'Daniel Boone' to Star At Fort Worth Rodeo

Fess Parker, star of the "Daniel Boone" television series, will be the special guest attraction at the 1969 Fort Worth Stock Show Rodeo January 24 through February 2. The tall Texan is noted for his vocal talents as well as his acting ability, having chalked up over a million sales with his recording of "Davy Crockett".

Appearing with Parker at all 20 rodeo performances will be the New Establishment, a youth-oriented musical group recently featured at Disneyland. Other specialty acts signed for the Fort Worth Rodeo are Jerry Olson's Trained Buffalo and Elaine Kramer's Six-Horse Roman Ride.

Over 450 professional cowboys will vie for a purse of better than $75,000 in the rodeo's action events.

Tickets are available by mail from the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show, P. O. Box 150, Fort Worth, Texas 76101.

Crowell Junior High Teams Win Two More Conference Games

Crowell Junior High boys and girls won two more conference games Monday night to make both teams undefeated in district play. The Crowell girls defeated the Munday girls 34-15. Rhonda Vecera was high pointer for Crowell with 12 points, Karen Gray scored 6, Sandra Whitfield and Jo Ann Gearhardt scored 5 each, Trudy Bird scored 4, Cheryl Branch 2. Deann Dodd, Darla Bell, Michelle Gafford and Sandra Whitfield should be given much of the credit for the victory for they let Munday score only 3 points in the first half.

Crowell's junior high boys out-scored the Munday boys 30-22, with Rex Driver scoring 15 of these points for the locals. Rocky Bachman and Grover Reed scored 4 each, Johnnie Urquizo scored 3 points, and Jackie Houck and Philip Bell scored 2 each. The Crow-ell boys trailed by 5 points at halftime, and came on to win with a lot of hustle.

Nephew of Crowell Residents Advancing in Acting Career

The following article concerning Bart LaRue appeared in the January 5 Abilene Reporter-News. LaRue is a nephew of Mrs. Ector Sollis, Mrs. Grethel Cobb and John Teague of Crowell and Henry Teague of Five-in-One.

Bart LaRue goes back to the West Coast this week end where his theatrical fortunes have been LaRue is probably best remembered in Abilene for his 1963 summer stock experiment in the old Fair Park Auditorium. He and wife, Valrie, brought their four children home to Sweetwater over the holidays for a visit with his mother, Mrs. H. A. Sherrill.

The first thing he did after going to California 41/2 years ago was the West Coast premiere of "Blues for Mr. Charley" with Frank Silvera and Otis Young. Curt Conway directed.

There was a picture too, "Conception 3," which Bart calls a "musical murder mystery." The film hasn't been released, although it has been privately screened in Pittsburgh.

The two-week Christmas holiday was the first time the LaRue has returned to Sweetwater since leaving for California.

When he returns, Bart will again play a villain-this time a German officer—in "Dark in Belleau Wood." Jack Rosenberg is producing this movie about the World War I batlet.

devoted the summer holidays to making summer as much fun for physically handicapped children as it is for boys and girls enjoying normal health.

Each TAP became a "buddy" to a particular youngster. They drove the children to and from the city park, where games and arts and crafts classes were set up for them. They played checkers, catch-ball games, held sing-alongs, read stories and helped their small charges romp through other specially planned activities.
