Bi-Centennial Program Set for Thursday Night

Foard County has joined scores of communities who are planning and implementing programs in observance of 200 years of American Independence.

The first activity in this celebration is scheduled for Thursday evening at 7:30 at the High School Gymnasium when Foard County residents will have the opportunity to share in a patriotic program.

The Color Guard from Sheppard Air Force Base in Wichita Falls will be on hand for the presentation of Colors, after which Dr. Arthur Beyer of Wichita Falls will present a State Bicentennial Certificate to Don Welch, chairman of Foard County Bicentennial Commission, and the National Certificate and the Bicentennial Flag to Mayor Robert Kincaid. Dr. Beyer is chairman of the Wichita County Bicentennial Commission and is a faculty member at Midwestern University.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Jean Halbert, local speech teacher, and Mr. James Streit, band director, a patriotic program, "Let Freedom Ring" will be given by narrator, Dwain Crosby, soloist, Steve Setliff, High School Chorus, and the Crowell Band.

On February 20, Crowell was named a Bicentennial city. Across the nation, projects are to be developed in three thematic areas; Heritage '76, projects related to local history; Festival '76, projects of celebration; and Horizons '76, projects to provide for the future, such as creation of parks and mass tree-planting in cities. At least one project is to be permanent in nature, a lasting reminder to future generations that the local community was involved in the Bicentennial Celebration.

Students to Enter Contests

James Streit, Crowell school band director, will be taking about 30 fifth and sixth grade band students to a contest at Iowa Park Saturday.

Mr. Streit's students will be entering solos and ensembles in the contest.

Truscott Judged in State-Wide Contest

Judges for the Texas Community Improvement Program were in Truscott Tuesday judging that community which is an entrant in the statewide contest. A program was held at the Truscott community center at 10 a.m. Tuesday, and following the program, the judges toured the community.

The contest is open to all communities of 1,000 people or less and the scoring is made on progress the community makes in a 12-month period, March 31 to March 31. Communities are not judged one against the other, but are judged on progress made by organized group effort.

One of Truscott's major accomplishments during the past year has been the completion of a fine community center in one of the down town buildings. Many meetings are held at the center, along with the musical programs held during the summer on the street in front of the center.

Announcement of the winners is expected within the next few weeks.

While the program will be predominantly composed of contemporary "songs with a beat", it will also include sacred music of other periods as well. The choir is made up of about 20 youngsters who love to sing, most of whom have been singing together for several years.

"All of their music is dedicated to the Creator who continues to make possible New Beginnings in every sense for every life," Mrs. Walter Stapp, director, said this week in announcing the concert.

Mrs. Ella Ann Howard is accompanist for the choir.

I hate the phone, dear diary, I'm mad today so I'm going to write down all the things I hate.

My sister saw me drop the flowerpot. I hate big-mouthed, tattle-tale sisters. I have to do chores tonight. I hate to clean the bird cage. I hate my parakeet. I hate rabbits and I hate the chicken. So I hate eggs.

Mary bought a blouse like mine. I hate green and purple together. I hate to hurry to town. My dad only drives 55. I hate people who drive 60. The store was out of sneakers. I hate people who are first with everything. I tried to dye my hair red. I hate dyed hair. I hate redheads.

I have to iron. I hate too much starch in my clothes. I hate oatmeal mush. I hate toast. I hate to get my own breakfast.

I didn't do my English homework yesterday. I hate my English teacher.

I hate smart-aleck boys who won't ask for dates. I hate junior proms. Someone called Jo Ellen for a date. So I hate the phone.—Dear Diary, he just called me on the wonderful phone and asked me to go to the wonderful prom with him. Dear Diary, I love everybody.

Trims and braids are an important part of the '75 spring and summer look. There are several ways to help the home-sewer achieve a professional look. Preshrink trim before applying. Handle trims loosely and without tension when stitching. Use thread that matches the trim. Mark the exact professional look. Use trims composed of synthetic fabric. Permanent synthetic trims are as well as cotton. Use a light thread if applying trim. Polyester thread gives better results than doesn't shrink laundered. Pin or baste trim working with a full trim. This avoids a piece too short. If the pattern for trim, home determine yardage by measuring pieces at the exact trim. Add 1/2 yard to allow for joining at corners. It's better a few inches left than be a few inches short. Subtle layered robes, are still in. Currently leading and Italian designs showing tunics separates in collections. OUTSTANDING CONSERVATION FARMERS HERBERT AND HENRY FISH

The Fish Brothers, who have been SWCD cooperators since 1951, review their conservation plan with J. A. Marr, Chairman of the Foard County SWCD.

