

Maintenance Club Open to Employees Of Harman School

The Maintenance Club, for the employees of the Harman Training Center has held its formal opening following completion of work on the interior of the building. Officers elected are: W. L. Gunnell, president; C. B. Polansky, vice-president; Mrs. H. C. Anderson, secretary; W. R. O'Neill, treasurer; and Garland Crouch, reporter.

The club room is located next door to the West Texas Utilities Co. offices and is divided into three large rooms. The first is a reception lounge, the next a place for dancing, and the third a gymnasium where ping-pong tables and other games are available for the members. A piano and a nickelodeon are available for music.

The club had its opening on January 15 with a barn dance which was enjoyed by a large crowd. Prizes for the best dressed farm couple went to Mr. and Mrs. McCreary, and Jim Graham won the prize in the milk bottle contest. Fred Harman and Mrs. E. L. Ingram acted as judges. Music was furnished by Crouch and His Music Makers. Refreshments of coffee and doughnuts were served.

Another meeting of the club was held on January 29 in connection with the regular business session. The hall was decorated in the valentine motif and refreshments were served. Regular meeting dates are the 3rd and 18th of each month for business periods and entertainment.

Members of the Maintenance Club wish to express thanks to Fred Harman, who has helped to make the recreational place possible. The members are proud of their up-to-date gathering place and are striving to maintain a standard of good clean amusement. They invite all employees of the maintenance department to take advantage of the club facilities and enjoy its activities.

Cadet Wives Enjoy Varied Activities; 200 Present Sunday

The Kaydette Club held its regular weekly meeting in the Army and Navy Club room Tuesday with President Danner calling the group to order. Numerous activities will leave the cadet wives without spare time this week. A promise from Fred Harman and Mrs. A. McGregor to try to secure an invitation to a ranch is about to materialize and Friday may see something new in the way of Texas ranching.

Also on the program this week is a group of wives who are to provide entertainment Thursday night for Bruce Field cadets. The eight women will go to the field for a rehearsal and remain until after the show. The first number is a skit giving the story of a cadet's first solo flight. Mrs. George Faust and Mrs. Robert Falby will impersonate the instructor and the pilot. Mrs. Nick Carter will read a story similar to "Jack and the Bean Stalk," using Bruce Field as the setting. Six girls provide the songs that punctuate the story, as follows: Miss Jewel Durrshier, Mrs. Dorothy Claybough, Mrs. Nick Carter, Mrs. Florence Danner, Mrs. Lois Cornelius, and Mrs. Roy Kuka, pianist.

Mrs. Kuka also will give two selections on the piano, both boogie woogie.

Tomorrow (Friday) afternoon, the underclass Kaydettes are to entertain the upperclassmen's wives in a farewell gesture. Mrs. Ballard will then preside as chairman, replacing Mrs. Florine Danner.

At the meeting Tuesday, the women played bingo and cards, winning prizes of various kinds. Mr. Harman provided delicious sandwiches and cakes for everyone.

A note of interest from Mrs. McGregor was a report that over 200 underclassmen, their wives and girl friends visited the club Sunday.

At the next meeting, Tuesday, the underclassmen will elect officers. The public is welcome to attend meetings of the Kaydette Club.

EXTENSION SERVICE EXPERT GIVES POINTERS ON WINTER PRODUCTION OF HEN-FRUIT

COLLEGE STATION, Feb. 2.— Egg production during winter is not difficult if poultrymen keep the layers comfortable and well fed.

According to George P. McCarthy, poultryman for the A. & M. College extension service, consumption of water and feeding mash, and ventilation of poultry houses are the important factors. During cold weather, fresh, warm water must be provided each morning in order to maintain production. If higher production is to be sustained, the water consumption of the layers also must be maintained.

Equally important is the consumption of mash. Plenty of good laying mash should be kept before the birds, and stirring it occasionally will increase consumption. Where possible, feeding of a moist mash at noon will stimulate production. In preparing this, about three pounds of mash, dry weight, mixed with just enough water to make it crumbly will be sufficient for 100 hens. During extreme cold an extra feeding of grain just before the birds go to roost will help to keep them warm and also aid in maintaining better winter production.

Providing a good green range for laying hens is an important part of good poultry management. Tender, green feed furnishes protein, minerals and the health-producing vitamin A. A small patch of green feed planted adjacent to the poultry yard where the birds can run in the late afternoon will give excellent grazing and aid materially in maintaining winter production. Poultry houses should be well ventilated, but at the same time free of drafts and moisture, and warm enough to keep the hens comfortable. If metal roofs of houses are insulated with heavy cardboard or other insulating material, sweating with consequent damp floors will be eliminated. Moisture condensing on the inside of a metal roof otherwise drips upon the floor and often causes colds among hens.

Runnels countians will vote in nearly full force this year, according to poll tax payments. Considering that many eligible voters are in the armed forces, about as many poll tax receipts have been issued as were in 1942 and that was a big year for this county.

Institute Speaker Tells of Americas In Post-War Era

The first speaker of the Rotary Institute of International Understanding, Dr. Samuel Guy Inman, of Bronxville, New York, spoke Tuesday night at the Ballinger high school auditorium to a capacity house, both the first floor and the balcony being filled.

