Senior Scene

Ordering commencement invitation this week has made the seniors realize that their time in CHS is slowly coming to an end. Seniors are facing graduation with mixed emotions. The results from the homemaker test senior girls took in December have been received and Micke Owens is Crowell's "Homemaker of Tomorrow." Her test will be sent on to state judging where she will be in competition for Texas Homemaker of Tomorrow and a scholarship. Thursday, Coach Boyd and four CHS seniors travelled to Plainview to participate in a track meet. Making the trip with the coach were Junior Urquiza, Jesse Barrera, Mike Weathered and George Eavenson. Mrs. Nell Denny from Wichita Falls spoke to seniors last week about the possibility of making computer training their vocation. GO, WILDCATS!

Junior Jabber

This week everyone has been studying for six weeks tests. Many students depend on these tests to make up for the work we didn't do during the six weeks period. It is difficult to believe that there are only 12 weeks of school left. It is quite evident that these weeks will be full of activities and school work. Last Tuesday there was a pep rally for the games with Munday. The cheerleaders led yells and presented a short skit; music was provided by the Pep Band. The juniors would like to congratulate the Wildcats for their many victories in the basketball season!

Sophomore Scoop

Sophomores have been caught up in the usual rush of six weeks tests in conjunction with many activities. Quite a bit of midnight oil was used this week with students trying to study enough to make a good test grade. Sophomores are reminded of upcoming Student Council elections. Petitions are due Friday! The band is working very hard on its music which will present in concert and sight reading contests in March.

Frantic Freshmen

Having their number cut in about half by the drivers ed course the health class gave reports on subjects relating to health with reports varying from pollution to mental health. Meanwhile, the drivers ed class is preparing for tests and the home ec girls worked on colors that match and blend. Did you know that black and white are not colors? White is a mixture of all colors while black is the absence of color. The basketball girls finished basketball season and started volleyball, while the boys still work long and hard to win those remaining games. All the work of these past few weeks in algebra reached a peak on Thursday with a chapter test! Remember freshmen—English book reports and home ec notebooks are due on Friday, the 12th.

Homemaking News

The Homemaking Department cooked supper for the school board members, the superintendent and their wives February 8. Each of Mrs. Brown's classes made a different dish. The four girls who served and helped Mrs. Brown were Ruth Brown, Darla Bell, Cindy Wisdom and Trudy Bird.

Sports

'Twas the last week of basketball and all through the place, Wildcat spirit was evident on everyone's face. The jerseys were hung in the locker with care, in hopes that Petroli would fall unaware. The coach was hopping and so were the boys, with visions of victory and lots of noise!

Student Council Elections

Scheduling for the Student Council officer elections has been announced by Jim Gafford, sponsor. Candidates' petitions must be in the office by Friday, Feb. 12, at 2:30. Signs go up on Monday, Feb. 15, with elections being on Thursday, Feb. 18.

As tradition dictates, candidates use the first part of the campaign week to influence voters by the use of signs and favors. On election day, each candidate is nominated by an election rally, ending with the candidate stating his qualifications for election. Again, according to tradition, the treasurer must be an incoming freshman; secretary, a sophomore; vice president, a junior; and president, a senior of 1971-72.

Homemaker of Tomorrow

Crowell High School's 1971 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow is senior Micke Vee Owens. Selected for her performance in a written knowledge and attitude examination administered to senior girls on December 1, Micke will receive a specially designed award from General Mills, sponsor of the annual education program. Additionally, she is now eligible for state and national honors, including one of 102 college scholarships totaling $110,000. All judging and selection of winners is done by Science Research Associates, Chicago, which also constructed and graded the written examination.

The Betty Crocker search for the American homemaker of tomorrow is the only national scholarship program exclusively for high school senior girls. Begun in the 1954-55 school year to emphasize the importance of homemaking as a career, it will, with the 1971 grants, have awarded more than $1.75 million in scholarships during its 17-year history. This year's enrollment of 650,000 senior girls brings total participa-

New Organization Chartered to Preserve History of Texas

A statewide campaign will begin this week to recruit 1,000 history buffs to join an extensive, carefully organized effort to recover and record Texas history.

