Contract for Rebuilding Texas Theatre Awarded

The management of the Texas Theatre has awarded a contract for rebuilding the theatre, recently destroyed by fire to G. C. Douglass, of Odessa. Mr. Douglass was the original contractor on this show house. When H. T. Hodge and W. D. Scales began looking for a man to do the rebuilding, they sent for Mr. Douglass because of his more than 20 years experience in building theatres and finally made a contract with him.

Work was expected to start Monday but was delayed slightly on account of the weather. Crews have been organized and no time will be lost in getting underway and the contractor expects to have the new theatre ready for opening about April 15 or May 1. A few changes will be made in the new house. One of the biggest will be the enlargement of the stage to take care of any road show or amateur performance presented in Ballinger. The Texas management expects to have ample facilities for staging any kind of a stage show and will cater to such bills in the future. The stage will include settings, electrical lighting and other paraphernalia.

The general plan of the auditorium and balcony will be unchanged other than the interior decorations, lighting and furniture. The seating capacity will remain the same as previously.

The seats will have fully upholstered seats and backs, which will be more comfortable than those used before the fire. The newest type 7-E projectors, Magnar lamps, 4-Star sound equipment, and Walker daylight screen will be some of the modern equipment installed to provide service as good as any to be found anywhere.

Mr. Scales stated that no changes would be made in the front of the building. Inspections have disclosed the front wall in perfect condition for rebuilding and only a small amount of repairs will be necessary on the south side wall to make it as strong as before the fire.

The entrances, lobby, rest rooms on the mezzanine floor and other spaces in the front of the theatre will be about like the old with a new color scheme and decorations to make it more attractive.

In addition to the theatre proper, the Texas Grill will be rebuilt with more room to accommodate more diners and more kitchen space to make better service possible. New and modern equipment will be installed in this popular eating place and better foods featured.

The Cactus Drug Store will be rebuilt and restocked as soon as possible.

INCOME TAX ACCOUNTANT TO VISIT HERE MARCH 10

J. A. Miller, deputy collector for the internal revenue bureau, will come to Ballinger March 10, and will have an office in the lobby of the Central Hotel from 8 a. m. until 4 p. m. to assist citizens of this area with their income tax returns for 1938.

The new income tax law presents many complicated problems which laymen find difficulty in understanding. The Dallas office is anxious to be of help to those filing returns and for that reason the deputy collector will come to Ballinger to offer this free service.

Mr. Miller has visited Ballinger a number of times on the same mission and has aided many local citizens in preparing their returns. The service is free to the public, Mr. Miller being paid by the bureau for this duty.

C. G. Jennings, of Whitney, attended to business and visited friends in Ballinger Monday.

Committees are Named For Local Civic Group

Directors of the Ballinger Board of Community Development were in session all Tuesday morning to determine what committees would be designated by the organization and to appoint members to direct the work. Practically all the directors attended the session and considerable time was spent in discussing proposed projects, needed committees and after chairmen were named from the board, individual members were appointed.

Following the meeting the budget and membership committee met to discuss plans for conducting a drive here to sign up new members and secure financial pledges to carry on the work of the organization. It is planned to give every resident of Ballinger an opportunity to join the commercial organization and urge that every person is wanted. No specific date was set for the campaign to raise the required budget.

An agricultural and livestock committee to work with the farmers and ranchmen of this section was appointed, as well as other special groups. Farmers and ranchmen are urged to talk with members of the committee and offer suggestions for work that can be done by the committee.

A publicity committee will attend to all news, advertising and promotion material in the interest of the city and county. Highways and roads will continue to be a paramount part of the program and a committee will be ready at all times to work in behalf of improvements of this nature.

Civic improvements will have a strong committee behind worthwhile projects and nothing will be overlooked that would benefit Ballinger and vicinity.

A number of members were named on the program and entertainment committee, which will provide programs for public gatherings. This group will meet soon and plan special attractions for the year.

The merchants' trade service group will handle all items dealing with credit, special cooperative promotions and anything concerning local retail trade.

A new committee for conventions and good will will begin its duties this year. Assistance will be offered to any meeting scheduled and also attempt to greet every new citizen and make him feel welcome.

The public relations committee will receive any grievance from any source and give it due consideration. This group will also work with any organization and invites criticisms and suggestions for the good of the community.

Rural-urban work will be continued along the lines it has been conducted in the past, including

Local Rotary Club Takes Washington As Program Theme

Rev. Clarence A. Morton spoke on the birthday anniversary of George Washington at the Ballinger Rotary Club luncheon Tuesday. In the beginning Rev. Morton announced that he would say nothing new of the man whose 207th birthday was observed this week.

He called to attention many of the honors accorded Washington through history, from his personal life, and said he was a man who is still worshiped as a hero by every American. The speaker called attention to four things to which attributed the greatness of the man: first, his reliability and dependability; second, his rugged simplicity, individuality, integrity and honesty; third, his humility; and fourth, the service he rendered mankind.

Before the program, John Barton, county agent, told of the work being done in commercial feeding by 4-H club boys and of the trip to Fort Worth this weekend. The club voted $10 to be used in helping defray expenses of the feeders' show here and to pay premiums to winners in each class.

Invitations were read from Abilene and San Angelo clubs, asking Ballinger Rotarians and their wives to attend programs tomorrow (Friday) evening.

A number of farmers and farm owners in the Ballinger territory met here Saturday afternoon to launch plans for the organization of the Ballinger Community Agricultural Association. The meeting was called to order by N. S. Wright of Miles, chairman of the county association, who explained the purpose of the community groups and a temporary organization was formed with Meade McShan as temporary chairman, and J. Whit Patterson, temporary secretary-treasurer.

Due to lack of publicity attendance was small and those present set next Saturday, February 25, as the date for forming a permanent organization. This meeting will be held at the court house and all farmers in this territory are invited to be present.

Several other communities of the county have formed associations and are now functioning. The first was organized at Crews and a week later one was organized at Maverick. These groups hold regular meetings with interesting programs for the men, women, boys and girls.

Dues in the association were set at $2 per year and most of those present Saturday joined. A few postponed joining until next Saturday but stated that they would become members at that time. Those paying dues and talking membership at the first meeting were: J. Whit Patterson, Kenzie Routh, D. C. Camp, E. C. Lindermann, L. B. Stubbs, R. W. Bruce, Meade McShan, Tom Moreland, Frank Kemp, M. F. Lett, Vernon Webb and B. M. Batts.

