Bloodmobile Due July 9th; 63 Pints Are Needed

The Red River Red Cross Bloodmobile will make its semi-annual appearance in Crowell Tuesday, July 9, from 3:30 to 7 p. m. at the First Christian Church with a quota of 63 pints of blood to be met.

Foard County Blood Program Chairman, Mrs. Audrey Collins, cited a special need to go over the 63-pint quota on Tuesday because only 35 pints were collected at the last Bloodmobile visit here in January. The quota that visit was 50 pints. New donors are important to the program because most of the people who give blood now are the same ones who give every visit.

Mrs. Collins stated that people do not realize how important blood is until someone in their family needs it desperately. This year, a number of surgical patients have used blood because of low blood counts and medication was not adequate treatment prior to surgery. Also, this past year a hemophilia patient used 89 units of plasma which is received from Carter Blood Center but is replaced by the Red Cross. Red Cross has already transferred 40 units of blood to replace the plasma used by this patient. If a person had to buy this plasma, it would be very expensive for the family.

"It is necessary that Foard County collects from donors at least the 63 pint quota which is actually the projected number of units of blood which we will use until the next bloodmobile visit," said Mrs. Collins.

If Foard County does not reach its quota, donors from other areas will make up the differences but if the shortage of donors here becomes regular, the local hospital may be asked to drop out of the blood program. If that is the case, Foard County Hospital would have to operate with a "walking" blood bank, recruiting donors as the need arises. Many times there is not time to call up matching donors when emergency blood is needed.

The Foard County Hospital is one of 35 hospitals served by the bloodmobile serving a population of 350,000 in a 20,000 square mile area stretching from Wellington, Texas, to Mineral Wells and from Ada, Ok., to Stamford. The headquarters is in Wichita Falls.

Almost all types of blood can be had in an hour simply by calling the Bloodmobile center in Wichita Falls who will then deliver the blood by special emergency vehicles.

HOT WEATHER CARE FOR PETS

Pets deserve special consideration with the approaching summer weather, contends a veterinarian at the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. A dog should have access to shade and plenty of clean drinking water. He should be fed early in the morning and again late in the evening. Continue to exercise your pet but not in the heat of the day. Adjust the food intake to the exercise and energy used. A dog should not overeat or eat when he is hot or exhausted. Cats should also have access to shade and fresh drinking water. Do not take pets on shopping trips or vacations.

Major appliances usually are coated with an acrylic enamel finish that can be cleaned with warm water and detergent. Avoid use of ammonia, alcohol, chlorine bleach, abrasive cleaners or strong solvents, warns Doris Myers, of the extension service. These solutions can permanently damage appliance surfaces. If you must scrub, use a little baking soda on a damp cloth, the specialist says.

Rotary Baseball Team Shows Lots of Hustle

Although the Crowell Rotary Baseball team is at the bottom of the Vernon Colt League standings, they are tops in hustle, desire, and determination. Coach Carl Brock says, "I'm very proud of these boys and the way they never give up."

Many times this year they could have thrown in the towel but they kept fighting until the last out. Our record is one win and 6 losses, but this is no indication of the calibre of team we have. Ninety-five percent of our games were so close that we could have won instead of lost. This team has won the respect of the Vernon fans, coaches and players.

The Wildcats lost two games last week. They were to the top ranking Hawks and the second place Medics.

On Monday the Medics put Crowell down 12-6 in a game much better than the score indicates. Wildcat pitcher Richard Williams got off to a bad start on the mound as he issued 5 walks and 3 base hits to the Medics the first time they come to bat. Wallace Sillemon came on in relief and also couldn't find the plate and before the first half of the inning was over, Vernon had scored 7 big runs.

The Wildcats settled down after that however and by the 4th inning had narrowed the margin to a respectable 9-6 score, but three errors in the top of the 5th inning allowed Vernon 3 more runs and that was enough.

Crowell did not hit the Medics 7 to 5. Steve Stapp had his best game at the plate with 2 singles and a double. Allen Tapp hit a single and a tremendous double that almost cleared the 385 foot center field fence. Adrian Martinez rounded out the hittings with two singles.

Last Friday night, Crowell lost its most heart-breaking game to the league leading (7-1) Hawks.

The Wildcats had this one all the way until the last half of the last inning. Allen Tapp pitched a fine game and the only two hits he gave up did come in the last inning.

The Wildcats led 5-1 and looked like a sure winner but the Hawks used three walks and 2 hits plus one error to score the five runs needed to win the game.

Leading hitters were Stapp, Martinez, and Keith McDaniel, each with 1 single.

If you enjoy baseball and would like to have a free evening of entertainment, then Vernon Kid League Park is the place to be this Saturday night at 8 p.m. as the Wildcats take on the No. 1 ranked Hawks.