Dr. Inman painted the Americas as the hub of civilization and told the audience the United States must be the center of the new world order to follow the war. He said the United States is now the leader of world government and urged that the Americas take the rightful place in leadership in this war is over in moulding a new world order.

Referring to several recent world events, the speaker told of the United States part in these affairs and then gave a detailed description of the Latin-American countries and the role they have played in the war, especially in providing essential war materials to the United States. He praised the action of the Pan-American conferences and explained Argentinian's delayed participation in the Allied camp.

At the conclusion of his talk Dr. Inman conducted a question period during which a number of queries were put from the floor concerning the war and some that were more personal than international.

Before the speaking the Ballinger high school band under the direction of O. G. Joiner gave a short concert as the audience was assembling.

The speaker was introduced to the audience by James A. Wear, Rotary Club president, following the opening prayer by Rev. Clarence A. Morton.

The next speaker for the institute, Dr. No Yong Park, will appear here two weeks hence, on February 15. Dr. Park will discuss the Orientals and their part in a new world order. A native of China, the speaker will spend a large part of his time discussing matters of vital interest to China and its place in the post-war world.

National Monuments Is Speaker's Subject At Rotary Meeting

Rev. Clarence A. Morton was the speaker at the Ballinger Rotary Club meeting Tuesday noon, speaking on the subject, "National Monuments." Beginning with the monuments in Ballinger, places of historic interest, he spent a large part of his interesting message in covering Texas, especially the southwestern portion.

In Ballinger the speaker called attention to the Indian figure in city park, the Charles Noyes monument, and the Carnegie Library building. He advocated in post-war days more advertising to bring tourists this way to see the wonder of the great Southwest.

National monuments were divided into seven groups and only a few were mentioned very briefly.

Following Rev. Morton, Dr. Samuel Guy Inman talked a short while, and admitted that his mind had wandered to the Latin-American countries and their monuments. He mentioned only a few, in particular that of Christ which has become world famous and attracts people from all over the globe.

Frank Kemp was presented as a new member of the club.

Under Fire 220 Sign Petition Asking City Pass Dog Ordinance

A petition bearing 220 signatures has been submitted to the city commission asking that an ordinance be passed to control dogs in Ballinger. The petition was circulated by nearby ranchmen and farmers who have lost poultry, sheep and other animals by dogs in recent weeks. The petition points out that there are several hundred dogs running loose and without tags in Ballinger, that are doing practically all of this damage.

Among the signers are many local people as well as a number who reside near Ballinger.

The petition will be presented at the next regular meeting of the commission for consideration and action.

There is a dog control ordinance on the city statute books but it has never been strictly enforced. It requires that a dog be registered and a tag issued which must be worn on a collar. Proof of the lack of enforcement is pointed out in the fact that there are several hundred dogs in the city but only a small number of tags are issued each year. Some members of the commission believe that strict enforcement of the present law would solve the problem.

Numerous complaints also have been filed by citizens here in regard to damage done by dogs about homes.

ATTENDANCE INCREASING AT GRACE BAPTIST MISSION

Pfc. John C. Parker, pastor of the Grace Baptist mission in South Ballinger, reports that interest and attendance are growing at each service. Good services were held Sunday, with twenty-three present at Sunday school. Evening services are attracting particularly large congregations.

Several boys and girls in the community have been organized to do visitation work in the interest of the mission.

Sgt. Eschal Cosby, of Goodfellow Field, San Angelo, is expected to visit the mission in the near future to present special music.

A. McGregor was back on the job at the downtown school board office Monday after a week's illness.

The Mertzson quintet is a fast aggregation and will give the Bearcats plenty of worry. Fans are invited to attend.

The county tournament will be held here on February 12, at which time all teams in district 8-A will assemble here to decide the championship.

Mrs. Wallace Chastain and children, of San Angelo, visited the past week-end with Mrs. W. W. Chastain.

Mrs. Jane Borders and Mrs. Helen Fowler, daughters of Mrs. C. B. Looney, were here the past week-end for a visit with their mother. Both are employed in the North American aircraft plant in Dallas.

MORELAND ASKS FOR REELECTION

To the Voters of Runnels County: At this time I wish to announce that I will be a candidate for reelection to the office of Sheriff, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries.

First of all I want to express appreciation to the people of this county for their fine cooperation with me in the affairs of my office during the past year. Your assistance has helped me in many ways to make you a better sheriff and I appreciate each one who has helped, and this goes for the other members of my force.

In asking for the office of sheriff for another term, I do so believing that my past experience has qualified me to better serve in this capacity. My acquaintance with other officers of this area and the entire state, makes possible the securing of cooperation from all law enforcement agencies.

During the stress of war days, I have attended and cooperated with the Federal Bureau of Investigation in their conferences and in every other way possible and feel that I have the trust and friendship of these men. I have been ready to go day or night in the interests of the county on any business connected with my office and feel in asking for reelection that I have done the best job possible.

At this time I want to solicit the support of the people of this county in the summer elections. I promise each voter the best that is in me to make a sheriff that will serve without favor to any and in fairness to all.

Respectfully,
J. L. MORELAND

NORTH NORTON HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB

The work of the new year was started last week when members of the North Norton home demonstration club met in the home of Mrs. Kirb Robinson. New officers taking their places were: Mrs. Harvey Bryan, president; Mrs. Robinson, secretary-treasurer. The new yearbook was distributed to members.