Impetus for the undertaking comes from a San Marcos-based group which initiated the founding and recent chartering of a non-profit organization, the Texas Historical Research Institute.

Dr. L. E. Derrick, vice president of Southwest Texas State University, will serve as chairman of an interim board of directors until March 2, Texas Independence Day, at which time a formal organizational meeting is scheduled.

Dr. A. A. Grusendorf, originator of the plan, serves as president.

Members are being sought from throughout Texas to make up the institute's founding group of 1000. Founders may include individuals, married couples, institutions, business firms, and historical, genealogical, and conservation societies. The life membership fee is $100.

In its prospectus, which is being distributed statewide in a select mailing, the institute acknowledges that existing Texana is extensive but sets its sights on "a veritable gold mine of historical materials yet to be recovered and preserved." The prospectus cites a "sense of urgency" since the passage of time makes the collection of historical materials increasingly difficult.

A prime use of institute funds will be for research grants to private researchers and to masters and doctors degree candidates in participating graduate schools. Also envisioned is the publication of books, pamphlets, and monographs, the profits of which will be applied to new research efforts.

Many aspects of early Texas life and culture will be delved urday of the death of an ex-resident of this area, Mrs. Johnnie Gamble of LaPorte, She died of a heart attack in Tucson, Ariz., where she was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Rusty Winters (Savannah). Funeral services were held at LaPorte Tuesday, Feb. 10.

STATE Capital NEWS

Austin, Tex.—According to a month nationwide study by the House Conference on State Legislatures, the Texas Legislature ranks 38th among all 50 states. Study reported that the Lieutenant Governor has too much power, and suggested that some of it be transferred to the President Pro Tempore of the Senate. CCLSL came out strong for annual sessions of the Legislature found $15,000 a reasonable annual pay for senators and representatives (who now get $800).

Conference also suggested that Texas has far too many legislative standing committees (72 in total) and that 15 for each house would be plenty. A joint hearing House-Senate panels would have time, the study maintaining powers of the Lieutenant Governor, said CCLSL, are a "hint of transporance to the industries, the leadership of its own choosing." al movements were include appointment of committee chairmen, assigning tributions of to committees and casting breaking votes.

States getting the best rank- country change, in this order, Califor- early Texas, New York, Illinois, Florida, Wisconsin, Iowa, Hawaii, Michi- Nebraska and Minnesota.

TEXAS RANKED 45TH IN ABILITY TO control its own activities, 43rd in use of available information, 44th in accountability to constitu- ents, and 17th in being repre- sentative of the state's varied in- dustries and population.

AUTO RATE REHEARING—Texas Automobile In- surance Service Office is seeking shearing on car insurance rates to be ordered by the State Insurance Board in December.

Journal for TAISO and its 325 member companies filed official fee asking that the board re- examine the adequacy of rates it proposed to become effective Jan- uary 1.

Insurance industry urged aver- overall 27.7 per cent increase statewide. Following hearings in San Antonio, Dallas and Houston, the board agreed to grant a 14 per cent hike. Insurance Board staff recommended 18 per cent.

Companies contend that "the 25 per cent limitation on in- creases by coverage, classifi- cation and territory, without a risk allowance for catastro- phes, results in confiscatory rates which is not in keeping with Texas Insurance Code."

REGISTRATION RE-OPENS—Registration has re-opened the month of February. Legislature passed a bill to ex- tend the sign-up beyond January and Gov. Preston Smith signed into law.

at Crowell, Texas, who sponsored the measure, that the bill shows the Legis- lature's good faith by getting in- volved with the federal court deci- sion. He threw out the annual vot- ing requirement and the regis- tration period and the election date. A constitutional amendment proposal to wipe out Texas annual registration requirement by state action and other bills to authorize a registration-by-voting system are now pending in the Legislature. Main argument about the latter is over whether regis- tration should be for a two- or four-year period.

