

Security Bond Campaign In Runnels County Lags

Judge O. L. Parish, chairman for the security bond campaign in Runnels county, is mailing out letters to banks this week asking them to push bond sales during the remainder of June.

The county was assigned a quota of $140,000 in these bonds for the special drive conducted by the treasury department. While no tabulations were available today, it was believed $30,000 to $35,000 would be needed to reach the quota. The last day for buying bonds to apply on the quota is June 30.

Ballinger banks have sold about $100,000 worth of bonds during the period but it is understood that sales elsewhere in the county have been light. Local bankers and Judge Parish thought that a special effort now would make it possible to attain the $140,000 quota by the end of the month.

Bonds may be purchased in the same series as during the war. Series E bonds sell for the same price, $18.75 for a $25 bond.

Monthly Legion and Auxiliary Meetings Held Tuesday Night

American Legion and Auxiliary members met Tuesday night in the AAA office on the court house lawn. The Legionnaires held a number of discussions but took no official action because a quorum was not present.

A special meeting will be called later at which time the nominating committee will give its report and new officers will be elected in time to attend the state convention as delegates from the post.

In the auxiliary meeting a number of reports were heard, including one for the Poppy Day sale held on May 28. The sale this year was one of the best since the days following World War I and all flowers were sold. The unit received a total of $256.60 from the sale.

A gift of appreciation was made to the Ballinger Girl Scouts when it was voted to give them a check for $25 to help carry on their summer activities.

Mrs. James Parrish will serve as treasurer for the remainder of the year, succeeding Mrs. Carolyn Hoffman, who has resigned.

Coin cards have been received and will be given to all members to be filled with coins during the summer. At Christmas they will be sent to the Legion hospital as a part of the Christmas gift from the local unit.

A nominating committee was appointed and will report at the July meeting when new officers are to be elected.

Barbecue and Golf Tournney Arranged For Club on July 5

The annual shareholders meeting of the Ballinger Country Club was held Tuesday night at the club house with a quorum attending.

Those present voted to hold the annual barbecue, golf and bridge tournament on July 5 and the families of all club members are invited to spend the day at the club where a full day's program of entertainment will be presented and a dinner served at the noon hour.

Committees were named Tuesday night to secure prizes for the various events and to name assistants to conduct the contests and decorate the club room for the occasion. Those in charge of plans expect to make the 1948 celebration the best since before the war.

Committee reports were made of the accomplishments for the past year. Ollie Floyd, chairman of the golf and grounds committee, gave a report showing much done in the past twelve months and stated that many worn out pieces of machinery had been replaced. During the year a new motor and pump was installed for the irrigation plant. A new power mower was purchased for the greens and the fairway mower was rebuilt. The tractor was also repaired and new hose and green sprays were purchased. Mr. Floyd stated the course is now in excellent condition.

Some work was reported on the lake and house during the past twelve months.

Three new directors were elected to take the place of Thomas G. Patteson, J. A. Schnable and J. D. Reneau. The new directors are Dr. W. K. Wheatley, George Newby and Buster Parrish. They will serve with the holdovers, A. B. Stobaugh, Troy Simpson and Ollie Floyd.

Following the shareholders' meeting, directors were in session at which time Dr. Wheatley was named president, Ollie Floyd vice-president and Miss Louise Batts was re-elected secretary.

Buster Parrish, who was appointed to oversee the golf tournament and to secure needed assistance, stated that qualifying rounds of 18 holes could be started at any time and that July 3 would be the last day for posting scores.

W. O. Middleton was named barbecue chairman for the July 4 celebration and is to name his assistants. Hill Hampton, K. V. Northington and Ollie Floyd will secure prizes to be given to winners of tournaments.

300-FOOT PEA-SHOOTER—FOR TORPEDOES... High in the fastness of California's Sierra Madre mountains the U.S. navy has developed and constructed what is probably the world's largest pea-shooter. Pictured above, the 300-foot tube, fired by compressed air, was built to launch naval torpedoes into Morris dam lake for exhaustive tests by naval ordnance underwater division experts. More torpedoes have been launched in this peaceful little lake than were fired by the Japanese during the entire course of World War II.

Club Girls' Encampment Has Record Attendance

More than 100 4-H club girls, leaders and guests were present Thursday last week for the dinner which climaxed the activities of the annual encampment for club girls of Runnels county.

Registration was held at the city park Wednesday afternoon and soon after the girls were settled for the evening a cloud forced them to move to the third floor of the court house. Shortly after arriving there the rain started but all the girls were under shelter.

Thursday morning they moved back to the park for the remainder of their program, which included a fried chicken dinner with all the trimmings at noon. The girls had a number of guests for the meal, and Miss Ollie Chenoweth, county home demonstration agent, stated more than 100 were served.

Making of leather billfolds was one of the main activities at the 1948 encampment. Miss Chenoweth instructed and gave demonstrations for this work. Miss Myra Tankersley, formerly home demonstration agent for this county, assisted Miss Chenoweth with the program.

The special candle-lighting service, scheduled for Wednesday evening, was held on the court house lawn.

All girls 4-H clubs in the county except Wingate were represented at the encampment.

BALLINGER FIREMEN RETURN FROM SAN ANTONIO MEETING

The Ballinger delegation to the state firemen's convention came home last Thursday from San Antonio, where they attended the three-day program. They stated that there were 551 registered delegates and 541 registered visitors.

Ballinger firemen complimented San Antonio for the fine manner in which the convention was handled and the entertainment provided.

COMMISSIONERS' COURT OKAYS BILLS TO BE PAID

The Runnels county commissioners court held its regular June meeting Monday. Most of the time was taken up with the approving of bills and passing them for payment. Other routine business was discussed but no new items were presented for consideration.

BRADLEYS ATTEND FUNERAL FOR RELATIVE AT VERNON

Mr. and Mrs. Harve Bradley and Mrs. J. A. Patterson returned home Tuesday from Vernon, where they attended the funeral for their mother, Mrs. Minnie Bradley.

Survivors include five daughters and three sons. One son, A. V. Bradley, had landed on the West Coast June 8 but the Red Cross could not contact him as he was traveling by auto from California to Texas. He had been stationed in Korea the past two years.

Judge and Mrs. E. C. Grindstaff, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Talbot, and Rev. and Mrs. B. J. Martin spent Saturday in Austin, attending to business and visiting.

Production Found In Two Oil Tests; Interest Increases

Oil interest in Runnels county went upward this week when E. S. Price brought in a producer on the Brookshire place near Benoit. While official production has not been determined in the newest producer, local oil men declare the new well is producing large quantities of oil from a sand which is new in this area.

The test is being completed and within a few days an official gauge will be run to determine daily production.

BALLINGERITES ATTEND FUNERAL OF RELATIVE

Mrs. Tom McEntire's father, C. J. Sweeney, died Tuesday at his home in DeKalb. Mr. Sweeney suffered a heart attack several weeks ago, at which time Mrs. McEntire went to his bedside. His condition was improving when he sustained a second attack last Tuesday, resulting in death. Mr. McEntire joined his wife for the funeral, held yesterday.

JACK NIXON SPEAKER FOR BRONTE LIONS

Jack Nixon, Jr., was in Bronte Wednesday to attend the weekly meeting of the Bronte Lions Club and give a report on the district convention, held recently at Corpus Christi. The Bronte club was not represented at the state meeting and asked for a Ballinger delegate to report on the business at the convention.

Mr. Nixon stated that he found an interested club of some twenty-five members and added that they were putting over an extensive program of activities.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Williams and son, Kenneth, have returned home from a two weeks' vacation at Dallas, Fort Worth and Tyler.

Mrs. R. S. Lowery and children, Dick and Judy, of Alexandria, Louisiana, are guests of Mrs. Lowery's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mox McCrary.

Plans Made by Board To Move Red Cross Office to Court House

The executive board of the Red Cross chapter was in session Tuesday morning to make plans for moving the secretary's office from the Ballinger city hall to the county court house about July 1.

The change will make necessary the purchase of office furniture and the employment of an executive secretary. Mrs. Margie Lukariski, who has been acting as secretary, will leave soon after July 1, and efforts are being made to employ the new secretary soon so she can have a short training period under the retiring secretary.

Arrangements have been made to open an office on the third floor of the court house and a committee composed of Jack Nixon, Jr., and Mack Young, was named Tuesday to purchase the additional furniture needed for the office.

For a number of years the Red Cross has been officed with the Ballinger Chamber of Commerce and used the chamber's facilities with the exception of a typewriter and other small items. The position of secretary has been tendered a woman but her acceptance has not been received. If she does not accept, a second meeting of the board will be held to consider other applicants.

Mr. and Mrs. Raby Padgett are here this week from their home in the Rio Grande valley to visit Mrs. W. T. Padgett and other relatives and friends.

Miss Rebecca Craig, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. E. L. Craig, left Saturday for Lake June Laska, North Carolina, where she will take special training in Methodist youth caravan work during the summer. After ten days training she will begin her work with a caravan, traveling from one church to another to assist in the youth and youth leaders program of local churches. She will return home in August and intends to teach during the fall and winter.

SUNDAY IS FATHER'S DAY; MERCHANTS SHOW GIFTS

Next Sunday, June 20, is Father's Day, and Ballinger stores are displaying appropriate gifts for dad. No set programs have been arranged for the day but in some churches special honors will be paid fathers in the congregations.

Ballinger to See Baseball Remainder of '48 Season

Midland Series to be Played Regardless Of Change in League

At a meeting of the directors of the Longhorn Baseball League held at San Angelo Tuesday, a group of San Angelo fans was given until 6 p. m. today to raise money to retain the San Angelo franchise. C. West, owner of the San Angelo park and club, placed a value of $25,000 on the property without the concessions and $26,500 with the concessions.