MOTION PICTURES OF TEX-MEX INDUSTRIAL INSTITUTE TO BE SCREENED HERE SATURDAY

Dr. S. Brooks McLane, president of Tex-Mex Industrial Institute, Presbyterian school for Mexican boys at Kingsville, will arrive here Saturday for a speaking engagement at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday morning, February 26.

Saturday evening at 7:45, Dr. McLane will show moving pictures of Tex-Mex and the life of the boys there, the lecturer himself furnishing the "sound effects." All who are interested are cordially invited to attend.

Tex-Mex is a unique institution and is doing a unique work so far as protestant Mexican work is being done along the Texas border. Although a part of the home mission program of the Southern Presbyterian Church, it really performs a foreign missionary task, for many of its students are direct from Mexico. Limited to a student body of few more than a hundred, because of lack of facilities, it is always crowded and has a waiting list. Because of careful selection of students from the standpoint of character, and thoroughgoing training not only in Christian living, but in the art of making a living, Tex-Mex has been credited by many Christian and academic leaders with making an outstanding contribution to Texas and to her large Mexican population.

All-Male Cast is Announced For Lions' Club Show March 6-7

Rehearsals were commenced this week on the Ballinger Lions Club

Women that stop men cold always stand out alone or in groups

ONE REASON will usually be found in the way they look and feel. A clear skin... that is, a skin not only clear, but beaming with health and vitality... actually excites one's admiration.

Men are smart enough to always want to look their best, too. rich, red blood necessary. And all this is quite simple because when you have rich, red blood coursing through your body, you possess genuine vitality... the kind that makes for strength, energy... a wholesome complexion... and that assurance of well being.

If worry, overwork, undue strain, colds, or some sickness has reduced your blood strength, S.S.S. Tonic, in the absence of an organic trouble, will help you to build the blood back up to normal again.

Further, S.S.S. Tonic will help you to enjoy and get more value out of the food you eat... it whets the appetite... and stimulates natural digestive juices... a very important step back to health.

Buy and use with complete confidence, and we believe you, like thousands of others, will be enthusiastic in your praise of S.S.S. Tonic for its part in making "you feel like yourself again."

At all drug stores in two sizes. You will find the larger size more economical.

S.S.S. Tonic stimulates the appetite and helps change weak blood cells to strong ones.

show, "Mystery at Midnight." A professional director is here and a strong cast has been selected and assigned parts. Vaudeville performers are being picked this week for specialty numbers between the acts.

The play will be presented two nights, Monday and Tuesday, March 6 and 7, with the curtain rising at 8:15 each evening. Prices of admission are 40 and 20 cents with 10 cents extra for reserved seats.

The all-male cast will undoubtedly provide one of the biggest fun shows ever presented in Ballinger. The committee and the director are highly elated over being able to secure the experienced performers who have already taken roles. Nightly rehearsals will be held from now until the first performance on March 6.

The play is a sure-fire laugh-getter but when portrayed by an all-male cast of local citizens the complications become a scream and first readings proved that the comedy will be just that.

Special attention will be given to the specialties between the acts. Men dressed as chorus girls will be one of the big features, and in snappy song and dance routines are sure to please the cash customers. In addition the committee has announced that it has secured the well-known Tucker Twins, Annette and Jannette, who will appear in a group of harmony songs, playing their own accompaniments.

Money derived from the play, from advertising and from selecting a "Lions' Sweetheart" will go to the club's treasury. In previous years this club has done splendid work in this territory, providing glasses for many underprivileged children who could not continue their school work without them.

The Lions have also contributed to every worthwhile movement in the community when money was needed and every cent spent for any of the show funds will be used for a worthy cause.

Club Sweetheart to be Chosen. The Lions invite the general public to help select a club sweetheart. Ten candidates have been nominated by the club and ballot boxes arranged at each of the local drug stores where friends may cast votes for the girl of their choice at one cent for each vote. Each girl will have a box and the one receiving the most money will be declared the winner. All candidates will be introduced at both presentations of the play on March 6 and 7. Winners will be announced at the second performance of "Mystery at Midnight."

Young women nominated by the club for this contest are: Mary Simpson, Norma Jean Bankston, Tommye Mansell, Winnie Merle Adair, Mary Jo Webb, Eula Mae Clark, Ruby Nance, Betty Lawrence, Betty Heavenhill, Rosemary Hooper.

TUESDAY COLDEST NIGHT OF WINTER IN REGION; MERCURY HITS 14 ABOVE

Tuesday night brought the coldest weather of the winter here, the government reading at the home of E. M. Eubank on Sixth Street being 14 degrees above zero, one degree colder than Monday night's low mark of 15. The lowest previous mark for the winter was 17 F. one morning in November.

A "norther" all day Monday kept people off the streets and shivering when exposed. Soon after sundown the mercury began falling fast and early Tuesday morning reached the low point.

No damage of consequence was reported here from the hard freeze Monday night, but a number of homes were without water Tuesday morning because of frozen pipes.

SURPRISE PREACHERS AT LOCAL CHURCHES

Congregations of five Ballinger churches were increased Sunday evening due to the fact that a visiting minister was to fill the pulpit and no announcement was made in advance as to who the visitor would be.

Each pastor was greeted by good attendance and received many hearty handshakes following the service. Pastors entered the movement for better fellowship and an opportunity to become better acquainted with the church going people of the city.

Rev. Dwight A. Sharpe, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, was at the First Christian Church at the five o'clock vesper service. Rev. I. C. Mathis, Nazarene pastor, delivered the sermon at the First Presbyterian Church at the evening hour. Rev. C. H. Ward, pastor of the Eighth Street Presbyterian Church, and Rev. E. D. Landreth, pastor of the First Methodist Church, delivered the sermon at the Church of the Nazarene.

SAN ANGELO BOOSTERS VISIT HERE SATURDAY

Representatives from the Ballinger Board of Community Development, Rotary Club and Lions Club met Saturday noon with a delegation from the San Angelo Junior Chamber of Commerce at the Central Hotel for a luncheon. The visitors were here to extend greetings and advertise the San Angelo fat stock show and rodeo, to be held on March 3, 4, 5 and 6.

Hobart McDowell was in charge of the group of boosters and principal speaker at the luncheon. He gave an outline of the fat stock show and entertainment features provided for visitors and invited the people of this section to attend.

A. J. Wiley entertained with a group of piano and song numbers. R. E. George and Armon Cooper attended to business on the plains last week.

Grass Greens to be Built On Local Club Golf Course

At a meeting of stockholders of the Ballinger Country Club Friday evening it was voted to start preparations for grass greens at once and the board of directors was instructed to get the work underway as soon as possible in order to have the greens completed by mid-summer.

