Four Accidents Reported in County During January

Deadline Nearing For Having Annual Vehicle Inspection

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated four accidents on rural highways in Foard County during the month of January, according to Sgt. Floyd Etheridge, Highway Patrol Supervisor.

These crashes resulted in an estimated property damage of $875.00.

April 15 is the deadline to have your motor vehicle inspected. During the past five and one-half months, only 2,000,000 or 40 per cent of the approximately 5,000,000 registered vehicles in Texas have been inspected. This leaves 3,000,000 vehicles to be inspected in approximately two months. If the number of uninspected vehicles were divided evenly among the 5,200 official inspection stations in Texas, each would have approximately 577 vehicles to inspect in about 40 working days, or about 15 vehicles per day. The inspection stations in heavily populated areas will have more than this average number to inspect. In areas where there are only a few inspection stations you may have many miles to travel to get your vehicle inspected.

The sergeant urges motorists to have their vehicles inspected without delay to avoid the inconvenience of waiting lines.

Remember—no extension of the safety inspection deadline, April 15, 1966.

AREA COTTON MEETING TO BE HELD HERE

A planned method by which Jones County, Texas, cotton farmers increased their cotton yields last year will be explained to area cotton farmers at a meeting to be held in Crowell on Tuesday night, March 1.

Roland R. Kelly, oil mill operator in Stamford, and one of the organizers of the plan, will be in Crowell to explain the method used last year in his home county.

A feature story telling about the plan used so successfully in Jones County appeared in the January, 1966, issue of The Progressive Farmer magazine. Briefly, the story of Jones farmers' success in increasing their cotton yields stems from the fact that over 99.9 per cent of the cotton was planted between May 24 and June 15, with most planted between June 1 and June 15. The theory behind this county-wide late planting was that the boll weevils were out of hibernation a full month before squares were one-third grown. Thus, with limited food supply, their activity and reproduction were slowed down. Also, there was virtually no replanting. Usually, farmers had to plant two to three times every year when seed were planted during the wet May period. Last year, only 3 to 5 per cent of the acreage had to be replanted, saving at least $125,000 for the county's 1,500 cotton growers.

The program to be given in Crowell has also been presented by Mr. Kelly at the National Cotton Council meeting in Dallas and at the Texas Cotton Ginners Association convention.

The Crowell meeting, sponsored by the Rotary Club, will begin at 7 p. m. A pancake supper will be served in the school cafeteria from 5 to 7 p. m., with the program to be held in the high school auditorium.

All cotton producers in the five-county area of Cottle, Hardeman, Wilbarger, Knox and Foard Counties are cordially invited to attend, and learn how one county's cotton farmers got together and collectively increased their cotton yields during a year that saw virtually no rainfall from the time the cotton was planted until it matured.

One of the co-editors of the FTA news is Patsy Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burt Hall. Patsy, an all-around "A" student, enjoys fried chicken, the color blue, English, reading historical books, and listening to the radio. Any girl who enjoys Paul Newman, Ann-Margaret, and hamburger steaks must have real zest for life. Do you realize it was only about 25 years ago that we considered it a job well done when electric cooperatives provided thousands of farms and rural communities with electricity for light alone?

Then, rural America started demanding the comforts and conveniences of city living. City residents began building homes in the suburban areas. Merchants clapped their hands with glee because they could visualize a new market opening up. Then, the population exploded and we started feeding the world. To meet this demand, man power had to be converted to electric power.

In order to meet this challenge, distribution systems must be modernized. Our job has only started. It's quite obvious realistic REA financing is essential in order that all Americans continue to reap the benefits of rural electrification.

F. H. A. Sponsors Valentine Dance

Approximately one hundred

teenagers attended the sock hop sponsored by the FHA girls in the high school gym last Friday night. Kelly and the Invaders furnished the music. The gym was decorated in the Valentine style with large red and white hearts.

Dan Mike Bird, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Bird, has signed a pre-enrollment slip on a football scholarship to Rice University. Dan Mike will wait until his track eligibility has expired before signing the letter of intent. From all at CHS goes a big congrats to Dan Mike.

Wildcats Beat Moguls

Last Tuesday night, the Crowell Wildcats ended their basketball season with a mighty win over the Munday Moguls. The CHS gym was packed with excited spectators as the Wildcats slipped past Munday 49-41. The ball game was momentous in another aspect as that will be the last scheduled game to be played in the old gym. By the start of next year's basketball season, Crowell will be displaying her new high school gym.