SPECIAL ELECTION MAY 18—Four constitutional amendments were passed by the Legislature in overtime sessions and a special statewide election set for May 18. Following amendments were ap- proved for the May ballot:

SJR5—To remove the constitu- tional ceiling on aid to the aged, blind and disabled and fix a $55 million maximum on aid to fam- ilies with dependent children. An $80 million ceiling now applies to all four categories. Unless it is increased (via the May vote), re- ductions in AFDC will be neces- sary.

SJR15—To establish an official state commission to map ethical standards for state legislators and other officials and to set their pay. Critics lambasted the measure as a device of lawmakers to get a pay raise at a time when the public is demanding legislative reforms.

SJR17—Authorizing a $100 million bond issue to finance state aid to local units of government on water treatment plans.

HJR21—To permit submission of future constitutional amend- ment proposals in special as well as regular sessions.

First on the ballot, determined by public drawing, will be SJR15. Second will be HJR21, third SJR5 and fourth SJR17.

A key proposal of Governor Smith's, to tap school land min- eral lease-royalty incomes for current spending, (dependent on for $80 million toward balancing the new budget) fell by the way- side.

Li. Gov. Ben Barnes strongly recommended that the Legislature write a single-year budget which would dilute the tax bill necessary for this year, but necessitate another one in 1972.

Barnes proposed re-alignment of priorities for the use of revenue flowing through the omnibus clearing fund as a way to avert an immediate welfare crisis with- out deficit financing.

House revenue and tax commit- tee dusted off a sales and cigar- ette tax bill just in case.

Texans on Grain Advisory Committee

U. S. Secretary of Agriculture Clifford M. Hardin has named two Texans as members of a 22-man Advisory Committee on Grains. They are Robert W. Anderson of Farwell and Robert W. Heard of Victoria. The committee will advise with USDA personnel on current and background data affect- ing U. S. grains in connection with the Agricultural Act of 1970.

Cotton Fertilizer Demonstration

RESULTS GIVEN ON FERTILIZER TESTS

A cotton fertilizer demonstra- tion was established in Foard County on May 18, 1970 by County Agricultural Agent Joe Burkett in cooperation with Dr. Jim Mulkey, superintendent of the Chil- licotho Experiment Station. This was a dry land cotton fertilizer demonstration located on the J. E. Ingle farm north- east of Margaret. The yield of this cotton was lowered by her- bicide damage, Burkett said.

Following are the complete re- sults of this demonstration. The first column is the amount of ac- tual nitrogen, phosphorous, and potassium applied per acre. The second column is the actual yield in pounds of lint cotton per acre:

Two Minutes With the Bible

"The Apostle of Grace"

Did you know that St. Paul was chosen by God as the apostle of grace?

He was God's great example of grace, the "chief of sinners" saved by grace (1 Tim. 1:16).

To him was committed "the dis- pensation of the grace of God" (Eph. 3:2).

He was sent forth to proclaim "the gospel of the grace of God" (Acts 20:24).

He wrote far more about grace than any other Bible writer.

All his epistles open or close (or both) with the salutation, "Grace be to you."

He declares: "We have redemption through Christ's blood, the forgiveness of sins according to the riches of His grace" (Eph. 1:7).

He shows how this grace was planned for believers in ages past: "Who hath saved us and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to His own purpose and grace which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began" (II Tim. 1:9).

He shows how this grace will be ours in ages to come: "That in the ages to come, He might show the exceeding riches of His grace in His kindness toward us through Christ Jesus" (Eph. 2:7).

He shows how this grace is greater than all our sins: "Where sin abounded grace did much more abound" (Rom. 5:20).

He shows how grace gives us a righteous standing before God: "Being justified freely by His grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus" (Rom. 3:24).