The cost of modernizing the greens was estimated at $1,557, and directors were instructed not to exceed that amount by more than 10 per cent.

Plans for construction of a swimming pool were tabled for the present until the lake is drained to a low point and improvements made about the pier. Those in charge of the work believe silt can be dragged from a portion of the lake, large rocks placed in the area used for swimming, and the growth of moss halted so that it will be more desirable for this sport. Drainage of the lake began this week and the committee intends to let the water out until only the old Los Arroyos channel is left. This amount of water is expected to take care of the fish in the lake and keep them alive until rains fill the reservoir. A grader will be used to pull mud and silt away from the swimming section.

Excavation will start at once for the grass greens as well as for the irrigation lines of two-inch pipe. Connections, sprinklers, a mower, hose, and other items will be ordered this week and a contract awarded for removing the dirt. Peet moss to be delivered here soon will be put in to give the greens a soft base and keep the surface from getting hard. Grass seed have been ordered and will be planted in the top layer of one-third dirt, one-third sand and one-third fertilizer.

A pump and an engine will be installed at the lake to provide water for irrigating the greens. The committee in charge of this work expects the greens to be ready for the tournament on July 4. Eight sand greens will be left on the course so golfers can continue play while the other greens are being converted.

Plumbers will start laying 5,500 feet of two-inch pipe as soon as ditches are dug. The pipe to be used is located in the McMillan oil field and will be trucked to the club grounds.

A. D. SMITH ATTENDS WATER SCHOOL AT A. & M. COLLEGE

A. D. Smith returned the past week-end from College Station, where he attended the waterworks short course, February 13-17. For a number of years some employees of the Ballinger water system has attended this school and has benefited by the subjects taught there.

Federal aid to cities for modernizing their plants was explained by speakers. Bacteriological tests, which included taking samples of water; various methods of analysis; and keeping a perfect check on the condition of the supply all the time, were also detailed.

Control of heavy growths of vegetation in water reservoirs and other problems of this nature were taken up in another section. Competent engineers lectured on sanitation necessary at city plants. Control of organic accumulations in pipes was another subject receiving attention.

BALLINGER LIONS VISIT NEW ROBERT LEE CLUB

Five members of the Ballinger Lions Club went to Robert Lee Tuesday night to attend the meeting of the new club there at which time the charter was presented by District Governor Will Collins of Llano. Ballinger Lions attending were: R. P. Canady, R. W. Earnshaw, Tommie Hall, R. J. Hawk and Rev. Wallace Jones.

Other club delegations were present from San Angelo, Colorado, Sweetwater, Winters and Sterling City. The Tucker Twins presented entertainment numbers for the program.

The Robert Lee club was organized with thirty-eight charter members and others intend to join later. The Ballinger men reported a pleasurable meeting with the new club, a unit of this district.

Red Cross Chapter Getting Many Calls; Clothing Real Need

Ballinger Red Cross officials are receiving many calls for help from "floaters" passing through the city. In every case a hearing is given and in many instances aid extended if the applicants are considered worthy and they promise to move on and not stop here for permanent upkeep.

After some of these transients have been helped they make visits to ministers and civic groups of the city, saying they cannot get help from the local charity organization and from the pastors receive donations of cash and other articles, and often, if the response is good, decide to stop here for a while.

Two families, 18 persons in the group, traveling together, appealed to the Red Cross for provisions this week. They were given sufficient food for four meals and stated that they would leave at once for Kerrville. Before leaving, however, they called on six local ministers, begging for assistance in getting to their destination and in most cases received cash donations.

Local Red Cross officials believe that well-meaning citizens are being imposed on and that help is being extended where it is not required as much as for some local needy.

There is a real need here at present for used clothing and shoes. Some of the more unfortunate local residents are having difficulty keeping their children dressed properly for school and any kind of used clothing can be placed to good use. During the past week a number of local needy have suffered from the cold and some of the children have been kept from school because of lack of warm apparel.

Citizens who can spare clothing are urged to take the bundle to the Bob Tunnell store and the articles will be sorted and distributed to the poor.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Cook and Vivian, of Colorado city, and Miss Nita Cook, of Lubbock, visited relatives and friends here Sunday.

Arthur Underwood and Fred Holliday went to Fort Worth Thursday to attend a regional meeting of Buick automobile dealers.

Entitled "Eleazor Goes to Town," this snow sculpture won first place at the Dartmouth college winter carnival recently. It portrays the founder of Dartmouth college, who purchased the land on which the college stands from the Indians for 600 gallons of New England rum. Good Pasture Worth More When Properly Grazed

(Editor's Note.—This is one of a series of articles discussing "Southern Feeds and Their Use," published by the West Texas Cottonseed Co. as a service to farmers and stockmen.)

Upon a foundation of good pastures and forage successful livestock production is built. Even swine and poultry, less dependent upon pastures than other stock, obtain from pastures the vitamins, minerals and other nutrients that are essential for efficient feeding.

Southern states, with their mild, open climate, have a major advantage for pasture and livestock production. Grazing is available a large part of the year, aiding the efficient and economical production of livestock.

Because of its availability, pasturage often is "over-worked" in the South, to the detriment of both livestock and grass. At this time of the year, especially, dairymen and other livestock raisers are likely to permit stock to graze too early or too heavily. From the standpoint of pasture utilization, "Feeds and Feeding" points out that "Injury is apt to result if heavy grazing is begun before sufficient growth is made in the spring, and if fall growth is grazed so closely that no cover is left for winter protection."

With reference to dairy cattle, an extension service dairyman has commented that "Grass at this time of the year is very watery or sappy. Most of it will analyze about 90 per cent water. Therefore, it is impossible for a good dairy cow to get enough food nutrients from grass alone to produce very much milk."

To obtain maximum value from pastures, experienced farmers and stockmen find it profitable not only to supply adequate amounts of concentrates but, in many cases, also to feed dry roughage to livestock on pasture.

Cottonseed hulls and other dry roughage are especially valuable for dairy cows on early spring pastures. Dry roughage helps to improve the cows' assimilation of food nutrients, and to reduce the tendency to scour.

Excellent results have been obtained from feeding 5 to 6 pounds of cottonseed hulls, daily per head, to cows on pasture. A practical plan to help prevent "off-flavor" in milk is to feed the milking herd cottonseed hulls or hay before cattle are turned out to graze, and to take the cows off the pasture three or four hours before milking time.

