Erroneous Statements

The Arizona Farm Bureau Federation states, "During recent years many erroneous statements have been made describing agriculture as a declining industry. These statements are not so. The general trend has been upward over the past 10 years, rather than downward. Enrollments in college of agriculture programs in the fall of 1967 has been exceeded only by the record number right after World War II.

Tax Man Sam Sez

Throughout the country the IRS District Directors for the various states or areas hand out a lot of good tax advice. Some of the best advice is—"Keep good records and save tax dollars." Every year thousands of Texans resolve to stop costing themselves money and to keep good records at the beginning of the year or as soon as they start to worry about their income tax during the year. It is not too late to make an August resolution to go on top of the New Year's resolution and to at least do a good job of record keeping for the rest of the year. You may have missed some tax savings already, but maybe you can also make some tax savings during the rest of the year.

Section 1. That Article VIII, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended by adding a new Section 1-e to read as follows:

"Section 1-e.

"1. From and after December 31, 1978, no State ad valorem taxes shall be levied upon any property within this State for State purposes except the tax levied by Article VII, Section 17, for certain institutions of higher learning.

"2. The State ad valorem tax authorized by Article VII, Section 3, of this Constitution shall be imposed at the following rates on each One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation for the years 1968 through 1974: On January 1, 1968, Thirty-five Cents (35¢); on January 1, 1969, Thirty Cents (30¢); on January 1, 1970, Twenty-five Cents (25¢); on January 1, 1971, Twenty Cents (20¢); on January 1, 1972, Fifteen Cents (15¢); on January 1, 1973, Ten Cents (10¢); on January 1, 1974, Five Cents (5¢); and thereafter no such tax for school purposes shall be levied and collected. "5. The fees paid by the State for both assessing and collecting State ad valorem taxes shall not exceed two per cent (2%) of the State taxes collected. This subsection shall be self-executing."

Miss Karen Shirley Writes of Experiences on Visit to Sweden

Miss Karen Shirley of Crowell is one of a group of area young people taking part in a visit to Scandinavian countries this summer under the Texas Lions Youth Exchange Program. In letters to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Shirley, she has described some of her experiences on her visit.

Karen is visiting with a farm family at Tierp, 80 miles north of Stockholm, Sweden. She describes her host father as "a gentleman" farmer, with four children, one of them 21 and a student chemical engineer.

The family, the Anders Ericsons, live in a large two-story house. The grandfather also lives with the family, and the one television set is in his suite of rooms which includes a sitting room, two bedrooms, a kitchen and bath.

The family car is a Volkswagen bus.

Karen has been trying to learn the continental style of eating—always keeping the fork turned upside down "in the meat-cutting position." The knife is used to help place food on the prongs of the upside down fork.

She writes that her first mistake with Swedish food, which she generally found to be good but less seasoned than she is accustomed to, was eating cornflakes served with buttermilk—a combination that is common there.

She observes that the boys in Sweden "have long hair—longer than the Beatles."

Engagement Told

Rev. and Mrs. John L. Sullivan announce the engagement of their daughter, Gloria Gibson, to Rev. Joe DeLeon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesus DeLeon of Houston. The wedding is set for August 10.

Both Miss Gibson and her fiancé are students at the University of Corpus Christi.

Family Reunion

Clark, Darla Jean, Cindy Beth and Buddy, of Uniontown, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Austin, Roger and Celeste, of Graham; and Mr. and Mrs. Woody Frank Lemons of Lubbock.

The group attended the wedding of their granddaughter and niece, Miss Leanna Earthman, to Ron Allen of Lubbock, in Vernon Saturday evening in the First Baptist Church.

We, the family of A. L. Kelly, extend our heartfelt thanks to those who ministered to us so generously, with your presence, prayers, words of comfort and flowers during the time of our sorrow and need. May God bless you richly.