League moguls allowed until 6 p. m. today for the San Angelo group to raise $10,000 to assure current operation of the club and 45 days in which to raise the balance. In the meantime the Colts have been taken over by the league and are playing their scheduled games until Friday. The Del Rio management gave assurance that club would remain in the circuit unless dropped because the San Angelo franchise was cancelled.

In case San Angelo falls and Del Rio is dropped, the league will revert to a six-club loop Friday. This would not change the Cats schedule for Friday and Saturday and the Midland Indians will be here to provide the competition.

The league-leading Indians and the third-place Cats will battle it out in this crucial series at Cat park and it probably will be one of the most interesting to date.

With the status of the Ballinger club settled for the remainder of the season, all fans are urged to attend this week-end series with the Midland club. Announcements will be made at the park if there is a change in the schedule after Saturday night.

The San Angelo club is due to play here with the Cats Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Ballinger baseball fans gave Owner Bill Moore a big hand Saturday evening when he announced that the Ballinger Cats would finish the 1948 season here. The Cats themselves were happy over the decision and went on to win the game from the Sweetwater Sports by the count of 11 to 5.

For the past month fans and players had been hearing rumors and reports that the Ballinger park and franchise would be transferred to Roswell, New Mexico. A climax in the negotiations was reached last week when the Longhorn League was asked to authorize the change. After two meetings, held at Sweetwater, it was decided and agreed to by the local management, that the Ballinger club would be operated here until the end of the season.

No commitment was made beyond the close of the season on Labor Day. It is understood, however, that at that time the request to move the club to Roswell will be resubmitted by the owners.

'Knot Hole Gang' Rules Announced

The committee arranging for the organization of the Ballinger "knot hole gang" has made public rules governing membership for boys and girls.

A number have already signed up and it is believed a large group will be organized by tomorrow night to attend their first baseball game.

The rules are as follows:

1. Boys and girls who had not reached the age of 13 on April 23, 1948, are eligible for membership.
2. Parents or guardians must accompany members to the gate of the baseball park.
3. Members must attend Sunday school classes of their choice every Sunday, unless absent due to illness or other plausible excuse.
4. If excuse of absence is not granted, member must turn in the membership card or button to respective teacher to be held for one week and attendance made up the following Sunday.
5. Superintendents of respective Sunday schools will turn in names of absentees each Sunday and instruct teachers to take up cards or buttons and return them only after attendance is made up.
6. Eligibility for membership in the club is not confined to Ballinger. Any boy or girl, regardless of address, is eligible.
7. Any boy or girl may register any time for membership at the chamber of commerce office.

Winners Announced In C. of C. Campaign For Raising Funds

Winners in the recent membership drive for the Ballinger Chamber of Commerce were revealed this week. The contests were set up with a colonel leading each team and prizes were offered to individuals as well as colonies. The winners were:

Individual securing most money, Carl Murman; prize, spur clip.

Individual raising most money, Carl Murman; prize, billfold.

Individual securing most raises from old members, Malcolm Morgan; prize, King's Men set.

Individual raising most money, C. A. Bissett; prize, spur clip.

Colonel securing most members, Malcolm Morgan; prize, hat.

Colonel raising most money, C. A. Bissett; prize, hat.

Leaders conducting the campaign are pleased with the results and plan to continue the effort twelve months out of the year with a committee to contact all new firms opening in Ballinger.

Members are invited to inspect the chamber of commerce offices in the Lynn building after July 1.

GRINDSTAFFS TO ATTEND CONVENTION IN FLORIDA

Judge and Mrs. E. C. Grindstaff and son, Everett, left today for Jacksonville, Florida, where they will attend the National Convention of County Officials. Judge Grindstaff will represent the Texas County Judges and Commissioners' Association at the national meeting.

The Grindstaffs are making the trip by car and will be able to visit a number of places of interest en route and on their return trip.

Gen. and Mrs. S. M. Connell, of Dallas, were visitors this week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Satterwhite. They were en route to California and Oregon where they will spend the summer. Gen. Connell and Mr. Satterwhite are associated in the Runnels County Implement Company in Ballinger.

Triple-Four Club Entertained in Lynn Ranch Home

Mrs. Harry Lynn included Mmes. John Bradley, R. T. Williams, C. L. Baker, Jack Bandy McGregor of Dallas, Levy Lee, and John Hollingsworth of Miami, Florida, when she was hostess to the Triple-Four Contract Club Friday afternoon, entertaining in her ranch home north of town.

The spacious living room and dining room were beautifully decorated with daisies, gladioli and dahlias. Hand-painted tallies with the Lynn cattle brand were featured for games, and the gift wrapped prizes also suggested the ranch brand, when Mrs. Ross Murchison was awarded high score prize and the bingo award went to Mrs. Jack B. McGregor.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Fred Vetterlein, Mrs. R. E. Tryly and Mrs. L. R. Tigner in serving a salad plate with iced tea.

Others included were: Mmes. K. V. Northington, Edgar Boelsche, Tom Agnew, Troy Simpson, Alex McGregor, Delbert Vancil, Claude Stone, E. W. Stasney and F. M. Pearce.

Ruth Class and Grindstaff Class Enjoy Picnic in Park

Members of the First Baptist Ruth Class and the Grindstaff Men's Class enjoyed a basket picnic supper at City Park Friday evening.

Mrs. Melvin Beddo, president of the Ruth Class, was mistress of ceremonies for the program. Judge E. C. Grindstaff gave the opening prayer and Rev. B. J. Martin brought the devotional. Mrs. West Talbot gave a humorous reading and also gave the concluding prayer.

Games and contests between the two classes were directed by Mrs. Talbot following the picnic supper with cold drinks.

Guests were Rev. and Mrs. B. J. Martin, Sunday School Superintendent and Mrs. Preston Fitzhugh. Members were: Messrs. and Mmes. Franklin Heath, C. A. Bissett, James Gibbs, Melvin Witter, Archie Thomas, Vernon Lewis, E. C. Grindstaff, H. K. Dickinson, H. M. Dossier, Doyle Condra, K. I. Sharpes, Floyd White, Wayman Wilson, Jack McAden, Elliott Kemp, Franc Jones, West Talbot and Melvin Beddo.

Gwendolyn McKinney Honored at Birthday Party

Gwendolyn McKinney, who has been making home with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Turner, was honored on the anniversary of her birthday Monday afternoon when Mrs. Turner entertained with a party at her home in Norton.

After games were played and the birthday gifts were opened, Mrs. Turner, assisted by Gwendolyn's mother, Mrs. J. H. Putt, of Arizona, served birthday cake and lemonade to twelve guests. Favors were balloons and candies.

Miss Dorothy McClelland Honored at Bridal Tea

Miss Dorothy McClelland, bride-elect of Clarence Hallmark, was honored at a prettily appointed gift tea on June 8 in the home of Mrs. J. W. Bahlman.

In the receiving line were the honoree, her mother, Mrs. J. A. McClelland, Mrs. Eugene Baker, sister of the bridegroom-to-be, and Mrs. Bahlman.

The bride-elect's chosen colors, yellow and white, were carried out in party rooms. The buffet was decorated with an arrangement of yellow carnations and fern in a low bowl on a large reflector. Tall white candles in crystal candle holders stood on either side.

Miss Doris McClelland, sister of the bride-to-be, registered guests in the white leather-bound bride's book. Mrs. Wesley Hamilton ladled frosted punch from the large punch bowl and Mrs. James Midgley served cake squares iced in yellow. Mrs. Raymond Hash and Mrs. Jack Hamilton displayed gifts. Mrs. Dayton Smith also assisted in serving.

2,000 Pounds of DDT Will be Fogged Here in Mosquito Battle

The city of Ballinger received a shipment of 2,000 pounds of DDT the past week-end and received a shipment of talcum powder Monday to be mixed with the poison. J. W. Longnette, manager of the municipal airport, has rigged up a plane for dusting and will start this week to cover a wide area around Ballinger in the campaign against mosquitoes and other insects.

In the dusting or "fogging" by plane, all sections of the city will be covered. After that the plane will cover breeding places along Elm Creek and the Colorado River. Additional treatments will be given the same territory in follow-up work and every effort will be made to rid the community of mosquitoes, flies and other insect pests to safeguard the public health.

City officials are asking property owners to cooperate in the campaign. It is suggested that homes, garages and other buildings be sprayed with DDT, that covered garbage cans be secured and these be sprayed daily to eliminate flies. Cess pools and septic tanks should be treated with kerosene, health officials say. Also a small amount flushed through the commode will kill mosquitoes in these breeding places, it is pointed out. Citizens who have cisterns or other standing water are advised to use kerosene to kill mosquitoes.

Texas Gardens Pay Despite Drouth, Hail And Too Much Rain

COLLEGE STATION, June 16.—Texas gardens are paying off. Even with drouth in some areas, heavy rainfall in others and even hail in a few places, Texas gardens are making money. When the grocery store sells tomatoes at two-bits a pound, says J. F. Rosborough, extension horticulturist of Texas A. & M. College, those free ones out of the home garden sure do taste good.

All the rest of those fresh vegetables taste good too—the free sweet corn, new Irish potatoes, squash, lettuce, green beans, mustard and cucumbers. If you get most of the meal from your own garden, it really makes a big difference in the grocery bill.

If you are in one of the dry areas and the soil doesn't have much moisture, then a little water wouldn't hurt the tomatoes—especially if the plants appear wilted during the day. And watering the tomatoes will prevent blossom end rot of the fruit, too. For the best quality, pick the tomatoes just as they begin to turn pink on the vine. Then spread them out in the shade a few days until they get that deep red color. At this stage they are at their best.

