Ten Hostesses at Tea Honoring Miss Strickland

Hostesses, in the Broadway home of Mrs. Coy Estes, were Mmes. Estes, C. A. Bissett, P. P. Fitzhugh, Melvin Beddo, Foy Farmer, Audra Grant, Elliott Kemp; Misses Grace Jo Bondurant, Jewel O'Neal and Doris Queen.

An autumn color scheme was featured in decorations throughout the reception suite with a profusion of fall blossoms and leaves.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. Estes, who presented Miss Strickland and Mrs. R. T. Trail. Others in the line were the bride-elect's sisters, Mrs. Bennie Ingram, of Beaumont; and Mrs. Joe B. January, of Winnie, Texas; Mrs. W. J. Hembree, of Quannah; Miss Mallie Lee, of Levelland; and Mrs. A. E. Kelly, of Quannah, sister and aunt, respectively, of the prospective bridegroom.

Mrs. Beddo, Mrs. C. R. Owen, and Mrs. Lee Parker, of Talpa, registered guests in the bride's book.

The dining table, laid in white linen, was centered with a reflected arrangement of large bronze chrysanthemums combined with smaller gold mums and autumn leaves. Large silver wedding bands centered the floral centerpiece. Cake squares iced in white were served with hot spiced tea. Plate favors were miniature ring boxes with a wedding band enclosed with the announcement, "Winifred and Ed"—September 27.

Others included in the house party were Mmes. H. J. Zappe, R. W. Talbot, H. W. Ketchum, J. D. Reneau and Charles V. Webb.

Two hundred and twenty guests called between 3:00 and 6:00 o'clock.

He left San Angelo by plane and will make part of the trip by small boat. He has some 10,000 acres leased in Honduras and will join his business associate there, where the two will make plans for another year's activities. Mr. Barnes will return home in about two months.

The Coleman Kiwanis Club took the lead in staging the first "Kid Day" Saturday. Special entertainment arranged for the children of the trade territory started at 9:00 a. m. with a free movie and other features were offered throughout the day. The small guests were formally welcomed by the mayor at the first program of the day. Kiwanians stated they were launching an annual program which they expected to make bigger and better each year.

A group of Hamlin business men and civic leaders visited in Haskell and Cisco the past week-end to inspect low rent housing projects. The purpose was to determine if a project would be sought at Hamlin. A representative of a Dallas firm was in Hamlin recently to meet with city officials and other in regard to promoting the project. The plan would require citizens' approval before work could be started.

The Menard Chamber of Commerce has been advised by Louis P. Merrill, regional director of the soil conservation service, that a dam to provide water for irrigation, a municipal supply and to take care of flood control, is possible on the San Saba River near town. The proposition will be given immediate study after additional information is received. Work would have to be approved and directed by the flood prevention division of the U. S. department of agriculture.

Competition is the life of the

OIL BUSINESS

The demand for oil increases every year.

Americans need more oil for more automobiles, for more air lanes, more ships, more high speed locomotives and more of many things besides.

And just as one merchant competes with another for your business, oil companies compete for it, too—for the gallons of gasoline and quarts of motor oil you buy; to supply the ships, the locomotives, the industries, the airplanes.

The competition is intense, and it spreads throughout the industry. Oil companies compete with each other to find and produce more oil. Pipe line companies vie with each other to develop low cost transportation. Refineries compete to supply more and better oil products. Salesmen compete on the basis of quality products and the service rendered.

It's a good thing, this competition, a healthy thing. It is the life of the oil business; it keeps the industry vigorous, progressive, enterprising.

But its chief benefit is to you and other Americans. Competition within the oil industry discovers and develops a natural resource necessary not only to modern living but to national defense. It supplies you and the country with continuously improved petroleum products; today, two gallons of gasoline do work that required three in 1925, but the gasoline costs no more than it did then.

Jeanie Loika Honoree at Dinner Party

To compliment Jeanie Loika on her fourth birthday anniversary, a dinner party was given Saturday evening by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Loika, in their rural home.

Following the chicken menu with all trimmings the pretty birthday cake iced in white and decorated with pink rosebuds and topped with four pink candles was served.