He shows how God's grace has given believers a position in heav- en: "(He) hath made us to sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus . . . for by grace are ye saved, through faith . . ." (Eph. 2:6,8).

He shows how God's grace is sufficient for our difficulties and can help us to live consistent Christian lives: "My grace is sufficient for thee" (II Cor. 12:9).

"And God is able to make all grace abound toward you, that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work" (II Cor. 9:8).

Accept salvation "by grace, through faith" as "the gift of God" (Eph. 2:8,9).

THIRTY YEARS AGO

News items below were taken from the Thursday, February 13, 1941, issue of The Foard County News:

The commissioners court of Foard County has decided to leave the issue of equipping the hos- pital to a vote of the people.

Cub Scouts Harold Thomson, Larry Dan Campbell, G. W. John- son and Joe Harris Scales, and their den mother, Mrs. H. E. Thomson, were visitors in the me- chanical department of The News office Tuesday afternoon and were shown some of the opera- tions necessary in the prepara- tion for printing a paper. The boys were also shown some "type lice" by that genial floor man, George Carter.

The building of a new Catholic Church in Crowell, the St. Joseph's Church, was started Mon- day morning at which time ground for the foundation was broken. The church will be a mission-style building with white stucco walls.

The county attorney has been instructed to enforce collection of all delinquent taxes as the result of action passed by the commissioners court Tuesday. This measure was taken up by the commissioners after the return of the auditor's report which was re- turned last week and showed that a number of the various funds are getting so low that they will not be able to take care of ap- proaching payments unless they are replenished soon.

Plans were launched at a called meeting of the Crowell Cemetery Association Monday afternoon to set in motion an effort to build a sexton's house on the Crowell Cemetery property.

Miss Mary Owens of the Foard City community and James Sand- lin of the Vivian community were married Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 11, at the parsonage of the Chris- tian Church of Vernon with the pastor, Rev. O. Luna, pronouncing the marriage vows. They were accompanied to Vernon by Misses Oma Floy McLain and Marie Dunn, and Garland Rasberry and Herman Sandlin.

Thousands of workers are now being called into industry to help build army camps, equipment for defense projects, and perform various types of work connected with the national defense program, and every worker should know what his social security account num- ber is and where it is.

Work was resumed on the two bridges west of Margaret Monday after an eight-day lay-off on ac- count of the rain.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Matus moved last week into the new house just completed for them in the Riverside community.

CHS Cage Teams Win Two, Lose One at Munday

The Crowell High School girls basketball team completed the 1970-71 season at Munday Tues- day night of last week in a game which the Munday girls won 52 to 44.

Toni Baggett and Rhonda Ve- cera tied for high point honors with 13 each. The game was an exciting one, and the Crowell girls played an excellent game, even though they lost. Bette Sue Barry, Sandra Whitfield and Rhonda Swan were outstanding on defense for the local girls.

The loss gave the local girls a 3-3 district record and a 11-12 season record. The girls ended up in third position in the western half of District 8-A.

Seniors playing their last game for Crowell were Toni Baggett and Jaque Gillispie.

The Crowell boys A team was victorious in its game against the Moguls winning it 65 to 39, with a great second-half rebound.

The local boys trailed 12 to 24 at the end of the first half.

Bill Erwin led the Wildcat scor- ing attack with 25 points, 22 of which he made in the second half. Kenneth Sellers was second with 10 points. Bob Burkett and Sellers got 11 rebounds each, and Harry Lee Swan got 9 rebounds in the contest.

The win last Tuesday gave the boys a 3-1 district record and a 16-7 season record.

Sellers and Jimmy Glover are seniors on the boys A squad and wound up their high school bas- ketball careers this week against Paducah.

The Crowell junior varsity also won over Munday 38 to 25 with Jackie Blackburn putting in 10 points for the winners.

The win left the JV with a 7-7 season record.

These three teams are coached by Bob Cook.

VA Announces Interest Rate Reduction for Vets

The latest reduction in interest rates on home loans guaranteed by the Veterans Administration will save a veteran or serviceman more than $3,000 on the average new home loan over a 30-year financing period.