The early plantings of mustard, radish and lettuce have gone to seed by this time. Bright yellow flowers mark the rows of the careless gardener. Don't leave these old vegetables standing in your garden. They are carriers of disease, thieves of soil moisture, and hiding places for insects. When a garden vegetable is through producing, plow it up and leave the soil fallow.

If you keep the old vegetables plowed out, the garden soil is always ready to be planted again when favorable conditions permit, says Rosborough.

Three Cases Heard in District Court; Civil Suit Settled

A number of cases were disposed of in the 119th district court session here Monday morning.

Howard Mayes and R. M. Mayes, Jr., entered pleas of guilty on charges of burglary. The case originated on an oil lease near Ballinger in which R. H. Banner lost equipment from a warehouse. After hearing pleas by defendants Judge O. L. Parish gave each a two-year suspended sentence.

J. A. Bishop, third defendant in the same case, was not present when the case was called and his original bond of $1,500 was forfeited. Bishop's arrest was ordered and a new bond of $2,000 set by the court.

The civil suit of Mrs. Etta Martin vs. J. E. Dankworth, C. D. Middleton and E. Sheppard was settled by agreement out of court and an order was filed by attorneys revealing the settlement. According to the order Mrs. Martin was awarded damages against C. D. Middleton in the amount of $4,250 and against E. Sheppard of $500. No damages were accepted

Great Damage Done By Small Insects Can Be Reduced by DDT

COLLEGE STATION, June 16.—The insects in the farm grain bin may be small but the amount of damage they do is tremendous, according to the USDA bureau of entomology and plant quarantine. The place to start in getting rid of these insects is right in the grain bin.

By doing a good job of bin cleaning and afterward spraying with 5 per cent DDT before the newly harvested grain has been put in, you can kill out the hold-over infestation, and give the new grain a chance to escape damage.

C. A. King, associate extension entomologist of Texas A. & M. College, says that these tiny insects get one out of every eight bushels of farm stored grain in Texas. Further north, it's not that bad. Missouri loses one in ten, and the national average is one in twenty. So you can see Texas is at the top of the "high loss" list.

Entomologists point out that grain losses can be lowered greatly by harvesting grain as soon as it is dry enough for safe storage and by storing it in weather-tight bins that have been made insect-free by a thorough cleaning and spraying. After the grain is stored, check it now and then to see if the bugs are getting into it. If they are, fumigate with a mixture of ethylene dichloride and carbon tetrachloride at the rate of 6 gallons per 1,000 bushels.

Stored grain insects get 300,000,000 bushels of the nation's total production every year, worth over $600,000,000 at today's prices. Since Texas insects get one in every eight bushels, this state can go a long way in cutting down that 300,000,000 bushel grain loss, says King.

Be wise—advertise.

Four Runnels County Club Boys in Judging Contests at Sonora

Runnels county is represented at the Sonora Wool and Mohair Show this week by a team of four boys accompanied by County Agent J. A. Barton and Assistant Agent Lloyd Rumsey. The group left here Tuesday afternoon to be on hand for the beginning of the contests Wednesday morning.

The show and judging contests are sponsored by the Sonora Lions Club. The club is providing living quarters and meals for those who enter.

The four boys entered in the various events from this county are: Jimmy McNeill, Willmeth; William Minzenmayer, Cochran; Alton Hiller, Cochran; Rudolph Halfmann, Olfen. They will judge wool, mohair, three breeds of sheep and goats during the two-day show. The four boys have received considerable instruction in wool judging during the past week and also have had some training in judging mohair.

The group will return home this evening and 4-H club boys will be trained for other contests to be held in the state during the next several weeks.

Worshippers of the God Juggernaut are said to throw themselves under the huge car of Juggernaut as it is dragged through the streets, seeking to be crushed by its wheels.

VETO STAYS... Warren R. Austin, U.S. delegate to the United Nations, informed congress that any attempt to alter the U.N. charter to block extravagant use of the veto power by the Russians is impossible at this time. House foreign affairs committee had been considering legislation to revise U.N. charter.

MARINES GET THE SWING OF IT... This sort of thing might be all right for circus acrobats and people lost at sea in life rafts. It is not recommended as a diversion for the average man who likes to have his pipe and papers brought to him in the evening. This particular maneuver was carried out by marines at Quantico, Va., in a demonstration of the marine corps' new air-sea rescue technique. Hazardous though it may look, ascending from a life raft into a helicopter is still better than staying on the raft. Further demonstrations of air-sea rescues were held in connection with the 36th anniversary of the marine corps aviation section.

Flynt Motor to Show '49 Fords Tomorrow

The Frank Flynt Motor Co. is preparing to show the 1949 Ford cars tomorrow (Friday) in their showrooms at the corner of Eighth Street and Strong Avenue.

The new Ford is a radical change in model and will be viewed with interest by a large number of people. Mr. Flynt expects to have three cars on the floor for showing Friday. After seeing the new cars in a preview showing at Oklahoma City, Mr. Flynt stated that the 1949 Ford sets new standards for beauty, comfort, performance and safety in the low priced field. He said many features have been incorporated in the new car and that economy of operation is very noticeable. Up to 10 per cent more mileage on gasoline is one point. Citizens of this territory are invited to see the new models on display here Friday.

WHAT, JESSE NOT LAID IN HIS GRAVE?... Claiming he is the original Jesse James, the slightly tarnished Missouri Robin Hood of the 1870s, Frank Dalton of Centerville, Tex., came out of his hide-out cabin on advice of his lawyer, who told him the "heat" ought to be off by now. That wasn't Jesse James that Bob Ford shot in the back in 1882, says Dalton; it was Charlie Bigelow. Now living in Lawton, Tex., Dalton is shown blowing out the candle on Jesse's 100th birthday cake.

Miss Davis, Joseph Thomas Strother Wed at Taylor

Double ring wedding vows were solemnized Saturday evening at 8 o'clock for Miss Frances Jane Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen West Davis of Taylor, and Joseph Thomas Strother of Houston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie O. Strother of Ballinger.

The twilight ceremony was read in the First Methodist Church at Taylor by the Rev. Floyd Johnson of Gatesville, former pastor of the Taylor church. White gladioli and stock in floor baskets were against a background of salal, and lighted tapers in floor standards added to the beauty of the setting. The altar railing was outlined with greenery and gladioli, with lighted tapers placed at intervals. A bridal archway of white gladioli florettes completed the decorations.

Mrs. Ralph Johns, organist, played "Ave Maria" and "Liebestraum" preceding the ceremony and accompanied Mrs. Kennedy Jones, who sang "I Love You Truly" and Donald C. Lucas of Houston, who sang "Because." Mrs. Johns also played the traditional wedding marches, and played softly during the ceremony.

Mrs. Thomas Floyd Pierce attended the bride as matron of honor, and Betty Kennedy Jones was junior bridesmaid. They wore identical dresses of white eyelet embroidery, made with fitted bodice, cap sleeves and full gathered skirt. Their headdresses were poke bonnets in white organdy with pleated brims. A sash of pink taffeta completed their ensembles and each carried a colonial bouquet of pale pink sweetheart roses tied with pink ribbons.

Francis J. Niven of Houston attended the groom as best man; the ushers were Bob Cantrell, Louis Bond Prewitt and Thomas F. Pierce of Taylor and Roger Franklin Wallace of San Angelo.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a wedding gown of lustrous camellia tone duchess satin. The long fitted bodice was designed with a deep yoke of marquisette outlined in seed pearls and cording. The long sleeves ended in a point over her hands and the bouffant skirt swept into a graceful train. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion fell from a headdress caught with clusters of orange blossoms. Her only ornament was a diamond lavalliere, a gift from the bridegroom, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids, gladioli florettes and stephanotis.

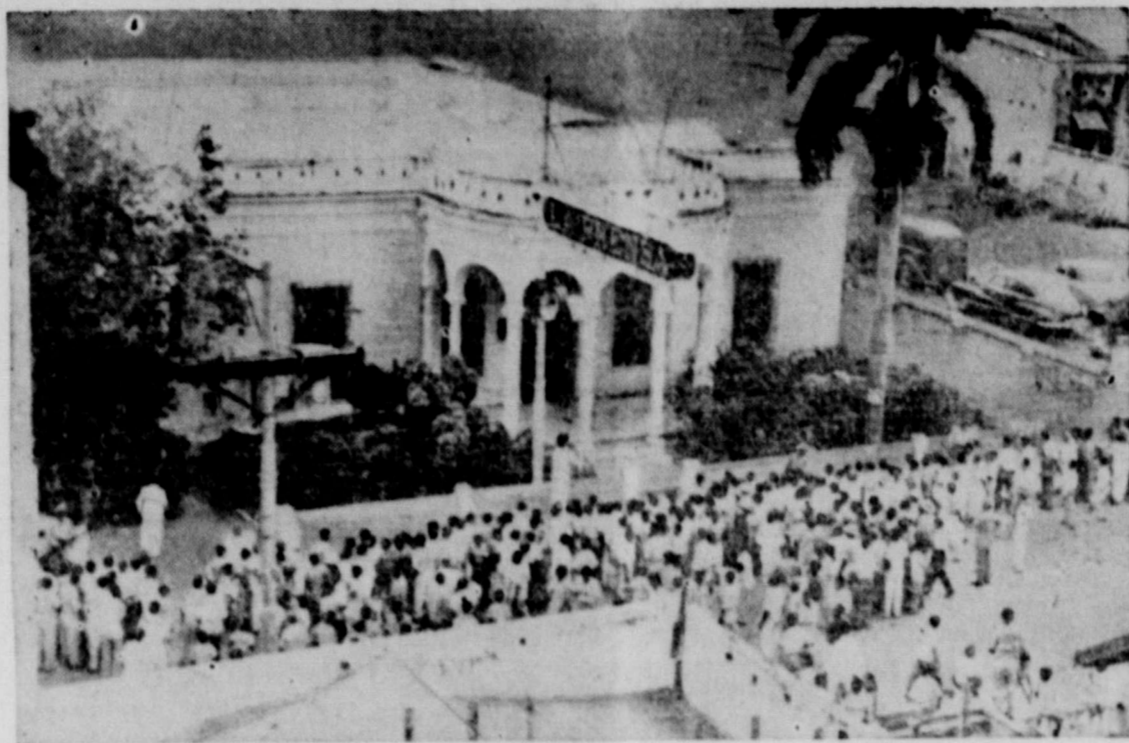

The reception was held at the home of Mrs. Kennedy Jones where the guests were greeted by Mrs. Jones, the bride couple and their parents.