Seniors of the Week

One of the co-editors of the FTA news is Patsy Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burl Hall. Patsy, an all-around "A" student, enjoys fried chicken, the color blue, English, reading historical books, and listening to the radio. She describes her "pet peeve" as people who have no consideration for the desires and wishes of others. Patsy's favorite movie stars are Barbara Stanwyck and Paul Newman. ACC in Abilene is Patsy's choice of colleges where she plans to major in education.

Any girl who enjoys Paul Newman, Ann-Margaret, and hamburger steaks must have real zest for life. Ella Hollenbaugh, a 5' 4" tall, green eyed girl with light brown hair, lists pink as her favorite color, and she enjoys sewing in her spare time. This 18-year-old girl plans to attend beauty school after graduation from high school. At the present time she dislikes most "two-faced people." Ella feels that her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Hollenbaugh, have been most helpful in her life.

Do you realize it was only about 25 years ago that we considered it a job well done when electric co-operatives provided thousands of farms and rural communities with electricity for light alone?
 Then, rural America started demanding the comforts and conveniences of city living. City residents began building homes in the suburban areas. Merchants clapped their hands with glee because they could visualize a new market opening up. Then, the population exploded and we started feeding the world. To meet this demand, man power had to be converted to electric power.
 In order to meet this challenge, distribution systems must be modernized. Our job has only started. It's quite obvious realistic REA financing is essential in order that all Americans continue to reap the benefits of rural electrification.

Area Economic Opportunity Act Meeting Held

A number of revisions in the by-laws of the Economic Opportunities Advancement Corporation of Wilbarger, Foard, Cottle and Hardeman Counties—the Federal Community Action Program for the four-county area—must be made before a federal anti-poverty grant can be approved, regional authorities said last week in Vernon.

Bruce Babbitt of Austin, senior field representative for the Federal Office of Economic Opportunity, told some 20 board members and other representatives from the four participating counties at a special meeting Wednesday afternoon at Wilbarger Auditorium that a grant to help the economically and socially deprived people of the area should be forthcoming shortly.

Mr. Babbitt, who rated the local organization as "one of the finest" rural groups that he has seen in his efforts to help communities organized federal anti-poverty organizations, said that it should probably take executive director Don Malone not more than a week to make by-laws changes and that a grant should then be approved within a month to six weeks.

Mr. Babbitt praised the cooperative efforts on behalf of the representatives of the four counties as highly unusual, indicating an earnestness that hasn't always been evident in other locations.

Mr. Babbitt, in Vernon for the meeting with Dimas Chavez of Austin, analysis and field representative for Texas and New Mexico, said that organization of the anti-poverty program has been slow because of the desire of administrators to see that everything is done properly.

He cited as the best indication of success the fact that it had survived its initial period without being taken over or dominated in most localities by undesirable elements.

Under the program, the individual corporations must develop plans to alleviate social and economic deprived conditions among the people served.

Federal funds are granted on the basis of the merit of the proposals.

Foard County's five directors of the corporation include Supt. Henry Black, Mayor Robert Kincaid, County Judge Leslie Thomas, Jimmy Quintero and Ernest Tuck-

'Bobs' Famed Bounce Gets Big '66 Test

A smothering blanket of ice and snow accompanied by sub-zero weather cut bobwhite quail numbers as much as 80 per cent in portions of the Texas Panhandle and lower plains, according to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Losing 80 per cent of an abundant bobwhite quail population sounds deplorable, but according to wildlife biologists, it is not catastrophic, or even extremely abnormal. Department research has shown that 80-85 per cent of each bobwhite quail crop normally disappears in 12 months from one cause or another, leaving only 20 per cent of the adult population to reproduce as only quail can.

Biologists point out that winter mortality, whether occurring in four months or in two weeks, is an annual turnover characteristic and is Mother Nature's way of keeping quail out of areas where they don't belong—in areas without adequate winter habitat.

Mr. Black is chairman of the organization.

Stocking Data Aids Bass Fans

Persons interested in obtaining black bass for stocking private waters are reminded by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department that April 1 is the deadline for receiving applications for these fish with delivery to authorized places in the spring.

The deadline for catfish and other fish is August 1, with delivery in the fall.

Applications received after those dates are filed for consideration the next year.

The Department advised prospective recipients:

"Bass will not be delivered to ponds previously stocked unless the waters have dried up or have been chemically renovated and the out-of-balance fish population removed. Channel catfish may be requested, if needed, every three years because this species does not normally reproduce in small lakes. Recommendations for stocking by Texas Parks and Wildlife Department biologists will be honored."