To supply the protein and other nutrients that are not supplied by grazing, alone, pastures should be supplemented with balanced rations containing cottonseed meal and farm grains. Such protein-rich concentrates as cottonseed meal give a double value as a supplement to pasture—they increase the value and efficiency of the ration, itself; and they enable the feeder to obtain more value, over a longer period, from his pastures.

Leading Southern hays and their use will be discussed in a succeeding article of this series. 23-1t

'PRINCESSES OF POSTURE' CHOSEN AT U. OF TEXAS

AUSTIN, Feb. 22.—The fable of the ugly duckling and the graceful swan doesn't faze University of Texas co-eds who take their figure problems seriously.

Climaxing a season of class-work, university girls last week held their second annual Posture Parade, with Ruth Spargo, of Houston, Glenn Appling, of Luling, and Jane Loomis, of El Paso, chosen as "princesses of posture."

Miss Average Freshman, seventeen, 5 feet 4 inches tall, weight 115 pounds goes through the combination health-posture-feet examination when she first enters the university.

She has no structural body defects, the examination shows, but through faulty "body mechanics" she gets a grade of B-minus on both posture and feet.

She has that "co-ed slump," a mild sort of S-shape, which tightens her knees, curves her shoulders and throws her head forward. Her feet toe in or out, and she puts them stiffly on the ground.

Guided by the examination and a "silhouetograph" posture picture, the university physical training department takes her in hand and offers her a "new figure"—if she wants it.

She is required to take an eight-week intensive course in "freshman fundamentals," during which she spends a few minutes each day in class exercise and the remainder of the time working on her own particular posture problem.

At the end of the eight-week course, a second examination is made and a second silhouetograph is taken. They probably show that she has gained a few pounds, bringing her a little nearer the 121-pound national correct weight level for her age. She has straightened her shoulders, set her head more firmly on top of her body, and learned to walk more gracefully. She has probably acquired both B-plus posture and B-plus feet.

POSTOFFICE ENGINEER DIES IN MISSISSIPPI

Postmaster Tom Caudle received information the past week-end of the death of George B. Bunge at Columbus, Mississippi, on January 27, and burial there on February 5.

Mr. Bunge was chief engineer on the Ballinger postoffice building for the procurement division of the U. S. treasury department, and resided here several months. While here he made many friends who will be grieved to learn of his death. He came to Ballinger from Monticello, Arkansas, and after the postoffice here was finished directed work on federal buildings at several other points. Death resulted from a heart attack.

FIRE DESTROYS HOUSE ON WEST SIDE OF CITY

The home of Henry Stubbfield in the western part of the city was burned to the ground about noon today. Ballinger firemen made a run to the scene but there are no water connections in this part of town and it was too far to the river to get water there.

Water in the 100-gallon booster tank was used to save the smoke-house and supply of meat and firemen stood by until the residence was burned to the ground. A number of articles were removed from the home before it was entirely destroyed.

Mrs. J. D. Motley returned Tuesday from a two weeks' visit in San Antonio and Alice. She was accompanied home by a nephew and a niece, William Peters and Miss Nellie Peters, of Alice.

LETTERS to the Editor

To The Ballinger Ledger: I suppose you have an open forum, judging from past observation, for those who may be inclined to discuss issues pertaining to the public at large, local and county-wide. Most, in fact I believe all will agree, that we want a city that all our trade territory, actual or threatened, will be proud of, and will appreciate visiting with to do their usual shopping and trading generally, as well as mixing and mingling in a social way. It is not so much the cut-throat prices, and trade schemes usually practed, that concern the buying public, as it is the friendly spirit of the town, and quality merchandise at reasonable, live and let live prices. We should not evidence a clannish disposition in our social and business dealings, as well as in our governmental set-up, but rather a cooperative, congenial, friendly spirit, and thereby create a city and trade territory of the people, by the people, and for the people.

I noticed recently a petition was being circulated in our fair city, having for its purpose in the main, a drafting of certain men for mayor and commissioners, and this incident is generally repeated just before each city election of late. I do not want to be misunderstood in this matter, as I am not, neither do I intend to be, casting any reflection against, or concerning any of our present city officials, for I think they are all high minded, efficient men, and no doubt are filling their respective places in a commendable manner, and as to that matter, I may perhaps cast my ballot for them if their names appear on the official ballot. I do believe, however, that the ordinary merit and inclination system would be the better method of soliciting men to run for public office, as it is very embarrassing I am sure, at least to some business men, to have a petition presented to them, favoring or endorsing a certain group, or individual for this, or that thing, having to deal with a public nature. Friends, let us not set up a monopolistic, machine-made or other form of government, other than for our entire citizenship, both collectively and individually, having for its avowed purpose the promoting of friendship and good will toward everyone concerned.

Since our chamber of commerce has apparently served its purpose and expired by limitation, a new organization has been born into the commercial and civic world about us, and let's hope for it the best of everything. We hope that the new organization will be broad enough to consider the needs of everything connected with our fine city; and that all, both small and great, will be equally and adequately represented and considered. Ordinarily when a person becomes afraid of his horse, it's better judgment to let someone else ride it. So all in all—let's pull together for a better Ballinger, and as to that—the entire county.

Good Old Days Were Never Like This

Ballinger Men Favor Present Truck Limit

With consideration in the legislature on truck load limits coming to a head this week it remained in Ballinger for a truck operator himself to announce opposition to raising the limit over the present 7,000-pound weight. He is T. M. Marsh.

At the same time R. W. Bruce, banker and ranchman, also announced opposition to increasing the 7,000-pound limit. Also there was J. J. Beck, Santa Fe agent, and E. M. Eubank, agent for the Abilene & Southern, who voiced opposition to a change in the present law.

Mr. Marsh bases his opposition to raising the limit on the simple fact, he says, that 7,000 pounds is enough and "I ought to know, because I am making my living out of trucking—I am making it quite well, too, with the 7,000-pound restriction."

"If you take this limit off," said Mr. Marsh, "you are doing nothing less than turning the highways loose both from the standpoint of danger and costly depreciation. I know what I'm talking about when it comes to trucks and anybody who says that a high load limit which now is being sought will not place any more danger to passenger car traffic or will not destroy the costly highways we now enjoy, but which are a long way from paid for, simply is not looking the facts in the face. Just be a truck driver yourself over a period of months and witness what I do on Runnels county highways and out of sheer, honest admission you'll have to agree with me."

Mr. Marsh insists, too, that there's a profit in the 7,000-pound load limit, "because I have my own business to prove it. Besides I recognize the fact that if the limit is turned loose the depreciation to the highways will, in itself, destroy the goose that is now laying a reasonably golden egg."