The decorations for the reception suite featured pink and white, including arrangements of white and pink carnations and stock. The bride's table, laid in an imported lace cloth, was centered with the bride's bouquet on a reflector. The single wedding ring cake was embossed in tiny white rosebuds and outlined in fluted tulle.

Mrs. McKean Eilers of Austin, Mrs. Kirby Vance and Mrs. William H. Falter of Dallas, Mrs. Roger F. Wallace of San Angelo, and Miss Mary Strother of Ballinger, sister of the bridegroom, were out-of-town members of the house party.

When Mr. and Mrs. Strother left for a wedding trip to Mexico City, the bride was wearing an original Fred A. Block faille suit in pampas beige with accessories in palamino, and an orchid corsage.

The bride is a graduate of the Taylor High School and of Southwest State Teachers College at San Marcos. She was a campus hostess during her senior year in college and was a member of the Shakespeare society. For the past two years she has taught in the San Angelo schools. The bridegroom is a graduate of the Winters High School and attended North Texas A. & M. at Arlington and the University of Texas, where he majored in engineering. At present he is structural engineer with Francis J. Niven, consulting engineer, in Houston, where the couple will reside.

AS COLUMBIA MOB SACKED NEWSPAPER PLANT... A rioting mob is shown in front of the offices of La Prensa, a newspaper in Barranquilla, Colombia, as they sacked the plant during the revolt that turned many Colombian cities into bedlam and interrupted the ninth international conference of American states at Bogota, the capital. More than 300 were killed during the riots. U.S. Secretary of State George Marshall, in Bogota for the inter-American conference, declared that the revolt, touched off by assassination of a Liberal party leader in Colombia, was instigated by Communists.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Strother and daughter, Miss Mary Strother, of this city, attended the wedding.

Talbot Home Scene of Gift Tea for Mrs. Price

Mrs. A. T. Price, who before her recent marriage at Odessa was Miss Vhelma Parrish, was honored with a beautiful gift tea, hosted Tuesday afternoon in the West Talbot home on Sixth Street. Hostesses were Mrs. Talbot, Mrs. C. W. Jennings, Mrs. Lee Parker, Mrs. George Scruggs and Miss Anna Belle Hash.

The reception room was decorated with arrangements of deep rose carnations where Mrs. Talbot greeted guests and presented Mrs. Price and her mother, Mrs. T. J. Parrish, and Mrs. James Parrish and Mrs. Jones Parrish, sisters-in-law of the honoree.

Directing guests into the spacious living room decorated with white gladioli and into the dining room were Mrs. Price's nieces, Mrs. Bill Chababa, of Dallas, and Miss Betty Parrish.

The dining table, which was laid with an imported lace cloth, was centered with a low pottery bowl with shasta daisies. Other appointments were in crystal. Mrs. Edgar Boelsche and Miss Carmen Demmer presided at the punch bowl, and Mrs. B. J. Martin and Mrs. Parker served cake squares iced in white and decorated with pink rosebuds, and mints.

Mrs. Lloyd Johnson registered guests in the white leather-bound bride's book and gifts were on display in rooms upstairs where pink and red gladioli were used for decorations. Mrs. Hubert Parrish and Mrs. Hugh Parrish presided in the gift room.

Over a hundred friends of the honoree called between three and six o'clock.

First Presbyterian Circles Meet in Homes

Mrs. Harry Lynn was hostess to members of Circle No. 2 of the First Presbyterian Auxiliary on Monday afternoon, entertaining in her ranch home north of town.

Living rooms were decorated with bouquets of garden flowers where Mrs. Paul Trimmer presided for the business and gave the opening prayer. Mrs. E. A. Cezeaux gave the Bible lesson and Mrs. Malcolm McGregor gave the Presbyterian Survey article. Mrs. F. M. Pearce, Auxiliary president, visited the circle meeting.

Mrs. Bitzie Vetterlein assisted in serving home-made ice cream and angel food squares. Others were Mrs. K. V. Northington and Mrs. Chester Cherry.

Mrs. Warren Lynn was assisted by Mrs. Bill Sykes in entertaining members of the Young Woman's Training Circle of the First Presbyterian Church on Monday evening in her home on Fourth Street.

Bouquets of gladioli and other summer flowers gave added beauty to rooms where Mrs. Oscar Batts presided for the business when a letter of thanks was read from a minister in Berlin, acknowledging receipt of a box of food and gifts that had been sent by the Training Circle.

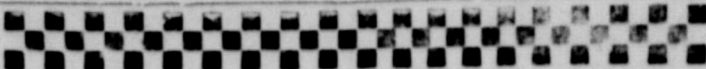

Mrs. R. L. Craig brought the devotional and Mrs. Orland Middleton gave the Presbyterian Survey article.

A sandwich plate with cookies was served with coca colas. Others present were: Mmes. Joe Ingram, Roger Wheeler, Henry Bieciuk, Leonard Stallings and Barbara Whitaker.

Paris, of Troy, caused the Trojan Wars by carrying off Helen, the wife of Menelaus, king of Sparta.

WEDDED BLISS... Bernarr McFadden, health faddist who is as spry as a two-year-old at 80, drinks a rousing toast in carrot juice to his new bride, the former Mrs. Jannie Lee, 42-year-old grandmother. McFadden files his own plane, runs for governor of Florida.

Susan Peters Returns to Films in Powerful Emotional Drama, 'The Sign of the Ram'

The compelling story of an extraordinary woman, Columbia's "The Sign of the Ram" will be presented at the Texas Theatre Wednesday and Thursday of next week, June 23, 24.

The film marks the eagerly-awaited return to the screen of Susan Peters after an absence of over two years. The young actress who became an established Hollywood celebrity with brilliant performances in "Random Harvest" and "Song of Russia" and then suddenly had her meteoric career checked by an unfortunate hunting accident, has searched constantly since that time for a vehicle which would give her a challenging role of great dramatic scope.

Miss Peters has found that sought-after role in Margaret Fer-guson's powerful novel of a vital, beautiful woman whose love almost destroys those whom she loves most. A key to the character she portrays can be found in astrological charts which state that "Those born under Aries, the Sign of the Ram, are endowed with a strong will power, determination and obstinacy of purpose. They will stop at nothing to accomplish their desires!"

Distinguished co-starring players are Alexander Knox, Phyllis Thaxter, Peggy Ann Garner, Ron Randell, Dame May Whitty and Allene Roberts, and featured are Diana Douglas, Ross Ford and Doris Lloyd.

Thursday is named for Thor, the thunder and war god of Norse mythology.

'Gentleman's Agreement' Top Story Portrayed by Top Cast

Gregory Peck, Dorothy McGuire and John Garfield are the three top stars who head the cast of Darryl F. Zanuck's eagerly-awaited production of "Gentleman's Agreement," screen version of Laura Z. Hobson's sensational best-seller, to open Sunday, June 20, at the Texas Theatre for three-day showing.

Heralded as one of the most daring and provocative stories of our time, the 20th Century-Fox film unfolds the gripping drama of Phil Green, crusading reporter for a national magazine, who is assigned to do a dynamic-packed series of articles, only to find that his insistence on getting at the truth—regardless of who gets hurt—generates a crisis in the lives of his immediate family and friends, and almost destroys his romance with the one woman he really loves.

In his most important and challenging role to date, Gregory Peck is seen as Phil Green, the reporter who was driven by a passion no woman could ever understand. Dorothy McGuire is Kathy, Phil's fiancée, who can't understand the sordid things that have come between them, while John Garfield appears as Dave, Phil's friend, who knows what the score is only too well.

Roy Rogers' latest western film, "Under California Stars," and "Dangerous Years," featuring a juvenile cast, make up the double feature program at the Texas tomorrow and Saturday, June 18 and 19. In addition are several short subjects.

Roy Rogers' spectacular battle against a gang of rustlers who have kidnapped his famous horse, "Trigger," provides the exciting theme of "Under California Stars." Heading the featured cast are such favorites as Jane Frazee, Andy Devine, Bob Nolan and the Sons of the Pioneers.

"Dangerous Years," a startlingly revealing drama on juvenile delinquency, has a young and talented cast headed by William Halop, Ann E. Todd, Scotty Beckett and Anabel Shaw. The story told is that of a disarming lad who lures the teen-age set of an average town into bravado hold-ups "for fun" only to be caught in the all too real drama of a murder charge.

Maria Montez, Cameron Unfold Thrills in 'Pirates of Monterey'

Universal-International's new Maria Montez-Rod Cameron action co-starrer, "Pirates of Monterey," is the attraction at the Ford Theatre Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, June 19, 20, 21, 22. Filmed in technicolor, the picture is about California in 1840 and concerns a young Spanish girl, Miss Montez, and her romance with a rough-tough American, Rod Cameron, who smuggles rifles to the Mexican fort at Monterey to save it from Spanish royalists trying to overthrow Mexico's rule.

