First Five Years of Texas License Plates on Display in Local Museum

When the 1972 car tags go on sale on February 1, it will be the 56th consecutive year that cars in Texas have been licensed, for it was on April 4, 1917, that the thirty-fifth Legislature passed an act which provided for the creation of a State Highway Department.

Texas colonists' gradual development followed the old Spanish Trails and their covered wagons carried them over roads that were liquid mud in rainy weather and iron furrows in dry weather. Little improvement of roads was made from the "prairie schooner era" to the day of the horse and buggy, but by the late 1800's, the need for better roads was recognized as one of Texas' major problems.

In 1890, a constitutional amendment was passed to provide an ad valorem road tax not to exceed 15 cents on the $100 valuation.

These same three teams will be going to Chillicothe for district games next Tuesday, January 25.

The local teams have been playing some exciting games this season, and fans are urged to go to the out-of-town as well as the home games.

Sponsored by Rotary Club

LITTLE DRIBBLERS ORGANIZED FOR 1972

Little Dribbler Basketball League, sponsored by Crowell Rotary Club, has been organized for 1972 with the following officers selected: Roy M. Whitley, vice president; Floyd C. Borchardt, president; Warren Haynie, secretary-treasurer; and Gordon Erwin, player agent.

Registration is now underway and boys that are eleven or twelve years of age will be eligible to participate in the 1972 basketball program. The age of a boy on September 1, 1972, determines his league playing age.

A fee of $3.50 will be charged each boy and this is to help defray insurance and uniform expenses.

Players that are returning from last year's program will remain on the same team and a draft of new players will be held by the league's coaches.

Present plans call for a four-team league with regular season play to begin on February 15.

The coaches and their assistants will be about the same as last year, and a complete roster of coaches and players will be listed just as soon as possible.

Members of the Rotary Club will again be responsible for operating the concession stand, as well as keeping score and running the clock at all games. Proceeds from concessions will be donated to the school athletic fund as was the case last year.

Little Dribblers Basketball is a national organization with headquarters in Levelland, Texas. This is only the third year of existence and it is growing by leaps and bounds and is being proclaimed by many to be the best program of its kind anywhere.

Crowell advanced to the regional tournament in Friona in 1971, and from the enthusiasm of the coaches, players and fans, don't be surprised to see the 1972 All-Stars in the national tournament in Levelland.

If any boy that is now eleven or twelve years old who has not registered and would like to do so should contact either Mr. Erwin or Mr. Whitley.

 Thursday: ROTC senior boys, 11.

Seniors

Experiments have been done in chemistry this past week. Many consisted of different types of acids which must be handled very carefully, as well as, breakable graduates and test tubes. Isn't that right, Nancy and Beth?
 Wednesday, a March of Dimes film was shown to the student body. Many realized how their dimes and quarters could help children with birth defects.
 Sharla Haynie showed slides to the civics class on her trip to Washington. It was very educational and enjoyed by all.

The Junior Journal

American history class started using a new type of learning method. Instead of doing a study guide every day, a group of four present reports on a section of a chapter. There are eight groups of four, and each group has a chairman.

When in the course of human events, Mrs. Drabek tells us to memorize . . . In the English III classes, the study of American literature has begun. Before Christmas, the period of American literature during colonial times was covered. One of the assignments while studying American literature during the revolutionary period was to memorize the first part of the Declaration of Independence. Students recited to the rest of their class beginning on Thursday and ending on Monday.

Congratulations are in store for one junior on the Wildcat football team. Rocky Bachman was named to the all-state first team defense. He was on the all-state second team defense last year. Congratulations, Rocky! (Of course, you realize this means that you have to be an All-American next year!)

Good luck to all of the Wildcat basketball teams. The girls' and the boys' B teams opened district play last Friday evening against Chillicothe. Tuesday, these two teams traveled to Paducah. This Friday night, the boys' A team joins in the district action when all three teams play Munday at Munday. The juniors are represented on all of the teams, and we are proud of all three teams.

Sophomore News

With the new semester underway, sophomores are still involved in books, basketball games, band and other activities revolving around school life.

Congratulations are in order to Julie Streit who made all-district band last month. Julie advanced to all-region tryouts, and made second chair bassoon. She is now eligible to advance to all-area band later this month. Congratulations and good luck, Julie!!