A report early Tuesday morning said that the Wildcats got out of the cellar Monday night when they defeated the Rangers 13-4, which brought the Cats up to a tie with the Rangers, each with 2-6 records. The Wildcats rapped out 11 hits for their best night yet at the plate.

Steve Stapp led the attack again with 3 hits in 4 trips to the plate. Keith McDaniel had 2-4, and Jack Whitley banged a triple late in the game.

Wallace Sillemon started on the mound and went all the way for the victory. His teammates played almost errorless baseball in the field. Sillemon gave up only 2 walks and 5 base hits scattered over the 6-inning game.

"We hope the July Jamboree will draw an even bigger crowd of singers, musicians, and fans." Paul Bullion stated in announcing plans for the second program under the stars.

The program will be free and everyone is invited. Sandwiches, coffee, and cold drinks will be sold in the community center. The Truscott Community Center Association is working to raise money for equipment, maintenance and the re-modeling costs.

Certification Protects Producer

With less than a month until the July 15 deadline for farm program sign-up-and-certification, Foard county grain and cotton producers were reminded that program participation provides disaster insurance and eligibility for support loans and payments.

"Now that the crops are planted, we want to remind farmers to come by the ASCS county office at their convenience to sign up and certify—just as long as they do so by July 15," said Thelma Borchartd, acting executive director for the Agricultural Stabilization Service in Foard County.

Mrs. Borchartd explained that the 1974 procedure is different from previous years when there was a sign-up period ahead of planting and a certification period after planting. Now a farmer makes only one sign-up-and-certification visit to the county office and can even sign up by mail if he chooses.

Sign-up and certification are as important as ever to producers, Mrs. Borchartd said. She pointed out that the new agricultural law includes provisions for disaster payments to participants if their feed grain, wheat or cotton crops are lost or the yield substantially reduced because of natural disaster. Also, as in prior years, eligibility for support loans and payments is dependent on being in the program.

Accuracy is also as important as ever in certifying crop acreage. Measurement service is available at cost from the ASCS county office for any program purpose for those who want to make use of it. Spot checks will be made at random on Foard county farms following certification to be certain that certifications were correct.

"Remember, July 15 is the last day farmers can sign up and certify their farm program participation," Mrs. Borchartd said. "We hope every eligible producer has visited or gotten in touch with the Foard County ASCS office before then." The opportunity to sign up is available to farmers without regard to race, color, creed, national origin, or sex.

Medicare Doesn't Pay for Prescription Drugs

Kenneth R. King, manager of the Vernon social security office, said many people are asking about getting help from Medicare in paying for their prescription drug bills. The Medicare Program does not pay for any drugs unless a person is a hospital patient. Prescription and nonprescription drugs purchased by or dispensed to a patient outside a hospital are not paid for by Medicare.

Bills have been proposed by congress to pay for drugs through the Medicare program. However, none have yet been passed. Sometimes bills are passed by the appropriate committee of the house or senate and people get the idea it has become law. However, it takes passage by a majority of the house and senate and the President's signature before the law is changed.

The major reason people are confused about drug payment is that they confuse Medicare with Medicaid.

Medicare is for social security beneficiaries who are 65 and people who received social security disability payments for two longer. Medicare is to help pay for hospital and bills. It also helps pay for durable medical equipment, outpatient hospital care. The Medicare Program is administered by the Security Administration. Payment of benefits are by private contractors such as Blue Cross-Blue Shield. Medicaid is for people who Supplemental Security payments and receive other benefit programs administered by the individual Welfare Departments. Medicaid is for people who are medically indigent. Medicaid does help pay drug bills.

Many people are confused about both Medicare and Medicaid and sometimes they are confused about which program has paid for their drugs. King emphasized that those who have questions Medicare should contact local Social Security Office. Those who have questions regarding Medicaid should contact their State Welfare Office.

Plans for Homemaker

SALLY SOWELL
County Extension Agent

Homemakers can make dustcloths at a fraction of the cost of bought ones. All help with this is appreciated with the use of household items. Some preparation is required. Two tablespoons of polio or liquid wax are added to a quart jar or can to coat inside surfaces. Excess liquid is avoided by coating inside of the jar with a light film of wax. Place two or three cloths in the jar or can. Let stand a day or two—they absorb the liquid or wax. Another method combines a cup of lemon oil with eight cloths and let absorb as much liquid as possible. When the water is wrung out each cloth and dried thoroughly, use old cotton cloths. Always store dustcloths in a covered jar or can to prevent a fire. When they become soiled, wash in warm water and treat again.

before and after using them for raw meat or poultry. Never place cooked or ready-to-serve meat or poultry on the same surface or utensil as that used for raw products unless you have completely sanitized that surface or utensil. If possible use separate cutting boards for raw and cooked products, to avoid "cross-contamination." Wash your hands often during preparation of foods and when cooking outdoors. Take along disposable wash cloths, plates, and utensils when on a picnic.