In the cast with Maria and Rod is Phillip Reed, who portrays both a youthful army lieutenant and Maria's fiancé until Cameron enters the scene. Mikhail Rasumny is cast as Rod's aide to supply high comedy for the film, while Gilbert Roland is the conniving Spanish major, Tamara Shayne, as Miss Montez' duenna, and Gale Sondergaard have important featured roles.

Much of the shooting for "Pirates of Monterey" was done on location. Five trips were made from the Universal lot to obtain authentic California backgrounds for the action, and these trips covered most of Southern California.

The location trips included most of El Camino Real—the king's highway, which the early monks blazed while founding the California missions—from Mexico northward towards Monterey. Many of the sequences were filmed in colorful spots along the camino now hidden among ranches far from the eyes of tourists traveling the highways.

TODAY AND YESTERDAY IN THE AIR...Here is visible evidence of the immense strides taken in aviation since the war. A smooth Northrop flying wing B-35 bomber scoots past a B-17 bomber, one of the World War II heavyweights. There is a startling contrast in size between today's B-35's, weighing 100 tons and measuring 172 feet from wing tip to wing tip, and the flying fortress, backbone of bombing attacks on Europe. B-35s can fly 10,000 miles non-stop at speeds far in excess of the now obsolete B-17s. U.S. army air force is testing the flying wings for possible widespread use later on. Crew compartments, cargo space and engines all are housed within the wing.

SOUTH BALLINGER HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB

A demonstration on making table tops was given when the South Ballinger home demonstration club met Tuesday, June 15, in the home of Mrs. Tom Crockett.

Twenty-four women and thirteen children were present for the all-day meeting.

Two table tops were made out on the back lawn under large pecan trees. The demonstration was given by Mrs. B. M. Batts and Mrs. Calton Smith, who attended the county demonstration in May. Miss Ollie Chenoweth also was present part of the day.

The regular club meeting was held in the afternoon. Mrs. Joe Thomas presiding. Mrs. Smith gave a report on the last county council meeting.

A covered dish luncheon was enjoyed at the noon hour. Punch and cookies were served after the business session.

Visitors present were Mrs. Lewis Loika and Mrs. Claude Simmons, of the Bethel club; Mrs. Harold Routh and Mrs. Jack McAden, of the East Side club; and Mrs. Earl Crockett, of the Rowena club.

The next regular meeting will be held July 6 in the home of Mrs. Red Branham.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our thanks to friends and neighbors for their assistance and expressions of sympathy in the loss of our home by fire. We especially wish to thank the Ballinger firemen who came to our assistance and were instrumental in preventing the fire from spreading. We are grateful to everyone who assisted in any way.

Scout Scoops

The western theme, Brownie Scout Ranch, was the name chosen for the whole ranch when thirty Girl Scouts met with their leaders at City Park Monday morning for a four-day encampment beginning Monday, June 14, and continuing through June 18.

The programs begin at 8:30 each morning with the flag ceremony. Each group has been responsible for the ceremony which included four color guards and a flag bearer, and other members and leaders form a horse-etc.

The Girl Scouts and Brownies are enjoying this stay-at-home camp and are having a happy time singing, folk dancing, cooking out, nature studying, clay modeling and listening to stories. It is conducted as nearly as possible like that of an established camp and yet it is a beautiful camp life near home.

The first day the girls made sun hats out of heavy brown paper sacks and shellacked them, to be worn each day of the camp.

The climax will be a western supper held in the park Friday evening at 8:30 when parents of members of all four troops will be guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Smith left the past week-end for California where they will visit relatives and spend their vacation sightseeing on the West Coast.

Fresh tomatoes have been added to the plentiful supply list this month. Shopping housewives may well consider fresh tomato salad for June meals.

Plan a watering system for the poultry range. It takes lots of time and labor to carry water to the growing pullets during the summer.

STILL PITCHING...The diamond's loss is a gain for the political arena—sometimes. Lefty Grove, former major league hurler, appeared as a Republican delegate from Allegheny county, Md., at the Republican state convention in Baltimore.

CONGRESSIONAL PRESSURE...Every year Republican and Democratic congressmen play what is laughingly known as a ball game for the benefit of charity. Rep. Tom G. Abernethy (Dem., Miss.) will remember this year a sealer for a long time. He is the one being sat on at first base by the obviously weighty Rep. James P. Schoblick (Rep., Pa.) who moves the indicator to 295 pounds every time he steps on a scale.

Mrs. John Castor Entertains Contract Club

Mrs. John Castor included Mrs. L. R. Tigner as an added guest when she was hostess to members of her Contract Club Tuesday evening, entertaining in her Wilke Terrace home.

Party rooms were beautifully decorated with daisies, while the dining table was centered with an arrangement of gladioli.

In contract games Mrs. Tigner was awarded high score prize and the low award went to Mrs. Naomi Keithly.

The hostess served home-made cookies and punch. Others were: Mrs. Edward Sommer, Mrs. John Barton, Mrs. George Newby, Miss Lillian Knowles, Miss Ollie Chenoweth and Miss Griffie Atkins.

Sharon Scales Celebrates Second Birthday Anniversary

The Jack Scales home on Eighth Street was a gay scene Wednesday morning when small Sharon Scales celebrated her second birthday anniversary with a party given by her mother, Mrs. Jack Scales.

Arrangements of roses and snapdragons gave added beauty to party rooms where games were played and pictures made. The lace-laid dining table was centered with yellow asters where the pretty yellow and green birthday cake which was embossed with "Happy Birthday, Sharon" and topped with two yellow candles, was cut and served with ice cream. Balloons were favors.

The honoree was wearing a beautiful, embroidered, hand-made dress presented her by her mother. Mrs. Scales was assisted by the honoree's grandmothers, Mrs. A. W. Malone and Mrs. W. D. Scales, and her aunt, Mrs. E. S. Malone.

Others present were: Mrs. Sam Malone and Melinda, Mrs. Jack Nixon, Jr., and Tommy, Mrs. Roy Worley and Bill, Mrs. Ed Curry and Karen, Mrs. Leonard Scales and Melanie, Mike and Walter, Mrs. Derwood Bissett and Brenda, Mrs. H. Bieciuk and Danny, Mrs. J. W. Little and Jimmy and Carolyn, Mrs. Bill Atwood and Janice and Jim, Mrs. LaVerne Wisely and LaJan, Mrs. O. H. Chandler and Charles, Mrs. L. F. Mrs. Caudle Hostess to Current Book Club

Mrs. Tom Caudle was hostess to the Current Book Club Tuesday afternoon, entertaining in her Wilke Terrace home, which was decorated with gladioli, pansies and other garden flowers.

Mrs. Sam Behringer conducted the business routine when the resignations of Mrs. A. J. McDaniel and Mrs. H. B. Loyd were accepted. Current books were exchanged.

Mrs. Alex Saunders, program chairman, presented Mrs. J. W.

COLUMBIA RIVER DESTROYS OREGON CITY... This aerial view shows what is left of the war-built city of Vaport, Ore., after a dyke of the swollen Columbia river broke and let the flood waters pour destructively through. Homes were ripped from their foundations and smashed against one wall of the town as the flood ripped through the community, leaving 19,000 Vaport residents homeless and many others drowned. Elsewhere, vast areas of Oregon and Washington also were flooded by the rampaging Columbia. An approximate 90,000 persons were made homeless throughout the Pacific Northwest and the damage toll was at least 75 billion dollars.

Guynes, who gave the article, "A Cup of Tea," from the Homes and Garden magazine.

The hostess served ice cream and cake to: Mmes. Gertrude Woods, McDaniel, Chester Cherry, A. H. Dallinger, O. R. O'Neill, Jack Nixon, John Barton, Saunders, Guynes and Homer Daniels.

Mrs. Kre Entertains St. Mary's Altar Society

Arrangements of crepe myrtle decorated the home of Mrs. Ignac Kre on Thirteenth Street when she was hostess to members of the Altar Society of St. Mary's Catholic Church Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Chester Afflerbach presided for the business routine and gave the Bible lesson.

The hostess served a sandwich plate with iced tea and home-made ice cream and cake to: Mmes. W. J. Curtis, Ed Moonen, Charles Moonen, Louis Afflerbach, Walter Mueller, Chester Afflerbach, and Charles and Dian Afflerbach.

Engagement of Miss Rawlings Announced

The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Katherine Rawlings to Randal Meador, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Meador, have been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Rawlings, of Bronte. The wedding date is set for August 31 at Bronte.

Miss Rawlings received her degree from TSCW, Denton, and has been teaching homemaking in the Ballinger High School the past year. Mr. Meador served three years in the Marine Corps and is now a senior electrical student at Texas A. & M. College.

Gift Shower Compliments Miss Wood

Miss Eloise Wood, bride-elect of Ernest Brown, of Winters, was paid a pretty compliment Wednesday morning when Mrs. Rollin Campbell and Mrs. J. M. Pyburn were co-hostesses at a gift shower in the ranch home of Mrs. Campbell north of town.

Arrangements of gladioli and sinias in pastel shades decorated the entire home where the hostesses presented Miss Wood and her mother, Mrs. Wesley Wood.

The dining table, which was laid in lace, was centered with a reflected arrangement of daisies in a crystal punch bowl, and the crystal punch bowl was encircled with daisies and fern where Mrs. V. E. Colburn, of Winters, and Miss Mary Lou Crawford ladled frosted punch, and Miss Virginia Colburn and Miss Evelyn Bigby served assorted cookies.

Miss Joan Wood and Miss Betty Parrish registered guests in the bride's book and gifts were displayed by Mrs. Griffin Brown, of Winters.

One hundred and forty friends of the honoree were included for the affair between 9:30 and 11 o'clock.