Freshman Frolics

The freshmen haven't done much but school work this week. It seemed as if all the teachers had it in for us and decided to get even by giving us homework.

Some freshmen are trying out for junior high all-region band next Saturday, Jan. 29. They are Barbie Scott, Cheryl Garrett, Arthur Cerda, and Jacquelyn Brown. Good luck!

Band Notes

Dwain Crosby, Carolyn Jones, Babs Streit, Nancy Looney and Julie Streit traveled to Iowa Park Friday, January 7, to try out for the All Region II Band. Nancy, Julie and Babs made the band and won the right to advance to area try-outs. Several towns included in the region are Wichita Falls, San Angelo, Abilene, Childress and Henrietta, with 28 counties represented. The area tryouts are held in Fort Worth on January 22. This area includes four regions. Dallas and Fort Worth are two of the included cities.

There are 59 counties represented in this area. In each of the four region bands in this area, only the first half of each band advances to area. For instance, if there are 24 clarinets, only the first 12 go to area. The try-out music for district, region, and area is the same. It is constituted of three difficult exercises which are performed before a panel of judges. The judges rate each performance and select the best players to be in the band. In Texas there are five areas. If a person makes all-area band, he is in the all-state band. At all-state, there are two bands, the symphonic and concert bands. If they accept 20 flutes from the entire state, 10 for each band, only four from each area are chosen. This is approximately four flutes out of 25 chosen from each area. The competition is very strict, since there is no distinction between class A, AA, AAA and AAAA. The try-outs are on a strictly individual basis. Good luck to Nancy, Babs, and Julie at Area!

Friday, January 21, Munday Moguls will be the Wildcats' aim when the teams travel to Munday to play at 5:00.

Big Tax Bite

The Phillips Petroleum Company notes that according to the American Petroleum Institute's Committee on Public Affairs, the average American would protest loudly if he had to give up an amount equivalent to half his annual net income to pay his taxes. But, in effect, that's just what the oil industry paid, and more, in 1967—the latest year for which such information is available.

all-state lineman on defense for class A football. This is a real honor for Rocky and Crowell High School.

Would Certainly Help Our Balance of Payments Picture

A. M. Tewksbury writes in the Oregon Voter Digest: "The U. S.'s careless way with its balance of international payments is often criticized by contemptuous Europeans. They conveniently forget that $19.1 billion of their World War I debts to the U. S. remain unpaid. Then our government has loaned $46 billion in taxpayers' money to other countries in the period 1939-71. Of that $27.6 billion hasn't been repaid. If these Europeans would get busy and pay us these huge sums, our balance of payments would be very healthy indeed."

Revisions Made in Texas Driver Qualifications

Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White has reminded Texas farmers and ranchers of revised driver qualification regulations which should give significant relief from the stringent regulations that were in effect in 1971.

New exemptions were made for farmers and ranchers by the U. S. Department of Transportation after many complaints were filed against restrictive farm driver qualification regulations last year.

The new regulations which became effective January 1 include:

1. Farm vehicle drivers operating trucks weighing 10,000 pounds or less are totally exempt from the driver qualification rules.
  2. Farm vehicle drivers operating straight trucks weighing in excess of 10,000 pounds within 150 miles of their farms are totally exempt from the rules.
  3. Farm vehicle drivers 18 years or older operating a tractor-trailer unit within 150 miles of the farm are exempt, except they must be physically qualified but need not be physically examined and certified until January 1, 1973.
  4. Drivers employed by custom operators are granted total exemption while transporting custom harvesting machinery to or from a farm and while transporting the custom-harvested crops to storage or market.
- The original regulations required drivers to be 21 years of age, submit to road tests, written and physical examinations, background checks and other regulations imposed undue burdens on farmers whose families helped in growing and harvesting crops, White said.

A research group from the Birmingham, Ala., Veterans Administration hospital recently reported information on a newly identified disease, thyroid deficiency, which results from lesion in the brain.

The Veterans Administration is urging veterans to take 22-week courses in water pollution control now available at nine community and technical colleges around the country.

By Bill Boykin
Texas Press Association

Austin, Tex.—An interesting political poll was taken at the Gulf Coast Press Association's board of directors' meeting in Houston January 8. Fourteen newspaper publishers were asked: "Who do you think will win the 1972 Governor's race in Texas?"

Seven said Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes, four named Dolph Briscoe and two listed Gov. Preston Smith.

The same editors were asked about their vote.