Remember Monday, July 8 is the Foard County Dress Revue. Judging for contestants will be at 4 o'clock in the Methodist Church. The dress revue will be at 7 o'clock in the Methodist Church. The contestants planning to enter must have completed a clothing project and must turn in a project record at the time of judging. Senior girls must in addition to a project record have completed a National Report Form and Personnel Data Sheet. These forms are available in the county extension office. The dress revue is open to the public and all are invited to attend.

New Officers Installed by Rotarians

A new slate of officers for the coming year was installed Tuesday night, June 18, when the Rotary Club of Crowell held a ladies night program and dinner in the basement of the local Methodist Church.

Roy M. Whitley was installed as president, replacing Bill Klepper, who served as president during the past year. Ike Everson is the new vice president, and Bill Posey the new secretary-treasurer. Directors are W. F. Statser, Bill Bell, Bud McLain and Buster Borchardt.

Preceding the introduction of the new officers, Rotarians Marvin Myers and Joe Burkett showed slides of the 4-H and FFA project show taken during the past seven years, and Whitley told the group about the Little Dribbler basketball and the new baseball team program, all sponsored locally by the Rotarians of Crowell.

LETTER TO EDITOR

I don't know how I could get along without the Foard County News. I look forward to its arrival. When it is a couple of days late, I am disappointed. I get word of a lot of old friends and enjoy the paper a lot.

For a while it seemed that the wheat crop was doomed, but it was really great the way it turned out. Old Foard County (or maybe it was the Lord) has come through again.

Masterson Bunkhouse Dedicated at Lubbock

Lubbock—The Mastersons' JY Bunkhouse was dedicated as a part of the Ranch Headquarters Saturday (June 22), commemorating both the cattleman who helped build the ranching industry and the cowboy who worked seven days a week "from can to can't" for a dollar a day.

The bunkhouse from the JY Ranch in King and Knox Counties was moved to the Ranch Headquarters and restored there by the Masterson family in memory of Robert Benjamin (Ben) Masterson, who was born in Lawrence County, Ala., in 1853 and who died in Amarillo in 1931. He had spent his 77 years building a legend out of a pioneer spirit which incorporated integrity, loyalty, and an intelligence that allowed him for most of his life to do big business bookkeeping in his head.

John Lott, president of the Ranch Headquarters Association, made the dedicatory remarks in accepting the bunkhouse for the Ranch Headquarters, an authentic outdoor exhibit depicting the ranching history of America's West. It is a part of The Museum of Texas Tech University and already has most of its 20 buildings selected from Texas ranches and restored on the site.

Lott's grandfather, John B. Slaughter, established the U Lazy S Ranch and his and the Ben Masterson families were neighbors in Fort Worth where ranch families often lived in winter to be close to schools.

The bunkhouse was on a part of the King County land purchased from the Masterson family in 1956 by Ed Lowrance of San Antonio, and he donated the structure to the association. Its age is unknown, but it was remodeled in 1887.

Moving and restoration were made possible by a $15,000 memorial gift from descendants of R. B. Masterson Sr., and many of the donors were present for the dedication.

They are Masterson's three surviving daughters and the families of another daughter and two sons: Mrs. Z. T. Scott (Sallie Lee Masterson); Mrs. D. S. Kritzer (Anna Belle Masterson); Mrs. John Fain (Mary Masterson); and the C. Weymouth family for Mrs. Weymouth (Fannie Fern Masterson) deceased; Mrs. Beaumont Stinnett (Peggy Masterson), her brother, Bennett Masterson, and her two daughters, Mrs. Wayne Damier and Mrs. John Boyce, for R. B. Masterson Jr.; deceased; and R. B. Masterson III and Mrs. Tom Masterson Jr. for Tom Bennet Masterson, deceased. All but Mrs. Scott, of Austin, attended the dedication along with others of the Masterson family, making it one of the largest of their reunions.

R. B. Masterson III of Guthrie, grandson and namesake of the JY's founder, responded to Lott's dedication and cut the leather thong officially opening the bunkhouse.

Also participating were Texas Tech President Grover E. Murray, the Rt. Rev. George H. Quarterman of Amarillo, retired bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Northwest Texas, and Bob Nash, assistant manager of Radio Station KFYO, who was master of ceremonies.

"Those who knew Masterson personally had three things to say of him," Lott said. "They were: 1) his honesty—his word was his bond; 2) his deep loyalty to his family and their welfare; 3) his amazing ability to carry facts and figures in his head. It was only in his later years that he kept a set of books."

Masterson had a brief career of six months as a school teacher, and he once contemplated banking, but he saw in neither a life that suited him as well as cattle raising.

In 1910 he sold 71,000 acres, left the remainder of the ranch in charge of his sons and moved to Amarillo to enter the banking business. He changed his mind, said Lott, on the philosophy that you can hire a man for $50 a month to out think a cow, but it will cost $500 to hire one to out think a crook.