Henry and Herbert Fish, who farm in the Vivian community, were named by the Foard County Soil Conservation District as the Outstanding Conservation Farmers for the past year.

Henry and Herb Fish became district cooperators in August of 1951. They began using technical assistance provided by the Soil and Water Conservation District and soon had developed their conservation plan to start treating their various erosion problems on a regularly scheduled basis. They first built some terraces to conserve water and prevent erosion, and constructed two farm ponds to improve distribution of livestock grazing on their rangeland. Herbert stated that in late 1964, he and Henry decided it was time to accelerate their conservation work. They discussed this with their neighbors and applied to the Soil Conservation Service for Great Plains Conservation Program funds to help them get ahead of the gullies and the invading mesquite and redberry juniper. As soon as the conservation plan on the farm was updated they entered into a complete conservation program to treat every acre of the farm for elimination of soil loss from both wind and water. Their objective was to conserve all water that fell on the farm.

The next conservation practice was the construction of 16 acres of grassed waterways to control outside floodwater that came through the farm. After the waterways were established the old erosion causing crooked terrace system was leveled and 13½ miles of parallel terraces constructed. Three diversion terraces were built to carry the outside water to the new waterways. Ninety-eight acres of rolling shallow land, too steep to farm, was planted to native grass.

Areas accessible to the present livestock water ponds were greatly overused and grown up with mesquite so thick you could hardly walk through it. Areas away from water were being underused by livestock. To remedy this, three cross fences were built and another farm pond was constructed for rotational and deferred grazing. Areas with thick mesquite were rootplowed and established to native grasses. The rest of the rangeland was chemically treated to control mesquite. Areas were treated on alternate years in order to leave good habitat for quail and dove, and to allow each pasture a time of deferment so the grass could improve its vigor.

At the Lions Club meeting which was held to honor the Fish Brothers for being Foard County's Most Outstanding Conservation Farmers, Henry stated that their conservation work had conserved valuable soil and water, provided needed food and cover for wildlife, increased production of both grass and crops, and also will protect the land for future generations for a more productive environment.

RECENT SOIL CONSERVATION WORK DONE IN FOARD COUNTY

COASTAL BERMUDA PASTURES

Picture shows Soil Conservationist Thomas Shinn examining Coastal Bermudagrass on J. F. Matthews farm. This year, Coastal Bermudagrass is being sprigged on the following farms: Denny Prince, Duane Capps, Larry Kimsey, Leon Speer, Guy Crews, T. R. Cates, Henry Black, Frances Owens, J. T. Tamplin and Dr. Water Stapp. Coastal Bermudagrass is very good at holding down soil loss and is very productive if well fertilized. It needs either irrigation or extra water from adjoining land to help in establishment in Foard County.

GRASSED WATERWAYS

This picture shows sprigging Coastal Bermudagrass on Guy Crews waterway. Dr. Walter Stapp, George Self, Denny Prince, Leon Speer, Mrs. Frances Owens, Clarence Garrett and Setliff & Glover have recently constructed grassed waterways. These waterways are constructed to handle floodwater or to provide safe outlets for terraces. Most waterways in Foard County are planted to native grasses or sprigged to Coastal Bermudagrass.

Test of Strength Soil Stewardship Week May 4-11, 1975

Soil Stewardship Week, a nationwide observance which emphasizes man's responsibility to protect and conserve soil, water, and other natural resources, is being observed this week—May 4-11—this year, J. A. Marr, chairman of the Foard County Conservation District, said Monday.

This year's theme, "Test of Strength," emphasizes "how the many changes now occurring in the nation 'test our strength' and affect our continuing responsibility to be good stewards of the land," said Mr. Marr.

Mr. Marr cited food and energy shortages, environmental pollution, and the growing concern over land use as examples of changes and development affecting the use of America's natural resources.

"We hope," said Mr. Marr, "that during Soil Stewardship Week, millions of Americans will pause for a moment to consider their responsibilities for the protection and use of the Lord's earth."