Here is additional advisory data:

"A properly stocked farm tank, fish pond or small lake will provide fishing over a number of years. There is no need to restock with fish every year. Such a practice is not only wasteful of hatchery reared fish but results in an overcrowded condition and stunted, small fish. Overstocked waters produce poor quality fish just as overstocked land produces poor quality cattle.

"Small lakes and ponds should be stocked with a balanced ratio of forage fish and predators. The predators reared in state hatcheries are largemouth bass and channel catfish. The best forage fish produced in Texas hatcheries is the redear sunfish. This species also provides a good panfish in many parts of the state.

"In newly built or newly renovated waters, largemouth black bass, stocked at the rate of 200 fry or 100 fingerlings per surface acre, do extremely well and should produce a fishable population within a year.

"Crappie, or white perch, will not be stocked in ponds of less than ten (10) surface acres in size. This policy is part of an attempt to provide the best fishing possible to small pond and lake owners. Due to the inherent reproductive capacity of crappie, this species will quickly over-populate and become stunted in small bodies of water. Such a condition normally results in poor fishing for all species of fish."

Two Minutes With the Bible

Dead Works

Twice in Paul's epistles he refers to "dead works." In Heb. 9:14 he writes about "repentance from dead works," while in Heb. 9:14 he declares that the blood of Christ avails to "purge the conscience from dead works to serve the living God."

Mark well, these references are not to wicked works but to dead works. These "dead works" are the so-called "good works" (whether moral or ceremonial) which men did—and still do—to make themselves acceptable to God. They are "dead" because they are not the product of regeneration or spiritual life, but the mere attempt on the part of unregenerate sinners to justify themselves before God.

Paul himself, once zealously religious, but wholly unsaved, had to repudiate his "dead works" and count them "loss" to find salvation in Christ, through whom alone he could produce good works which God could accept (Phil. 3: 4-9).

This is why he later declared by divine inspiration: "For by grace are ye saved, through faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast, for we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works..." (Eph. 2:8-10).

"Dead works" are not only unacceptable to God, but an evil substitute for the faith He desires, "for without faith it is impossible to please God" (Heb. 11:6). But "he that believeth on the Son of God hath life" and this life is bound to bear fruit—the good works with which God is truly pleased.

The difference between the attempt to provide the best fishing possible to small pond and lake owners. Due to the inherent reproductive capacity of crappie, this species will quickly over-populate and become stunted in small bodies of water. Such a condition normally results in poor fishing for all species of fish."

District Clubwomen Plan Convention to Be Held March 28

Pre-convention planning, a time consuming effort that pays off in a smooth program of activities, was the objective of a day-long workshop held at the home of Mrs. Grover C. Johnson in Wichita Falls Monday.

Mrs. W. B. Johnson of Crowell, president of Santa Rosa District, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, called the meeting to discuss plans for the district convention which is to be March 28-29 in Vernon.

With the help of Meses O. B. Cox and Chaucery Weiler, first and second vice presidents; Mrs. Philip A. Carpenter, state third vice president; Mrs. John Davidson, chairman of committees, and Mrs. Grover C. Johnson, the district president, organized the order of business for the convention.

Highlights of the convention will be announcement of awards won by individuals and clubs, and election of officers. A "sewing is fun" contest will be held in observance of the Federation's 75th anniversary and prizes will be given for the most authentic old costumes.

A. C. Wimpy, public relations representative for Hunt Oil Co., of Garland, will be the principal speaker Monday evening for the President's dinner. Mrs. J. L. Ginnings of Pilot Point, president of the Texas Federation, will be speaker for the luncheon meeting.

"We're expecting a minimum of 250 delegates for this district convention," Mrs. Johnson said. "Hostess clubs will be those from Crowell, Quanah and Chillicothe."

Mrs. Robert Kincaid of Crowell will be general chairman. The usual routine business matters will make up part of the convention proceedings—there will be officers' and presidents' reports, and Federation business.

"This being diamond jubilee year, we plan to select 'diamonds' of Santa Rosa," the president said. "We will recognize the club member who has the most outstanding record of work on local, state and national levels."

All sessions will be held in Wilbarger County Memorial Auditorium. Members' husbands are also invited to the meeting for which Mr. Wimpy will speak.

County Judge and Commissioners Invited to Dedication

County Judge Leslie Thomas and members of the Foard County Commissioners Court have been invited to attend the dedication of the "Texas Confederate County Commissioners Courts" historical marker in Brenham on Feb. 18 at 2 p. m. on the Washington County courthouse lawn.