For a time he had 122,000 acres in Moore and Potter counties, and for seven years he grew calves on the King County ranch and matured them in the Panhandle.

Although he did much to stock the country with fine white-face Herefords, Lott said, he bought an imported herd of Aberdeen Angus and stocked the King County ranch with one of the Southwest's finest herds of black cattle.

He began his ranching career near Pfeugerville in South Texas when he was 18 years old, breaking sod for his neighbors at either $5 an acre or a heifer yearling. He earned 65 head that way, traded his ox for 150 more and borrowed money from his father to buy 350 more.

Masterson was married twice. His first wife was Sally Lee Exum whom he married in 1880, and after her death he married her sister, Anna, in 1886.

As the cattle country opened to the north and west, Masterson moved on with successive homes in Lampasas, Mobeetie and Amarillo, and often with winter homes in towns near schools, like Round Rock and Fort Worth.

Masterson himself was most likely to be on the ranch, and there the bunkhouse was used by cowboys coming into headquarters to get cleaned up, take their monthly pay and go to town.

"They worked seven days a week from can to can't," Lott said, "for one dollar a day and some of them simply rode the grub line—that is to say they received no pay. They just wanted food and a safe place to sleep. They usually owned two horses."

It was these cowboys who used the stone bunkhouse, throwing their saggans on the floor and warming themselves at the hearth. It is the life they lived that is better understood by visitors who see the bunkhouse at the Ranch Headquarters. It is the bunkhouse which will remain as a symbol of the ranch industry as it was built by R. B. Masterson Sr. and others of his era.

Among those attending the dedication was Joe Gordon of Crowell, who was one of the cowboys who spent many a night in the old bunkhouse.

SCS Says Parallel Terraces Help Control Soil Erosion

Parallel terraces continue to be the most economical means of preventing soil erosion and conserving moisture, in addition to fitting the needs for modern day farming equipment.

There are many advantages of parallel terraces in comparison to conventional terraces. Terraces constructed parallel, whether graded or level, allow faster and easier cultivation by elimination of point rows, less turning on crops, allows more moisture to be conserved, and less erosion damage and loss. Reduced soil losses results in less pollution and sedimentation of the ponds, lakes and streams below.

Also a more efficient operation can be carried out with modern multirow equipment. A high efficiency operation becomes more important with current prices on the increase, therefore, any reduction in costs are beneficial.

With the current demand for more food production the parallel system allows more cultivatable land to be used that is presently lost to excessive ponding of water in inadequate terrace systems.

A horizontal distance between terraces allows an even number of rows to be cultivated, whether on 80, 120, or 160 feet intervals. These intervals allow surface run-off water to be intercepted more evenly and carried if needed to a stable outlet at a non-erosive velocity.

Any terrace system not serving the purpose designed for, whether it be lack of maintenance resulting in broken terraces, or improper grade can be more detrimental than no terraces at all. Water concentrating to a given point and allowed into an unsuitable outlet results in severe gully erosion.

Several landusers in the Foard County Soil and Water Conservation District, with assistance from the Soil Conservation Service, are presently in the process of constructing a parallel system on their farms. They are: Floyd Carl Borchardt, Eldon Whitman, Grover Moore, Jeff Bell, Kenneth Halbert, Henry Black, Thomas Hughston, Edgar Long, and Johnnie Fay Easley.

Now Is the Time to Sign Up for Rural Water

In a letter just received by Henry Black from Fred Parkey, general manager of the Red River Authority of Texas, Mr. Parkey urges that all citizens of Foard County who are interested in rural water to make application now, for this might be the last time.

A deposit of $100 per meter is required, which is refundable if the project does not materialize.

Saturday, June 29 is the deadline, for maps must be made of the proposed routes and then the engineer has to estimate the cost of the project.

Letters have been written to the Texas Senators and to the Congressmen urging them to make more grant available for the sparsely settled areas.

"Each property owner should think of the permanent value to his place if he has a good dependable supply of water. Maintenance is free and there are no electric bills," Mr. Black says.

Karen Gray and Mr. Bridges Exchange Vows

In a candlelight ceremony held Saturday in the First Methodist Church in Crowell, Miss Karen Elaine Gray became the bride of Barry Odus Bridges. The Rev. Wilson Holman, pastor of the Epworth Methodist Church of Abilene, officiated at the double ring rites.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Gray of Crowell and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bridges of Quanah.

Votive candles forming a double arch and flanked on each side with tree and spiral candelabra interspersed with palms decorated the wedding scene.

Traditional wedding music was played by Miss Rhonda Vecera at the organ and Miss Julie Streit at the piano. Miss Vecera accompanied Miss Pam Whatley as she sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Wedding Prayer".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of silk organza over peau de soie. Venice lace was fashioned in a pinafore effect on the empire bodice. Lace covered peau de soie enhanced the Victorian neckline and encircled the waist. The long sheer sleeves were trimmed with the same lace and were complemented with a ruffled lace cuff. Tiny tucks and bands of lace centered with bridal buttons extended from neckline to hemline on the dress front. The full sheer skirt and chapel train were traced at the hem with a ruffled lace flounce. The cathedral length veil of English illusion was caught by a Juliet Venice lace headpiece re-embroidered in seed pearls. The bride carried an old fashioned nosegay bouquet of yellow roses, Marjuerite daisies and baby breath.