Mr. Bruce, along with Messrs. Beck and Eubank, base their opposition on three grounds—highway depreciation, the necessity of continued stabilization in transportation of all kinds and safety.

Of prime importance, they believe, is the fact that any increase in the limits would mean usurping of the highways by more and larger trucks, with consequent increase of driving danger for ordinary motorists. Other reasons that enter into a desire for retention of the present limit are the havoc that will be done Ballinger business. The large compressing industry here would be seriously damaged, as big trucks could carry the crop straight from gins to Gulf ports, with a loss of that income to local banks, insurance companies, dry goods and grocery firms and other lines of business.

Bigger truck loads would mean that wholesale distributors of the largest Texas cities could ship out supplies and offer them for sale locally at prices cheaper than Ballinger firms could, due to the advantages of quantity buying. Another fact particularly pointed out by Mr. Bruce is that trucks are undermining the railroads. Increasingly, although the latter help support Ballinger and Runnels county with large tax payments, while trucks pay comparatively little taxes and also make use of the highways that citizens have built for their own use with tax money they pay into state treasuries.

Ballinger, they feel, will be seriously and harmfully affected if the legislature makes any increase in the truck load limits.

MAN WITHOUT COUNTRY PLANS ENGLISH WEDDING

LONDON, February 22.—Nicholas Sidoroff, a man without a country and a roamer in Europe, wants to marry a girl in England. He got into the country on a week-end ticket from Ostend, Belgium, and was accused in police court in Marylebone of contravening the aliens order. The girl he wants to marry, the secretary of Major John G. Gillman, was in court. The matter was referred to the home secretary.

Sidoroff is 23 and is said to be a member of a wealthy Russian family who fled during the revolution. The father disappeared and the mother remarried. In search of his father, Sidoroff went to Moscow in 1933, giving up his League of Nations passport, which was never returned. He escaped from Russia and started to roam.

Bettis & Sturges Installing Modern Fixtures in Store

J. C. Sturges has awarded a contract to Austin Harper for remodeling the Bettis & Sturges ladies' store here. The work is underway and will be pushed as much as possible but most of the carpentry work is being done at night in order not to interfere with business during regular hours.

The improvements will completely remodel the interior and separate departments will be provided for each line of dresses, coats, suits and other ready-to-wear. Modern, closed in dress cabinets are being built of panel board which will be finished in light tan and trimmed in brown.

Doris Dodsons and Nelly Dons will be displayed in an open section with racks in each corner of the entrances. Other dresses will be kept in closed in compartments of the same type of construction.

In the rear of the store both walls will be finished to harmonize and ready-to-wear will be taken care of in a separate compartment for each line of coats, suits and dresses. Dressing rooms and the alteration department will be in the rear behind the cases.

All racks in the center of the store are being eliminated by the improvements with the exception of an occasional special rack which will be used to sell merchandise at reduced prices.

One of the biggest improvements in the store will be the building of a large and modern millinery department. Here will be room for several hundred hats on display and plenty of space for shoppers. Mirrors are to be conveniently placed for fittings.

The office has been moved from the center of the building to a smaller space against one wall. At the division of the general and the ready-to-wear departments will be a large wrapping counter.

When completed the store will be more convenient for shoppers and will permit a much better display of apparel.

Doss Herring and Rufus Thomas spent several days on the plains recently, returning home the first of the week.

CREWS SCHOOL NEWS

By Donella Kelly

(Received Too Late for Publication Last Week)

The Crews girls' and boys' basketball teams went to Macelle February 7. The commercial boys also had a game. The Crews girls won by the score of 21 to 18, while both the Crews school and commercial boys were defeated.

The girls entered a tournament at Highland last week-end, February 10 and 11. They beat Sylvester Friday afternoon, but were defeated by Blackwell Friday night.

Friday night, February 10, the Crews boys went to Burkett. They were beaten by Burkett 9-3.

The Crews girls' basketball season has ended for this year. We have had a very enjoyable year in basketball under the coaching of Mr. Nolls. The boys' season will end after they have been to district. We hope that they may win at district. This will end the basketball career of Jessie Ray Huits (No. 9), Carl Faubion (No. 10), Eldred Davis (No. 5), and Obed Fuller (No. 6). The girls' team will lose Norene Rainwater (No. 15), Donella Kelly (No. 0), Maxine Bradley (No. 3).

The boys will then start training for track, for county meet.

Mrs. Wood has returned to school this week after a period of about four weeks' absence due to illness. We are very happy to have her back. We have also enjoyed Mrs. W. T. Gassiot's teaching during Mrs. Wood's absence.

There was a meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association last Thursday night.

Ledger subscribers are requested to notify the publisher of any change in their addresses promptly.
 Under the new postal laws newspapers and periodicals must pay postage due for notices of any change in addresses furnished by the postoffice. Besides, there always is the probability that your paper will be delayed or fail to reach you altogether if you do not give immediate notification when you move.
 The best plan for all concerned is to send the change of address in advance.

The approach of kite-flying days has prompted officials of the West Texas Utilities Company to invite youngsters to notify the local office when kites become entangled in wire and they will send experienced electricians to salvage the kites. This is to prevent possible tragedies and also to warn parents and children of the hazard. Officials of the company say they do not want to interfere with the fun but wish to take every precaution against accidents. The safest thing is not to fly kites near the lines due to the danger of contact with current. Parents are urged to cooperate by insisting that dry clean string always be used for kites and kite-tails, instead of damp string or wire.

Standing committees of the Ballinger Board of Community Development have been appointed and the organization will soon launch a program of activities that will benefit every person calling Ballinger home. These things are not accomplished merely with the forming of plans, however, it takes hard work, much time and money to put over successful programs. The new organization has the workers included in the standing committees who are willing to give the time, the board has approved projects that are believed by all to be essential to the city's future and now the time comes when all residents must put their money on the "barrel head" to make plans succeed. The organization should have a monthly budget that will provide for all expenses and enough more to build up a surplus. No organization of this kind can operate successfully without cash. Help maintain the enthusiasm of the organization by providing the budget that will permit the carrying out of the program planned.

Two important elections are only about one month away. In one Ballingerites will elect an entire city commission to carry on the municipal business and look after the city-sponsored WPA projects underway. Many citizens have signed petitions requesting the present mayor and commissioners to permit their names to be placed on the ballot for reelection. In the other election two school trustees will be named to take the places of two whose terms expire this year. Both elections should be of interest to every local person as those elected must look after business that belongs to the public and are vitally important to the welfare of the community.