This announcement was made by John Ben Shepperd of Odessa, president of the Texas State Historical Survey Committee.

A history of the Commissioners Courts in Texas during the Civil War years to the present time will be made by Shepperd.

Harold Green, president of the County Judges and Commissioners Association, of Water Valley (Tom Green County) will accept the official marker on behalf of the association.

County Judge Odis Tomachefsky of Brenham will be master of ceremonies with Washington County commissioners participating. Open house for visitors will be held in the court house under the auspices of the Washington County Historical Survey Committee.

Text of the marker follows:
Texas Confederate
County Commissioners Courts

Composed of a Chief Justice (now county judge) and four county commissioners, these elected governing boards directed vital Civil War programs. Provided arms, clothing, horses and saddles for troops from county. Gave aid to wartime factories, obtained and distributed to soldiers' families scarce medicine, food, cloth, salt and cotton and wool cards.

County patrols and home guards were set up in many counties and supplied lead, powder, gun caps to guard against the enemy, Indians and bandits.

Funds were raised by issuing bonds and scrip and assessing a special war tax on property. Tax credits were given to citizens for contributions to the soldiers' dependents. Unbranded cattle were gathered and sold to benefit orphans and widows.

Rich, heavily-populated Washington County through its court financed hospitals in Hempstead and Chappell Hill; contracted the making of army uniforms; bought kegs of powder and held gun inspections to maintain home defenses; printed county scrip in 50c, $1, $2, $3 bills; established at Old Mt. Vernon a camp of instruction and in Brenham a soldiers home.

Judges, commissioners and other dedicated public officials did much to strengthen Texas' war effort. (1965)

"The woman you want to be" was discussed by Mrs. Virginia Ilse, H. D. Agent.

The hostess served refreshments to 9 members and 2 visitors. Mrs. Ilse and Miss Fern Hodge, District Agent, from Vernon. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Eunice Bowley March 8. The last meeting in February will be the clothing workshop with the agent on Feb. 17 and 18.

4-H Club Meets

The sixth grade girls had their 4-H Club meeting on Wednesday, Feb. 9. Vice president, Sharla Haynie, presided in the absence of Bette Sue Barry. Secretary Rhonda Howard called the roll and read the minutes. Song leaders Rheta Howard and Betty Linda Whitfield led in the 4-H pledge and taught the girls, "I'm a Texan."

For the program, the girls were divided up and discussed manners and everyone had a part.

4-H Club Meeting

The 7th grade 4-H girls had a meeting on February 10. The president, Sheri Speer, presided. The song leaders, Peggy Welch and Mieke Owens, led the 4-H pledge and a song. From the News . . .
THIRTY YEARS AGO

News items below were taken from the Thursday, Feb. 13, 1936, issue of The Ford County News:

After the Texas A&M freshman basketball players have had five weeks of practice and training and their squad has been sliced from over 100 men to less than 20, they still have Dick Todd of Crowell on this list.

The resignation of W. D. Dixon as managing editor of the Vernon Daily Record to accept the secretaryship of the Quannah Chamber of Commerce was announced Tuesday.

The Crowell Wildcats and the Quannah Indians meet in the CHS gym Friday night in a cage battle that has all the marks of the best basketball match that has been staged in Crowell this year. The teams will be warring for the title of the "Big 5" Conference and the 18-inch trophy that now stands in the Crowell High School trophy case.

A Negro boxing match between Uris Brigham and Otho Guthrie featured the program sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Association of the Crowell colored school Friday night. A large crowd attended the unique program.

Crowell junior Wildcats, without checking their remarkable record of no losses, took the Acme juniors Tuesday afternoon on foreign territory by a score of 38 to 11. Leading the attack for Crowell and copping high individual honors for the afternoon was Little Orr of Crowell.

Members of the Crowell High School senior class were entertained Monday night in the home of J. M. Housouer, with a Valentine party.

The Crowell Wildcats staged a mighty rally in the fourth quarter of a cage match with Thalia last Thursday night in the local gymnasium to defeat the visitors 32 to 24 before a moderately large audience. Crowell players were Middlebrook, Wiggins, Dunagan, Crews, and Zeibig. Thalia's team members were Wisdom, Miller, Taylor, Davis, Capps, Earhman.

Mabry Kimsey and Vernal Davison of Bogata were here last week to get a truck load of furniture for Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Kimsey. They brought a load of pigs that they sold here.