Members of the Foard County Soil Stewardship Committee are Eldon Whitman, David Seitz, and Thomas Shinn.

The district, upon request, will provide local churches with copies of this year's observance booklet. The material was prepared by the National Soil Stewardship Advisory Committee of the National Association of Conservation Districts. The advisory committee is composed of churchmen of different faiths.

Nineteen hundred and seventy-five will be the 21st consecutive year that the almost 3,000 similar districts throughout the nation have sponsored Soil Stewardship Week. The custom of setting aside special "Rogation Days" for this purpose began more than 1,500 years ago in France, when French peasants prayed for help after crop failures had brought widespread hunger.

Teams Tied for Little Dribbler Lead

The Spitfires and Wranglerettes were tied for the lead in the girls Little Dribblers league with this week's games played on Tuesday and Friday nights instead of Monday and Thursday. In fact, the season ends on Friday night, May 9. Following the close of the season, the coaches will be selecting an all-star team to play in the regional tournament May 22.

Since Tuesday Night's games were played too late to get the story in this week's edition, here's an account of last week's action:

In the first game last Thursday night, the Cuties won 5-4 over the Blue Birds. Betty Coleman with 3 and Kim Clifton with 2 points accounted for the Cuties points, while Lynne Johnson scored all 4 points for the Blue Birds.

In the second game the Green Jeans squeezed by the Hot Shots 22-21. Annette Coleman had 8 points for the winners, Kay McDaniel scored 7, Michelle Field 4 and Cathy Carroll scored 3. For the Hot Shots, Inetta Tucker led with 15 points, Cindy Ainsworth scored 4 and Neomi Rodriguez scored 2.

In the last game of the night, the Wranglerettes blasted the Spitfires 47 to 30. Jody Graves probably set a scoring record for the girls as she pumped in 43 points for the Wranglerettes. Debra

Land Use is R-PEP Topic of Meetings

Planned land-use in the Texas Rolling Plains will affect the agriculture of the vast area. But how?

The question and others related to land-use will be discussed at two meetings sponsored by the Outdoor Recreation Task Force of the Rolling Plains Economic Program (R-PEP).

Both meetings begin at 2 p.m., the first on May 8 in the Community Center at Jayton, and the second on May 9 in the First National Bank at Graham.

Edwin T. Garnett, district Extension agent of the co-sponsoring Extension Service, said speakers would also discuss the historic perspective of land-use; the techniques, tools and authority related to land-use; and the state and federal legislation proposed to regulate land-use.

Speakers will be economist Kenneth E. Graeber and land-water-use specialist Dr. Billy R. Harris, both of the Extension Service.

The pledge was led by Debra Kajs and the prayer given by Cindy Ainsworth. Minutes from the previous meeting were read by Debra Kajs and approved. New business included announcement of clothing projects, horse club, and rally day. The program was given by Sally A. Sowell and she gave the program on clothing, 'A Winning Wardrobe'. The next meeting will be held in September.

THE LORD'S AUTHORITY

One can hear many doctrines proclaimed from the pulpits of today. Though some believe it is good to have different "gospels" preached, the New Testament does not sanction such. In fact Christ prayed for unity of all believers in John 17.

From the New Testament, Matthew 28:18, we find Christ claiming "all authority". Most denominations realize that He does have the power or authority in religious matters; that He is the head of the church, Colossians 1:18, yet they fail to follow that authority. Jesus made it clear that we must obey Him in Luke 6:46 when He is quoted as saying, "And why call ye me Lord (Master), Lord (Master), and do not the things which I say?"

If one is our lord, we obey him because he is our master. If Christ is our Lord, we will obey Him because He is our Master.

Of course we must recognize God as Master of the universe. And we must understand that the Word; the Bible, is His will for us. The writers of the Bible were men inspired (by) God and have written His will to us. In 2 Timothy 3:16, 17, Paul wrote, "All scripture is given by inspiration of God and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works." Since the scriptures are designed to make man perfect, why preach anything else?

Listen to Paul in Galatians 1:6, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ." Then in verses 10-12, he writes, "For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ. But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man. For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by revelation of Jesus Christ.