Eleven voted for Dolph Briscoe, two for Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes and one for Governor Smith.

SENATE CAMPAIGN — The political campaigns moved into full swing with announcement by former U. S. Sen. Ralph W. Yarborough that he would make a comeback try for a Senate seat.

Yarborough, 68, revealed his plans in a series of whirlwind news conferences at Austin, Houston, Dallas, Fort Worth and San Antonio. He seeks the Democratic nomination to oppose Republican Sen. John Tower.

Barefoot Sanders of Dallas, already running for the Senate as a Democrat, welcomed onetime political ally Yarborough to the race as "one of our fine senior citizens."

Yarborough said he had never had so successful a campaign opening day. He stressed his nearly-14 years' experience as a progressive senator, and said in answer to questions about his age: "I'll be around campaigning as long hours as anybody else, if not longer."

The former senator's entry took some of the spotlight away from the warming governor's race where Gov. Preston Smith, Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes and Uvalde rancher Dolph Briscoe are starting to mix it up.

Five Democratic candidates are moving around the state in the lieutenant governor's race.

Treasurer Jesse James, Comptroller of Public Accounts Robert S. Calvert and Commissioner of Agriculture John C. White during the last week announced for reelection. Calvert and James are expected to draw some opposition.

State Rep. Frances Farenthold of Corpus Christi announced she is "taking a serious look" at prospects for a gubernatorial race, but has not ruled out challenging Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin.

SCHOOL DECISION APPEAL — The State Board of Education voted unanimously to appeal the monumental federal court decision that the Texas property tax method of financing schools is unconstitutional.

Meanwhile, the board assumed responsibility for drafting a new plan for supporting the school system and ordered a task force be formed to do the study job in the event an appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court fails.

The state, according to Texas Research League, has several options. One is full state financing, which by 1974 would require an expenditure of a billion dollars a year just to maintain the status quo.

Another alternative is state-local financing that would provide approximately equal resources for each child. The League suggested redrawing district boundaries to redistribute property values or superimposing multi-district taxing regions over present operating districts to provide equalization by regions.

A decision, the League noted, must be made as to whether the real estate educational expenditures at the present level in rich districts or at a lower "average level." The latter would mean reducing the number of teachers and lowering salary supplements in some districts to create more positions and higher salaries in the poor districts.

REPUBLICANS EAGER — Texas Republicans in a recent meeting here boasted of wide-open opportunities in 1972 presidential and U. S. Senate races, for doubled state legislative strength and possible election of a governor.

Scandals in state government and prospects of single-member House (legislative) districts offer the GOP its biggest chance to elect candidates and achieve reform through two-party government, the Republican State Executive Committee was told repeatedly.

The GOP issued verbal invitations to the GOP unhappy Democrats and Independents, regardless of political philosophies, to enlist in Republican ranks.

AG OPINIONS — Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin declared the controversial new code of ethics for state and local officials unconstitutional and was commended by Governor Smith and Secretary of State Bob Bullock.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded: "A school of veterinary and zoological medicine at Texas Tech University can be approved by simple majority vote of the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System. New and separate institutions require a two-thirds vote of the Board."

A witness in a criminal case under subpoena is entitled to mileage and witness fees.

Jim Wells County commissioners redistricting of commission precincts August 11 is void due to failure to publish notice of changes.

INSURANCE CUTS ORDERED — The State Insurance Board has directed lower collision insurance premiums for motorists whose cars are equipped with new damage-resistant bumpers. No domestic manufacturers have yet certified cars that meet the standards, however.

Twenty per cent discounts were ordered for 1972 cars with bumpers that can stand a five-miles-per-hour collision, front or rear, without damage. Fifteen per cent cuts will be in force for new cars with bumpers which can stand a five-mph front end crash and 2 1/2-mph rear end bump. Ten per cent reductions apply for 1972 autos sustaining a five-mph front and 2 1/2-mph rear collision without damage to lights, fuel, exhaust, cooling or latching systems or to the bumpers themselves.

URANIUM MINING EYED — Street-by-street tests with sensitive scanning equipment to record possible abnormal radioactivity from uranium mining operations will be made in the South Texas area.

Air and ground surveys by the State Health Department have disclosed no evidence of public health hazards, and none is anticipated by S.H.D. However, health problems have been reported in Colorado where a gas released by radium remained in tailings or wastes after usable uranium is extracted. The wastes there were used for construction fill.

