A hunter safety course-the second to be held here-is being planned for Tuesday night, March 20, Friday night, March 23, and Saturday afternoon, March 24. Joe and said that he, John McAlister and Jim Mack Gafford will be the instructors.

The night sessions will begin at 7 o'clock and will last about two hours. The course will be taught in the Crowell High School

Eligible to attend is any person 12 years of age or older. Anyone younger than 12 may attend, but will not be given a certificate until they are 12. Brown said that during the first school, which was taught last October, several complete families attended the course, and he encouraged family participation this

Some states already have laws requiring the completion of a hunter safety course before the issuance of a hunting license, and it is predicted that within a relatively short time, anyone who gets a hunting license in any state must first satisfactorily complete a hunter safety course.

The show, which is sponsored annually by the Crowell Rotary Club, was one of the better shows in many years, according to club president Bill Bell. It was the 34th year for the Rotary Club to sponsor the local show-which is one of the better shows in this section of the state.

Joe Haynie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Haynie, showed the grand champion steer, an Angus. Haynie's steer finished just ahead of Michael Daniel's bald-faced Angus-Hereford cross which took reserve champion honors.

The sheep division was the largest of the show with 68 animals entered in competition in seven divisions.

Billy Eavenson's Suffolk cross walked away with top honors when show judge Dr. Dennis White of Vernon, area livestock specialist with the Texas A&M University extension service, named his animal as grand champion of the market lambs. Billy is the son of Crowell. Reserve champion went to Jay Wall, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Wall. Jay showed a Suffolk.

Twenty hogs in two classes were on hand for the show which saw Patsy Williams' light weight Yorkshire take grand champion honors. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Williams. son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Borchardt of Crowell.

Showmanship awards went to Jonna Naylor, hogs; Jerry Daniel, sheep, and Joe Haynie, steers.

Forward Contracting

Forward contracting is a financial management tool that is helpful to producers when prices are changing, contends a specialist for the extension service. It fixes the price of a product so that there is less financial risk to the producer. A written contract is best as it prevents any misunderstanding between buyer and seller.

To the Taxpayers of Foard County and Crowell Consolidated Independent School District:

Each person owning personal and-or real property within the County of Foard or Crowell Cons. Ind. School District, is respectfully requested by Emmett E. Howard and J. H. Gillespie to come by the respective offices at his earliest convenience and render such property for the purpose of taxation.

The law, in effect, provides that all property shall be listed or rendered by the owner thereof, if he is of full age and of sound mind, but when it becomes necessary for the respective tax assessors, their deputies or others who have to be hired for such purpose to seek out each property owner to secure the individual renditions, the expense involved is greatly increased, and this additional expense is borne by the taxpayers.

Your cooperation will be appreciated, and it will save you money. TRY IT.