Mooney Silent on Rumored Divorce Plans

When questioned recently in San Francisco concerning plans for his divorce Thomas Mooney, second from left, pardoned labor leader, stated he had nothing to say as his domestic life has a bearing on Warren Billings' chance for a pardon. Billings was convicted of taking part in the 1916 San Francisco bombing. Mrs. Rena Mooney, second from right, collapsed when told that her husband planned on getting a divorce. Mrs. Mooney is employed on a WPA music project in San Francisco.

WEST TEXAS

NEWS NOTES

School board members and superintendents from six towns in the Permian Basin met at McCamey last week to form an association, believed to be the first of its kind in the state. Objects of the organization are to develop better relations between the schools, holding meetings and discussing problems of common interest. Represented in the association are Fort Stockton, Iranan, McCamey, Rankin, Crane and Big Lake.

Mayor Henry Clark, of Stephenville, was advised last week that the city's application of $23,000 to complete the recreational hall and swimming pool was making favorable progress at Washington and it was believed approval soon would be obtained for the appropriation. Work was started some time ago and with funds used, crews were laid off and leaders are pushing the application to complete the project before summer.

E. E. Adams, who has operated a grocery store at Miles 26 years, opened a sale last week to close out his stock and issued a statement that he would retire. He moved to Miles in 1912, bought a business, and has operated it continuously ever since. Mr. Adams will devote his entire time to looking after his farming interests.

W. Z. Compton, formerly principal of the Comanche high school, was elected superintendent at a board meeting last week. He will succeed J. D. Bramlette, who recently resigned, effective July 1. Mr. Compton has served the Comanche school as principal for three years.

At a meeting Tuesday night of last week the Bronco Community Service Club heard a report on the F. F. A. stock show to be held there on March 1. The report was made by J. T. Henry, vocational agriculture instructor in the Bronco high school. Merchants attending the luncheon voted to close their business houses from noon until 3 p. m. so their clerks could see the show.

Repairs on the Brady jubilee park and grounds were assured last week when the McCulloch county commissioners' court voted to bear one-third the cost. Previously the city had agreed to pay one-third and the jubilee committee the other third. Damage done by the floods last summer will be corrected and the grounds made ready for the annual show which attracts thousands from this section.

The Robert Lee Lions Club received its charter at a meeting and they will be assisted by committees. The club will hold regular meetings to work for the interests of Rowena and territory.

Plans for a new fire station at Junction have been accepted and Mayor H. E. Wright announced this week that construction would be started soon. The commissioners' court donated three lots upon which the new station will be built. The mayor stated that the structure would be built without a bond issue or a boost in the present tax rate.

The grand jury for the current term of 119th district court at Paint Rock returned fourteen bills after completing deliberations last week. All these cases will be docketed for trial at the present term. Five of the indictments were against Ollie Minor Smith, Joe Carson, and Marie Barrow, who gave officers of this section a chase last summer. The Barrow girl is a sister of the notorious outlaw, Clyde Barrow.

The Winters city council has asked citizens to refrain from irrigation or lawn sprinkling. It was stated that the water supply was sufficient for domestic purposes but precautions must be taken to forestall a shortage in case no rain falls in the vicinity soon. Most of the water is being provided by a well on main street which does not supply enough for irrigation.

The Menard county commissioners' court has posted a bounty on foxes of 50 cents each and will make prompt payment for every one killed in the county. The bounty became effective at once and will be good until June 1. Trappers must have written permits from ranch owners to catch foxes on their places.

S. W. Cooper has been reelected secretary of the Coleman Chamber of Commerce and will continue the present program. At the annual membership banquet this week new projects were also added to the program. Mr. Cooper has had a big part in the soil and water conservation movement and more tanks have been built in Coleman county than anywhere else in this section of Texas.

Cecil Shults has been elected to again head the Rising Star Chamber of Commerce. He had just completed his second year in the office and was unanimously named for a third term. Action will be taken at once to secure WPA aid in constructing a building for marketing watermelons during the summer.

The Melvin school board and faculty are holding open house tonight. An entertainment program is being staged in the auditorium after which patrons will be escorted through the different departments of the school to view work done by the pupils.

Members of the Brownwood Regatta Club met last week to discuss plans for the 1939 program and set July 30 as the date for the races. An elaborate program is to be presented at Lake Brownwood and some of the fastest outboard motor boats in the Southwest will be entered in the contests.

The Eden Business Club was host to Eden firemen at a special program and dinner Tuesday of last week. All vacancies in the fire company were filled and other business transacted that will bring the department up to every requirement of the state insurance commission.

The Rowena Merchants' Club, organized two weeks ago, continues to grow and the first of the week had thirty-two members. Henry Topicek is president; H. H. Biedermann, secretary-treasurer.

7.08 per untreated animals in a pasture four miles away. Heel flies do not fly very far, Reppert said.
 Subsequent tests showed reductions of grubs ranging from 64 to 85 per cent. Careful observations on the part of Hackney and the ranch management throughout 1938 showed much less annoyance of animals in the treated pasture and the management was greatly pleased with the excellent condition and vigor of the animals in the test.

Cattle attacked by heel flies are restless, lose flesh because they leave the grazing grounds to stand in water or mud holes, and have been known to rush to their death over cliffs. Eggs laid by the flies hatch into grubs, enter animal tissue, gradually work up to the back and finally emerge as fully grown grubs almost a year later. The various losses due to the grub will probably exceed that of the fly.

There is no direct control of the heel fly in the adult stage, neither are there practical methods of preventing the eggs from hatching or the small grubs from entering animal tissue.

Destruction of the grub in the back of the animal is possible, however, and if systematically done, eliminates the next crop of flies, Reppert pointed out.
 Hand removal of the grubs, practiced for years, is not practical on large herds. USDA entomologists found that a rotenone-bearing material such as derris or cube root, ground to a fineness of 250 screen mesh, would kill the grubs. Control may be effected by making an ointment of one part of powder to 10 parts of petroleum and forcing the insecticide with the fingers into the breathing pore provided by the grub itself. This also requires individual treatment of the grubs and is not practical except on a small scale.
 A more rapid method is to apply at least two ounces of finely ground dust of at least one per cent rotenone content to the backs of infested animals.

The method used by the extension service workers at the Martin Ranch was to make a wash of one gallon of water, two ounces of neutral soap, and one pound of finely ground powder of five per cent rotenone content—enough to treat 29 animals. Application has been with coarse, short bristled stable brushes to thoroughly work in the wash. It has been found that four men, working in a chute, can treat animals at the rate of one per minute.

Three or four, possibly five, monthly treatments are necessary to prevent emergence of any grubs and the consequent later appearance of the flies.