Jack Coker, director of the VA regional office in Waco, comment- ing on the reduction from 8 to 7½ per cent approved this month by Housing and Urban Develop- ment and VA, said the estimated saving is based on the $24,400 average loan on a new home.

Computed at 34 cents per $1000 monthly savings on mortgage notes would be $8.43, or $3,035 over a 30-year period.

Coker noted that the average loan on existing home is $19,400, which works out to a monthly sav- ing of $6.71 at the 7.5 per cent interest rate. The veteran or ser- viceman would save $2,416 over a 30-year financing period.

VA guarantees 60 per cent up to a maximum of $12,500, which- ever is less, of home loans made to veterans and servicemen.

VA's loan program covers vet- erans of World War II and the Korean conflict who have served at least 90 days of active duty, as well as those who served at least 181 days after January 31, 1955, provided they have not pre- viously used their loan entitle- ment.

Now Is the Time to Register Vehicles for 1971

Now is the time for all good motor vehicle owners in Texas to come to their own aid by regis- tering their vehicles early.

The registration renewal sea- son opened February 1 at county tax offices and designated sub- stations. Tax collectors are obliged by law to begin selling license plates on February 1.

The "season" runs through February and March, although the wise motorist will save time and trouble by registering his vehicle early and by using the handy three-part form he received in the mail from the Texas Highway Department.

All one needs to do is to take the three-part renewal applica- tion—being careful not to sepa- rate the three parts of the form —to the county tax office or sub- station. Using the new form, it takes the clerk only a fraction of the time that it used to to pro- cess the form, collect the fee and send the motorist on the way with his 1971 license plates.

There is an even less painful method. If the vehicle owner de- sires, he may order his license plates by mail. All that is required is to send the renewal applica- tion, the fee plus $1 for each vehicle to be registered to the local county tax office prior to March 1. This allows 30 days for delivery of the plates in time for the April 1 deadline.

New State Map Published by Highway Dept.

How do you make something good even better? In the case of the new 1971 Official State Highway Map released by the Texas Highway Department, it was easy.

This year's map includes the addition of three lakes, the designation of six new comfort stations on non-Interstate routes, a new U. S. highway number designation from near Moore all the way to Mexico, and a new cover featuring a picture of the wonders of Padre Island National Seashore.

The map is a perennial favorite of Texas motorists. Over 1.2 million maps were distributed last year and projections for 1971 call for distribution as high as 1.1 million.

Added to the new official state highway map are Lake Franklin County in Franklin County, Lake Weatherford in Parker County and Lake E. V. Spence in Coke County.

The '71 map will show a new U. S. Highway 57 designation from Interstate Highway 35 near Moore westward to Eagle Pass. This highway joins Mexican Federal Highway 57 at Eagle Pass which continues on to Mexico City. This is the first major international route under a single numeral designation in both countries, a distance of 930 miles.

The map shows some 2,320 miles of Interstate Highways open to traffic in Texas. When the national interstate system is complete, Texas will have 3,176 miles of IH routes.

Visitors will find expert assistance in planning travels in Texas at 11 tourist information bureaus operated by the Highway Department, including the Roy Bean Visitor Center and Cactus Garden at Langtry and in the Capitol building in Austin. Tourist information bureaus also are located at key highway gateways at Anthony, Laredo, Orange, Waskom, Texarkana, Denison, Gainesville, Wichita Falls and Amarillo.

Safety rest areas are designated on the map with a small green square, roadside parks with the familiar green dot symbol.

The official state highway map is one of the most popular of more than 7.3 million pieces of travel-oriented literature distributed each year by the Texas Highway Department. Copies of the map are available at Highway Department tourist bureaus and at department district offices. The map also may be ordered directly by sending name, address and zip code to Texas Highway Department, Travel and Information Division, Box 5064, Austin, Texas 78703.

