Happy New Year To All

As the New Year dawns all of us look back over the path we have trod and wonder what is ahead. Youth is expectant and eager for time to pass. Those who are older count the years that have gone to profit by what experience has taught.

The occasion gives us another opportunity to express our deep appreciation to depositors and friends for their good-will and loyalty. It will be our aim to be even more helpful to them in years ahead. May 1957 be a happy year for you. To all of you, allow us the privilege of trying to make the New Year happier than the last and all the years to come as prosperous as any bank can.

Kuan's parents are Mr. irs. Chi-Yuan Kuan, now of Yokohoma, Japan, where he is with the Chinese Consulate General. Formerly he was with the ministry of Foreign Affairs at Formosa but was transferred to Yokohama.

Miss Kuan is 20 years of age. She was born at Nanking. The Kuan family survived Japanese bombings but fled at last before the Communists to Chunking where Judy received her elementary school training. Later the family moved back to Nanking and remained two years before moving to Formosa where Mr. Kuan worked in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

While in Formose, Judy rewhile attending high school that she met Rev. Fr. John T. S. Mao who was in charge of the Catholic Mission. Judy received Catholic instructions under the supervision of Father Mao for a year before becoming a Catholic and it was through Father Mao's influence and fast friendship that she received her four year scholarship at Incarnate Word College in San Antonio. She is majoring in chemistry, and will remain at the college until she earns her degree.

WASHINGTON, D. C .- E. B. Germany (right) of Dallas was so pleased by the new flag of the Treasury's Savings Bonds Division when it was unfurled at the 15th anniversary bond conference here that he pledged enough to provide one or two for each state. Admiring the division's first flag are Jesse L. Adams, Jr. (left) of Dallas, Texas state director, and John R. Buckley, national director.