For something old and borrowed, the bride wore a ruby ring which her maternal grandmother wore on her wedding day and which has been worn by her daughters and granddaughters at their wedding. The bride also had the traditional blue garter and sixpence in her shoe.

Miss Sandy Whitfield was the maid of honor and Mrs. Steven Gray of Vernon, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Mrs. Donnie Foerster and Miss Marcia Bridges of Quanah, sister of the bridegroom and Miss Cindy Wisdom were bridesmaids. All were identically attired in delicate yellow flocked voile over lawn formal gowns designed with empire waists, square necklines and elbow length puff sleeves. The full gored skirts, which ended in deep gathered flounces, were trimmed at the waists by apple green ribbon with Dior bows and streamers accenting the back. The attendants wore matching yellow picture hats trimmed in apple green ribbon and carried nosegays of pastel Marjuerite daisies.

Miss Janalleesa Manard was flower girl and Steven ten Brink of Iowa Park was ring bearer. Donnie Foerster was the bridegroom's best man. Groomsman were Steven Gray of Vernon, brother of the bride, Patrick Woodard of Hereford, brother-in-law of the bride, Lynn Clemens of Carrollton, brother-in-law of the bridegroom and Ronny Naylor. Ushers and candlelighters were Jody Bridges of Quanah, brother of the bridegroom, Gary Barnes of Quanah, Glen Hughes and Leslie Hughes of Paradise, cousins of the groom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Gray selected a daffodil yellow voile shirtdress formal gown with lace insertions on the waist front and long sheer sleeves. She wore matching accessories and cymbidium orchids.

The bridegroom's mother chose a pastel blue crepe formal gown with round neck, empire waist and short cap sleeves. Her accessories were white and she wore cymbidium orchids.

Reception

The bride's parents hosted a reception in the Fellowship Hall of the Church. The bride's table was covered by a white satin cloth with a floor length gathered ruffle and centered with a silver epergne holding white tapers and garlands of pastel daisies. The all white four-tiered wedding cake was encircled by daisies and crowned by a petite arrangement of daisies. Other appointments were of crystal and silver. The groom's table, laid with a beige linen cloth, held an arrangement of a ball and chain nestled in greenery. A horse-shoe shaped chocolate cake and silver service completed the decor.

Mrs. Patrick Woodard, sister of the bride, registered guests at a register table covered in satin as the bride's table and holding a memory candle encircled at the base by daisies.

Changes Stated in Social Security

Three separate changes will take place July 1 which will affect the amount of Social Security checks received in July, according to Kenneth R. King, Social Security Branch Manager in Vernon. These changes will result in increased benefits for most people.

The first of these changes is an automatic 4% increase which most social security beneficiaries will receive. This is the final step in an 11% two-part increase passed by Congress last year. The first step of 7% was included in April 3 checks. People who also receive the new Supplemental Security Income benefits would normally notice a decrease in their Supplemental Security checks equal to the amount of the increase in their regular Social Security check. However, also starting in July is an increase in Supplemental Security benefits of $6.00 for an individual or $9.00 for a couple who are both on the rolls. This will largely offset any decrease due to the Social Security raise.

The final change in July is in the cost of the medical insurance part of Medicare. This cost will increase for most people by 40 cents per month—from $6.30 to $6.70.

This increase will be deducted from the checks of persons receiving checks who have Medicare.

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex. — A flood of Mexican aliens, estimated at more than a million a year, is pouring into Texas, according to a new Texas Good Neighbor Commission report.

More than half the illegal entrants cross the Rio Grande into Texas.

Good Neighbor Commission said the number of such entries is greater than the total number of immigrants who entered the U.S. legally from all the countries of the world.

Last year, the GNC noted, 575,000 deportable Mexican aliens were found in the U.S., and immigration officials figure one escapes for every one apprehended.

Sophisticated smuggling techniques aid the crossings.

Immigrations have a social and economic impact in virtually all regions, since the aliens move on to metropolitan areas all over the U.S. in search of better jobs and safety from arrests.

Top AFL-CIO officials promptly called for tough new state laws making it an offense to hire illegal aliens, punishable by stiff fines or prison terms.

DEMOCRATS TO DELAY — Democrats are still in a dither about whether they should "recess" their September 17 state convention until September 19 to avoid a conflict with a high Jewish holy day.

A rules change to allow the delay will be aired at a special meeting of the State Democratic Executive Committee in Austin July 16.