To the Taxpayers of Foard County and Crowell Consolidated Independent School District:

Each person owning personal and/or real property within the County or Crowell Cons. Ind. School District, is respectfully requested by Dan Callaway and J. H. Gillespie to come by the respective offices at his earliest convenience and render such property for the purpose of taxation.

The law, in effect, provides that all property shall be listed or rendered by the owner thereof, if he is of full age and of sound mind, but when it becomes necessary for the respective tax assessors, their deputies or others who have to be hired for such purpose to seek out each property owner to secure the individual renditions, the expense involved is greatly increased, and this additional expense is borne by the taxpayers.

Your cooperation will be appreciated, and it will save you money. Try it.

H. D. Agent Announces Two Meetings

There will be a clothing workshop sponsored by the Wilbarger family living committee February 23 from 2 to 4 p. m. in the empire room of the memorial auditorium, Miss Helen Fincher, Foard H. D. Agent, said Monday.

The workshop will be conducted by a professional home economist. She will demonstrate various sewing techniques and will answer any questions the audience might have.

Miss Fincher added that on February 24, Miss Suzanne Greene will present a program on sewing with polyester fabrics. She is an educational representative for a zipper manufacturing company. This program will be held from 10 to 12 noon in the assembly room in the court house in Childress.

Miss Greene will answer often-asked questions about polyester—what style pattern, what kind of thread, what type of needle to use, and whether to underline. She will demonstrate sewing techniques and construction hints. Following the one-hour workshop, there will be an opportunity to ask questions.

Miss Fincher says that everyone is invited to attend either of these meetings.

Shade Trees Should Be Pruned During Dormant Season

Shade trees should be pruned during the dormant season to put them in the best possible form for next summer, advises County Agent Joe Burkett.

Bare limbs let you see where to prune and how much, says the county agent. Tangled and low hanging branches should be reshaped and for that matter, the shape of trees or shrubs can be changed through a careful pruning program, he advises.

Most trees need thinning as they approach maturity, but corrective pruning is essential when the trees are young. During the period of rapid growth, branches which have started growing in the wrong position or direction should be removed.

Pruning consists primarily of training cuts, but gradually involves more and more thinning out of weak and finally dead wood as the tree matures.

It's good to remember, points out the county agent, the old adage—"As the branch is bent, so will the tree grow." Make sure the branches or limbs taken off by pruning should come off for they will not grow back. Thus, the pruning done on young dormant shade trees, to a large measure, determines their beauty and health in later years.

Burkett advises that he has information available at his office on pruning methods as well as on treating pruning wounds.

Easter Seal Society Expands Services for Crippled

Because of the steady growth in numbers of crippled children and adults in Texas, the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Texas has stepped up its rehabilitation services.

According to Robert Kincaid, who is the Easter Seal representative for Foard County, over 21,000 handicapped Texans received Easter Seal treatments during 1970.

"Despite medical scientific advances," he explained, "the ranks of the crippled are growing. This is because of population growth, increased number of accidents and medical treatment which saves victims of crippling diseases who might not have lived in past years."

Quoting the annual report of the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Texas, he said that 20 affiliated treatment centers are in operation in Texas. They include treatment and rehabilitation centers, sheltered workshops, recreation and educational programs, and many others.

"Through these programs, persons with a wide variety of handicaps receive the help they need to live normal lives," Mr. Kincaid said.

The largest group served includes those with major deformities of bones and joints, severe speech defects, cerebral palsy, arthritis, muscular dystrophy and multiple sclerosis and stroke. The Easter Seal campaign, which provides funds for continuation of these services, begins March 1 and continues through April 11, Easter Sunday.

The economic cost of heart disease in the United States has been estimated at more than $10 billion yearly, according to the heart association.

Workers Trained To Help Explain Social Security

Some 15 community workers in Wilbarger, Hardeman, Foard and Cottle counties have been specially trained to explain social security to the public in urban and rural areas, according to Wayne Klipping, manager of the social security branch office in Vernon.

