The Tahoka Daisy, colorful little wildflower which apparently had its origin in this area, has been in full bloom for three weeks. Given a few timely rains, the flower may bloom until frost.

however, the beautiful little flower, for some reason, is hard to grow domestically from seed. A story on the flower appearing in the Florists' Review back in February, 1935, recommended that seed "need cold treatment to help germination. They may be planted in autumn in unheated frames. For spring planting, they should be kept in a closed glass jar for six weeks in an ordinary household refrigerator Fair stands may be received this means slower and more uneven germination.

Back in about 1898, Mrs. Jack Alley, wife of the fore. man of Col. C.C. Slaughter's Tahoka Lake Ranch noticed a beautiful little wild flower of lavender blue petals and yellow centers with fern-like foliage, growing near the lake.

About 25 years later, Mrs. W.A. Myrick Sr. of Lubbock was visiting at the ranch, which had now become the Wolffarth Ranch (now May Ranch) Becoming enraptured with discovery of the little flower, she named it the Tahoka Daisy transplanted some of the plants at her home and found them blooming freely until frost. The next year they came up voluntarily. "I found they make excellent cut flowers, lasting for days, " she wrote the Lynn County News back in 1936. "However, the first day after cutting they close; but next morning they open up and do not close again until they are withered and exhausted. the color ranges from blue to lavender, this irregularity probably due to shade of strong Flower growers initially experimenting with Tahoka Daisies include Dreer's of Philadelphia, Vestal's of Little Rock, Ark., Betanical Gardens of New York, Rex Pearce of Merchantville, New Jersey, and Burpee's of Clinton, Iowa.

Burpee's still handle the seed, and in its catalogue says "The Tahoka Daisy - Bushy, compact plants with fern-like foliage. Flowers are two inches across, composed of a single row of narrow, pointed, lilac-blue petals surrounding a golden yellow, disc-like center. Blooms early and profuely throughout the summer and fall."

The flowers were also introduced in England and Germany in the 1930's.

On This Day, a Solemn Tribute...

On Memorial Day, we pause with pride in our hearts to pay solemn tribute to those departed heroes who gave their lives that the light of freedom may shine eternally. May we be worthy of their supreme sacrifice ... and may the memory of their heroic deeds inspire us.

Let us dedicate ourselves to the cause that all which was so nobly won shall vigilantly be preserved. To our honored dead, let us pledge to guard and to cherish the priceless heritage of freedom. Thus let us pledge our thoughts, words and deeds to the high purpose of keeping America forever strong ... to be forever free.

Post Office Rates Increase

The Post Office Department today proposed parcel post and catalog rate increases totaling $123 million to help meet the added costs of pay increases in recent years.

The proposed increases which average 15.4 percent for parcels and 6 percent for catalogs - must be approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission before adoption by the Department.

Facing a $2.5 billion postal revenue deficiency in the coming fiscal year, the Administration recently asked the Congress to increase postage rates for first- and third-class mail 33 percent and second-class by 48 percent.

Higher parcel post rates (zone-rated fourth-class mail) are also needed to comply with legal requirements that these services pay at least 96 percent of their fully allocated costs.

No increase has been asked for educational materials (packages containing books and phonograph records), Under the proposals, minimum postage for parcels mailed for local delivery would be increased from 50 cents to 60 cents. For non-local deliveries, the minimum per parcel rate would go from 60 cents to 65 cents.

This 5-cent increase would apply on 2-pound parcels going to non-local zones 1 and 2 (distances up to 150 miles) Some typical proposed rate hikes are as follows: a 5pound parcel from Chicago to New York or other Seaboard cities in the Middle Atlantic states, from $1.05 cents to $1.20; an 8-pound parcel going from East Coast cities to West Coast points (zone 8), from $2.15 to $2.60; an 11-pound parcel for local delivery, from 65 cents to 80 cents. The Department estimates that for 46 percent of its parcel post volume, the increases would amount to 5 or 10 cents per package. Catalog rates will be increased a flat 2 cents per piece, both for individual-piece and bulk-rate mailings. To compensate for the extra costs of hard-to-handle parcels, the Department is requesting a 75-cent per-piece surcharge on parcels more than 36 inches long, or over 84 inches in combined length and girth. This would replace the 10-pound minimum charge now in effect for "balloon" par-