Raddy's helpful tips for your Dishwasher

A dishwasher will usually hold a whole day's dishes. It uses as much hot water and energy to wash 1 dish as it does a full load. Stack your dishes out of sight in your dishwasher and wait until you have a full load to turn it on.

Use only detergents manufactured specifically for dishwashers. A wetting agent helps prevent water spots on glass and silverware.

Clean the filter screen often. A clogged filter can reduce the efficiency of your dishwasher.

MRS. JIM TOM SMITH

Couple Exchange Vows

Miss Carolyn Ann Gill and Jim Tom Smith exchanged marriage vows in a 3 p.m. ceremony Saturday, May 3, in a garden setting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce A. Harris in Ovalo.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Gill of Abilene and parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith of Crowell.

Officiating was the Rev. Richard Payne of Elmwood West United Methodist Church in Abilene. Guitarist and soloist was Gary Lee Cates of Crowell.

Selections presented were "The Twelfth of Never" and "Love Song."

The couple exchanged wedding vows before a golden arch entwined with greenery, flanked by greenery-entwined pedestals accented with white mums.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length princess style gown of white satin with front and back panels of Venice lace. Her chapel-length veil of illusion was edged in matching Venice lace and caught with a band of lace. She carried a bouquet of white daisies.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Bruce A. Harris in Ovalo.

Flower girl was Wendi Harris, niece of the bride, of Ovalo and ring bearer was Stan Gidney of Wichita Falls, nephew of the groom.

GAMBELLVILLE H. D. CLUB

Michael Daniel and Billy Brown, local 4-Hers, brought the program on wild life of Texas when the Gambellville Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. Clint White April 25 for a regular meeting. Mrs. Milburn Carroll, vice president, was in charge. Mrs. David Scott gave a quiz on Arbor Day, and Mrs. Betty Chatfield gave the council report. The clubs will have a county wide tour May 23. Everyone is to meet at the court house at 10 a. m. bringing sack lunch and drinks. The museum and Copper Breaks State Park will be visited.

Mrs. Thelma Garrett was elected delegate to the 49th THDA convention to be held in September in Abilene.

Club officers were elected for next year, as follows: president, Mrs. Milburn Carroll; vice president, Mrs. James Sandlin; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. David Scott; council delegate, and alternate, Mrs. Clarence Garrett and Mrs. Betty Chatfield.

The club also met May 2, this time in the home of Mrs. Henry Johnson, with Mrs. Johnson bringing a thought for the opening exercise. The program, women and misuse of drugs, was given by the agent, Sally Sowell. A skit, one life to live, was given by Mmes. James Sandlin and Opal Carroll. The moral of the skit was "use only prescriptions given to you by your personal physician."

Sally stated that alcohol and drugs combined were five times worse than either alone, and the abuse of drugs and alcohol was growing each day.

This was the last meeting of the current year. The county wide meeting will be May 23 and then the club will disband for the summer, resuming meetings in September. The hostess gift was drawn by Sally.

Woody Lemons Is Speaker

Two types of retirement plans were discussed by Woody Frank Lemons, an officer of Vernon Savings and Loan Association, at last week's Women's Service League luncheon meeting. He was introduced by Mrs. Emma V. Traweck, program chairman.

Both plans are recognized by the Internal Revenue Service, according to Lemons. They are designed whereby an individual sets aside a percentage of his annual income before age 59 and upon retirement or age collects the savings in portions or a lump sum. He then pays income taxes at a time when he is usually making less.

The plans are for self-employed or salaried persons without a personal retirement plan. They are administered by most banks, saving and loans and some insurance companies.

Mrs. Hartley Easley donated the quilt she won on April 25 back to the WSL. A decision was made last week that 20 tickets at $5 each would be sold and the drawing would be at this Thursday's meeting.

Local Students Enter Piano Auditions

The 22nd annual piano auditions sponsored by the National Guild of Piano Teachers closed last week in Vernon with 133 students entering from this area, including a number from Crowell. Mrs. James Streit had a number of Crowell students participating in the auditions.

Misses Lesley Johnson and Carolyn Halsell were among the students presented pins for entering selections for five years in the auditions. Other Foard County pupils entering were Joyce Ann McGinnis, Gail Christopher, Brenda Taylor, Elizabeth Kincaid, Pollye Wisdom, Jodi Gafford, Lynne Johnson, Jill Bell, John Halsell, Patty Black, Stephanie Riethmayer, Brenda Henry, Susan Ayers, Jerry Ayers, Nicole Parris, Annis Brown, Nancy Brown and Patsy Williams.