Results of the Martin Ranch tests and of similar work by county agricultural agents in other sections of the state indicate a probability that the heel fly may be eradicated in given areas through cooperation of groups of dairymen or ranchmen, Reppert stated.

ONE-ACT PLAYS WILL BE PRESENTED NEXT MONTH

AUSTIN, Feb. 22.—Pointing for state honors 667 high school casts next month will begin the largest "acting bee" of its kind in the world as elimination rounds are started in the one-act play contests sponsored by the University of Texas interscholastic league, F. L. Winship, league dramatics director, said here today.

Preliminary rounds in the contests will open on a state-wide front, with the state championship being decided in Austin, May 5 and 6.

Almost as many entries have been filed with the league for the high school debating contest to culminate here at the same time, Mr. Winship stated.

The state flower of Pennsylvania is the mountain laurel.

Four Are Hostesses to Methodist Philaetha Class

Mmes. J. W. Moore, D. G. Posey, R. O'Kelly and Miss Cora Hays were hostesses Monday evening to Methodist Philaetha Class members in the home of Mrs. Moore in Wilke Terrace.

During the business session over which Mrs. Cecil Jones presided, it was decided to have an Easter millinery sale April 1 in the Tom Agnew home and to make financial pledges.

During the social, Mrs. Cal Adair conducted a contest on faces concerning three presidents whose birthdays were in February and an old-fashioned spelling match. Small silk American flags were favors accompanying the plate of individual cherry pies and coffee.

Guests were: Mmes. Jones, J. B. Striplin, Ford Taylor, Ona Penn, Adair, Troy Simpson, Wilbur Redwine, Sam Behringer, Tom Caudie.

Tom Agnew, A. B. Legate, O. R. O'Neill and J. L. Davis.

Miss Taylor Hostess to Bachelor Girls

Miss Frances Taylor was hostess to the Bachelor Girls Club Tuesday evening in the Harry Lynn home on Seventh Street.

Red potted plants decked rooms where matched bridge sets, hatched nut cups which served as table numbers, and the refreshment plate of cherry pie topped with small American flags served with coffee, all stressed the patriotic emblems and the red, white and blue color combination.

Mrs. Lynn and Miss Dorothy Lynn assisted in entertaining. Included were: Misses Faye McCandless, Evelyn Crowell, Eugenia Baskin, Mary Jane Kiechle, Vernie Downing, Vhelma Parrish, Edna Mae Lowry, Bernice Simmons, Nanell Jones, Cathryn O'Neal, Beth Stiles, and Pearl Currie of Paint Rock.

Mrs. Bates Gives Book Review

One hundred Ballinger women heard Mrs. Gladys de Silva Bates of San Angelo review the Pulitzer prize play of 1938, "Our Town," by Thornton Wilder, Wednesday afternoon in the City Hall auditorium. Mrs. Bates' interpretations of the small town characters were especially good as was her technique in dealing with the subtly humorous situations.

The affair was a benefit performance staged by the Methodist Philaetha Class. Mrs. A. B. Legate presented Mrs. Bates, and Mrs. Rothal O'Kelly, Mrs. J. B. Striplin, Mrs. Ralph Payette, Mrs. D. G. Posey and Mrs. W. J. Morrison were ushers.

Potted plants were used for floral adornment.

Books were exchanged and discussed following election of officers. Mrs. John Barton will be succeeded as president by Mrs. Layne Moreland. Mrs. Tom Caudie is vice-president, and Mrs. Alex Saunders, secretary-treasurer.

Tiny silk American flags and nut cups suggestive of George Washington's Birthday accompanied the refreshment plate of individual cherry pie topped with whipped cream with coffee.

Included were: Mmes. Joe Forman, Moreland, Barton, J. E. Dankworth, A. B. Legate, O. R. O'Neill, Caudie, W. J. Morrison, J. D. Eoff, O. R. Lasater, W. E. Moss, Saunders, Ted Jones and C. E. Jones.

Mrs. Huddleston is Hostess

Mrs. O. L. Huddleston was hostess to her contract club Wednesday afternoon in her home on Ninth Street.

Tallies and other game appointments gave attractive emphasis to the George Washington Birthday theme as did flag mints which accompanied the salad course served with coffee preceding games.

Mrs. Joe Beck, Jr., received high score trophy and Mrs. G. A. Swann in bingo. Others were: Mmes. Tommie Hall, Dan Castle, W. B. May, Joe Eubank, R. J. Hawk, James Parrish and Bynum Britton.

Dr. and Mrs. Halley Are Hosts

Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Halley were hosts at dinner in their home on Fifth Street Wednesday evening to honor Mrs. Mildred Harris, of Waco, Worthy Grand Matron of the Order of Eastern Star of Texas. Other grand officers and friends from out-of-town and past matrons of the Ballinger chapter were also honored guests. Lovely tulips formed centerpieces for the dining room table and quartet tables where places were found by means of names attached to George Washington Birthday nut baskets.

The delicious menu was served buffet style. Besides Mrs. Harris, others were: Mrs. Edith Findlater, San Angelo; Mrs. Lucille Dowell, Austin; Mrs. Tommie Weathersby, San Angelo; Mrs. Hallie Anglin, Luling; Miss Blanche Earl, Dallas; Mrs. C. L. Mohr, Stephenville; Mrs. Frank Leathers, Blum; Mrs. Kate Hefflin, Temple; Miss George Singletary, Abilene; Miss Griffie Atkins, Mrs. Chester Cherry, Mrs. J. Y. Pearce, Mrs. R. A. Nicholson, Mrs. Charles Bailey, Mrs. G. P. Teague, Mrs. J. A. Ostertag and Mrs. Vernon Webb.

Mrs. Forgey Entertains Needle Workers

Mrs. W. A. Forgey was hostess to the Needle Workers' Club in her home on Broadway Wednesday afternoon.

The George Washington theme was carried out in the room decorations. At the refreshment hour a cherry salad plate and coffee was served. Miniature flags were used for favors.

Present were: Mmes. J. W. Biasedell, J. W. Black, W. A. Nance, Mary Spreen, Drew Dickson, E. P. Talbot, E. S. Cox, Chester Cherry, and O. R. Lasater.

The afternoon was spent in fancy needle work.

Worthy Grand Matron Visits

Mrs. Mildred Harris, of Waco, Worthy Grand Matron of the Order of Eastern Star of Texas, made an official visit to Ballinger chapter No. 266 Wednesday evening.