From Winters were: Mmes. Bill Konegay, Artie Vinson, Melvin Mapes, A. B. Baggett, John L. Barron, Barney Bryant, Gordon Hensley, Mollie D. Smith, Pat Hatler, Ernest Smith, J. R. Lacy, Ferrell Brown, Dan McNeill, Louis Ford, Frank Brown, O. D. Bradford, B. J. Kirkham, Joe V. Hinds, J. B. Guy, S. Robinson, Ladell Davis, Ira McNeill, J. B. Fred Prusser, Horace Murphy; and Miss Virginia Harrison; from Littlefield were Mmes. J. S. Brown and George Brown; from Eden, Mrs. Leroy Pfleger; and from Wingate, Mrs. John Green and Mrs. Carl Green.

Former Cadet Here and Family Guests in Adair Home

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Robesheaux and baby son, Eddie, of Houston, are here for a visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cal Adair.

Formerly a cadet at Bruce Field, Mr. Robesheaux finished in the class of 43-J. He flew a P-38, and had 11 months service overseas duty in the Pacific. He was to have met a war buddy, Fred Reibe, of Milwaukee, for a visit in the Adair home, but because of illness Mr. Reibe was not able to make the trip.

Mr. Robesheaux and Mr. Reibe were two of the many cadets the Adairs entertained in their home during the training period.

Mrs. Price Honor Guest at Party in Batts Home

Mrs. A. T. Price, who was Miss Vhelma Parrish before her recent marriage in Odessa, and is visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Parrish, was named honor guest when Mrs. Lloyd Johnson and Miss Louise Batts entertained in the home of their mother, Mrs. E. F. Batts, on Ninth Street, Tuesday evening.

Party rooms were decorated with arrangements of daisies and sinias where close friends enjoyed a get-together with the honoree. Hostesses served a refreshment plate of cookies and coca colas.

Included were: Mmes. Lee Parker, West Talbot, Edgar Boelache, C. W. Jennings, George Scruggs, Naomi Keithly, J. H. Endacott, James Parrish, Paul Kirk, Walter Prusser, E. C. Grindstaff, E. E. Charles Bailey, Jr., Entertains Friends at Country Club

Charles Bailey, Jr. was assisted by his parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Bailey, in entertaining a small group of friends last Friday evening at the Country Club.

The group enjoyed square dancing and other dances to the record player. Cold drinks were served throughout the evening.

Those present were: Charlene Olak and Charles Bailey, Sally McGahey and Hie Atinipp; Mary Brian Woody and Bob Agnew; Mary Jane Neill and Jimmy Williams; Martha Ann James and Ebb Grindstaff; Eva Jo Flynn and Junior Curry; Betty Lou Batts and Joe Baker; Sonny Davenport and Sally Bailey.

First Christian Woman's Council Meets Monday

Members of the First Christian Woman's Council met at the church Monday morning for their regular meeting with Mrs. A. W. Gray presiding for the business routine.

After the opening song, "Wonderful Peace," sung in unison, with Mrs. Gene Crawford at the piano, Mrs. Joe Satterwhite gave the opening prayer, and Miss Nan Kevil gave the scripture reading, A. W. Gray, local minister, gave the lesson, which was a continuation of the discussion of the restoration movement of the early church, and the topic discussed was, "Declaration and Address of Thomas Campbell." The closing hymn, "Only Trust Him," was sung and the missionary prayer given.

Mr. Gray announced that the regular meeting would be held at nine o'clock next Monday morning at the church and his topic will be "Alexander Campbell's First Sermon."

Others present were: Mmes. Oscar Pearson, W. F. Atwell, Marvin Clark, D. B. Crockett, O. P. Dorsey, Ed Gentry, Ed Walker, A. B. Stobaugh, Miss Lula McElroy and Miss Lilly Clayton.

The eighteenth annual 4-H club camp is being held in Washington, D. C., June 16 through 23 inclusive. The camp is being conducted under the cooperative supervision of federal and state extension services.

For the first time in many years Ballinger will soon be able to boast an adequate water supply. The new system is about ready to be tested and turned over to the city. After 180 feet of 12-inch pipe is obtained the main line will be completed, and only a small amount of 8-inch pipe will then be required to make extensions. Clean-up work has been done at the filtration plant and water from Elm Creek pumped into the new lines to clean them out. The Valley Creek lake still needs about four more feet of water to be full but this is the most water Ballinger ever had.

The mosquito situation in Ballinger is expected to be remedied within a short time. The city last week bought large quantities of DDT for airplane dusting in the city and environs. The plane will cover streams near town and also will spray at Winters and Talpa. Good results are reported from this fogging process in other West Texas cities and about 10,000 pounds of DDT will be used in this area. Home owners are asked to help by putting kerosene in cisterns, cess pools and septic tanks. With all working together it is believed the mosquito situation can be greatly relieved.

County and precinct candidates will rest easier after Saturday, June 19. This is the last date for announcing for these offices. Soon afterwards the county Democratic executive committee will meet to figure costs of the two primaries, assess each candidate his pro rata part, and transact other business. Ballots and other supplies will be ordered soon for the first primary.

A general clean-up is being finished at the city dump grounds. Conditions have been made much more sanitary and facilities for taking care of trash are much better. Officials in charge of this work believe the grounds will soon pass a rigid inspection.

MISS GOETZ PRESENTED READERS' DIGEST AWARD
 Miss Emmalene Goetz, 1948 graduate of the Ballinger high school, has been given the annual award of the Readers' Digest Association. The award is made to students who by their successful school work give promise of attaining leadership in the community. Miss Goetz will receive the Readers' Digest for one year and an engraved certificate from the editors reading: "In recognition of past accomplishments and in anticipation of unusual achievement to come."

WEST TEXAS NOTES

A record has been set at Abilene for deathless days in traffic accidents. Last Friday was the 366th day without a fatal accident, and statewide publicity was given the event. The Abilene mayor received congratulatory messages from all over the nation when the tabulations were made public last week by the National Safety Council.

The Comanche county veterans' vocational school held open house the past week-end when work began in its new quarters. Buildings recently purchased from the war assets administration have been remodeled to provide shops and other facilities. Citizens of Comanche county were invited to attend the opening and inspect the set-up.

Mrs. R. L. Scott, editor of the DeLeon Free Press for a number of years, died in her sleep last week in a New Mexico hotel. Her husband, owner and publisher of the paper for many years, transferred as a mail carrier to Harlingen several years ago.

New officers were installed by the Bronie Lions Club last week. Edward Cumble, incoming president, told members he would give his best efforts to the position for the current year. Vernon Lammer was given a standing vote of thanks for his accomplishments as first president of the organization. It was announced that the lighted athletic field, sponsored by the club, was about finished. Only two poles are lacking, all other material being on the ground and paid for by the club.

The 1948 Coleman rodeo will begin July 14. A parade committee was named last week to prepare for the opening event and many entries have been planned by Coleman merchants. The Coleman Rodeo Association has one of the biggest and most modern plants in the state. The $50,000 arena and stands were finished last year in time for the 1947 show and many improvements have been made this year.

The Brownwood Junior Chamber of Commerce has won national honors for its sports program the past twelve months. The Brownwood Jaycees sponsored a number of important events, including the national outboard motor races, regional amateur golden gloves boxing tournament, state checker tournament, region 4 high school basketball tournament, and the annual Bluebonnet relays, in which 45 schools were represented.

The Snyder school board has let a contract for adding a section to the school's football stadium and work is to begin at once and be finished by the first of the season in September. Steel seats will be erected on the west side of the field for 1,080 fans and the old seats will be moved to the opposite side to accommodate visitors.

The first all-girl rodeo at San Angelo will be held on June 24 and 25. Most of the regular western features will be included, girl performers doing steer and bronc riding, roping and other exhibitions of skill. Cash prizes totalling $2,500 have been posted for the two-day show.

The Melvin school board last week awarded a contract to the Texas Iron Works, Abilene and Waco, for the erection of a football stadium. Supt. K. O. Ellington said the contract provided that the work be completed by the time of the first home game in September. Steel seats on the north side of the playing field will provide for 630 fans.

Concho county 4-H club girls will hold their annual encampment this year on June 22 and 23 on the Bill Ellis ranch lake in the Henderson community. Club leaders are arranging the two-day program and notifying all members. Large attendance is expected from each club in the county.

Contributions totaling $756 were received at Brady last week to be added to the McCulloch county home trust fund. The home for aged men and women was opened about a month ago. The fund is still short about $7,000, the total cost of the institution being about $15,000.

A large number of boys and girls are participating in the city-wide recreational program at Menard this summer. The schedule calls for morning and afternoon activities for both boys and girls and all school facilities are available for the games. Supervisors direct the program, giving special attention to swimming.

ROWENA HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB

The Rowena home demonstration club met Wednesday afternoon, June 9, with the president, Mrs. Thomas Egan, Jr., presiding and 17 members and one visitor, Miss Regina Fuhs, present.

The members were invited to the Ballinger city park for the 4-H club girls' program Wednesday night.

Mrs. Joe Dierschke and Mrs. Mat Kallina demonstrated the covering of buckles and buttons, and making of belts.

The tile table demonstration is to be held Wednesday, June 23, at the home of Mrs. Ed Walther.

Members voted for Wednesday, June 30, as an all-day meeting, at which each member may work on her particular craft, including leather purses, gloves and bill-folds, aluminum and wooden trays, etc. Anyone interested should bring her material needed and a covered dish, beginning at 9:00 a. m.

Mrs. Herban Feist and Mrs. Thomas Egan, Jr., served refreshments. The members enjoyed singing "Dreaming" and the "Peace Song."