A farmers meeting, with representatives from Willbarger, Hardeman, Cottle and Ford Counties, will be held in the district court room of the Ford County court house in Crowell Friday, Feb. 14, at 2:30 p. m. The meeting is being sponsored by the Ford County Farmer's Protective Association.

Rural mail carriers and other postal officials from Ford, Hardeman and Willbarger Counties, will meet Friday night in the First Baptist Church of Crowell. A varied program of speeches, music and other entertainment has been arranged for the visiting postal employees. Among the numbers will be a sousaphone solo by Paul Wallace of Crowell.

Turkeys Aid Bobs in Weather Crisis

The Animal Kingdom's "Big Brother Act" was a common sight during the historic wet norther that distressed man and beast alike, according to Texas Parks and Wildlife Department field reports.

Primarily, fragile bobwhite quail, one of the hardest hit of the exposed creatures, struggled dramatically to survive. And got an assist although mostly futile, from some of the large and more durable birds.

Biologists reported seeing rugged wild turkeys scratching away, trying to penetrate ice and snow to reach any food beneath the crust. And being stalked by frail bobs whose metabolism is so geared that quantities of weed seeds are required to sustain life.

The mortality rate among turkeys was inconsequential because their strong bodies generated strength to reach nuts or grain morsels. But the tiny bobs were hard hit in some areas—victims of mass starvation.

Rep. Heatly Issues Statement on Bid for Re-Election

W. S. HEATLY

Paducah (Special)—Representative W. S. Heatly of the 82nd Legislative District has issued a statement expressing appreciation for the fact that he does not have an opponent in this year's Democratic primaries.

He is seeking his seventh consecutive term from the 82nd District, although it has been changed three times since he was first elected. The district was composed originally of four counties: Cottle, Foard, Hardeman and Wheeler. Later, Childress, Donley, Hall and Motley counties were added. The Legislature dropped Donley and added Briscoe and Dickens Counties at its last session.

From his first term until the present, Mr. Heatly has been honored with important committee assignments, being named chairman of State Affairs as a freshman Representative. In five of his six terms he has been a member of the Appropriations Committee and has served an unprecedented three terms as chairman.

In addition to his 10 years of service on Appropriations, Mr. Heatly has served 10 years as a member of the House-Senate Interim Budget Committee, and six years as a member of the Interim Audit Committee. The Budget Committee is made up of five Senators and five Representatives and the Audit Committee is composed of three members from each branch of the Legislature.

These are highly coveted appointments and to be chosen repeatedly out of a total membership of 180 in the Legislature is an indication of Mr. Heatly's standing among his colleagues.

The three committees named have primary responsibility in state spending which now exceeds $1.5 billion annually. All money bills must originate in the House of Representatives and the Appropriations Committee, currently headed by Mr. Heatly, must pass on all requests for state funds.

Mr. Heatly expects to visit in all sections of his district this year, even though he has no opponent, and will devote special attention to his new counties, Dickens and Briscoe. He urges constituents to advise him of their views on all matters pertaining to state government and especially when their personal interests are involved.

Since preparing this release, the Governor has called a special session of the Legislature and Mr. Heatly will be busy in Austin for the next several weeks on this business.

Will Become Clearer in the Days Ahead

... it does seem that the quickest way to solve local problems, to create homes of dignity and neighborhoods of pride, would be to give the cities tax sources now pre-empted by the federal government and let them solve their own problems ... because it is sometimes difficult to obtain the necessary finances locally for community betterment, the temptation to run down to Washington for the funds seems to be the easy way out, even though the community many times loses control of civic projects in the process. The fallacy of permitting more and more control of government to be centralized in Washington will become clearer in the days ahead." —Clay, W. Va., Messenger.

Veterans Can Obtain Release of Liability of G. I. Homes

Veterans who sell their GI homes and permit the buyer to assume their GI loan remain liable in case of subsequent foreclosure unless they obtain a release of liability.

This can be obtained upon request to VA, if VA approves the buyer as a good credit risk, Jack Coker, manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Waco, said this week.

A release from liability, however, does not restore the veteran's eligibility for another GI loan.

This can be restored only when the VA is no longer liable to the lender on the guaranty, and if the veteran:

(a) is forced to sell his home through no fault of his own, for reasons of health, employment, etc.;

(b) has his property taken by a government agency for public use, or destroyed by a natural hazard; or

(c) is in military service and must dispose of his home because of military transfer.

Further information may be obtained at VA offices located at 1400 North Valley Mills Drive, Waco, Texas; 2208 Main, Dallas, Texas; and 1612-20 19th Street, Lubbock, Texas.
