Landscape Work Done on Crowell School Grounds

The campus around the gymnasiums of the Crowell Schools have had additional landscape work done the past week.

Evergreens were planted on the north and east sides of the new gymnasium, in front of the old gymnasium and on the north side of the high school building. Red pyracanthas, baker arborvitaes, junipers, yuccas, algaritas, and chapparral were used. The work was done by Marvin Myers, Henry Black, Allen Taylor, Carl Cox, Ray Quintero, Ernest Tucker, Daniel Santos, Israel Santos, Bill Kinsey, Bobby Kajs, Joe Ray Burkett, Larry Hughston and Baldemar Brown.

It is planned to plant additional shrubs in the immediate future.

William McKown Promoted by City in California

Inglewood, Calif., has a new city official. A Community Development Coordinator.

His name is William McKown, currently the Planning Department director for Inglewood.

Mr. McKown graduated from Dumas High School in 1946, later receiving his architectural degrees from Texas A&M and master of science in City Planning from the University of Southern Califor-

"McKown is experienced in our method of operation. He knows the city's operations. Rather than hire a new man who is not familiar with our mode of procedure and would take three or four months to become familiar with the area, McKown can carry or city business as it functions now,' Goedike explained, "until we de termine who will be the new city administrator.

"His first responsibility will be the development of the downtown business area so that Inglewood can continue to progress with the vast growth of Southern California," Goedike declared.

Pioneer Circle

"Listen and Learn," a subject point up the needs and demands of the youth of today, was the theme of Monday's lesson for the Pioneer Circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Crowell Methodist Church. The circle met for a social hour at 3 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Fred Wehba.

The program was opened by the group singing of two hymns led by Mrs. A. R. Sanders. The subject chosen by Mrs. Frank Flesher, leader, was a challenge to older Christian women in communication with today's youth in understanding their needs and demands. Reminding the group that communication between the generations was a two-way street, she led them in a lively and fervent discussion primarily in the basic dialogue of the Christian faith as a bridge between the generation gap.

Mrs. Flesher said, "The rapid changes of the past fifty years in technology and science have made it expedient for the church ed that if we were as dedicated to Christ as the communist is to communism, there would be no question as to the outcome of Christianity."