INDEPENDENCE DAY TO BE CELEBRATED HERE JULY 5
 Announcement has been made through the Ballinger Chamber of Commerce that Independence Day will be celebrated here by a holiday on July 5. Since the Fourth falls on Sunday, local business heads favored closing the next day for one of the regular holidays taken here.

By closing on Monday two days rest will be provided for practically all local workers.

No special program has been arranged for the holiday but the annual get-together at the Ballinger Country Club, baseball games and outings on rivers and lakes will make possible a good week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Toney and daughter, of Memphis, Texas, were week-end guests of Ballinger friends. They left Tuesday for East Texas to visit relatives and friends.

Midland Indians And Cats to Clash In Crucial Series

The Ballinger Cats will return home tomorrow (Friday) to meet the mighty Midland Indians in Cat Park. The Midlanders, with their colorful manager, Harold Webb, are always drawing cards in Ballinger and this series is a crucial one as the two clubs are in second and third place.

Both clubs will "shoot the works" in an effort to win and the game will not be over until the last out is made. In the Midland line-up is plenty of hitting power led by Jim Prince, first baseman, who is now leading the Longhorn League with an average of .417. Harvel Jakes, another left-side hitter, is not far behind, and several other Indians slam the old apple in the 300 bracket.

Ballinger players will need the support of all the fans in this series and any lover of baseball will probably get his money's worth and more.

The Cats will play the San Angelo Colts here Sunday and Monday, then jump to Vernon for games on June 22 and 23, returning here for two tilts with the Big Spring Broncs on June 24 and 25. After that the locals will go on the road until July 2, being at home for the Independence Day double holidays, a double-header being scheduled in Ballinger with the Cats and the Vernon Dusters tangling on July 5, the day set for the celebration here.

Poppy Day contributions to the American Legion Auxiliary will be used to support the Auxiliary's work for disabled war veterans and needy children of veterans.

SPORTS

Right Fielder Bob Murphy shot up to third place among hitters in the Longhorn League in tabulations released last Saturday. The three top clouters are Jim Prince, of Midland, with an average of .417; Caloia, of Del Rio, with an even .400; and Murphy, of Ballinger, with .397. Since joining the Cats Murphy has been pounding the horsehide regularly and in fourth place in the batting order has driven in 14 runs. Stu Williams has pulled his average up to .327 and has batted in 32 runs for this season. Prince was leading in this department last Saturday with a total of 52 tallies shoved in, while his Indian teammates, Jakes and Nipp, tied for second position with 47 each.

The twelve-inning contest with the Sweetwater Sports Friday evening provided about everything fans could desire. Two men were parked, the ump's had a rough night, six pitchers were paraded in their teams' efforts to win, and local enthusiasts got the thrill of seeing the winning run cross the plate after a long, tough struggle.

When Manager Bill Atwood was sent from the park Friday night for protesting ball and strike calls, Stu Williams took over and did a swell job in putting a good nine on the field. He also led off the last of the 12th with a safety, put on the sacrifice to advance to second, took advantage of a passed ball to go to third, and scored when Jack Wadsworth rapped a perfect on through the pitcher's box.

Pitcher Salsbury arrived Saturday from Ogden, Utah, to join the locals. Salsbury, who has been pitching successfully in higher company, came here on orders from the Cincinnati Reds management. This will overload the Cats on pitchers, with eight in the dugout, and releases probably will be given some chunkers this week.

'Knot Hole Gang' Of Boys and Girls To Meet Tonight

The trade service committee of the Ballinger Chamber of Commerce and members of the Ballinger Ministerial Alliance held a joint meeting Monday night to launch plans for the organization of a "Knot Hole Gang" for the Ballinger baseball park.

Every boy and girl in Ballinger who was not over 12 years of age on April 23 is eligible for membership this ruling will permit some 13 year olds to join the group. If they became 13 since the first game of the season, which was played here on April 23 this year.

A meeting has been called for tonight at 7:30 at the city hall and every boy and girl in Ballinger who is eligible is invited to attend. At this meeting leaders will explain the plan of operation and arrangements will be made to have the first knot hole gang in reserved seats at the game Friday night when the Midland Indians come to town to meet the Cats.

All those joining the "Knot Hole Gang" will be given pass cards or buttons and will be welcome at every home game. A section of one of the bleachers will be roped off where they will have adequate protection and adult leaders will be present at each game to watch over the youngsters.

Regular age limit for the organization is 12 years and younger. At the meeting tonight a full explanation will be given to the boys and girls and parents are invited to come along with their children. Those in charge hope that at least 100 kiddies will be lined up with membership cards for the next home game.

Later in the summer teams of larger boys will play short games preceding regular league games.

Sweetwater Series Draws Good Crowds

The Ballinger Cats wound up their home stand last week by giving the fans a real show in defeating the Sweetwater Sports two games. On Friday night it required twelve innings and about everything in the baseball dictionary to win by the score of 7 to 6. Going into the twelfth, Stu Williams singled, advanced to second on a sacrifice by Gammage, went to third when Dunlap dropped a pitched ball, and scored on Jack Wadsworth's single through the mound.

Earlier in the fray fans had seen Skipper Bill Atwood chased from the park by Umpire Franks and Right Fielder Bob Murphy sent to the showers by Umpire Sadowski. Williams assumed the managerial duties and shifted the team around for the best defense. Four stanzas later the winning tally crossed the plate and the great throng of fans went home happy.

McCarthy started the game for the locals but after getting into hot water gave way to Bill Gage in the sixth. Mihalec hit for Gage in the eighth, and Ellyson started the ninth and finished.

The largest crowd of the season saw another Cat victory Saturday night. Rain brought the game to an end in the seventh inning with the Ballingerites out in front by the count of 11 to 5, and a hitting rally was in progress when the threatening weather interfered.

Martin, Behrens and Gage did the mound work for the locals while Garner, De la Hunt and Taylor chucked for the visitors.

SOME HORSES ARE GOOD MOTHERS...Laying aside such stale and unprofitable jokes as "This horse certainly was foaled when she had twin colts instead of the usual one," the fact remains that she did have twins--an unusual event among equines. She is "Arkansas Lady," a Tennessee walking horse, and is owned by R. J. Cunningham of the Hereford Manor stock farms near Zellenople, Pa. The twins will be exhibited at the Allegheny county fair in September.

Dorothy Nell Estep, Raleigh Cribb Exchange Vows

Miss Dorothy Nell Estep, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Estep of Paint Rock, became the bride of Raleigh Heartsill Cribb, son of Rev. and Mrs. R. T. Cribb of Imperial, in vows solemnized Tuesday evening in the First Baptist Church of Paint Rock.

An ivy and huckleberry covered archway surrounded by baskets of white gladioli, marconi daisies, snapdragons and ferns made a background for the candlelight wedding vows. A myriad of cathedral tapers in floor candelabra were arranged in the aisle leading to the altar and white satin bows tied with smilax marked the pews. The Rev. Cribb, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Imperial, father of the bridegroom, read the double ring ceremony.

Miss Jo Ann Dunn of Abilene, presented a musical prelude to the wedding, which included "Romance," "At Dawning," "Moonlight Sonata," and "Oh Promise Me," and accompanied Mrs. Jack Nixon, Jr., as she sang "I Love Thee," and "Because." Miss Dunn also played the traditional wedding marches and during the ceremony played an Etude by Liszt.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin designed with a yoke of rose-point lace and the leg-of-mutton sleeves were pointed at the wrist and lace trimmed. The gown was made on princess lines which extended into a graceful train. Her full length veil of silk illusion edged with rose-point lace, matching that of the gown, fell from a Juliet cap of illusion and seed pearls. The gown and veil were worn by Mrs. Sam

PRATHERWEIGHT... Los Angeles press photographers judging Hollywood Park racetrack's annual beauty contest took a gander at red-haired Jeanne Ayres and promptly named her Miss Goose Girl of 1948. Now she'll tend geese at the racetrack. Silly, isn't it?

Malone, Jr., of Ballinger, aunt of the bride, in her wedding ten years ago. Her only ornament was a double strand of pearls and she carried a white Bible topped with white orchids from which delicate showers of white satin ribbons with stephanotis cascaded.

Mrs. Hilton Stephenson, of Paint Rock, was matron of honor, and Miss Ruby Lee Thompson, of Anson, former college roommate of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Billie Mae Rogge, of Abilene, cousin of the bride, and Miss Martha Cribb, of Imperial, sister of the bridegroom. Their frocks of pastel organza were made on identical lines, with fitted hip-length bodices and puff sleeves, sweetheart neckline, and very full skirts. Their large organza heart-shaped ruffled hats were trimmed with clusters of miniature pink roses and black velvet streamers. Mrs. Stephenson wore orchid, Miss Thompson pink, Miss Rogge blue and Miss Cribb green. They carried colonial bouquets of African daisies tied with contrasting satin ribbon, and wore single strands of pearls which were gifts of the bride.

Lambuth Cribb, of Abilene, attended his brother as best man. Groomsman were James Walker, of Clovis, New Mexico, and Bill Hawkins, of Anson. Ushers were Hilton Stephenson and Ben Sims, both of Paint Rock.

For the reception, which followed immediately in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Currie, grandparents of the bride, they were assisted in receiving by members of the wedding party and parents of the bridal couple. Baskets of white gladioli and daisies decorated the reception suite.

The bride's table, which was laid in imported linen festooned with chartreuse net, white satin ribbon and clusters of snapdragons and stephanotis, was centered with a crystal bowl of white snapdragons and marconi daisies which was flanked by crystal candelabra holding tall chartreuse tapers with stephanotis trim. The double-ring wedding cake encircled with puffs of maline and white flowers was served by Miss Pearl Currie, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Evangeline Kibby, of Fort Stockton, sister of the groom, ladled punch. Miss Geraldine Currie, of Coleman, cousin of the bride, presided at the bride's book.