If hotel rooms can be made available September 19, SDEC will consider the change (to keep the convention from falling on Rosh Hashana, the Jewish New Year). But a three-fourth majority is necessary to order the rules amendment.

APPOINTMENTS — Clyde Johnson of Bulverde and San Antonio was named by Gov. Dolph Briscoe to the Texas Water Quality Board, succeeding the late Gordon Fulcher of Atlanta.

Briscoe also named E. Carl Dillard of Pearsall to the State Judicial Qualifications Commission. He reappointed five State Health Advisory Committee members and appointed as new Committee members Mrs. Edd Henard of Wellington, Mrs. Emma Nugent of Orange, Mrs. H.L. Long of Kilgore, Mrs. Marie Bynum of Longview, Rogers Wilson of Austin, W.W. Manley of Terrell, Rev. Claude Black of San Antonio, Domingo Pena of Corpus Christi, Ernest Coker Jr. of Conroe, Ronnie Boules of Pecos and Ed Baker of Arlington.

AG OPINIONS — Atty. Gen. John Hill held a newspaper's donating free space to an official's column when he is a candidate for reelection is not a campaign contribution under the law.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

* A county commissioner may not be paid for serving as appointed lawyer for an indigent defendant.

* Texas Water Development Board has a duty to approve or disapprove plans for proposed levees along any stream subject to floods or overflows.

* An appointed attorney who represents both an indigent criminal defendant in district court and a juvenile in juvenile court the same day may not receive more than one fee.

WELFARE ROLLS DECLINE — Fewer Texans got welfare benefits last year, the Department of Public Welfare reported.

The department's annual report showed Old Age Assistance was down from an average of 210,000 monthly in 1972 to 182,000 in 1973.

Aid to Families with Dependent Children declined from a peak of 121,588 in February 1973 to 118,681 families in July.

COURTS SPEAK — The State Supreme Court held unconstitutional a new state law regulating juke boxes and other coin-operated amusement machines.

Attorney General Hill called on the U.S. Supreme Court to accelerate a Texas case challenging impoundment of water pollution funds by President Nixon.

Austin, San Antonio and Lower Colorado River Authority called on the Third Court of Civil Appeals to require the Texas Railroad Commission to force Lo Vaca Gathering Company to live up to its gas supply contracts.

The Court of Criminal Appeals upheld a life sentence given a Dallas man for assault to murder a police officer.

A hearing was set in the Supreme Court for July 17 on whether two elderly sisters can get back $100,000 and 7,500 acres of land they gave to the Stephens County Museum, Inc.

The high court ordered the Dallas Court of Civil Appeals to take another look at adequacy of a $4,146 damage award given a Van Zandt County man who was bitten on the hand by a neighbor's hog.

OIL ALLOWABLE SET — The statewide oil allowable for July was fixed by the Railroad Commission, for the 28th straight month, a 100 per cent level.

Major crude oil buyers asked for 3,843,362 barrels of oil daily in July, a decrease of 36,087 from June.

Commission Chairman Jim Langdon pointed out that the U.S. still imports 1.5 billion barrels of crude annually — a "very long way" from self-sufficiency.

Exceptions to the 100 per cent order were East Texas and Kelly-Snyder fields which were restricted to 86 per cent production.

BEAUTIFICATION AWARDS MADE — Seven cities received Governor's Community Achievement Awards for outstanding community beautification projects during the last year.

Winning cities were Stanton (under 2,500); Eastland (2,501 — 5,000); Athens and Jacksonville (5,001 — 10,000); Lufkin (10,001 — 20,000); New Braunfels (20,001 — 60,000) and San Antonio (over 60,000).

Eighty-six communities submitted entries in the competition. Awards were made at the seventh annual meeting of the Beautify Texas Council here.

BUDGET HEARINGS START — Hearings of the 1976-77 state budget — the first to use the new zero-base system — are under way.

Some of the early requests by state agencies reviewed by the Legislative Budget Board and the governor's office are running almost twice current spending.

Requests, under the new plan, are divided into three levels — bare minimum, middle bracket and highest feasible.

SHORT SPORTS Twenty key state agencies report substantial employment increases for blacks and Mexican-Americans.

New textbooks considered for school use will go on display July 1 in 20 regional education service centers.

A $48,000 state award from the Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation will assist Attorney General Hill in legal research on rights of the mentally retarded.

Foard County Mill Extends L. L. Lead

The Foard County Mill extended its lead in the league following last week's action which saw them win over VFW, while Farmers Elevator and Crowell State Bank were splitting their games. Here's brief accounts of last week's games:

Last Tuesday night in the early game, the Mill won 14-3 over VFW. Scoring the Mill runs were Ronnie Wasia, Mike Brown, John McGee, Guy Todd, Leslie Denton, Freddie Collins, Vincent Anderson and Perry Lee Henry. Getting VFW's three runs were Bobby Joe Gerda, John Halsell and Ken Gentry.