The proposal, published in today's Federal Register, invites interested persons to file written statements with the Department by May 25, and participate orally in an informal conference in Washington scheduled for June 1. After consideration of the views submitted, the Department plans to submit its final proposals to the Interstate Commerce Commission in June for new higher rates. The effective date of any increases would depend upon ICC action. If the Commission takes posals would be approved automatically. However, ICC can elect to institute an investigation of the Department's proposal. In that event, that agency has 180 days from the June filing date to rule upon the Post Office De-

Farming Bill Hits Snag In Committee

WASHINGTON gotiations over a proposed new rm bill were temporarily snagged Tuesday as Nixon idministration officials balked congressional farm bloc demands that feed grains and cotton support prices go up when production costs rise.

Clarence D. Palmby, assistant Secretary of Agriculture, told newsmen the administration was now willing to set supports for domestic wheat at per cent of the "fair earning power" parity price in a proposed new farm bill.

Raises Programmed In effect, this would allow wheat supports to go up each year in line with increases in farm costs. The parity price is tied to farm cost levels.

But, Palmby added after a losed-door meeting with a House grains subcommittee the administration will not agree to similar escalator clauses for feed grains and cotton. Chairman W. R. Poage, Dof the Agriculture Committee, in a separate interview, confirmed Palmby's account of the "Can't See Why Poage said lawmakers "are AG RULES.. Judges may retire when eligible on any date they choose and create a vacancy in their office, and a vacancy is also created when a judge is removed for cause. So ruled Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded that:

MOST POPULAR FISH At this time of the year, anglers everywhere are thinking about catching bass Whether largemouth or smallmouth, old "inch for inch, pound for pound, the gamest fish that ever swims" is America's most popular game fish species.

And no wonder! For bass are found practically anywhere in the nation, and a certain amount of skill and patience is needed to catch them

The most popular member of the bass group, according to information from the fishing experts at Mercury outboards, is the large-mouth black bass. At home both in stream and lake, the bigger fish are almost always found in impound Smallmouth black bass, also found in lakes and streams, are distinguished from large mouth by the length of the lower jaw - it never comes beyond the eye when closed. Bass are actually members of the sunfish family. Like sunfish and bluegills, make round spawning beds in shallow water. At this point however, bass differ many other fish. After the male has prepared the nest by using his tail as a sweep to clean all debris from small gravel, the female lays eggs which are then fertilized Mama bass then leaves her progeny, and the male bass begins the arduous task of guarding the nest.

The best time to catch bass is early in the season, and again when the cooler weather of autumn has arrived. Both largemouth and smallmouth bass have big appetites. They eat water insects, minnows crickets, grasshoppers, cray fish, hellgramites, frogs, small mammals, and almost any thing within reach.

During summer, bass feed the most in early morning and late evening. Largemouth bass like to feed in shallow water; smallmouth prefer to work gravel bars of swift streams or around underwater banks in northern lakes.

Greenbugs Getting Off To

Greenbugs, those little green aphids which have been attacking grain sorghum on the Texas High Plains for the past few years, have recently been observed infesting small grain sorghum in several counties in the area.

Area Extension Entomologists Dr. Don R. Rummel and Dr. Bill C. Clymer report that greenbugs have been found in some fields in Oldham. Deaf Smith, Parmer, Castro and Bailey counties. "At present, infestations appear to be scattered and spotty," they point out.

"The main thing for producers to do right now is to keep a close check on their fields . Small grain sorghum up to about six inches in height is much more susceptible to greenbug injury than larger plants. Only a few greenbugs per plant may be necessary to damage small grain sorghum and damage in the seedling stage may result in stand loss."

The entomologists point out that the extent of greenbug damage depends on greenbug numbers, plant size, stage of growth, plant vigor, moisture conditions and the presence or absence of parasites and predators. Parasites and predators are generally still in low numbers but should increase rapidly as greenbug numbers increase.

Bill Griffin, County Agent, Says....

