'Please Don't Run Over My Little Girl"

Dear Driver:

Today my daughter, who is seven years old, started to school as usual. She wore a white dress with blue polka dots. She had on black shoes and colorful anklets. Her Cocker Spaniel whose name is "Skoot" sat on the front porch and whined his canine belief in the folly of education as she waved "Goodbye" and started off to the halls of learning.

Last night we talked about school . . . you know, all those tremendously vital unimportant things, then she studied a little and went off to bed. She's upstairs now . . . sound asleep with Princess Elizabeth (her doll) cuddled in her right arm. You guys wouldn't hurt her, would you? You see, I'm her daddy. When her doll gets broken or her finger gets cut, I can fix it . . . but when she starts to school, crosses the street, then she's in your hands.

She's a sweet little girl, and I'm proud of her. She can run like a deer and dart about like a chipmunk. She likes to ride horses and swim and hike with me on Sunday afternoons. But I can't be with her all the time ... I have to work to pay for her clothes and education. So please help us look after her. Please drive slowly past the school intersection . . . and please, do remember that children do run from behind parked cars.

Your Neighbor.