In the second game that night, the Bank won 13 to 11 over Farmers Elevator. Scoring for the Elevator were Bill Santos, Ronald Neal, Ray Santos, Dan Brown, Ken Gentry, Eddy Rodriguez, David Dunn, and James Garcia. For the Bank, runs were scored by Joe Brown, Billy Bond, Jeff Christopher, Dan Klepper, Randy Hardy, Roger Hardy, Larry Criss, Vincent Anderson and Perry Henry.

On Friday night in the first game, the Elevator walloped the Bank 9-5. Ray Santos Jr. struck out nine men during his three innings of pitching.

The last game was an exciting one, which saw VFW jump to an early lead over the Mill, make one comeback after getting behind and finally losing by a 13-12 score. Leslie Denton for the Mill hit the first over-the-fence home run of the season in the first inning and he enjoyed it so much he did a repeat in the fourth inning.

Foard Families to Be Honored by Ag. Dept.

Farmers and ranchers in Foard County whose families have held the same land since 1874 or before will be honored by the Texas Department of Agriculture's "Family Land Heritage Program," according to Commissioner John C. White.

The program, which will be initiated July 1, will "pay tribute to those families who have proved their respect for and dedication to the land."

This county has some of the oldest establishments in the state, with a long history of dedicated service to the agricultural community and I hope that every qualified family will take this opportunity to be recognized by the people they have served, White said.

Applications and rules for the program may be obtained by writing Commissioner White, P.O. Box 12847, Austin 78711. Any family who is certified by Judge Leslie Thomas will qualify for the honor. An applicant need only show a continuous family relationship between the founder of the homestead and the present owner.

The land must have been in use for agriculture by the family since 1874 or before, must be at least 10 acres and producing $50 or more from agricultural products.

Those who do qualify by August 31 will be recognized in a special ceremony at the State Fair this year and short history of their family and land will be published in a land heritage directory. In addition, local recognition will be provided to the families for their long dedication to agriculture.

Attendance Is "Good" at Swimming Pool

Attendance at the Crowell swimming pool is running exceptionally well so far this summer, Gordon Erwin, pool manager, said last week. Over 100 are signing in at the pool on an average day, and Sunday is proving to be exceptionally good day for swimming.

He added that up until last year, Sunday was not usually an exceptional day for attendance, but last summer and thus far this season, the attendance reaches well above the week day tally.

FEWER DAIRY COWS, MORE MILK
Texas dairymen have culled their herds by some 8,000 cows, but they expect to produce about 30 million pounds more milk and butterfat during 1974, reports an economist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and Texas Agricultural Experiment station. With continued good prices, total income from dairying should increase from $261 million last year to $300 million in 1974. But feed costs have increased 47 per cent while the prices received by dairymen have increased only 30 per cent. That's a net loss of 17 per cent. Due to the increasing costs of milk and dairy products, consumption has dropped some during the past year.

Greenbelt Water Sales Continue to Increase

The Greenbelt Municipal and Industrial Water Authority will provide between 900,000,000 and one billion gallons of water this fiscal year which closes June 30, General Manager Jimmy Kuhn told members of the Rotary Club of Childress at their meeting last week. The following report of Mr. Kuhn's remarks were taken from the Childress Index of Thursday, June 20.

At the present time users of the water have taxed the filtering plant to its capacity of 6,000,000 gallons of water a day.

Kuhn said that the capacity of the filtering plant should be doubled before many months.

"The reservoir has the capacity to produce 10,000,000 gallons of water a day and we could be using that before too long a time," he said.

The Authority is seeking water rights on other watersheds near the damsite.

All of the member cities have shown a gradual increase in water consumption since 1970 but the biggest increase has come from the Red River Authority which provides water for the rural areas.

"Eventually the Red River Authority could be the biggest user from the Greenbelt," he said.

During the 1970-71 fiscal year Red River used 21,521,000 gallons; 22,803,000 the next year; 47,115,000 the next and this year will use 98,731,000 gallons.

"We are told that Red River will add another 500 customers this year and has plans to have over 3,000 customers within the next few years which will make it the biggest customer," Kuhn said.

At the present time Childress is the largest user, Quannah next and then Clarendon, Crowell and Hedley last.

New rates are expected to be the same as charged member cities.

"The rates must be approved by the Texas Water Development Board as well as the directors of the Greenbelt," Kuhn said.

The Texas Water Development Board has underwritten the bonds of the Greenbelt.

Overall consumption of the Greenbelt has shown a steady growth in the past three years: 1970-71, 746,112,000; 1971-72, 762,429,000 and 1972-73, 871,905,000.

