any destruction of the salts which take place in distillation. It is known as the katadyn process. The silver is introduced into the water by the immersion of plates through which is passed a very feeble current of electricity, and this is said to effectively kill the bacteria. The cost of the current for treating a hundred-weight of water amounts to a few cents. The greatest expense is the silver, but it is consumed in small quantities.

Alumni Banquet Reset for May 18; Tickets on Sale

The date of the banquet for alumni of the Ballinger high school has been changed from May 18 to May 14. Tickets must be bought not later than May 8 so that arrangements can be made.

The meal will be served at the Central Hotel beginning at 8 o'clock and a short program will follow with Harry Lynn, vice-president of the organization, acting as toastmaster.

Letters have been sent to a number of former graduates of the Ballinger school, inviting them to attend the banquet and join the organization. Classes have been asked to hold reunions and time will be allowed on the program for a meeting of each group present.

Tickets are now on sale and can be secured at the high school or by calling any of the officers of the association. Mrs. A. McGregor, president of the association, is arranging a program which promises to be very entertaining.

The 1937 graduating class is eligible to attend and members expect to be present 100 per cent.

STANDARDIZATION TESTS UNDERWAY IN SCHOOLS

County Superintendent E. C. Grindstaff is busy at this time giving standardization tests in schools of this county. This week will complete a majority of the tests, but some will be given until terms of all the schools in the county end.

Plans are being made to close the rural schools of the county and for the countywide graduation program for all seventh grade students. These exercises will be held in Ballinger on a Sunday afternoon the latter party of May when approximately 200 students will be given certificates of graduation.

Coaches to Make Schedule for '37 Football Season

Football coaches and other school officials in district 23-B will meet at Coleman Saturday to discuss regulations and to make up a schedule for the 1937 season. Supt. H. C. Lyon, Coach Felton T. Wright and Backfield Coach Paul Gibbs will represent Ballinger at this meeting.

It is the purpose of the meeting to completely arrange all games for the district next fall. With nine teams in the district, practically the complete schedule will be made up of conference games and probably only one exhibition game will be booked for each team.

Schools comprising the district are: Ballinger, Winters, Coleman,

Santa Anna, Bangs, Rising Star, Cross Plains, Mozelle, and Brady. The teams are only allowed ten games on the year's schedule with the exception of championship games. The conference round-robin will give each eleven eight games and with one exhibition game, will leave a date for only one game in case of a tie for district honors.

Coaches Wright and Gibbs have been working around 40 youths in spring training this year and have much better material to start the 1937 season with than they had last year. Plenty of line players and seven good prospective backs provide a well balanced team.

NEW ZEALAND TO RUSH BIG VIADUCT BUILDING

WELLINGTON, N. Z., April 28.—On the eastern coast of New Zealand engineers are rushing work on the greatest viaduct in the southern hemisphere and expect to have it completed by August. The bridge will carry the East Coast Railway across the Mohaka River. It will be 911 feet long and 312 feet above the water. Everyone on the job is a New Zealander.

The authorities are speeding all work on the country's railways, which are government owned. Thousands of men are extending the rails to link up towns that have been comparatively isolated. On South Island a line is being completed to connect Christchurch with the port of Picton 22 miles north.

NATURE CURES

Chiropractic permits nature to cure by the proven laws of physiology, since all functions and activities of the body are subject to co-ordination and controlled by the nerve system. The innate curative processes depend on the integrity of the nerve supply (mental impulse) to all parts of the body. It is nature that puts the color in the rose buds, and nature is competent to effect a healing of our body, when there is no interference of life forces between brain cell and tissue cells. Chiropractic spinal adjustments correct the interference of the normal transmission of nerve impulses, allowing nature to function normal. Health is the results of nature's normal function, spinal adjustments are safe and dependable. Lady attendant.

WEST TEXAS RANCHMEN ARE IMPROVING RANGES

COLLEGE STATION, April 28.—County agricultural agents in West Texas report that ranchmen are showing much interest in the range conservation part of the agricultural conservation program and that many ranchmen are already improving their ranges in line with the provisions of the program.

In Kerr county, 170 ranches covering 366,433 acres have been entered in the program. The greatest part of range improvement work will consist of cedar eradication, but cactus eradication and deferred grazing are attractive to many ranchmen.

Approximately 100 men gathered in Irion county to watch a demonstration of cedar pulling with county equipment. In six hours, the tractor equipped with three cables of varying lengths, cleared 3.6 acres at a cost of $1.51 an acre. The commissioners' court is making arrangements to rent the equipment to ranchers for cedar eradication work.

A series of meetings to explain the range conservation program has been held in Blanco county, where 300 ranches, involving 275,152 acres, have been entered in the program.

A system of spreader terraces and spreader dams on the W. F. White ranch near Balmorhea in Reeves county is expected to catch flood waters sufficient to irrigate a section of land. The section, which normally carries 40 to 50 head of cattle, is expected to carry 100 head because of the conservation of the water.

MANCHURIAN EMIGRATION PLANNED IN JAPAN

TOKYO, April 28.—Inauguration of the government's twenty-year plan for emigration to Manchuria is scheduled for this spring.

The first emigrants are to leave Japan in May, June and July. Arrangements have been made to recruit 100,000 families, consisting of 500,000 people, to settle in the new state in the first five years.

The entire twenty-year program calls for the expenditure of $75,000,000 to facilitate the emigration of 1,000,000 families—approximately twenty per cent of Japan's present agricultural population.

Past criticism of the treatment accorded emigrants to Manchuria is expected to be overcome by measures proposed by the government of Manchukuo. These include medical aid, education and welfare work.

Miss Marie Morgan, of Dallas, was a guest the first part of the week of Mrs. N. J. Morgan and Mrs. Pearl Gustavus. She left Wednesday for San Angelo to attend the state nurses' association meeting.

MAN ONCE FRIGHTENED BY OIL ADS

CHANGES TO OIL-PLATING

In spite of everything, it paid him to take ads seriously, you see, else he might never have tried Oil-Plating. First of all he was impressed by the explanation of Oil-Plating.

Simple enough, if you'll think what happens as Johnny's dirty little hands touch the wallpaper. Anything greasy or oily on his hands becomes quite a permanent part of the paper. You'll say permanent!

In much the same way—forgetting technicalities—Conoco Germ Processed oil forms a lasting attachment for every working part of your engine. A genuine, enduring Oil-Plating is brought about by the Germ Process—patented.

Thus the Germ Process not only multiplies the strength of the usual flowing type of oil-film, but creates Oil-Plating besides. And once Oil-Plating goes on, Conoco Germ Processed oil does not let it come off in minutes, hours, days . . . or miles.

Thus Oil-Plating kills the old fear of starting "dry." Likewise Oil-Plating refuses to let go in all the fury of 5,000 revolutions per minute. That's why your "good old car" or the latest model will stay more like new, with its engine Oil-Plated. And your whole Summer's driving will take less Conoco Germ Processed oil.