Towns to be covered in the screening include Floresville, Karnes City, Kennedy, Three Rivers, George West, Tilden, Pleasanton, Leming, Poth, Hobson, Falls City, Helena, Panna Maria, Coy City, Lenz, Caesar, Pawnee, Mineral, Oakville, Simmons, Calhoun, Whistett, Peggy, Campbellton, Christine, McCoy and Caughran. Uranium mills operate in Falls City and near Three Rivers.

Governor Smith is considering a recommendation for a state-wide food stamp program which would call for about $17 million in state aid to counties and would produce $286 million in federal assistance for the needy.

Rural development may be the answer to pollution, urban crowding and rural poverty, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White contends.

"Biologist and the Boy" Available for Local Showing

The award-winning conservation film, "Biologist and the Boy," is now being distributed by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department's film library.

The 14-minute film, narrated by Arthur Godfrey, deals with the threat to the nation's estuarine areas. It was financed by the five Gulf Coast states in cooperation with the U. S. Department of Interior's Bureau of Commercial Fisheries.

There is no charge for use of the film, and its length makes it suitable for luncheon meetings. The film won the U. S. Industrial Film Festival's Award for Creative Excellence in audio-visual communication.

Charlie Papa Productions produced the film, and it has been distributed by United Artists to commercial theaters since the summer of 1969.

Pheasant Hunters Not Too Successful

The nine-day Texas Panhandle pheasant harvest was down from last year, according to Texas Parks and Wildlife Department officials. Hunters this year took approximately 7,000 birds compared to 12,000 last year.

Biologists for the department blamed the decrease in harvest on a number of things including a lower population of birds this year and rain and snow before and during the season.

The bad weather before the season prevented farmers from turning under the large tracts of crop stubble, and during the season, hunters had a difficult time driving to hunting areas due to the mud.

Only 35 per cent of the hunters this year got birds compared to 57 per cent last year.

LOOK BEFORE YOU BACK!

Two Minutes With the Bible

Justified Without a Cause

God tells us in His Word that believers are "justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus" (Rom. 3: 24). The word "freely," here, does not mean "without cost," but "without cause." The same original word is so translated in John 15:25, where we find the words of Christ: "They hated Me without a cause."

Thus sinners hated Christ "without a cause," yet God justifies sinners "without a cause." How can this be? Let's see:

What had Christ done to earn the enmity of men? Nothing whatever. He had been kind and good, had helped those in distress, had healed their sick, had made the dumb to speak, the deaf to hear, the blind to see and the lame to leap for joy. Why, then, did they hate Him? The Bible says they hated Him "without a cause," i. e., without any cause in Him. The cause of their hatred lay in their own evil hearts.

But on the other hand, what have sinners done to merit justification before God? Again the answer is: Nothing whatever. They have broken His commandments every day, lying, stealing and committing hundreds of other sins. Yet in love God gave His Son to die for them on Calvary "that He might be just and (at the same time) the Justifier of him that believeth in Jesus" (Rom. 3:26). He loves and justifies believers "without a cause," i. e., without any cause in them. The cause is to be found in His own compassionate heart, for "God is love."

Thus those who trust in Christ, who died for our sins, are justified without a cause, by God's grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus.

"God commendeth His love toward us in that while we were yet sinners Christ died for us" (Rom. 5:8).

"By this Man is preached . . . the forgiveness of sins, and by Him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses" (Acts 13:38,39).

Proclamation: "3.76 in '76 Week"

Whereas, the Texas agricultural industry, in all of its phases, continues to be our most important industry, and

Whereas, agriculture continues to have great growth potential in our county with the rewards from such growth accruing to the benefit of all citizens, and

Whereas, there is an urgent need for an active crusade to increase the public's knowledge, acceptance, and appreciation for the highly significant contribution which agriculture makes to the economy of our county and to the level of living enjoyed by its citizens, and

Whereas, it is recognized that all citizens of this county have a vital stake and a legitimate self-interest in the general well-being of the farmers and ranchers who provide the great abundance and variety of food and fiber of highest quality which we all enjoy, and

Whereas, "3.76 in '76" is a well-conceived program designed by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, with the endorsement and active support of agricultural agencies, organizations, and individual leaders, to help the agricultural industry achieve its full potential through an intensification of efforts by producers, agri-businesses, and professional agriculturists to bring about an increase in income to Texas farmers and ranchers of $1 billion by the end of the crop year 1976, and