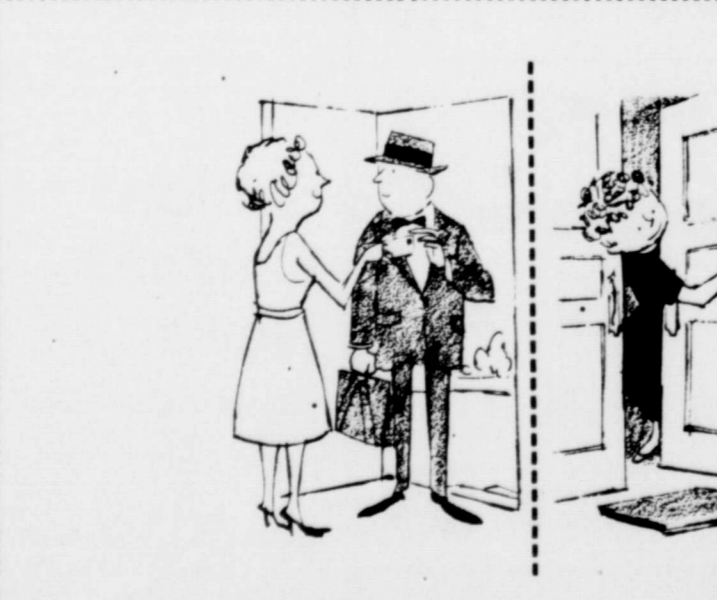

The consumption for the past 11 months has passed 800,000,000.

"At the rate the water is being consumed right now, I feel that the annual consumption will pass 900,000,000 gallons at the close of this fiscal year," Kuhn said.

Future plans of the Greenbelt also include a 4,000,000 gallon reservoir immediately west of Childress, use of the old Quannah reservoir which has the approval of the Texas Department of Health and a 1,000,000 gallon reservoir between Quannah and Crowell.

Commission Chairman Jim Langdon pointed out that the U.S. still imports 1.5 billion barrels of crude annually — a "very long way" from self-sufficiency.

Exceptions to the 100 per cent order were East Texas and Kelly-Snyder fields which were restricted to 86 per cent production.

BEAUTIFICATION AWARDS MADE — Seven cities received Governor's Community Achievement Awards for outstanding community beautification projects during the last year.

Winning cities were Stanton (under 2,500); Eastland (2,501 — 5,000); Athens and Jacksonville (5,001 — 10,000); Lufkin (10,001 — 20,000); New Braunfels (20,001 — 60,000) and San Antonio (over 60,000).

All of the member cities have shown a gradual increase in water consumption since 1970 but the biggest increase has come from the Red River Authority which provides water for the rural areas.

"Eventually the Red River Authority could be the biggest user from the Greenbelt," he said.

During the 1970-71 fiscal year Red River used 21,521,000 gallons; 22,803,000 the next year; 47,115,000 the next and this year will use 98,731,000 gallons.

"We are told that Red River will add another 500 customers this year and has plans to have over 3,000 customers within the next few years which will make it the biggest customer," Kuhn said.

At the present time Childress is the largest user, Quannah next and then Clarendon, Crowell and Hedley last.

New rates are expected to be the same as charged member cities.

"The rates must be approved by the Texas Water Development Board as well as the directors of the Greenbelt," Kuhn said.

The Texas Water Development Board has underwritten the bonds of the Greenbelt.

Overall consumption of the Greenbelt has shown a steady growth in the past three years: 1970-71, 746,112,000; 1971-72, 762,429,000 and 1972-73, 871,905,000.

The consumption for the past 11 months has passed 800,000,000.

"At the rate the water is being consumed right now, I feel that the annual consumption will pass 900,000,000 gallons at the close of this fiscal year," Kuhn said.

Future plans of the Greenbelt also include a 4,000,000 gallon reservoir immediately west of Childress, use of the old Quannah reservoir which has the approval of the Texas Department of Health and a 1,000,000 gallon reservoir between Quannah and Crowell.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT
THE SPOTLIGHT, a Field Enterprises Educational Corporation publication, says, "Stressing the importance of the home and the part parents play in the influential 'learning' years of their children is not a new concept. Read and interpret the following statement as food for thought. 'Judicious mothers will always keep in mind that they are the first book read and the last put aside in every child's library: every look, tone and gesture, nay, even dress, makes an impression.' This quote comes from a letter that was written in the 1800's regarding mothers and education."

Greenbelt Water Sales Continue to Increase

The Greenbelt Municipal and Industrial Water Authority will provide between 900,000,000 and one billion gallons of water this fiscal year which closes June 30, General Manager Jimmy Kuhn told members of the Rotary Club of Childress at their meeting last week.

The following report of Mr. Kuhn's remarks were taken from the Childress Index of Thursday, June 20.

At the present time users of the water have taxed the filtering plant to its capacity of 6,000,000 gallons of water a day.

Kuhn said that the capacity of the filtering plant should be doubled before many months.

"The reservoir has the capacity to produce 10,000,000 gallons of water a day and we could be using that before too long a time," he said.

The Authority is seeking water rights on other watersheds near the damsite.

All of the member cities have shown a gradual increase in