Praised and Damned

The Civil Service Commission has been alternately praised and damned. The best that can be said of it is that it has taken partisan politics out of hiring federal employees. The worst that can be said of it is that—with its broad protection for workers—it has become a haven for the inefficient and unproductive.

Two Minutes With the Bible

Don't Tell Him a Thing

Many years ago the writer's father, then a city missionary, received a telephone call from a prominent clergyman.

"Peter," said the clergyman, "I've got a young man out in the outer office who seems to be in great distress. He says he feels he's so great a sinner that he's overstepped the line and God won't forgive him. Now you've had a lot of experience with such people. What shall I tell him?"

"Don't tell him a thing; I'll be right over," said dad, and he left immediately to deal with the young man himself.

Dad knew very well what was the matter with his young lad. The Holy Spirit had convicted him of his sin (John 16:8). The lad had come to see himself as he really was—as God saw him, and sees any unsaved person, no matter how religious.

No person ever comes to see his need of a Savior until he has first come to see himself as a condemned sinner before God. And it is only when we come to see ourselves as we are in the sight of a holy God that there is hope for salvation.

The self-righteous do not see their need of a Savior. What would He save them from? What have they done that is so wrong? This is the way their reasoning goes. It is only when we appreciate the holiness and graciousness of God that we upon us that our condition hopeless without a Savior. Strange, is it not, so many people have pictures of God on a cross, yet do not truly Him as a Savior, theiravior.

But when we have been ed of our sin and our condition before God, we ready to take in the words by Paul to the trembling at Philippi: "Believe on the Lord Christ, and thou shalt be saved" (Acts 16:31).

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION No. 4 proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas, amending Section 48a of Article III thereof, so as to provide for contributions on the basis of the full salary of members of the Teacher Retirement System; providing for the submission of the proposed amendment to a vote of the people at an election and for proclamation and publication thereof.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 48a of Article III of the Constitution of Texas be amended so as to read as follows:

"Section 48a. In addition to the powers given the Legislature under Section 48, Article III, it shall have the right to levy taxes to establish a fund to provide retirement, disability and death benefits for persons employed in the public schools, colleges and universities supported wholly or partly by the state; provided that the amount contributed by the state to such fund each year shall be equal to the aggregate amount required by law to be paid into the fund by such employees, and shall not exceed at any time six per centum (6%) of the compensation paid each such person by the state and/or school districts; and provided that no person shall be eligible for retirement who has not rendered ten (10) years of creditable service in such employment, and in no case shall any person retire before either attaining the age fifty-five (55) or completing thirty (30) years of creditable service, but shall be entitled to refund of moneys paid into the fund."

"Moneys coming into such fund shall be managed and invested as provided in Section 48b of Section III of the Constitution of Texas; provided a sufficient sum shall be kept on hand to meet payments as they become due each year under such retirement plan, as may be provided by law; and provided that the recipients of such retirement fund shall not be eligible for any other state pension retirement funds or direct aid from the State of Texas, unless such other state pension or retirement fund, contributed by the state, is released to the State of Texas as a condition to receiving such other pension aid; providing, however, that this Section shall not amend, alter, or repeal Section 49 of Article 16 of the Constitution of Texas as adopted November, 1954, or any enabling legislation passed pursuant thereto."

Section 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1968, at which election each ballot shall have printed thereon the following words:

"FOR the amendment to Section 48a of Article III allowing contributions to be made on the basis of full salary of members of the Teacher Retirement System of Texas."

"AGAINST the amendment to Section 48a of Article III allowing contributions to be made on the basis of full salary of members of the Teacher Retirement System of Texas."

Each voter shall mark out one of said clauses on the ballot leaving the one expressing his vote on the proposed amendment. If it appears from the returns of said election that a majority of the votes cast were in favor of said amendment, the same shall become a part of the state constitution and be effective from the date of determination of such result and the Governor's proclamation thereof.

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said special election and shall have the same published as required by the constitution and laws of this state.