News items below were taken from the Thursday, May 3, 1945, issue of The Foard County News:

A telegram received from Pvt. Joe A. Minyard by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Minyard Friday revealed the good news that he was well and on his way home. Pvt. Minyard was reported by the War Department to be missing in action on the Western front January 5 and no news concerning him in any way had been received by the parents since that time. It is probably that he has recently been released from a German prison camp.

The pastors of the Crowell churches announce that there will be city-wide praise and prayer service held at the First Baptist Church when the surrender of Germany is officially announced.

At the annual Texas A&M College muster which was held in Vernon April 21, George D. Self of Crowell was made president of Northwest Texas A&M Club.

Sgt. John P. Cogdell writes his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cogdell, a very interesting letter from Germany, where he is with Patton's Army. This is the first news his parents had received from Sgt. Cogdell since Feb. 28.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bullion of Truscott received a letter recently from their son, Paul, saying that he is somewhere in Germany.

Mrs. William Ricks and Mrs. Moody Bursey will present their music and speech pupils in recital at the Methodist Church Monday evening, May 7.

Miss Ora Mae Fox of Crowell spent the weekend with her aunt, Mrs. J. S. Smith and family at Margaret.

Pvt. Howard Ferguson left Sunday morning for Fort Meade, Md.

According to Frank M. Folsom, RCA president, television sets will be made to sell after the war as low as $150 for table models. Console types will sell for $395.

Ernie Pyle, famous war correspondent, acclaimed as the fighting men's personal reporter, has been killed by a Jap machine gun bullet on a little island off Okinawa. Pyle covered both wars by living and working with the men. He escaped death several times while covering the war with Germany.

Capt. Robert M. Magee has been presented the Bronze Star medal for meritorious service in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States in France, Belgium, Luxembourg and Germany.

On account of the shortage of materials for bags, pick sacks and other containers used on farms, wise farmers will store and save all of the cotton bags which come into their hands, D. F. Eaton, county agent, advises.

Spring training for the Crowell High School football squad came to an end Wednesday afternoon with a scrimmage between the Wildcats and a team composed of exes and seniors.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to express my thanks and appreciation to Dr. Stapp, the nurses and all hospital employees for the wonderful care given me. I would also like to express my thanks to everyone for the prayers, lovely flowers, visits, cards, gifts, food and all expressions of kindness shown me and my family during my recent confinement. Texas Talk by Bud McLain

The worst is over... probably. Statements like this have become the most common hedge in the cattle industry in the past few weeks as top executives of the beef business find reason to be cautiously optimistic in the face of rising per capita consumption and a decrease in the industry's number one problem glut. Caused by a combination of price controls, natural cattle cycle (cattle population reaches a cyclical peak every 10-11 years) and high feed prices. Glut (over-supply) seemed for a while to be unending. Consumers are solving the problem by buying more beef and accepting grassfed meat. Packers buying grass-fed cattle have to use 2 or 3 of the young pasture-fed cattle to produce as much meat as a single grain-fed animal. So the problem seems to be solving itself, but even the optimistic cattlemen (not the easiest thing to find) say it will take at least 18 months before the industry is back to normal.

Farabee Argues for Rural Areas

Austin...State Senator Ray Farabee successfully argued this week for a compromise that would take into account the rural areas of the state. The bill which was being considered would set statewide standards for ambulance service.

During the course of Senate debate Farabee argued that many rural areas could not afford the cost of meeting the standards set out in the bill. Farabee noted, "It's important that the distinction be made in legislation between the problems of some place like Houston or Dallas and areas like Foard County. The problems are vastly different and what can be afforded in Harris County can't necessarily be afforded in our rural areas."

Senator Farabee's amendment to the bill exempts counties with a population of 25,000 or under from the rigorous standards set out in the legislation. Senator Farabee explained, "It is one thing to require these standards for an ambulance that makes 5, 10, or 25 trips per day...it is quite another thing to require that of an ambulance that makes substantially fewer trips, perhaps one or two trips per month."