Their training included classes devoted to social security retirement, disability, survivors and medicare health insurance programs as well as claims and benefit procedures.

"Individuals with whom these workers come in contact may have had less access than others to information about social security," Klipping said. The training program aims to inform these residents of their social security rights and responsibilities through community workers of the office of Economic Opportunity groups and similar public and private organizations.

Workers completing the course in this area are associated with Economic Opportunity Advancement Corporation of Cottle, Foard, Hardeman and Wilbarger counties, located in Crowell.

The workers are Felix Taylor, Dan Martin, Lucille Carter, Arleta F. Halecnak and Robert E. Harrison of Crowell, Patricia Koon, Christene F. Lyday, Ida M. Forbau and Mary Ann Mason of Vernon; Bobbie E. Gholson and Charlene Eakin of Quanah; Billy Jean Biddy, Wanda Liedtke, Norman McCarroll and Tim Porter of Paducah.

Pond Fertilization Requires Caution

The use of fertilizer has largely been oversold as a way to improve fishing in ponds and lakes, a Texas Parks and Wildlife Department official believes.

"If you have an overabundance of small fish, muddy water or excessive amounts of algae or water plants, fertilization may be a waste of time," said Ted Lowman, assistant coordinator of fish hatchery production.

In other words, Lowman said, improper use of fertilizer can cause further proliferation of undesirable water plants if large beds of rooted vegetation are present. Conversely, too small a dosage of fertilizer can also be harmful.

"There are so many factors involved in the water quality of a pond or lake that fertilization is a hit-or-miss proposition at best," Lowman continued. "You need enough algae bloom to feed the tiny one-celled organisms at the lower end of the food chain, but under adverse weather conditions too much bloom can use up too much oxygen and kill the fish."

The best place to use fertilizer probably is in a new impoundment which has not developed much weed growth, Lowman said. With proper application and a little luck, a bloom of unicellular algae can be formed.

This bloom of plankton is sufficiently dense often absorbs most of the available sunlight, thereby controlling the growth of rooted plants on the bottom of the lake. If too little fertilizer is applied, however, the bloom won't reach proper density and the rooted plants will get the nutrition.

Nutrients definitely are needed to produce a good food chain, Lowman said, but keeping the delicate balance is difficult indeed.

Pond owners who want to improve their water should first check with their county agricultural agent to determine what type of soil surrounds the water. In some cases the water can be improved by adding nutrients lacking in the soil.

Fertilizer shouldn't be dumped into the water. If this is done, most of the material will sink to the bottom and be used by undesirable plants.

Put the fertilizer in a loose-weave burlap sack and suspend it a few feet underwater from the end of a dock or floating raft. Allow it to drift around the lake if possible. Fertilization should be performed in the springtime.

Then, sit back and hope the fertilizer will be the basis for a healthy food chain—a chain at the end of which is a lunker largemouth bass.

Children of Future May Never Need Braces on Teeth

The Public Service Company of Colorado announced that children of the future may never need braces for their teeth or have to worry about cavities. Experiments are currently being done with a laser beam to treat teeth to prevent decay. Used with the proper intensity, the laser seals tiny passageways through which agents of tooth decay penetrate the enamel on teeth. Experimental tests are being done on animals and extracted human teeth. Clinical trials on human subjects are at least two years away, but tests will soon begin on teeth which are scheduled for extraction. Electricity may also be used to straighten crooked teeth and to repair injured and diseased bone. The possibility of negative electrodes stimulating bone production is being explored. It is believed that positive electrodes are associated with diminished bone formation. Experiments have shown that pressure produces a type of electricity in bones which may be the reason for pressure reshaping bones.

Kerosene Lamp?