Mrs. Cribb is a graduate of the Paint Rock High School and received her degree from Hardin-Simmons University in 1947, with a double major in speech and education. She was a member of the Gratorical and Debating Council, Alpha Chi National Honorary Society, Alpha Psi Omega, and in 1946-47 was president of the University Players Club, the Cowgirls, and Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. For the past year she has been employed by Radio Station KRBC at Abilene.

Mr. Cribb is a graduate of the Clovis, New Mexico, High School and attended McMurry College before serving two and a half years in the Air Corps as a radio operator in the Pacific. He has been employed by Station KICA at Clovis, and the past year and a half has been with the radio station at Abilene.

For the wedding trip the bride wore an oatmeal beige sheer dress fashioned by Peggy Hunt, a beige off-the-face straw hat, and other accessories were green and beige. She wore an orchid corsage. The couple will be at home at Clovis, where the groom is employed by the radio station.

Out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Rogge, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Rogge and Miss Ruby Richards, all of Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Currie, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Currie, Jr., of Coleman; Mr. and Mrs. Carroll King, of Kerrville; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Scott, of San Angelo; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Ream, of Monahans; Mrs. J. W. Drape, of Lubbock; and from Ballinger were Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Malone, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Malone, Jr., Mrs. Sim Cottle, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Scales and Miss Griffie Atkins.

Dykes are used in the Netherlands because much of the area is below sea level.

RECOMPENSE... Tony Herbert of Cleveland, Ohio, who lost his hands under a railroad engine, was awarded $80,000 in probate court from the New York Central railroad and General Motors. Seventy-thousand dollars will be held in a trust fund, to be spent only as court approves.

ODD FELLOW LODGE HOLDS MEMORIAL SERVICE HERE

The Ballinger Odd Fellows lodge conducted memorial services at city park Sunday from 4 to 6 p. m. Visitors from lodges at Tuscola, Winters, Miles and Paint Rock were here for the rites and the basket dinner which followed.

The memorial services were requested by the state organization in its plan to recognize a number of members and state officials who passed away during the past year, including B. A. Carter, of San Angelo.

Rebekas participated in the program and a group of members of the local chapter appeared in special numbers. Judge E. C. Grindstaff delivered the memorial address.

Following the program the basket dinner was spread and a social hour enjoyed.

WHAT IS A PHARMACIST?

The function of the pharmacist is distinct and set apart from that of the physician. As pharmacists, we are trained and skilled in the art of compounding and dispensing medicine. We are not qualified to diagnose your illness nor to prescribe the proper medication. Waste and suffering commonly result from experimenting with various forms of self-medication.

Go to your physician first. After a careful examination he will tell you whether or not medicine will help. If he gives you a prescription, bring it to us for expert compounding. You will find our facilities and service adequate to every need.

Council Announces One Day Club Rally Here on August 11

The Runnels county home demonstration club council held its regular meeting Saturday at the club house in Winters.

Mrs. Harold Routh, council chairman, presided at the meeting. All council officers were present, and the meeting was also attended by sixteen council members and seven visitors. Clubs represented were Bethel, Norton, Oifen, East Ballinger, Rowena, South Ballinger, Winters, Victory and Wilmeth.

Minutes of the May meeting were read by Mrs. Neuman Smith, council secretary, and approved. All clubs in the county reported that leaders who attended the training school in May had given demonstrations to their clubs. At the training school, Miss Ollie Chenoweth, county home demonstration agent, taught women how to make belts, and to cover buckles and buttons.

Mrs. Neuman Smith, county chairman for the Texas Home Demonstration Association, read a letter from a boy in Burma telling of conditions in that country. The council recommended that each club in the county bring donations of school supplies, used clothing, farm magazines and vitamin pills to the July council meeting. These will be shipped to schools in Burma.

Mrs. Smith, also chairman of the arrangements committee, presented plans for a one-day rally for all home demonstration clubs at the Ballinger city park on August 11. Each club member in the county is being asked to bring a picnic lunch. This rally is an annual affair and was cut to a one day meeting, replacing the regular encampment. Each club will be responsible for an entertainment number not to exceed ten minutes.

All clubs were asked to bring suggestions for the 1949 book to the July council meeting.

State Board Asks Infantile Paralysis Clean-Up Campaign

The state health department has asked all cities in Texas for a polio clean-up campaign to be launched at once. The increasing number of cases of infantile paralysis which have developed in Texas within the last few weeks is responsible for the emergency measure and all Texans are advised to start at once to make sure their places are safe.

Posters and notices sent out this week by the state health department contain the following instructions:

"For the health and safety of our citizens please clean up your premises. Eliminate fly, rat, mosquito and fire hazards by:

"1. Removing all containers, tin cans, bottles, tires and other trash from your premises. Remove all decayed vegetable matter and trees.

"2. Depositing all garbage and cans in a regulation covered galvanized garbage container and keeping it covered. Use 5 per cent to 10 per cent DDT solution to spray garbage cans and immediate area. Place trash so it can be picked up by city trucks.

"3. Keep all chicken and rabbit pens cleaned daily. Use DDT spray for insect control around pens.

"4. Keep all outside toilets clean and make them fly tight. Cover all waste with dirt after each use of toilet. Get sewer connection if line is available.

"5. Clean up all vacant lots. Cut weeds and brush. If burning constitutes a hazard call fire department for supervision."

The state posters say that tenants as well as property owners shall be responsible for their premises.

WINTERS MAN NOW SERVING AT NAGOYA HEADQUARTERS

Lt. Elma L. Eubanks, husband of Mrs. E. L. Eubanks, of route 1, Winters, recently arrived at 5th air force headquarters, Nagoya, Japan.

Joining the Far East air forces on May 18, 1948, Lt. Eubanks was commissioned in February, 1943, at Ellington Field, Texas. He holds the aeronautical rating of pilot.

Mrs. Eubanks, accompanied by the couple's son, Elma, and daughter, Pamela, expects to join Lt. Eubanks next September.

Lt. Eubanks is a former student of the Bronte high school and of Texas Christian University, Fort Worth.

Mrs. Laura Ferguson, of Kermit; Mrs. Bill Curry, of San Angelo; and Calvin Dunn, of Artesia, New Mexico, visited Mrs. J. W. Black and other relatives here the past week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Taylor, of Waco, visited friends here this week.

Large Congregation Greets New Pastor At His First Service

Rev. E. L. Craig, new Methodist minister, preached his first sermons here Sunday and was greeted with full attendance at the morning service. Rev. Craig had been serving a church at Cleburne until the meeting of the annual Methodist conference last week.

In his opening remarks Sunday morning the new pastor complimented the Ballinger church on its plant and parsonage. He asked for full support in rendering service to the members and added that before the end of the year he hoped to visit in each home of the church membership.

The pastor presented his wife and two daughters for church membership.

The pastor and his family will be guests of honor tonight when Methodist Men combine with the Women's Society of Christian Service for the regular June program. Dinner is to be served at the church at 7:30 and followed by a program.

Other regular meetings will be held at the church during the week.

Guests in the Malcolm Morgan home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Lawless and Dora Jean, and Pat Tisdale, of Abilene, and Tony Schultz, of San Angelo.

What's the Hottest News in Cars since the Self-Starter?

FOR the answer to that, just ask any man who drives a Dynaflo Buick.

He'll tell you, you haven't seen anything yet — until you slip behind a Dynaflo wheel and see for yourself what this new drive does.

It isn't merely that it's easy — though all you do in normal driving is set a lever, press the gas treadle, and steer.

It isn't merely the "stunts" you can pull, such as coming to a dead stop on a steep hill, then moving smoothly away, just by the way you manage the gas treadle.

The important thing is that Dynaflo Drive marks a basic change in the way power is delivered from the engine to the rear wheels.

The idea of passing through a series of gears in fixed stages, either manually or by mechanical means, is gone entirely.

Instead, spinning oil is so cunningly directed and controlled in the Dynaflo unit that it instantly shapes engine power to fit any normal driving need.

When you start, it steps up engine "torque" like a low gear to give you swift, surging getaway.

When you accelerate or climb, it fits the pull of the engine to that particular job.

When you cruise on the level open road, it delivers power with a flowing smoothness that is far silkier than the normal high.

You have manual control of direction simply by moving a lever. You have reserve braking power instantly at your command — and extra power for emergency pulls.

But there is never any clutch-work — there is no clutch-pedal. And never any gearshifting in the old sense—your power plant does what the forward gears used to do.

Right now, of course, Dynaflo Drive is available only on Buick ROADMASTER models.

Go find out about it, at the nearest Buick dealer — and be ready to put your order in, whether or not you have a car to trade.

*Optional at extra cost on Roadmaster models only.

A fugue is a musical composition in which one or more short themes are reintroduced from time to time.

CARE TO DO AS THIS ROMAN DOES?...Armed with nothing more formidable than a friendly smile, Capt. Roman Proske, proprietor of a Miami, Fla., tiger farm peers happily into the gaping and well-armed jaw of a Bengal tiger as he puts the animal through its paces. The handshake seems to be friendly enough, although the tiger shows a trace of ungraciousness in offering his left paw instead of the right one.

LETTERS OF MARQUE

Letters of marque were licenses to fit out armed vessels and employ them in capturing enemy merchant shipping.

If handkerchiefs are washed in the machine along with the other clothes, it is a good idea to tie them in a loose cheesecloth bag, and let them go through both wringer and washer in the bag. This saves wear and tear in washing and keeps them out of the wringer.

NO DEAL... After Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York (left) and Gov. Earl Warren of California (right) had finished a conference in Sacramento, Calif., it was apparent that they had made no agreement on a coalition of forces. Warren told a GOP candidate for president and is not interested in the vice-presidency.