Duke; uncles and aunts, Mr. and Mrs. John Duke, Mr. and Mrs. Newt Ramsey, all of Ballinger; and Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Butts, and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Loika and son, Jimmy, all of San Angelo; Mrs. Jess Jones and Mrs. Nanelle Moore, both of Paint Rock; Mr. and Mrs. Allen Davis and daughters, Patricia, Rebecca and Kathleen, of Ballinger.

Gift Tea In-Honor Aft for Miss Batchelor

Miss Catherine Batchelor, bride-elect of S-Sgt. Richard A. Chase, of Randolph AFB, was paid a pretty compliment last Thursday evening between six and eight o'clock when Mrs. R. L. Bell, Mrs. Herman Brown, and Mrs. Bill Bell were hostesses at a gift tea in the R. L. Bell home on Tenth Street.

The wedding will take place October 4, in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Batchelor, 1108 Fifth Street. The autumn theme was given attractive emphasis in all details with gold and white chrysanthemums being used to decorate party rooms where Mrs. Bill Bell extended welcome and presented the honoree and her mother, Mrs. H. T. Batchelor, and her grandmother, Mrs. J. O. Batchelor.

The dining table, which was laid in a handmade cut-work linen cloth, was centered with a reflected arrangement of gold and white chrysanthemums. Tall yellow candles burned in three-branched crystal candelabra on the table and buffet. Mrs. Herman Brown presided at the punch service and Miss Lou Manning served cake squares iced in white and decorated with gold florals. Mrs. Paul Richardson assisted in the dining room. All table appointments were in crystal.

Miss Sue Manning registered guests in the bride's book and Mrs. Loretta Brown, Mrs. R. L. Bell spoke good-byes to 55 friends of the honoree.

United Church Women Hold Program

Approximately 45 church women met Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the First Presbyterian Church, U. S., for their regular program.

Mrs. John Gulon was at the organ for the prelude and the accompaniment for the hymn, "Oh Word of God Incarnate," and also played the offertory while Mrs. Alex McGregor and Mrs. Troy Simpson assisted with the collection, which will be used for transportation charges on the clothing collected for overseas.

duffle bags had been filled and 4 large boxes of clothing which amounted to 643 pounds, will be shipped overseas for distribution. Mrs. Lynn stated that the council would receive clothing any time during the year, and a box would be kept at her home on Eleventh Street for the gifts of clothing. A nominating committee, composed of Mrs. Q. V. Miller, Mrs. Felix Itz and Mrs. A. B. Stobaugh, was named and will report at the next meeting.

Longhorn League Moguls Consider Franchise Move

Longhorn Baseball League directors, meeting at Odessa Sunday, attended to routine business and held a discussion on what might happen to the Sweetwater club next year.

Hobbs, New Mexico; Del Rio and Ballinger-Winters were mentioned as likely locations for the Gonzales franchise.

Newspapers in towns where clubs are operating do not favor another New Mexico team in the loop and think Del Rio is too far distant. It was said that of those considered, Ballinger-Winters had the inside track and with a park ready for play, the location might come here.

No Ballinger people have been approached on the subject but Cat Park has been kept in fair condition and with a small amount of ground work could be made ready for organized baseball.

The only other business at the meeting Sunday was to reduce the number of classmen from six to five and to raise the salary limit from $3,000 to $3,400.

THE LAMP IN THE WINDOW

Symbolic of the earlier days of American pharmacy was the lighted lamp in the drug-store window. All through the night it glowed, a beacon of hope, a symbol of unselfish service. It identified the drug store as a haven of refuge, promised relief and comfort to the sick and afflicted. Pharmacy has in its heritage many glorious traditions, of which the lamp in the window is but one. Although the historic lamp is now practically extinct, the fundamentals of pharmaceutical practice have changed very little. The responsibilities of the pharmacist are greater today than ever before. We are ready and eager to shoulder these responsibilities in your behalf. When a prescription must be filled, let us serve you.

Warners' 'Story of Will Rogers' Big Attraction at Texas Starting Sunday

One of the most popular Americans of this century, perhaps, is that immortal homespun philosopher, cowboy, Ziegfeld star, humorist, politician and world traveler, Will Rogers. And it is the story of this amazingly versatile man that Warner Bros. is bringing to the screen of the Texas Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, October 5, 6, 7, in "The Story of Will Rogers."