The development of agricultural chemicals which can be safely used and with telling effect on our insect pests and dreaded diseases is one of the marvels of our age. Without agricultural chemicals, food quality would certainly drop and prices would rise. Many everyday foods such as fruits and many vegetables could become luxury items.

Agricultural chemicals are a necessity for maintaining high crop production. But, notes the county agent, they must be used with care and in accordance with proved recommendations.

Withe the arriavl of warmer weather insect populations will buildup and disease organisms will attack plants and control measures will become more important.

With the aid of pesticides, one American farmer is now producing enough food and fiber for 45 people. Back in 1957-59, he was supplying the needs of only 23 persons.

Most of the concern over the use of agriculutral chemicals has resulted from their improper use.

If pesticides must be used around the home, in the garden or on the farm, use them safely and wisely, advises the county agent. Read the container label and follow directions to the letter. There should be no hesitiancy in using pesticides when they are needed. They are safe and effective when used for the purpose so stated on the la-

FISHING

Calloway Huffaker and son, Gerald, presented an unusual program at the Rotary Club Thursday in which they told methods of fishing for black bass.

The Huffakers gave hints from their experience fishing such artificial lures as plastic worms, streamers, spinners. and plugs. They exhibited equipment they use and methods of its use.

Gerald picked up much of their knowledge, in addition to that gained from experience from so-called expert bass fishermen while working for a sporting goods firm in Austin when he was a law student a t the University of Texas.

DISTRUCTION OR PRODUCTION ... Recent thurnderstorms have meant distruction on some farms and on other farms it has meant production potential. This was the scene in the Draw community Wednesday morning 2 weeks ago after a fast falling 3 inch rain. One is the washed field where the valuable rain needed for planting has run off, working out a county road, and filling up a lake of 100 surface acres. The other is a field of parallel terraces with each row standing full of water from rain on the V.O. Caswell farm. This is only one of the many examples of the advantages of parallel terraces that could be seen in Draw, Grassland Wilson, New Lynn, and Southland areas the last two weeks where needed rain came as a blessing to some but appeared to be a curse to others. Look at the rainfall and parallel terraces in your area and you will be convinced that it pays to parallel terrace your land.

SOIL CONSERVATION NEWS

By Richard L. Christie

Turn rainfall into increased production by parallel terrace instead of a destroying monster that you have to deal with. A fast falling hard rain will wash and cause gullies in fields taking with it valuable top soil and plant nutrients. If this land is not protected two or three rains can damage land so bad that it will never regain its potential. Not often do we have these distructive rains but they can sure come one right after another in this country. This water that runs off carrying away the productivity of the land washes out roads and barrow ditches that cause expense on county tax payers. This water that runs off the land into lakes causes these lakes to be unproductive land. There are several hundred plaza lakes in Lynn County from surrounding land. This water could be held on the land making it more productive and a great many lakes could be made to produce an economic crop instead of being dead non-producing land. There is always enough water falls in a year to make a crop. It may fall in 24 hours or it may all fall in the winter when crops can't use it. If a person can hold each drop of rain on the land where it falls he stands a better chance to make a crop each year. Therefore parallel terraces can be considered a form of insurance. Farmers with existing parallel terraces say that some of the risk of dryland farming is eliminated. Why not make all the land in Lynn County less risky to farm

If water erosion is evident enough that there is a wash in the field you can be sure that some of the best part of the original soil is gone. Many people believe that virgin land or land newly put into cultiviation is the best land for farming. It is, but what makes it decrease in its desirable traits? Erosion from water is a big part of it. Valuable top soil with plant nutrients is carried away by the running water before a wash appears in a field. It takes nature more than 50 years to produce an inch of top soil and only 10 min. for man's neglect to allow it to wash away. If the water shed of a plaza is terraced with parrallel terraces it will make the lake farmable. Many times it will allow the land to be cropable all the time. In some cases a farmer hasn't made a crop in 5 or 6 years on the land. but terraces made it farmable 100 per cent of the time. Now is the time to plan for parallel terraces on your farm Contact me at the Soil Conservation Service to discuss your farm and its potential.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Tyson of Birmingham, Ala. and their son and daughter in law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tyson of Tallahassee, Fla. visited Mr. and Mrs. Claude Thomas and several other relatives in Tahoka. Mrs. Gene Tyson is the niece of Mrs. R.B. McCord.