"As the power companies struggle to keep pace with the ever increasing demand for electricity they have to cope with the clean air and water people, too. There are three sources of power with which to generate electricity: nuclear, hydro and fossil fuels. There are those who damn the dams that supply the hydro-electric plants. Nuclear plants are experiencing opposition. Coal and oil fired plants are under attack, too. If all of them are successful in their aims, we are going to be a bit on the dim side of things, let alone industrial power. We might turn to the old-fashioned kerosene lamp, but if memory serves us right they smoke, too. Oh well."—Rockland, Me., Courier-Gazette.

Work Is Not an Evil Custom of Mankind

"While work can be bothersome and a great nuisance at times, it would be a mistake to consider it an evil custom of mankind. In fact, the opportunity of an individual to work for his own advancement is one of the prized liberties of modern civilization. The satisfaction that comes from work well performed is likewise one of the basic motivations and pleasures of human conduct. While it may be advisable for men and women as they get up in years, to slow the hectic pace of modern business, it is often a mistake for workers to 'retire' in the blissful expectation of a joyful existence until death. In many cases the grim reaper arrives much earlier than anticipated and there is evidence to support the belief that the early visitation is, in part, induced by a radical change in the person's mode of life."—Liberty, N. Y., Press.

Take 'Em Off The Relief Rolls

"Let's take the deadbeats and the moochers off the relief rolls—let's demand that every able-bodied person be required to get off his derrière and earn his keep; there are too many of them (we were wont, in my youth, to call them bums) who find it more profitable to relax and 'let George do it' than to hump themselves at honest work—for their ilk, 'labor' is demeaning. But what about George? That poor guy and his contemporaries are going to fold one of these days, then what is going to happen to the army of idlers who have been living high on the hog at the expense of George's labors?"—Metairie, La., Jefferson Parish Times.

New Club for Taxpayers

"Most taxpayers will surely be interested in joining up with the Lame Duck Congressmen's Hunt Club. This club's purpose is to keep congressmen who were beaten at the polls or announce retirement from making worldwide junkets at taxpayers' expense before leaving office. The Chamber of Commerce of the United States reports that . . . (in 1969) the lame duckers only cost us about $28,000. They have junketed at higher cost in recent years—going around the world, seeing Paris for the first time, etc. They can go wherever they please, and spend as much as they like. There's nothing to stop them—except maybe conscience."—Price, Utah, Sun-Advocate.

Welfare System

"Every working taxpayer screams about the welfare system of this nation. Little did we think we'd find welfare being blamed for the decline in production of moonshine whiskey, but that's what an Associated Press story from Lexington, Ky., says . . . The story says that the art of preparing 'white lightning' is dying. An authority, (a) moonshine producer, says that his county once had 15 men that were talented in the art of making good corn whiskey. Today he says there are only three. He blames a part of the decline on the fact part of the fellows are on 'happy Pappy program or some other kind of welfare.' Maybe Uncle Sam can start some type of government assistance program to preserve the art of moonshine."—Detroit Lakes, Minn., Tribune.

Manager Answers Question on Social Security Benefits

A complaint often voiced by working women is, "I will be entitled to social security benefits on my husband's record. I don't see why I have to pay it."

In reply to the above statement Wayne Klipping, manager of the Vernon social security office, said, "The original social security act was designed to give protection to all workers who are covered by social security. One of the major factors often overlooked by many people is that both men and women are building and maintaining their social security protection as they work. I am not talking just about retirement protection, but about protection in case of disability or death."

Klipping explained that every worker has protection for himself and his dependents in case of disability. Even though both the husband and wife may be working, if she becomes disabled then she and the children could be entitled to social security benefits even if her husband continues to work full time. The same is true in case of death. The children and other dependents have as much protection on a woman's social security record as on a man's.

It is true a female worker can be entitled to social security benefits on her husband's record, but in many cases she will find she is entitled to a higher monthly benefit on her own social security record.

"Working women contribute substantially to the social security program with their tax dollars, but actually they stand to gain just as much, and in some instances more, from the program than their working husbands," Klipping added.

The heart and blood vessel diseases now claim the lives of more than 1,000,000 Americans yearly, being responsible for about 53 per cent of all deaths.