Starring the man's own son, Will, Jr., who plays his dad in the title role, with Jane Wyman as Mrs. Will Rogers, the Technicolor film takes the beloved actor from his early rip-roaring and colorful days as a cow-puncher on the Oklahoma range through a career that found him riding broncs, twirling a rope in the Ziegfeld Follies, and addressing national political conventions. Such was the career of Will Rogers.

It was while appearing in the Follies with Eddie Cantor that Will Rogers became known as a man who could tell the American people what was ailing them but in the humorous kind of way that they loved. When President Wilson himself asked

Will to become the voice of the people and write for newspapers, Will shied away and went to Hollywood, where he became a movie star. Later he did write for the papers, and his everyday column bits became household phrases all over America.

Eddie Cantor plays himself in the film, while Jimmy Gleason supports Will, Jr., and Miss Wyman in the key roles. "The Story of Will Rogers" is the life of a great American who left his mark on the life and times of America in the glorious period in which he lived.

"The Jungle," and "I Want You" are the two feature films on the twin-bill at the Texas tomorrow and Saturday.

Rod Cameron, Cesar Romero and Marie Windsor are the top plays in "The Jungle," produced in India. Indian scenes, customs, ceremonies, animals and people are strictly coincidental to the presentation of the vivid story.

Peggy Dow, Farley Granger and Dana Andrews have the leading roles in "I Want You," which shows the impact of the defense effort on the lives and Will Rogers, Jr. in a scene from "The Story of Will Rogers." The Technicolor drama also stars Jane Wyman.

Raft Dishes It Out In Story of Rackets

To be shown at the Texas Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday, October 8, 9, is the Lippert expose of the rackets, "Loan Shark," starring George Raft.

Released from prison after a three-year stretch for assault, Raft moves in with his sister, Helen Westcott, and her husband, William Phipps, who is employed by a tire company.

Three Dorothy Hart, secretary to the plant manager. Raft is offered a job to get the low-down on loan sharks who are preying on the firm's employees, charging usurious interest and terrorizing borrowers who miss payments. What follows makes for a typical Raft thriller.

Foremost Offering of Week at Hillcrest Drive-In United Artists' Technicolored 'Island of Desire'

If there is a more exotic theme than that of a castaway on a desert island, or a more titillating one than the romantic triangle, it has not yet been invented. Put the two together, and there are the ingredients for dramatic dynamite.

That is what has been done in "Island of Desire," newest United Artists release, which is the top attraction of the week at the Hillcrest Drive-In Theatre. The engagement commences today and extends through Saturday.

In Technicolor, "Island of Desire" was shot in its entirety on the beautiful and wild north coast of Jamaica, with gorgeous Linda Darnell, Donald Gray, handsome British star, and Tab Hunter, blond, 21-year-old film discovery and baby-sox idol, the chief protagonists.

For the real lowdown on the higher-ups of the underworld is recommended Republic's dramatic "Hoodlum Empire," to be shown at the Hillcrest Sunday and Monday, October 5, 6. Starred are Brian Donlevy, Claire Trevor, Forrest Tucker, Vera Ralston, Luther Adler and John Russell. Supporting players include Gene Lockhart, Grant Withers, Taylor Holmes, Roy Barcroft, Richard Jaeckel, William Murphy and Richard Benedict.

At the Hillcrest Tuesday and Wednesday, October 7, 8, is Frank Capra's "Meet John Doe," starring Gary Cooper and Barbara Stanwyck, and featuring Edward Arnold and Walter Brennan.

FRIENDLY NEIGHBORS HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB

Mrs. J. J. Wessels was hostess to eleven members of Friendly

Neighbors home demonstration club Friday afternoon, entertaining in her rural home.

Mrs. W. J. Curtis conducted the business routine, at which time Mrs. Andy Riddle and Mrs. Harold Mueller were elected to serve on the food demonstration committee; and Mrs. Curtis and Mrs. Archie Tyree were named as the home improvement demonstration committee.

Members answered roll call with "Descriptive Facts on My Mother." Mrs. Muriel Taft directed the group in singing the club song, and Mrs. J. A. McClelland gave the club collection. Mrs. Archie Tyree gave the council report.

A cake making demonstration was given by Miss Ollie Chenoweth, county home demonstration agent.

The hostess served refreshments.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Curtis on October 9.