Whereas, $610 million of the $1 billion goal has been achieved through the 1971 agricultural season, and

Whereas, the achievement of an increase of $1,134,500 in agricultural income by the end of crop year 1976 will improve the net profit and competitive position of Foard County farmers and ranchers and make highly significant contributions to the future economy of the county,

Now therefore, I, Leslie Thom-

IRS Gives More Details on Posting Requirements

Retailers with revenues of less than $200,000 annually are no longer subject to base price posting requirements, Ellis Campbell, Jr., district director for North Texas, said Tuesday. This decision was announced Saturday by the Price Commission.

These retailers, while still subject to other price commission regulations, do not have to post signs listing the base prices or signs announcing the availability of base price information.

These retailers are still required to make available base price information if asked by customers. They will also still be subject to monitoring and spot checking by the Internal Revenue Service, and documentation of base prices must be made available to IRS if requested.

Price Commission Chairman C. Jackson Grayson, Jr., said: "The commission believes this decision will remove an undue administrative burden on those small retailers who do not have the personnel or facilities to comply with the posting requirements. This is consistent with the intent of Congress as expressed in the Economic Stabilization Act."

In other action, the Price Commission reported it has informed the American Pharmaceutical Association that the commission has reaffirmed its position that the sale of drugs is a retail activity. The commission emphasized, however, that its decision should not be interpreted as an intention to detract from, reduce or remove the professional status of pharmacists.

Additionally, the commission informed the association that Internal Revenue Service has advised the commission that if a pharmacist places a standard compilation of wholesale legend drug prices plus a listing of his professional fee or markup, along with a 22 by 28 inch sign indicating the location of such information, the pharmacist is in compliance with the regulations. The list must be in the pharmacy and accessible to the public without the aid of a store employee, however, the commission reported.

Pharmacists still must post prices of non-legend drug items according to commission regulations. However, under today's ruling those pharmacists doing less than $200,000 in business annually would be exempt from all posting requirements.

Congressman Bob Price and Wife Visit in Crowell

Mr. Price Comments On Wide Variety of Topics at Meeting

Congressman Bob Price Thursday of last week held a town hall meeting in Crowell at the community center which is, for him, a continued tradition of bringing the functions of the federal government closer to every citizen.

Congressman Price maintains two district offices in Northwest Texas and in addition has a district representative who travels throughout the area in an effort to bring the congressman's office closer to those who may, by virtue of distance or circumstance, have difficulty in traveling to the district offices.

Congressman Price was accompanied by his wife, and he was introduced to the group of about 20 persons, by Mrs. Bob Parris, who along with her husband are serving as Foard County chairmen for Mr. Price in his bid for reelection.

The Pampa congressman, who is paired with Congressman Graham Purcell of Wichita Falls following the latest redistricting of the state, expressed his opposition to bussing of school children.

In commenting on reducing federal spending, Price said he favors consolidation of some of the different departments, and added as an example that there are 180 separate aid to education programs at the federal level and these 180 programs are administered by 129 different agencies.

He said President Nixon's revenue sharing measure would bring money into the nation's towns and cities with "no strings attached" as to how it will be spent. He said he favored a tax credit method which would keep the money at home, instead of sending it to Washington, giving the bureaucrats 40 per cent and then sending the remaining 60 per cent back.

He added that since the plan to combine various government functions has been mentioned, all federal agencies are fighting the president, as Price says they all are thinking of their jobs.

He expressed his opposition to the welfare program as it is now being administered. In commenting on welfare, he said that there is actually a union composed of welfare recipients in Washington, D. C., and this union is proposing that the government guarantee $5,000 minimum income to all those on welfare.

In other comments, Price wished for a 2-party system in Texas; urged some type of trade be taught to high school students; grant tax incentives to industry which go to a small town; a tax incentive to industry to train workers in the small communities; a home owners repair relief act which would grant $1,000 tax relief to Americans to repair their homes.

He commented on the fact that two U. S. firms invested $73 in electronics manufacturing facilities in Taiwan last year. He cited the cheap cost of labor where the average worker receives $30 a week.

The congressman told those present that he intends to visit here several more times in the coming months.

Three birds which cannot fly are the emu, kiwi and ostrich.