Blue tapers and potted plants gave added attractiveness to the chapter room where star point colors were featured in other lighting effects. Following the

were presented in the East to Mrs. Beulah Rape, worthy matron, by the conductress, Miss Pauline Morley, and associate conductress, Mrs. Pyrie Gustavus. They were: Mrs. Harris; Mrs. Edith Findlater of San Angelo, past grand matron of Texas; Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Halley, past grand patron and matron of Texas; Miss Blanche Earl of Dallas, grand warder; Mrs. Hallie Anglin of Luling, grand examiner, district 5; Mrs. Hattie Lucille Dowell of Austin, district deputy grand matron, district 5; and Mrs. Tommie Weathersby, district deputy grand matron, district 5, section 1. Past matrons and patrons from the local chapter, Winters, Norton, Paint Rock and Talpa were recognized as were the following visitors: Mrs. Kate Hefflin, Temple; Miss George Singletary, Abilene; Mrs. C. L. Mohr, Stephenville; and Mrs. Frank Leathers, of Blum.

Mrs. Rape and Mrs. Halley gave words of welcome. Dr. Halley was presented as "George Washington" and told a short story of his life, using the hatchet and cherry tree. These were further symbolized in a pretty drill through which Mrs. Harris was conducted by Miss Morley. Star points gave tokens, which were placed in an attractive patriotic folder. Mrs. Troy Simpson sang a tribute to the worthy grand matron, and Mrs. Mohr sang "Beautiful Eastern Star" by Helen Carpenter. Mrs. Halley played accompaniments. Mrs. Harris made her address on "Faith" and received, along with other grand officers, honorary certificate of membership in the Ballinger chapter.

A social hour was enjoyed following the closing ritual. Mrs. R. A. Nicholson and Mrs. G. P.

The Safety Sensation of 1939!

THE NEW

Firestone CHAMPION

The Only Tire Made with the NEW SAFETY-LOCK CORD BODY and NEW GEAR-GRIP TREAD...

NEVER before in our experience has a tire met with such instant and unanimous approval as the new Firestone Champion Tire. It's the Safety Sensation of 1939! Our customers have started a word-of-mouth campaign that is making this the biggest selling tire we've ever had. Motor car manufacturers have been so impressed by its superior performance that they have adopted it for their 1939 models.

Why? Because the Firestone Champion Tire is an entirely new achievement in safety engineering.

Stronger Cord Body. This is accomplished first, by the use of a completely new type of tire cord called "Safety-Lock," in which the cotton fibers are more compactly interwoven to assure cooler running and provide greater strength. Then, the fibers in each individual cord, the cords in each ply and the plies themselves, are all securely locked together by a new and advanced Firestone process of Gum-Dipping which provides amazingly greater strength. And greater strength means greater safety.

More Non-Skid Mileage. The new Safety-Lock cord construction provides the extra strength needed for the use of the new, thicker, tougher, deeper Firestone Gear-Grip tread which delivers remarkably longer non-skid mileage. This sensational new tread is called "Gear-Grip" because of its unique design — it has more than 3,000 sharp-edged angles which grip the road with a sure-footed hold to protect against skidding and assure a safe stop.

Drive in today and equip your car with a new set of Firestone Champion Tires — the only tires made that are safety-proved on the speedway for your protection on the highway.

Methodist Bishop With Local Church For Service Today

Bishop Ivan Lee Holt started his visiting tour in the central Texas conference with the First Methodist Church of Ballinger this morning, preaching at 11 o'clock. Since January the bishop has been in the New Mexico and Northwest Texas conferences, speaking from three to fourteen times daily.
 With Bishop Holt here today were Presiding Elder S. W. Williams and Dr. Frank L. Turner, president of McMurry College, Abilene, former pastor of the Ballinger church.
 Using as a subject "I Am the Door," words of Jesus taken from the 9th verse and 10th chapter of John, the bishop pictured a nightmare in which a person was shut in a room with no escape and the Christ standing there against the wall saying "I am the door," offering a way of escape.
 The speaker told of the rooms in which people were shut in by great problems and from which Jesus is the exit. Other rooms, he said, shut people in by sin, but Jesus stood there saying, "Come unto Me and I will give you rest." The third room depicted was that of sorrow and here the speaker said the church often fails in offering consolation to the broken-hearted. "The human heart needs comfort," Bishop Holt said, and revealed how Jesus provides the only comfort in hours when the soul is heavy.
 A youth crusade for this section of the Brownwood district is to be launched at the Winters Methodist church tonight and a large delegation from Ballinger will attend. Bishop Holt will be the principal speaker.
 At noon today officials of the local church were with the distinguished visitors at a luncheon held in their honor at the Central Hotel.
BALLINGER COUPLE MARRIED AT ANGELO
 A report was received here this afternoon of the marriage in San Angelo of A. N. Iden and Mrs. Elia Cross. The license, issued by County Clerk Emmett Keating, of San Angelo, showed Mr. Iden's age to be 86 and the bride's 64. Keating stated he had never issued a license to an older couple.
 No other details of the wedding were available here.
 Tourists and botanists who today climb the slopes of Mount Pilatus in Switzerland have long forgotten that it was not till the 16th century that anyone had approached it. Pilate's ghost was supposed to hover there.

 A heavy iron has little, if any advantage over a lightweight one, since pressing is done mostly through the evaporation of moisture and the movement of the iron.

WITH THE SICK
 Fred Kiechle, active vice-president of the Farmers & Merchants State Bank was reported resting a little easier soon after noon today, but still in a very serious condition. He was taken to the Halley & Love Sanitarium last Thursday afternoon and his condition has become worse since. Attending physicians stated several days ago that he was suffering with a dangerous spinal infection.
 Mrs. W. V. Connelly is improving following an operation in the local hospital the past week-end.
 Mrs. Claude Gentry, of Bronte, is improving daily at the local hospital, where she has been for some time receiving treatment.
 Mrs. John H. Rampy was operated on at the Halley & Love Sanitarium Wednesday. She was reported to be resting well today.
 Mrs. Albert Rogge was dismissed from the sanitarium this morning and returned to her home. She had been there two weeks following an operation.
 The midnight sun is not limited to the two polar areas; it can be seen south of the Arctic circle and north of the Antarctic circle.

We Thank the Clergy
 Our contacts with the clergymen in this community are frequent. We have reason to be grateful for their selfless devotion to humanity, their reverent idealism and sincerity. By their acts and deeds these men of God set a splendid example for the rest of us to follow.
 May we, then, thank them here for the many gracious services they render to us and to the community at large. Steadfast in adversity, they carry their many duties without complaint or reward. This world would be a finer world if more men shared their noble spirit.