Is your outdoor funiture ready for a busy summer? Here are some tips for grooming outdoor funiture.

To clean aluminum funiture, wash with soap and water, then rinse and wipe dry. Apply auto wax with soap and water, then rinse and wipe

Apply auoto wax or a clear lacquer spray to maintain natural luster of aluminum. Wash wrough iron and steel furniture. Use steel wool to remove any rust spots, then clean these areas with mineral spirits. Touch up these places with first metal primer, rather than an outdoor enamel for metal. Redwood and hardwood furniture can also be washed. Give redwood a yearly coating of penetrating sealer, then wax. Painted hardwood may need a coat of matching outdoor enamel.

Give rattan and wicker funiture frequent dusting but wash only once yearly. If a strand of rattan or wicker has unraveled, it can be soaked in water then rewound. Next apply one of the following protective coatings: liquid wax enamel paint, marine varnish or spray lacquer. Before using lacuqer, first remove the old paint. To clean umbrellas and hammocks, brush them, then soak with mild detergent, hose down and leave them open to dry. A hammock should be dried on its stand to avoid wrinkling.

Use a soapy sponge to clean plastic. Add a little chlorine bleach to the soap and water to clean very soiled plastic. Test colored pastics first for color-fastness by using the solution on an inconspicuous place. Rinse off with a clean sponge and water.

Next fall, give outdoor funiture this care before putting it away. It will then be better protected and, except for dusting, be ready for summer fun.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK Vanilla Sugar

Vanilla sugar will delight any Gourmet. This is a perfect gift for those who love to bake. Place two vanilla beans in a jar with I pound of sugar. Cover and allow to remain untouched for a week. After seven days you will have a priceless gift for yourself or a friend. Vanilla Sugar gives a much finer flavor than vanilla extract and it can be used in place of extract wherever it is called for in a recipe.

So the infant, the mother and the grandmother will celebrate the same day as their birthcaptain, the notorious Clyde Barrow and his woman companion, Bonnie Parker were slain by a posse of officers Wednesday fifty miles east of Shreveport, La. As Barrow and his com-

Barrow and the woman answered by reaching for their guns, but a fusillade of bullets from a dozen officers' guns riddled their bodies and their car went into the ditch. Barrow had left a long trail

Copied from May 31, 1934 For the first time in months a new house is being built in Tahoka. Messrs. Clifford and Otho Thomas have recently purchased the property lying just south of the S. N. McDaniel home, and they are building a neat five-room house with bath on one of the lots. This house has already been rented. It will be occupied by J.T. Carter and family. Mr. Carter was principal of Central Ward the past year, and will be principal at the high school next year. Clifford Thomas also recently acquired the property just east of the Don Bradley home and he is over-hauling and repainting this residence for occupancy. It has been rented to Ray Sherrod of the State Highway Dept. force.

Quite a number of other improvements in town are being made. Among these is the repainting of his residence near Central Ward by W. A. Strickland.

Also the interior of Jimmie's Cafe is being repainted and redecorated by its new owner, Mr. Cirtos (Mac) Mc. Millan.

This entertainment was sponsored by the local scout committee, consisting of Happy Smith, Frank Billman, Elder Drennon and F.E. Redwine. Rev. H.C. Smith, local scout. master says that there are now twenty-two registered mem. bers of the Tahoka organiza. tion, with fourteen others who are taking the work.

Copied from June 14, 1934 Printis Walker, assistant coach at North Texas State Teachers College, Denton, for the past two years, will be coach at Tahoka High School next year, according to announcement made this week. Rufus Hyde, Stanton, who was elected by the local school board a few weeks ago, failed to sign a contract.

Mr. Walker holds a B.S. degree from North Texas, and was an all-round athlete while a student of that institution. In addition to assisting Head Coach Jack Sisco at North Texas, Mr. Walker was official scout for the College. While Sisco was absent from the campus for several weeks last fall Walker served as head football coach. In recommending Walker, Sisco said, "I will stake my reputation as a coach in commending him as a coach."