What We Need

"What the country needs most is for everyone to pick up their shovel and start producing an honest day's work. Just maybe, the protestors who are feeding on past generations and the rest of us, may take the hint. A good soaking sweat will make them realize there is a joy in a day's accomplishments without being critical of the other fellow." — Upsala, Minn., News-Tribune.

THE INFORMED CONSUMER

BY CRAWFORD C. MARTIN
Attorney General of Texas

"Nearly new nationally-advertised brand zig-zag sewing machine for $24.95."

"Complete brake job for $15.00."

"Four rooms of furniture for $199.95."

Do the above "eye catchers" sound familiar? Most consumers at one time or another have responded to such advertisements, often hurrying to get there so they can take advantage of the tremendous offer before the merchant's supply of the product is exhausted.

Many times these consumers are met with a constant belittling of the advertised product and are purposely switched to another more costly product by a smooth talking salesman.

Other times they are told the item is sold out even though the ad says the sale is good for three days and the store has only been open for ten minutes on the first day. They just happen to have a similar item, however, at a higher price. What a disappointing experience for the consumers who alertly see through the sales gimmick, and how tragic for those consumers who do not!

"Bait and switch" advertising is prohibited by both federal and state law. "Bait and switch" is a practice whereby an offer is made not in order to sell the advertised product at the advertised price, but rather to draw consumers to the store to sell them another similar product which is more profitable to the advertiser. The merchant is even unwilling at times to sell his "bait" item to the customer. It is not unusual for a merchant who engages in such tactics to actually fine his salesman if the advertised merchandise is sold.

Remember that merchants are operating their businesses to make a profit, and they cannot afford to give away their merchandise. Certainly not all merchants engage in the "bait and switch" form of advertising. There are numerous specials and other sales run each day that are bona fide, and they do not fall within the "bait and switch" practice. However, when an ad is just too eye catching to be true, you should carefully analyze it and then scrutinize the salesman's presentation. Don't be victimized by the "bait and switch" salesman!

Whenever you discover a business which engages in "bait and switch" advertising, be sure to notify Attorney General Crawford C. Martin, Attorney General of Texas, P. O. Box 12548, Capitol Station, Austin Texas 78711. By doing so, you will help us protect others who are unaware of this advertising gimmick.

Unwelcome Buck Lands in Motorists Lap

You've heard of bees in the bonnet, ants in the pants and bats in the belfry.

Are you ready for a deer in your lap? Bob Magouirk, superintendent of Eisenhower State Park, escaped serious injury recently when his car struck a seven-point buck crossing U. S. Highway 75 near Denison. The struggling animal shared the front seat with Magouirk after crashing through the windshield.

Luckily, the crashing buck expired at about the same time Magouirk got the vehicle stopped. The driver was treated at a Denison hospital for minor cuts and released.

The living veteran population reached the 28.5 million mark in October, according to the Veterans Administration.

Classing Office Grades 19,000 Samples in Week

The USDA Cotton Division Classing Office at Altus graded 19,000 samples for the week ending January 14, and recorded a season total of 87,500 samples classed, according to C. E. Cox, officer in charge. Last year at this date, with the cotton harvest almost complete, 182,800 samples were reported.

Total classed from north Texas counties this year stood at 13,000 samples, compared with 25,800 to this date last year.

Grades on north Texas cotton classed during the week were 77 per cent spotted, the predominant per cent light spotted, and 20 grade was 42, accounting for one-half of the total. Grade 52 was in second place with one-fourth of the total. Twenty-six per cent was reduced in grade because of bark or grass.

Staples were predominantly 30 and 31. Thirty-four per cent was staple 30, 32 per cent staple 31, 13 per cent staple 32, and 12 per cent staple 33. Micronaire readings were in the 3.5 to 4.9 range on 88 per cent of the samples. Pressley readings showed fiber strength falling mostly in the ranges 75,000 to 89,000 pounds per square inch, with the average being 80 thousand pounds.

The Consumer and Marketing Service reported marketing activity declined slightly, although demand continued good on all qualities. Prices ranged from 29.00 to 32.50 cents per pound, with the average 31.55 cents, about 80 points lower than the previous week. Cottonseed prices steadied at $56 per ton.

Waste Disposal

The story of Polk County's solid waste disposal plan will be one of the featured presentations at the 14th annual County Judges and Commissioners Conference February 9-10, at Texas A&M University. More than 600 county officials from throughout the state are expected to attend.
